AGED DELEGATE DIES SUDDENLY

JONAS W. BROWN, A MASON, SUGGESTS TO HEART TROUBLE DAY AFTER LEAVING TWIN FALLS

Was One of Oldest Citizens in Idaho—Was Stricken With Slight Attack of Heart Trouble Here During State Masonic Meeting—Lived in Boise

Suffering an attack of heart trouble Friday afternoon, a few hours after reaching his home in Boise, Jonas W. Brown, who was a delegate to the annual state meeting of the Masonic order, held here last week, passed to his reward.

The life and death of Jonas W. Brown, one of the grand old men of Idaho, is told by The Statesman as follows:

"Jonas W. Brown, lovingly known to all the Idaho pioneers as 'Uncle Jonas,' passed into the eternal sleep Friday afternoon at the age of 91 years, death finding the aged pioneer still in the harness, participating in active work up to the day of his death. Among the notable pioneers of the territory, the record of Judge Brown, miner and prospector, public official, lawyer and, above all, a citizen of real public spirit, stands pre-eminent. He was one of the most distinguished, as he was one of the oldest, settlers of this commonwealth.

"Mr. Brown's death was a shock to all who knew him. He had returned Friday morning from Twin Falls, where he acted as chaplain of the grand lodge of Masons at their annual meeting, and had walked up from the station, carrying his own grip, as was his wont, for he never allowed anyone to wait upon him. He ate breakfast with his usual relish, joking with his niece and other members of his household.

"He was taken with a slight attack of heart trouble a little later and then told his niece, Miss Olive Brown, that he had had a similar attack of heart trouble the Tuesday before. A doctor was summoned, who gave him quinine medicine and advised him not to attempt to go to his office. At 3 p.m. another attack came on, which resulted fatally.

Was Fine Citizen

"The death of Mr. Brown takes from the city one of the best examples of a true citizen that any state has ever had. Broad-minded, big-hearted, public-spirited, no man could say aught but good of him. He always stood for the highest in American citizenship.

"An evidence of his broad-mindedness might be cited in his attitude on dancing. Although a staunch member of the Methodist church, he was heard to remark that he loved young people and wanted to see them have a good time, and, if dancing in the home would make them happy, he had no objections, but he did not approve of it in public.

"He was an ardent temperance advocate, and his personal work in this respect is still referred to. He was one of the founders of the temperance work in the territory, and none rejoiced more than he in the recent passage of prohibition laws in this state.

Was Born in Ohio

"Mr. Brown was a native of Ohio, born in Hiram, Cuyahoga county, June 27, 1825. He obtained his education in the common schools of Ohio and when 17 started westward. He first located in Iowa where he found employment in a flouring mill. In 1852 he joined a party en route to the gold fields of California. In order to pay his way he paid the captain of the party $50 and agreed to drive the ox team. Upon reaching California, he engaged in mining at Deadwood. He served as county clerk of Shoshone county for several years and then was deputy sheriff for a time.

"In 1862 he came to Florence, Idaho, with the first of the gold discoverers. He held the positions of clerk of the district court, clerk of the probate court, deputy county auditor, deputy sheriff and deputy treasurer, all at the same time, during the first year of the territory.

"Judge Brown came to Idaho City in August, '63, where he engaged in the practice of law. He came to Boise in 1882 and for many years was associated in law partnership with Thomas Cahalan.

Was Charter Mason

"Mr. Brown was one of the charter members of the Idaho lodge of Masons, affiliated with the chapter of the Royal Arch, and with the Knights Templar commandery. This has been Grand Master of his lodge. Of late years he has acted as Chaplain of the Grand Lodge, having been re-elected at the meeting held at Twin Falls this week. He became a Mason on January 4, 1849, and took his initiatory three degrees in one day.

BODY OF FRANK HAMILL TAKEN TO ITS FINAL REST

CHURCH IS CROWDED BEYOND CAPACITY AT FUNERAL IN LIGONIER

Friends From All Parts of the Country Journeyed to Pennsylvania Town to Pay Last Respects to Splendid Young Man

In the Ligonier (Pennsylvania) American, the following account is given of the funeral of Professor Hamill, who was murdered last month in the vicinity of Antelope Springs, 45 miles south of town:

"The remains of the late Prof. Frank T. Hamill arrived in Ligonier on Friday afternoon from Twin Falls, Idaho, and were taken in charge by Funeral Director Sibel, who viewed the remains and then conveyed them to the home of the murdered young man's brother, Dr. C. A. Hamill, on North Market street.

