

GRAIN BELT IS PAYING ALL IT CAN TO ROADS

Rate Expert of South Dakota Commission Declares Increase Would Work a Hardship on Country.

(By the Associated Press.)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 7.—The great grain belt of the northwest is paying the full share of transportation costs and further increases would work a hardship on the farmer, D. L. Kelley, rate expert of the South Dakota railroad commission, testified today at the interstate commerce commission freight rate hearing here.

Mr. Kelley testified a report on the grain rate situation in the northwest, particularly North Dakota and South Dakota.

"I believe the railroads would be furthering themselves by imposing still further advances in their grain rates from the Dakotas considering the unusually high rates they are already charging. If the railroads must have additional money and they are to pay it, the burden should be placed on the traffic moving from districts closer to the coast. The low haul rates are already too high."

Average Higher

Mr. Kelley declared the average car mile earnings on wheat shipped from the Dakotas are 74.7 per cent higher than in 1910 and that the car mile earnings on corn are 74.7 per cent higher.

The present rates on wheat to the Chicago and Milwaukee markets yield an average car mile earnings of more than 45c for long haul. In 1910, the average wheat earnings were only 25c. The earnings on all grains, including wheat, barley and oats, averaged about 43 cents a car mile on a 350 mile haul.

The high earnings, particularly with traffic moving such long distances, are, I believe, unquestionably inadequate to meet the operating costs. The indiscriminate variations existing at state rates, Mr. Kelley declared, have led to the making of other adjustments should be made in the rates throughout the west so that the freight burdens would be more evenly distributed.

Loss Money on Farm

Mr. Kelley said he feared 1925 acre last year in a representative district of South Dakota, and the average gain on a basis lower than the costs established by the state agricultural commission.

Vanderbilt Heiress Marries Earl Smith at Mother's Mansion

Ceremony Performed in Setting Resembling Chapel of French Chateau to Chanting of Paulist Choiristers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (AP)—With medieval pageantry, Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt was married today to Earl B. Smith in the drawing room of her mother's Fifth avenue home.

To the chanting of the Paulist choir, the ceremony was performed in a setting resembling the chapel of a French chateau, while on the sidewalk beneath the wedding canopy, a crowd waited eagerly for a glimpse of the bride.

The wedding was one of the country's most notable marriages to the son of Sydney J. Smith, and Mrs. C. Whitney Vanderbilt was attended by her father, a prominent financier and society figure, who gathered in the last of the Vanderbilt estates. Two other Fifth avenue residences of the family have been sold within the last year.

Bridal Chorus

The Paulist choir sang the bridal chorus from "The Rose Maiden," cantata by Bowen, as the bride and her father, William B. Vanderbilt II, entered the room. Her only attendant, Mrs. Frederick Church, Jr., the former Miss B. B. Church, and her sister, the bride entered alone. Sydney A. Smith was best man.

The ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Thomas Murphy of St. Patrick's cathedral, who married the bride's father. The ceremony was followed by a Virginia Fair, daughter of the late James O. Fair, of California.

Her father, William B. Vanderbilt II, uncle of the bride, Whitney O. Vanderbilt and John Hay Whitney, cousin of the bride, and Walter H. White, Jr., of Chicago, and James B. Stewart, Theodore Leishan and William Curran.

After a reception, a large reception was held in the drawing room, at which the impressed altar had been removed and the chairs to the door. The large crowd was particularly interested in the possibility of the arrival of the former Mrs. Mackay and her husband, Irving Berlin.

Condemned Man Bids Mother Farewell; To Hang This Morning

Slayer of Phoenix Policeman Will Mount Gallows Today to Pay for Taking Life.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Jan. 7. (AP)—In a state of virtual collapse after saying farewell to his aged mother and 10-year-old sister, William A. Lawrence of Muskogee, Okla., condemned slayer of Hazzard, Okla., Sheriff's policeman, tonight was spending his last hours in "death row" before he mounts the gallows at the state prison here to pay the penalty for his crime. He will be hanged at dawn tomorrow.

The condemned man exchanged but a few words with his mother and sister and then was carried back to his cell. He was unable to raise his head to kiss his mother good-bye.

