SNOW GREATEST IN HISTORY THIS YEAR

Government Report Shows Unusually Favorable Condition in Idaho. Salmon Supply Unusual.

That the snowfall in this state has been 30 inches for the months of November, December, January and February, that this exceeds by 23 inches the greatest snowfall ever recorded for the four months in question and by 10 inches the greatest amount for any one season and that the snow on the high mountains from which the Salmon river gets its supply is unusually deep and well packed is the information conveyed in the snowfall bulletin of the weather bureau for the Idaho section just issued. It says:

February was the fourth successive month to break all previous records for heavy snowfall. The average for the state, including low, middle as well as high in the mountains, was about 24 inches. Since November 1st the total snowfall over the state has averaged about 30 inches, which exceeds by 23 inches the greatest amount on record for a similar period, and is 10 inches greater than the largest amount previously recorded in any entire season. The snowfall of the first five days of the month was very heavy except in the extreme north of the state and in the eastern counties. This snow was followed by considerable amounts of rain and then by a period of bright, mild weather, so that the snow almost melted in some of the agricultural regions and settled rapidly elsewhere, but there was little runoff from the higher levels, and the accumulated depth in the mountains at the close of the month was still far above average. Slides have been relatively infrequent. The present outlook is for considerably more than the average flow of water in practically all the streams of the state. High water is likely to occur if the snow should melt quickly.

The snow in the higher mountains at the close of February is deeper than for many years. There are about five feet of snow in the Valley Creek section and at Ivers. The snow is well settled and packed.

Buhl United On County Division

All Parties Including Socialists Expected to Lay Aside Party Lines in County and Even State.

The county division question is on again, says the Buhl Herald. The die is cast, and each of the political parties in the west end of the county, as well as of all the non-political organizations, will take a united stand for county division.

Young aspirants have sacrificed their political ambition for county office in the coming campaign, for the one issue uppermost in the minds of the people in the west end—county division.

At a meeting of the Democrats to perfect a working organization, it was decided to push the question to a final vote. The Republican party organized a few weeks ago, and recently the executive committee put their party issue on the shelf in this county, for county division.

A motion passed by unanimous vote at a special meeting of the Buhl Buhl club, the association, representing all political parties, farmers and merchants, that the association will help to carry the county division fight to a finish. The executive committee is operating with the executive committee of the several parties will soon issue a call for a mass meeting to carry on the organization to carry on the county division fight to a successful termination.

Last year the Republicans supported the Democratic candidate, J. W. Paris, to the man. The Socialist party was no less loyal in securing the nomination and election of the best man from the entire county to the state legislature. In fact, there were no party lines two years ago. They were practically unanimous on county division.

COMMUNITY BUILDING TO GO UP IN Buhl IN THE NEAR FUTURE

Quietly, without ostentatious advertisement, the business forces of Buhl have been at work this week, perfecting plans for the erection of a commercial club or community building, says the Pioneer. It was stated yesterday on bed rock authority that a site was about to be purchased, that business men of Buhl were guaranteeing the sum necessary to purchase the site and make a start on the building, and that it would be but a short time until definite announcement of the plans would be made to the public. The actual details of the transaction are being kept under cover on account of the uncertainty which surrounds any business transaction until its actual consummation. The site which has been selected, and which will be used if its purchase can be made, is one of the most central in Buhl. It is an extremely desirable location, but further information cannot be given at the present time. Plans for the building are being discussed in detail. At a meeting of business men in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday evening action was taken on the project to buy a site, and at this meeting plans were outlined so concretely that when the time is ripe for building, the architects will have available all information they need.

DEGREE FOR SALE OF WESTERN PACIFIC RAILWAY ASKED

SAN FRANCISCO.—A degree for the sale of the Western Pacific railway was asked today in the United States district court in a stipulation filed by the Equitable Trust company of New York and other parties to the Western Pacific receivership. Furthermore of this a writ of prohibition against Judge William C. Van Fleet was asked of the United States circuit court of appeals to stop the receiver from assumption of complete jurisdiction in the receivership proceedings. The writ was asked by Fred Howe, attorney for the Equitable Trust company, to prevent enforcement of Judge Van Fleet's order that the Missouri Pacific railway and the Denver & Rio Grande railroad appear in the proceedings within 30 days.

EXPERIMENT STATION IS WANTED AT Buhl

Tract of Twenty Acres Required—Would Retain Hog Cholera Station in Southern Idaho.

Securing a twenty-acre agricultural experiment farm adjacent to the Buhl high school, to be used in connection with the agricultural classes, and for county fair purposes during the Cornucopia season of the year, was one of the matters discussed at a meeting of the Buhl Business Men's association last Thursday evening. The commercial club rooms, and a committee was appointed to co-operate with the school board to draft a letter to Frank H. Buhl, to learn upon what basis a tract may be secured, says the Buhl Herald. It was pointed out that such a farm could be of infinite value to the high school classes, and to the farmers in general in the Buhl country.

The good roads campaign was also discussed, and a motion was passed to admit such men membership in the association who were voted in because of some special service to the association or to community.

An attempt will be made to co-operate with the Buhl highway district in securing King drags for every few miles, so that they may be utilized in keeping the roads in better shape.