"Services over Prof. Hamill's remains were held Saturday morning from the United Presbyterian church, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. A. L. Kenyon, who was assisted by the Rev. E. J. Carson of Bradstock, Pa., a former pastor and a personal friend of Prof. Hamill.

"The church's seating capacity was taxed and additional chairs were brought in. In order to seat the large number of friends and relatives who came, they lay their last respects to the departed. Many remained outside the room who could not be seated.

"Rev. Mr. Kenyon, in his able manner, delivered the sermon, while the Rev. Mr. Carson, in a very impressive talk, delivered the eulogy.

Beloved by All

"Beloved by all; not only at home but in his Western home as well; as evidenced by a communication received by the editor of the American a few days ago from Carson City, Nev., in which the writer stated the foregoing words. 'He was beloved by all'; thus these few words speak here and wherever this Christian young man had been in the same praiseworthy manner.

"The remains repose in a metallic sealed casket and the casket was covered with a pretty burial robe. Flowers from friends and pupils, which filled an altar, were received and at the church were placed upon and about the casket. A good photo of Prof. Hamill rested between flowers upon the casket, as the remains were not shown owing to their condition.

"The remains were followed to their last resting place in the Valley cemetery, Ligonier, by a large concourse of friends.

"At the grave the final services were held by our local Masonic lodge, of which Prof. Hamill was a member.

"A useful and most promising young life has been torn from us.

Out-of-Town Friends

"The following are among the many friends from a distance who attended the services over the remains of Prof. Frank Thomas Hamill Saturday, August 19: Elmer McKelvey and Misses Grace, Vera and Edith McKelvey, and Mrs. Berkey of Bolivar; Mrs. J. B. Dine and son Elmer of Johnston; Miss Martha Mitchell and Clifford Mitchell, Oakes, N. D.; Mrs. Walter Fox, Carson City, Nev.; Mrs. Gibson and daughter Mabel, Luttrell; Mrs. Jane Hartman and Mrs. Waggle, Avonmore; Mrs. Jane McDowell, Pittsburg; Rev. E. H. Carson, Bradstock; Harry Austrup and Messrs. Thomas and Charles DeWalt, Vandergrift; Dr. Frank Blum, Great Liberty; Dean Luther, Uniontown; Paul J. Abraham, Greensburg; J. R. Richards, Wilkesburg; Mrs. W. A. Perry, Mrs. H. W. Morrow and Dell Boy Ewing, Pittsburg, and Miss Estella Post, Uniontown.

D. W. DAVIS GIVEN A BIG RECEPTION

Citizens of American Falls Seize Opportunity to Honor Quaker Senator

Seizing the earliest opportunity afforded to honor their fellow citizen, D. W. Davis, the people of American Falls tendered the Republican candidate for Governor a splendid reception last Saturday night from 8 to 11:30 o'clock, to which all friends of Mr. Davis in Idaho were invited. A program of music and short addresses had been arranged and refreshments were served.

Congressman Addison T. Smith and Hon. M. J. Smythe were invited and had expected to be present, but both were detained in Gooding on business matters. Senator Davis left American Falls for Boise Sunday night to confer with the party leaders, and remained there until after the meeting of the state central committee on Tuesday. He expects to begin a speaking campaign this week which will take him into every county in the state.

A CITY HALL

IF there are any possible grounds for objection to the building by the City of the proposed City Hall, The News has yet to learn of them.

The decision reached at this week's meeting of the Council should constitute about the most important and generally satisfactory action taken by that body in a long time.

Twin Falls needs and should have a City Hall. The same amount of money as is now spent annually in the shape of rent for the various City offices and departments will more than defray the interest charges on bonds in a sufficient sum to erect a building which will be a credit and a convenience to the City and to every citizen.

The fact that the work of erecting the building will afford employment to a large number of persons, a majority of whom will probably be local men, is not the least of the advantages of the step.

Mayor and Council are to be heartily congratulated upon their decision.

THE PRACTICAL

THERE is a large class of individuals in this world, says an Eastern writer, who delight to toy mentally with abstract ideas. They are made up in great part of economic and political dreamers and they seldom venture down into the lower levels of action.

Naturally, during this season, frequent mirages of Utopian beauty thrill their souls. They become enamored of a form of Government which would relieve all men of personal responsibility and make a public monopoly of all kinds of service.

