

BIT OF DRAMA REGISTERED AT RATE PROBE Texan Takes Commission Members Back to Frontier Days to Emphasize Protest Against Freight Charges.

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 26.—(Arguing) against proposals by western railroads to increase freight rates generally in the territory involved in rapid succession today in the interstate commerce commission's western rate investigation. Texas, who today representative appeared in support of the carriers' separate petition to raise livestock rates ten per cent. The first bit of drama thus far in the real arguments was furnished in the appearance of Representative Hurd, democrat, Texas, who told the commissioners back to the whoping and whistling days when cattlemen and sheepmen drove the "mossbacked mavericks" to emphasize what the present live stock rater was up against. Hurd, he said, not as a member of congress, but for himself and other cattlemen, Mr. Hurd said that his own "mossbacked mavericks" recent experience in referring to the old trail driving method of shipping cattle to every what he termed "exorbitant freight rates." Challenges Roads' Counsel He challenged the railroads' counsel, whom he described as "cowboys" to show where any cattler grower in Texas had earned more than ten per cent in the last five years and urged establishment of the pre-war level of livestock rates and removal of restrictions on the movement of sheep in double deck cars. S. O. Outlaw, of the Santa Fe, opposing a reduction in livestock rates, said that the commission would have to take into account the fact that the present rates would have an effect of higher yield market. He said present cattlemen in the lower section are getting below the "lowest possible lawful rate."

MANILA, May 27.—(Thursday) government forces lost three more bands of Lanao district have been captured in a new attack by Philippine constabulary, in which government forces lost three men killed and two wounded, says a dispatch to the Manila Tribune today from Higon, Lanao. Lieutenant Little, of the constabulary, was slightly injured in the head during an attack on one of the outlaw strongholds, in which the Philippine constabulary, under Sabuan, were entrenched. Moro casualties are estimated at between 40 to 70 killed.

DEBT ACCORD FACES FRENCH Recovery of Franc and Surrender of Krim Leaves Agreement Principal Subject.

PARIS, May 26.—(AP)—The recovery of the French franc and the announcement that Adolf Hitler, the German leader, has surrendered, leaves the Washington debt agreement by the principal bone of contention between the government and the opposition on the reopening of parliament tomorrow. Today's official announcement that Krim is on his way to the French lines has robbed socialists and communists of one of their favorite points of argument in the current debate. The opposition leaders, in their desire to put the Hauptmann into the hands of the government, had hoped to have their interpretation of the debt accord as they have threatened. "Holding on his way to the French lines," the debate on the accord is deferred until the question of ratification comes up immediately in the coming week. It is most likely that this procedure will be adopted.

DAMAGES FOR BROKEN NOSE AMOUNT TO $3500

ST. LOUIS, May 26.—(AP)—A jury, only two of whom had ever played baseball, today returned a verdict awarding $3,500 for a broken nose sustained last year when a home run from the late St. Louis slapper, Jimmie Bush, struck him. At the time Hays was struck he was sitting in the right field bleachers. A moment before he had been an ardent fan and had yelled with much gusto "Home!" when he hit. "I'm sick in this way, Jimmie, I'm sick in this way, Jimmie, I'm sick in this way," he originally for $15,000, was against the St. Louis National League ball club.

FARM LEADERS IN SENATE URGE CORN BELT BILL

McNary Relief Measure Is Dominating Topic in Upper Chamber; Cummins of Iowa Delivers Lengthy Endorsement. (By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 26.—(Confident) of their ability to get the McNary corn belt farm relief bill through the senate, agricultural leaders here today before that body today as the dominating topic. During a two hour endorsement by Senator Cummins, republican, Iowa, of the bill which is similar to the Hansen bill rejected by the house not a vote of dissent was raised although numerous senators interjected support to his argument. The discussion will be carried on tomorrow by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, another supporter of the proposal, although the migratory bird bill is the unfinished business before the senate.