During the afternoon he expressed a desire to talk to his brother "Habe," who is serving a life term in a Texas prison, and another brother at Muskogee, Okla., over long distance telephone. This could not be arranged, but he could send telegrams, with sending telegrams. The contents of the telegrams were not reported.

Warden R. B. Hims visited Lawrence in his cell early tonight and for the moment was willing not to talk beyond asserting that neither he nor his brother "Habe" had killed a man in a legal way. Livingston, Okla., has been charged.

DEADLOCK STILL HOLDS FACTIONS

Miners and Operators Unable to Agree Over Wage Demands; Each Waiting.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (AP)—Anthracite miners and operators, deadlocked in their attempt to negotiate a new wage contract and reach the coal fields, are waiting for the other side to break up their joint conference.

After holding another long session today they adjourned to eleven o'clock tonight. The operators' statement that their discussion "did not result in any definite conclusions."

The operators' statement with the table yesterday of all pending proposed wage plans and other matters vital to ending the controversy and returning industry to a steady flow of various ideas and these already had been advanced.

The evening began to fall, Chairman Evan Markle, the central men, suggested adjournment and the operators' side, and the adjournment of the Union League club where the meetings are being held. Mr. Markle is credited with holding the operators together and he is determined to continue as long as he has the ability to do so.

The only significant action by the conference was the adoption of a resolution deploring the dissemination of false reports that the operators' side had agreed on a settlement, despite the fact that no announcement had been made that the situation remained unchanged.

PACKING COMPANY IN GOOD CONDITION AS SHOWN BY EARNINGS

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. (AP)—Swift and company, Chicago packers, had net earnings after interest and depreciation of $12,279,000, and sales of $47,000,000, said the annual statement today.

"The year 1925, in business generally has been one of activity," said President E. Swift, president, in addressing the shareholders.

"During the fiscal year ended October 31, 1925, the company paid out for livestock $450,211,211, and interest $7,446,281, animals.

AIR MAIL IS DELAYED

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 7. (AP)—Mail from the Cheyenne, Wyoming, field was delayed from five to twelve hours yesterday's snow storm which blocked the route over southern Wyoming and eastern Colorado. Both mails, however, left early today, the eastern consisting of 12 hours late and western of five. Fair weather prevailed over the section tonight. A number of highways had been rendered impassable by the snow, and last night numerous motorists were forced to abandon automobiles stuck in drifts.

PROOF OF REVOLT CLAIMED

RUDEST, Hungar., Jan. 7. (AP)—Proof that a coup d'etat, in favor of Arch Duke Albert had been planned is declared to have been discovered by those investigating an alleged plot to restore the monarchy. Details of the socialist movement as learned through the investigation, revealed that 100,000 men were available, made up of 50,000 regulars of the national army, controlled by the regent, Admiral Horthy, 25,000 police, gendarmes and reserve officers, and nearly 40,000 members of the fascist organization.

$40,000 DAMAGE SUIT WITH JURY

Widow of Boise Man Sues Stage Driver for Death of Husband; Verdict Expected.

BOISE, Jan. 7. (AP)—Jury hearing the $40,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Orpha Althen Dickard of Pocatello against W. A. O'Neil, motor stage driver, retired shortly after 10 o'clock Thursday night to deliberate as to what shall be its verdict.

Mrs. Dickard and her ten-year-old son, Frank L. Dickard, are suing the stage driver to collect damages for the death of their husband and father, William L. Dickard, 60-year-old streetcar driver, who died April 25, last, in a Boise hospital after having been injured in a collision two days before, between his motorcycle and the motor stage.

Defense concluded its direct examination late Thursday afternoon with the testimony of Edmund Frost, sheriff of Ada county, concerning his observations at the scene of the wreck, which included Patrick Burroughs, who previously had testified that he was a passenger in the side car of the motorcycle which Mr. Dickard was riding. Burroughs denied that he was sleeping at the time the crash occurred, under examination by counsel for the plaintiff.

Following reading of instructions to the jury, Judge Clinton H. Harrison adjourned court until 7 o'clock at which time arguments were started.

FARMERS OF CORN BELT FIND NEW CHAMPION IN SENATOR OF NEW JERSEY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—The farmers of the corn belt, struggling for an outlet for their surplus, found a new champion today in Senator Edwards, democrat, New Jersey.

