FORESTS' VALUE TO REGION TOLD

Much of Fundamental Wealth in Mountains Whence Come Wood and Water.

BIRLEY, Nov. 26.—Most of the population of the Intermountain region of Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming is provided with the high mountain masses covered by national forest lands. Why the communities in this region cling to the skirts of the great mountains is explained in "What the National Forests Mean to the Intermountain Region," just issued by the United States department of agriculture as miscellaneous circular number 47. Though at first glance the general impression is that the forests concentrated in the few high irrigated farming lands, the mining communities and the cities and towns in reality come down from the mountains, which are sources of wood and water.

"One of the characteristics of the region," says the bulletin, "is the prevalence of electric light and power in all the small towns in the vicinity of the mountains. The secret lies in the abundance of water power derived from never-falling streams emerging from the canyons. Utah alone has 41 power plants driven by water. Within the Intermountain region it has been estimated that between 2,750,000 and 3,500,000 horse power may be developed. Of this amount about half is within the national forests and the remainder upon the larger rivers which have their origin in the high mountain lands covered by these forests."

More than 50,000 irrigated farms, in the Intermountain region, producing crops annually worth approximately $140,000,000 draw their water from the national forests. The mining industry, from the time of the gold-rush in the romantic days of the forty-nine down to the present, has depended on the forests of these mountain lands for mine timbers, fuel and building material. The present cut and burn in the region amounts to about 200,000,000 board feet annually of which about one-fifth comes from the national forests. In addition to the wood and water, the mountain lands within the national forests supply forage for over 2,800,000 sheep and 400,000 cattle. Even now the fur trade is of no small importance, and the beaver are increasing under protection. Of special importance and interest is the effect of the protection by forest covers of the watersheds in controlling floods. This may be indicated by the experience which the town of Maniti, in Utah, went through some 20 years ago. Says the bulletin, "When the watershed had been subjected to overgrazing and fires, before it had national forest protection, floods were extremely frequent and destructive, rushing out of the canyon above the town and doing great damage not only to the town itself but to the fertile fields located in the alluvial fan at the mouth of the canyon. In a few years damage estimated as high as $125,000 was done. Conditions gave us that some of the more pessimistic of the inhabitants talked seriously of moving away and abandoning the town, because they believed it was destined to be forever subject to destructive floods and that prospectively could never exist there. After the creation of the Maniti national forest, in 1904, the watershed was carefully protected, the great mountains were not overgrazed generally. As a result, at the present time Maniti canyon is practically free from danger. The water flow is even and the town prosperous."

TEXAS POLITICS HAS TAKEN ON A LULL

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 26. (AP)—While officials observed Thanksgiving day, the Texas political pot did not simmer today. Governor Ferguson tonight returned from College station where she attended the football game, to face the anti-administration and their demands for a special session of the legislature to investigate the highways and other state departments. A threat of possible impeachment proceedings hangs over the woman governor in the ultimatum that they will call a special session unless she calls it by December 10. Although the legislators' petition to Speaker Leo Festerwitz asking him to call the session if the governor mentions no names, the Texas law provide that a session called by the speaker must be for the avowed intention of impeachment.

'RED' GRANGE BUCKS A WALL

His New Team, the Chicago Bears, Tie, 0 to 0, With Opponents, the Cardinals.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26. (AP)—Harold "Red" Grange today stepped from a college hero into business life as a professional football player, joined the hearty applause of a crowd of over 49,000, some $20,000 as his share of the receipts, and a black eye. His team, the Chicago Bears, played a scoreless tie with the Chicago Cardinals, their bitter rival of the south side.

"I never played against a more expert team of football players," said Grange after the game. "I don't remember how I got the black eye, but I never saw a bit of intentional roughness and I enjoyed my first professional game immensely. I did my best, but had been able to practice with the team only a few days." The Cardinals made every effort to keep their punts out of Grange's hands, but he managed to get hold of three which he ran back for 14, 25 and 30 yards. His longest gain from formation was but six yards, and that was the third longest of the game for either side.