Two Girl Babies Linked Together in Such a Way as to Prevent Normal Locomotion; Have Perfect Bodies.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 26.—(AP)—The two girl babies, perfect in every respect save they are linked together facing each other whose legs were fused Saturday are being sustained by bottle feeding and give every indication of life and vigor of the normal babies. "The babies are here; a doctor's duty is to do what he can for them," was the comment of Dr. Thomas A. Swartz, attending physician for the twins, Lucy and Jessie Melick. He said an operation to separate them would prove fatal. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Melick are deeply anxious by the strange birth. The mother, born between mother love and the anguish of the handicap of her daughter, has expressed hope that the babies will grow from the mortal coils in which they are so ill adapted. "Differ From Famous Twins" Unlike the famous Siamese twins who were joined in such a way as to permit locomotion, these twins who are joined at the pelvic girdle, would never be able to walk or move in anything like a normal manner. The babies seem to live separate lives, sometimes one sleeps while the other is feeding. "Abnormal" says that should illness come to one it would affect the other. Similar twins have been known to survive for years. X-ray studies show that each child is complete in heart, lungs, stomach and other internal organs, except that they share one colon.

BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS HEAR ORDER ASSAILED

Senate Judiciary Committee Prepares to Discuss Legality of President's Action; Opinion Is Divided. (By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 25.—More backing on the prohibition question was heard today in both houses of congress as the senate judiciary committee prepared to discuss the legality of President Coolidge's order authorizing employment of state and local officers as federal enforcement agents. In the senate, Senator Edwards, democrat, New Jersey, a leader of the wets, roused his assault on the order, while Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, a dry, delivered a general prohibition speech, assailing the wets for what he termed "mispropaganda and asserting that no one who believed in law enforcement would support the referendum on the prohibition question. While discussion was developing into sharp hits between wet and dry waders, Chairman Cummins, of the judiciary committee, announced that it would hold informal discussion tomorrow under the senate resolution directing it to report as to the legality of the order. He said that this was purely a question of law and that so far as he was concerned he would not favor any hearing, public or private.

BAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—(AP)—The presidential order permitting employment of state and county police officers as federal prohibition enforcement agents, appears to be apiked for the time being on the rocks of congressional and other opposition. In a conference with W. W. Anderson, prohibition administrator for southern California and Arizona, Colonel Neil M. Green, northern California and Nevada administrator, advised Anderson not to put his plan into effect "until the storm blows over." Anderson said that he would wait the "untill the storm blows over." "The issue is being clouded" by political attacks, Colonel Green said. He is the originator of the plan on which Anderson has based his opposition to the order. Colonel Green said that he did not expect to put his plan into effect for two months or more but he is more concerned over that there is a real possibility of the order's being annulled. Churches Adopts Resolution Permitting Admittance of Members Without Rite of Immersion; Is Compromise.

Baptists Adopt Resolution Permitting Admittance of Members Without Rite of Immersion; Is Compromise. (By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 26.—(AP)—A spirit of compromise prevailed at today's session of the Northern Baptist convention and a threatened split between fundamentalists and moderates was amicably averted. After several hours debate, a resolution was adopted providing baptismal churches to admit members without the rite of immersion but reserving to immersed baptists the right of representing their churches at national conventions. This action followed the tabling of an amendment to the bylaws of the convention proposed at Seattle last year which would have effected the immersion of all members at national conventions. Dr. W. H. Riley, of Minneapolis, head of the Baptist Bible union, sought to amend the resolution which was adopted to stipulate that the convention should not recognize any Baptist church until it had been organized and practiced as a pro-catechism membership.

Sir Howard's address before the American National Association of Credit Men here tonight, which was a critical one, said that "on the whole, I think not only Great Britain but all the other nations have benefited, including our friends at Moscow, may be congratulated on the outcome. The committee will be set up, and I believe it has been settled, as I feel convinced it must now be settled, and the missing industries will be able to work under the same conditions, to added, "we may look forward with a new hope to an era of internal peace and prosperity which will be a step in the progress of the world towards the total export to the British Isles."

NATIONAL BANK GROWTH STEADY

Loans, Discounts and Investments Compare Favorably With World War Period.

BABSON PARE, Mass., May 26.—(Special to The News.)—The McFarland National bank, after a number of changes, has now been adopted by the assets in Washington. The bank amendments, which would restrict national banks in establishing branches and so far set out. To place national and state banks on an equal footing in the branch-making is generally a difficult job. In the meanwhile, however, the growth of our national banks is extremely steady.

