DR WILSON SHOT BY MEXICAN AT NOGALES DEPOT

IN ACT OF CHECKING HIS TRUNK BEFORE BOARDING TRAIN FOR HOME

WOUND NOT DANGEROUS UNLESS COMPLICATIONS DEVELOP—INJURED MAN IN CAMP HOSPITAL—CONFLICTING REPORTS SENT OUT AS TO DETAILS OF THE SHOOTING

ADVANCE NEW THEORY OF WILSON SHOOTING

An interesting theory in connection with the shooting of Dr. Wilson is advanced by many of the doctor's friends in and about Twin Falls.

Those who have seen or are acquainted with Brigadier General Funston say that the resemblance between the two men is striking. Up to the time Dr. Wilson was a board this was more than the case, and, in fact, it is said that at a short distance or in an uncertain light, either man might pass for the other.

This leads to the belief that whoever shot Dr. Wilson thought he was shooting at General Funston. Even with his back turned, Dr. Wilson looks sufficiently like General Funston to puzzle anyone not well acquainted with either, and it is considered not at all impossible that Dr. Wilson got the bullet which was intended for the commander of all the troops on the Mexican border.

Consternation stirred the people of Twin Falls the first of the week, when telegrams came from Nogales, Ariz., stating that on Sunday afternoon Dr. H. W. Wilson of this city, captain of the medical corps of the Second Idaho regiment, stationed at Nogales, had been shot by a Mexican.

Exact details as to the object of the shooting and general circumstances were conflicting in the reports received. However, it was definitely known that Dr. Wilson was at the depot at Nogales attending to the checking of his trunk and leaving on a furlough for his home here. One report stated that the bullet, which struck Dr. Wilson in the left thigh, was fired by a Mexican soldier at an escaping prisoner. Another report stated that the shooting was done deliberately by a Mexican sniper.

Dr. Wilson was taken at once to the base hospital and given prompt and careful attention. Messages received since by Dr. H. W. Cloucheck of this city, professional partner of Dr. Wilson, stated that the wound was only a flesh wound and unless unexpected complications developed later, the patient would be out of the hospital within a few weeks.

No word was received by Dr. Cloucheck on Monday morning, the first of the week, which may be interpreted as good news from the camp hospital regarding the condition of Dr. Wilson.

MAN DISAPPEARS IN MYSTERIOUS WAY

EVIDENCE LEADS TO THE BELIEF THAT A HARKLEROD MET WITH FOUL PLAY

Has Not Been Seen Since January 27 Was Then at Home With His Stepson—The Two Said to Have Quarreled—Stepson Disappears When Told Officers Were Starting Investigations—Conflicting Stories Told

Mystery surrounds the disappearance of A. Harklerod of Buhl. His neighbors are aroused over the affair and the sheriff's force is working exhaustively to solve the mystery.

Mr. Harklerod was last seen at his home, some three miles from Buhl, at about 10 o'clock on the morning of January 27. Investigation shows that no one was with him at the time except his stepson, Fred L. Marks, and that they had quarreled.

When weeks and months passed and Harklerod was not seen nor any word heard of him, the neighbors began to inquire as to his whereabouts. The conflicting answers given them by Mrs. Harklerod aroused their suspicions and about two months ago the matter was reported to the sheriff's office. A quiet investigation was begun at once, and when a neighbor told young Marks, a short time ago, that officers were investigating the disappearance of his stepfather, he at once saddled a horse, hired a neighbor boy to accompany him on another horse, and the main line and there took the train, sending his horse back by the boy. No trace of him has since been found.

He left a balance in the bank and uncollected money due him for work. Mrs. Harklerod attempted to collect this about an order some time after Harklerod's disappearance. She was told that she would have to present an order from Mr. Harklerod before she could collect the money. Shortly afterward she presented an order with Harklerod's name signed to it. Careful examination of the handwriting on the order and the name of Marks disclosed a great similarity.

Took No Clothes All of Harklerod's clothing, including underwear, shoes, etc., except what he had on, was found in the house. Further examination of the premises disclosed three bullet holes in the side of the porch, the nearest of which was the fact that since Harklerod disappeared, a concrete floor had been placed in the barn, also that a chicken house was burned soon after his disappearance.

On Sunday night of last week Sheriff Kendall, Deputy Sheriff W. G. Thompson, Probation Officer N. H. Ormsby and Prosecuting Attorney J. E. Davies went to the Harklerod home and, assisted by Marshal J. F. Baymiller of Buhl, dug up the concrete flooring in the barn and searched diligently for some evidence in support of their belief, but were unable at that time to secure any.

MAN IN AUTOMOBILE STRUCK BY TRAIN

F. O. LESTER SUFFERS SLIGHT INJURIES IN NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Passenger Train Strikes Auto—Man Escapes—View of Incoming Train Was Obscured by Freight Car—Machine Was Thrown From Track With Driver in His Seat—Traveling Case Was Hurled 25 Feet

Frank C. Lester, living a short distance southwest of town, received slight injuries and a serious shock Tuesday afternoon, when the west-bound passenger train struck the rear end of the light car in which he was riding.

The accident occurred less than a block above the depot at Hansen. Lester started across the track, headed north, when the engine of the passenger train caught the rear end of his machine. The auto was thrown from the track, with Lester still in the seat. A heavy sample case in the car was hurled, some 25 feet by the impact. Lester suffered painful bruises and severe shock. He was taken aboard the passenger train, brought to Twin Falls and placed in the hospital.

A freight car standing on a side-track close to the crossing over which Lester attempted to pass obstructed his view of the incoming train. The fact that the train was slowing down for the stop at the depot and that the auto was thrown to the side of the track instead of in front of the engine, saved Lester from almost certain death. At last reports he was making satisfactory recovery from his injuries.

LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WED

The following appeared in the Pocatello Tribune on Monday of this week: At 9 o'clock Monday morning E. Frank Kinney of Twin Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kinney of this city, and Miss Mary O'Brien of Ogden were united in marriage at St. Joseph's church. Only members of the family and immediate friends were present. Miss Catherine O'Brien, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and John Kinney, brother of the groom, was best man. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents at 441 South Garfield avenue. The young couple left this morning for an extended honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Twin Falls, where Mr. Kinney is in business. Mr. Kinney still a few years ago was a resident of this city and has a host of friends here. The many friends of the young couple wish them much joy and good fortune in the years to come.

Both are well known here. Mrs. Kinney has for some time been the day operator in the local Western Union telegraph office, and Mr. Kinney is in the sign painting business. They returned to Twin Falls Wednesday and are receiving the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

EVERYTHING READY FOR 'CAPT. RACKET'

BENEFIT PLAY TO BE GIVEN BY THE BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB ABOUSES INTEREST

Young Business Men and Women—Three-Act Comedy Is One of Exceptional Fun and Entertainment—Splendid Organization of Business Girls Needs Financial Aid to Carry Out Beneficial Plan for the Winter

Well-known young business men and women of Twin Falls will be seen in the play, "Captain Racket," to be given at the Lavering theatre Friday night of this week, the benefit play being given under the auspices and for the benefit of the Business Women's association.

This association of business girls and women of the city is a comparatively new organization and is struggling to get on a footing where it may carry out some of the beneficial plans for the women and girls who are members, or should be members, of the association. Eventually, and as soon as possible, the members of the organization wish to secure rooms or a building for regular meetings, where physical culture and various lines of study may be followed, where a gymnasium and swimming pool could be placed, and other arrangements made for the benefit, comfort and entertainment of the busy business women and business girls of the city, the majority of whom have no home here other than the one room in which they live.

Prominent Women Interested The association is composed of some of the most prominent business women and girls in the city, including many teachers in the schools.

The play to go on tomorrow night is for the purpose of securing funds for an empty treasury. It is the object of the association to secure some prominent speakers and entertainers of national fame to appear in Twin Falls during the winter, and, desiring to secure funds for guarantees, the club arranged to give this play, preferring to raise the money in this way rather than soliciting from individuals.

The play itself is one of exceptional fun and entertainment and is well interpreted by the cast, which is composed of well-known young business men and business women of Twin Falls, as follows:

Cast of Characters Capt. Racket, lawyer part of the time, but all the time, Merin Batley Obadiah Dawson, his uncle, from Japan, Henry Howe Timothy Tolson, a lady with a temper, married for money and is sorry for it, Chas. Des Buisseaux Hobson, a waiter, who adds to the confusion, One of Idaho's Best, Between acts Miss Edith Holcomb and Mrs. C. M. Bligh will sing. Miss Holcomb is the new vocal instructor

LECTURE COURSE NUMBERS ANNOUNCED

SPLENDID TALENT WILL BE PRESENTED THIS YEAR FOR THE ANNUAL LYCEUM

First Number to Appear the 20th of October—Will Be Famous Drama—Well-Known Orchestra Will Appear as Last Number—J. Adam Bede, Noted Lecturer on National Affairs, Will Be Important Entertainer

According to the present arrangements of the local Lyceum course people, some splendid talent will appear in Twin Falls on the regular annual Lyceum course, which opens October 20. The first number, "The Melting Pot," is a drama of alien American life. It was first produced in New York by some of the leading players of the country, headed by Walker Whiteside. A number of the original players are with the present company. The drama had a long engagement in New York and is known as one of the most stirring of modern plays. It is the expression of the combined yearnings of millions of alien hearts for liberty of life and thought.

It is a play with great dramatic climaxes, of intense human emotions, of humor and of tragedy. It is in four acts, and the setting is in New York City. Not when it was produced, nor at any time since, has there been a time when this drama was so timely as now. It will be presented as it was in New York City.

The second number of the winter's program will be the Marcus A. Kellerman company, with Marcus A. Kellerman, pianist, and William A. Gurovitch, violinist, and William A. Parson, pianist, composing the trio. "The Killarney Girls," the third number, will appear December 20 in a program of music, readings and entertainments. Miss Gay Zenola MacLaren, noted reader, interpreter and impersonator of plays and stories, is scheduled for January 22. J. Adam Bede for February 7 and Schindler's Hungarian orchestra for March 28.

All the numbers on the program for the winter come highly recommended as among the best in their line. The program is sufficiently varied to please all tastes and meet the demands of the people for high-class entertainment.

BOYS REINSTATED IN SCHOOL

Four Boys Appear Before School Board—Right Trouble and Re-enter

Four boys—Reynolds Cox, William Herbert, Edgar Davies and Wright Nims—appeared before the school board at a special meeting Monday night and made satisfactory arrangements with the board in regard to setting for school trouble. A week or two ago the boys were apprehended for damaging the interior of the instrument. They made entire restitution for the trouble and were reinstated in school.