Such a form of Government would naturally cease to exact taxes of all kinds and possibly—who knows!—would some day substitute dividends therefore! This is the kind of Government which people of this sort want, and it is a question if they would be satisfied even with that.

Politics is a business of an intensely practical sort. There is little room for theory and none at all for experiment. Fundamental facts must be faced and the remedy offered which is not based on facts must fall of its own weight.

It is always easy to criticize, yet true, constructive criticism is the rarest thing in the world.

COMMON SENSE

THERE is so much of good, sound, common sense in the following paragraph as to entitle it to the widest publicity. John Kirby White, Idaho's Dairy Food and Sanitary Commissioner, is the author, than whom few men have had better opportunities of studying health in the making and noting the pitfalls dug by neglect of the common rules:

"If one could only make up packages of concentrated good health, place it on the drug shelves, accumulate some testimonials, advertise it thoroughly and put a top price on it, it would be the greatest boon to mankind that has ever been propounded. But because it is free, and most, or nearly all, of us may have it in abundance by merely the exercise of right living, correct diet and plain, common sense, good health is about as popular as a last year's straw hat."

Possibly if the public had to pay in good, hard cash for this kind of prescription, the public would attach more importance thereto.

PLAN TO ERECT BIG COMMUNITY BUILDING

SHAMROCK AND MOUNTAIN VIEW SCHOOL DISTRICTS WILL COMBINE THEIR SOCIAL INTERESTS

Church Services Will Be Nondenominational In Character—New Building Will Be First of Its Kind in Southern Idaho—Four Miles South, One Mile East

With the plans drafted and several hundred dollars already subscribed, it is practically certain that before winter sets in the residents in the Shamrock and Mountain View school districts will have a splendid new community building for church services, social entertainments and assembly meetings of all kinds.

The architect's plans call for a building 36 by 70 feet, with basement. It will be erected in the southwest corner of section 2, township 11, range 17 east, Boise meridian, making it just four miles south and one mile east of Twin Falls. This location is just half way between the two schoolhouses, about one mile from each.

An important feature of the project, as pointed out by Reed Moody and others who are promoting it, is the fact that all church services and meetings will be absolutely undenominational and nonsectarian. A clause in the deed by which the land is obtained provides that it shall revert back to the original owner upon any instance of its being used for denominational purposes.

WALLIS ENGAGED FOR CLEAN-TOWN CONTEST

Former State Pure Food Inspector of Idaho Is Employed by Utah State Board of Health

James H. Wallis of this city has been employed by the state board of health to score the clean-town contest being conducted in Utah this year, says the Salt Lake Herald. Announcement to that effect was made yesterday by T. B. Beatty, secretary of the board.

Mr. Wallis did the scoring last year and in 1914, and his work commended him to the board for re-employment. He is considered one of the most experienced health officers in the West and was for several years at the head of the food and dairy inspection service in Idaho, where he established a record for cleaning up a state that has been the subject of considerable favorable comment by Eastern journals.

DR. SULLIVAN SEES ACCIDENT

His Friend Wished to See How Biplane Starts on its Flight

Dr. W. A. Sullivan of this city was in Durley in attendance at the Minuteman fair when the biplane accident occurred that resulted in the death of an 11-year-old girl and the injury of several people. "I was over at the sheep pen with my friend, Jack Welch, of the Gooding experiment station, watching the judging just as the biplane was about to make its flight. My friend remarked, 'I believe I'll go over there and see how a biplane starts its flight.' So he went over into the crowd at the side of the racetrack. I watched the biplane circle around the track once on its wheels to get the engine going good for its flight. It was going at good speed, and just when it should have risen it went straight into the crowd at the side of the track. I thought, as I rushed over to the crowd, there were 15 people killed. When I reached the spot where the biplane stopped the first person I saw was my friend, Jack Welch, under the biplane. He had been knocked down and dragged nearly 40 feet. We got him out and found that, luckily, he was only scratched and bruised. He remarked, as he brushed himself off, that he didn't care to see how biplanes started their flight."

Bisbee Portraits Are Superior

Reason Number 4

The Bisbee Studio was the only studio in Southern Idaho daring to discontinue the making of postal portraits years ago when there was a strong popular demand for them. Every studio within two hundred miles welcomed postal sittings. The Bisbee Studio made this announcement: "We can afford to turn sittings away every day, if necessary, because some people think our prices are too high, but we can not afford to do unsatisfactory work. Postcards are not good enough for fine portraiture."