As an illustration, look at the loans, discounts, and investments of these institutions over the past few years in comparison with the beginning of the war. There was a slight drop to about fifteen billion dollars in 1921, but otherwise the figures are well over the fifteen billion dollar mark each year. Back in 1917—the beginning of our war—national banks were up to the twelve billion dollar mark.

Bill Progresses Slowly.
Farm relief legislation in Washington moves slow progress these days, in fact one obstacle after another crops up. The economic fact in the problem of American agriculture is that agricultural production in the United States is about 20 per cent in excess of the requirements of our own population. Plenty of land and the use of machinery, giving a high productivity per acre, are the reasons for this surplus. A part of the surplus must be sold in the world market. Therefore, the prices of the great staple products, especially grains and cotton, are made in competition with world production and the domestic price is governed by the world price. This must follow as a matter of course, when the foreign price is higher than the price in the producing country.

Trade Route Over Toile.
The Norse's feat in sailing over the North Pole, says the Associated Press, has again brought up the talk of a trade route over the top of the world. But though a number of men have voyaged half around the world might be saved, there would first be such a question of the cargo. Last of all, the demands of a bonus of profits to those who would loan money for new expeditions, which they are for something to make people leaner, happier or more useful. Certainly those willing to risk their savings in the construction of something useful, but has less than usual, should receive more than those who loan on stable industries and ordinary investments. As for bonuses, they are generally due either to the unorthodox attempts to get something for nothing or to mistaken judgment.

Bales Irregular.
The trend of sales during April was irregular, but with a generally firmer tone toward the end. Due to the stimulus of more favorable weather. While production activity probably will continue to maintain a moderate level during the next month, consumer sales during May should continue to hold up well and register an average of 5 per cent increase over last year's level.

Strike Smoke Lingers.
The struggle in England today is the outward expression of the fundamental weaknesses in England's labor situation which have been developing for more than 10 years. Doses and subsidies afford only temporary relief, they merely postpone the inevitable day when the real labor problems must be faced. Two facts remain alike clearly in the air: British wages and living standards are low and her natural resources are limited.

The largest pair of shoes that ever dragged into a big league ballpark nearly caused the proposed banishment from the game of one of the most terrific hitters and greatest first basemen of all time. Which introduction makes you acquainted with James Loney Billings, aged 29, formerly of Ogelsby, Illinois, and now a rather prominent resident of dear old Saint Lacey.

In the year of 1919, a former teacher at day school, who coached the branch of Ogelsby, also known as school, wrote to Loney and told him about a good looking prospect who could be had for the price of a railroad ticket to St. Louis.

"Send him," replied Loney. A few days later Loney, who had been playing with the town team in Ogelsby, and who never had been outside the place, arrived in St. Louis.

When he got to the hotel he was to go out to buy himself a pair of baseball shoes. He asked for "a nice pair of big shoes—they must be comfortable."

The clerk remembered a pair that had been in stock for years—size 15. He dug them up, polished on their soles and the comfort of them—

—it says so. "I saw you when you were in Ogelsby, a big country boy, arrived at the ball park, introduced himself to Loney and was told to go over to first show what he could do.

Tomorrow, wearing his new shoes, he could do little but fall over his own feet. Every time he tried to make a quick move he'd stumble or fall. He was sent to the pipe to try his luck with a hat and the shoes, which curled up several inches at the front and almost folded over at the sides, made it impossible for him to do any hitting, for he'd fall about every time he swung.

"If that fellow is a ball player," commented Loney, "I am a gentlemanly parrot."

Charlie Barrett, the Cardinal scout, who had taken a few glimpses of the 6-foot country boy had noticed those shoes—and remarked:

"Maybe his shoes can't locate his wearing on his feet that makes him so clumsy."

"No, he's just naturally clumsy," said Loney. "The boy won't do and that's all there is to it."

And Loney gave orders to "get rid of him." Mitchell, a town that had a team in the North Dakota league, wanted a first baseman. They got Loney, and Jim, in 1920, by paying $7,500 for Mitchell, his $12 and fielded well.

The following year he was sent along to Houston, Texas. He again fielded in satisfactory manner, but his weakness was in hitting. His mark that year was only .227. That wasn't very impressive—even in Houston.

RED LINE MARKS OPEN SPACE FOR SHOPPERS' CARS

Modified Parking Time Limit
Invoked in Connection With Merchants' Voluntary Agreement to Solve Problem.