A committee was appointed to draft a resolution and send to congress that the present hog cholera station be retained in this part of the state, by an appropriation from congress. The present hog cholera station has saved thousands of dollars to the farmers of Idaho, though it will have to be discontinued unless congress makes another appropriation. The resolution will be sent to all of the other towns under this station, and they will be asked to forward a resolution to congress.

LEWISTON MAN IN RACE FOR NOMINATION

George E. Crum, Resident of North Idaho, Announces Candidacy for Governor.

LEWISTON.—The formal announcement of George E. Crum for the nomination of governor on the republican ticket was given to the public today. Mr. Crum has been a resident of Idaho for 17 years, a member of the state senate for four years during the creative legislation, member of the state normal school for eight years and prominent in Lewiston and community affairs during his entire residence in the state.

Mr. Crum's announcement follows: "I have definitely decided to become a candidate for the republican nomination for governor of Idaho. This decision accords with my own ambition to serve the people of the state and the expressed desire of many of its best citizens for me to become a candidate. In the various ways open to me I have made a reasonably thorough test of advisability of such action on my part. Personal contact with republican workers from various parts of the state, letters from practically every county, and a friendly attitude of the state press, have induced me to believe that the call to serve is clear, insistent and sincere. Under the circumstances, it seems to me, it is my duty as citizen and as a republican, to enter the contest for the nomination. During the progress of the primary campaign I shall define the policies which I believe should obtain in state government. I am impressed with the duties this announcement involves. No man of character and of high regard for citizenship can view it lightly. I am in the race with the best there is in me for Idaho and for the republican party, and in it to stay and win."

RESERVOIR AT MOUNTAIN HOME IS FULL

Earlier than for a good many years the Mountain Home reservoir, a few miles northeast of town, has filled to the mark that denotes its full capacity, and water is now turned over the spillway. The warm weather of the past few weeks has had the effect of rapidly melting the snow on the watershed that drains into this first of the storage lakes. Although the run-off from the spillway would be available for early spring irrigation, none of the lands in this section is in need of moisture. The heavy precipitation of the past winter has so thoroughly saturated the soil that in general farming operations will not be in need of moisture in March, but farmers are not complaining about this state of affairs.—Mountain Home Republican.

BUIH NEWS

(From the Buih Herald)

The executive committee of the Buih Auto club met the first of this week and adopted the constitution and by-laws for the organization, as had been recommended at an earlier meeting, and as had been discussed by those who are interested in such an organization. The club has practically been organized for the past several weeks, to the extent of a temporary association, though the formality of adopting the constitution and by-laws was delayed, pending the ratification by the members of the Buih Business Men's association.

The first donation work for the good roads days that are to be carried on on the roads within the township, and on the eight highways leading to the four corners of the Buih township, was that done by Bob Barnwell and E. J. Campbell on the two streets, Saturday. Barnwell and Jensen furnished their big tractor engine and donated the labor, and E. J. Campbell operated the Buih highway district grader, donating his labor. The work which the men did last week demonstrated what could be accomplished if the people will co-operate when the weather justifies setting aside a day for everybody to help with the work.

Carl Murphy, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murphy, figured in a thrilling incident Tuesday afternoon—one which came close to costing him severe injury. He had driven a small black horse to Buih for some groceries. As he was starting for home one of the buggy shafts broke, frightening the animal. Running with the lad hanging on to the ribbons and staying like a veteran, the frightened animal put in a few minutes threatened to break loose and follow his mad impulse to run. But the driver pulled into the hitching rack just off Broadway, effectually bringing it under control.

Preparations are being made to hold actual construction work on the new building to be occupied by the Buih Furniture House, and within six weeks it is thought the building will have been completely finished, the old store remodeled to some extent and the concern ready for business on a much enlarged scale. The addition is to be 25x35 feet, fireproof construction and modern in every respect. A fine heating plant is to be installed in the basement. The front is to be taken out of the older building, and steel and plate glass fronts of the latest types will be installed.

E. H. Pugh, the pioneer jeweler of Buih, has purchased the Quality Jewelry stock of Ed Carlson, who bought the interests of F. B. Carlson the first of the year. Mr. Pugh has taken possession and has combined the two stores in his fine store in the Miller-Perrine building.

Emigrants who have purchased land on the Clover settlement are arriving from Nebraska this week, and more are expected to come in time to put in a crop when the spring season opens. Several of the cars have come to Buih to unload, one of whom was W. B. Hagler, of Davenport, Nebraska, and he was met by a half dozen teams from Clover settlement. They helped haul his goods out from here, so that they took all the belongings at one trip. There were ten wagon loads of household goods and farming implements.

At a meeting of the cream producers Monday afternoon in the commercial rooms for the purpose of perfecting plans of the association, the question of forming a stock company of the interested farmers, and erecting a cheese factory to handle the cream of the territory to the north and west of Buih, was proposed, and it resulted in a call for another meeting which will be held in the commercial club rooms, Saturday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, when the cream producers will determine what action they will take in the future.

