OPENS TO THE PUBLIC SAT., APRIL 22

NOTHING like it in Southern Idaho—Natural Hot Water, just the right temperature, with a plunge 20x50 feet—well equipped with "change rooms" for men, women and children. Lunch counter and hotel accommodations. Artesian City is a splendid place to spend your leisure hours—plenty of shade, with ideal blue grass grounds for picnic and pleasure parties. Good trout fishing in the streams to the south of the city.

A trip to Artesian is worth your while—it's but a trifle more than an hour's auto ride from Twin Falls, Burley and Oakley. Artesian City is destined to become the "play ground" of Southern Idaho, and a health resort of no small importance. You will be agreeably surprised and you'll be made welcome at Artesian City.

SPEND YOUR WEEK-END AT ARTESIAN

DANCE EVERY WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT

LET "ARTESIAN CITY" BE THE ANSWER TO YOUR DESIRE FOR "SOMETHING TO DO—SOMEWHERE TO GO."

YOU WILL LIKE ARTESIAN CITY

The air is pure—the climate is delightful, and as a health resort it is almost certain to attain renown. In early days Indians suffering from rheumatism, are said to have journeyed miles, and miles to avail themselves of the benefits derived from "mud baths" at the springs, which were then undeveloped.

In season there is an abundance of all kinds of fruits at Artesian. Several hundred acres, irrigated by these hot water wells, yield bounteous crops.

You are invited to "see this country," and to drink and bathe in its natural hot water.

SESSION OF PRESBYTERY AT BURLEY MOST SUCCESSFUL

Reported to be the Best Meeting Ever Held—Burley Selected as Place for Fall Session.

The spring meeting of the Twin Falls presbytery convened in regular session in the First Presbyterian church of Burley, Idaho, Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m. The evening session had been preceded by a pre-presbytery conference on "Efficiency," at which the speakers were Revs. J. P. Shepherd and J. K. MacGillivray of Twin Falls, John D. Keith of Hollister, M. Van Patton of Burley, W. S. Young of Eden, C. C. Habbidge of Bellevue and Frank A. Miller of Chicago. This conference was presided over by Rev. J. H. Barton of Boise, synodical superintendent of home missions. The conference will be in effectual in the memory of those present because of the splendid addresses and the spiritual power prevailing upon all. At 6:30 p. m. Tuesday a very dainty and bountiful supper, prepared by the ladies of the church, was spread, and presbytery attendants and others gathered and feasted upon the choice viands. After supper, Professor Ranc, of the Burley schools, acted as toastmaster and Revs. J. P. Shepherd and J. D. Keith made addresses on "Men and the Church" and "Winning Men," respectively. Burley was chosen as the place of meeting of the fall session. Following the finish of business, a resolution of thanks was adopted and the presbytery recessed to 8 p. m. At 6:30 a banquet supper equal to that of Tuesday was spread. Following it, W. W. Youmans acted as toastmaster and addresses were made by Rev. R. M. Davidson of First church, Boise, and by Rev. M. Van Patton of Burley. Going to the auditorium, a great sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Davidson on "Christ, the Master Builder." He was assisted in the service by Revs. J. P. Shepherd, W. S. Young and A. C. Evans. The presbytery, and called to order, the resolution of thanks was read by Rev. J. D. Keith, chairman, and, on motion, presbytery adjourned to meet in the Presbyterian church of Gooding on May 12 at 8 p. m. to install the new pastor there, Rev. S. S. White of the presbytery of San Joaquin. A committee was appointed in response to a petition to organize a church near Herman. A committee was appointed to plan and hold a young people's convention in Twin Falls at a day to be set. One of the enjoyable features of the evening session was, in addition to the ladies' supper, the ladies' quartet, which sang some appropriate selections both Tuesday and Wednesday. All attending left Thursday for their homes.

The big mill means a big addition to Burley's present pay roll.

GLEE CLUB OF T. OF L. TO APPEAR IN TWIN FALLS

One of the remarkable features of the Idaho Glee club, which is to appear here the latter part of April, is that the boys are all Idaho boys, born and reared in this state; not only that, but many of them are from the various parts of the state. This is the fourth trip the club has taken this year, having toured the northern section of the state and eastern Washington on three very successful trips. Twin Falls people will have the opportunity of hearing a very excellent program, including everything from grand opera to the present-day rag-time.

Besides special mention which might be given a number of others of the group, Miss Evelyn Cox, is especially capable as a soprano. Her voice, of remarkable finish for an amateur, possesses unusual range and shows dramatic possibilities. Harry Hawley, reader, in his interpretation of Kipling's Gunga Din, and Raymond McVey, pianist, are both very capable, each in their separate department, while the club is most successful with Lacombe's Recitativo, and a picked quartet appears to be at advantage in happy feature selection.

GAS ATTACK SEEN FROM AEROPLANE

This remarkable picture, taken by a Russian airman, illustrates the start of a gas attack in the eastern war zone, the poisonous cloud rolling before a westerly wind towards the Russian lines after being released from the gas cylinders operated by the Germans in the center of the picture. On the right three lines of German troops awaiting the moment to advance, their lengthening shadows showing that the sun is nearly setting.

FAMOUS AUTHOR LAUDS TWIN FALLS SCENERY

Mayor Sweeney Declares That His Observations Would Lose Much If Printed.

