

Bataan Troopers Assure M'Arthur Continued Battle

By EVERETT R. HOLLES
WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Philippine defenders, waiting grimly for the "zero hour" of a Japanese offensive, have sent a message to Gen. Douglas MacArthur pledging a valiant stand until his "triumph over the aggressor" is complete.

The message was sent to MacArthur's new high post of command in Australia. It was announced in a war department communiqué today which gave the impression that the Japanese had started their anticipated major offensive on Bataan.

The launching of the Japanese assault was expected following Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright's rejection in a defiant address of a Japanese ultimatum which expired at noon Sunday.

Today's communiqué reported also the destruction of the Japanese planes in week-end attacks of American army bombers on the island of Luzon, New Britain, and New Guinea. Both these points lie off the main line of the Japanese advance.

The message of the American-Philippine defenders of Bataan, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's departure for Australia to become United Nations commander, was greeted with gratification by his former chief in his safe arrival to assume his new post.

RE-LINING PLANT SECOND IN U.S.

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Senator Thomas, R., Ind., said today that a gun re-lining plant to be established in an obsolete building would be the second of its kind in the United States.

Thomas, who had presented data of the navy relative to Poncelet's advantages over other re-lining plants on the west coast and its railroad and highway facilities were important factors in the big gun industry.

The largest of the navy's big guns will be brought to the Poncelet plant, where the big guns are a complex job, requiring massive and special equipment and skilled workmen.

It is explained that these big guns are expanded by heat until the lining cracks and then they are re-lined and re-fired. The big tubes are then heated a second time until they will admit the required lining.

GRIPPS ARRIVES FOR INDIA

NEW DELHI, India, March 23 (AP)—Sir Girard Gripps, Britain's ambassador, arrived by plane today to begin his duties in the new post.

India's politically disgruntled millions so a united front may be made against the axis.

It was reported to be the bearing of a British government plan to raise India to dominion status after the war and grant her people complete self-government during the transitionary stage.

Unofficial reports indicated that Gripps would spend the next few days conferring with Viceroy Lord Linlithgow, Commander-in-Chief Sir Archibald Wavell and several provincial governments.

With first-hand information thus gained from officials on the ground, he would then go into a series of meetings with the leaders of India's political parties to discuss the fact that those in the government must first represent the most conspicuous party, the Indian National Congress, the Hindu Mahasabha group, as well as the Indian press.

Evacuation Starts for West Coast's Japanese

By ROBERT C. MILLER
LOS ANGELES, March 23 (AP)—Large-scale evacuation of Japanese aliens and inter-American-born children from strategic Pacific coast military and industrial areas began today as a caravan of 350 automobiles and trucks left Pasadena for the army's new reception center at the Sierra Nevada.

More than 600 aliens and American citizens of Japanese descent, scheduled before dawn at Pasadena's Rose bowl, scene of the annual New Year's day football classic in previous years, leaders of the motorcycle escort of the northward journey at 6:30.

In services reminiscent of the flight of Okinawa and Texas evacuees, the Japanese plied their households belongings on their automobiles, many of them ready for the trucks.

Each evacuee wore an identifying card on his lapel and carried a dirty work shirt with personal effects.

NEW TINSLESS CENT Enters Circulation

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—New one-cent pieces, with the tin content reduced because of the war, have been distributed to the public but they looked so much like the old kind that the mint said today apparently no one noticed the difference.

The new penny has an intrinsic metal content of being about 93 percent copper and five percent zinc instead of one percent tin.

The coin is the same size as the Denver and Philadelphia mint, half of silver and nickel, made in the new mint under a new law requiring a 60-day test before the change could be made. The nickel said 23 percent which formerly was the nickel will go for war purposes.

SLAV ROBIN HOOD GRAPS NEW DRIVE

LONDON, March 23 (AP)—The "Robin Hood" army of Gen. Dragoljub Mihailovich that reportedly has taken 50,000 men to the Yugoslav invasion of Yugoslavia, hopes to open a "second front" against the German and Italian forces in the Balkans.

The Yugoslav government said it would support Mihailovich, who also is minister of war in the exiled government of the United Kingdom.

"This source said: 'There have been reports that the army of Adolf Hitler and his diplomatic agents were having difficulty in keeping the Balkan front from becoming a patriot's uprising was in the Balkans.'"

Mihailovich and his aides have been planning their strategy in their mountain headquarters during the winter when snow and cold restricted guerrilla activities, and they hope to open a second front in the Balkans and the Yugoslav government said it would support Mihailovich, who also is minister of war in the exiled government of the United Kingdom.

QUESTIONAIRES WANTED TO MEASURE WAR EFFORT JOB

By JOHN M. MCKELLEN
WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—First copies of a questionnaire which will measure how well the estimated 47,000,000 men can contribute most effectively to America's war effort was mailed today.

Selective service headquarters said local draft boards would send the questionnaire first to the 4,000,000 men between 35 and 44 who registered last Feb. 16, eventually to all registrants.

The questionnaire is four pages long and printed on yellow cardboard.