During his visit to the corn belt, he was met by a delegation of farmers who urged him to remove restrictions from the law of corn sugar. Senator Edwards said he only was sorry the bill did not further help the farmers by including corn syrup and corn whiskey.

THE OTHER END SEEMS DISSATISFIED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—The other end of the rubber industry, the British government, seems dissatisfied with the development of talks about the lines held down in the program of the State Chamber of Commerce.

AUTO OBTAINED BY FRAUD

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7. (AP)—Even the automobile in which J. K. Frank killed a check kiting financier, is believed to have fled from Los Angeles, was obtained by fraud, police were told tonight.

The search for Frank continued from Canada to Mexico. The financier is alleged to have extorted Los Angeles banks out of more than $300,000.

STATE EDITORS OPEN SESSIONS IN CITY TODAY

Midwinter Convention Will Get Under Way This Afternoon With Many Publishers From Over Idaho Present.

Business sessions of the Idaho State Editorial association which opens its midwinter convention in Twin Falls today will be held in the east sitting room of the Elks' club, arrangements to date being having been completed yesterday. The opening banquet will commence promptly at 2 p. m.

It is hoped that expeditious handling of the business sessions before the convention will permit of time being taken for an inspection of the Twin Falls vineyards and wholesale district with brief stops at one of the plants and short trips to other points of interest about the city.

In the evening a banquet will be staged at the Park hotel at which convention visitors will be the guests of the business sessions before the convention will permit of time being taken for an inspection of the Twin Falls vineyards and wholesale district with brief stops at one of the plants and short trips to other points of interest about the city.

Major E. L. Ashton will deliver an address of welcome to the visitors at the opening session at the Elks' club and Dr. H. H. Humphrey will pronounce the invocation.

Music during the banquet will be supplied by the Park Hotel orchestra. Frank L. Stephens will deliver an address as the representative of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. R. H. Collins of Chicago, head of the local publishing plants, and the producer department of Swift and company, O. W. Worthwell of Boise and Ross Benson of Salt Lake will also be heard upon topics of current interest. Joel L. Priest will serve as toastmaster.

R. E. Shepherd of Jerome will be the principal speaker at the Saturday luncheon at the Rogerson. Mr. Shepherd will speak upon the subject of the development of Idaho along the lines held down in the program of the State Chamber of Commerce.

REWARD OFFERED FOR A SUSPECT

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 7. (AP)—Sheriff Ben H. Harris today offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of a man known as W. R. Howe, whom the sheriff believes may have been the suspect in the disappearance of William H. Howard, local architect and draftsman. Howard disappeared after leaving Las Vegas, Nevada, center of his automobile belonging to A. O. Treagan, former local architect, now in Tampa, Florida. He was taking the machine to Tampa.

Sheriff Harris now believes that Howe and William Becker, who left here as Howard's traveling companion, are one and the same man. Becker, according to investigations made by the sheriff, represented himself to a forest ranger from Pinevale, Wyoming, who was desirous of making the trip to Colorado, was a check by the sheriff has disclosed the fact that no such forest ranger is known at Pinevale.

TEXAS DEMOCRAT ASKS REPUBLICAN PARTY TO TAKE A LOOK AT TRUSTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—The republican party was advised by Representative Charles D. Young, Texas, to take a look at the trusts that are running between its legs, and not merely at its own feet. Young, a foreign monopolies like the British rubber combination.

DENIES NEW CONTRACT

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 7. (AP)—Denial that an agreement had been made with a H. H. Shatz of Wheaton, Ill., was made tonight by Harold H. Rice, manager of the New Orleans branch of the American Tobacco Company. Mr. Rice expressed the opinion that Shatz had filed a suit to obtain publicity.

SEINE STILL RISING

PARIS, Jan. 7. (AP)—The river Seine today was rising rapidly, not as fast as during the preceding twenty-four hours. At the Amsterdamsbrug, a gauge at the strategic point the water level stood at 61.00 meters (about 200 feet) which was still one and a half feet higher than the record height in 1910.

MURDER JURY COMPLETE

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Jan. 7. (AP)—The jury in the "Black Diamond" case, on a charge of murdering Deputy Sheriff Eugene Riordan in the Wheatland hotel, was sworn in today after 124 prospective jurors had been examined.