"It does a man good to show the Twin Falls country to a man like Opdel Reid, who can appreciate it," said Mayor Sweeney, on his return to the city Monday evening from a trip with the noted lecturer to Shoshone Falls, Idaho Lakes and other beauty spots around this city. "It is not possible to quote him, because there is more in the way that he says things, than in the words themselves and his comments on the scenery as he went along would lose much of their value and force if appearing in cold type. He is so thoroughly appreciative of things that are worth while and takes such a profound interest in them that it is a pleasure every minute to be with him, and if what he said as he went along could be established as to convey to readers the meaning which he put into it, it would make a story of the greatest interest."

Mr. Reid arrived on the noon train and spent all the afternoon with Mr. Sweeney, enjoying the great scenery around the city, before delivering his lecture in the Redpath course.

TECHNICAL INSTITUTE GIVES TWIN FALLS RARE TREAT

On Friday evening at the high school, the students of the conservatory of music of the Idaho Technical Institute of Pocatello, under the directorship of Prof. R. T. Blair, presented an excellent musical program. This was one of the many programs which have been given in the state by the conservatory for the purpose of furthering the interests of music in Idaho.

A small but appreciative crowd were in attendance. The program was as follows:
Violin, "Scene de Ballet"—deBoriat.
Vocal, (a) "Who Art Thou Weeps"—Woodman; (b) "For-Get-Me-Not"—Woodman.
Piano, (a) "Novelette"—McDowell;

PACKED SNOW MELTING SLOWLY ON MOUNTAINS

Abundant and Well-Sustained Flow of Water for Irrigation Purposes Is Looked For.

The snowfall bulletin for March issued by Section Director Edward L. Wells of the weather bureau, climatological service, shows that the elevated regions of Idaho are covered with almost double the normal amount of snow, exceeding by one-third the greatest amount ever recorded for the months of November, December, January, February and March.

The bulletin states:
While the snowfall during March was considerably lighter than during the three months preceding, it was above normal particularly at the higher levels, and was heavier recorded in snow in the last five years. This snowfall, added to the large amounts that fell in November, December, January and February, make a total that is almost double the normal amount for the five-month period, and exceeds by one-third the greatest amount ever recorded in a similar period before. There was rapid melting at the lower levels during the month, and even at the higher levels the depth decreased somewhat, but in the latter case the decrease in depth was more due to settling than to actual losses. Streams have carried a good flow, but there has been no excessively high water, and it is believed that most of the water has come from points of moderate elevation.

The soil, which was unusually dry at the beginning of winter, has remained unfrozen under the snow, and has absorbed large quantities of water, and is now believed to be well filled. The snow supply now remaining is above normal over practically the entire state, including those sections where it was deficient earlier in the season. The excess is apparently greatest in the central and southwestern portions. The snow is compact with a high water content, and is drifted more than usual, while slides have been relatively infrequent.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

Until Cottolene was offered, people thought—and rightly—that most fried foods were greasy, indigestible and unhealthful. But Cottolene was quickly found to be a frying aid which actually made foods better tasting and better to eat.

None of the good flavor of the food is allowed to escape; the cooking process is rightly finished and the digestibility of the food is retained along with tempting taste.

It is this natural quality of Cottolene which also makes it so superior for pies, pastry, biscuits, cakes and all shortened foods.

Try Cottolene—order a small pail from your grocer. Then arrange with him for a regular supply.

Write to our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book "HOME HELPS."

KIMBERLY CHEMICAL

PROVES EFFECTIVE

Two Fires Speedily Extinguished—Many Other Items of Interest From Town East.

Memories of the destructive fire here last winter, when the Bank of Kimberly building was destroyed, were recalled Monday of this week, when the cry of fire rang out in the village—we mean the country. It was discovered that there was a fire at the alfalfa mill, and the chemical engine was at once attached to an automobile and taken to the mill. The roof was found to be on fire, and as the freight train had just come in from the east, it was assumed that sparks from the engine had caused the fire. The roof is corrugated iron, and this had become incandescent with chaff, which would easily catch fire. The iron had become so hot that the sheeting and rafters underneath had caught and in a short time the entire building would have been in flames. Owing to the height of the fire, it would have been practically impossible to have done effective work with a bucket brigade. Shortly after the chemical was brought to bear on the fire it was out and another disastrous blaze averted. Chief Atkinson will soon organize the two fire companies, and as soon as the other chemical arrives active practice will begin.

The Elson art exhibit which was held at the school auditorium proved a very successful affair, both educationally and financially. A large attendance was present at each session.

and much interest was manifested in the pictures. Two pictures were presented by the art company as prizes to the rooms selling the largest number of tickets. The pupils worked eagerly and the second grade won first prize, while the second was captured by the sixth grade. After all expenses were paid, a sum of $41 remained, which will be spent in purchasing pictures for the school. The open air pavilion erected on the vacant lots by the management in the Star theatre, in the fear of that playhouse, is completed, and it has been decided to dedicate it Saturday evening of this week. Invitations have been sent out all over this part of the tract and everybody is cordially invited to attend. The floor is exceptionally fine and special music will be on for by the Kimberly orchestra for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Fowley of the Kimberly cafe announce that they will install an up-to-date fountain in the front of their cafe at once, having same ordered at the present time. They will also conduct a 5-cent lunch counter, equipment for which is now complete and will be installed at once. This will give Kimberly three refreshment places, the other two being at the Stove pharmacy and the Electric cafe.