FEDERATED CLUB WOMEN OF IDAHO TO GATHER HERE

STATE BIENNIAL WILL OCCUPY FOUR DAYS IN IMPORTANT MEETING

PROMINENT WOMEN FROM ALL OVER IDAHO AND FROM OTHER STATES WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE—BIG BANQUET WILL BE ONE OF THE SPECIAL FEATURES—RECEPTION TUESDAY

From Tuesday to Friday, inclusive, of next week Twin Falls and community will entertain as guests some of the most prominent clubwomen of Idaho and a number of guests from out of the state. Twin Falls has not had this privilege for six years, and in all probability will not have the opportunity again for 12 years. No less than 125 delegates are expected to attend this gathering. In view of this large number of strangers to be entertained within the city, the citizens are most anxious to give them the best possible homes to the visitors and extend to them the quality of hospitality for which the people of the Twin Falls tract are noted.

Excellent Program Promised

Lack of space and the length of the program for the week-end (which is in its entirety; however, it includes some) excellent addresses that should be of interest to the public at large. Every day of the week the federation will be open to the public, except the banquet to be given on Thursday evening, at $2 per plate. ## IDAHO REGIMENT PLANS TO MAKE ANOTHER MARCH

SECOND HIKE AND MIMIC BATTLE IS SCHEDULED FOR IDAHO BOYS

EXPECT TO BE ORDERED TO TAKE LONG MARCH TO FORT CRITTENDEN—SPECIAL MANEUVERS AND SHAM BATTLE ANTICIPATED—FUTURE PLANS FOR IDAHO REGIMENT NOT KNOWN

Special To The News.

NOGALES, Ariz.—Another hike and combat maneuver on a big scale are in prospect for the second Idaho infantry regiment. With the First and Second Connecticut infantry regiments, the Idaho troops, according to report, will leave Nogales on October 4 for Fort Crittenden, 32 miles distant, near which place two regiments of California infantry, returning from target practice at Fort Huachuca, will be encountered.

In mimic warfare the Idaho-Connecticut brigade will attempt to prevent the Californians from reaching their camp at Nogales. It is presumed that seven days will be occupied by the hike and maneuver. Fort Crittenden is on the route traversed by the Idaho regiment and other regiments subsequently making the trip to Huachuca. The hike to Crittenden is a three days' march.

Various Rumors Heard

Reports that 10,000 National Guardsmen are to be relieved from further service on the border, current this week, have revived rumors of an early homecoming in the Idaho camp. On the other hand, recent activities of Villistas lead to the opinion in some quarters that the Idaho regiment may yet see service "across the line."

Company D figures prominently in the second installment of the Nogales Military Week, the action of the being taken here by Nicolas Wenzel and D. W. Randall of Company D, which were shown here this week and will appear in Twin Falls in the near future. Twin Falls soldiers are seen receiving the "ditty bags" made for them by women of Twin Falls.

COUNCIL LACKS NEEDED QUORUM

No Business Can Be Transacted, and an Adjourned Meeting Is Called for Tonight

City dads were scarce Monday night, and the most active use of the telephone failed to bring enough of them together to transact the business of the council. The absent members were Councilman Bobler, who has been over on the north side for several weeks, and Councilman Smiley, who left on the evening train for Salt Lake City, to be gone for several days.

Finding that a quorum could not be obtained, Mayor Swenson called the meeting to order and a motion was made by Councilman Parrott, seconded by Councilman Bracken, that an adjourned meeting be held tonight. In addition to passing the regular monthly bills, the council will at this time hear protests to the paving of Eighth avenue and to permitting the Oregon Short Line railroad to move their side tracks.

J. E. Hill and A. D. Stafford were present Monday night to protest against the former, not against the paving itself, but against the method of assessment proposed. In protest to the latter, a delegation of draymen were present, who threaten that if the assessment will be greatly hindered and complicated if the railroad company is allowed to move their trackage.

Remsler Studio Is Purchased by Guy A. Tobey of This City

A business change that has been pending for some time was consummated this week, when Guy A. Tobey, well-known musician in this city, purchased the photograph studio of W. S. Remsler and took charge at once. Mr. and Mrs. Remsler expect to leave in a few weeks for California, where they go for the benefit to be derived from a lower altitude. They have resided in Twin Falls for several years and have many friends who regret their departure, but wish them success wherever they go.

WORLD TRAVELER LIKES TWIN FALLS

DR. EVANS OF UTICA, NEW YORK, HOMEWARD BOUND, STOPS IN CITY FOR BRIEF VISIT

Father-in-Law of W. B. Ackerman Has Seen Nearly Every Country of the World Since His First Visit Here, Six Years Ago—Says He Hates to Leave the Twin Falls Country and Will Come Back Again

Homeward bound from San Francisco, Dr. M. J. Evans of Utica, N. Y., globe trotter and eminent physician, arrived in Twin Falls early this week for his first visit here since 1910, when he stopped off to see his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ackerman, residents of Twin Falls at that time.

During the past six years Dr. Evans has been traveling almost continuously, has visited every state in the Union and nearly every country in the world. He believes that Mr. Ackerman, formerly a partner in the Goldsmith & Ackerman drug store, later sold to Skeels-Wiley, made a mistake in going back to an Eastern farm. Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman are now living at West Chester, Pa., 22 miles out of Philadelphia, and the doctor expects to visit them within the next month.

Enthusiastic as ever over the wonders of Idaho and the Twin Falls country particularly, Dr. Evans declared as he boarded the eastbound train Tuesday evening that he hated to leave the town, and especially the good meals he had been getting at a certain local hotel, which, he declares, serves better meals for the money than any other hotel in the country.

"Yes, I'll be back," said the world traveler as the train pulled out, "and if I were a young man, I would not be leaving now."

NEIGHBORHOOD AMENITIES

The black-haired boy had a mighty contempt for the tow-headed boy. "Huh," he said. "Your mother takes in washing."

"Of course she does," the tow-headed satirist retorted. "You didn't think she would leave it hanging out at night unless your father was in jail, did you?"

SLIGHT MISTAKE

"Oh, please, Miss Jeanne," begged the youth, "do not call me Mr. Durand."

"Oh, but our acquaintance is so short, you know," she replied coquettishly. "But why should I not call you that?"

"Well," the young man hesitated, "principally because my name is Dupont."

A bit of animated atmosphere is added to the Pallas picture, "Davy Crockett," by the ebony-colored house servant of the Vaughn's. Born in slavery and of the Southern home, servant and performing them as he used to in the anti-bellum days, Biddle gives an authentic touch that is but a part of the elaborate care used to make this interesting story of the Southern frontier live in a realistic setting. This Pallas-Paramount photoplay comes to the Idaho theatre Monday and Tuesday, October 9 and 10.

The Hog Ford preacher has decided to begin a protracted meeting as soon as the weather gets cold. He believes it a good plan to do this while everybody has their hands in their pockets.

Fletcher Heston was tried at Bounding Billows Saturday morning on a charge of stealing a ten dollar cow from someone over near Thunderbolt. He pleaded guilty with the understanding the court would pay him three dollars to be lost between the cow and the fine.

Ellick Hellwanger has a new vest with big stripes and crossbars on it. Ray Barlow says all Ellick lacks now of being in jail is having a padlock for a watch chain.

Luke Mathews has a good hawk pen for sale cheap. It would make a good front yard and Luke may move his house up behind it.

The Hogwallow Improvement association is preparing to go into winter quarters.

ARE YOU GOING TO HAVE A FURRIED SALE?

I am again prepared to clerk your sale and purchase your paper, and am in position to quote you rates that I am certain will appeal to you as attractive.

I have a plan for the arrangement of terms that appeals to the various purchasers as being more equitable than those formerly in vogue in this community, and that will, at the same time, save money for the man holding the sale.

If you are contemplating holding a sale, let me submit my proposition to you.

I have money available for real estate loans, and at attractive rates.

NOW that late fall and early winter are fast approaching, the society events of Twin Falls, it is hoped, will increase in number. Clubs are organizing and many of the society matrons of Twin Falls are planning parties to be given some time during the winter. The federation of clubs, which will be a big event in the town's social history, has aroused much interest.

This column will inaugurate a new idea this winter which will be a source of pleasure to the readers. It is hoped, each week we will publish a recipe or two contributed by the women of this community—recipes which have been tried and tested. We will gladly publish any good recipe sent in, if the contributor can vouch for the same. If you make a particular kind of cake or salad or pie, or other article of food which you like especially well, we should be very grateful if you would send the recipe to us, signed or unsigned. But we prefer it signed. Send the recipe to The News office in care of the society reporter, and mark "Recipe" on the envelope.

The Euchre club met with Mrs. H. B. Johnson on Friday afternoon of last week. Eight members and one substitute, Mrs. Putzler, were present. Mrs. Johnson served a delicious two-course luncheon. The members of the club, as a parting gift to Mrs. Johnson, who leaves soon for California, presented her with a beautiful leather pocketbook.

The members of the Methodist church gave a farewell reception last Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, complimentary to Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Parker, who leave soon for Nampa, Idaho. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Craven was hostess to the members of the Auction Bridge club on Wednesday of last week. Ten followed the game. Mrs. O. F. Baker won the prize for high score.

The Blue Lakes Boulevard club had its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Denay last Friday afternoon. Eighteen members were present to enjoy the afternoon. Election of officers resulted in the following: Mrs. Fred Helm, president; Mrs. J. Wright, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Roscoe Stevens, reporter. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ebeling.

The Mothers' Surprise club met with Mrs. Decker last Thursday afternoon. Eighteen members were present. Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Butler were guests for the afternoon. An extended business meeting was followed by a social hour, after which Mrs. Decker served a dainty two-course luncheon.

Complimentary to Miss Carmen Cox, who leaves soon for California, Miss Fannie Hart entertained with a Kensington tea last Friday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with purple streamers. Miss Hart was assisted by her mother.

As a Business or Just a Side Line

Take a tip from the people who make a business of raising poultry. The first thing they do is to put up some good buildings. They pay particular attention to the details of correct construction.

The well-built poultry house provides plenty of sunlight, fresh air and space enough for comfort of the chickens and convenience for cleaning. Location is an important point: Make sure of good drainage and shelter from rough weather.

See us about the material for your buildings. We will help you to build the best poultry house for your needs whether you make a business of poultry or whether it is only a side line.

Last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Vera House, who leaves soon to attend school in New York. The table centerpiece was composed of asters. On Wednesday night Miss House's mother entertained ten guests at cards in her daughter's honor. Miss Nellie Tensdale was given the prize for high score. A dainty supper was served after the game.

The Euchre club had a very delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Putnam Monday afternoon, when the four members having the low score entertained the other members of the club. A delicious two-course luncheon was served after the game.

Another delightful party given for Miss Carmen Cox was the shower given by Mrs. Paul Tabor Saturday afternoon. Twenty-two of Mrs. Cox's friends were present. The shower was a miscellaneous one and was followed by a Kensington. A two-course luncheon was served late in the afternoon. Pink and white asters were used as decorations.

