SUIT COMMENCED FOR RECOVERY OF LAND

Mrs. Genevieve L. Craven Begins Action For Reclaiming of Contract.

Action for the recovery of title in a half section of land with appurtenant water rights was begun last Thursday in the district court by Genevieve L. Craven against the Twin Falls Salmon Orchard company, a corporation, Albert E. Larson, C. Hahn, Twin Falls Bank & Trust Company, a corporation, H. J. Felling, Henry McCormick, Agnes M. Tanner, A. E. Grabel, Frank Reed, C. C. Craft, W. H. Hildebrand, Frank D. Kimball, Bank of Hollister, a corporation, J. W. Craven, W. H. Craven, trustee, Twin Falls Deep Creek Orchard Company, a corporation, and Deep Creek Land & Water Company, Limited, a corporation.

Plaintiff alleges that on November 25, 1911, she deeded land, described as the north half of section 1, township 13 south, range 15 east, together with 320 appurtenant water rights of the Twin Falls Deep Creek Land & Water Company, Limited, to J. W. Craven, in half of the Twin Falls Salmon Orchard company, which transfer was in consideration of the improvement of the company named, of the lands by the planting of orchards and other means and that the defendant or its successors would execute a deed in trust to W. H. Craven, husband of the plaintiff, as trustee, to secure the issuance of certain bonds for the purchase of the land in question and other lands in the vicinity. It is contended that it was known to the parties that the sufficiency of the security would on a great measure depend upon the line of improvements adapted and that it was agreed that if the improvements were not made the plaintiff should have the right to rescind the contract and demand and receive the deed back. It is further averred that on October 12, 1912, the Salmon River Orchard company gave a warranty deed of the lands to the Deep Creek Land & Orchard company in furtherance of the carrying out of the agreement, all parties to the transfer understanding conditions. It is stated that the improvements provided for were not made, and that on her giving due notice that the contract was rescinded, and demanding the deed, W. J. Craven refused to make out the required transfer unless ordered to do so by the court, for which order plaintiff prays. Guttridge & Bowen are attorneys for plaintiff.

JUDGE WANAMAKER MOST POPULAR JURIST IN STATE OF OHIO

Was Elected Judge of Supreme Court by Largest Majority Ever Given to Any Judicial Aspirant

COMING in the Chautauqua is Judge R. M. Wanamaker, of the supreme court of Ohio, the man who threw the doors of the Ohio courts open to the people in such a way that every man has access to those equal rights guaranteed to him under the law. The eminent jurist's exposure of defects in legal procedure, invigorated by remedial measures, which personal demonstration warrants him to present, is of most timely interest to every liberty-loving American.

his estimation help your credit, and add to your self-respect.

Second, Never overdraw. In national banks overdrafts are now forbidden, but whether they were or not, you have no right to ask it. It hurts your credit with the banker. It is a forced loan without security, and is a poor business practice.

Sometimes an overdraft is allowed as a matter of accommodation, and sometimes in order that the credit of the drawer with the holder of the check may not be impaired; but it has had practice, gets you in wrong all over and should neither be asked nor expected.

Third, Do not draw against "uncollected funds." By uncollected funds is meant checks that have not been collected. For instance, if you have a balance of $100, and deposit a hundred dollar check and draw your own check for $150, you have taken $50 out of the original deposit and half of the amount represented by the check just deposited. The banker must send that check, let us say, to New York, and wait for advice that it is paid before knowing that it has been paid, which may take three or four days. You have the check right next to your nose, while the last in line tobacco is in a state of fresh, juicy richness that is not possible in any other form of tobacco.

There's no tobacco in the world that can give you the hearty, wholesome flavor that you get from a delicious chew of Spear Head.

Spear Head is made exclusively of ripe, red, Kentucky Burley—the most richly-flavored chewing tobacco that grows. Still more, only the very choicest red Burley leaf is used for Spear Head.

This choicest leaf is selected with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is thoroughly washed free of all foreign matter, and is pressed into Spear Head plugs so slowly that not a drop of juice or an atom of the natural flavor escapes.

Try Spear Head and you'll get a sweet, mellow, luscious, satisfying chew that cannot be found in any other tobacco. Buy a 5c or 10c cut to-day.