While Mrs. A. T. Near was on her way to Twin Falls last Saturday, her horse became frightened near the best sawy factory and ran away with her. The buggy was upset. Mrs. Near being thrown violently to the ground. She was severely bruised about the head and suffered minor injuries, but none of them were of a serious nature. An auto passing along the road picked her up and took her to Twin Falls for medical treatment. She is getting along nicely.

Since auto are getting more numerous around Kimberly and on this end of the tract, it might be well to call attention to the fact that it is not safe to appear on the streets of the county seat without a license, nor to drive beyond the speed limit, which is ten miles within the city. Officials of that city are enforcing the ordinance to the letter and several have been called to account recently.

SOCIETY NOTES

Society items for this column will be gladly received by the Times. Phone 125-W. The Society Editor.

The members of the P. E. O. society met with Mrs. L. A. Warner Monday of last week.

Master Billy Nixon will entertain his young friends with a birthday party Saturday afternoon.

The Kappa Delta Sigma sorority will entertain with a "Kidd" dance Monday evening, April 24, in Moose hall.

The usual meeting of the Priscilla Sewing club was held at the home of Mrs. Harriman, Thursday, April 13. Mrs. Van Meter and Mrs. Kalland were guests of the afternoon. At five o'clock a light luncheon was enjoyed.

The Shamrock club met last Thursday afternoon, April 13th, at the home of Mrs. Henry Richards. After the usual monthly business meeting, called to order by the president, the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially and dainty refreshments were served at the close.

The regular meeting of the Mother's Surprise club, was held at the home of Mrs. King on Wednesday. As several of the members were unable to be present the regular program was omitted and a social time was enjoyed. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. Fix and Mrs. McKinstry were guests of the club.

A most enjoyable session of the Blue Laker Bowling club was that over which Mrs. Patton presided last Friday afternoon. A reading by Miss Smith was enjoyed and the rest of the evening was devoted to conversation and plans for the farmers dinner. Mrs. Patton served a dainty two-course luncheon after the meeting. Most of the members were present.

The Whinnadous club, which did not meet during the revival meetings, held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. A. R. Ostrander last Wednesday. Miss Hubeck of Illinois, who is a guest of relatives here, and Mrs. C. Train, were guests. The afternoon was spent pleasantly with sewing. Later a dainty luncheon was served.

The ladies of the Twentieth Century Club are looking forward to their annual breakfast, which will be given this year on Friday, April 28, in the Old Town hall. The affair will be a banquet instead of a breakfast, and the guests will include the gentlemen. Over 200 guests are expected. Mrs. O'Rourke, who has a splendid exhibit at the fair this summer, will have charge of the decorations and Mrs. Nixon will be toast mistress.

On Saturday evening Miss Carmen Cox entertained a number of guests with a theatre party at the late in honor of her guest, Miss Bessie Joyce of Chicago. After the show the guests went to the Cox home where a most enjoyable evening was spent. Supper was served at two tables. These were tastefully decorated with crystal baskets filled with yellow and white roses. Each basket was tied with yellow tulle. Toy chickens and rabbits were placed here and there on the cloth. Each place was marked by a basket of candy Easter eggs. Music concluded the evening. The guests were Mesdames Hart, Burger, Evans, Joyce, Cox, Putnam; Messrs. Wallington, Girdner, Epler, Shaffer, Des Buisseaux and Graves.

A splendid finale to a year filled with good programs for the Twentieth Century club, was that under the supervision of Mrs. S. T. Murphy Tuesday afternoon and which friends as well as members enjoyed. The club business occupied a very small part of the time, among which was the decision to hold the breakfast in the parlour hall on the evening of the 25th, as the present meeting place is too small to accommodate the number who desire to attend. Tickets will be held for members until Wednesday morning, when those remaining unsold will be disposed of to friends of the club. The committee requested members to purchase their tickets at once. A rehearsal of the two songs which will be sung at the breakfast will take place next Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Old Fellow hall, when every member is urged to be present.

The president called attention to the play which will be given on May 5th for the club. It is John Drew's famous play, "Butterflies," and, with Mr. Olsen as director, the cast is making splendid progress.

Mrs. Murphy opened her program by announcing a solo by Miss Fannie Hart, whom the audience had an opportunity of hearing for the first time since her return from the south, where she received lessons in vocal culture. Improvement was made and all were so delighted with her singing that they insisted on an encore. Miss Vesta Thomas was her accompanist. Miss Hunsate gave the second number, a reading, and by her splendid rendition won her audience whose applause called for another treat, which was in negro dialect.

Then came two musical numbers by Mrs. Regan at the flute, Miss H. Shurtliff violin, and Mrs. A. E. Hunsate cello. The harmony was faultless and so sweet that a third selection was demanded.

Much amusement was occasioned when the characters in the operetta, "The Methodist Music Master," appeared, as follows: Music Master, Mrs. W. H. Dwight; Mr. Henderson, Mrs. S. T. Murphy; Mrs. Henderson, Miss Pauline Fields; Helen Henderson, Mrs. Tra Brown. The music is especially catchy and the harmony very pleasing. The party was well taken and afforded much enjoyment for their audience and praise for those whose efforts made it such a success.