A social event of much interest and importance was the shower given in the Episcopal parish house last Thursday night by the Business Women's association. A program consisting of readings by Mrs. Mares and Mrs. Olsen and vocal solos by Mrs. Biggs, Miss Holcomb and Miss Carlson was greatly enjoyed. Punch and wafers were served throughout the evening. About 65 guests and members were present. The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and vines.

Another of the interesting weddings of the season was solemnized at an early hour Monday morning, October 2, by the Rev. Father Hahn at St. Edward's Catholic church in this city, uniting in marriage Miss Helen Elizabeth West and William Macaulay. Only the families and intimate friends of the young people were present. Miss Gladys Chappel acted as bridesmaid and the groom was attended by his brother, T. C. Macaulay, as best man. The bride was charming in a handsome dark blue velvet traveling suit, with a velvet, rose-trimmed toque to harmonize. She carried a large bouquet of pink carnations and ferns. The bridegroom, in a tuxedo, with a ruffled pink boutonniere, carried an armful of pink snapdragons and ferns. Owing to the length of the service, the bride and groom were unable to leave the wedding breakfast planned, and followed by the best wishes and hearty congratulations of those present, left for the early morning train for Salt Lake and other points.

After a short honeymoon they will make their home in Filer, where the groom is in business. This marriage is the culmination of a childhood romance, it being tacitly agreed by those who knew them that "Helen and Bill" were sweethearts. Mrs. Macaulay is the youngest daughter of Harry T. West, the well-known stockman of Kimberly, while Mr. Macaulay is the junior member of the firm of Macaulay Brothers. Both of the young people have practically grown up in Twin Falls and have a host of friends to wish them every happiness and joy in their new life.

The meeting of the Twentieth Century club on Tuesday afternoon took the form of a business meeting and Kensington combined. Plans were discussed for entertaining the delegates of the State Federation meeting, to be held here the week of October 10-13. This is the first meeting to be held in Twin Falls, and the club members wish to uphold the reputation of the tract for hospitality, and each considers it not only a duty but a pleasure to contribute her share toward making the visiting delegates welcome. It will be a number of years before Twin Falls will again have the opportunity of entertaining those ladies from all over the State, and every effort is being made to make this visit one that will be recalled with pleasure.

The Federated Rural Clubs, under the able direction of Mrs. J. E. White, are planning to prepare and serve the banquet, to be given on Thursday evening. The afternoon's program was in charge of Mrs. Schroeder. Different members were called upon to tell what they would like to see accomplished by the club this year. A number of practical suggestions were made and, judging from the interest and enthusiasm shown, the work done this year will compare favorably with that of former years. Those called upon were Mrs. James Clouche, Packard, Hart, Blue, Ripley and Hill.

"A Dressmaker's Tale"

Girl of the Future, feared of all,
Chasing the far-fung Fashion line,
What awful things may yet appal,
Hung on your human form divine!
Girl of Today, stay with us yet,
Lest we regret! Lest we regret!

The tunic and the poplin dies,
The plaiting and the flare depart;
Oh, what must we next sacrifice
To future of a fearful art!
Girl of Today, stay with us all,
Lest worse befall! Lest worse befall!

The blouse and bodice melt away,
Forever fades the silhouette;
Lo! all the mode of yesterday
Is one with puff and pantalette.
Girl of Today, stay with us, do!
Lest worse ensue! Lest worse ensue!

If drunk with mad designs we loose
Wild styles that hold no art in awe—
Such clothing as the Fijis use,
Or lesser breeds without the law—

Girl of Today, stay here with me,
Lest worse may be! Lest worse may be!

For foolish maid who puts her trust
In French tallies or smart modiste,
In valiant men of mien august,
Without discernment in the least—
For frantic fads of Fashion's whirl,
Have mercy on us, Future Girl,

GOVERNOR MOSE

AFTER listening to a speech by Governor Alexander one becomes more than ever impressed with the farseeing wisdom of P. T. Barnum that astute old showman who summed up the experience of a lifetime in his famous utterance about fooling the people.

Ordinarily an audience does not look for comic opera from the executive of a sovereign State, and the full realization on the part of an audience that it is getting just that arrives with something of a shock. But how much better it would be for an audience, forewarned, to place itself en rapport with the speaker and accept his every utterance in the same spirit in which it is offered. There would then be no shock, and the end sought politically would be just as likely of materialization.

Those to whom Alexander's cheap wit, illiterate metaphors and silly conceits really recommend the man for the Governorship should by all means vote for him, but the outstanding feature in the public career of the man seems to The News to lie mainly in the extraordinary reflection upon the intelligence of a State which would ever for a moment think seriously of electing him Governor.

BETTER ROADS

DURING the past twenty months Twin Falls County has expended approximately one hundred thousand dollars for road construction and upkeep. The bulk of it for upkeep. Keeping in mind the sum of money used, the question presents itself: Are the roads of Twin Falls County in any better shape today than they were twenty months ago? Probably not.

In every County where dirt roads are the rule the cost of upkeep is one of the heaviest sources of expense which the County is called upon to bear. And for the reason that there can be no such thing as permanent repairs, there is never the slightest prospect of a lessening of the constant drain.

But there is a scheme of road construction which is permanent. The first cost is infinitely more, but the upkeep is practically nothing. The proposition is neither a novelty or an experiment. It is the result of exhaustive tests and exacting trials. It works.

Elsewhere in these columns will be found an article on the subject of concrete roads which is well worth study. In it will be found the experience of a County which for years put up with the same conditions which have so far baffled the people of Twin Falls County. The remedy was applied.

The cost of construction of concrete roads amounts to from seven to ten thousand dollars per mile. After which the expense is over. The life of a concrete road is estimated at approximately one hundred years. Occasionally as the years roll by trifling repairs are necessary, but the expense is negligible as compared to the cost of upkeep of dirt roads, and with the same expenditure year in and year out for new roads as is now required to keep the old ones in condition, this County within a few short years could be laid from one end to the other with first-class highways.

The only thing necessary is to make a start. If but ten miles of concrete road had been laid in the past twenty months, there would today be ten miles of good roads in Twin Falls County. A few thousand dollars would have served to keep up the old roads in a temporary sort of way, which charge would diminish steadily as new roads were built. The entire matter is one of plain, everyday, common sense. The day of the dirt road is past.

Is there no way by which an expression of public opinion may be gained on this important subject or, what would be equally satisfactory, a definite program marked out with a view to making a study of the concrete road proposition as applied to Twin Falls County?

A SOCK OF PRINTER'S INK

THOSE who know Tom Newbry, and there are few better known men in the County, are not inclined to take very seriously charges affecting either his character or his integrity. Among his friends Mr. Newbry needs no vindication. To his enemies let it be said that if there really is a weak spot in his career, no one would be more interested in knowing about it than Mr. Newbry.

One of the inherent weaknesses of a political campaign lies in the fact that statements are made and charges set in motion which would never be uttered at any other time. The idea that vilification makes enemies for the victim and calumnies friends for their author was years ago cast aside by intelligent men. Such utterances never become issues, and yet no man enjoys a position such as that in which Mr. Newbry finds himself as a result of the vicious attack made upon him last week.

In the opinion of The News, there is now all the more reason why Mr. Newbry should be elected County Commissioner. During his previous term he took an active part in the biggest single piece of constructive industry in the history of the County. The fact that he worked unceasingly and gave of his best in the interests of the County provides the real reason for the attacks of his enemies. This sort of thing is a part of the penalty inflicted upon all who step aside from the beaten path in the interests of the better good. The first example was offered to the world two thousand years ago.

The News stands squarely back of the candidacy of Mr. Newbry. It believes him entitled to election upon his record, his reputation, his ability and his experience. If there is any man on either ticket better fitted for the position of County Commissioner, The News has yet to hear of him.

LET WILSON DO IT

WHEN the Englishman Benton was killed in Mexico by Villa or Villa's men and Great Britain made so forceful a protest that Mr. Bryan was compelled to call Villa to account, the story goes that Villa replied, "Excuse me, I thought he was an American." A tragic sort of a joke, to be sure, but one which expresses a good deal more clearly than many a State paper the exact situation occupied by this country in its relations with Mexico.

So far, it is literally true that Wilson has kept the country out of war, unless the capricious minded insist upon regarding as war the three or four weeks of fighting in which a good many Americans lost their lives during the Vera Cruz incident. (There is probably some sort of academic reason why that was not war.) Passing this, then, America has been kept out of war.

The answer depends largely upon whether one is willing to seek his honor in safety or seek his safety in honor.

"When you have an automobile," said Mr. Chuggins enthusiastically, "you depend on your own intelligence entirely. Now, it's altogether different when you drive a horse." "Yes," answered the unassuming man, "that's one reason why I think maybe a horse is safer."

A Tammany politician, hearing that Samuel Untermyer's health will not permit him to be the Democratic candidate for Governor in New York this year, immediately diagnosed Mr. Untermyer's disease as cold feet.—Goodwill's Weekly.

MILITARY WEEKLY MAKES BIG HIT

Before being sent to the Orpheum theatre in Twin Falls, the Nogales Military Weekly is shown in one of the moving picture theatres of the border city, where it is by far the most popular film displayed and is received with great enthusiasm, according to the Nogales papers.

In the second installment of this weekly, which is being shown at the Orpheum this week, Company D figures prominently. The Twin Falls soldiers are seen rescuing the "ditty bags" made for them by the women of Twin Falls.

GOVERNOR OCCUPIES THE LAVERING STAGE

Sees Nothing But a Bright Future Before His Followers—Everything Looks Fine to Him

Surrounded by local Democratic leaders and backed up by Sol Worthen, Cassia County's candidate for State treasurer, Governor Alexander appeared before the footlights at the Lavington theatre Tuesday night and addressed a fair-sized audience which had gathered to hear the State's chief executive explain matters.

Bourbon success was prophesied by the candidate for re-election, to whom all the difficulties of the past four years seemed to have vanished as a mirage, leaving only a most rosyate aspect to the present state of affairs and the possibilities at the November election.

What Newspaper Reviewers Say of Our New Serial Story by Rex Beach

"The Auction Block," by Rex Beach, stands out by the virtue of the humor which he finds in the wicked metropolis. It is a story that is especially American and especially worth while.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

In its healthy optimism, which includes the ability to squeeze a joke out of many a tight corner, "The Auction Block" is especially American.—Minneapolis Journal.

Those who have had personal experience in the society of which the author speaks, admit that he comes very close to hitting the nail on the head. The readers, to whom the whole thing is merely fiction, are entertained by the well-known Rex Beach style of telling things.—Burlington (Ia.) Hawkeye.

