

THE SPORTS OF A DAY

NO DEARTH OF HOOP MATERIAL

More Than 35 Aspirants to Places on Bruin Quintet Answer Call of Coach Plastino.

Better than 35 men answered Coach Plastino's call for basket ball material last night. Only a light practice for the first few nights will be held by the coach and real active work will not begin until after the Christmas vacation. No practice will be possible during the vacation period because of repairs to the gym.

Coach Neill and Kelly were the captains of the Bruin team last night. However, Wardle and the two Knaptons, who were the mainstays of the Knapton team last year, will be out for the Bruin squad and with a wealth of green material to work on the Bruin prospects for the 1927 season do not look so dull.

District Prospects Bright
At least two strong teams are already forming in the district. Lower division changes, the Flor Wilkies, have promising material out with two veterans, Smith and Hamilton, upon which to build a team. The Flor prospects no doubt will make a strong bid for district honors against this year's team, which has been very successful in the first year's team, will perhaps have the veteran aggregation of the district. Rosenbaum was the only recruit to be had by the graduation party. Prince, Warden and Tamm will furnish basis for a strong north side five.

Coach James' Material in East
Report also will make a strong bid for the title with several men of last year's team and a wealth of material. Coach Nixon turned out one of the fastest teams in the district last year at East with little material to pick from and the district followers of the maple court are watching the east end team with interest.

Buhl and Hahl will tough tonight at Buhl and some idea of the strength of the team may be gained.

BANDIT QUARTER NERVOUS IN ATTEMPTING ROBBERY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22 (AP)—Four nervous men, armed and masked, seized 20 workmen employed in changing seats in a theatre and attempted to rob them. Lacked five men and two girls in the vault and made off with $2,000 in cash and a large quantity of jewelry.

H. A. Andrews, manager, and the large caliber frontier model revolver which the men carried, along in their hands as they tremulously gave their orders to elevate hands.

When Gene Sage, treasurer, assured the quartet that the house receipts were insured and to be careful with their weapons, the four men seemed to calm down. Their wives and ordered the employees into the vault. They then went to a room, the door of which stood open, and snuffed up pockets full of cash.

EMPLOYEES CITE REASONS FOR ASKING HIGHER PAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (AP)—Hobos, holding men and wet fish were cited today as three of many reasons why 75,000 employees of the American Railway Express company should receive a 12 1/2 per cent wage increase.

The tubbers, tramps and fish, a board of arbitration was told, all come under the head of increased hazards in life. Clarence Gallagher, for the employees, in the whole series of the express company testified that men working on trucks have practically no protection against the elements. He said wet fish he considered conducive to colds and rheumatism and the danger from hobos in New York while hauling live valuable goods he thought should be taken into consideration.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES MAKE LITTLE HEADWAY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22 (AP)—The tri-state conference on Colorado river development took a Christmas day adjournment until December 28, without California, Arizona, and Nevada agreeing in reaching any basis for agreement.

At 10 a. m. time, on the plea of F. A. Reid of Arizona, the conference agreed to place a nuffin on proceedings, excluding newspapermen, agreeing to issue statements regarding the sessions, and dispensing with a stenographer so there will be no record of the meetings. Reid declared Arizona had failed to have her contentions set forth in the newspapers and that statements of the Arizona delegates had been "garbled."

After a two-hour examination of Otto E. Johnson, secretary of trade commission, hearings were adjourned subject to call.

NEGRO CONVICTS TOTE EMBLEMS OF GOOD LUCK

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 22 (AP)—Two heavy horse shames one of them with made in it, were taken from a pair of negro convicts at Folsom jail before they were ushered into the presence of the state board of prison directors during the board's recent parole meeting there.

Thomas M. Cannon, board member, who disclosed the incident today, said the convicts had the habit of heavy-weight juggling rather than devotees of the barn yard game endorsed by Governor Wood W. Richardson.