The Brown elgar store is undergoing a change this week and has been for the past several weeks, by having a new fixture, consisting of wall cases, counter cases, and a soda fountain which the management expect to have in operation by the last of this week. The security of the Buih commercial club will conduct an employment bureau at the commercial club rooms, getting help on the farm, and also help those seeking employment to find a location.

DISCUSS CLUB PLANS

FOR COMING YEAR

Twentieth Century Club Held Business Session Tuesday Afternoon To Discuss Coming Year's Work.

"Purely business," was the slogan at the Twentieth Century club meeting last Tuesday when matters of utmost importance to the club were discussed. During the transaction of club business the "What To Do" committee reported that an eight-foot evergreen tree had been purchased and would be planted in the park to be used at some future time as a municipal Christmas tree.

Previous to the coming election of officers a new law of the club provides for a nominating committee and the following were chosen: Mrs. W. F. Pike, Mrs. P. W. McRoberts, Mrs. J. C. Schaefer, Mrs. H. Alexander, and Mrs. Willet Hance.

Auditors—Mrs. S. T. Murphy, Mrs. A. W. Husted, Mrs. V. H. Ormsby, Judge—Miss Jane Maxwell, Mrs. J. B. Hall, Mrs. M. G. Ripley, Mrs. M. J. Sweeney and Mrs. Mary Norton were chosen as delegates to the national federation, which meets in New York in June.

On motion the appointment of ten delegates to attend the state federation was left to the president, who will announce the names of the delegates at next week's meeting. Also the delegates to the district federation.

Before taking up the discussion of next year's work the president called on Mrs. Ernest White to read some timely paragraphs most appropriate to the spirit of the occasion, following which Mrs. D. E. Regan urged the necessity of a deeper interest in music, not only in the club, but throughout the city. She cited the work that is being done by clubs in other cities along the line of musical achievement and expressed her regret that Twin Falls has done so little. The only thing our city can boast of so far as musical organizations are concerned, is its band, which has been accorded first place among the bands of the state.

views as to the best interests of the club and were almost unanimous in the opinion that departments should again be resumed, though no definite action was taken other than to decide that should that step be taken, three departments will be sufficient.

Another question brought up was the club breakfast, when it was recommended that the hour be changed from morning until evening and the husbands of members be invited to participate. This matter will also be decided later.

Looking to the advancement of civic conditions, attention was called to insufficient lighting of the park and faulty conditions of the band stand. A committee consisting of Mrs. H. W. Clouche, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Denke was appointed to interview the council with a view to having more lights placed in the park and the lower part of the band stand inclosed.

Mrs. J. C. Denke, leader for next week, announced that "Grandmother's Way and Ours" will be the subject for the 14th, when, among other features of the program, members will listen to a quartet by grandmothers. Mrs. J. C. Denke will also read a paper.

At the close of the meeting tea was served by the refreshment committee and a social time enjoyed.

FILER HAPPENINGS

(From The Filer Journal.)

W. R. Bolger and wife of Boise, are recent additions to Filer. Mr. Bolger is a jeweler and has taken a position with the Filer Hardware Co. Mrs. Bolger is a cousin to Mrs. Shaffner. Word comes from Pocatello that another child has been born to the family of Mrs. Bolger. This time it is a little girl, and her name is Mary Lois.

Six emigrant cars arrived here from Nebraska last Monday. The cars contain the goods of Messrs. Hagler, Hean, Meyer, Litzmann, and Wm. and Arthur Warner, all of whom with their families will locate at Clover.

The city marshal has done a good job of trimming the trees that line every street in town. Filer's trees are a big asset, and everybody in town is desirous of seeing them get the best possible attention.

It pays to advertise. Last week the Journal ran a little ad. from a mother anxious to locate her boy. As soon as the paper was out on the routes the boy was located. He is working for the Filer Hardware Co. and is a little careless in his correspondence, consequently an anxious mother desired to locate him.

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. Dwight entertained at an informal tea in honor of Mrs. Watson of Twin Falls and Mrs. C. K. Costello in the parlors of the Filer Pharmacy. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Shearer, Trull, Costello, Moore, Pierce, Hixley, Schildman, Watson and Tanner.

WASHING ITS HANDS OF THE SALMON TRACT.

Governor Alexander did not create the situation that exists on the Salmon tract today; neither did Attorney General Peterson; nor did the other members of the state land board. Every member of that board sincerely regrets that the conditions on that unfortunate project are as they are. The board is trying to correct the trouble. It has proposed a compromise between the bondholders and the settlers, which is optional with the parties interested to either accept or disregard. If the compromise suggested is not accepted by the settlers, the board's duties and obligations in the matter end; and no harm has been done. The board can not force the settlers or the bondholders to accept anything they do not want. A prolonged law suit is the worst thing that can happen to the tract, and the land board will not start one or encourage the settlers in starting or maintaining one. The land board is merely an on-looker in this matter, interested more or less to be sure, and perfectly willing to act in the way of a friendly mediator in the controversy.

Thus, as complacently as did Pontius Pilate wash his hands of the death of Christ, would the state land board wash its hands of its responsibilities towards the unfortunate entanglement on the Salmon river project.

No one claims that the state officials at present constituting the land board created the difficulties of the Salmon project; no one doubts but that they are sorry that such conditions exist.

