Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

DEEP CREEK
 Wife and I went over to Deep Creek on Tuesday night and had a good time. The meeting was at the Ed Ahlin home and I have ever attended. All officers were present and was called upon by the secretary to read the report of the Grange Chamber of Commerce sent out about the meeting. The speaker was the old friend, Marys Chaney. In the case of the latter the group thought that it was a mistake to bring her up as that matter was a dead issue. But the 40-hour week—there was another matter.

I have never seen a question brought before a Grange meeting such as that which was presented from all members as this resolution and the Grange refused to endorse the resolution because it was the consensus of opinion that it was inspired by a group of individuals up and who were trying to throw up a smoke screen to hide behind while they were actually doing a greater job or profit. Almost every member of the Grange spoke on the resolution and their opinions were strangely similar.

 None of them held a brief for anyone holding up our defense program, but by the same token, none was willing to criticize labor for getting extra dollars, while industry and land by the way, why do we persist in calling the capitalists industry? Most of the ones who come within this classification are not as intricate as labor does in the hours that labor does in making in the millions of dollars and doing the work of the county fair game up for quite a bit of consideration—whether an exhibitor or a visitor present at the exhibition in regard to the Biddle bill was left for the resolution committee to study and present at the next meeting, as the Grange felt that there was not sufficient information at hand to allow for a definite stand. Several committee reports took up considerable time.

My scribble says that Twin Falls Grange is like Fairview in the matter of installing new officers. Promising Master Eric Jones, president and installed three officers, to fill vacancies caused by resignations. The resigning officers were: L. A. Laverne, Dell family leave them, but interest have caused them to move to Nevada. There seems to be much unrest and moving about at this time. A report of the committee regarding the pasture lock betted across the state line fence.

During the lecture hour Harry Nelson gave a very interesting travelogue. Group singing led by Mrs. Houghton. Complimentary remarks by members. Mrs. Capps also gave "thoughts for the day."

Resolutions were served by Mrs. W. E. Woods, assisted by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Koster, and a social hour followed. And by the way, here is to my mind one of the most enjoyable features of the Grange—the visit with friends who are so near because they do not care to eat a lunch at so late an hour, but these mice much.

Deputy Granger At Paul Meeting

CECIL DRAY
 Cecil Dray Grange met last Friday night, but several were absent. The resolution from the Bull Churn of Commerce was endorsed by the Grange. A resolution to place social Idaho in the Pacific standard time division for the duration was endorsed. The action of Rep. Conroy's bill in restoring the bill that effect was endorsed by the Grange.

The Grange drew up a resolution asking that no action be taken to place ceilings on farm crops until the price of such crops had reached a parity with other lines of activity, such as labor and the cost of living.

Four visitors were present, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barker telling of the trip back to Washington and down through the south, thence across the southern route to the Caribbean and back home. These talks proved very interesting to the hearers, and further details here. There is no doubt of interest to my readers. A penny march was then held, and it is to be held at the lecturer's fund. A reading, "Who Killed the Grange?" was given by Mrs. L. G. Conroy. A social hour followed, and was the offering of Dorothy Rutherford, another visitor. Also song numbers were played by Lillie Gerber, the fourth visitor.

The birthdays of three members were celebrated with a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Diaz, and a few remarks by Mr. Diaz, and a few remarks by Mr. Diaz, congratulatory in reaching another milestone in life. An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by all. Bill Warland winning the prize. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Metz, former residents of the Cedar Dale neighborhood and long time members of the club, have come to California in hopes of benefiting Mr. Metz's health. Their many friends regret to learn their friendly association has been their health and happiness in their new home.

KINDERLY
 Kimberly Grange met Monday night last week for the regular monthly pollack dinner, with a good crowd present. Only routine business was transacted. Ed Jones occupied the master's station in the hall. (Sounds sort of like a "read 'em and weep" item).

During the lecture hour, three boys from the sixth grade and under the direction of Miss Crippens, their teacher, sang a group of Irish songs. George Beer read a poem taken from a church bulletin, and telling of the use for the beer trucks but not for many other uses.