Never say "oats" — say Quick Quaker

Get that toasty Scotch flavor; that famous Quaker flavor

ABOVE all things, it's flavor you want in oats. There is a world of difference. Originally a Scotch dish, it must have a Scotch flavor to be right. Once you taste Quaker Oats you're spoiled for ordinary brands of oats. Has that toasty Scotch tang . . . the famous Quaker flavor . . . no other brand has. First spoonful tells the difference. It's due to exclusive Quaker milling of finest, plumpiest oats. A flavor it took some 50 years to perfect. That is why it is so important to look for a picture of a Quaker on the oats you buy. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than toast! Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.

PANTHERS FEAST ON BRUIAN MEAT IN CLEAN GAME

West High School of Salt Lake Defeats Twin Falls in Extremely Fast Thanksgiving Day Encounter.

A fighting, charging Panther team, which is fighting today 46 to 0 at Lincoln field, Twin Falls was smothered by the brilliant play of the West High aggregation. Long passes snatched from seeming impossible positions and long runs for substantial gains interspersed with line bucks that netted yardage spoiled defeat for the Bruins.

Only once did the Bruins get within scoring distance late in the second quarter after a short kickoff by West High. Kelly completed a 30 yard pass to Edlund putting the ball on the West 25 yard line and West received a 3 yard penalty for offense and Potter made 6 yards more but the Panthers forward line tightened and the next two attempts at line bucks netted no yardage and Kelly passed over the goal to Miller who had his hands on the ball but failed to hold it. West High attempted to score early in the first period after several exchanges of punts. West gained on each exchange, Ekrem tossed a 15 yard pass to Miller and the Panthers kicked the ball the rest of the week. Beckering scored. From that time on the Bruins were hot water and West was a constant threat.

The Panthers backs gave a beautiful exhibition of cutting an opposing end out of business and keeping him there while either Ekrem or Potter kicked the ball. Kelly and Miller snatched several long passes from the other making spectacular catches on many of them, and when called into the backfield for an end run he usually good for 15 to 20 yards.

The Bruins were simply outclassed and the only controlling feature of the game for Twin Falls was the beautiful work of West High. Ekrem lived up to his reputation as a kicker, his kicks travelling well over the 50 yard mark and would probably average 45 yards for the game. On the Bruin side, Kelly was the star, his boots traveled 55 yards in the air and rolled 15 more before it was snatched by the Bruins. On the Panther side, Ekrem, Miller and Holmgren were the stars. Ekrem, Miller and Holmgren were the stars. Ekrem, Miller and Holmgren were the stars.

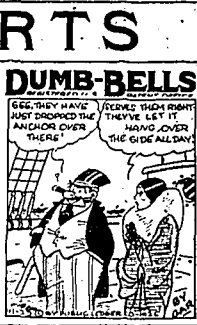

The West aggregation is well balanced with a large variety of plays and they were equally good at catching the end and passing. Most of the Bruin counters came as the result of long punts. The Bruins put up a hard fight and were playing every minute of the game but West was too much for them. The Bruin pass was not working like they should and high in the past. Kelly was hitting them high in the air and trusting to luck that fall into Bruin arms. The Panthers intercepted 4 of these offerings, three some of them for touchdowns.

Kelly and Owens played wonderful work. Both backs were able at times to elude the Panther ends and Owens did nice work at safety until he was injured late in the game. Miller also played a nice brand of football against former teammates, and late in the game when called on to kick the ball made several long gains. Red was unable to snare but one pass but that one he grabbed from a crowd. Red showed nice stuff at times in bucking the line and Berg also got away for some line plunges. Williams at guard played stellar ball in line and snared many plays over his position.

The whole Bruin team fought as hard as they knew how but the mighty Panther was too much for them. A crowd of about 1000 people witnessed the contest, the day was ideal for football and the field in excellent shape.

Coach McInyre and his 25 Pan then departed this morning for Salt Lake, this being the last game of a highly successful season having piled up one point to opponents.

1st Quarter
Twin kicked off to the Panther 10 yard line and Van Cott brought the ball back to the 30 yard line. Ekrem kicked to Owens on his own 10 yard line. Kelly made 11 yards on the line pass through the line. Kelly made 3 yards in two tries and Berg kicked to West. Berg made 11 yards on the line. Berg made 6 yards and Van Cott added a yard. Potter made nine yards in two tries and made it first down on the next play. Uter added three yards on the half ended with the ball on Twin Falls 35 yard line.