The committee, headed by Mrs. Stettler and Mrs. Smith, served refreshments at the close of the program and later the departments gathered for organization.

TWIN FALLS

Little Sister's Photograph

How sweet she was last year when she was wearing for the first time her simple little spring dress and her new white stockings and slippers. Her eyes shone with gladness and her cheeks were rosy with the excitement for she was going to sing in the Easter chorus at church. Why didn't we have her picture taken then? Why didn't we? Will the soft curves of her plump arms ever be quite so alluring again?

That's a question we can not answer for you definitely, but we would risk saying yes. We see her and ever so many other little girls passing our studio every day and we're inclined to think they are all just as sweet as they were last year. Anyway, we ordered some very beautiful folders for children's portraits; they were the best on the spring market but none too good for the little people of Twin Falls.

REPUBLICANS MEET IN CONVENTION

standing of the wishes of the people as a whole than could be obtained by the direct primary alone. He said that the party was again face to face with its ancient enemy, and because of its blunder of two years ago was, for the third time since 1860, outside the brackets of the nation's government. He proceeded to arraign the incompetency of the present administration at home and abroad, and the vacillation at home. He said that, owing to a state of mind, fostered largely by the Democratic party, which held that to be prosperous was to be criminal, the Democratic party, when placed in power, had approached the solution of the tariff question in a way which had been a disaster to the country. He said that the country was enjoying, enacted a tariff from which protection had been eliminated. Business failed to see what would happen and then, when it did happen, halted to determine the effect of the legislation of the Democratic party. At this point Mr. Randall turned suddenly pale, halted, dropped his voice, but still attempted to proceed. Several rushed to him and caught him as he was saying and about to fall. He speedily recovered, but, being unable to continue his speech, Col. Thomas H. H. of St. Anthony, whose speech was scheduled for a later time, was placed in the chair. Colonel Hanner at once plunged into a bitter and eloquent arraignment of the Democratic party, which he described as weak, cowardly and inefficient. He declared that if we should fail to reverse the covardly policy of recent years, our land would be "invaded with a savage horde, our homes destroyed, our women ravished, our libraries burned and our Christian civilization replaced by paganism. We cannot stand this and will not." The colonel is a brilliant speaker and aroused plenty of enthusiasm with the speech which he threw into things. He declared, however, that there was some hope, a rift had appeared in the clouds, and that the country had not declared himself a convert to preparedness and a believer in a tariff commission. Standing prominently on these two great planks of the Republican convention, there was hope for further reform on the part of the president. The speaker favored the reaffirming of the principles of Republicanism and the election of a ticket that would stand on every plank until we were satisfied with the result. The Republican party was chastened by the infliction brought upon it by its own stupidity two years ago, and was ready to go ahead and make sure to victory. He would rather be a progressive in the Taft camp or a standstill in the Roosevelt camp than to wear the brightest Democratic garb in the jewelry store of the late Mrs. Galt, who, however, he declared had shown by her conversion of the president to the principles of a tariff commission and preparedness that she was a better statesman than any member of the cabinet, and that "Rome had not suffered while Mark Anthony was enjoying his honeymoon."

Colonel Hanner said that on May 7 last the people of the United States, aroused by the murder of so many Americans by the German submarine attack on the Lusitania, stood ready to back up what they felt was their duty. But no ultimatum came. Instead, came a demand for reparation. To this Germany replied that she would arbitrate. The result was another vessel, the Arabic. When the German foreign office learned that the American people would force a reluctant administration to war if it did not submarine policy were continued further the Kaiser yielded and turned the work of destruction over to Austria, which continued it. In Mexico, when 18 Americans were murdered, near the American line, there was no move. When Villa crossed the border and murdered people at a New Mexico town, a colonel from an old Republican Pennsylvania family disobeyed orders and crossed after them. We now hear that President Wilson is drafting a note to William, Francis Joseph and Carranza asking them not to do any more killing. President Wilson as a successful pedagogue and a fairly successful writer, who was, no doubt, personally patriotic and a good man in private life, to which he should soon be retired.

Turning to the Republicans, Colonel Hanner said that he would tell them something which they all believed, but which some of them who had lightning rods up did not dare to say. What the party needed was a boss. He said that he heard some people say that the cause of the trouble two years ago was that the events leading up to the convention made it inevitable. Others said that it was Theodore and the Progressives. The real trouble was that there was no Thurston Wood. Mark Hanna or Roosevelt could not tell the party what it must do. Had there been, reasonable concessions would have been made and harmony would have followed. "What we need is some good, old, hard-headed political despot for a leader and, unless we find him, we may as well get behind the broad works and run up the milk-white flag, for we will not have a ghost of a show in November. According to Noah Webster, a boss is simply a master workman. George Washington was such a workman. So was Abraham Lincoln. It is no secret whether the boss may be Charles E. Hughes, W. E. Borah, Elihu Root or Sam McCall, so long as he is honest and patriotic. Most of us would prefer Borah, because, if we do not like what he does, we will have the privilege of cursing one whom we all know loves us."

The mention of Senator Borah's name elicited loud and prolonged applause. The temporary chairman closed with an appeal for true peace, but for the policy as would convince the world that men and women were as safe under the Stars and Stripes as under the golden crescent of an infidel monarchy.

