TRUTH MEATS MARKETING PLAN BEFORE MEETING

Livestock Growers, in Convention at Salt Lake City, Hear Program for Marketing Various Grades of Beef in Future.

(By The Associated Press) SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 26.—The American housewife will soon know, when she goes to the meat market, whether she is buying prime steer meat, or whether the cut for which she pays her cash is "common cow."

Federal Man Author It was explained that J. C. Christensen, assistant chief of the federal packer and stock yards administration at Washington, was the author of the idea and that O. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International Livestock exposition, was the first to bring it to the open where it was given serious and favorable consideration.

May Nationalize Marketing D. A. Millett, Denver, Colorado, chairman of the national livestock board, which is also interested in the program, said that the question would be decided at the Chicago meeting would be whether the grading and marking would be done by local zones, or whether the grades would be nationally established.

RECESS TAKEN IN BROWNING'S DIVORCE TRIAL

Young Wife Ends Testimony; Friends and Mother of Girl Also on Stand; Wealthy Real-estor to Have His Say.

(By The Associated Press.) WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 26.—The separation suit trial of Edward W. Browning, New York realtor, was today suspended for one day by the court, himself served as the "man of convenience," if not of necessity, for the fourth and fifth days Monday.

Mrs. Frances (Peaches) Hogan Browning, the 16-year-old "bride," ended her side of the case this afternoon, with the exception of testimony from one witness. That witness, believed to be a maid, was not called. Monday will see the beginning of Browning's case, when his witnesses will take the stand in rebuttal of Mrs. Browning's charges of cruelty.

During the trial, Mrs. Marion Hughes, formerly a restaurant owner, testified in support of Mrs. Browning, after testimony offered by Mrs. Carolyn Hogan, mother of Mrs. Browning, and Mrs. Maver, a friend and house guest of Mrs. Hogan.

The young, nature-nurtured exclusive, she has had a full life of the realtor, says a family witness, testifying that last Saturday Mr. Browning told her he would "make it interesting" for her if she could "recall," and testify to something adverse in the life of her friends the then Frances Hogan before the marriage.

Stand by 'Peaches' She said she could not remember any acts such as Mrs. Browning suggested she would testify to. When asked to bring the Browning effort, she ended up Mrs. Browning and told her what had happened.

Just prior to the adjournment counsel for both sides stipulated that because of the financial situation of the two parties, the court should, so far as testimony is concerned, until close of the case.

The second notice of appeal from the order making permanent the restraining order issued at the time Mrs. Chaplin's divorce complaint was filed, and is placed in behalf of the Chaplin Studios, Inc., and Lloyd Wright attorney for "Red" concerning Mr. Wright also filed a demurrer to the complaint in so far as he was considered as a defendant on the grounds that he had none of Chaplin's property.

TO SUFFER DETAILS ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 26 (AP)—The St. Petersburg Evening Sun will announce that it will publish on Sunday details of the Browning divorce hearing now under way at White Plains, N. Y.

TRUTH IN MEATS PLAN EXPLAINED TO GROWERS

Careful study of the proposition and its practicalness of considerable data. The fact that an agreement had been reached on the extending grading and marking of two better grades of meat was announced by Oklahoma Governor Bennett, secretary of the National Better Beef association, who also explained that it was the belief that these who advised the matter that anything benefitting the trade would benefit the producer.

Frank D. Tompson, Lincoln, Neb., declared that four members of the livestock industry to be the inferior zone, marketing of dairy cattle which are unmarked when they reach the retail block, ignorance of the public in buying and the so-called meat substitutes are not as healthily developing competition the truth in meat bills has been decided, he added.

LEWIS BRANDS AS LIE CHARGES MADE BY RIVAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26 (AP)—Demands for a publication of the union returns from the 1924 elections of international officers at today's session of the United Mine Workers convention brought John L. Lewis, president to his feet in a denunciation of John D. Sulphur, his rival, in the report.

The charge made by John D. Sulphur's political enemy that the election of two years ago was stolen, Lewis branded as "infamous lie," Lewis declared. "We will send out tabulated local election returns, this year because if we don't John D. Sulphur and his stingy friends will say we stole it."

Earlier in the day the Lewis and Sulphur factions clashed over the determination of a policy to carry on organization work in non-union bituminous fields. Drophy charged that Lewis' administration failed in carrying the 1922 soft coal strike, and declared his policies were weakening the union.

PROPOSED BILL BRINGS PROTEST FROM STOCKMEN

Measure Designed to Place Administration of Public Domain With Interior Department, Roundly Opposed.

(By The Associated Press.) SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 26.—Ever since his occupancy of the national forest has been regulated the livestock men of the west has had an aversion to federal bureaus who have exacted a grazing fee for his herds and bands that remain the withdrawn area of public domain. He is opposed to dealing with more than one set of government officials.

Stockmen Fear Change Many of the stockmen who leave on forest reserves which are adjacent to lands still in the public domain, and they will, if the bill becomes a law, have to deal with the forestry bureau for one lease and the interior department for another. Looking back over their troubles, many of the stockmen with which they now deal, they expressed fear of further controversies, and expressed a desire that the proposed measure be so amended to include administration of both classes of land under one set of government officials.

Basic Fees on Cattle Commissioner Sperry said that he had been authorized by Robert M. Work, secretary of the interior, to say that if forest lands were to be administered on a fee basis under administrative costs plus a small sum which if he returned to the justice in which the lands are situated. He further said the stockmen held have no fears as to losing present leasing permits, as the priority claims would be recognized in the administration of the domain.

URGES REFORESTATION OF U. S. WASTE LAND

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 26 (AP)—Reforestation of 5,000,000 acres of waste land in the United States, was urged by H. N. Kistner, chief lecturer of the federal forestry service, before the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Northwestern Landowners' association here today. Waste land could be planted with a crop of white pine which would be worth $300 an acre within a series of years, Wheeler pointed out. Destruction of forest causes erosion of the land and here to such an extent that rivers, filled with silt become no longer navigable, he said.
