ADOPT PROGRAM TO BUILD IDAHO DAIRY INDUSTRY

Butter and Cheese Makers of District Declare for Higher Quality Product and More Efficient Methods.

Dairy products manufacturers of Idaho hold a strategic conference for stimulating development of Idaho's dairy industry. W. A. Thompson, state commissioner of agriculture, presided at a meeting of more than 50 dairy products manufacturers of Gooding, Lincoln, Jerome, Blainden, Shoshone and Twin Falls counties assembled in the county agent's office here Thursday evening.

Butter and cheese makers of the state, the commissioner declared, by turning out a high quality product and adopting efficient methods to reduce overhead costs, can benefit their own business and at the same time pay a higher price to producers, furnish the strongest possible foundation for expansion of the producing industry.

Manufacturers at the meeting agreed that their greatest problem is getting good quality raw product, and they recommended a campaign of education on factory efficiency and control of milk and cream in which should be included the cooperation of producers, county agents, dairy specialists and the strongest possible foundation for expansion of the producing industry.

The meeting declared unanimously in favor of forming a district organization of butter and cheese makers to be a part of a state-wide organization.

It also declared for a demonstration school on factory efficiency and control of milk and cream to be held in different districts of the state this winter.

It referred to study by committees to be appointed by the commissioner of agriculture, the proposal for establishment of joint state and federal inspection service on dairy products shipped out of the state, to give federal certificates of grade on every lot of butter, cheese or eggs going out of the state to market.

The meeting was one of a series of similar district meetings of the dairy products makers being held in the different districts throughout the state, and the conclusions reached, by it, according to the commissioner, coincide with those reached at meetings previously held in Idaho Falls and Pocatello. A fourth meeting is to be held at Nampa next Saturday, and a meeting in the north end of the state will be arranged at a later date.

Arrangements for the meetings have been worked out by the state bureau of dairying and its director, Donald Wood, with other officials of the centrally located dairy products factory operator, took an active part in the discussions. Mr. Wood, it was announced, will with other university dairy specialists and other cooperating agencies, place the advantage of his

Gillis Candidate Again for House

Gillis of Miller, who served as speaker of the house at the last session of the Idaho legislature, Thursday filed papers in the county auditor's office for the republican nomination for reelection to the house of representatives. He is the only candidate thus far to file in this county for nomination for the legislature on any ticket.

DEATHS

The lady was taken to the DeWitt mortuary. Arrangements for funeral services have not been completed.

A "DRESSED UP" PROGRAM

Radio and Columbia Artist Knows Popular Tastes

The John Ross Reed Company, composed of musicians who are gifted historically as well as musically, has the distinction of reaching artistic heights in "staging" a concert program with rich settings and unique lighting effects. As we all know, novelty features aside from musical excellence make a recital stand out from the ordinary straight concert program. Many big artists have added special costume groups to their straight programs, but the laurels must be passed to John Ross Reed for "dressing" his entire program and giving it an atmosphere of reality that makes each musical number a miniature opera. This company will give Chautauque audiences something new—and the novel feature will not in any way detract from the quality of its musical offerings. To the contrary, they are enhanced by this quality, as they give the "story" behind each composition.

Mr. Reed is well known on both opera and concert stages and is after a long career, including a recent graduation from the University of Virginia, he studied with the best teachers in this country, before going to Europe to finish up such matters as de Renzi and Paganini. He is one of the popular artists of the Columbia Graphophone Company, and the exhibit which they promote in this manner the school's faculty has grown to two hundred pictures. It also included several pieces of statuary. At the last exhibit, inquiries were received from Paris and London.

Chautauque season tickets are on sale until opening night for $2.50 for adults, less for the youngsters. Buy them at McJehee Pharmacy, Selma and Johnson's or Public Library—Adv.

IRRIGATORS OF TWIN FALLS IN BEST POSITION

Natural Flow Supplemented by Penalty Paid by Upper River Users for Exchange. Privileges Maintains Deliveries.