BIG STOCK RECEIPTS AT OMAHA YARDS

Supplies of Cattle Amount to 48,000
Head—Prices Stagger, But
Hold Well

A run of 48,000 cattle, the heaviest so far this season, has been absorbed this week and prices have not received the jolt that many feared they would. Beef steers declined sharply the first half of the week, but later recovered most of the break and closed very little different from one week ago. Fancy heavy Montana heaves sold as high as $9 to $10, but right good Wyoming and Nebraska cattle sold at $8.25 to $8.50. Fair to very good grassers are selling to both packers and feeder buyers at $7.00 to $8, fair grades at $6.75 to $7.40 and the common to fair kinds at $5.75 to $6.50. Cows and heifers suffered from the competition of the big run of cheap steer stock and prices show a 15 to 25 decline for the week. Poor to choice grass cows and heifers are selling at a range of $4.25 to $6.75, the bulk of the fair to good butcher and beef stock around $5.00 to $6. Calves are bringing $8 to $11 and bulls, stags, etc., are somewhat lower than last week, at $7 to $7.75.

Business in stockers and feeders has been rather unsatisfactory this week, as supplies have been considerably short of expectations. The best heavy feeders have been wanted right along and prices have held up fairly well, but on the general run of stock cattle and feeding steers there has been a further decline of 15 to 25 cents, and values are now around 40c to 50c lower than they were early in the month. The high price of corn seems to be the principal reason for the country holding off at this time, but there is so much rough feed in the country that dealers expect a heavy demand later in the season. Strictly choice fleshy feeders are selling at $7.75 to $8.25 and choice yearlings find a tolerably ready sale at $7.00 to $8.10. Right good grass cows are selling at $7.00 to $7.50, fair to pretty good grades are going at $6.00 to $7.10 and the common to fair kinds at $5 to $6.50 and on down. Stock cows and heifers are still in very good demand at not far from last week's figures, the heifers bringing $6 to $7 and the cows $4.50 to $7. Stock calves are going freely at $7.25 to $8.25, with strictly choice kinds at $8.50 and on up. Trade was slow, but a pretty good clearance was finally made.

Sheep Show Decline

A heavy run of sheep and lambs, 175,000 for the week, has been largely responsible for sharply lower prices all along the line. Fat lambs are selling at 50c to 60c lower for the week and best grades are going at $9.25 to $9.75, as against $10.25 to $10.50 a week ago. Few fat wethers and yearlings are coming, but even these are unsavory, lower, while there has been a 25c to 40c decline in ewes, fat ewes now going at $4.50 to $5.50, as compared with $6.25 to $7.25 a week ago.

Feeder values have also suffered a severe decline in sympathy with the fat stock, the decline being 25c to 50c lower than a week ago and in some cases as much as $1 lower. It is naturally a very unsettled trade at present and intelligent comparisons with a week ago are difficult. There is still a broad inquiry for breeding ewes and prices range from $6 to $9, according to age, weight and quality.

Lambs sold to choice, $9.05 to $9.75; lambs, fair to good, $9.25 to $9.65; lambs, feeders, $9 to $10.20; yearlings, good to choice, $7.75 to $8.25; yearlings, fair to good, $7 to $7.75; wethers, fair to choice, $6.50 to $7.75; ewes, good to choice, $6.75 to $8.90; ewes, fair to good, $6 to $6.75; ewes, plain to culls, $4 to $5.75; ewes, feeding, $4.50 to $6; ewes, brooders, all ages, $3.25 to $9.

CATTLE SCARCE AT KANSAS CITY YARDS

Trading More Active at About Steady
Prices—Lambs 50 to 60 Cents
Lower

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS.
Beginning with Wednesday, the cattle supply has been much lighter, this on paper do not always mean a decline in steady prices. There is a better clearance than last week. The spread on killing cattle is widest of the year and stockers and feeders are selling at the low point.

The best steers brought $10.75 Monday and Tuesday, equal to tops last week. A good many cattle sold at $9.75 and upwards, short fat steers down to $8.50. Choice grass steers are getting scarce, and the medium grades are more common, so that lower prices on paper do not always mean a decline in the market. Colorado beef steers sold up to $7.00, light southern steers from Colorado at $6.50, Oregon grass steers $7.35, Oregon cows $6.15 and $6.20, Idaho feeders $7, Idaho cows $5.40 to $5.75, Panhandle cows $5 to $6, good native grass cows up to $6.50, veals lower this week, at $9 to $10.75.

Stockers and Feeders.
The biggest movement of the year to country points was made this week, 32,700 head in four days. Feeders at $6.50 to $7.25 look pretty cheap, when viewed in connection with top beef cattle at $10.75, especially as few cattle are going to be fed. Yearlings and two are selling from $6 to $7 in most cases, with plenty of light steers down to $5, and high-head ones up to $8. Next week in American Royal Show week, which means a high-class assortment offered, and more buyers from out of town.

Hog receipts have been heavy, and the character of the supply indicates great effort at gathering in the country. Light hogs have lost their position as loaders, and the spread in price is very wide. Receipts today were 5500, market 5c to 15c lower, top $10.25, bulk $9.50 to $10.25. On Friday of last week top was $10.75, bulk $10.15 to $10.60. Best heavy hogs top at $10.15, and very few lights got above $10 today. Packers appeared more anxious for hogs today, and paid up to the top price. The break is more gradual than last year, when it came in October, suggesting that a drop in the supply might stop it entirely.

Sheep and Lambs

Lambs are 50 to 60 cents lower than a week ago, best here today $9.75, receipts 2500 head. Feeding lambs have not lost quite so much, though they are selling at the lowest price in six weeks, at $9.25 to $9.65, and look like bargains. Smaller receipts will bring an upturn. Fat ewes sell at $6.50 to $7.25, feeding ewes $5.50 to $6.75, brooders $7 to $9.

SENATOR NORRIS WILL SPEAK ON NATIONAL ISSUES

NOTED NEBRASKAN WILL COME TO LAVERING
NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

GREAT REPUBLICAN LEADER IS MAKING A WINDUP CAM-PAIGN OF THE NORTHWEST—
TWIN FALLS WILL BE HIS ONLY
STOP BETWEEN SALT LAKE
CITY AND PORTLAND

In a whirlwind campaign in the interests of the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes for President, United States Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska will make one of his three principal speeches in the Northwest at Twin Falls next Monday night.

"National Issues" will be the subject of his address, to be delivered at the Laving theatre next Monday night, and the County Republican committee is planning to make this an occasion for a big Hughes-Fairbanks rally. The Senator came direct from Salt Lake City, where he will address the Republicans of Utah on Saturday night, and he goes from here to Portland, where his third speech in the Northwest country will be delivered.

As a figure in national politics, Senator Norris has occupied a prominent place for the past 16 years. While not a member of the Progressive Party, the noted Nebraskan has always been believed in Progressive principles. Like Senator Borah, he has believed in progressiveness within the party itself, not rampant reform agitation.

Senator Norris is the man whose fight in the House of Representatives a few years ago brought about a modification of the rules of that body and the deterioration of the autonomy of Speaker Cannon, whose power had at that time reached its zenith.

It is this fact we offer you: we have the patronage of the majority. This is no idle statement; we make it deliberately; without proof, we would be foolish to say it at all; we have the proof along many codes of reasoning. The judgment of the majority—it is worth while.

WIN FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON

High School Football Team Defeats
Shoshone 20 to 0—Local Eleven
Strong in Defense

Emphasizing the fact that the Twin Falls high school has the material for the making of a mighty football machine, Friday's game with Shoshone, in which the local boys won a clean-cut victory by the score of 20 to 0, revealed an exceptionally strong defensive style of play, which will make a valuable foundation upon which to build up the offense.

One touchdown in the first quarter, in the second and one in the third tells the story of the work of the Twin Falls scoring machine in action. Holler kicked the first goal and Neuman the third, the kick on the second touchdown not being completed.

Tomorrow's game will be played with the Rupert high school team at Rupert.

The lineup for last Friday's game was as follows:

Twin Falls	Position	Shoshone
W. Holler	q.b.	C. Wilson
R. McCracken	r.h.	E. Grosse
T. Holderman	r.h.	E. Swopes
O. Neuman	r.h.	G. Johnson

CAPABLE MEN CHOOSE CAPABLE CARS, AS CAPABLE MEN CHOOSE CAPABLE FRIENDS

You have doubtless observed that, as a rule, the friends of a prominent man are also prominent men. The qualities you admire in a man—are they not also the things you most admire in a motor car? When we speak with deep affection of a friend we say of him that he is "always the same."

What is there that pleases us more than this constancy in a motor car, year after year? A friend who is always the same, and a car that is always the same—they are both much valued because they never disappoint our needs, no matter how much or how often we call upon them.

Character in a man and character in a motor car—both are the product of principles deeply imbedded. Character in the man expresses itself in conduct unwaveringly true under every circumstance and condition.

Character in the car expresses itself in performance—equal to every emergency and satisfying in every conceivable situation.

We admire a man of quick decision—a man who never fumes or frets, but goes straight to the root of a decision.

We admire a car which is instantaneous in action—which does not halt nor hesitate, but does what it has to do decisively and without a moment's delay.

We admire power and especially control of power in a man—we admire it above all else in a motor car.

We admire a man whom we know to be possessed of reserve power—and we admire a motor car which always has power to spare, for heroic occasions.

We admire the strong man who makes no show of his strength—and we admire the car which gives no sign of strain, stress or labor.

We admire a man who wears the outer marks of good breeding—and we admire a car whose appearance bespeaks its quality.

The analogy could go on indefinitely.

It is interesting for one reason.

It indicates how much of themselves men can build into a motor car.

A motor car rarely rises above the motives of its manufacturer.

The integrity of a motor car is measured by the integrity of those who build it.

If it is the product of high ideals and rare ability, it will express them both in performance and in length of life.

As you would inquire into the records and the ancestry of a man seeking your friendship, so it is well to inquire into the antecedents of a motor car seeking your favor.

The reason why the best citizens of Idaho are buying and have bought Cadillac motor cars is just as natural—just as deeply rooted—just as inherent in their nature as that their rise and achievements, their work and their application to big interests in life have changed their countenance and bearing from the indifferent-commonplace to one of strength, power and resourcefulness.

WOMAN'S PARTY SPEAKERS TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETINGS IN TWIN FALLS

SARA BARD FIELD, ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT WOMEN SPEAKERS IN THE COUNTRY, TO SPEAK HERE AT PARISH HALL TUESDAY AFTERNOON—MISS ELEANOR P. BARKER TO SPEAK HERE LATER, ACCORDING TO PRESENT PLANS

There came to Twin Falls the last of the week Miss Eleanor P. Barker, one of the interesting and capable leaders in the Woman's Party movement. Miss Barker is a practicing attorney in Indianapolis, Ind., and state president of the Indiana Congressional Union.

At the close of a conference held in Colorado Springs August 10, which was attended by many of the most prominent women in the United States, speakers were sent out to each of the western voting states to organize the voting women for systematic work. Miss Barker and Mrs. A. C. Mueso of New York City were sent to Idaho to take charge of the work in this State, with Mrs. Mueso in charge of the headquarters at Boise. The purpose and plans of the Woman's Party were first introduced to Twin Falls people through Miss Ross, who visited the city early in August and gave an address at the home of Mrs. M. J. Swesley.