Third Quarter
West kicked off to the 10 yard line and it was run on the 22 yard line. West intercepted a pass on the 48 yard line on the first play. Ekrem failed to gain and West kicked to Miller on the 15 yard line. Kelly made a yard. Potter kicked out of bounds on his own 28 yard line. Van Cott made two yards. A pass, Ekrem to Uter, was complete for five yards and Uter ran about 10 yards on the 15 yard line. Ekrem failed to gain complete but on the next play the Bruin failed to gain on her own 10 yard mark. Kelly made a yard and Potter kicked out to both over the goal, a 40 yard pass for another touchdown. Holmgren failed to convert. West 25, Twin 0.

West kicked to Miller on the 10 yard line and Red returned it to the 30 yard mark. Red passed to Miller for eight yards. The next try was incomplete and the next one was given Twin on the play and it was received but had been interfered with. Two passes were incomplete and Owens failed to gain. Potter kicked out of bounds on the 18 yard line. Ekrem made four yards in two tries and kicked to Owens on the 25 yard line. Kelly made three yards. Owens made five more and Owens made six more on the next try. Kelly made five yards. Two passes were incomplete and Potter kicked. It was low and blocked, and West recovered on the 18 yard line. West 32, Twin 0.

Fourth Quarter
Ekrem scored on the first play and Holmgren converted. West 32, Twin 0.
West kicked off to Potter on the 25 yard line. Martin kicked and the ball went to the Bruin 10 yard line. Holmgren made a yard and Pearson failed to gain. Ekrem's kick was partially blocked and West recovered, but was offside on the play and it was Twin Falls ball on West 35 yard line. West intercepted the first Bruin pass and Uter made 12 yards around the end. A West pass was complete on interference with the receiver for a five-yard gain. Hamilton for Mar-

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 26. (AP)—Utah Aggies defeated University of Utah 10 to 6 on the gridiron here today. It was the Utes first defeat of the season and definitely put them out of the running for the Rocky mountain conference title which automatically went to Colorado Agricultural college. A crowd of over seven thousand persons witnessed the contest held on Cummings field here under perfect weather conditions.

NEBRASKA TROUNCES NOTRE DAME SQUAD

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26. (AP)—Nebraska's crimson post realized the hopes of a sea today in defeating Notre Dame's Notre Dame football team, 17 to 0. The bitter defeat suffered last year at South Bend was avenged, the all-time record was evened and Hocke was proved a prophet as well as a coach for he had predicted two defeats for his team this year and Army gave it the other one.

ALBION NORMAL WINS JUNIOR STATE CROWN

ALBION, Nov. 26.—Albion Normal won the junior college championship of Utah and Idaho here today by defeating Hileks Academy, 38 to 0. The score is not indicative of the game as Hileks put up a hard fight and the Teachers were forced to put out their stuff to win.

Hileks' college in Utah is the only other undefeated team in the conference and Albion has challenged Wisher, but the Utah aggregation has refused to play. Lapp at quarter played a nice game. Fisher, Albion right end, was on the receiving end of the game. He used passes and played a stellar defensive game.

PARIS CELEBRATES THANKSGIVING DAY

PARIS, Nov. 26. (AP)—A live turkey symbolic of Thanksgiving day was paraded down the boulevards of Paris today, receiving an enthusiastic reception from the American colony as well as French onlookers. This morning the American colony gave thanks at numerous church services. The American ambassador, Myron Herrick, spoke at the American church. The keynote of his remarks was "Our Thanksgiving is defective if it is not charged with neighborliness; the command 'Love thy neighbor as thyself' applies to nations as well as to individuals."

BOISE BRAVES WHIP WARRIORS

Capital Team Defeats Pocatello Football Aggregation With a Score of 21 to 0.

BOISE, Nov. 26. (AP)—In one of the best high school football games seen in Boise for a number of years, Loren Basler's Boise Braves defeated the Fighting Warrior aggregation from Pocatello by the score of 21 to 0. The game was a battle throughout, both teams playing hard, clean ball.

Boise was clearly the superior of the two teams and played a consistent brand which at times bordered on the sensational. Pocatello was evidently a little over-confident, and rarely threatened to score. Braves were remarkably absent from the game, but the Boise boys were fortunate in taking advantage of the few that did not occur.