Following this address, committees on credentials, resolutions and permanent organization and order of business, one for each committee, came from each delegation, were appointed. Following the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned until 2:30 o'clock.

The delegates began arriving yesterday morning and were promptly taken in tow by the committees of the Commercial club, which handled the situation easily and without friction. The largest delegation came from American Falls, bringing a band, which created much enthusiasm among the people by playing patriotic airs on the streets. Most of the delegation came yesterday either over land or by rail, though some of the northern counties did not get in until noon today. Excursions were taken to the Shoshone falls, Blue Lake, Buhl and Filer and those who had not seen the country for several years expressed surprise at its growth and development. The room problem had been solved before the arrival of delegates and there was no trouble in placing the hundreds who came. The "Pacifica" excursion was called off at the last minute and postponed until June. All the candidates for state offices were on hand. Lieutenant Governor William H. Clark, who will run with his new boom for that position, and the older candidates, D. W. Davis and George Crum, were also on hand. The first to arrive, Mr. Crum before the early bird of the flock, Captain E. C. Davis did not arrive until today, but when he did arrive, he was met with a warm welcome and a great deal of respect when he came. All the candidates and the delegates generally were enthusiastic and seemed to endorse the continuing voice of Colonel Hanner, that, with proper management, the "Gates of hell and Moses Alexander" could not prevent a sweeping Republican victory. The candidates not being slow to imply what would constitute elements of proper management.

BIG VARIETY OF AUTO ACCIDENTS

One Machine Turns Turtle, Another Breaks Off Shoshone Grade and Third Into Ditch.

Three auto accidents, in which the machine turned turtle, have been reported during the past four days, in all cases the injuries being trivial, though the possibilities of serious disaster were in all instances great. Sunday afternoon, Charles L. Hanner, with his family and hired man, was driving near Buhl and in attempting to cross the low line canal the machine crashed into the railing of the bridge, turned upside down in the water. The hired man, who was driving, got out and helped to extricate five of the six children, with the assistance of Mr. Rife, who, though caught under the auto, was able to keep his head out of water. Afterward, he got Mr. Rife himself out, and a search was started for Mrs. Rife and one of the girls, who were missing. As they were not to be seen in the stream, a search was started and they were found under it. They had been there for eight minutes, but by persistent efforts they were resuscitated and speedily recovered.

A. F. Tago, a former deputy sheriff of this county, but now a resident of Jerome came along about the time Mr. Rife was released and assisted in turning the car over. The auto was not in any way injured and Mr. Rife drove into the jail in the car. Mr. Rife lives five miles southwest of this city.

Tuesday Robert Rogerson discovered that he had sustained a broken collar bone and a broken shoulder blade as a result of an accident at the Shoshone grade last Saturday. Mr. Rogerson and a traveling man named Anderson from Salt Lake City drove out to the falls Saturday afternoon. On their way back they reached the turn near where the little shack stands at the intersection with the new grade. Mr. Rogerson, while talking, attempted to regulate his machine, when the "peaky thing" balked and began to back up, going over the grade, throwing its occupants out and rolling over three times. Anderson was not hurt, and Mr. Rogerson thought at the time that he had sustained nothing worse than a few bruises. The machine came out all right and its owner got in and drove it to town.

Yesterday morning, while coming with his family from Boise to attend the Republican convention, Ira Barber dropped a nut on the road this side of Hagerman, beside a ditch, and Mr. Barber started to back up the machine to get it. He backed too far and the machine flopped upside down, striking its occupants in the ditch and piling on top of them. Beyond a bad wetting, neither the owners nor the auto suffered.

METHODISTS TO ENLARGE CHURCH AT KIMBERLY

A large auditorium will be added to the Methodist church at Kimberly as the result of a recent meeting of the board of that church, which concluded that it was imperative to have more room, the attendance and membership of the church continuing to increase rapidly. The board also authorized the construction of a basement in the building, which was finished and used for Sunday school and social purposes. On Sunday Rev. A. Stewart, pastor of the church, surprised his congregation by tendering his resignation, assigning as a reason the poor health of Mrs. Stewart. Mr. Stewart's resignation was not accepted and the church people are arranging to have Mrs. Stewart make a trip to the east. The attendance at the Sunday services has been increasing since Mr. Stewart has taken up the pastorate, and the prayer meetings, Sunday school and Epworth league have also gained a greater interest since his coming.

COURT DECIDES MRS. HARRIMAN IS EXEMPT FROM TAXATION

State of Idaho Cannot Collect Transfer Tax From Widow of the Late Railroad Magnate.

HOISE.—In a decision recently handed down, the supreme court quashed the alternate writ of mandate issued in the test case of the state of Idaho, ex rel Joseph H. Peterson, attorney general, versus R. H. Harriman, probate judge of Ada county, Mary Harriman, widow of the late R. H. Harriman, and the Oregon Short Line Railway company. The case was started by the order of Idaho's supreme tribunal and what is the final chapter in the Harriman transfer tax case is believed to have been written with victory on the side of the widow of the late railroad king and the Oregon Short Line railway. Because of alleged transfer of interest in the Oregon Short Line railroad to her, prior to Mr. Harriman's death, the state of Idaho sought to force collection of an inheritance tax from the widow. Her defense was that she had only inherited stocks and bonds of the Union Pacific railroad which, except under Idaho probate law, the state held such stocks and bonds constituted an interest in the Oregon Short Line railroad, a part of the Union Pacific system. The adverse state's contention is of far-reaching importance because it not only closed the Harriman case, but will, in effect, stop collection of transfer tax in other cases involving large estates.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

In the annual interschool track meet held last Friday, the Junior class won by a total score of fifty-six points, with the Seniors a close second.