A paper on soy beans was read by Ella Beer. Ed Jones gave a comic number but as I had to glean this by remote control over the phone, I didn't get just what it was. The Idaho Power company showed a film on derrick safety. Wham my scribble would hurry up and learn to write.

OFFICIALS PROBE MYSTERY DEATH

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—Medical examiners performed an autopsy today to determine what killed a pretty, 19-year-old bride, who dressed in pajamas, was found in her bathroom with her head dangling in a tub half filled with water. She was Mrs. Sylvia Stern, wife of the late Bernard Stern, a dental technician.

The circumstances of her death were mysterious. There was blood in her bathroom and bedroom. Dr. Louis Lefkowitz, assistant medical examiner, said a preliminary examination showed a bruise inside the lower lip and another on the chin, both of which she had suffered before she died. There were two bruises on the neck, but he said they might have been made by her mother, Mrs. Edith Gooding, who discovered the body and lifted it from the tub.

Mrs. Gooding said she was convinced her daughter was killed and robbed, and both Mrs. Gooding and her husband agreed that $20 was missing. Police, temporarily listing the cause of death as "undecided," doubted that she had been robbed, because she was wearing an engagement and wedding ring, both valuable, and a gold necklace, and a gold watch and bracelet were in another room.

A shirt and necktie belonging to her husband and a piece of a Tuesday newspaper were soaking in the tub. She and her husband went to a wedding party Thursday night, and before she left, Mrs. Gooding said she whispered: "Mommy, dear, I'm so happy."

That was the last time Mrs. Gooding saw her alive. She called on her daughter yesterday afternoon, and thought she was away. Mrs. Gooding returned several times, finally finding the door unlocked and walked in.

TWIN FALLS
 Twin Falls Grange met March 23 at the I. O. O. F. hall with a good attendance and lively discussion.

With Master Eric Jones in the chair, the county fair game up for quite a bit of consideration—whether an exhibitor or a visitor present at the exhibition in regard to the Biddle bill was left for the resolution committee to study and present at the next meeting, as the Grange felt that there was not sufficient information at hand to allow for a definite stand. Grange Head Raps Farm Price Plans

NEW SWEDEDE, Idaho, April 2 (AP)—E. T. Taylor, of Coeur d'Alene, state Grange master, feels the recent federal farm price fixing legislation will "make thirty million farm people... permanent wards of the government."

Addressing a Bonnellville county mass meeting, he said the congressional "farm bloc" had attempted to amend the act as introduced to place farm prices on a sliding scale with wages. The action was felt necessary, he said, because government policy for several years has been only a "stop gap" system of benefit payments.

2,475 Farm Units Apply Under AAA

An estimated 2,475 farming units were signed up for agricultural conservation payments before the March 21 deadline. It was announced today by Don Ahlin, Twin Falls county AAA secretary.

A few more applications are being checked and the total may go to 2,500.

Inasmuch as a farming unit may consist of more than one farm, Ahlin said a majority of the county's 2,200 farms are included.

The payments are given for fulfilling additional wheat, potato and soil-building agreements under the AAA program. Last year approximately 2,300 farming units were covered.

Lumberman Kills 3 Fellow Workers

GAULT, MICH., Mich., April 2 (AP)—Four northern Michigan lumber camp workers were dead today after one of them went berserk last night, fatally shot his three fellow workers and then killed himself after setting fire to his shack.

Chippewa County Prosecutor Ray Gillespie told this story today. "I've never known fellow workers had described as recently morose and sullen, aloof, Howard Leomin as he stood in the doorway of the camp's cook shack, Henry Simpson, camp owner, running up to investigate. Work was shot through the neck. Jess Harding was shot as he appeared to aid the wounded Hanson.

Then, Gillespie said, Erickson re-

Wonder who's most of them for that Jack Heinz did what profit business in Cleveland Jack of whom is responsible for granting contracts that make such lavish profits possible? Boy a Jack certainly put on a great alternative-wealth show, money handed him by a not very smart contract maker, I'd say.

Symbol of Christ Dominates Canyon

Spotlighted at night on the rim of majestic Snake river canyon above Shoshone falls, this 16-foot wooden cross painted a shining aluminum will dominate the scene of the annual Easter sunrise services. The cross is permanent, set in a concrete foundation. It will be lighted at night for the remainder of Holy week and for a few days after Easter. The Inter-Church Youth affiliation, assisted by ministers and civic groups, sponsored the project.