Water conditions for the Twin Falls irrigation system probably are more favorable this season than for any other irrigated district of this region, according to Hutton Smith, general manager for the Twin Falls Canal company, who returned Thursday from a visit of inspection to upper Snake River districts.

Snake river conditions are much more favorable at this season than had been anticipated and the Twin Falls company has not yet been required to make any material draft on its stored water supply to maintain continuous delivery of water on its basis of 80 per cent of water right, Mr. Smith stated.

Agreement Brings Advantage. Since last Saturday when upper river projects began releasing water in exchange for credit for storage under an agreement reached previously by representatives of all the waterusers of the district, penalties provided by this agreement for the exchange for storage privileges have given to the Twin Falls company approximately 75 per cent of water. This amount of water in addition to natural flow water available under its filings has given the Twin Falls company sufficient water to maintain 80 per cent

BARGES OF FRESH TULIPS FLOAT TO SEA AND SINK

HAARLEM, Holland, June 24 (AP)—Great barges piled high with fresh tulips, mauve, yellow, white, red and some black ones, sunk—though the crews these days dig seawards to sink their cargoes. Enough flowers to decorate a million houses are thus destroyed every day.

To buy a bunch of tulips plucked from a garden in the bank four or five feet high and 30 feet long. You will be refused. "Take two for each of your lady's," the gardener will say, kindly refusing to take your pocketbook in exchange. It is a thing not done. The tulip does not just sink.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Edited by Mrs. E. B. Williams Phone 396

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jenkinson on Seventh avenue east was the scene of a beautiful wedding Thursday morning, June 24, at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Julia, became the bride of Kenneth, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mann of Pler. Immediately before the ceremony, Mrs. Zeena Smith sang, "Only You," with Miss Grace Bell at the piano. Then to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Grace Bell, the bride descended from the tower on the arm of her father and met the bridegroom where they stood in a corner of the living room before a host of guests. The ceremony was read by Rev. A. G. Pearson of the First Presbyterian church. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the twenty-five present, which included only relatives and intimate friends of both families, at one large and three small tables. The table where the bride and groom were seated was centered with a large crystal chandelier and pink and white flowers. The bride's bouquet was carried by Miss Grace Bell, and the groom's by Miss Zeena Smith. The bride's bouquet was carried by Miss Grace Bell, and the groom's by Miss Zeena Smith. CHERRILL LINCOLN

Of the making of books and stories of Abraham Lincoln there is no end. And now we have a new Lincoln, a new work of art, a "Lincoln in the flesh" because of their address. This is especially true of the statues. Nobody can put a rickshaking "Lincoln story" into a statue. And most of the statues portray the great president in his latter years, with his spirit overwhelmed by the sorrow of a great civil war.

BLAMES INDUSTRIAL EAST FOR DEFEAT OF MEASURE

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Defeat in the senate today of the McNary relief bill was laid to the industrial forces that control the "present administration" in a statement tonight by George N. Peck, chairman of the executive committee of 22 appointed by quibble western farm organizations.

Secretary Mellon, who recently declared impractical the equalization feature of the McNary bill, was described in the statement as "spokesman for the industrial east" and attacked for his "heraldic candor" in denouncing as a permanent policy that American farmers sell their products to American industry at European peasant prices which means industrial ruin for America at the expense of agriculture.

The statement charged the political leaders with failing to carry out platform pledges, "thus definitely establishing the fact that campaign promises of either party are not to be taken seriously." The showing that was made was due to the efforts in congress of real friends of agriculture, made in spite of party organization.

NAVAL EXPERTS AGAINST PLAN

Underlying Principle of Washington Agreement Knocked Overboard at Session.

GENEVA, June 23 (AP)—The underlying principle of the Washington naval agreement was knocked overboard today at the conference of the naval experts on disarmament, which is hoped to a quick fall by the nations of continental Europe, who virtually acted as bloc under the leadership of France and Italy.

This principle is known as a comparison of the naval strength of the various countries, based on a standard of tonnage of the various types of warships as for example, battleships.