Twelve of the jurors are farmers, two are business men and three are women.

EVELYN NESBIT IMPROVES

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. (AP)—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who swallowed poison Tuesday after a prolonged New Year's party, continued to improve today but still was very weak.

Meanwhile there were reports that Henry C. Thaw's divorcee husband, would be in Chicago next week and these reports led to rumors of attempted reconciliation. Thaw's attorney said they expected him here shortly but were not expecting any reconciliation. He said the conference was on business matters only.

RUBBER INQUIRY NOW UNDER WAY

House Commerce Committee Gets Testimony in Charges of British Monopoly.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—Continuing with the investigation of the British monopoly of the rubber industry, the house commerce committee today received testimony from a number of representatives of the American industry.

Meanwhile, in the house, the availability of the investigation was questioned by several democratic members. Representatives Black of New York and Connally of Texas, both asserting that the committee should turn its attention to monopolies in this country over which congress has legislative power.

Hoover's Position

Secretary Hoover's position in urging the rubber inquiry amounted to "propaganda plus" in the opinion of Mr. Black, who charged that American companies are doing the faithful Hoover on the British lion just when they are about to inflate prices.

P. A. Scherling of the Sollerling Rubber company of Akron, Ohio, told the committee that Great Britain should squeeze us to death over night if it desired to prove the advantage of its control over crude rubber.

M. O. Rutherford, vice president of the I. I. Goodrich company of Akron, testified that American rubber manufacturers were certain to suffer loss of millions of dollars when the inevitable crash comes in rubber prices, but desired markets stability even at such a cost.

A. L. Viles, general manager of the Rubber of America, held that the solution of the rubber problem lay in an increased production outside-British jurisdiction, suggesting the Philippines as a potential source.

A committee of British dealers which visited this country soon after the Stevenson act went into effect November 1, 1922, "broke its word," Mr. Scherling said, by refusing to accept the mounting prices by releasing greater supplies.

Mr. Robert Horne, was talking childishly, when he said the Balkan tin demand was chiefly responsible for higher prices. Mr. Scherling continued, holding the Stevenson act responsible for the situation.

Check-Up Made

Careful checking by the sheriff has shown that the leaving Las Vegas the machine next turned up at San Diego, December 12, where W. H. Howe advised for a time to accompany him to go to El Paso, Sheriff Harris said. Howe stopped at the Huss hotel in El Paso, Texas, where he was held at Engle Pass, Texas, joined him. They left San Diego December 29, going to El Paso December 29, going on to Kansas City by train. How was picked up by Sheriff Harris, going on to El Paso, where he was held at San Antonio.

Description of Howe, telegraphed to Sheriff Harris, read tally with that of Becker, by those who saw the man here before he and Howard left for Tampa.

TEXAS DEMOCRAT ASKS REPUBLICAN PARTY TO TAKE A LOOK AT TRUSTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—The republican party was advised by Representative Charles D. Young, Texas, to take a look at the trusts that are running between its legs, and not merely at its own feet. Young, a foreign monopolies like the British rubber combination.

The president sincerely believes that the way to cure the ills of the country is to give the wealth to a few great interests, said Mr. Connally in speech in the house.

"I wish the president would go out to Iowa, walk down the long rows of corn, and see the farmer, and see the debts of the farmer. I wish he would go into the west and see the man who has been driven out of the real estate, instead of being consumed by moving picture cameras."

DENIES NEW CONTRACT

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 7. (AP)—Denial that an agreement had been made with a H. H. Shatz of Wheaton, Ill., was made tonight by Harold H. Rice, manager of the New Orleans branch of the American Tobacco Company. Mr. Rice expressed the opinion that Shatz had filed a suit to obtain publicity.

Seeks Riches

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—Legislation for the settlement of railroad labor disputes after the recent Coolidge had been approved of agreements reached between the employers and employees.

Chairman Watson of the senate interstate commerce committee, who was a White House dinner guest tonight, W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, and a delegation of heads of bonded unions, including J. D. Robertson, W. N. Dank and H. M. Jewell, with Donald H. Richberg, secretary for the labor organizations, were among those who discussed the matter with the president.