What everyone does claim that knows anything about the situation is that the state of Idaho, by and through its board of land commissioners, entered into a contract, as one of the principal parties, for the reclamation of the lands embraced in the Salmon segregation; that neither the promotion company nor its successors have reclaimed these lands or complied with terms of that contract; and THAT THE PRESENT STATE LAND BOARD REFUSES TO LIFT A HAND TO ENFORCE ANY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THAT CONTRACT, or even, in lieu of the terms of the contract, to secure for the entrymen any equitable adjustment of their interests based upon the STATE'S contract.

The state land board has, on the other hand, proposed a compromise that would effectually depopulate the Salmon tract and leave the promotion company completely in control of the situation; to reduce its area, and re-sell the lands with their improvements, representing as they do in the majority of cases, the life's savings of the present owners, to say nothing of several years' unprofitable toil.

So far as the land board is concerned the settlers can accept the proposal if they see fit. At all events the land board has discharged its duty and freed itself from further obligation.

POCATELLO TRIBUNE "BABIES" SPECIALIST.

(Grangeville Free Press)

Amusing indeed. The Pocatello Tribune accusing the Twin Falls Times of having its dope twisted. The Trib says of the Times: "It seems to think that the Tribune apologizes for the Haines' administration in upsetting a Democratic plan to further the candidacy of a certain Republican candidate, etc." Then follows the truthful assertion of the Trib that it has supported every Republican administration or ticket. Right! Every illegitimate son of Solomon knows its support.

If the Twin Falls Times made the assertion that the Pocatello Tribune "apologizes" for anything, it certainly was in error. The Tribune never apologizes. It affirms. Anything and everything Republican from the Allen matter down the line, "if it is Republican. For whatever is Republican is right with the Tribune, except perhaps in the question of bossism,"—the Tribune would prefer its choice of bosses.

The most interesting passage or emission of the Pocatello Tribune editorial spin is as follows:

"The present governor could go further in working out the things that were started by John Haines, but he has neither the nerve nor purpose. There never was a Democratic governor in the state with the nerve. The state of Idaho today is losing heavy interest on money that John Haines attempted to save because Moses Alexander won't try to collect it."

"The state of Idaho is losing heavy interest on money John Haines attempted to save." True! The truth appears from matters in discussion before the state land board last week, finally resulting in directing foreclosure on certain state loans.

The board acted on the strength of a certain loan article regarding past loans by former state boards, which news-matter appeared in the Sunday Capital News of a week ago Sunday. This article gave loan numbers and the conditions of loans.

The state is losing interest on loans to Republican politicians. For example, Loan No. 298, for $600,000, made to an office holder at the time. Defaulted interest due Jan. 1, 1916, amounted to $2400; taxes and penalties, $1119.94; water assessments, $996.43; total $4216.41 overdue on a loan of $600,000. No action taken on the loan. Present personnel of land board: Republican a sin the past.

Governor Alexander demanded action of the present land board on this and other rotten relics of Republican land boards. Yes the state is losing "heavy interest," today, yesterday and for some time previous, and Governor Haines, politically bog tied, coerced and influenced, defended by brave champions of predatory politics, similarly inclined as the Tribune, let them ride while a big treasury steal was being perpetrated.

Is there any of the old gangsters for which the Trib would not or does not argue? No wonder its editor foams at the mouth and like Edgar Allan Poe, surrounded by morbid thoughts and things, creates morbid things and "raids" editorial efforts, for example such as appeared in the same column as the "Payroll Yappers" effort from which we cite the above Tribune effort and entitled "Rabies" by the Trib ink splasher. The Pocatello journalist is mad, really and truly so, in every meaning and sense of the word, "A Mad Republican."

Rave on oh Summer! Is there not somewhere in South Idaho, a bug house, where such fits may be pasteurized?

"WHENEVER YOU'RE READY, GENERAL!"

(Salt Lake Desert News)

Secretary of War Baker has already shown one desirable qualification for his new position in deciding to give a free hand to the United States embassy at the Mexican border in conducting the pursuit and punishment of bandit Villains. Not all cabinet officers have been thus sensible, even though they may have had full confidence in the officer entrusted with carrying out their orders. Swivel-chair campaigners are the bane of all men trained to the trade of arms, and many a good plan has been rendered ineffective because the desk theorists could not or would not keep their hands off.

Gen. Funston, who will have the direction of the present expedition, is held in high repute as a man who "does things." He is prompt to decide, and thorough in action. He would chafe under a mass of detailed instructions, and needs only to be told in a general way what is wanted—and he will come as near as anybody can in getting the desired result. His principal difficulty will be in restraining the ardor of his officers and men, whose temper has become restive under long protraction—and restraint is not his own most striking attribute. Nevertheless he is not without due prudence, and it is unlikely that he will permit any overstepping of the orders which limit his operations to the punitive purpose. There are warm times ahead for the foxy Villain and his followers; and while the task of the U. S. troops may prove larger than is now expected, there is every reason to believe it will be quickly accomplished if Funston is furnished men and supplies promptly and is allowed to go at it in his own way.

A PATRIOTIC OFFER.