Easter Sunrise Service Will Start at 7:15 a. m. in Canyon

The sixth annual Easter sunrise services, sponsored by the Inter-Church Youth Affiliation of Shoshone falls in Snake river canyon, will begin at 7:15 a. m. Because this is later than usual, on account of mountain wartime, it is anticipated that the change will be a factor in drawing even larger throngs than in past years.

The site is marked by a 16-foot aluminum-painted cross, which shines out from its permanent foundation in the lava rocks of the canyon.

Illuminated cross
Illuminated for the first time tonight by a spotlight, the cross will remain lighted throughout the remainder of Holy week and for a few nights following Easter. Clifford Pratt, chairman, announced today.

Several Twin Falls ministers joined Tuesday in placing the cross, symbol of Christianity, in its permanent foundation. Walter Nicholson volunteered to haul the cross to the ravine, and a professional house mover and his helper supervised the erection.

Ministers assisting were Rev. E. J. Kenworthy, Churches of the Brethren; Rev. H. G. McCullister, Methodist; Capt. W. Rowell, Salvation Army; Rev. E. Leslie Ross, Episcopal; Rev.

W. H. Holman, district superintendent of Methodist churches; Rev. Clifford Pratt, Church of God; Rev. H. E. Burnett, Baptist; and Rev. G. L. Clark, who organized the ministers for the activity. Clifford Pratt also spoke.

Rev. Brooks Moore, Glenns Ferry, will give the principal address on "The Pioneer of Life," and will dedicate the cross. Power for the illumination of the cross is being donated by the Idaho Power company.

Cars will be stopped from going down the upper grade of the canyon at exactly 7:10 a. m., and the services will begin promptly at 7:15 a. m.

Boy Scouts and state patrol officers will assist in regulating traffic, with W. L. Johnson supervising the Boy Scouts' activities in this service.

Three trumpeters, Ted Becker, Howard Allen and Reno Taylor, will give the call so worship.

Rev. B. E. A. Hoffman, pastor of the Assembly of God church, will pronounce the invocation. The congregation will sing two hymns, "Joy, Holy, Hallelujah" and "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," with Richard Smith, of the high school faculty, as song leader.

Rev. Earl Kaurin will preside at the sunrise service, and Frederick Burkholder will play a trumpet solo, "The Holy Cross."

Easter morning services at the Presbyterian church will include the dramatic and musical program, "The Flowering Cross." The pascent will be presented by the pupils of the Christiana Exeuvor, with specially arranged Easter anthems by the school as a choir.

"The Flowering Cross" will be the subject of the minister's address Easter morning at 11 a. m. There will be baptism and confirmation of new members. LABOR SHORTAGE IN COTTON AREAS

DALLAS, Tex., April 2 (AP)—Cotton is just beginning to come up in the lush Rio Grande valley, down at the far southern tip of Texas, and with it arises a farm labor shortage that will spread over the nation, say government and private observers.

Victor H. Schoffeleers, agricultural editor of the Dallas Morning News, points out that a triple sugar yield is expected. Not only has the reservoir of labor been lowered by the draft and wartime industry, but the demand has grown because of increased plantings in the food war program, and machinery is inadequate to make up for lost manpower.

The pinch will be felt when cotton chopping starts in earnest, for most of Texas, that means the month of May. Another call will go out for pickers, and the autumn cotton-growing states have always scrambled for workers during these two critical periods.

But this year there will be even keener competition for farm laborers. Other sections of the nation are also looking for workers. The U. S. War Relocation Authority's regional office estimates a shortage of 50,000 persons will be taken out of this state, alone, to the sugar beet belt. For the six-month growing and harvesting season.

Increased livestock creates another problem, that of raising feed as well as caring for the animals, and cattlemen have been asked to reduce their herds. Some herds have been sold because there was not enough help to care for them.

D. McCrum of the work projects administration, says WPA workers will be required to do farm work if they are capable of performing it, and if prevailing wages are higher than how long the prevailing wages may be.