During her visit to Twin Falls the first of this week, Miss Barker arranged for a special meeting to be held at the parish hall at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of next week, at the close of the regular afternoon meeting of the Twentieth Century club, and preceding the opening meeting of the state federation. The meeting will not be given under the auspices of the Twentieth Century club nor in connection with the state federation, but it is held at this opportune time in order that women from all over the state may have the opportunity to hear Mrs. Sara Bard Field of California.

MISS ELEANOR P. BARKER

A Noted Orator

Mrs. Field is known as the silver-tongued orator of the Woman's Party, and her appearance everywhere is greeted by large audiences. She has just closed a speaking campaign in Salt Lake, where she was given signal recognition, not only by the women especially interested in the progress of the Woman's Party but by the citizens generally of Salt Lake. She travels a part of the time with Inez Milholland, the social worker and writer of national prominence, who is now in the West, but who, because of her crowded itinerary, was unable to appear in Twin Falls at this time.

Miss Barker left on the Monday evening train for Boise, but expects to return next week to be in attendance at the meeting of the state federation. She also plans to be in Twin Falls October 26, at which time she will deliver a special address explaining the purpose and work of the Woman's Party.

Miss Barker is a woman of exceptional ability and personality and a most logical and convincing speaker. In explaining the object of the Woman's Party, Miss Barker stated:

Object of Woman's Party

"In the first place, the Woman's Party was not organized to fight any party in particular, but to work with and for that party which will give the most consideration to our one great plea—that of a federal amendment giving the right of suffrage regardless of sex."

"Why are we working now for the Republican Party? Well, not because all of us are Republicans, for we are not. In fact, Mrs. Field and a number of our most prominent workers are staunch Democrats and are deeply disappointed because they cannot vote for T. J. F. Hughes because he has publicly stated that he believes equal suffrage is a national issue and pledges his support to it. I am heartily in favor of suffrage for women, insists that it must come through state legislation. On that one issue our party was founded."

"Why do we demand national recognition and refuse to work for state recognition alone? We have worked for state recognition since 1869, and we have been no nearer our goal the last few years than we were in 1870. This federal amendment is often called the 'Susan B. Anthony amendment' because it was the object of her life for 40 years. She decided years ago, after a careful study of the constitutions of the various states, and her own bitter experience, that the task of gaining woman suffrage state by state would be almost endless. In some states it is practically impossible to change the constitution in any way."

"The sixteenth amendment was first presented in Congress in 1878, and for the next 12 years, to 1890 inclusive, Susan Anthony remained in Washington for weeks after the national suffrage convention trying to have some action taken by the committee."

Women Humiliated

"In 1904 Miss Anthony made her last appeal for a national amendment, presiding at a hearing before the Senate committee with all her accustomed energy and force, although the convention had just celebrated her 84th birthday. She finished her remarks in a voice that faltered a little in spite of her effort to self-control by telling how at the close of the civil war, 40 years before, the women asking for the suffrage had been bidden to stand aside and wait until the negro men had secured their rights. Then, after a slight pause, she said: 'We have waited; we stood aside for the negro; we waited for the millions of immigrants; now we must wait until the Hawaiians, the Filipinos and the Porto Ricans are enfranchised; then no doubt the Cubans will have their turn. For all these ignorant, alien peoples educated, American-born women have been compelled to stand aside and wait. How long

FEAR "AFTER-THE-WAR" COMPETITION

NATION'S BUSINESS MEN ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

Believe That the Protective Effect of the War Will Be Broken Down Immediately After Peace Is Declared, and the True Weakness of the Recent Tariff Legislation Will Be Revealed

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—From all parts of the country comes increasing evidence that men engaged in productive industry are taking deep interest in conditions that will exist "after the war," and that they are not at all satisfied with the economic situation as affected by tariff legislation.

Instead of being destroyed, European industries have been developed by the war, except in the very limited territory over which the contending armies have battled. Every European factory has been working full time and has increased its capacity in the effort to supply demands. When war demands have ceased, the factories will still be in condition to turn out maximum quantities of goods, and the supply must be marketed to a large extent in other countries. Naturally, America will be the most promising market, for this country will have the money to spend. American producers can see no way of avoiding a flood of foreign products, with the protective tariff bars let down.

Unfortunately, a large portion of the press of the country has felt under the necessity of suppressing the facts of the situation, as a matter of political expediency. The editors naturally feel, and with good reason, that if they acknowledged that the present unparalleled demand for our products is due to the war, the admission would discredit the claim that the Wilson administration has brought the greatest era of prosperity the country has ever known. For partisan reasons, therefore, they conceal the facts as to the character of our foreign trade and the protective effect of the war.

Change Will Be Inevitable

But the careful business men of the country, whose success depends upon their studying fundamental economic conditions, are not overlooking realities. They know that the stream of foreign products flowing into this country was steadily increasing up to the time of the war, and the outflow of exports was just as steadily decreasing. They know that the turn came immediately after the declaration of war, and the only change was that time has been commodified need for the support of armies in the field. They know that when millions of men were taken from the field and factory to go to the front, other millions of men, women and children took their places in productive industry, and that when the soldiers return to their homes, the productive capacity of Europe will be the greatest in its history. They know that Europe's necessity will force her to sell products at any price that can be obtained in order to realize upon them the money with which to pay national and commercial debts.

With these facts clearly in their minds, American business men are apprehensive as to the serious results that will follow the signing of a peace treaty, when all Europe will throw a surplus of commodities upon our market, taking away American money and throwing American labor out of employment. Actuated by the same caution, they careen in their private business, these men want adequate provision made to protect our industries from the flood of foreign products. They realize that there is no hope whatever that the Democratic party will abandon its long-established principle of free trade, and, therefore, they are urging an increasing number to the support of the party which stands today, as it has always stood, for "America First."

WILL GET DETAILS OF FINAL SERIES

Model Cafe Will Post Telegraphic Account of the Big Games, Play by Play—First Game Saturday

By special leased wire from the Associated Press, the Model cafe expects to get minute reports of the final series. A big display board will be placed above the restaurant building on West Sheehane street, and the bulletin will be posted as fast as they come off the wire.

This is the first time that detailed accounts of the big games have been received here. The cafe managers assert that instead of giving the play by innings, the service there have secured will report every second of the game, play by play.

Two and a half hours behind Eastern time, it is expected that the first news will begin coming in at about 12:30 o'clock. The first game will be played Saturday. Anticipating a congestion of traffic in Sheehane street, Mayor Swesley has arranged to detail a member of the police force for duty there at that time.

INJUSTICE

Colonel Smith was under the painful necessity of administering a sound thrashing to his son Samuel. After he had completed his labors, he said sternly to his offending son: "Now, tell me why I punished you." "That's it," sobbed Sammy. "You nearly pounded the life out of me, and now you don't even know why you did it."

FINE EXHIBITS ARE TO BE SEEN AT SCHOOL FAIR

WORK OF BOYS AND GIRLS' CLUBS
WILL BE DISPLAYED IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM OCT. 6

Exhibition Will Be Open to Public Both
Afternoon and Evening—Displays
Will Show the Results of Summer
Work of School Children in Various Lines—Many Prizes Are Offered
Contestants

From present indications, the school fair to be held this year will be the best held here. For the first time since the schools started, the school board this summer engaged the services of the agricultural teacher in directing the work of the boys and girls' clubs in this district during the summer. Some 150 boys and girls started in the work at the close of school. Boys in the pig club took part in judging the pigs at the Filer fair, and a number of the boys took an active part in judging all the stock at the county fair.

Prof. Ralph H. Musser, the agricultural teacher, reports that much interest was taken by the children in the work followed out during the summer. One of the boys in the club exhibited the ten best ears of corn at the Filer fair. One little girl made $25 during the summer months by selling flowers from a little plot of ground a rod and a half square, which she cared for herself during the season.

There is a class of 40 boys, states Professor Musser, who are this year taking first-year agriculture and 65 per cent of them are from the farms, and nearly all of them are actively engaged in the boys' agricultural club work. He also stated that nearly all who become interested in this branch of study go through and finish the high school agricultural department.

There was also a dairy class of 14 and a stock-judging class of 10 at the opening of the school year. Nearly all the boys of the eighth grade are taking this branch of study. Considerable interest is being taken in the plans for the coming school fair. The Lincoln Produce & Refrigerating company and the Sterling Creamery company have offered special prizes to the contestants in the calf club, and Luc & Valmadsen give a pig as first prize in the pig club contest. Exhibits from the various departments of the public schools of Twin Falls are to be attractively displayed on this occasion in both the boys' and the girls' work in the vocational course.

The following prizes will be awarded to the boys and girls of the schools who have been doing club work during the summer under the direction of the agricultural teacher.

QUALITY VERSUS QUANTITY

Many housewives make a vital mistake in choosing some of their food-stuffs on the basis of quantity.

It has been proven time and again that the cheapest is always the most expensive, while the highest price is not always the best.

There's a happy medium in everything. When you select foods, be careful. Don't choose any particular brand of, say, baking powder, for example, just because you get a big can for a price.

The risk you take in running your entire baking and losing the cost of the materials involved is not anywhere equal to the small amount saved on the price of the baking powder.

Then, again, because the price is high, don't think the quality is the best. Some women do, and they are losing money.

Look for the happy medium. You'll find it. Choose a brand that costs a moderate price and you'll find it more economical to buy and more economical to use.

The best baking powder in the world can be made so as to sell for 25c per one pound.

It was during a practical gardening lesson in a large school when the teacher was instructing the boys in the art of protecting plants from the frosts observed that one of the boys was not paying attention to the lesson.

"James," she said sharply, "which is the best way to keep May frosts from the plants?"

"Plant them in June, sir," replied James.

ILLINOIS PEOPLE BELIEVE FIRMLY IN GOOD ROADS

VERMILION COUNTY WILL BUILD 145 MILES OF CONCRETE HIGHWAY

CONTRACTS CALL FOR THE LONGEST SINGLE MILEAGE OF CONCRETE ROADS EVER LET AT ONE TIME—BONDS FOR $1,500,000 ISSUED TO COVER COST OF NEW IMPROVEMENTS

Twice during the present year Vermilion county, Illinois, of which Danville is the county seat, has made history. On March 17 contracts were awarded by the county mentioned for the longest mileage of concrete roads ever let—nearly 145 miles of paved highway built for permanence, built to outlast the $1,500,000 bond issue that made these roads possible.

Vermilion county taxpayers, not to mention those from adjoining counties and elsewhere, will long remember the occasion of dedicating the first stretch of these roads to the use and service of the people of Illinois—an event which took place on July 20. On behalf of the state, Governor Duane accepted this stretch of road. Five thousand farmers and business men witnessed the ceremony which, in days to come, will be looked upon as a great chapter in Illinois history. Governor Duane made the prophetic statement that in time a tablet would be placed at the roadside to commemorate the historic fact that July 20, 1916, was the day when the people of Newell township, Vermilion county, completed and presented to the commonwealth of Illinois the first stretch of permanent highway made possible under the issuance of bonds for that purpose, in co-operation with state funds allotted under the state aid road law.