Later, Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the association of railway executives, who conferred with the president yesterday, joined with Mr. Richberg in making a statement declaring that railroad employers and employees had reached an agreement on legislation to create a board of mediation for railroad labor disputes, with provisions for arbitration in cases of threatened disturbance. The statement made no reference to abolition of the railroad labor board although this was implied in the proposal. The statement summarized the provision of the bill.

"First—That it shall be the duty of the parties to exert every reasonable effort to make and maintain agreement."

"Second—All disputes shall be first considered in conference between the parties directly interested."

"Third—Adjustment boards shall be established by agreement which shall have jurisdiction over pay, rules or working conditions."

"Fourth—A board of mediation is authorized."

ALETTA JACOBS WINS FAME FOR WOMEN'S FIGHT

Equality of Sexes in all Social Aspects Ideal of Famous Dutchwoman; Responsible for Many Changes.

(By the Associated Press.)
TIB HAGUE, Jan. 7. (AP)—Equality of sexes in all social aspects has been the aim of Aletha H. Jacobs ever since she was a girl. Her influence through her influence Dutchwomen have achieved more greater political and economic independence in the last thirty years. Her "dutch" name stands among the prominent women of present-day Holland.

When she was born nearly seventy-two years ago, women did not count for much except as the wives of their husbands or the daughters of their fathers. Dutch universities did not admit of admittance to their students when Aletha made up her mind to become a doctor. At twenty-five, however, she had gained the degree of doctor of medicine from Groningen University and began practice as the first woman physician in the Netherlands.

Since then, few international women's congresses have been held without her conspicuous presence. Collaborating closely with Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, and in personal contact with all the feminist movement leaders in Europe, Dr. Jacobs shared the struggle for a right and franchise in the face of a full blast of sex prejudice.

The noted suffrage pioneer refused all concessions of five years' franchise, despite her advanced age. The reactionary spirit which she saw came all over the world in the matter of women's social position after the war, did not come unperceived to her.

"The men felt themselves heroes and superior beings, compared with women," she told the Associated Press. "I thought it was the duty of the war department was their work and would never have happened had we lived under a world government of men and women for some decades."

"The world came as a tremendous disillusionment to Dr. Jacobs, whose firm conviction had been that men and women society had become too advanced to tolerate such a catastrophe. She threw herself heart and soul into perfect propaganda.

Following a world tour in 1912 with Mrs. W. W. Webb, and in 1913 with Mrs. W. W. Webb, she was named one of the champions of her sex in many world congresses. Dr. Jacobs and June Aldrich were the first to make the point to urge the anti-war resolutions of The Hague International Women's Congress upon the governments of the belligerent countries of the United States.

TRUSTS FAVORED SAYS DEMOCRAT

Representative of Texas Attacks President Coolidge in Business Interests.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—President Coolidge was attacked in the House today by Representative C. W. Whaley, Democrat, Texas, who contended he had encouraged the development of trusts.

The executive, he charged, has sought to "strangle" the tariff commission and to destroy the federal trade commission, a body created by congress to control trusts.

"I do not challenge the sincerity of the president," Whaley declared, "but I do believe, however, that the president has been so possessed during his life that he has not been able to do what he should do to create happiness and prosperity in the world."

Whaley said that the president had been so possessed during his life that he has not been able to do what he should do to create happiness and prosperity in the world.

CONTEMPT CASE BEFORE SENATE

Officials of Two Departments to Tell Why Aluminum Company was Not Made to Answer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—Officials of both the department of justice and the federal trade commission will be called tomorrow as witnesses in the senate investigation of the failure to bring contempt proceedings against the Aluminum Company of America.

This was decided today by the senate judiciary committee, which deferred until tomorrow the beginning of an inquiry sponsored by Senator Walsh, Democrat, and involving a company in which Secretary Mellon is a large stockholder.

Chairman Canning was directed to request the attendance of Attorney General Sargent and his assistant, William J. Donovan, and Chairman Van Fleet, Secretary Olin B. Johnson, and Chief Examiner Millard E. Hinton of the trade commission.

The full scope of the investigation may depend largely upon testimony of these witnesses. Aside from the failure of the department of justice to bring contempt proceedings for charges of violation of a court decree, the inquiry will be directed to the question of the extent to which the department has been handicapped by the refusal of the trade commission to make available its testimony taken from the files of the aluminum company.