Cripps Still Hopes India May Agree to British Pact Offer

By DENWITT MACKENZIE, World War Analyst

Some hope that India might still be persuaded to accept the offer of Dominion status was injected into the talks today by British envoy Sir Stafford Cripps, who announced in New Delhi that "with good will we may be able to solve the difficulties."

In view of the danger of failure to reach agreement many readers are asking what is likely to happen.

Since the Indian nation have made cooperation with Britain in the war effort dependent on solution of the claim for independence, they presumably would return to passive resistance. This would create a grave weakness in one of the most important allied bases.

Non-cooperation would cut down the number of native troops available to Britain to stand off invasion. Moreover, it might affect the war industries and India is one of the great and strategically situated areas of the United Nations.

All this naturally would encourage the Japanese to try invasion of India, and they need mighty little encouragement. Should they be successful it would create the possibility of a junction between them and Hitler in the middle east—a nasty situation for the allies.

If this also means that the Japanese are asking whether there is danger of a revolution in India, I should say that the chances are against any widespread revolt so long as Gandhi retains his grip on his vast following. He is gaining the use of force in any form.

However, on March 10 Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the All-India Muslim League, announced that if British proposals were determined to be sincere, there would be a Muslim "revolt." His statement was widely reported in London as being made in a ready earnest.

His observation is that the most troublesome spot is in Bengal province, of which the great metropolis of Calcutta is the capital. There will be a meeting of the section which is to be held in India. It is unfortunate that Bengal is just across the bay from Burma, where the Japs are continuing their successes, since it is likely that Bengal would be the place they would try to land if they should attempt invasion.

They naturally would hope that they would encounter slight resistance from the natives, and might even get help.

Another danger, as I have mentioned before, would be along the northwest frontier, up by the Khyber pass, from the wild tribesmen who are now being used by these barbaric warriors, who are all

Clark Defends Bill on Pension

BLACKFOOT, Id., April 2 (Supt. Senator Clark, D. Idaho, says most members of congress could not have afforded to take advantage of the "so-called congressional pension bill" had it not been repealed.

A brighter side is presented by the native princes, whose people continue close to a quarter of India's population, as they might be expected to stand solidly with Britain.

One also would expect the Sikhs, the great warrior race, to stand by the British. They total 4,300,000 and are among the world's most famous fighters.

CLOTHES WILL STILL BE WORNT SPRING

There's a lot of talk about shortages, curtains and restrictions. Some of it's confusing. There are so many things we can't buy... probably more will be curtailed later. But we're certain that clothes will still be worn this spring!

And to prove it we invite you to preview our extensive suit selections. If the fashions, patterns and new shades that are crowding our racks don't make you eager to wear a new suit... one of us should consult a doctor!

Next fall the picture may not be so rosy. We have already been told that no worsted yarns will be available for civilian consumption after mid-summer.

ARMY WILL SEEK CAR REPAIR MEN

DENVER, April 2 (AP)—Out-of-work auto mechanics, die motor mechanics and war-torn car dealers are going to get a chance to join the army and work shoulder-to-shoulder at the job they know best—repair and maintenance of motorized equipment.

At the request of the army ordnance department, the National Auto Dealers' association is organizing two ordnance regiments to be composed mainly of auto industry workers whose jobs vanished when the industry quit making cars during the war and began turning out battle-wagons.

The 30st ordnance regiment will be recruited in the NADA's western region, one battalion each from Chicago, San Francisco, and Denver areas and another battalion from the West Coast.

Herman R. Goodin, Washington, D. C. vice-president of the NADA, explained to Rocky Mountain dealers that "this is strictly army business." To join, a man must first enlist in the army.

Recruiting offices are being established in all the key cities. This unit is to be done fast because the 30st regiment has to be on hand in South Carolina starting training May 15, 1942.

"We hope these two regiments will be the first of many to come. This idea must succeed because there isn't time to gather and train large groups of motor specialists in roundabout ways."

Navy Reveals Heroic Death Of Ship Band

HONOLULU, April 2 (AP)—All 21 musicians in the band on the U. S. S. Arizona, including one Idaho-born, were killed in the explosion of that battleship's magazine while they were passing ammunition to repair harbor attack of Dec. 7, naval authorities revealed today.