Capitalize Community Resources

Many communities have demonstrated that the most economical way to transform expensive bad roads into profitable good ones is to capitalize community resources and issue highway bonds, then to use the funds thus obtained to build permanent roads—concrete roads.

That the governor recognized fully the importance of this epoch-making occasion is indicated from the following extracts from his remarks:

"My friends, the event we are celebrating today is more than local importance. It inaugurates for Vermilion county an era of greater comfort and greater profit; it means that because of good roads, replacing those which were impassable often and wasteful always, your farm lands will be worth more and your lives more worth living."

"But it is not alone in Vermilion county that this meeting is significant. The whole state should have its eyes opened to what you are doing here, because what one county has done another can do. It means that the machinery of our government has achieved efficiency in this important and too long neglected department. It means that we are learning as a people to conduct our public affairs as intelligently, as economically, as honestly, as scientifically as we do our private affairs."

Formal Opening Impressive

The day's program began with the formal opening of the road by Miss Marie Phillips, a Danville, Ill., girl, who clipped the ribbon which had been stretched across the road at the Farm-ers & Merchants' bank, thus throwing the road between Danville and Alvin open to the public. Nearly 500 automobiles, many of them gaily decorated, took part in a monster parade, making the trip over the road from Danville to Alvin and return. American flags floated in the breeze as the throng moved along the route. Brass bands in trailers drawn by motor trucks followed the trip. In the afternoon speakers praised the enterprise of the people of Vermilion county in getting a concrete road that will not only meet the requirements of all kinds of traffic, but be an incentive to other counties to follow Vermilion county's example in obtaining money for road improvement through a bond issue, so that all of the necessary funds would at once be available to put into operation a comprehensive road improvement plan that would immediately benefit the entire community. Any other county can do what Vermilion county has done.

Many Visitors Present

Among those who addressed the assembled sightseers and participants of Vermilion county's road dedication were O. M. Jones of Danville, Ill., chairman of the Vermilion county road committee, who spoke briefly upon the difficulties which had been overcome and gave a short history of the good roads movement in Vermilion county from its inception to the actual letting of contracts and the commencement of work.

Hon. James P. Wilson of Polo, Ill., a member of the state highway commission, spoke on "The Farmer and the Road Question," a subject upon which he was well qualified to express opinions.

Addressees were also delivered by Hon. William G. Edens, vice-president of the Central Trust company of Chicago, and by Homer J. Rice of Greenville, Mr. Edens related "What Cook County Is Doing." Mr. Rice took the time road law, of which he was sponsor, for his subject. This, by the way, was the forerunner of the good roads law which has just been passed by Congress and signed by the President.

Nothing that was a part of the day's ceremony created more lasting impressions than did the road itself—the subject of the jubilation—ready for all kinds of traffic during all kinds of weather—an enduring 365 days a year boulevard.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED GATHERED FOR INFORMAL AFFAIR AT PARISH HALL

Social Evening Spent and Enjoyable Program of Music and Readings Given—First Formal Meeting of the Club Year—Regular Luncheon, Study Classes and Other Departments to Be Taken Up Soon

Parish hall was the scene last Thursday evening of an informal reception given by the Business Women's club of Twin Falls for all the business girls and business women in the city. Between 90 and 100 were in attendance, representing practically every store and shop and every line of work in Twin Falls. The guests were met at the door by officers of the club and members of the social committee. Punch was served during the evening from two tables, provided over by Miss Goebel and Miss Ada Walkington.

An interesting program was given later in the evening, consisting of vocal solos by Miss Eleanor Carlson, Miss Edith Holcomb and Mrs. C. M. Biggs and readings by Miss Momo of the high school faculty and Mrs. Wilfred McKay-Olsen. Miss Momo giving character sketches and Mrs. Olsen a special arrangement of "In the Bishop's Carriage."

Announcements concerning the plan of work for the coming year and arrangements for the play to be given Friday night of this week, under the auspices of the Business Women's club, were made by the president, Miss Katharine Pictorius. Much interest is being shown in the play, "Captain Racket," which is a three-act comedy of bright, quick action and amusing situations. The proceeds of this play are to be used as a guarantee, it is planned, for securing the engagement some time during the season of one or more of the best entertainers and speakers in the country.

The first regular meeting and luncheon of the club will be held later in the month, probably October 9, if arrangements can be completed by that time. It is the intention of the club to encourage the services of competent women during the winter who will prepare these luncheons and, with the aid of volunteer committees, serve them each Monday night.

ISSUES ADVICE FOR PREVENTION OF HOG CHOLERA

IMPORTANT RULES ARE LAID DOWN BY BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

DR. W. A. SULLIVAN, REPRESENTING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, POINTS OUT THE IMPORTANCE OF IMMEDIATE TREATMENT WITH ANTI-CHOLERA SERUM

Farmers, themselves can do much toward preventing the spread of hog cholera and placing swine raising and feeding on a safe and more profitable basis.

Locate your hog lots and pastures away from streams and public highways and do not allow your hogs to run on free range or highways, nor do not allow them to have access to canals or irrigation ditches.

Do not visit your neighbor or allow him to visit you if either of you have hog cholera on your premises.

Do not drive into hog lots when returning from market, or after driving on public highways.

Do not use hog lots for yarding wagons and farm implements.

Do not place newly purchased stock, stock secured or loaned for breeding purposes, or stock exhibited at county fairs immediately with your herd. Keep such stock quarantined by keeping them in separate pens for at least two weeks, and use care to prevent carrying infection from these to other pens by feeding and attending stock.

Burn to ashes or cover with quicklime and bury under four feet of earth all dead animals and the viscera removed from carcasses at butchering time, because they attract the attention of buzzards, dogs, etc., which are liable to carry hog cholera infection.

If hog cholera appears in the neighborhood, confine your dog and encourage your neighbor to do the same.

Mange, lice and worms lower the vitality of hogs and render them more susceptible to disease.

IF Hog Cholera Appears

Have them treated immediately with anti-hog cholera serum, after which they should be kept on a light diet, with pure drinking water, and confined to limited quarters that may be cleaned and sprayed three times a week with "one part of compound cresol solution to thirty parts of water," until the disease has abated in the herd. To obtain the best results the serum must be administered as soon as the disease is detected in the herd. See that the temperature is taken of all hogs and that a sufficient dose of serum is given.

To Rid Premises of Infection

Remove all manure and saturate with quicklime.

Burn all litter, rubbish and old hog troughs.

After the premises are thoroughly cleaned, spray walls, floors and other surfaces with a disinfectant (one part compound cresol solution to thirty parts water). Where hog houses are small, turn them over, exposing interior to sunlight. Clean premises, properly exposed to sunlight, will not maintain infection any great length of time.

Wallow holes and cesspools should be filled in, drained, or fenced off.

All runs underneath buildings should be cleaned and disinfected and then boarded up to keep hogs out.

Destruction hogs that do not fully recover, as they may be carriers of cholera infection.

(For further information regarding hog cholera, write the Bureau of Animal Industry, care Dr. W. A. Sullivan, Twin Falls, Idaho.)

WHEN YOU TAKE COLD

With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable everywhere. —Adv.

PEOPLE OF BUHL ARE INTERESTED IN GOOD ROADS

WILL MAKE ATTEMPT TO DISCOVER BEST ROAD-BUILDING PLAN

M. KOPPELMAN PUTS UP BOND ON HIS FAITH IN ROAD BUILT OF DISINTEGRATED ROCK—EQUAL AMOUNT IS ASKED TO BE PUT UP ON ROAD BUILT OF THREE-COURSE MACADAM

To stimulate the good-roads movement, to prove the comparative merits of macadamized roads and those surfaced with disintegrated or decomposed basalt rock, as advocated by him, and to show his good faith in this plan, M. Koppelman submitted the following proposition to the road commissioners at their meeting last Monday, says the Buhl Herald.

He will put up a bond of $2000 against a similar bond of $2000 put up by any individual, group of individuals or association, subject to the following conditions:

The commissioners of the Buhl Highway district will appoint a committee of three men to supervise and report on the construction of one mile of roadbed on the state highway as follows:

After the road beginning at northwest corner of Buhl townsite running west for one mile has been put in proper shape for surfacing, one-quarter mile of this road is covered 10 feet in width alternately with standard three-course macadam and disintegrated basalt rock of a standard adopted by the commissioners, in equal quantities, making two one-quarter miles of road surfaced with each material.

When, in the opinion of the committee, one kind of road surfacing has proved to stand up better and give better general results, then establishing its superiority, the committee will make its decision known to the commissioners of the road district, and in case the macadamized road has proven to be superior, they will ask M. Koppelman to make good the bond of $2000 put up by him, or in case the roadbed surfaced with disintegrated basalt rock proves to be the better of the two, the commissioners will call on the party or parties who put up the bond for the other $2000 to reimburse the road districts for the building of the mile of roadbed and M. Koppelman will be released of his bond.

THINGS TO FORGET.

IDAHO TECH GETS STAR FOOTBALL MAN

Wilbert Hubbell of Buhl Registers at the Pocastello Institution—Also Track Star

Idaho Tech football took a regular war-time jump into the list of preferred "war brides" this morning, when Wilbert Hubbell of Buhl, famous football man and track star, registered at the state school for the first year college work, says the Pocastello Tribune.

Hubbell weighs 180 pounds, of muscle, bone and brains, and the last item forms a good part of the whole. The charmed circle is now complete and Idaho Tech has the championship team again in football, according to all the depoters.

Brookhart, Exeter, Hubbell and Byrne make a quartet in the backfield which is invincible, and Coach Bronson is the man to get the best out of them.

The schedule is the best ever arranged for the state school here. Games with the University of Utah, the Logan Aggies, Albion and Caldwell, with a sprinkling of high school games, make the outlook especially bright for the college up by the Red hill.

EXPERIMENTING

Dear Aunt Mable had sent each of the three Morgan children a very beautiful imitation fruit peach made of sugar and nicely colored.

Mrs. Morgan thought they ought to be saved; the children thought differently.

"Now, you really mustn't eat them, you know," she explained. They look awfully pretty, but I am not sure but what the coloring matter may be dangerous. In fact," she went on, "I have heard of children dying from eating colored things."

She thought that would do the trick, but early next morning she heard a sound out on the landing and going to see who was astir so early in the morning, found little Elsie trotting along the landing.

"Where are you going, dear, she asked. "It's not 6 o'clock yet."

"Going to see if Dick and Arthur are dead yet," replied the 8-year-old miss. "I'm not."

WHY NOT ?

KC is pure. KC is healthful. It really does make lighter, nicer biscuits, cakes and pastry than the old fashioned single acting baking powders.

And you pay only a fair price for it. No baking powder should sell for more.

All very rich men began by putting money in the Bank. They were all careful men.