(Salt Lake Desert News)

The offer of former Secretary of War Garrison to place himself at the service of his successor in office in the trying situation presented by the latest turn of affairs on the Mexican border is praiseworthy in the highest degree. Judge Garrison, in his long acquaintance with the many phases this perplexing international problem has assumed from time to time, knows it as no other individual in the country. In solving the present puzzle, Secretary Baker will require the most exact information available, and no one is so well qualified to give it as his predecessor. Judge Garrison's bigness, his fine public spirit and his patriotism were never shown to better advantage.

HEREDITY SUBJECT OF OLIVER SERMON

Evangelist Says "Your Sin Will Find You Out" in Posterity as in Your Own Life.

Dr. Oliver spoke to 2000 men on the theme "Heredity," Sunday afternoon. He said in part:

"Should you take a piece of paper and write down all you know of the future, you would be amazed to discover how little space it would cover. But there are three certainties in God's word as regards the future of every man: First, 'It is appointed unto men once to die'; second, 'After this the judgment'; and the third is the text which says: 'The sure your sin will find you out.' There are four phases of the exposure. The first is the inescapable law of heredity. It is a scientific fact that 50 per cent of the hereditary tendencies are directly traceable to father and mother and 50 per cent to preceding generations. The term of life is one-one hundred and twenty-fifth part of an inch in diameter, but it carries with it the impressions and the tendencies of evil and good and the infidelities of fathers are visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generations. Heredity is memory. Indelibly stamped upon the delicate plasticities are the impressions of a man's thought and in the life of a son may be seen even upon the every facial expression, the likeness of a father. So do moral and spiritual impressions come down from father to son. Be sure your sin will find you out. A gambler at Ottumwa, Iowa, killed a man over the game and was condemned to die on the gallows. It was to be a public hanging. Gathered about the scaffold were hundreds of men to witness the execution. The sheriff, a kindhearted man, saw the murderer's little two-year-old boy in the arms of a man in the crowd and turning to the condemned man he said: 'Wouldn't you like to take your boy in your arms once before you go?' 'Thank you, sheriff,' the poor unfortunate man replied, and the sheriff had the little boy put into his father's arms. The gambler looked out into the faces of the crowd that day and with the tears streaming down his face and he said: 'Men, for God's sake don't let my boy follow me. I leave him to you and ask that you see that he gets a chance.' A man took his hat and passed among the men, securing $700 for that boy that day. It was not out of interest to be compounded. The boy was given a place in a good farm home and he grew to be 21 years of age, a steady, promising young fellow. On the day he reached his majority the old farmer said: 'You are grown and you are a little money maker, and you may take your choice of a business career. We would like for you to stay with us, we have learned to love you. We've tried to do our best by you.' The wife spoke, assuring him they wished him success and prosperity. The boy said: 'You have been good to me. A father and mother could not have been better to their own boy than you have been to me. But I'm a man and I think I ought to start out for myself.' He told them goodbye and took his money and went to Ottumwa.

Three years later he died a gutter drunkard. Be sure your sin will find you out. Drunken, licentious, adulterous fathers produce degenerate sons and fallen girls. Impossible to get a $20,000 boy from five-cent dad. You can turn a fine, honest blooded horse or cattle into the woods and permit them to run wild at will and they will revert to the "razor-back," "long-horn" variety. In the name of all that is reversible and true let's give more attention to blooded boys and blooded girls.

"MY MADONNA" AT THE ISIS.

In "My Madonna," in which Mme. Petrova, the wonderful emotional actress, starred, the Pocatello Players has achieved a masterpiece of screen production for release in the Metro program, that is a great human drama. The picture, which was adapted for screen presentation from the poem of the same name by Robert W. Service, author of "The Spell of the Yukon," and other literary gems, affords Mme. Petrova unlimited opportunity to give free rein to her supreme dramatic talents. In the big scenes she appears at her best even surpassing her efforts on the speaking stage. An excellent cast supports Mme. Petrova, including Guy Combe, the old Kalem star, and one of the best actors on the screen, who in this production makes his debut in Metro pictures. Among the others in the cast are Evelyn Duno, Albert Henson and James O'Neill.

"My Madonna" will be seen here at the Isis theatre Wednesday and Thursday evening.

LAYERING THEATRE TO STAGE.

Lavering theatre patrons will next week be treated to a novel and pleasing admixture of entertainment. Hypnotism, comedy and dancing galore will comprise the principal items on the notable bill which Manager Laving has booked for three days commencing Thursday, March 23rd. After negotiations extending over a month, Manager Laving has succeeded in securing Dr. Henry Geo. Lorenz, the noted American hypnotist, and his 1916 Exposition City Road show, which was one of the features of the amusement zone at the San Francisco exposition. Dr. Lorenz is too well known as a successful and entertaining demonstrator of the possibilities of hypnotism to need any extended introduction to American theatre-goers. He is well known here in the west and performs some of the most remarkable scenes in hypnotism ever seen on the stage. His "Death Scene of Dr. Jeckle and Mr. Hyde," is sensational, and the many amusing tests with local people well known to the audience has created roars of laughter.