Due to the extreme heat of the day, no very fast records were made, although the crowd witnessed some very pretty runs. McCracken was the star of the day, scoring twenty-five points, while Evans took three firsts in the weights. Howe made good runs on the mile and half, while Shirk and Blagoe took a number of places, though they did not show their usual dash as the season is yet early.

Later in the afternoon, the local high school baseball team defeated Ellet to the tune of eleven to one, the one being given as an encouragement. The team as a whole played excellent ball and promise to develop into a good bunch of ball players, under the coaching of Mr. Laurensen. Fix and McCracken in the pitcher's box had the Ellet sluggers entirely out-classed, each fanning a large number. The Twin Falls team started by their heavy batting, half the men batting twice during the first innings. Carlos Linville, catcher and captain, knocked two three baggers, one of them being the first fair ball pitched. Fix also clouted the ball for three sacks.

The declaratory contest to decide the state championship will be held in the high school auditorium next Friday night. Miss Mildred Conway will represent this city with her selection "Hugger". She has been practicing steadily and has an excellent chance to win.

Mr. Johnson, a prominent automobile man of this city, will deliver a series of lectures to the boys of the science club commencing next Monday evening.

CITY WILL OPPOSE COMMISSION DICTATION

Refuses to Comply With Request From Public Utilities Commission Regarding Rates.

That the city of Twin Falls will not be dictated to in the management of its waterworks system by the public utilities commission, unless compelled to do so by the order of the supreme court, is the attitude assumed by the city government, and last night a resolution was passed in response to certain requests of the commission to the effect that the city's plant was not, in the opinion of the city, under the control of the body. The information will be conveyed to the commission at once by Attorney George Herriott. The resolution was diplomatically worded and simply stated that the jurisdiction of the commission was not conceded. The resolution which the public utilities commission adopted was to the effect that the water rates in force under the old company continue in effect in the city. This, as a matter of fact, had already been done at a meeting, but the mayor and council, under the advice of the city attorney, deemed it better to take a definite stand and let the commission know what it intended to do. Buhl is in a similar condition, the commission having demanded that a schedule of rates in force for the municipal plant be filed with the commission, and the demand was refused, or, rather, not acted on. City Attorney Herriott said that he had examined the matter carefully enough to give a formal opinion on it, but Mayor Sweeney declined himself quite convinced that the city had the right to decline, saying that the law does not in terms grant such right to the commission. The city attorney, in making known the wisdom of the council, will request the commission for authorities on which it bases its claim to dictate to the city in the conduct of its municipal affairs.

A conference will be held with Buhl and an effort made to determine what the law is, once and for all. The council also declined to accept an offer from a member of the commission to assist in the taking over of the waterworks business.

Councilman Dobler during the discussion of the subject suggested that they had at one time asked the assistance of the commission, to which Mayor Sweeney replied that they had not received such assistance, as the commission had gathered data on which to make a finding and had not done it, but now wanted to dictate, when the work was done.

TALKS ON THRIFT

TALKS ON BANKING.

HOW THE BANK "MAKES" MONEY.
It would seem that after the bank takes your money, protects it, pays it back on demand or as you order, lends you money, discounts your neighbor's note for you, it would have nothing else to offer in your behalf. But it has—it "makes" money for you, and incidentally makes money for itself.

When you see the president or the cashier of a bank signing his name to a row of four crisp new bills (they always come in shots of four) you may wonder what he is doing, and what is behind it all. We will show you by a simple illustration. Let us suppose you want to borrow a thousand dollars and offer your note to your banker. He knows you, knows that you will pay, and wants to accommodate you. He looks at his books and says: "I can't spare the money. The law says I must have 15 cents out of every dollar I owe my depositors in cash, or where I can get it on demand; and I have just what the law requires. If I give you credit for the note and let you check against it, I increase my debts and make my condition worse, for if I do not pay you in cash I must stand ready to do so."

But being a resourceful banker, and knowing how he asks you to wait a minute while he goes to his strong box. He finds behind it and the government behind him. Your promise wouldn't go very far from home, these promises will. Everybody knows them. They are "money" and circulate as cash.

Now, what has the banker done by this process? He has furnished the community as well as you with circulating medium, handy to carry, cheap to create, and satisfactory to all. He has taken your credit and turned it into bank credit. He makes money and you take the money he has made and make some money for yourself. It is a very simple proposition, understood by few, but practiced by many. If you don't fully understand it, ask your banker to tell you more about it. This feat of banking, however, is performed in this country only by banks under control of the federal government, namely, the national banks and federal reserve banks, but is a common banking practice the world over, differing in form but not in substance, it being a universal function of the bank to turn credit which is unknown into that which is known and will therefore be freely taken, and bank note credit is the most common and useful form.

KING EIGHT'S

Performance on the Demonstrating Hill in Rock Creek Canyon

It's Performance Not Beaten

AT THE HILL demonstration held in Rock Creek canyon Saturday, April 8th, the KING EIGHT was the only car that pulled over the hill with seven passengers WITHOUT STOPPING. It was also the only car that pulled over the hill on intermediate gear.

