"Our faith in the jury system rests upon the same foundation as our faith in popular government. According to our principles of government the people can be trusted to decide everything and so with our jury. We allow the jury to decide whether the death penalty shall be exacted."

Production Will Show Decline

From Now On, Society Reports in Survey Completed.

NEW YORK, July 8 (AP)—Asserting that oil fields of the United States probably had passed their ultimate peak of production in 1925, the Mining and Metallurgical Society of America, in a special survey made public today, declared the country must look to increased oil importations and then to the development and use of substitutes for oil products.

Committee Members

Members of the committee included A. C. Veach, director of exploration for the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation, chairman; David White, senior geologist, United States geological survey; Van M. Manning, formerly director of the United States bureau of mines and director of research for the American Petroleum Institute; A. W. Anderson, former chief petroleum geologist, United States bureau of mines; and W. R. Herry, formerly of the land classification bureau, United States geological survey.

Only Two Oil Pools in the United States are now producing over 100,000 barrels a day—the Long Beach, California, and the Smackover in Arkansas, the engineers found. Not all the big pools in the country have been discovered, they explained, but the probability is that the record output of 1923 will not be exceeded unless several large undiscovered pools or new producing areas in old districts are brought to peak production within a single year.

WEATHER HELPS COOLIDGE

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 8 (AP)—Cool breezes and cooler weather aided President Coolidge in spending real vacation hours today at his summer home at White Court. For the first time since coming here two weeks ago the president shook hands with a group of visitors—members of the Oxford-Cambridge and Yale-Harvard track teams who will meet on the field next Saturday. After posing for a picture with the combined teams Mr. Coolidge was given a high-honorary for the president, led by D. C. A. Love, captain of the English squad. Otherwise it was a day of rest.

Passes Recaptured Santa Fe
Carrier in Colorado After
Shots Are Fired at Workers;
Sixteen Held in Jail.

LANARK, Colo., July 8 (AP)—Seventy-four and 50 harvest field workers who seized a Santa Fe freight train at Syracuse, Kansas, today were held by a hastily organized posse after two hours of struggle and the train was recaptured after hundreds of shots had been fired and 16 of the men captured. There were no casualties.

Armed with clubs and revolvers the posse members attacked the train as it was moving slowly. They boarded it and subjected the train crew with but little difficulty and ordered the engineer to "stop up." A brakeman then tried to get the train to start. The attack took place just east of Syracuse and when the train pulled through the conductor, whose name is not known here, dropped a note asking the posse to get out of the area. The posse here saying the train had been seized.

Deputy Sheriff J. M. Cockrum and Sheriff H. E. Taylor of Syracuse, arrested the posse. As the train slowed down near Lanark, the harvest hands alighted the posse and some of them collected their numbers in the great attempt to beat them off. The posse then started shooting over their heads the harvest hands. In the struggle the posse shot down two men and held the rest in jail. The posse here saying the train had been seized.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 8 (AP)—A baseball career extending over 35 years ended here today when "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity, manager of the Dubuque-Mississippi valley league team, turned over the management of the club to John Armstrong, part owner, with whom McGinnity had some difference. Armstrong also took over McGinnity's interest in the team. McGinnity's retirement marks the passing of one of the greatest figures in baseball. For years he was in the major league where he won the title "iron man" as one of McGraw's moundmen. BOYS ACCUSED OF BURGLARY

Youths Intercepted at Bliss, Admit Theft From Milner Farm Home, Officers Declare

Peter Kimbrough and Oscar Wright, both of Bliss, who were intercepted Wednesday afternoon at Bliss on their way, they said, to Hamilton, Oregon, confessed Wednesday evening, according to the sheriff's office, that they entered the farm residence of A. L. Hammond, five miles south of Milner, Tuesday afternoon, and stole $10 out of Mrs. Hammond's purse. They are about 19 years old.

The young men were halted at Bliss by Mrs. C. A. Owens, wife of the proprietor of the drug store at Bliss. She acted in response to a request communicated by telephone from Bliss by Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones. Mrs. Owens had spent several hours Wednesday in company with A. D. Wilson, Bliss chief of police, investigating the case in Bliss, and went to Bliss to bring the suspects back to Twin Falls Wednesday evening.

Borrow Car at Oakley
The young men, according to the sheriff's office, stated that they had gone to Oakley and falling to find work there had borrowed Nick Smith's Ford roadster to return to Bliss. They stopped at the sheriff's office and applied for work at the Hammond farm and later in the day returned finding the house unoccupied.

On their first visit they had intended to go to the Hammond farm, the son of A. L. Hammond, H. L. Hammond, "broke" the young men as they were leaving the place after their second visit and covered for a moment with one of the boys offering employment which was refused. Information regarding the appearance of the young men and description of the car in which they were traveling was communicated to the sheriff's office Tuesday evening by H. L. Hammond.

The young men stated, according to the officers, that they turned the car over to Howard Smith, son of Nick Smith, at Bliss after they had secured an opportunity to travel with two other Bliss boys who were setting out Wednesday for Moscow. They had just finished eating a lunch at Bliss and were sent to the railroad depot when Mrs. Owens, in response to the deputy sheriff's message, took them in custody and placed them under the arrival of the officers.

COURT ROLES IN SALMON DISPUTE

Judge F. S. Dietrich Requires Delivery of Additional Water to Paid up, Right Holders.

Under terms of an order issued Wednesday by Judge F. S. Dietrich in United States district court at Boise the Salmon River Canal company will be required to deliver irrigation water during the remainder of the present season on the lands of 1.57 share per acre to Marshall Barnham and 10 other landholders of the Salmon River project who hold paid-up stock in the amount of one share per acre but who have not entered into the settlement agreement under which an additional 5.7 share per acre would have been made appurtenant permanently to their lands.

The order was issued by Judge Dietrich in the case of the People's Savings and Trust company of Pittsburgh against A. E. Caldwell and others, an action to foreclose water contracts, wherein the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company and others intervened. It provides that the Pittsburgh corporation, as trustee, shall deliver to the other company 57.7 shares of stock which it holds under the settlement arrangement, and that the canal company shall be required "to transfer immediately to the other company the shares of stock of 1925 for these shares of stock to the lands of the intervenors herein."

Other Rights Not Affected.
The order is conditioned on filing by the intervenors of $2000 indemnity bond and upon payment by the intervenors of the 1925 maintenance charge in proportion to the amount of water received by each.

The intervenors, besides Marshall Barnham, are C. L. McParland, F. M. Lloyd, J. A. Standley, E. E. Larson, Thomas Sanderson, George C. Leoney, J. C. Beatty, Twin Falls Bank and Trust company, Harry P. Allen and McMaster-Lytle interests.

The stock which the trustee is required to deliver to the canal company represents stock that had been issued to lands that were cut out of the project area because of the project area was reduced because of insufficient water supply, and delivery of water to this stock will not deprive other stockholders of their share under the apportionment heretofore fixed by the canal directors for the present season. G. M. Hall, president of the canal company, stated Wednesday evening.

In the hearing in the suit which was held this week, the Pittsburgh corporation, plaintiff, was represented by Richards and Hugg of Boise, and the intervenors by Walters and Perry and T. K. Harkman of Twin Falls. Copy of the order was brought here Wednesday evening by Nelson Newman, secretary of the Salmon River Canal company, who appeared as a witness at the hearing.