—From Exchanges—

Wool Brings 30 Cents—One of the biggest wool sales ever made in this part of the country was consummated Tuesday, when Alexander Livingstone, representing the American Woolen company of Boston, purchased for the latter the greater part of the wool clip of the Aguilla. The sale, which included approximately 200,000 pounds of wool, for which 30c a pound was paid, was made at Shoshone. Mr. Livingstone stopped at Shoshone only between train and in so short a time made this $270,000 deal.—Halley Times.

Sheep Going to Hills—The Bacon sheep outfit is working toward its summer grazing grounds from winter quarters at Kimama and in the Twin Falls country. There are in the outfit 17 bands of ewes and lambs, averaging 2300 head each, and one band of bucks. They are scattered over many miles of trail, some of them being well on toward the upper Wolf river country, according to Fred Miller, who is employed with them. Mr. Miller is suffering from a severe cold and, being unable to stay with the sheep, left this afternoon on a visit to Pocatello.—Halley Times.

TALKS ON THIEF

YOU AND YOUR BANK ACCOUNT.

When the banker accepts your pass book and gives you a pass book and a check book, he has the right to expect certain things from you, as you have the right to expect certain things from him.

In the first place, he has the right to expect a profit from your account. Bankers are in business to make money. It costs a certain amount to handle every check that passes through the bank, and every account should contribute its portion to the expenses of the bank, however small. When your banker asks you to keep a certain balance, he is merely asking him to protect himself from a severe cold and, being unable to stay with the sheep, left this afternoon on a visit to Pocatello.—Halley Times.

PERTAINING TO "THE GREATER" IDAHO DEPT. STORE

It is a well known fact that in this world of ours there is no such thing as standing still. We must either go ahead or go back. Following out this natural law, the Idaho Department Store is now in process of great enlargement, in order to properly meet the demands of our rapidly increasing business. With the new store room just added we have over ten thousand square feet of floor space. We kindly ask you to note the following changes and additions upon which we expect to put Twin Falls in a position to claim to be the home of one of Idaho's largest and most progressive department stores.

A Heavy Curve Wiped Out

One of the most important changes we have to chronicle is the abolishing of the parcel carrier method and the installing of the very latest system of National Cash Registers and the wrapping desks where the clerks may wrap their own parcels, thus expediting our service fully fifty per cent, besides making the most complete record of each transaction in order to avoid mistakes. This one item of betterment alone entails an expenditure of over $4000.00. We think you will like it.

The Active Grocery Department

Under management of Robert McBride, has been enlarged materially, making it much more convenient for the customers and the help during the rush hours. Every known modern method of merchandising in this line, it is our ambition to install. We wish our customers would mention any suggestions that might occur to them looking to the betterment of our service.

A Progressive Dry Goods Dept.

Under the management of H. A. Haile will be on a basis with the other enlarged departments. The aisles will be wider and a rearrangement of the stocks will take place, all due to the modern and progressive policy that will prevail from now on. This department will be on the alert for the new things, and every effort will be made to make this the ideal place to shop. Courtesy and service will be our watchword, and we invite suggestions. We want to be in closer touch with our customers, your ideas are what we want, then we can supply you with merchandise that will satisfy your individual requirements. A policy that (we believe) will make this an ever growing and popular department.

New Arrangement of Departments

The Clothing Department under Mr. Baker's management will occupy together with the Men's and Boy's Shoes the new store room just added. In this new, light and cheery room we will have to all intents and purposes an exclusive Men's Shop, with I. D. service and I. D. policy to recommend it. Watch our advertising for details.

The Ladies Ready-to-Wear Dept.

With Mrs. Nellie Wilson as manager will be located in the commodious quarters on the first floor with the ladies and children's shoe department adjoining under Messrs. Lavering and Bolton. We do not care to say too much at this time about the enlarged department of ladies garments. We prefer to wait and let the new lines tell their own story. It all spells phenomenal growth.

Change in Management

The store is now under the management of Mr. Chas. L. Hart, formerly of Blackfoot, Idaho. Mr. Hart is a gentleman of wide and successful mercantile experience and is now arranging to move his family to Twin Falls and become a permanent resident. It is Mr. Hart's ambition to provide the highest grade and best assorted merchandise possible to buy, and to afford our patrons a cheerful, courteous service in its fullest sense. The company presents Mr. Hart as a gentleman in every respect, and one whom you all will find it a pleasure to meet.