The marvelous power and performance of the KING EIGHT was plainly apparent to all who viewed the contest.

The KING EIGHT pulled over the same hill with seven passengers with only a 74-foot start.

NOTE THIS

By ACTUAL MEASUREMENT it has been found to be but 175 feet from the foot of the hill to the bank of the creek. An advertisement of a rival car stated last week that the KING took a 250-foot run.

We know of no stock car that is a better all around performer than the KING EIGHT.

Consistency

YOU want a motor car that will serve you consistently. You want to know that your car can be relied upon day in and day out. You want high mileage per gallon of gasoline and freedom from repairs and readjustments. And you want these things, not occasionally, but continuously—day after day.

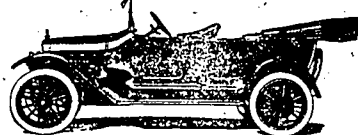

On these qualities the Maxwell has made good. It has proved its worth. When the Maxwell stock touring car set the 'World's Motor Non-Stop Mileage Record' a short time ago it travelled for 44 consecutive days and nights, and its performance was consistent.

It went about 500 miles each and every day. It went within a small fraction of 22 miles to every gallon of gasoline. It went the whole distance of 22,000 miles—probably further than you would travel in two years—without any repairs or readjustments. Every one of eight tires (two sets) went just about 9,800 miles and the others finished in good shape. For consistency and reliability this record far exceeds anything we ever heard of.

You can get a Maxwell, an exact duplicate of the record breaking stock car and if you order now you'll have it for the fine, early summer days. Don't put it off, as we can't get any guarantee on future shipments from the factory.

FIVE DIVISIONS EMPLOYED BY GERMANS IN ATTACK.

Begin Wearing Down Tactics, Using
Dense Masses of Infantry in Verdun Assault.

PARIS.—After six days' rest while effectives were made up and stocks of ammunition replenished, the Germans again have begun concentrated attacks upon different points of the French defenses at Verdun.

They now are trying the effect of direct wearing down, employing dense masses of infantry in small spaces, but so far with little success. The net result of their efforts has been the gain of a small salient west of Douaumont, which, the French claim, is unimportant.

Yesterday the attack between Douaumont and the Meuse was very violent. The German forces included troops from five different divisions. East of the Chateau fort, the Germans penetrated a front line trench, but were partly ejected.

This information was contained in the French official report given out this afternoon, the text of which follows:

"On the left bank of the Meuse there has been a bombardment of our first line positions between Le Mort Homme and Cumleux. On the right bank of the river, the night passed in relative quiet."

"It has been confirmed that the German attack delivered yesterday between the Meuse and the Douaumont region took on a character of extreme violence. Further information is that this offensive action was conducted by troops belonging to five different divisions."

"In the east salient of the Chateau fort the enemy penetrated our first line trench, but from this position was in part driven out by a counter attack."

"In the Meuse there has been an artillery duel in the sector of Mort Homme. The German reconnaissance which was endeavoring to approach the trenches in the direction of the Herminette, northwest of St. Die, was repulsed with hand grenades."

Commercial Club Postpones Visit by Special Train on Account of Republican Convention.

POCATELLO, Ida. There was no special train of the Commercial club to Twin Falls Wednesday, as planned. It was feared that Twin Falls people, as well as the visitors, would be too occupied with the affairs of the Republican state convention. It was thought better to postpone the excursion until mid-summer, when other affairs are off the docket, crops are growing and everybody feeling more cheerful. The trip at that time will be undertaken on a much larger scale, and there will be nothing to confuse the situation. It was practically unanimous in the decision to temporarily postpone the excursion until the political conventions were out of the way, and to push every effort to provide for a more thorough and more elaborate excursion when the project is resumed.

BETTER MEANS OF RIVER TRANSPORTATION IN SIGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The rivers and harbors bill has been passed by the House of Representatives, authorizing the survey of the Snake river from its mouth to Pittsburgh landing, with the view of the construction of locks and dams for navigation. The bill appropriates over $3,000 to be used in the work on the Snake and Columbia rivers.

This information is a source of much joy to the citizens of Lewiston county, who had more or less fear that improvements would be delayed on account of the war.

TAXING OF CAREY LANDS BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Important Case Is Argued and Submitted—Decision Is Expected in Short Time.

BOISE, Ida.—The right of the state of Idaho to levy and collect taxes on Carey act land which has not yet been patented was presented to the supreme court yesterday, on the appeal in the case of Ivan A. Potvet versus Owyhee county.

Potvet alleges in the case that the state by failing to meet all the provisions of a Carey act contract, holds no patent to the Carey act land he entered.

Judge McCarthy of the Third judicial district court for Ada county heard this case and in a decision subsequently handed down held against Potvet. His decision was to the effect the canals of the company were of sufficient capacity to provide ample water to irrigate the Carey act lands, and that the state engineer and others have held the canals were not of sufficient capacity and that the state carries out all of the terms of the Carey act in the delivery of water makes it impossible for the state to claim title by reason of cultivation and reclamation.

The King Hill Irrigation company entered into a contract with the state for the reclamation of the land in March, 1904, but having spent thousands of dollars on the construction work, became insolvent. Then the state stepped in and purchased the project works under the hammer. An estimate of the cost to complete the works was ordered. The state engineer reported a total expenditure of $289,300 would be needed to do this.