The negroes disclaimed any intention of pitching the horseshoes at the board members, however. They explained that when they were told the board would hear pleas for parole, they thought they might as well "take along something for good luck."

HORNSBY WOULD SELL SHARE IN BALL CLUB

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22 (AP)—Manager Rogers Hornsby of the New York Yankees, who has been traded to the New York Giants, said today he would sell his 100 shares of stock in the club.

Hornsby said he knew of no baseball club that would purchase Hornsby from playing in a New York uniform while he owned stock in a rival club, but Hornsby said he did not think it would be best for the interests of the game for him to retain the stock.

John A. Hoeyler, National League president, today telegraphed the St. Louis Post Dispatch that "one of our rules, it goes without saying, that Hornsby could not play with the Giants and continue to hold stock in the St. Louis club."

HICKWOOD, Maine, Dec. 22 (AP)—Escaping from the crowd of the metropolitan, Gene Tunney tonight had his hiding in the Maine wilderness, desiring to get away from the publicity, which constantly has attended his movements since he became heavyweight champion of the world, he sought seclusion in a sporting camp, seven miles from here, for a complete rest over the holiday season.

He was met at the terminus here by Fred Power, a guide, with whom the champion and his companions had luncheon. Then they walked seven miles over the lake to the camp, where they were widely scattered residents of this unorganized township of the presence of the distinguished fighter.

CENSURE LANDIS FOR PROCEDURE

Detroit Jurist Characterizes Commissioner as Muckraker; Defends Baseball Idol.

DETROIT, Dec. 22 (AP)—Although Frank Navin, president of the Detroit baseball club, continued his policy of silence today regarding the revelations of the Hacking 'T' club with the most recent of major league baseball scandals, members of the 1919 team residing here and local fans rallied to the defense of the local idol who for more than 22 years was connected with the club.

Many were outspoken in criticism of Commissioner Landis for having disclosed Dutch Leonard's charges pointing out they are "only one man's word against other whose honesty has never been questioned."

Two came out strongly in Cobb's defense as Municipal Judges Guy A. Miller and E. J. Jeffries.

"I think Judge Landis' act in publishing this story is indefensible and in line with his history of hypocritical sensationalism," said Judge Miller.

Judge Jeffries declared Landis "has failed his own test in his desire for sensationalism. He has unnecessarily gone out of his way to destroy two of the greatest stars of the day. The reaction to baseball if this man continues his muckraking will destroy the game."

Supreme Court Is Target of Barbs Hurlled by Hefflin

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 (AP)—The United States supreme court was a target of barbs of criticism hurled today by Senator Hefflin of Missouri, in another attack upon the administration, the Daugherty case and the Fallahouy acquittal.

Declaring on the senate floor that the court should "have decided in 30 days" the outcome proceedings against Mr. Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general for refusing to permit a senate committee to examine the books of the Midland National bank of Washington, Ohio, the senator called upon the court to render a decision in this case, "now pending for two years."

Mr. Hefflin said he voiced "the sentiment of nine-tenths of the people" in denouncing action by the court.

"It is useless for me to say," he declared, "that had it been some obscure man or woman out in the common walks of life, he or she would have had to justify a long time ago, but Mr. Daugherty was a member of the cabinet of the Harding administration and his brother was twice attorney general for the United States and we cannot get action."

UNITED STATES URGES CONTROL OF DRUG SUPPLY

State Department Discloses Diplomatic Moves to Curb, at the Source, Smuggling of Narcotics into This Country.

(By The Associated Press). WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Diplomatic moves to curb, at the source, the traffic of narcotics into the United States were disclosed today when the state department made public identical representations sent to all major signers of the Lingco convention for drug traffic control.

The communication asserted that the government reports show that the bulk of the illicit drug traffic in the United States is in drugs of foreign origin, and that effective control by law having about it almost entirely the domestic sources of supply.