SHOSHONE WHIPS IANSEN.
SHOSHONE, Ida., Nov. 26. (Special to The News).—Shoshone closed her football season here today by defeating Iansen, 70 to 0. Shoshone had things her own way all the way. Colart, Shoshone back, and Cowne, end, were the outstanding players of the game. Shoshone players staged a football banquet at the high school after the game and the graduates of the class of 1925 were the guests. The team of that year is the only undefeated team that Shoshone has produced.

GOODING TIES WITH PARMA IN CONTEST

GOODING, Ida., Nov. 26.—(Special to The News).—Gooding and Parma tied to a 10 to 10 tie here today in a pretty football battle. Gooding scored first in the first quarter when Lavey booted a drop kick from the 40 yard line. Parma came back and dropped one over in the second quarter and booted a touchdown over in the same period leaving the score 10 to 3 at the end of the half. Gooding again booted the third quarter and took the ball from the kick off for a touchdown. And again in the second quarter Gooding booted the ball on the one yard line and four downs to go a punt to kick it over one over in the second quarter. Gooding fought a hard battle with the edge in three quarters, while Parma held away from the goal line. Parma out weighted the local team and a good aggregation.

DURLEY, Ida., Nov. 26.—(Special to The News).—Durley easily defeated Jerome here today, 49 to 0. It was Durley's game all the way and Jerome was never dangerous. Durley used mostly straight football, but interspersed punts enough to make the game interesting. Hull, Bruin fullback, was the star of the game doing most of the scoring and knocking the line for long gains.

To men who make a hobby of pipes

Old peace-pipes, church-wardens, hookahs and briars make the finest sort of hobby... But don't let it run away with you. Spend all the time and money you can afford on tobacco tricks but stay off the trick tobaccos... Don't forget that what you get out of any pipe depends on what you put in it... And none of your trick experiments will go entirely sour if your pipe's always packed with sweet, spicy, mellow Granger.

If ever a tobacco was "made for pipes"—it's Granger
Fine, ripe old Burley, mellowed by Weilmann's famous 1870 method. And specially cut for pipes (rough cut) to burn slow and smoke cool and sweet—that's Granger. It's pipe tobacco from start to finish!

Whether you use little or much, whether you drink it "straight" or with cream—the name is the be-coming flavor of M-J-B's always in the cup. A lifetime of coffee experience puts it there!

Packed in heavy foil instead of tins—hence 10¢

BIG HOLIDAY TRADE.
Boys a prominent business reviewer:
"The prospects are that the holiday trade during the coming weeks will be the greatest and the most profitable it has ever been."

The year as a whole has been prosperous, with confidence and volume of business in most lines steadily growing. This last quarter promises still better profits and more widespread employment. There is no big boom, and none is expected; but what is looked for, properly enough, is a continuation and improvement of the steady, safe prosperity that has characterized 1925 so far, accentuated by the Christmas trade.

That trade will soon be rolling up like a snowball. Big stocks will be held in, and sold to big crowds of merchants at moderate above prices.
The public has money to buy, but is not really in an extravagant mood.
It wants to buy many things, not to pay all its money for a few high-priced things.

If merchants price things moderately, as they seem generally inclined to do, instead of attacking the holiday season with exorbitant prices, the prosperity quoted above will be fulfilled.

The public itself has a duty in the matter, too. That is to start early and spread its buying over several weeks, instead of throwing all the burden upon stores in the last few days before Christmas.

Moles Not Entirely Blind
Moles have eyes, but they are hidden and do not see. They dig for their food from the earth through which the animal burrows. A mole is well equipped with senses, for, in addition to its sight, it has a wonderful sense of touch, and its hearing is so acute that it can hear footsteps above its underground house. That is why moles are so hard to catch.

COUNTY AGENT TELLS OF GOOD YEAR ON FARMS

Conditions Better Than at Any Time Since War, R. E. Brossard Says in Annual Report on Work Here.

The year just closed has been an auspicious one for the farmers of Twin Falls county, according to statement of R. E. Brossard, county agricultural agent, in the introduction to the annual report just submitted to the University of Idaho extension division.

Weather conditions have been ideal to make immense crops of wheat and other grains which have been sold at a very good price, the county agent explains, and the county as a whole is in much better condition financially than at any time since the war and after the split years.

The report includes a detailed review of the county agent's work during the year in connection with several projects including: weed eradication, soil correction, poultry husbandry, dairy improvement, winter banding, insect control, and plant disease control foods and nutrition.