Year after year The Bisbee Studio voluntarily referred to other places an average of one hundred sittings a year. Articles stating the logic of this decision were written and submitted to photographic journals; they were accepted and published. Since then several studios in this section have taken a similar attitude on this question. There must be pioneers in all reforms, you know. The Bisbee Studio was the pioneer in this region to raise the standard of the photographic profession by eliminating postal portraits.

Miss Laura Hale. A very interesting account of Stephens' early life was read by Mrs. W. E. Lewis. Mrs. William Van Houten reviewed "The Merchant of Venice"; Mrs. Roy Hamilton told of her visit to the Shakespeare country, and Mrs. Harry Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Wilson sang in costume a humorous ballad, "Romeo and Juliet."

They left Twin Falls the 15th of June and spent the greater part of the summer in Portland and the Puget Sound country. Olympia, Centralia and Tacoma were some of the other towns visited. Use the Sunlight It's Free

Sunlight is the world's champion disinfectant. It's on the job most of the time and it's just as necessary for the sleeping quarters of the hog as it is for bedrooms in the house.

Therefore, in planning your hog house, be sure to provide plenty of windows. See that every nook and corner gets its share of this reliable disinfectant. In this way you will also make sure of good ventilation.

Build a substantial hog house, for the hog needs protection more than any other animal on the farm. Make sure of good drainage and cleanliness.

We stand ready to give you any advice on the question of material. And our advice is just like the sunlight—it's free.

KIMBERLY MAN HAS PAINFUL ACCIDENT

SLEEVE CATCHES IN MACHINERY
AND PART OF ARM IS AMPUTATED

Townpeople Show Sympathy by Making Liberal Donations to Fund the Medical Expenses of the Injured Man—Taken to Twin Falls Hospital

KIMBERLY—A serious accident occurred last week at the rear of the new Odd Fellows building, when F. J. Watson let his sleeve become entangled in the cog of the electric hoist, drawing his right forearm through the machine and completely severing his right hand above the wrist. The injured man was rushed to the hospital at Twin Falls, where the wound was dressed, leaving a short stub below the elbow. He is a hard-working man, with a family, and the accident will be a serious loss to him. The citizens of Kimberly have donated liberally to help in this case and all are sorry to hear of the misfortune.

A. F. McIlwain has bought a tract from W. E. McMaster, just east of the latter's home, and will erect a new residence at once in which he will make his home.

Charles Dunn has sold his relinquishment to his enlarged homestead, south of Rock Creek, to W. E. McMaster, who will move to it in the spring. The former will reside on his ranch near Gooding, which he recently purchased.

The Ladies' Pledge club met at the home of Mrs. T. W. McClain last Thursday and a large number were in attendance.

O. O. Dremore and W. E. Bubanka are in Oregon on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fletcher of Elgin, Ill., are visiting their son, H. M. Fletcher, south of town.

C. M. Stone has resigned his place as manager of the Kimberly mill, and a new miller from Salt Lake City will take charge of the mill at once.

C. T. Brown and W. H. Turner have gone to St. Joseph, Mo., with a shipment of six cars of livestock. The latter will also attend the American Bankers' association, which meets at Kansas City next week.

Architect Noebelt was inspecting the new school building last week and thinks it will be completed about the middle of November.

ARTESIAN CITY—Tague brothers and J. J. Byer have already sown their dry land crop. There is not sufficient moisture now to bring the grain up, but a good rain is due.

The question asked now by everyone here is "How soon will we have water for irrigation?"

Mrs. C. M. Arstein has improved in health and is able to be around again.

Several from this locality took in the Minocasinia fair at Burley last week.

A goodly number will attend the county fair from here this week.

J. I. Tolman took a bunch of purebred Hampshire bucks to the range the first of the week.

When the duck season opened "anals" on the 7th there was quite a bombardment on Lake Linden and many birds fell.

Orson Strong's sale last week was very well attended and prices for good stuff ruled above normal. As an evidence of prosperous times, there was no discount for cash. Mr. Lue was the auctioneer and C. A. Robinson clerked the sale and handled the paper.

The natatorium is now under the management of Roberts brothers. The new proprietors come well recommended and they guarantee first-class treatment to their patrons. Mr. Childs still retains his interests here and comes out from the hub city twice a week. Mr. Childs states that the natatorium building will undergo extensive repairs and that the plunge will be kept open throughout the winter.

Mr. Henry's thrasher of Rock Creek pulled in last week and threshed out a part of this territory. The yield on the irrigated portion was about 40 bushels and on the dry land about 10 bushels per acre.