The Arizona was destroyed in the Japanese sneak attack. The navy issued the following statement:

"What comes of the boys in the band when the guns begin to roar? Many a civilian has asked this question. Blowing a horn or beating a drum is not firing a gun. What becomes of the ship's musicians when a battle rages?"

"The most dramatic answer to that question has been furnished by the incident of the ship's band of the battleship Arizona."

"On Dec. 7 they went to their music stands in the most hazardous on the ship—down below passing ammunition to the guns above. To a man the Arizona band was killed when the battleship's magazine exploded."

"Part of the program of recreation at Pearl Harbor last year was the battle of music. The bands of the ships in port competed. One of the best and near the top in scoring when the war began was the band of the Arizona. When its total loss was discovered the other contestants unanimously agreed to award post-humously to the Arizona's band the trophy at stake."

"Great interest in the trophy has been expressed by the United States Navy school in Washington, D. C., and in response to its request a picture of the trophy was painted by A. L. Duggan, illustrator at the fleet recreation office, and sent to the national capital to be placed on permanent exhibit there. Henceforth the trophy will be known as the Arizona trophy. After the war it will be put on a stand to be challenged when the battle of music is resumed."

"Members of the Arizona's band whose names are on the plaque are: W. Kinney, bandmaster; A. J. Nadel, W. L. Bandy, O. M. Brabson, M. F. Bradford, J. L. Sierkus, E. R. Williams, C. J. Allan, R. P. Ploeg, C. C. Cox, C. W. White, W. S. Morchouse, C. R. Williams, R. W. Burdette, R. E. Shaw, B. P. Hughes, W. M. McCarty, J. J. Sanderson, W. R. Hurley, H. G. Chernucha and E. L. Lynch."

KILLER OF THREE FARMERS CAUGHT

PONTIAC, Mich., April 2 (AP)—State police claimed the melodramatic case of the killing of three farmers by shooting a Graines county roan far from the scene of the deaths early today, and announcing the capture of the murderer.

Trooper Roy Perkins, one of the leading officers, said that 29-year-old Dominick Piccone, convict, two weeks out of prison, had admitted shooting one farmer to help his rifle, and killing the two others in vengeance and killing the two others to protect his flight, meanwhile securing a fourth man to help him flee.

Within a space of 24 hours two Oxford, Mich., farmers, Cassius E. Beyer, 74, and Armand J. Vetter, 75, had been slain with rifle fire in their neighboring home and Carl McDevine, 43, was killed on his farm at Concord, 80 miles distance.

Formerly charged with murdering... was former employer, and was a suspect in the other two shootings. Piccone had been sought since Tuesday night. It was then that Barber and Poynter were killed.

Early today a state police car containing Trooper Perkins and company officers was cruising in the vicinity of Taville, a Graines county town some 45 miles from here. A car drove by with its light light on. A few minutes later Trooper Perkins, the airtight radio from headquarters instructed them to look for a car as one suspected to be carrying Piccone and Oxy Thorpe, 56, a neighbor of the Oxford victims who was believed being held as a hostage by the killer.

Trooper Perkins said the car was overtaken and stopped. Piccone was seized with a struggle and both he and Thorpe, whom Perkins described as "very nervous," returned to Pontiac.

Trooper Perkins said his youthful prisoner spoke little at the time of his arrest but admitted he had shot Barber because "he had something against him" and then had killed Poynter for fear that the latter might identify him.

"The car was taken to say that Thorpe was then seized and his car commandeered, Perkins said.

Insignia Color on Aircraft Changed

MELBOURNE, April 2 (Australian broadcast recorded by AP in San Francisco)—The red, white and blue colors insignia on American war planes is being changed to all white because it too closely resembles the rising sun of Nippon, the Melbourne Herald's correspondent in Darwin reported today.

"Just a matter of safety," he said, to keep the air staff from mistaking them for the wrong planes.

RUSSIANS STEADILY BATTER GERMANS FROM LENINGRAD FRONT

3,000 REPORTED SLAIN IN FIGHT

By WILLIAM R. DOWNS
LONDON, April 2 (AP)—The Russians steadily battered the Germans on the Leningrad front today, having lost 2,000 men, destroyed 22 blockhouses and captured or destroyed huge quantities of supplies in 48 hours of fighting.