Ten minute parking of automobiles on a space on the curb of four principal business blocks has been established by Twin Falls city council with view to solving one of the most difficult of Twin Falls' traffic problems.

A space of 50 feet in each block was marked with red paint. Within the space thus marked cars are to remain parked for not more than 10 minutes. The purpose is to provide a clear space into which patrons of local business houses may drive their cars to load their purchases.

This plan is to be tried out in connection with the voluntary agreement of Twin Falls business and professional men that is to be made effective next Saturday. Under this agreement business and professional men give up their privileges of parking their cars at the curb within a designated area in the business district.

The 10 minute open space parking plan and the business men's voluntary agreement, under decision rendered by the city council and a chamber of commerce committee, will be tried out for a time as a substitute for the 15 minute parking limit in the business district that was provided for in an ordinance amended at the suggestion of the mayor and submitted at the last council meeting. The proposed ordinance is being held in abeyance pending the result of the test of the other measures.

A principal purpose of all of these measures is to make it easier for shoppers in Twin Falls to transact their business that brings them to town.

Mayor Tells Objective
"Heavy motor traffic in Twin Falls is gratifying to all Twin Falls citizens," Mayor E. L. Ashton said Wednesday evening. "There is in no quarter any wish to curtail this traffic but it has grown so heavy that some method must be worked out to handle it in the principal streets last Saturday evening there were four lines of parked cars, leaving only a narrow lane for moving cars. Such a situation is dangerous in the extreme."

"We are going to try out the plan of providing for limited parking in a certain place in each block to provide conjunction with the business men's open space for shoppers' cars in a voluntary agreement to refrain from parking in the business district during business hours alone."

W. H. Eldridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce committee in charge of business men's voluntary agreement, stated Wednesday that the plan had been approved by all of the business men occupying ground floor establishments in the business district and that the committee would begin today to circulate the agreement among professional men and occupants of second floor offices.

VETERAN EVANGELIST VISITOR IN TWIN FALLS

George W. Wilson, 70 years old, street corner evangelist, who has preached to 100,000 persons in 40 states, arrived in Twin Falls Wednesday and preached in the afternoon and evening at the corner of Main street and Shoshone street.

"I am not out to dispute with the adherents of any faith," Mr. Wilson said referring to the fact that in Twin Falls, Lake last week he had been given a copy of the Book of Mormon and other literature of the L. D. M. church which he has since been reading. "I am only trying to preach Christ and the great fact of immortality," he said.

Mr. Wilson, whose home is in Ionia, Michigan, is making a trip to the Pacific coast and has been on the road 21 days since leaving Ionia. He is a former soldier of the United States army, having enlisted in 1870 in Indianapolis and serving a time under command of the late General Nelson A. Miles, and helping to establish the cities and other pioneer towns. He worked for many years as a printer.

PROMISES PLANT TO CAN CHERRIES

Ogden Concern's Manager De- cides to Install Equipment for Handling Twin Falls' Crop

William Craig Conning company of Ogden will establish in Twin Falls this year a plant for canning sour cherries, it was stated here Wednesday evening by William Varney, treasurer and general manager for the Ogden concern, following two days' investigation of production and resources of this region.

Whether the plant will be established in time to handle this season's crop, Mr. Varney stated, depends upon whether it will be possible to obtain in Ogden some of the equipment that will be required. If it is necessary to send to Chicago for this equipment, Mr. Varney stated, the plant cannot be established in time to handle this year's crop, but work on it will go forward with view to handling next season's crop.

While cherries grown in this region have been purchased for canning this season at the company's Ogden plant, favorable market exists for canned sour cherries, Mr. Varney stated.

Evidence in support of the claim of Turner H. During the time Mr. Heckman acted as its attorney, the company was drawn into litigation involving the title to the site, and he appeared at several hearings in district court and the state supreme court in the company's behalf. The case for Mr. Heckman is being conducted by W. L. Dunn and Harry Bennett.

Directors of the Farmers' company are represented by M. J. Sweeney of Sweeney and Sweeney. Directors in the court room Wednesday were J. V. Bonner, E. A. Little and H. Murray. Other members of the directorate are A. L. Hurst and M. Homing.