Improving Bean Crop

Two projects have been entered into with view to improvement of the bean crop, constituting one of the largest crops of the county. In one operation with the Southern Idaho Bean Growers' association, the agent selected six fields that were thoroughly rogued and seed used by the growers to supply patrons. Two carloads of dry land seed from Montana also were shipped in, but this seed, being of a different variety, is being at least no better and in some cases, showed considerable more disease than the other seed.

The 1925 gave far superior results than the general run, the report says. Some fields without selection of seed showed as high as 40 per cent increase in production, while the selected fields showed from one to five per cent.

In view of excellent results attending selection, it was deemed desirable to extend this activity to provide a source of seed of large quantity to supply the entire county, through a system of certification. Fields selected for this purpose were grown by W. W. Brossard, Lester H. J. Glandon, Harry Shearer, F. W. Neale, Fred Hilly, W. J. Truchon, about 1000 bushels of seed will be available from these fields for certification during the coming year.

Grain Certification

Eleven growers with 200 acres applied for grain certification. Six fields passed. One field of special stock selected. Dinkler which yielded 74 bushels per acre was secured to furnish foundation stock.

Small seed certification was continued. The total acreage was 6012 of Grimm alfalfa divided among 131 growers. A Grimm alfalfa seed growers' association was formed to facilitate work of certification. Fifteen hundred pounds of Ladino clover seed sold last year for $400.

Five samples of seed corn were secured from local corn seed breeders to determine the most desirable type for the state and county.

Exhibits of farm products were made at the county fair. International livestock exposition and hay and grain show, state seed show and Hansen corn show.

Four crop clubs with a membership of 22 were organized.

Two poultry schools were held with an attendance of 420. Several hundred birds were selected as breeding stock for 15 owners.

Seven liters of milk were entered in a one-liter contest, three competing records. Two liters made 20 cents, three cents and 67 cents per pound of milk respectively.

Pest Control

Alfalfa weevil did little damage; all demonstrations were conducted. A cooperative agreement was reached with the Amalgamated Sugar company to study and control the beet leaf hoppers. Methods for control of bean root maggot were outlined.

Under supervision of the county agent, control director, were 120 barrels of carbon bisulfide and 700 gal. 450.-Adv.

One of sodium arsenite, which is intensive cultivation, were used in his county's campaign.

Several acres of strychnine nitrate were ground up. Forty-eight pounds were used by farmers in poisoning jack rabbits. Fifteen ounces of strychnine were used in a sparrow campaign. Fifteen hundred birds were secured to supply patrons.

Practically all of the county agent work in the county, Mr. Brossard reported, is conducted in cooperation with community organizations which have, in whole or in part, been organized by the extension division in past years. The active organizations in the county that are of service in this county are: the Southern Idaho Bean Growers' association, State Ladino Clover Seed Growers' association, Idaho Fruit Growers' association, Idaho State Growers' association, Idaho County Dairyman's association, Idaho Oregon Egg Producers' association, Idaho State Beekeepers' association.

Practically any work in connection with standardization, marketing, etc., of the county agent's work can be conducted satisfactorily through these organizations.

Grange Leads Aid

The grange is now quite strong in the county, the county agent says, having now 12 branches and a Pomona. This according to the county agent is the best record of the county in respect to educational work and does away, to a considerable extent, with necessity for the agent having to hunt for local leaders.

With regard to proposed program of work for the coming year, the county agent states, the program as now in effect will be the program for the coming year since it covers practically all needs of the county in good shape. More areas will be laid out for boys and girls' club work than during the past year.

Thanksgiving Day Auspicious Event

Twin Falls Observes Holiday With Many Gatherings of Families and Friends

Thanksgiving in Twin Falls was a day of homecoming and of many gatherings of families and friends. It was a holiday that was observed by closing of stores and offices throughout the town.

Weather conditions were ideal, sunshine following rainfall of the night-time, and prevailing until late afternoon when light showers fell.

Well attended services in the forenoon were held in St. Edward's church and in the Lutheran church.

Salt Lake West High-Twin Falls football game was the outstanding entertainment feature of the afternoon, the clash being witnessed by one of the largest crowds assembled on Lincoln field this season.

Theaters were largely patronized at matinee performances and in the evening, the crowd at the doors waiting admittance.

Thanksgiving dinners, for the most part, were served at home, but many restaurants and hotels catered to family and parties of friends.