Would Control Sources

It is believed that the problem of the United States would be vastly simplified, it added, "if there were established in various manufacturing countries a system of control over narcotic drugs and the factories for their production similar to that in effect in this country."

Attention of the powers was called to a similar effort "to curb cooperation of countries in the production of narcotic drugs," made by the Washington government last October. The provisions of the convention, texts of which are being distributed to all countries, are being withheld until the necessary ratifications are received.

Smugglers Nullify Efforts

"The government of the United States," it said, "is gratified at the results of the enforcement of this domestic legislation, is constantly made aware of the fact that its efforts to curb the production of narcotic drugs within territory subject to its jurisdiction are being nullified by the smuggling of narcotics into this country in quantities large enough to produce them secretly into the United States."

"The conviction has been reached that on a great number of occasions attention is possible until there is a control in countries other than the United States, over the manufacture and export of narcotic drugs."

Senate Approves Interior Measure In Rapid Fashion

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(AP)—In little more than an hour the senate disposed of its second appropriation bill of the session today. Approving the interior department measure carrying about $260,000,000 for next year's activities.

Actually all items in the house bill received approval, but senate amendments increased the total amount $1,000,000. One of them would provide an additional $500,000 for the construction of roads and trails in national parks.

Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, assailed the provision allowing $100,000 of the $200,000 appropriation for examination of new homestead lands to be spent in the District of Columbia, declaring it "unnecessary and illegal." A motion in Senator John, democrat, Utah, to limit to $75,000 the amount he could have, was defeated. Senator Samuel, republican, Utah, defended the provision as necessary.

BOARD CERTIFIES DAVIS' ELECTION

American Falls Reservoir District Directors Adopt Attorney's View in Vote Canvass.

Election of Abram A. Davis of Ellet to succeed W. F. Alworth of Ellet and re-election of A. F. McLeod of Wendell and W. H. Spence of Kimberly as directors of the American Falls reservoir district for three years term, was certified Wednesday by the district's directors following canvass held on December 11.

Possibility of contest of the election of Mr. Davis is believed to have been dissipated by advice given to the directors by J. R. Howell, attorney for the district, to the effect that holding on which the name A. A. Davis had been written in should be counted for Abram A. Davis. The canvass showed that 44 out of 46 ballots had been cast, and under the rule adopted by the board, Mr. Davis received, with four votes a total of 275, as against 21 for Alworth.

Supporters Use Success

Mr. Davis had not been regularly nominated but advocates of his candidacy made effective use of officers on which his name was printed, three tickets being affixed to ballots.

Voting took place at seven voting places provided at centers of the district's territory in Bonneville, Hingham, Power, J. C. Jones, Gooding and Twin Falls counties.

Holdover members of the board which will meet January 5 to effect reorganization, following the election, are R. E. Shepherd of Jerome, president; P. E. Sayers, Ellet; J. H. Barker, Ellet; and H. A. Wiley, Springdale.

All members of the board except Mr. Wiley attended the meeting here Wednesday.

BURGLARS RAID ELM PARK STORE

Cut Hole Through Door to Reach Lock and Carry Away Big Assortment of Provisions.

Burglars at the Elm Park grocery, 528 Blue Lakes boulevard, at which Fred V. Mangelsen is proprietor, Tuesday night carried away about $200 worth of provisions and took $2 in money out of the cash register. They gained entrance by cutting a hole through the door at the rear and operating the bolt lock. Snow had begun falling about midnight obliterated tracks about the premises. It would have been necessary for the burglars to have used an automobile or other vehicle to have carried away the stolen provisions.

In their selection of provisions, the burglars betrayed considerable degree of familiarity with the store. They scooped all canned vegetables and preserved foods in glass containers and took no tobacco, but made away with a large tin can full of marshmallows and a bin full of peanuts that was taken from between bins full of almonds and walnuts.

