SOUTHWEST IDAHO SETS TIME SHIFT

BOISE, Ida., Sept. 5.—A move by farmers, school districts and merchants to return all of southwest Idaho to mountain standard time from war time, was completed today with arrangements made to set clocks back one hour on Labor day, Sept. 7.

Boise merchants, acting on the request of Ada county farmers and school officials, voted the time change which was already this week approved in Canyon, Washington, Payette, Adams, Owyhee and Gem counties. Mountain standard time now corresponds to Pacific war time.

School officials asked the change so the students would not have to go to school before daylight this winter days. County road departments, not equipped for operation in the dark, declared the change necessary.

Southwestern Idaho is located in the extreme west portion of the mountain time belt, and was said to be one-hour ahead of the sun. The Idaho mountains and eastern Oregon have always been under Pacific time.

Two Ships—22 Working Days

Here's a special launching for two special ships at Alameda, Calif. From a platform in mid-air, Vivien Boerwag smashes a bottle of champagne on the stern of the cargo ship Reuben Snow as the Caleb Sprague awaits christening in the twin ceremony. Only 22 working days were spent on the vessels from keel laying to launching.

County Volunteer Reservists Show Gain of 150 for Month

An increase of approximately 150 men in the Idaho volunteer reserves in Twin Falls county was noted during the past month, Major W. F. Polson, commander, announced Saturday night.

Major Polson said that the increase was due to the new enlistments in the companies which have already been organized and also the addition of two new companies during that time. The two new units just organized are the cavalry troop, Twin Falls, and the transportation and communications company, also in Twin Falls. The increase was partly due to addition of platoons at Murtaugh which is now attached to the Kimberly company and a platoon at Caldwell which is attached to the Twin Falls county law enforcement company.

The cavalry troop officers are Capt. Danny Rogers, Lieut. Truman Greenhalgh and Lieut. Tom Alworth; the transportation company is headed by W. W. Franz, acting captain, and Lieut. Ivan Mook. The law enforcement company is headed by Capt. W. W. Lowery, and he is in charge of organization of the Caldwell platoon.

At the present time total strength of the reserves is 525 men. One of the most important jobs in the county setup is the transportation and communications company.

The city of Twin Falls, for instance, has 25 pieces of equipment which can be obtained at a moment's notice and which will be ready to function complete with drivers. Other units of equipment available will include Detweiler's, 10 trucks; Internountain Seed company, 10 trucks; Warberg Bros., 12; Ford Trucking company, three; Idaho Power company, one unit. In a majority of the cases drivers are furnished and are also subject to emergency call. Major Polson said.

According to unofficial information received from Boise, women drivers will be allowed to enlist in the cavalry unit. However, no action along this line will be taken until official word is received. The unit with the women attending the regular drill, is fast whipping into shape. Drills are held at the Donnell stables, east of the baseball park.

CONTROL IS SEEN FOR INVENTORIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The war production board has announced approval today of a program to control inventories of civilian merchandise in the hands of retail stores and wholesalers.

The plan, which probably will become effective sometime early in 1943, is an attack on the problem created by heavy buying by some dealers. Such purchases have raised the price of some goods and even some regions of the country might be unable to get sufficient supplies to serve their communities.

The program, prepared by a special committee after conferences with hundreds of merchants and manufacturers, also calls for an immediate investigation into the addition of the limitation of manufacturers' inventories.

For the retailers and wholesalers, two steps are proposed. They are: 1. Issuance of a WPI order requiring reports from each dealer of his inventory and sales by quarters, accompanied by a statement of the store's normal inventory, as defined by WPI.

Normal inventory would be a stock bearing the same relation to sales as the average quarterly inventory of the years 1932-41, inclusive, had to sales.

2. Unless these reports showed that stocks had been so far reduced as to require no government regulation, a second order would be issued, imposing formal control and enforcement.

In view of the dwindling supply of civilian goods which will be available as the war goes on, the committee said, it is essential that equitable distribution be established to insure that the merchandise will be accessible to a maximum number of consumers.

Two Classes Exempt

Two broad classes of manufacturers and merchants would be exempt from the plan. Any concern whose business for the 12-month period ending Sept. 30, 1942, was less than $100,000 or whose inventory on that date was less than $25,000 cost value, would be exempt.

In addition, the pending order would not cover merchants primarily engaged in the food business, eating and drinking places, second-hand stores, florists and antique shops, service establishments, like dry cleaners and shoe repair men, and other retail warehouses, automobile and parts dealers, grain and feed stores, farm implement dealers, etc.

Manufacturers of foods, farm implements, motor vehicles and refineries or processors of petroleum products also would be exempt.

Marines Set New One-Day Recruit Mark With Seven

Sgt. Larry Laughridge and Russell Lippert, marine recruits, today have established a new record for one-day enlistments at the local station when they tentatively accepted seven recruits. All will leave next week for Salt Lake City for their final examination and induction into the "devil's outfit."

Three recruits were from Burley. They were Jack Thomas Bowen, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Bowen, route one; Leonard Lee Drayton, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi H. Drayton, route two, and James Loy Oliver, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Oliver, route two.

Twin Falls provided two. They were J. W. Hight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sid W. Hight, and Howard Eugene Browne, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Browne, 1239 Fourth avenue east.

The others were Devin Ray McLean, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLean, Buell, and Lawrence Dwight Welch, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Welch, Richmond, Calif.