Chief among the array of talent that goes to make up the Lorenz 1916 Road show is "Terrill," the famous East India and Egyptian dancer, late of the Panama-Pacific Folies, recent exposition attraction, featuring gorgeous costumes and jewelry, designed especially for this graceful exponent of the terpsichorean art. RABIES INJURES MEAT

ONLY WHEN DEVELOPED

Dr. Henderson Explains Why He Held That Douglas Herd Could Be Sold—No Proof That Hogs Were Exposed.

"The meat of animals bitten by rabid dogs or coyotes is not affected thereby before the disease has developed," said Dr. L. C. Henderson Friday, commenting on the fact that he had advised T. J. Douglas that he might sell the hogs, which the owner supposed had been exposed, for immediate slaughter. "There is no definite period of incubation for hydrophobia and until it has manifested itself and the animal becomes sick as a result, its flesh is not injured. After it is unfit for human food, and the flesh of any sick animal is unfit for human food. I want to be understood on this point. In the case of Mr. Douglas there is no reason why the hogs should not be sold. In the first place, there is no country in the dog bit any animal. In the second place, there is no positive proof that the dog was mad. In the third place, the hogs which subsequently showed signs of being sick and which Mr. Douglas killed on suspicion that it was affected with hydrophobia, might not have been affected with the disease, but might have been troubled with indigestion. There was, therefore, no reason to assume that any of the hogs were affected with rabies, and no more reason for holding up the herd and prohibiting its sale than for holding up any other herd on the unproven suspicion that possibly some animal in it might have been bitten.

HOGS CLIMBING UP ON THE MARKET

Portland Shows Higher Prices—Sheep Still Commanding Good Money and Cattle Market, Excellent.

The few hog receipts scored another ten-cent raise, making the top $8.40, says the Portland Live Stock Reporter Thursday.

Tuesday's receipts were 660 head. For the main part they were Idaho and bulk sold at $8.25. The quality was not as good as the best Monday.

Wednesday the receipts were somewhat smaller; nearly all of them were good quality offerings and sold at $8.30.

Thursday the receipts were light—less than 300 head on the early market. The general tone of the market is very strong and not nearly enough hogs are coming to supply the demand.

Shippers have been a very important factor in the market right along. The many buyers causing exceedingly interesting competition.

One of the features of the market is the absence of prime heavy hogs. All the prime offerings are of the light-weight class. General quotations are: Prime hogs $8.40; good to prime mixed $7.25 to $8.25; rough heavy packing $7.20 to $7.50; pigs and skips, $7.00 to $7.60.

The receipts are very light again—or yet. Hardly enough coming over the unloading docks to "make a shot-gun." There has been practically no receipts except a couple of thousand brought in direct to a local packer.

After lambing and shearing the sheep market should be in better shape as regards receipts. At the present time there are practically no sheep in feed lots that are ready, and won't be until grass starts buying to come in.

No lamb receipts or sales since Monday on the open market. (Current quotations: Choice lambs $8.90 to $9.25; common lambs $8.00 to $8.75.)

No butcher receipts or sales since Monday on the open market. (Current quotations: Choice yearlings, $7.50 to $8.00; good yearlings, $7.00 to $7.50; choice wethers, $7.00 to $7.50; good wethers, $6.75 to $7.00; choice ewes, $6.50 to $7.00; good ewes, $6.00 to $6.50.)

Since Monday there has been practically nothing in the steer division. Trade outlook is very good in this class. Tuesday there were a few fairly fat steers but lacked finish, they being rough and without any outstanding quality. They brought $7.15 for eight head and $6.50 for the balance. They were considered to have been well sold at these prices. There were only a few steers today—valley of only fair quality. General quotations are: Choice grain and pulp-fed, $7.70 to $7.90; choice dry fed, $7.50 to $7.70; good, $7.00 to $7.25; medium, $6.75 to $7.00; ordinary, $6.50 to $6.75; common, $6.00 to $6.50.

There were around twenty head of ordinary cows sold yesterday from $3.00 to $2.50. The few were only sprinkling of butcher stock of only fair quality. General quotations are: Choice $6.75; good, $6.50 to $6.75; medium, $6.25 to $6.50; ordinary, $6.00 to $6.25; common, $5.50 to $6.00.

Present quotations for heifers are: Choice spayed $6.75 to $6.75; good $6.00 to $6.25; other varieties, $4.00 to $5.00.

The week so far has shown but a very few sales of bulls. There is no change in prices. Demand is keen for bulls of good quality. They should be smooth and fat. The receipts today were three, dairy bulls of fair quality. Sales were made at $4.00. General quotations are: Bulls—Choice, $3.50 to $4.00; good, $3.00 to $3.50; medium, $2.75 to $3.00; common, $2.50 to $2.75. Steers—Choice, $5.00 to $5.25; good, $4.50 to $5.00; other varieties, $3.00 to $4.00.

GOVERNOR URGES PEOPLE OF THE WEST TO PATRONIZE WESTERN INDUSTRIES

In a proclamation issued yesterday Governor Alexander urged the people of the west to patronize western industries.

"Patronizing the industries of the Pacific northwest, and, finally, purchasing goods made in the United States, endeavoring at all times to give the business the greatest possible impetus, and because this movement has already gained impetus in Idaho."