War Industry Help
The vast pool of hidden skills which is being tapped among millions of men now working at jobs of no direct value to the war effort will be measured in the questionnaire, which is being mailed to the national roster of scientific and specialized personnel, which is collecting information on persons with professional and scientific ability, and to the U. S. employment service, which is studying the complex relationship to industrial manpower allocation as selective service to the needs of the war effort.

NO DOUBLE PAY SUNDAYS-NELSON

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Douglas M. Nelson told CIO leaders today that labor must suspend for the duration of the war the "privilege" of receiving overtime pay for Sunday and holiday work.

"We are moving as fast as we can toward seven-day, three-shift operation of our basic war industries," the war production director said.

The principle that a man should regularly have the seventh day off, and would receive overtime pay if an emergency forces him to work on that seventh day, is perfectly sound, but where the emergency does not fall on a Sunday or holiday I do not think that work on Sundays and holidays, in war time, deserves extra pay."

PRICE CONTROL STARTS ON PORK

CHICAGO, March 23 (AP)—Wholesale and retail prices of pork began tomorrow the nation today but meat and livestock trade experts will have predictions as to what effect on prices households pay at retail counters and on farm-to-consumer prices.

The general assumption, however, would have a stabilizing effect on conditions at each end—the retail trade and the livestock market. The porker will work especially hard, livestock men said.

Each meat processor, big and small, has a contract of price ceilings on pork products.

"This means there still will be a high competitive market for pork, one livestock expert said. "Each packer with special brands and preferred grades will be in the market, as always, and the price ceilings will be as many as there are items to sell."

Politics Play Second Fiddle To War Issue in Middle West

By W. W. HERTZBERG
CHICAGO, March 23 (AP)—Politics is playing second fiddle to the war this year in the middle west. Although six governors, four and possibly five senators, and 101 congressmen will be elected, campaigns are starting slowly and the ballroom is restrained.

A study of eight states in the middle of the country—Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, North and South Dakota—shows an unusual lack of political interest. The voters are too busy in the fields to listen to campaign speeches. They appear to be satisfied with the rising level of farm prices and do not seem to be

Australia Looms As Popular Item On Reading List

With the war front suddenly changing to Australia, Americans want to know more about their allies, the Australians.

Books are being shown by the book "Timeless Land," and other books being featured in a book store on shelves at the "Twentieth Century Club," according to Miss Jessie Plitz, president of the club.

"Timeless Land" is a colorful story of the first years of English settlement in Australia.

It is written by one who was born and educated in Australia.

The story tells of the conflict between the English convict settlers and the black natives, the frontier life and the final domination of life by the natives. The story ends with a 300-year-old picture of a town.

The following books of non-fiction give an up-to-date picture of what has been built in this "foundling" and Australia, a town which all eyes are turned today.

"Australia, Her Heritage and Her People," by McCulloch and Australia, Haffield; "Introducing Australia," Granton; "Australia," National Publicity Association.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL HERITAGE

Explosive and unmanageable inflation controls the United States unless President or congress adopts a national policy banning general wage raises for the duration that inflation was recently held in a secret meeting of the labor board by Price Administrator Leon Henderson...

Mr. Henderson bulwarked his pessimistic prediction with a picture of price behavior since the struggle of the dollar in September 1937. The first 18 months from 1939 autumn to February 1942 the "gold standard" in his opinion represented one of the most remarkable eras of business expansion in our history...

A GOOD SOLDIER OBEYS

Douglas MacArthur's "Hundred Days" in the Philippines are history. The Battle of Bataan goes on, but the soldier whose genius and daring enshrined his name in the heart of every American, has gone to another task.

The good soldier always obeys, President Roosevelt's order for General MacArthur to leave his gallant band of Filipinos and Americans on Bataan must have been hard, indeed, for him to obey.

It is not for the good soldier, however, to question orders—particularly his commander-in-chief. And the commander-in-chief regarded it as considerably more important, right now, that the genius of MacArthur be used in Australia.

What a scene his leave-taking must have been! We do not yet know what, if anything, was said, or took place, between him and the men he was leaving. But it is easy for every American to imagine the drama of the situation.

Here are the "smoke-begrimed" men who had clung to the "foxholes of Bataan" so tenaciously that poor, beleaguered General Tomma, despairing of any way to drive them out, despite his great superiority in numbers...

It will be bad news for the Japs that MacArthur has "escaped." They know that if anyone can reverse the fatal "defense psychology" into which the allied commanders seem to have fallen in the far east, MacArthur is the man—offense is his byword.

He camps at Incheon. In France where he commanded the Rainbow Division, MacArthur went into No Man's Land with nothing but a rifle and a pair of light German shoes. He helped his men storm a machine gun nest and was decorated because "on a field where courage was the rule, his courage was the dominant feature."

Whatever he does in Australia, his "Hundred Days" already have taken their place with the Alamo, Thermopylae and the other immortal stands of hopeless but undaunted men.

CHARACTERISTIC PIONEERS. Within the short span of a few weeks, Magic Valley has lost two of its outstanding pioneers—J. W. Banbury and Mrs. Mary E. (Helen) Syster.