List of the missing provisions included a quart of beef weighing about three pounds, 28 pounds of butter, two loaves of bread, three 10-pound cans of coffee, two sacks of flour, soap, starch, cream, peanut butter, pork and beans, and canned meats and fish and pineapple.

Other witnesses of the day were A. W. Satter, city attorney; and Federal Prohibition Agents C. C. Hoover and E. A. McManis, the latter two testifying concerning coming to Barly at the instance of John T. Morris, prohibition minister, plaintiff, and posting of bail here in order to obtain a writ deince non.

They made their reports, they said, to the Reverend Morris and not any special, state or county officers. As a whole the prosecution witnesses gave evidence more in favor of Mayor Johnson than for the jailhouse for which they were called.

Throughout the day Chief Counsel E. V. Larson, Twin Falls, for the prosecution, seemed to have had interest in the case and delegated the law to his associate, S. T. Love of Barly.

HOSPITAL RULE CRUMPLES UNDER COURT DECISION

Judge H. A. Baker Upholds Right of Choice Without Penalty in Use of Anaesthetist's Services.

A rule requiring persons using the operating room at Twin Falls county general hospital to pay the fee for the hospital anaesthetist's services, which was held by the board of health to be reasonable and not warranted "by District Judge Hugh A. Baker, in a decision rendered Wednesday in the case of Dr. Eugene L. Alexander against Twin Falls county, and a temporary injunction heretofore granted by the court restraining the county commissioners and hospital superintendent from enforcing the rule will be made permanent.

Suggests Now Rule

The prosecuting attorney during his argument at hearing in the case stated that even though the injunction might be made permanent, the commissioners could meet the situation by passing a new rule making the same rule apply to the use of the operating room, and allowing the patient the use of all the facilities including the use of the county anaesthetist, and that no injunction could be had against such a rule. The commissioners claim that this was their intention, and that the injunction was granted from the fact that certain doctors insisted that the new rule required the payment of a double anaesthetist fee, which terms was used in the public case to believe it. The commissioners have not indicated whether they will adopt such a rule as was suggested by the prosecutor.

Questions at Issue in a Hearing of the case held here last week by Judge Baker, as discussed in his decision, which are:

The plaintiff, by his complaint, says that the defendants have employed a person with the operation of the Twin Falls county hospital, an anaesthetist, have fixed the fee to be paid for her services in the cases where the operating room is used; have prohibited the use of the operating room for the purpose of such a fee; and that the plaintiff is entitled to pay this fee. The plaintiff also says that he has the right to engage his own anaesthetist, in the event he assumes the responsibility for the work of those not engaged by him, and that he has the right to demand that the defendants pay him and pay for relief by injunction.

Upholds Right of Choice.

It would seem clear that the services of an anaesthetist are an essential and important part in operations, and the services must be efficient and not too inefficient. Much reliance is dependent on the anaesthetist, and the ability of their associate. While no one questions the ability of the anaesthetist now employed, surgeons should have, it would seem, the same right to select anaesthetists that patients have to select surgeons and no more reason for choice should be required of one than of the other.

The position of the defendants that the anaesthetist was employed to be used as a unit or part of the equipment of the operating room without fixing a special fee for her services does not seem to have been understood by any one. I cannot escape the conclusion that when this person was employed, it was understood that the fee for her services would be $5 or $7.50, depending upon the character of the operation. It was understood that the fee for this service from $10 to $25.00, and objected to the refusal of the defendants to recognize the surgeon's right to freedom of choice. It would have been difficult to have found words to more aptly express the idea that a special or definite fee for the services of the hospital anaesthetist would be made than the words used in

The notice prepared and posted by authority of the board of county commissioners, the application for use of the operating room segregates the charges for the room from the charges for the anaesthetist and exacts from the signer a specific promise to pay the charge of the anaesthetist, whether used or not.

Right, Imposes Penalty

In an effort, apparently to enforce compliance with this rule, the board of county commissioners threatened to deny to surgeons refusing to comply with all regulations the right to the use of the hospital.