ANDREW CARNEGIE SAID, THE MAN WHO DOES NOT AND CANNOT SAVE MONEY CANNOT AND WILL NOT DO ANYTHING ELSE WORTH WHILE. THE BEST WAY TO ACCUMULATE MONEY IS TO RESOLUTELY SAVE AND BANK A FIXED PORTION OF YOUR INCOME, NO MATTER HOW SMALL THE AMOUNT.

What is the good of earning money and extravagantly SQUANDERING IT?

The man who piles up his money in the bank will also EARN MORE. Why?

He will take more INTEREST in what he is doing and he will be given the chance for promotion, or for a PARTNERSHIP, over the man who foolishly spends all he makes.

RAIN HELPED OUT THE DRY FARMER

ARTESIAN CITY REPORTS HEAVY
RAINFALL—WILL BENEFIT THE FALL GRAINS

Turner and Webster Have Big Tractor at Work—Draws Three Drills, Seeds a Strip Twenty-one Feet Wide at a Bound—New Irrigation Plan Has Been Submitted to the Dry Farmers of District

ARTESIAN CITY.—The gentle downpour of rain Saturday night and Sunday wet the ground to a depth of four inches. This will start the fall grain on the dry farms. A large acreage has been sown and more will be planted. Turner and Webster have their tractor going, drawing three drills and seeding a strip 21 feet wide at a bound.

S. T. Hamilton, W. Humphrey and D. B. Moorman were in this locality the latter part of the week signing up the dry land farmers under water under their proposed irrigation plan for watering the flat. They will hold a mass meeting here the early part of the week, explaining their proposition, and will give all the dry land owners an opportunity to sign for water. The proposition is to irrigate by pumping plant near Milner with storage water at the source of Snake river. The price of water is $55 per acre, $3.50 cash and no more payments for four years. The balance to run over a term of six additional years with 6 per cent interest. The price of maintenance has not been given out, or probably not figured out. When this valuable tract of land is all under cultivation, Twin Falls county should then have the greatest assessed valuation of any county in the State. A portion of the new irrigated district will be in Cassia county.

Charley Matthews finished up the threshing in this community last week and pulled his rig in for the season. One of the Gardner children was playing in a nearby shed a few days ago and accidentally pulled a heavy iron bed over onto himself, breaking the little one's hip. The child was taken to a hospital for treatment. Hiawatha Gardner and J. C. Cassidy were married in Twin Falls last Monday. They will make their future home on the groom's father's ranch, near here. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Vano Workman was a business visitor to Twin Falls Wednesday.

Since the recent rain snow is visible in the nearby foothills.

Roberts Bros., the new proprietors of the natriolium, report good business for their first week.

J. E. Bower was down from Burley last week looking after his interests here.

V. G. Swanson transacted business in Kimberly Thursday.

Those from here attending high school in Twin Falls are: Miss Agnes Swanson, Ralph and Walter Day.

SHORTAGE IN CATTLE CARS IS REMEDIED

Rock Creek Ranchers Find Means of Shipping Out Their Stock—Beavers Go Out Wednesday

ROCK CREEK.—The cattle cars which have been delayed so long arrived Tuesday and the beef was shipped Wednesday. These owned by H. P. Larsen, Nephew Larsen and George Crockett, and sold to the Western Live Stock & Commission company, were shipped to Denver, while the Walker and Brose beef was shipped to Omaha to be sold. They filled three cars and were accompanied by Walter Brose, Victor Rasmussen and James A. Walker. The Christian and Walker societies, which has been discontinued during the hot weather, will hold a meeting Sunday evening at the schoolhouse for the purpose of reorganizing and planning the work for the winter.

Mrs. John F. Hansen spent Thursday and Friday of last week with her niece, Mrs. D. P. Albee, at Hansen.

Miss Bertha Nicol, county superintendent of schools, spent Tuesday afternoon inspecting the school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Roman moved their household goods to L. P. Larsen's ranch Thursday afternoon. Mr. Roman has employment with Mr. Larsen for the coming winter.

The huller which has been hauling seed on the dry farms east of here pulled in here Saturday evening to begin work Monday morning, but it began to rain Saturday evening and it is this writing still continues, so it will be some time before the seed is dry enough to work with, even though the rain should cease at once.

The E. C. L. club met with Mrs. H. P. Larsen and daughter Ann Friday afternoon, with five members present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. P. Larsen, October 15.

John E. Hansen, who was called to serve on the grand jury at Boise last week, came home Thursday, having found a very light business session. While there he also attended the fair.

Miss Margaret Rose, the teacher in this district, went to Twin Falls Saturday to do some shopping, expecting to come home Sunday evening, but the rain had made the road so slippery that the cars could not travel, so she had to wait and come home on the stage Monday morning, which accounts for the stage arriving so much earlier than usual on that day.

CONGRESSMAN PRAISED BY HIS ASSOCIATES

Work of Hon. Addison T. Smith Is Strongly Indorsed by Senators Borah and Brady

The oft-repeated assertion that Congressman Addison T. Smith has made a record for efficiency and results in Congress is best attested not only by his careful attention to the best interests of his State but with the test of his character also, and is shown also in the acid test to which he must submit in the daily associations with his colleagues and with his neighbors.

Senator W. H. Borah of Idaho says of Congressman Smith:

"Mr. Smith is one of the most efficient, hard-working and vigilant members of Congress. His long service in Washington in connection with matters of legislation, both with Senator Shoup and Senator Heyburn, has familiarized him with Idaho, with his every interest and with the different localities, their peculiar local interests, and he is almost as well equipped for service in the House as if he had spent those years in actual service in that body.

"I think it can be truly said that there is no member of the delegation who has more minute knowledge of our great State and her varied resources than Mr. Smith, and certainly there is no one more tireless in looking after the interests of the people of the State. I have found Mr. Smith exceedingly helpful in dealing with such matters as land legislation and other matters of peculiar local concern. It would be difficult for Idaho to find a more efficient, courteous and obliging public servant than Addison T. Smith. We like him."

Equally sincere are the words of commendation from Senator James H. Brady of Idaho, as follows:

"It is, indeed, a matter for great rejoicing to all of Idaho that Mr. Smith was re-nominated for Congress. His natural ability and long experience, coupled with his faculty for putting that ability and experience to practical use in behalf of Idaho's interests, have made his services invaluable to our State. We cannot do without him."

"I have been in almost daily association with Mr. Smith since I have been in Washington and can say without reservation that he is always to be found on the firing line when Idaho's interests are at stake. No man in the halls of Congress has a deeper knowledge of irrigation and reclamation and those other big questions which so deeply involve the future welfare of our State, and Idaho will not only be rewarding one who has done so much for the State, but will be advancing her own interests in re-electing Mr. Smith to Congress."

WHY?

Little Gerald was being initiated into the beauties of grand opera. He listened for some time in silence, but when the celebrated soprano was in the middle of her loudest solo Gerald concluded that something ought to be done to the conductor of the orchestra. He said to his mother:

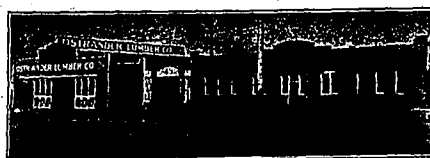

"Why does that man hit at the woman with a stick?"

"Keep quiet," his mother replied. "He is not hitting at her."

"Just then the soprano gave another despairing shriek."

"Well, then, if he isn't hitting at her, what is she shrieking so for?" said Gerald.

We Can Save a Few Men $175 On the HUDSON SUPER-SIX

Note These Important Facts
Prices Will Advance Soon

WE HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED AS FOLLOWS ABOUT COMING SUPER-SIXES:

THERE WILL BE NO CHANGE IN MODELS. THE ONLY CHANGES, IF ANY, WILL BE MINOR REFINEMENTS. BUT THIS YEAR'S PRODUCTION IS NEARLY SOLD OUT—BOTH OF OPEN MODELS AND ENCLOSED. THE NEW PRODUCTION—STARTING DECEMBER 1—WILL BE BUILT FROM MATERIALS CONTRACTED THIS YEAR, AT ENORMOUS ADVANCE IN COST. AND, TO MAINTAIN PRESENT STANDARDS, THOSE CARS MUST COST $175 MORE.

WE HAVE CARS YET TO COME

We have some cars yet due us at the present price. Some open, some enclosed. They will be sold at present prices while our allotment lasts. After that, every car shipped to us will cost the higher price.

You can save that difference—$175—by buying your Super-Six now. And you'll get the same model as buyers get who buy after December 1.

THE FAIR HUDSON POLICY

This is another striking evidence of the fair Hudson policy.

The Super-Six is a monopoly. This marvelous motor—adding 80 per cent to engine efficiency—is a Hudson patent. Its supremacy is unchallenged. It has won every world's record which can possibly prove any quality you seek in a motor.

It has made the Hudson the largest-selling fine car in the world. Yet this year's demand was hardly half supplied. Still this car has been sold at a minimum profit—at a price far below cars of lesser performance. The only advance for next year is the added cost of materials. And that advance will not apply until these materials are used.

British Team Defeats American Opponents in Brilliantly-Played Game—Thrilling Spill Is Recorded, While One Machine Has Three Whodas Crushed—Taken From the Field Flowing Along on the Hub

Brilliant team work on the part of the British poloists enabled them to romp away with the game in the fourth contest staged between the American and British teams of Hankinson's auto poloists at the state fair grounds yesterday afternoon. Says the Helena Record: "At the conclusion of the second period the British team had carried away the honors of the auto poloists of the week, their score for the two periods being 7 to 4."

Perfect weather, together with an audience of more than 14,000, enabled the auto poloists to give one of the best exhibitions of the game that has been played at the state fair grounds. Two periods, one of 15 minutes and the other of 15 minutes, were played during the afternoon, and the large audience cheered the players repeatedly during the contest.

Most Thrilling Spill
Without a doubt the most thrilling "spill" of the contest occurred during the second period, and although Ray Lampkin, the driver of the British team, was injured when he caught his leg beneath the car, he continued in the game during the final minutes of the game. Claypool, who was thrown clear of the machine in the "spill," bruised his foot in the fall.

British Car Again Wrecked
During the last period, the car driven by the British team was thrown over against the goal posts and both Lampkin and Claypool were lifted from the machine, the former bruising his shin and the latter injuring his foot in attempting to jump clear of the car. Three wheels were crushed on the turn during the last period, and at one time Henderson, driver of the American team, piloted the car from the playing field with the machine flowing along on the hub.

The final game of the series will be played today, and the international championship game will be played Saturday afternoon, at which time the auto poloists will give the concluding game of the series.