Despatches from the front said the trapped German 18th army in the Staraya Russa region, below Leningrad, had lost 1,500 in a new attack to break through the Russian artillery was blasting them from all sides, and in one sector it held back tanks.

The Russians, according to news items, had cleared the Leningrad front of German troops, and were relieving the weary Germans who had been fighting continuous attacks.

Fire Deep Sentinels
A British military commentator said the Russians had driven "deep sentinels" into German positions, but the Germans had created "similar deep sentinels" in certain Soviet positions.

"The question is now who can cut off the others," he said.

Regarding the situation in the Staraya Russa region, where the Nazis have been fighting the German army, the commentator said the Soviets were operating over a long area, and "everything will depend on whether the Russians can reduce the Germans before the Nazis can bring up reinforcements."

Heavy German reinforcements also were moving into the Crimea, and the Germans were expected to begin soon with 1,350,000 men.

A dispatch from Moscow said many German planes had been shot down, and that the Germans had withdrawn from France and dispatched to the Crimea in an attempt to break the Leningrad front in the 15th day of April.

Filet Get Credit
The Russian news agency Tass, in a dispatch from Sevastopol, said the filers of the Black sea fleet were due a large share of the credit for forcing the Germans to evacuate their planes over Sevastopol and the Black sea during the past week.

The filers were credited with "book frequent attacks against German troop concentrations and bases, and the capture of Sevastopol in five months of the Sevastopol siege have destroyed 150 German planes, 65 of them in combat."

Last midnight's Soviet communication said complete reports showed that 15 German planes were shot down on Monday, 25, and that on Tuesday the Germans lost 24 aircraft. The total losses, it said, were 100 planes.

Morale by Mary CLUB SEES FILM ON INCENDIARIES

Motion pictures illustrating how to extinguish incendiary bombs dropped by enemy air raiders, and starting fires in the homes of civilians, were shown today at the meeting of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club in the Park hotel.

"Each bomber can release 2,000 incendiaries which statistics indicate may start 150 fires in homes," explained H. V. (Bud) Gaffner, Salt Lake City representative of the Standard Oil company of California.

"If an incendiary explodes inside the home, efforts must be made to concentrate on extinguishing any blaze which the bomb may set on fire. This is done by pulling down the chains and beads," he said.

With that accomplished, incendiaries may be extinguished by throwing a fine spray of water on the bomb smothering it with sand, and transporting it in a pail to the outside where it may be dumped in a safe place.

The film has the approval of the federal office of civilian defense and the army's chemical warfare center. Leslie Crowley was introduced by O. P. Duvall as a new member. U. S. Army lieutenant, was in charge of the session.

Fred Meachur urged Kiwanians and their families to attend church on Easter Sunday. Ernest H. Gyer arranged the program. Mrs. R. K. Dillingham and Dr. Ivan Anderson, Goshute, Mitchell Hill, Buhl, and George Cook, Altus, were in the audience.

Congressional sources have reported that the President's interim may call for the voluntary registration of American manpower for the service system following the registration of men between the ages of 45 and 64, inclusive, on April 27.

The resolution, which will be forwarded to the Indian Education association, urges that teachers whose certificates have expired, in addition to teachers holding out-of-state certificates, be allowed to serve as substitutes.

ISOLATION WARD READY FOR JAIL

LOS ANGELES, April 2 (AP)—Robert Noble, founder of the Friends of Progress, was sentenced to a high partition in the county jail and will be shackled and taken to prison if convicted of sedition.

Noble never cared about myself. I feel that I was doing something worthwhile, and that's all any man should want in this world.

Last week Noble declared "I'll be with MacArthur. He's a Johnny-come-lately, and he's got to go."

Nobel and Ellis O. Jones, co-leaders of the Friends of Progress, were jailed Tuesday by the federal bureau of investigation on charges of making seditious utterances in wartime. They were held in default of $10,000 bond each pending a hearing April 15.

Attorney General Earl Warren, who already has charged them with criminality before the military court, followed up yesterday with a complaint charging they failed to list their organization under the subversive organizations registration law.