It would seem clear that the plaintiff has the right to engage any anaesthetist he desires, and that the board of county commissioners, in placing a charge upon the plaintiff's right to freedom of choice, the regulation penalizes him if he does not elect to use the anaesthetist employed. The other side of the operation of the rule is placed at a substantial disadvantage. He must either personally employ the charge made by his anaesthetist or charge more for the services than is charged for like services by those using the hospital anaesthetist.

FELONY CHARGES AGAINST TWO MEN ARE DISMISSED

Felony charges against Joe Martinez of Twin Falls, accused of second degree violation of the prohibition laws, and Robert Kidd of Milner, accused of grand larceny of sheep, were dismissed in district court here Wednesday on a motion of the prosecuting attorney.

Kidd was accused of an offense alleged to have been committed last October and had not yet been brought to trial in the district court.

BUSINESS GOES ON RECORD FOR CHANGE IN RULE

Commissioner of Agriculture Advises Growers and Shippers to Work for Federal Recognition of Potato Grade.

A. W. B. Kjosness, Idaho commissioner of agriculture, favors concerted action on the part of Idaho potato growers and dealers to bring about an amendment of federal potato grade regulations to provide for a grade midway between No. 1 and No. 2 grades. The commissioner went on record in this effect at a meeting in district court rooms here Wednesday evening of about 100 growers and dealers, who declared by unanimous vote for recognition of such an intermediate grade.

The meeting was arranged for discussion of proposed regulations on holding the grade and standards of agriculture has promulgated, to be decided by the state department of agriculture do not recognize an intermediate grade, and potatoe falling under requirements of No. 1 grade would have to be marketed as No. 2 grade potatoe.

Gets Notice of Injunction

Shortly before convening of the meeting, the commissioner accepted service of notice of the intention of a number of Twin Falls district growers to apply to the district court here on December 23 for an injunction restraining the commissioner and agricultural department from making the proposed new regulations effective. Thereafter he conferred for a short time with Frank L. Stephan, attorney general.

After enforcement of the proposed new regulations that were to have been made effective January 1, next, is now a closed affair so far as the commissioner is concerned, but it is a matter to be determined by the courts and attorneys. Mr. Kjosness told the meeting of Idaho potato growers and shippers, as it has been disclosed by expressions at a series of recent meetings in Idaho Falls, Blackfoot, Ashton and Burley, the commissioner stated, is wholly in favor of recognition by federal authorities of an intermediate potato grade and then to

Advices Action

The commissioner advised interested persons to endeavor to reach an agreed with regard to definition of the proposed intermediate grade and then to seek the approval of the federal authorities.

There was no objection at this meeting as to the applicability of such an intermediate grade and standards for potatoe and other products, although Charles Connor of Blackfoot is of the opinion that the price of Idaho potatoe in the Chicago market would be advanced by reason of enforcement of the proposed new regulations.

"You are a wiser man than I am if you can tell," was the commissioner's reply.

Tells Result of Test

Opportunity ought to be given to the producer to make up most of his potato crop, provided it is the consumer, Wm. C. P. Johnson, of Twin Falls suggested. The toll of an experiment made recently in an Idaho town, where three grades of Idaho potatoe were exhibited for sale. First, No. 1 grade, 1 sack; No. 2 grade, 3 sacks; commercial or intermediate grade, 27 sacks.

Grading to requirements of No. 1 grade, it was asserted, places the grower in a position where there is no market for No. 2 grade potatoe, whereas demand for an intermediate grade of potatoe has been established, it was stated.

The commissioner throughout the discussion declined to accept the term "commercial" grade, but advised that effect should be made to obtain federal recognition for "an improved" No. 2 grade.

Commercial or combination grade is defined by growers and shippers of the district to one that includes approximately 75 per cent No. 1 grade potatoe.