OYSTER SHELLS DENOTE EXTENT OF PROSPERITY

Man Made Mountains Along Long Island Shores Point to Industry of Fishermen; Villages Are Busy.

(By the Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Man-made mountains are changing the landscape along the Long Island coast. The smooth stretches of wind swept beach now are the site of these synthetic hills.

Despite the fact that the mountains are neither artistic nor utilitarian in themselves, community pride of each hamlet appears to be direct proportion to the size of its local mountain since the size of the heap measures the town's prosperity.

It is estimated that these mountains have come to speak of their piles of oyster shells as a sign of prosperity.

Runaway Girls Only Permitted to Dance Two Nights a Week

Woolful Tale of Diah Washing and Restrictions Told Pecota-Police by Pair.

POCATELLO, Jan. 7. (AP)—A woolful tale of washing dishes every day and being permitted to dance the "Charleston" and two nights a week was recounted today at the Pocatello police station by a pair of pretty fifteen-year-old girls in explanation of why they ran away from their homes in Salt Lake a week ago.

The girls, who were taken into custody Wednesday while enjoying their new freedom at a local dance hall and are being held at the Pocatello station. They gave their names as Dorothy Sweet and Martha Hamilton, both natives of Salt Lake.

While telling of their deary routine lives at home and the fact that they were not allowed to dance or during one of the runaways, a trim little blonde with a rickish hair cut and a pair of white teeth, demonstrated her skill at dancing the "Charleston."

To keep the household duties free for the returning girls, the officers require them to wash their own dishes while being held at the city jail.

STOCKHOLDERS ARE ASSAILED

Judge Criticises Plaintiffs in Suit Brought by Owners of Stock of Road.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Mullau, sitting in the court brought by the minority stockholders of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad against the former directors of the road demanding an accounting, today classified the plaintiffs as "Rip Van Winkles."

Justice Mullau's remark came after introduction of voluminous evidence dealing with previous testimony and decisions in other cases resulting in the road's reorganization. His action counsel for the minority stockholders of the road did not feel that they had been guilty of laches, which means sleeping on one's rights.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS START LIBRARY

Collection of Books About Native Americans Gathered at Washington by Organization; States To Help.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—One of the most unique libraries in the country, a collection of books by and about native Americans, is being assembled at headquarters here of the Federal Federation of Women's Clubs.

Bought primarily as an information center for club women, the collection will represent a cross section of American literature in the most fitting form. Each state being asked to supply at least 12 books by and about persons of its own race and history. The library numbers more than 300 volumes.

Available to Clubs.—It is the purpose of the federation to make the library available to individual clubs and members either through mailing of requested volumes or copied extracts, or by sending where specified books may be found.

Mark Twin Books.—Among the books representing Connecticut are Mark Twain's "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" and "Huckleberry Finn's" "Tom's Cabin."

The poems of Sidney Lanier, George Washington Carver, and while Tennessee gave a volume of his life. Two works on Woodrow Wilson are included in the collection, one by Joseph Daniels from North Carolina and the other by Henry Allen White, from Kansas.

From Massachusetts came the complete works of Ralph Waldo Emerson and the complete poems of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. A copy of state poet Benjamin Franklin's autobiography, and "The American Boy" by John Fluke.

"The American Language" by H. L. Mencken and "Old Masters in the March" by Robert Lynd were received from Maryland. North Carolina's contribution included "Lilies from Cotton Lands" by John Charles McNeill and "Nursery Folk Lore Stories" by Sully Stanton Patton.

Recent works of Joaquim Miller, "The Man with the Blue" by Markham, and volumes by first Harriet were sent from the Florida. Indiana sent Beveridge's "Life of John Mar" shall.

At least one present exhibit number will be represented in the collection. It includes Secretary Mellon's "Taxation: The People's Business," by Pennsylvania.

Miss Josephine Jaquin, secretary of the headquarters research department and in charge of the library, feels that particular care should be taken of one of the books from West Virginia. It is an excellent and timely work of West Virginia and Pennsylvania's Dr. Doolittle. The West Virginia Federation had great difficulty in obtaining a copy of the book, which was first printed in 1921. Only a few copies still remain in the state, one of them being treasured in a safe at the state library.