LITTLE BURLEY GIRL KILLED BY PLUNGING BIPLANE

SEVERAL OTHER PERSONS
INJURED WHEN BIG MA-CHINE STRIKES CROWD

Aviator R. F. Shank Lost Control of His Aeroplane Upon His First Flight at the Mincinasa Fair Grounds—Machine Is Wrecked

Ruby Balcher, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Balcher of Burley, Idaho, was killed Thursday afternoon at 5:45 p. m. and several other persons injured when a biplane, piloted by Aviator R. F. Shank of Chicago, plunged into a crowd of spectators assembled at the fair grounds to witness the aeroplanes flight of the Mincinasa fair.

Shank, who had been engaged by the fair association for three exhibition flights on September 14, 15 and 16, arrived late Thursday afternoon at the fair grounds, and with his machine and paraphernalia was hurriedly transported to the fair grounds, where hasty operations were made to assemble the machine for the afternoon flight.

Shortly before 6 o'clock he started his machine, which was destined to wreck itself as well as send one little life into eternity. The biplane was facing south, being on the inside of the half-mile race track at the fair grounds. To get up sufficient speed and momentum, he circled the enclosure three times, running close to the earth. The third time around he turned his machine at the south end, coming north up the center with the expectation of rising and flying over the high board fence and a crowd of spectators lining the race track and north side of the field. To his surprise and consternation, as well as the crowd, the machine did not rise, but instead it could be stopped crashed head on into the watchers.

Tries to Escape
The little girl, with other playmates, was sitting on the railing of the race track and, seeing the rushing machine coming toward her, turned to jump off the fence, but waited just an instant too long. One of the planes of the machine struck her in the back of the head, breaking her neck and killing her instantly. Physicians rushed to her assistance immediately, but medical aid was of no avail. Her life had been snuffed out with one great sweep of the bird machine. Other spectators suffered minor cuts and bruises, but none were seriously injured.

The aviator and his machine, after dealing its death blow, crashed into the high board fence, demolishing the fence and laying a portion of the fence flat on the ground. Shank escaped without a scratch. A flock of tame geese, constituting a part of the poultry exhibit, was struck by flying timbers and two prize geese killed.

High Altitude Blamed
Shank is an Eastern aviator, having made many flights in the lower altitudes of the East. Burley was his first appearance in the West and it is thought that his not being familiar with the light atmosphere of this section of the country is largely responsible for the accident. The wrecked machine was hoisted together and, with its machinists and keeper, left Burley Friday afternoon for Chicago.

Funeral services were held at Burley over the body of the ill-fated child the latter part of the week. The parents of the deceased are well known in that locality, having resided there for some time.

The lad was taken sick the last of August and has steadily grown worse. The condition of Mr. Kiersted, who has not been in the best of health recently, is aggravated by his grief over the sufferings of his boy, and friends are much worried in his behalf, while Mrs. Kiersted is almost prostrated with grief and strain. BUHL HOPES TO GET CITY MAIL DELIVERY

Postoffice Inspector M. B. Ballard was in Buhl this week to make a report to the department on the new city delivery which Buhl is entitled to, says the Herald. The granting of city carriers is based on mail receipts of the postoffice. While here, Mr. Ballard stated that he believed Buhl was the smallest city in the country to be given city delivery. Mr. Ballard also said that the only thing that would delay putting in the carrier system was the lack of street crossings throughout the city.

PENETRATE HEART OF CENTRAL IDAHO

C. D. Thomas Says That the Sheepmen Are Driving the Game Out of the State—Reservations Are Not Reservations—Two Big Bucks Are Bagged

That the Sawtooth mountains, set aside by the federal government as the playground for the American people, have become the private preserve for ten or a dozen sheepmen, that the deer are being driven farther and farther back, until they will soon be driven entirely out of the state, and that the forage is being plucked so clean by the great bands of sheep that a man cannot ride a horse through the country with any certainty of finding feed for it, was the statement of C. D. Thomas, who returned the latter part of the week, in company with E. E. Peterson and Albert Putzer, from a deer hunt into Central Idaho.

While certain portions of the mountain ranges have been set aside as a hunting preserve, the government, in its anxiety for revenue, has, according to Mr. Thomas, issued permits for such a vast quantity of sheep that it has been unavoidable that they would overrun the whole Sawtooth country.