It is more than the loss that ordinarily comes with death, because both of these individuals represented genuine characteristics which seem to be lacking in our present generation—qualities that some of us do not even understand.

BIRTHDAY 'OUT OUR WAY'. Jim Williams is rounding out 20 years' work of portraying American life—in the home, in the machine shop, on the ranch. Readers of the Times-News who daily chuckle at "Out Our Way" will join with us in saying: "Well, no kidding. We hope you keep 'em laughing another 20 years."

Some people keep their spirits up only to save them a trip to the cellar.

Other Points of View

THE FILIPINOS ARE FIGHTING. The MacArthur party brought from Bataan the word that Filipinos are fighting the Japanese invaders all in their hands, so vigorous has been their resistance.

BRITAIN, FOES MANEUVER FOR STRATEGIC SEA CONTROL

MEDITERRANEAN SCENE OF FIGHT

By The Associated Press

A series of large submarines and surface craft on operating supply lines of the British, Germans and Italians are maneuvering for strategic positions in the Mediterranean basin. These battles are continuing complemented the battle of Russia, as well as Libya, for the possibility of a long strike by the axis through southeastern Europe toward Constantinople has been evident from the start.

The claims in the Mediterranean fighting today were:

BRITISH

Two Italian submarines, two supply ships and a motorship have been sunk by British submarines in shell attacks on the coast of Italy and the Albanian coast.

Shore batteries on Albania's lower Adriatic coast engaged one of the Italian submarines which was ordered to make the target of machine gun fire from the British submarines. The Italian submarine was picked up survivors. There was no mention of the Italian submarine's fate.

AXIS

"Repealed" hits were scored by Italian torpedo planes on transports and a British convoy with the intent to kill going on in the Gulf of Sirte, southeast of Malta.

The Rome high command said that Italian warships overtook the enemy three today, inflicting "further heavy damage." The Italians promised more details later.

The Berlin communiqué, indicating that German U-boats were engaged in that battle of the Mediterranean, said that German U-boats had sunk a 6,000-ton merchant ship off a British convoy off north Africa and hit two other vessels.

The Italian report that the British convoy was en route to Malta, underlined the importance in which both the British and the Italians hold that island base, 60 miles off the Sicilian coast.

Claim Control

The axis can lay no claim to Mediterranean control so long as Malta remains in British hands, for this island is a potential stepping stone for invasion of Africa.

Both Rome and Berlin reported enemy landing operations, ammunition dumps and other objectives there yesterday.

RAF in Africa

The RAF, in Africa, striking out more powerfully against the axis footholds in the Mediterranean area, reported a night raid on Berka and Deran in eastern Libya, Haassan in Greece, and Canda, Beima and Eyona on the Greek island of Crete.

In the Libyan land fighting, while major movements of the axis forces but better weather just ahead, the British eighth army and allied forces have struck deep into the axis lines in a forceful reconnaissance by tanks, armored cars, infantry and artillery.

Where MacArthur Prepares to Repel Japs

AUSTRALIA

Only 7,000,000 persons live within this island continent's 2,974,581 sq. mi., an area the size of the U. S. But they have managed to equip their United Nations troops to repel the Jap invaders.

MacArthur Judgment Good in Delaying Counter-Offensive

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Wide World Analysis

A man needs a forceful character and a square chin to enable him to withstand being clamped into pre-arranged positions, especially when public is pressing for initiative moves. The current situation in the Pacific is showing great potential in refusing to be rushed into launching a premature offensive against the Japanese.

Many a disaster has resulted from the undertaking of a military operation for political or sentimental reasons without sufficient strength. Greece last year was one of them, though in that case England acted as a master of honor in keeping the Greek island of Crete.

In the Libyan land fighting, while major movements of the axis forces but better weather just ahead, the British eighth army and allied forces have struck deep into the axis lines in a forceful reconnaissance by tanks, armored cars, infantry and artillery.

Survivors Tell of Sub Attacks

NEW YORK, March 23—Survivors of a small United Nations merchant ship sunk in the south Atlantic March 8, said today that their vessel was shelled and machine-gunned for nearly a half hour by an axis submarine.

The survivors differed as to whether the U-boat finally had to use a torpedo to sink their ship.

The captain told naval authorities none of his crew was lost. His party of 16 was landed at Edgewater, N. J. Eleven others were landed in Brooklyn by a second rescue ship to which they were transferred in mid-ocean. Despite the attack and the 11 days they spent in open boats all appeared in good shape. None was injured.

The mates and crew believed that a dull thud heard as they pulled away from the sinking ship resulted from exploding boilers. The captain said it was a "coup de grace" the submarine finally was forced to use.

"At least, I hope they had to use a torpedo," he said.

This was the 13th torpedoing announced since last Wednesday, and the seventh this week-end.

Approximately 30 ships have been torpedoed off the Atlantic coast of the United States since mid-January.

More than 100 allied vessels have been sunk in the intensive axis-submarine campaign off Canada, the United States and in the Caribbean. Two more of the ships were sunk last Wednesday, and a third went down Thursday, it was announced. At least 18 seamen perished.