"The Paper Man"

MR. G. M. SIMPSON, OF THE TWIN FALLS NEWS

Mr. Simpson will shortly celebrate his fifth anniversary of continual service with The News. In fair weather, four he travels the length and breadth of Twin Falls County in the interests of The News Circulation Department, with occasional departures into the territory represented by the North Side. The horse he rides is almost as distinctive a figure through the country districts as is Mr. Simpson and has been on the job almost as long. Some time ago Mr. Simpson purchased a well-improved farm not far from Twin Falls and showed other symptoms of a "back-to-the-land" tendency. The News management breathed easier when he sold the property at a substantial profit.

FRUIT IS CANNED FOR NEEDS OF POOR

Mrs. Perrine Donates and Members of Associated Charities Do the Best

Following the announcement made in The News recently, that Mrs. I. E. Perrine would donate crates of fruit to the Associated Charities, provided it be canned and kept for the needy sick, a number of women phoned Mrs. Kennedy Packard, president of the association, and four were selected to can the fruit. Crates of prunes and grapes and boxes of apples were given for this purpose by Mrs. Perrine and Mrs. P. W. McRoberts took charge of the fruit and grape juice and prune butter were made, canned and stored for the needs of the sick people of the community who are unable to purchase these helpful and beneficial dainties, and for which there is a great need each winter. Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. Elizabeth Hilbary, Mrs. C. E. Rowcliffe and Mrs. P. W. McRoberts took charge of the fruit and the canning.

Mrs. Packard now sends out a call for potatoes. She states that even the culls will be most welcome and that they may be stored in the cellar of the ladies' rest room. Clothing and money for shoes for school children are also much needed, and urgent calls for these articles will soon be coming in to the Associated Charities.

VILLAGE BURNED IN PLAY FILMING

A small village was burned one night recently for the filming of "The Scotch Woman," the Wallace Reid-Chas. Bidley production, which will be seen at the Idaho theatre on Friday and Saturday under the direction of the Leaky company. It is a Paramount release. The village was erected at the Laaky ranch and nearly 500 people took part in the scene. Formerly the ranchers in the vicinity of the Laaky place turned out en masse for the big scenes, but now, when they see a lurid glare in the sky in the dead of night, they merely remark: "Then there Leaky's is up to their daik's again," and then return to their peaceful sleep.

GUSTAVE KUNZE IS AN IDAHO DELEGATE

Governor Alexander appointed Gustave Kunze as a delegate from Idaho to the Irrigation Congress that will be held in El Paso on October 4, says the Buhl Herald. This convention is attended by delegates from all states where irrigation projects are located and is one of the most important events held in the West. The appointing of him at Buhl. Unable to pay the larger fine which was levied on him, the exponent of the quick departure was lodged in jail to work it out.

SKIPPING LOSSES ITS POPULARITY

Two Hundred Dollar Fine Has Strange-ly Quieting Influence on Believer in the Quick Departure

That when you are caught "rolling those bones," with the financial evidence all laid out before you, it is better to walk right up and pay your fine, or else catch a train that will take you far, far away to parts entirely unknown to the local police is now probably the firm conviction of a Mr. Jonason, who was brought up from Buhl the latter part of the week by City Policeman Ham and given a $200 fine in Judge Smith's court.

Some time ago Mr. Ham entered a certain room in Twin Falls and arrested a bunch engaged in the pastime of "shooting craps." Those present were requested to appear on the following day at court, which all did, and paid their $20 fine, with the exception of the one party who skipped out and was not located until recently, when the Twin Falls sleuth took possession of him at Buhl. Unable to pay the larger fine which was levied on him, the exponent of the quick departure was lodged in jail to work it out.

WOMAN'S PARTY SPEAKERS

will this injustice, this outrage, continue?

Miss Anthony's Patience

"In an 'interview' which she gave at this time for a New York paper she said: 'I have never lost faith, not for a moment in 50 years. In every great cause there must be infinite patience, supreme philosophy.' These qualities she had through all her 86 beautiful years, though she passed away without seeing even the near approach of the realization of her strongest desire—action by Congress toward the enfranchisement of women. This will have had to wait for a decade after her death, but all women who now are helping to secure the old standard amendment, adopted by the National association in 1869, may justly feel that they are working under the direct inspiration of Susan B. Anthony."

Work of Noted Women

Miss Barker, Sara Bard Field, Inez Millholland and other noted women bring to the Western women a fund of information concerning the struggles of women in the non-voting states. Miss Barker states that the delegation after delegation of prominent women, headed by such noted characters as Jane Addams, visited the White House of mystery to many people. Mrs. Barker before President Wilson, but that he even refused to see them. However, a new idea came to the minds of the leaders and they sent two women from California to ask for a hearing. One of these women was Sara Bard Field, and because they were from a state where women vote, they were at once given a hearing. An interesting statement was made by Miss Barker concerning Inez Millholland. "Miss Millholland was married some time ago to a 'Dutchman,'" stated Miss Barker, "and she promptly learned that although she was a loyal, American-born woman, through the inconsistent laws of this country regarding women, she was made an alien through marriage, although she was born here, always lived here and would continue to live here."

The reason for the organization of the Woman's Party among the women of the Western voting states is a source of mystery to many people. Mrs. Barker's statement regarding the effect of the visit of Mrs. Field and companion, who are voting women, to President Wilson is an example of the influence which voting women have in politics. They have a power which the non-voting women do not in any way possess, regardless of national fame.

This power the Western voting women are asked to exert in behalf of the women of the non-voting states in demanding of their representatives in Congress an active part in securing the adoption of the federal amendment. For this purpose and object the Woman's party is organized.

A special meeting to be held in the parish hall at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of next week is an open meeting, to which the men and women of the community are cordially invited to hear Sara Bard Field.

October 20th The Melting Pot

This number, the opening attraction, should appeal to all, as each member of this company has played in leading roles throughout the country. This is a drama of alien American life. It is the expression of the combined yearning of millions of alien hearts for liberty of life and thought. The play was first produced in New York. The company included some of the leading players in America and was headed by Mr. Walker Whiteside. The play made Walker Whiteside famous and afforded all the players great opportunities. It is a play with great dramatic climaxes, of intense human emotions, of humor and of tragedy. It is in four acts and the setting is in New York City. Not when it was produced, nor at any time since, has there been a time when a drama was so timely as now. It will be presented as it was in New York City. Most of the original cast are in the company. So don't fail to attend this opening attraction, as it is one of the leading numbers of the season.

December 20th The Killarney Girls

The Killarney Girls is one of those exceptional musical and entertaining attractions which has achieved distinctive success. The program is a story of human life, of the great, wholesome men and women of Ireland. It touches the heartstrings of everyone, and is dedicated to the Irish people of each community. Lake Killarney will seem a bit more real to you. The turf fields, the peasantry, the River Shannon and Killaloe will have a new interest for you. The program is made up of songs and stories typical of Ireland and Irish life. In preparing it they have been most careful to avoid the use of selections that have been sung so much that they have partly lost their charm. They have instead made a study of the beautiful ballads and classics in Irish music. A number of original songs have been written. As a result they have a program which is distinctively artistic of beautiful music, and with such a strong sympathetic appeal, and a greater esteem and love for the Irish people, with their happy, sunny ways, their sentiment, their romance, their cheerfulness and courage. A program that you will like.

February 7th J. Adam Bede

You'll find Mr. Bede a lecturer of exceptional ability. His lecture, "Our Nation; Its Problems and Progress," is one that will hold your interest and attention the entire evening, an address that is instructive as well as interesting. We quote a few extracts from his "Side Stepping the Vice Presidency": "What's the matter with the Vice Presidency? Everybody laughs at it, statesmen run from it, nobody seeks it. Even the constitutional convention almost overlooked it, and the provision for it was not inserted until the final draft of our Magna Charta, just before the adjournment of that illustrious body in September 1787. Earlier in the proceedings it had been provided that the President of the Senate should hold the second mortgage on the White House, and so when the Vice Presidency was created, as a sort of after-thought, the man in waiting who also ran—too honorable to hope and too dignified for hilarity—was quickly assigned the slumberous duty of listening to the Senate, and the convention, weary of much wrangling, dissolved itself and the delegates hastened along the homeward trail." Don't fail to attend this number. We know you will thoroughly enjoy it.

October 24th Mr. Marcus Kellerman and Company

Marcus A. Kellerman, who will be here October 24, assisted by Miss Gurowitsch, violoncellist, and William Parsons, pianist, is one of the greatest dramatic baritones of the present day. Since Mr. Kellerman has been in this country he has toured with the New York Symphony Orchestra, under Walter Damrosch; the Minneapolis Symphony, under Emil Oberhoffer; the St. Paul Symphony, under Rothwell, and his appearance with the Boston, the Theodore Thomas and the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestras, as well as the most prominent musical organizations of this country in recital concert and oratorio has gained him universal commendation. Both Miss Sara Gurowitsch and Mr. William Alexis Parsons are noted artists. Miss Sara Gurowitsch, the Russian violoncellist, is one of the most interesting personalities before the concert public at the present time.

Her reputation as a cellist of high ability was first established by winning the Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdi prize at Berlin—and later by her successful appearances in the prominent musical centers of Europe.

William Alexis Parsons is a master of the piano-forte, having studied under the most prominent teachers of Europe. He is a wonderful musician and is highly commended everywhere. To those who love music this attraction will appeal.

January 22nd Gay Zenola MacLaren

Gay Zenola MacLaren attended the production of a modern play four times, and then, without ever having read the original book or dramatization, or, in fact, any of the lines in any way, can go upon the Lyceum or Chautauqua platform and give the entire productions, impersonating every character. This at once places Miss MacLaren as an entertainer in a class entirely by herself. It is needless to try to compare her type of work to that of any other. In preparing her recitals she attends only great productions, sees the interpretations only by the best actors, and in the leading play houses of her home city, New York.

Miss MacLaren frankly admits that her power is not the result of years of study and work, although it has taken close application and pains to develop and perfect it, but of a natural-born gift for mimicry. She does not claim to originate the many characters she assumes, but to give a faithful reproduction of them, as portrayed by the great artists and their supporting companies in the original productions.

Her repertoire consists of "Within the Law," "Peg o' My Heart," "The Governor's Lady," "The Music Master," "Bought and Paid For," "The Man From Home," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "The Sign of the Cross," "The Man of the Hour" and many others. To see this attraction will be an evening well spent.

March 28th Schildkret's Hungarian Orchestra

One of the best-known organizations of its kind in America. It will be good news to Lyceum patrons everywhere to know that Schildkret's Hungarian Orchestra is again to make a transcontinental tour during this season, 1916-17. Mr. Schildkret has appeared widely on both the Chautauquas and Lyceum courses for more than nine years past, and everywhere has been greeted with a degree of enthusiasm seldom tendered a musical organization. The Schildkret's Hungarian organization is probably more widely known today than any other Hungarian Orchestra in this country. As a director, Samuel Schildkret can get as much music out of six men as many directors will get from an orchestra of ten.

This organization has appeared in the most prominent cities of America, as well as in the homes of Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Harold McCormick and many other well-known society leaders. A program that will be well worth hearing, and a farewell number that will long be remembered.