All the big powers, except France and Italy, backed up the American contention that class tonnage should be regarded as the standard of comparison of the strength of navies. The countries vying with the United States were Great Britain, Japan, Argentina, Chile and Spain.

Present Resolution.
 Having rejected the American proposal in the forenoon, France and Italy presented another resolution in the afternoon. The naval men were asked to vote on the following:

"Do you believe that a system of comparison of the naval armaments of one country with the naval armaments of another country, based on a standard of tonnage of each class is a method capable of general application, which is exact and fair for all nations and therefore acceptable?"

Japan and Argentina voted yes, but the American, British, Chilean, German and Dutch delegations abstained from voting. Twelve other countries, including France and Italy, voted no.

YANKER TELLS STORY OF MEXICAN TORTURE

BROWNVILLE, Texas, June 23 (AP)—A story of torture in a Matamoros, Mexico, jail was told here today by Nativilva Garza, 26, American citizen, who was found semi-conscious on the bank of the Rio Grande river last night.

He said Mexican officials had tortured him to gain information concerning the shooting of Arzoo Guerra, killed June 7, by United States immigration officers. Guerra was shot when he drew a gun on an officer who was about to arrest him on a charge of smuggling.

Garza said he was taken to the Matamoros jail last Sunday night and that since then he had been questioned frequently. He said a judge and a number of officers came to his cell Wednesday night and began to torture him when he told them he knew nothing of Guerra's death. He said after they failed to gain any information they put him across the border river late last night where he was found by friends a few hours later.

PILGRIMS BEGIN HOMEWARD TRIP

Eucharistic Congress Over, Worshippers Begin Exodus From Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Passed into history the XXVII international eucharistic congress tonight released its countless pilgrims.

St. Hubert with eight and sounds of the greatest religious spectacle in America, the thousands drawn from all over the world started the exodus that will not be completed, railroad officials said, until Sunday or later. Most of them headed northwest for St. Louis, including the 12 cardinals, prepared for receptions here and elsewhere.

Extra trains, special sections and hundreds of extra coaches were added to usual facilities tonight.

Cardinal O'Connell of Boston was the first of the prelates of the church to get away, leaving with 500 pilgrims aboard the steamship South America, for Midland, Ont., in Georgian bay to bless the shrine of St. Mary, which is three miles off the coast.

Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia will leave tomorrow over the Pennsylvania road, and Italian delegates will go to Washington and then to New York by special cars tomorrow on the same road.

A delegation from Germany will go to Washington tomorrow.

Cardinal O'Donnell, primate of Ireland, will be the guest of the Irish Fellowship club here tomorrow night, and will then go to St. Louis for the dedication of the St. Louis cathedral shrine.

Cardinal Von Faulhaber of Munich, and Cardinal Piff of Vienna, were to go to Springfield, Illinois, to attend the national meeting of German Catholics, and to visit the tomb of Abraham Lincoln.

North Shore railroad officials announced at 1 o'clock this morning that their last train had departed from Manhattan and that the scene of the concluding eucharistic program had been cleared of visitors. "Although a number of persons were treated at emergency hospitals it was stated that no one had been seriously injured."

All that's best in a cigarette

AFTER glorious exercise nothing is so refreshing as the fragrant smoke of a Camel. Wherever Camels go—to the seashore, to the mountains, to the office—they bring pleasure, full smoking enjoyment.

No other cigarette made ever gladdened the taste of so many millions, for Camels are made of the choicest tobaccos grown. Camels alone satisfy the taste for all that's best in a cigarette, for Camel blending can be found nowhere else at any price. Camels never tire the taste, never leave a cigarette after-taste.

Camel leadership over all other cigarettes shows that the smokers of America want smoking quality. Camel success is built up on goodness, by the world's largest tobacco organization. Each year the makers of Camels spend millions for quality, and not one cent for frills or fancy wrappings.

No two ways about it, Camels are the finest pleasure, the richest contentment that ever came from a cigarette. If you haven't yet found the utmost in cigarette goodness, answer the most popular smoke invitation ever sounded—Have a Camel!