Despite the fact that they were compelled to go 127 miles from Twin Falls in order to get good hunting, the party secured two splendid bucks. Going over Ogden summit, down through Stanley basin, the usual limit of many of the big game hunters, the party went on over Vandy summit and down to Greyhound, one of the biggest deserted mines in that section of the country. It was within half a mile of Greyhound, 125 miles northwest of Hailey, that the party secured its two big bucks.

BUHL NOW HAS NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM

Power Company Installs Fifty-one Nitrogen-Filled Lights—Gloves Placed Entire Length of Broadway

Fifty-one new nitrogen-filled lights were installed in Buhl this week under the new contract recently made by the city council, says the Buhl Herald. The new lights replace the old arc lights and are placed in the center of the intersection of each street in town, running the entire length of Broadway from the north edge of the spawntite to the south edge. The lights placed in the business district of the city are 400-candle power and are much brighter than the former lights. The lights outside the business district are 250-candle power and are placed on every block, making Buhl one of the best-lighted towns in this section of the state.

The new lights are similar to the common incandescent globe and are directly under a white enameled shade. The light given is an intense white one and lights up more territory than the arc globes. The 400-candle power lights now used in the business district will be replaced soon with 600-candle power. There will be six of them. Twenty-three of the lights in the city are 400-candle power; most of which are on Main and Broadway. In the residence district 250-candle power are used and there are 17 of these in the alleys in the downtown district.

THE LARGEST FAMILY

Monday's Statesman threw out a challenge to produce a larger family than that of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Eldridge of Fruitland, says the Emmett Index. There are 14 children in that family. Emmett can go that record two better. The family of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Moulton consists of 16 living children and one who has passed away. All are children of one father and mother and consist of 11 girls and 5 boys. Mr. and Mrs. Moulton are reckoned among the oldest residents of this valley.

ALBERTA, CANADA, NOW RESORTING TO IRRIGATION

M. G. RIPLEY MEETS DON BARK AND EARL BECK ACROSS THE BORDER

Former Twin Falls Irrigation Experts Enjoying Their Work—Have Charge of Big Demonstration Farms for Canadian Pacific Railway Company

With one big demonstration farm of 3000 acres, at Strathmore, under their charge, besides four or more smaller farms in different parts of the province, Don Bark and Earl Beck, formerly located in this section, and now manager and assistant manager of the experiments in irrigation for the Canadian Pacific Railway company, are enthusiastic over their new work, according to M. G. Ripley of the Twin Falls Realty company, who returned the latter part of the week from a nine-day trip into the Southern Alberta country.

Calgary, Brooks and Tuxedo are three of the principal towns visited by Mr. Ripley on his recent trip, the two latter being located squarely in the heart of the big irrigation district recently opened by the Canadian Pacific railway. In stead of being called a tract, as in this country, such a district in Canada is termed a block. The Canadian Pacific block comprises 400,000 acres of land, for which water is obtained from the Bow river. The country is as level as any part of Canada, has no timber and is covered with wild prairie grass. Wheat, barley, oats and the clover and alfalfa are the principal crops grown, and the crop this year are very good, according to Mr. Ripley. He believes that the possibilities of that section as a stock country are immense, as there is free range and will be for some years to come. At the same time, it is possible for one man to irrigate more land than in the United States, so that the farms average 160 to 200 acres. As a basis of comparison, Mr. Ripley described the Sucker Flat country as being the nearest resemblance to that district around here.

It was at the railroad station at Brooks, where they have a demonstration farm, located, that he met the two Idaho men. Don Bark, better known throughout this state as "Dutty of Water," Bark is head of all the Canadian farms, having been in their employ since last year. Bark and Mrs. Beck, formerly Miss Thelma Senior, of this city, are located at Strathmore, where the big farm there produces all of the vegetables used on the dinner of the railroad company.

Speaking of the new towns in Alberta, Mr. Ripley stated that Calgary now has about 90,000 inhabitants, and is a small town located 80 miles east of Calgary. All of the towns, he declares, have been overbuilt and now, lots are a drug on the market. He declared, however, is going ahead and, he believes, has a great future as a business section.

EDWARD C. CARLSON ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Death Claims Young Rancher at His Home, Near Maroa, West of Town

Edward C. Carlson passed away Saturday evening, after an illness of some months. Mr. Carlson had been critically ill for several days and, although hope for his recovery had been abandoned, the final summons came unexpectedly. A message had been sent to his sister, Miss Eleanor, who was away attending college, and she was on her way to Twin Falls when her brother's death occurred. She arrived here Sunday afternoon.