"Now, therefore, I, Moses Alexander, governor of the state of Idaho, hereby proclaim and set aside the week beginning on Monday, the 30 day of April, and ending on Sunday, the 5 day of May, as 'Western Consumers' Week,' and advise the careful observance of this period by all the citizens of the state, in order that the principles may be thoroughly imbedded and the result be a greater development of our home resources."

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed this 30 day of March, 1919."

"M. ALEXANDER, Governor."

KIMBERLY BUILDING BOOM IS NOW ON

Local Paper Describes Many New Edifices That Will Go Up This Year in Town East.

Kimberly is on the threshold of a real boom, says the Idaho Call. Building operations will soon begin in earnest—then watch our smoke. The J. O. F. building has bought the north twenty-five feet of the old bank corner—consideration $1,000.00, and jointly will soon begin the erection of a new two-story building which will be as near fire proof as can be built here. The building will have a fifty-foot front with stairway from Main street. The foundation and basement of the old bank building was damaged very little by the fire and will be utilized. The bank vault went through the fire without injury. The upper story of the bank building will be let for offices and that of the Odd Fellows used as a lodge room. The lower story of the Odd Fellows building will be fitted up for a store room.

Jones and Turner will build on the adjoining twenty-five foot lot which will be occupied by the new meat market. E. W. Tilley, the jeweler, will build on the next twenty-five feet, making a total frontage of one hundred feet for the new building.

Swearingin & Wilson have completed the excavation for their new hardware store, and as soon as this building is completed the hardware store building will be moved to another site and Wilson Bros. will erect a new store building. W. A. Gill will begin the erection of a new brick garage and shop 60x100, a number of new residences are in course of construction, and others contemplated.

At least four new houses will be built during the past week, or will be established as soon as buildings are ready, viz: Studebaker Brothers, Consolidated Wagon & Machine company—sample lines already here—a new modern meat market, tea and coffee house which will also handle groceries.

Keep your eye on Kimberly! A bond election has been called by the school board for Saturday, March 18th, submitting the question as to whether or not the district shall be bonded for $40,000.00 for the erection of a new high school, and for the furnishing of the same. This does not include the cost of a site for the new building. The bonds are to run for twenty years and bear interest not to exceed five and one-half per cent. Considerable interest is being taken in the matter but there seems to be but little, if any, opposition to the bonds carrying.

KIMBERLY NOTES
(From the Kimberly Call)

The Men's club will meet the third Monday in March at the M. E. church. The meeting will be addressed by Mayor Sweeney and the chief of the fire department of Twin Falls. The Ladies' Aid society will serve a big feed after the meeting.

"The Food" and "Livestock" company is the name of a new meat market that will soon be opened for business in the building on the corner north of the Kimberly Hardware & Implement company. The new firm is composed of Messrs. Beck, Alexander and Mund. Messrs. Beck and Alexander will have charge of the new shop.

Stall Swearingin and wife and child have returned from a three-day visit at Sutton and Stockham, Nebraska. The trip was not altogether a pleasant one as Mrs. Swearingin went there to be operated on for appendicitis. While there their little two and one-half year old daughter died and Mrs. Swearingin's mother also died.

I. Fontley, proprietor of the Kimberly hotel and pool room, has begun work remodeling the pool room and the dining room of the hotel will be used temporarily as a pool room or a bar. The building can be secured. A kitchen has been added to the building. A fine new soda fountain and new fixtures are on the road and he expects to have the new place in running order by the first of April.

The new chemical fire engine has arrived and it is expected that it will be in service next week.

The Ajax agent at Twin Falls and probably the chief of the fire department of that place will have charge of the trip. Fred Lind is visiting from Flippin and will be here to witness the demonstration with a view of recommending the purchase of one or more of the engines for their towns if this demonstration proves satisfactory. Three chemical charges came with the engine and it is the intention of the committee in charge to give it a thorough test.

TWO CHARGES OF LARCENY.

Z. Curtis yesterday swore to a complaint charging Samuel White with the theft of a buckskin two-year-old mule, and about the same time E. H. Butler filed a complaint charging Bill Hill with stealing a yearling calf.

The Smoke of Men Who Win

A fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette almost says "Speed up!" right out loud. Keen-eyed, clear-headed young fellows smoke "Bull" Durham because it has the sparkle and the "punch"—the youthful vim and vigor. Every time you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham you open the door to Hustle.

...in somewhat broken accents. A period of general amusement and sociability stimulated by music from Friedman's orchestra, was begun and continued throughout the evening. It seems that Mr. Lyons has recently installed a gymnasium and athletic club at Culliton Hall and made a sort of opening exhibition for the entertainment of the guard. The first number of which was a catch-as-catch-can performance on the mat between Theo. Benno and Geo. Harris. Both the boys were light weights and would hardly be called experts; but they were quite evenly matched, both were game and went for three falls with a zeal and zest that made real entertainment and brought hearty encouragement and applause. The first fall was won by Harris, but Benno developed staying qualities and took the other two.