Noble said he was "amused at these new charges. I made a thorough study of the sedition laws and I am not guilty of anything under the law. I do not believe I am guilty of malicious conduct or sedition in saying these things."

"These things" referred to his repeated public attacks on President Roosevelt's international policy and Gen. MacArthur's military leadership and strategy; to repeated demands that Japan be permitted to rule the orient and Hitler be left alone to rule Europe, and to his repeated statements that he admired Hitler.

PROFITS CEILING BOARD PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—Senator Taft, R., O., today proposed creation of a board to fix ceilings on war profits while administration officials moved to compromise a 6 percent profit limitation inserted in the house in a pending military appropriations bill.

Taft told reporters he had little doubt that the senate appropriations committee would strike the house amendment out of the $120,000,000 military measure. However, Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the war production board and army and navy officials were working over a substitute which they planned to present to the committee.

Nelson was reported to have told the committee yesterday that flat limitation was unworkable. That he was drafting an amendment which would set a board of army, navy and production experts charged with fixing the margin of profit on the cost of an individual military item.

For instance, he said, this board could establish a fair profit for manufacture of a medium tank or of a certain type of airplane, making all revenue above that amount returnable to the treasury.

"I don't think you can successfully set a flat profit limitation on everything," Taft said. "In some instances, 2 per cent might be a very fair profit for the amount of capital necessary to manufacture a certain military article, while in others the percentage of profit might have to be much higher because of the slow turnover and high cost of the article."

Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky said he thought the question could be handled more intelligently in the new tax bill but Senator Byrd (D., Va.) said it was likely that profit amendments would be advanced April 20 when the senate agrees a motion to take up the Community bill to permit the government to seize strike-bound war production plants.

FOR 45 patrol blimps, and Houshild sold an increase in these craft cut the submarine menace.

The navy today has three blimp bases along the Atlantic, and will soon take over the Sausalito, Calif., base for the first patrol on the Pacific. It commissioned a new one at Elizabeth City yesterday.

THE NAVY'S share of the total was 24; army airmen were credited with four. Earlier yesterday the navy announced the destruction of three of the raiders, two by naval flyers and one by the army. One of the navy pilots was Donald Francis Mason, 26-year-old enlisted man from New Orleans, La. Charles E. Rosenbath, pioneer expert of light-airplane crash and sinking at Elizabeth City, N. C. Rosenbath said new blimp bases are being planned along the Atlantic coast, and that southern California areas to provide an unbroken patrol line down both coasts.

'Ceiling' Price Scale Fixed For Sale of All Used Tires

Ceiling prices for used tires have been received by Carl N. Anderson, chairman of the Twin Falls county rationing board, it was announced today.

"No surplus of tires or tubes any longer remains for ordinary civilian use except used tires and tubes," he explained. "And when the present stockpile of used tires and tubes is exhausted, there will be no more."

No More Later

The supply is not being replenished, he said, for his old tires and tubes must be worth for further use before the owner who is eligible may purchase new tires or tubes.

"Price excesses, reflecting this condition, have broken out all over the country," said Anderson. "Let- ters of protest have flooded the office of price administration, complaining of charges of $25, $35, and in some cases much more, for used tires in poor condition."

In order to put a stop to profiteering, the OPA deemed it necessary to establish maximum prices for used tires and tubes.

AID AWAITED ON FILIPINO ISLANDS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2 (AP)—Mrs. Francis B. Bayre, wife of the U. S. high commissioner to the Philippines and the first woman to reach the United States from the islands since war was declared, said the fighting men are left behind "know help is coming."

"I know we will not let them down," she said.

Mrs. Bayre, accompanied by her 15-year-old son, William Graves, who escaped from the islands with her, called the Filipinos "wonderful."

"We are inclined to think of them as shy," she said, "but it was inspiring to see them rise to the tremendous demands made on them."

"People in the United States, she believed, were comparatively 'complacent' about the war. She thought that was 'perfectly natural.'"

"That's how I feel about you," she said, "but I'm not being critical. Don't you think everyone from a war-torn area is likely to be affected the same way?"