Signed,

R. C. BEACH,

President

A New Store The Under Store The Place for the Broken Dollar

Under the management of D. M. Fawcett of Chicago, for 5 years with the wholesale house of Butler Bros. will be located in our big basement. The bargain basements are the order of the day with all large stores and ours will be the Economy Place of the Twin Falls tract. Here in price and quality, we intend to compete with the mail order houses and the chain stores. Two carloads of basement merchandise are now on the way, covering all lines of household items, sample shoes, sample dry goods, etc., which will be sold at prices merchants usually have to pay. We get our discount and sell you the sample merchandise at the wholesale cost.

Syndicate Buying

The I. D. Store is joining the Consolidated Merchant's Buying Syndicate which is composed of nearly 500 stores having an output of over ten million dollars annually. As a member of this syndicate we will show you the effect of this tremendous buying when we get our under store started. This is merely a preliminary announcement. You will hear of this basement all over Southern Idaho.

TO OUR OUT OF TOWN CUSTOMERS

This million acre Twin Falls tract we consider as our field. Equipped as we now are, you need not have a moments hesitancy in mailing your orders to us. Every thought and care will be given your orders, none too small or too large for us to handle. Let's keep our money at home--and correct a growing evil--Foreign Mail Order Competition. We can and do compete with any Mail Order concern. If you will take the time and trouble we can easily show you that our prices are lower.

TWIN FALLS HIGH SCHOOL CLASS 1916

THE Commencement Exercises in this city last week marked the closing of the school experiences of the largest class that ever graduated from the public schools of the city and one which has added much to the credit of Twin Falls broad, by the intellectual and physical triumphs which it won, or helped to win, during the four years since it entered the high school. That it has said the last word in advancement in, of course, not to be thought of for an instant. Other classes will pass with as high credits in the future. Rather its achievements will prove a landmark on the road of advancement over which future will travel and will observe where the great wave of 1916 in Twin Falls public schools reached.

The class went to the top in some lines of high school activities right at the start, by taking the interclass girls' basketball championship the very year that it entered as a freshman, and contributed Jennie Walker to the team that promptly took the state championship and kept it to this day. The boys were not a whit behind their sisters in obtaining honors in the athletic field that year and the next year found the class as sophomores holding second place in the school, and capturing the boy's indoor baseball championship. The same year saw them win the athletic benefit trophy for the production of the best dramatic program. During the same year, the class furnished half the members of the orchestra, half the band, and one-third of the Girl's Glee club, which was doing something worth while in the musical line.

The year which they passed as juniors was no less fruitful of triumphs. One member, Ronald Boone, won the declamatory contest and they furnished two members of the debating team. During the last year the class furnished all the debaters, but one in the town's winning state championship honors, and furnished the majority of the members of those who entered the declamatory contest in the school and proudly point to Mildred Conway, a member who won the state championship. The basketball team was largely made up of members of the class this year, which closed in a blaze of glory the career so auspiciously began four years ago.

The facts of class history here given have been taken from the class history published in the Coyote, the creditable and well edited organ of the Twin Falls high school classes and it is a record of which any class might well be proud.

The readers of THIS TIMES will no doubt be interested in learning more of the personnel of this class which has done so many creditable things and in order that this opportunity may be afforded them their pictures are published herewith.

It must be of interest to observe what courses so large a class, eighty-three in number, would take, as indicating the lines of thought and activity likely to be followed by Young America at the present day. Forty-five members took the general course and two the agricultural courses. Naturally a larger percentage of future classes will take the last two, relatively new branches.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S BURLESQUE ON CARMEN

ESSANAY-CHAPLIN

FOUR-ACT SKEAM

Probably no work of fiction has passed through more vicissitudes than "Carmen," the vehicle through which Charlie Chaplin offers a seemingly funny comedy on the Essanay company program. It was first published in the form of a novel by Prosper Merimee, a French author. It was later converted into a play, and then into a grand opera, by George Bizet, the librettist of which, written by Halévy and Méhac, is found in the novel. Now it appears in photoplay as a burlesque. Carmen has been translated into practically every language and the story is known to practically every one. It is so intense that it readily lends itself to burlesque. Essanay was released in four acts, the only Chaplin feature now to be had.

