HOLDS TITLE TO DITCH ACQUIRED

Judge W. A. Babcock Gives Decision in Suit Involving Claim to Right of Way.

Claim to right of way for an irrigation ditch acquired another man's land was upheld in a decision given by Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here Wednesday in the case of L. T. Kelly, Orlis Kelly and W. A. Mabey against Edmund W. Smith.

Smith's title to the land was acquired by the defendant through a deed requiring Smith to restore the ditch which had been placed up last spring and to restore a preference with the ditch in the future.

Evidence in the case, which was tried last week, showed that the ditch had been constructed originally in 1906 and that its course had been changed by Smith in 1910 or 1911, and that it had been used by the plaintiffs and their predecessors until it was placed up last spring.

Smith contended that the ditch had been used by his permission, which was revocable. Plaintiff's heirs filed their claim on the doctrine of adverse possession.

The case will be appealed to the state supreme court, J. W. Taylor of council for the defendant announced.