Mr. C. L. Longley then talked to the boys for some twenty minutes and was complimented by excellent attention although the position of his auditors, standing or sitting on the floor, was not too comfortable. The talk consisted chiefly of rehashing of fifty years ago, going to show how far from being a real and effective soldier is the patriotic young volunteer who leaves the school room, the plow or the reaper to "spring" to arms at the call of his country. Incidentally it was made enthusiastically obvious that however much the mild desecration and deprecate war, the young guardsmen did not favor a peace purchased at the price of National dishonor.

This was followed by a bout with the gloves between Dorman Rice, of Company D, and Jack Kirkman, who is now employed on one of the new buildings here, after six years in the U. S. Navy. In announcing this, as in the case of the wrestling match, Mr. Lyons stated that it was merely a match for points and that no rough-house tactics would be attempted or permitted. The real sporting editor of this paper is on a vacation and his substitute is unable to give a technical description of this "war," distinguishing properly between "punches," "jabs," "counters," "biffs," etc., but they were all on hand during the four very lively and quite even rounds of the encounter. Another mat match between Alexander and Putnam, both local boys, claimed attention and received much applause and although the latter secured two falls in succession and won the match, he found vigorous opposition at every turn.

The little bugler who blew the meal call at this juncture was very popular, and the coffee, sandwiches, pickles, pie cake, etc., with which everyone was abundantly served, ruled the cheerful hour. The special train upon which Company K returned to Dubl was scheduled to leave at 11:30 and claimed its passengers at about the time the lunch had been disposed of, concluded the first of the social meetings of the two companies with a degree of success that should insure against its being the last one.

Besides the commanding officers of the companies, already named "K" was accompanied by 1st Lieutenant R. E. Slew and 2nd Lieutenant E. A. Landson; while 1st Lieutenant C. H. Krengel, and 2nd Lieutenant Prater further represented Company D. The occasion was also honored by the presence of Lieutenant Colonel J. T. Henderson, of Arco, and Lieutenant Woodin, of Idaho Falls; and "I'm not going to forget that Company K brought along as one of its sergeants, Mr. L. C. Washburn, a man who not only served with Grant in the 89th Pa. Infantry in 1865, but stands up to everything going, even qualifying as a marksman in the Idaho National Guard in 1910! NOT TO MOVE UNTIL FORCES ARE READY military has been held up.

Army circles feel bound to respect the fear of residents in American towns that, notwithstanding assurances from General Carranza's representatives, uprisings may follow the actual occupation of Mexican territory by American soldiers. It is felt that the welfare of the border cannot be sacrificed to the doubtful success of a hasty and therefore unprepared pursuit of the fugitive, Villa.

General Funston's statement regarding the uncertainty of the punitive expedition's departure was in reply to what he termed the impatience of the American people for speedy action. "The people must be patient," he said. "We must adequately prepare for this thing."

In the first place, we must use, as much as possible, soldiers who are accustomed to Mexican border duty. However, these men cannot be recovered from their present posts until they are relieved by troops drawn from other departments and hurried to the border.

"Transportation of the relief patrols is not an easy matter. Many of these troops consist of scattered detachments that have to be concentrated and sometimes after difficult marches, before they can be sent southward."

"Concentration and transportation of troops is not all our problem. However, we are going to march into a country that will afford us little or no forage. The commissary must be adequately supplied."

"A Villa follower can live on little or nothing. An American soldier must be well fed if he is to give good service."

"We won't gain anything by haste. To send an inadequate force, insufficiently prepared, after Villa would hinder, and not hasten matters."

Speaking regarding the course the campaign will take General Funston said:

"There will be more than one expeditionary force, although I am not at liberty to say how many or from what point or points they will start."

"All this will be left to the discretion of the expeditionary commander, who will have complete charge of all the forces in the field. I don't believe in swivel chair campaigning."

"Necessarily, the campaign will develop new situations and the disposal of the troops is contingent upon these developments. I may at intervals visit the field forces."

"Of course the expedition will not await the arrival at the border of all the troops now being dispatched from other departmental stations. It will be gotten under way just as soon as possible and as other troops arrive they will be sent forward as reinforcements."

"El Paso naturally will be the base of supplies for our army. El Paso will be supplied through Fort San Antonio, San Antonio."

The general explained that the first aero squadron and the regular scout of the army would not do all of the scouting for the expedition.

"We are hiring civilian scouts," he said, "who are familiar with every foot of the territory we will penetrate—Americans who have been working down in that country for years."

It is the general's expectation that the aero squadron will be of great service.

"Of course, the fliers have seen duty down on the border," he said. "They couldn't accomplish much, however, for thickets and stretches of barbed wire make observations difficult. Out in the open, however, the boys will render great service."

Advance duty service is the area detachments that are thrown out to make hazardous work the American position will encounter, General Funston said.

"Villistas will at times surprise these scouting parties," he said. "Ordinary warfare our men might, hopelessly outnumbered and realize that they were to be surrounded."

To surrender to the Villistas, however, would be worse than fight. Villa's men will kill every American they can lay hands on. Every counter with them means a fight to the death."

It has been decided that the first aero squadron will not attempt a flight to the base of operations. The training of the eight machines, the necessary trucks and motorcycles, the supplies, began Sunday but was completed. The squadron will not move until Monday, when it will proceed to El Paso.