Who Owns This Horse? A bay mare, branded with a cross L on the thigh, belonging to someone in this section, has ended up in the stray pen at Burley. The mare was taken up last fall by Mr. Tollman, who lives near Mars station, and was stolen from his field one night with another horse. Mr. Tollman recovered his horse later, but the mare was not located until the other day. The owner, who would like to take the matter up with the officials at Burley he can no doubt recover his animal.

First Run Completed—The first run of water in the Salmon river canal system this season, was discontinued Thursday, there remaining 42,500 acre feet of available water in the reservoir. The stage height Saturday was 27 feet. The time of the next run of water will depend upon weather conditions largely, although it is probable that the water will be turned on again within six days or three weeks. No reports have been made public as yet by officials of the Canal company as to the acreage under cultivation on the Salmon tract this year. Estimates by the farmers vary considerably, some claiming that there is as much land under cultivation this year as last, around 40,000 acres, while others think the acreage is 5,000 less.

Judge Hansen Visits Boise—That the Snake river valley has spanned this summer with a steel bridge more than 300 feet above the river and approximately 700 feet long, between a point near the town of Hansen, a short distance from Twin Falls, to the town of Hells, is the news brought here by Judge Lawrence Hansen, one of the sturdy old men, a native of the state, who in his own section for more than 20 years, and a successful rancher and banker.

Concerning the bridge Mr. Hansen states that on the Hazelton side of the river bonds were voted last week in the sum of $40,000 and that Twin Falls county is contributing $10,000 to build the steel structure, which will be one of the high and scenic bridges of the state and will save the long haul to the bottom of the canyon in crossing from one side of the river to the other.

Mr. Hansen states that the Twin Falls section is especially prosperous. At Twin Falls a big sugar beet factory is being built and that the farmers of that section have planted 5,000 acres to sugar beets. From the kinds, he states, promise to yield heavily this fall. He declares that the recent freeze, while it caused a setback to some extent, did not affect the Twin Falls section like other parts of the state, as fruit raising is not on a commercial basis there.—Capital News.

ATTRACTIONS FOR THE THEATRE GOERS

CHAPLIN TREATS CARMEN COMEDY SERIOUSLY

CHAPLIN IN "CARMEN" LAST FOUR NIGHTS OF WEEK.

THE great climax in the opera, "Carmen," is treated with just as much seriousness as in the real play in "Charlie Chaplin's Burlesque on Carmen," a four-part feature produced by Essanay and the only genuine Chaplin feature to be obtained. The scene in the dramatic moment when Don Jose, ruined and a fugitive through the false and unscrupulous Carmen, finds her in Madrid, where she has fled with a popular treader. There he stands her and ends his own life. The part is carried out in perfect earnest and one is given a real dramatic thrill and is beginning to believe he is looking at tragedy, when suddenly the strain comes to their feet and Chaplin amiably shows that his knife is a stage knife and the whole thing slips into the hands of a comedian. The suddenness of the turn accentuates the comedy and leaves one in a gale of laughter. This Chaplin comedy will be shown at the Isis Theatre four nights, commencing Wednesday.

FAIRBANKS' JOYOUS DISPOSITION OF THE PLOT

The sunny disposition of Douglas Fairbanks has at last been adequately dramatized in a new Triangle Film Arts release called "The Habit of Happiness," to be shown at the Orpheum theater Friday evening only. According to the plot, which has been devised by Shannon Hays and elaborated by Director Allan Dwan, Fairbanks has been given a profession that approximates that of the Brothers Cheyenne in Nicholas Nickleby.

His particular business is to make down-hearted people laugh. The very novelty of this brings him more money than he ever can hope to receive. Among them is a crabbled old millionaire; and Fairbanks takes peculiar interest in the case of a young and beautiful daughter. In the course of his strenuous efforts to relieve the old boy of the blues, Fairbanks undertakes the million-dollar job of separating him from his wealth. Details of the conspiracy aim to abduct the millionaire and keep him safely out of finance until a certain transaction is put over. Quite by chance, Fairbanks finds himself involved in this plot, a feature of the afternoon, followed by music, games and dainty refreshments.