Edward C. Carlson was born in Salem, Neb., December 25, 1881. He graduated from Luther academy, in Wahne, Neb., and later from Augustine college, in Rock Island, Ill. He came West, settled in Twin Falls and on May 1, 1915, was married to Orlinda G. Clum of this city.

Besides the wife and a baby daughter, there are left to mourn his untimely death a brother, Arthur A. and two sisters, Ada and Eleanor, who make their home here. Funeral services were held from the Crosby chapel Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Shepherd of the Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Carlson was a member.

COUNTING THE COST OF THEIR CANDIDACY

GREAT MAJORITY OF ASPIRANTS HAND IN THEIR ACCOUNTS—OTHERS ARE STILL COUNTING

Two Candidates for County Assessor Have Largest Expense Thus Far Filed—Five Candidates Show No Expense Other Than Filing Fee

The majority of the candidates for nomination in the primary election just have handed in their official reports of the expenses incurred by them in pushing their candidacy. All expense accounts are to be filed by September 25th, or 20 days after the election.

The filing list shows that the candidates for county assessor spent the most in advancing their cause. George W. Wilcox spent $149.52 and John F. Hanson spent $116.10. These amounts went mostly into advertising, cards, cuts, etc. S. P. Atherton, candidate for state senator, was next high man in the expense list, having filed his account, however, amounting to only $32.60.

Five candidates spent only the filing fee in their contest for office. These were Harold M. Sims, for state representative; J. A. Bybee, for surveyor; Lawrence Hansen, for state representative; Charles J. Crosby, for coroner, and W. F. Alworth, for state senator.

The expense accounts thus far filed and the amounts are as follows: J. M. Reichenbach, $125; H. C. Van Ausdijn, $10; D. P. Albee, $6; J. H. Barker, $12.80; Fred Nihart, $16.35; P. O. Herlman, $35.30; Harold M. Sims, $2 (filing fee); G. N. Kilday, $25.75; P. M. Kevins, $25.55; J. A. Bybee, $2 (filing fee); G. W. Wilcox, $149.52; Lawrence Hansen, $2 (filing fee); Frank L. Stephan, $20.50; W. H. Kaul, $20; O. E. Carlson, $2; Charles J. Crosby, $2 (filing fee); E. T. Newberry, $2; O. P. Duvall, $28; G. B. Schweitzer, $26; Norman Barker, $28.50; S. P. Atherton, $32.60; E. P. Atherton, $52.50; W. F. Alworth, $2 (filing fee); E. D. Williams, $2.50; John P. Hanson, $116.10; John E. Davies, $14; J. A. Galliker, $52.20; A. W. Ostrom, $14.

FARMERS' UNION TO TAKE AUTO AGENCIES

Major Farmers Will Sell Each Other Chandler and Dort Motor Cars—Organization Profitable to Them

That the farmers' unions, which consist of all the farmers in the county, can be made decidedly profitable through the application of business principles to the management of affairs is to be illustrated by the reports of the Malad, Idaho, Farmers' union. This life organization recently added a farm machinery department and a few days ago signed contracts for the agency for the Chandler and Dort motor cars.

The Idaho Falls Register, describing this new departure, states that the union is the largest in the field with a good prospect of making sales.

"The prospects for the union were never brighter than they are now," says the Register, and with the addition of their lines they are in a position to do a tremendous business during the 1916-17 season.

"Thrifty business men, they handle most of the big loads in this section and have recently been very successful in their experiment in the handling of cattle. The addition of the farm machinery department, which they took on last year, has proven even more successful than they anticipated."

TWIN FALLS AUTO COMPANY EXPANDS

Office and Accessory Department Is Moved to Building Formerly Occupied Johnson Auto Sales Co.

By moving their office and accessory department to the adjoining building, formerly occupied by the Johnson Auto Sales company, and cutting out a big doorway in the intervening wall, the Twin Falls Auto company will have one of the largest garages in this section of the state, covering 6450 square feet of floor space.

A. H. Campbell, the manager, expects to increase his supply of accessories and parts and will specialize in quick service in all sorts of repairs. While the new building is under way, they maintain service station for several well-known makes of cars, including the Cole, Chalmers, Cadillac, Vette and Overland. Likewise, five different makes of tires are handled by them.

SOMETHING NEW IN MOVING PICTURES

"Ramona," at the Lavington Theatre, Is Declared to Be Remarkable Show

"Ramona," a cinema-opera built by W. H. Clune of Holier Hunt Jackson's romance of the Southern California missions and mission Indians, will be shown at Lavington theatre Saturday afternoon and night.