Should the supreme court hold with Potvet, he would be exempt from taxation so far as his Carey act lands are concerned. In that event, hundreds of other settlers on the King Hill and other projects would be exempted in the same manner and the state would be deprived of not a little revenue which heretofore it has received. The question at issue is a mooted one and has gone before the courts of the state in a number of different ways.

TWIN FALLS SHORT ON SPUDS, SAYS DONALDSON

POCATELLO, Ida.—S. J. Donaldson of the Southern Idaho Producers' association returned yesterday from Twin Falls and reports that the potato supply in that vicinity of the state has almost entirely shipped out. The shipments from southern Idaho and Oregon to California have been so large that the market in that state is swamped.

California uses on an average of 35 cars a day and from Idaho and Oregon alone the shipments to that state have been on the average from 20 to 30 cars. The market price for Russets is now $1.25 and last year at this time it was only 90 cents. Due to the high prices there are some who have been a very difficult year to predict any of the market conditions. Some little competition has been experienced by the Idaho shippers from the Canadian market. The quarantine on the Canadian potatoes was raised about a month ago and since then there has been a steady shipment of Canadian potatoes to the California market. The Canadian shippers have the added advantage of lower shipping rates, as they are able to ship their product in boats down the coast—Tribune.

IDAHO HONEY SUPERIOR TO THAT OF CALIFORNIA

PAIDMA, Ida.—Gottfried Lohrl, proprietor of the Howell apary at Parma, Idaho, who ships honey to Oregon and eastern points, receives daily inquiries as to the processes involved in producing such white honey. This, he says, is due to the fact that it is obtained by the bees from certain kinds of flowers and must be worked as it is thoroughly ripe. The candied effect of the honey is due to its being absolutely pure.

Honey purchasers are fond of the candied product and provide a ready market for it. The fact that honey dealers in the east contract for Idaho honey in large supplies, goes to show that it stands high in favor in the east.

Mr. Lohrl was offered by an Ogden wholesale firm, twice the price paid for California honey because of its superior quality.

GALLIHER ACQUITTED.

James Galliher, arrested last week for violation of the auto ordinance, defended the case in court and was acquitted.

PLENTY OF WATER ASSURED BY COM- PLETION OF JACKSON LAKE RESERVOIR

(From Burley Bulletin.)

THE work of raising the dam for the enlargement of the Jackson lake reservoir is nearing completion. This work has been paid for by the Twin Falls North Side and Twin Falls South Side Irrigation companies, and has been done under the direction of the United States reclamation service.

The reservoir as it stood before the dam was raised held 380,000 acre feet of water, which belonged to the Minidoka project. The enlargement will add to this capacity 400,000 acre feet, giving the reservoir a total capacity of 780,000 acre feet, and making it one of the largest storage reservoirs in the world. Of the 400,000 acre feet additional now to be stored in Jackson lake, 300,000 acre feet will go to the Twin Falls North Side and 100,000 to the Twin Falls South Side project. However, during the present season only about half the above amount will be stored and available for these two sections.

As the Minidoka project has heretofore sold her surplus water to the two Twin Falls companies, it is now necessary for her to look elsewhere for a market.

The unusually heavy snowfall in the mountains the past winter promises an abundance of water for all lands along the Snake river this season.

COUNCILMEN BUSY ON PLANS FOR IMPROVEMENT

Problems Involved in City Hall and Water Matters Engrossing Their Attention.

The mayor and members of the city council are not devoting all of their scanty spare time to paying attention to the doings of the big convention this week, but are busily engaged in endeavoring to select the proper expert from whom to receive advice in regard to the best water system, and at the same time laying plans for arousing public attention to the condition of the city hall.

Councilman Bracken, who made the motion to push the city hall proposition announces himself in favor of a public meeting, where the people will thresh out some of the points of difference. Some of the members of the council think that this would require the securing of a larger hall than the present council chamber, while others think that a meeting would comfortably fill the present chamber in all that could be expected, as they assume that relatively few would turn out.

On both the waterworks and the city hall propositions, there was probably considerable divergence of opinion. If the talk on the streets go for anything, the difference with reference to the city hall will probably be chiefly in regard to the placing of the library in the public building. Those who oppose this favor the erection of a Carnegie library room, and declare that they regard the placing of the library in the city building as an indefinite postponement of the realization of their hopes.

Those who favor the placing of the library in the city building are divided into two classes, one of which opposes the Carnegie library and the other of which favors the ultimate installment of the Carnegie library but believe that temporarily the city library should be placed in the public building until such time as the needs of the growing city should demand the use of the library room for other purposes.

The divergence of opinion in regard to the proposed water system is relative to the respective merits of the single as against the double system. The mayor and council themselves are not wholly agreed on this, though all express the opinion that a competent expert may produce such irrefutable arguments in favor of some definite system as to bring about unanimity of opinion. The idea is to learn from experts just what data they will need in order to formulate a complete report, and then have local engineers do the work of getting the data. The issue raised with the public utilities commission is also taking up some time, and altogether the city fathers are very busy men.

Deputy Sheriff W. G. Thompson took a bootlegger named Joyce into custody at the Waverly late Tuesday afternoon, confiscating 35 plants of booze, which he evidently contemplated distributing among the thrifty.