Director Dwan secured a splendid cast of well-known players to appear in support of Fairbanks. The roster embraces the names of Dorothy West, Macey Harlin, George Backus, George Fawcett, Grace Rankin and Wm. Jefferson.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

The younger pupils of Miss Conover's piano class were entertained Saturday afternoon at her home on Eighth avenue north. A program was a feature of the afternoon, followed by music, games and dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mary Bybee, Flora Thomas, Sybil Reed, Loris Reed, Florence Bickford, Ora Bickford, Harry Putzer, Elmer Jones, Clyde Wilson and Robert Putzer.

Mrs. McShea and daughters gave a delightful three-course dinner at 2:00 o'clock at their home on Eighth avenue east in honor of their dear friend, Miss Rose Murray, who left on the evening train for a three months' visit with her mother in Greeley, Colo., at which time she will be joined by her husband, wishing her the best of vacation and hoping to see her back in a short while, when a jolly good time will be waiting for her. Miss Murray has a host of friends which she has made in

GRADUATION DRAWS AN IMMENSE CROWD

Commencement Exercises Are Largely Attended

DR. BRANNON PLEADS FOR UNITY OF SPIRIT AND PURPOSE.

All Features of Program Proved Pleasing—Growth of School Is Shown.

"Taking 'Publishers' for his subject, Dr. M. A. Brannon, president of the state university, in his commencement address Thursday night declared that the work of publishing was not confined to editors of newspapers or the publishers of books. All are publishers, by the lives which they lead and by what they say and do. He urged the large class before him to always publish the truth about themselves and about the community in which they live. The good points about the community should be published, so should the weak points in order that none might be deceived by misrepresentation. Dr. Brannon spoke earnestly on the necessity for greater solidarity. The people of Idaho are widely divided in regard to social, religious and political matters. There should be no division of opinion or sympathy in all matters. In industrial and economic matters there should be more co-ordination. In religion there should be a greater appreciation of the other person's position and a greater sympathy. Unity of spirit and common purpose was the keynote of the address. He said that we cannot control either the acquisition or application of knowledge or invention. The student who goes to the library to read or the laboratory to investigate does not know whence such investigation or study will lead. The Wrights inventing the airplane for peaceful purposes and not in military possibilities as a destructive force in war. The inventors of the gases used to kill men in the present war did not intend them for such purposes. Dr. Brannon closed with an appeal to, as far as possible, turn their efforts as publishers along useful lines.

The evening session was filled to overflowing Thursday night at the presentation of the program, which proved a credit alike to the class, to the faculty and to the organizers. At no previous graduation exercises has so large a crowd attended. The decorations were elaborate and tasty, the abundance of flowers and festal decorations being arranged with beautiful effect. The figures "1916" were suspended in a letter of scarlet and gold from the center of the stage. The class was arranged in a half circle on the stage with the school board, Superintendent Bue, Professor Dowman and President Brannon in the foreground.

The young men and women of the class made an exceptional fine appearance and the eagerness of the girls were dainty and pretty. The class established a rule that each girl would be allowed only $5.00 for her dress for commencement and the results were surprisingly beautiful in every detail. Every dress was of the finest material and showed no little labor. They were all made in an up-to-date girl's fashion but with many dainty flairs were simple but beautiful. The first number on the program, a selection by the high school orchestra, was heartily enjoyed by the audience. The invocation was given by Rev. W. E. Harmon, who, in his address, by Mrs. H. W. Dwyer, delighted her listeners. The address of the evening, referred to above, by President Melvin Brannon of the state university, followed.

Dr. Brannon's address was followed by Minuet and Baccarat, "Tales of Hoffman," by the high school orchestra, which like the rest of the program, was enjoyed to the utmost. The presentation of the diploma was in charge of Mr. W. H. Brown, president of the school board, who made a short address to the class. Rev. C. L. Bent closed with the benediction.

The whole program was especially enjoyed and was marked by the conspicuous presence of the proud parents and close friends of the graduates. It is eight years since the first class graduated from the Twin Falls high school. This class had eight members. The number of graduates has increased. In 1910 fourteen received diplomas. In 1911 this number had risen to 22. In 1912 there were 23 regular graduates and nine graduates from the two years commercial course. In 1913 and 1914, there were 48 graduates. In 1915 there were 61 graduates, and this year 83.