"Ramona," as presented by Mr. Clune, is a pictorialization of the incidents of Mrs. Jackson's novel, photographed amid the actual scenes described by the late author. The Jackson based her story on actual occurrences that transpired during the course of the period when California was being transformed from a Mexican into an American. Interpreting American settlers went into the rich, new lands, and, too often, ruthlessly and shamelessly dispossessed the Indians. Mrs. Jackson made a first-hand investigation of conditions and made a report so indignant and explicit that the United States government took official notice, and proceeded to right the wrong so far as they were capable of being righted. Mrs. Jackson, after finishing her investigations of conditions and making her report, returned to her home in Colorado Springs, and there conceived the idea of embodying what she had learned and what she felt in a work of fiction which would have a universal appeal. The novel was an instantaneous sensation and has taken its place among the foremost works of American fiction.

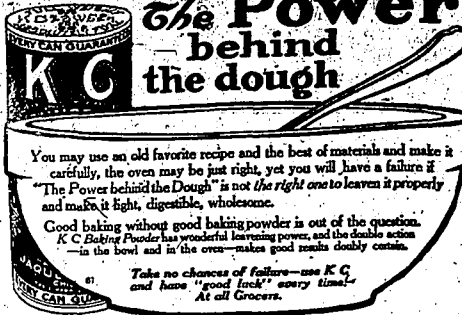

Not only are the scenes and incidents of the novel faithfully and artistically portrayed in the production of "Ramona," to be seen at the Lavington, but the whole is accompanied by a musical score of grand operatic caliber, interpreting every incident flashed on the screen, and rendered by a symphony orchestra of 25 musicians. Another striking feature of "Ramona" will be found in the rendition of the beautiful hymn at dawn and other vocal numbers by the California mission singers.

"Why, sir, the Union may be preserved from dismemberment by this proposed railroad."—Joseph R. Underwood in the United States Senate, February 19, 1853.

"The road has been built through an Indian country with all the tribes banded together and hostile."—General G. M. Dodge in Congress, 1868.

FOR half a century and more—ever since the first locomotive poked its nose west of the Missouri River—this railroad has worked continuously for the development of the territory which it serves, and for the improvement of the property. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent every year in telling the people of the East about the wonderful opportunities of the West. Prosperous cities and towns, thriving industries and fertile farms mark fifty years of notable progress. The Union Pacific System has led among western railroads in keeping its lines at the highest standard; whether business is good or bad, adequate provision is always made for maintenance of the Boulevard of Steel which links the East with the West. The Union Pacific System has also been first with practically every device which makes for security and comfort of travelers and for safety and expedition in the passage of freight.

Success has justified this policy of efficiency, but the full measure of success has been attained only by the confidence and support of the people who live in the Union Pacific country, and to them this advertisement is directed in a spirit of grateful appreciation. The Union Pacific System is proud of its territory and of the people who live in its territory, and in turn is worthy of the pride with which it is regarded by the people it serves as a great national institution.

BUSINESS GIRLS TO GIVE COMEDY 'CAPTAIN RACKET'

ONLY LOCAL YOUNG BUSINESS MEN AND WOMEN TO TAKE PART

PLAY TO BE GIVEN OCTOBER 6 IN
THE JOLLIEST AND BRIGHTEST OF COMEDIES

One of the most laughable of comedies, "Captain Racket," is to be given October 6 in the Laving Theatre by a cast composed entirely of young business people of Twin Falls. It is to be under the auspices of the Business Woman's club of this city and will be directed by Mrs. Wilfred McKay-Olsen. Work on the play has already started.

The comedy is one of such quick action and amusing situations throughout that the audience is kept in a continuous state of mirth, one laugh overlapping another. The cast is composed of eight people, and these parts will be taken by well-known young people of the city. The characters are: Captain and Mrs. Racket, the captain's uncle, Obadiah, and Mrs. Racket's father, also Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Tolman, the maid, Katy, and a porter from a hotel.

With the funds secured from the proceeds of this play, the club proposes to back a guarantee for securing the engagement of a speaker of national reputation and other splendid attractions during the coming season. Tickets for the comedy, "Captain Racket," will be on sale next week.

A strange custom among the Tarascans, a tribe in Mexico, is that when a young woman consents to become a bride her young lover completes the betrothal by breaking an earthen jar over her head. Here the barbarian does, however. After the wedding the bride does the jar breaking, same as in civilized countries.