Yanks Picked To Win by Wide Margin

By GAYLE TADROT
TAMPA, Fla., April 2 (AP)—This is getaway week in the baseball training camps, and as the sun-lanned athletes hit the exhibition trail leading to opening day on April 14 there is talk of only one team that might possibly injure a little pregame into an otherwise unpromising Yankee-dominated American League.

Every manager who has met the Browns this spring says they are a more likely contender than a lot of trouble. "It was one of the three teams in the American League to play last year, and after Decoration day last season, the stars being the Yankees and Washington.

Fourth gear did not appear too high a goal for the Browns considering the quality of this opposition. Sewell has a pair of good-looking southpaw rookies in Jimmie Petros and Frank Bunch, and another youngster named Lewon Stephens...

Washington's hope, if any, were slumped when Cecil Green (132) and Bud Lewis went into the service.

SERIAL STORY

MEXICAN MASQUERADE

BY CECIL CARNES

COPYRIGHT, 1942, BY THE CECIL CARNES CO.

THEY'RE RIGHT, SENOR SU, IT MEANS there's been a dirty bit of foul play somewhere. The Chinese nodded and uttered a sibilant hiss of surprise. "That hook it strikes you?"

STRANGE MADNESS

CHAPTER IV

"All, yes, Number One," murmured Allan. "More commonly known to his friends as Harry Bishop. Let's get down to brass tacks, Senor Su, while we have this moment alone. I'm anxious to get on the job, you know. What can you tell me about Number One?"

"He came here one day, as you have done this afternoon. He was in search of two friends of his, Dr. John Sargent and the doctor's daughter, a Miss Kay Sargent. They had disappeared, and the States were uneasy about them. Senor Bishop was an agreeable young man—

"Excuse me," the nags we had of the Sargents was very sketchy. Can you tell me how they disappeared, and where?"

"They were stopping at Ensenada. The doctor, I believe, is a most distinguished scholar, specializing in chemical research. He is also interested in the study of fish. Our Gulf has many varieties of fish not found along the Atlantic coast, so while Dr. Sargent was really at Ensenada for a rest, he decided to erect the Peninsula and take the fortnight here, collecting specimens. He and his daughter left Ensenada one morning with two Indian guides and a few men. The party was last seen at Alamo. Some where between Alamo and San Saba, they vanished."

"People can't just vanish like that, Senor Su. What did the police—the Guardia Rural—turn up in the way of clues?"

"Nada. Nothing, senor. I am sure of that, for I have it on the record of their commander, Colonel Escobar, who is a frequent visitor here. We discussed the affair and he told me himself it was completely mystified. A search of the road between here and Alamo revealed no traces of any trouble, but a night and day of heavy rain just before the search may have washed away anything of the sort. The theory among the natives around here is that the party was captured by brigands."

"Humph. Does Escobar think so?"

"Ah, no! That would not look so well for him and his rurales, you understand. The Colonel is more inclined to think it was a voluntary disappearance, that Dr. Sargent had some private affair of his own to pursue. "Balaney" muttered Allan Steele. "That's the regular police when they understand, Senor—"

"Steele. Allan Steele."

"They sent Number One—Senor Bishop, look for the Doctor and now they send you to look for Senor Bishop. Yes?"

"You make it sound a little like a daisy chain," said Allan with a smile. "But you've got it nearly right. I'm not looking for Bishop, but for you. You, Senor Bishop."

"Found him? Where, Senor?"

"He was wandering by the northern edge of the Grand Desert, north of here. Apparently he had been lost in the desert for days, from his condition. He was at the point of death from hunger and thirst when a couple of Yuma Indians saw him and took him to their cabin. A few days later, they turned him over to the nearest American consul. The consul identified him by marks on his clothing and sent him—where he belonged to us. I saw him just a few days ago in a base hospital in California."

"Extraordinary! He came out of the Grand Desert, you say? He left here—some morning—taking a lunch with him. That's the last we saw of him! How was he when you left him, senor? Well on the road to recovery, I trust?"

"Yes, senor. It sounds as if Number One must have found out something that nobody did not know with him. So somebody took him and put him somewhere and he would look as if he had just got lost and met his misfortune by accident and exposure."