U. S. TANK FORCE DESTROYS ENEMY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Success of American tank units in the battle of Egypt was seen by Washington observers today as a "good omen" for the day when U. S. armored forces roll en masse into the world struggle against the axis.

The Americans, according to an announcement from Cairo, destroyed six, and possibly eight, German tanks in their second test under fire. In the first, June 11 and 12, U. S. tank crews knocked out several enemy machines without suffering serious damage.

Observers interpreted this to mean that U. S. tanks were making the grade and U. S. tank crews were becoming experts at the game of warfare. The army men who took part in the combats will return here to pass on their experience to other armored force soldiers.

Both versions of the American medium tank—the M-3 "General Grant" and the M-4 "General Lee"—are in action in the Egyptian desert. Although the M-4 is rated the better, both have apparently stood up well against German machines.

The participation of American crews was not interpreted as the start of major action by the U. S. armored forces. But it brought nearer the day when American mechanized forces will join in substantial numbers the U. S. air forces already operating in the middle east.

ACCEPTS NOMINATION

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 5.—John T. Chandler, former county commissioner, is the only write-in nominee to file as a candidate for representative on the Democratic ticket. Other write-ins were Fred O. Reynolds for state senator on the Democratic ticket and M. P. Peterson on the Republican ticket for county commissioner from the first district.

Names in the News

By United Press

Rep. Eugene Worsley D., Tex., back in congress after eight months of active duty with the navy, reported he found two things that were plentiful in the Pacific war zone—American courage and Japanese fighters. He said "there's no one in the world who can match our soldiers, sailors and marines" when it comes to courage. On the planes, he said he's determined to see that "those boys" in the Pacific get some equipment that will put them on even terms."

Gov. Ernest Gruening of Alaska has called for a relaxation of censorship on transmission of news dispatches, claiming the current policy of "whipping newspapers and interfering with news dispatches by censors is injurious to morale."

J. Walter Rubin, 41, noted Hollywood producer and husband of screen actress Virginia Bruce, died late last night at Good Samaritan hospital after a long illness. He was particularly noted as the producer of Wallace Berry's pictures.

Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson, in a telegram to the War Production Council, urged altered workers to remain at their "highly-trained and productive" jobs rather than enlist in the armed forces. He said in most instances that the men can contribute more to the war effort by remaining at their present jobs.

Author Gustav Machaty, who claims he "haunted" glamorous Mely Lamart on her path to stardom by writing her first European hit picture, "Ecstasy," has filed suit for an accounting of the picture's profits which he said he was supposed to share and has asked for a restraining order against future exercise of the scenic motion picture.

Miss Young Wang, China's foremost screen star who is now in Washington after escaping from Shanghai, says the young people of her country will continue fighting until the last day is driven from Chinese soil. She has assurances they will not be "cheated" in the post-war world.

Nat Rogan, Los Angeles collector of internal revenue, has filed income tax liens amounting to thousands of dollars against some of Hollywood's leading film figures, including Mr. and Mrs. Basil Rathbone, Slim Summerville, Dean Jagger and Eddie Moran.

TWO 'DEAD' BOYS FOUND IN HIDING

SEATTLE, Sept. 5.—Two boys at first thought to have died of a "black damp" gas in an abandoned mine near Renton today had been found not far distant from the scene of the tragedy. They were hiding in the woods.

The boys, Eugene Lorenz, 14, and Joe Gray, said they came to Seattle Monday night to see the sights. When they did not return, it was thought they had perished with Joe's two brothers, Willard and James, in the old mine shaft.

Renton's police chief, Vincent Stewart, said that when the boys went of the tragedy, they learned they were the subjects of a conspiracy and decided to draw out the experience for excitement's sake.

Stewart said they came into town four or five times a day to read the headlines. He said they visited a mortuary, under assumed names, and asked to see the bodies of their boys. Stewart said the pair charged groceries and picknicked on canned goods and cakes and pies for three days.

499 Enrolled in Wendell Schools

WENDELL, Sept. 5.—Supt. William Doering has announced that registrations for all departments of the Wendell schools totaled 499. This is four less than a year ago. Grade school enrollment was 242 compared to 234 a year ago. High school registration dropped from 181 to 171, while junior high slipped from 88 to 86.

Enrollment by classes in the school building follows: seniors, 32; juniors, 28; sophomores, 50; freshmen, 60; eighth grade, 30, and seventh, 47.

25 DRAFTTEES AT BUHL INDUCTED

BUHL, Sept. 5.—Twenty-five Buhl draft registrants have passed their physical examination and inducted into the enlisted men's reserve at Boise. They are now on 16-day furlough and will report for duty Sept. 8 or 9.

Buhl men accepted include the following: Glen Dean Wadell, Willard Moore, Reinhard A. Wilhelm, Rickenberg, Vernon Leon Tillon, Russell David McCabe, Clyde LeRoy Garrison, Myron Crawford Stoddard, Wilbert Perkins, Dale Jackson, Robert Hestler, Floyd James Watson, Richard R. Nelson, Clarence Ernest Pawert, Vyrion Christopler Nelson, Henry Carl Sanger, Leon Leon Redwine, Carl Calvert LaPray, Carl Newell Talbot, Walter Edmondson, Ernest Bonnie Oring, John Daniel Small, Asa Edison Woodruff, Ernest Lloyd Sheering, Ray Archie Green, John Leroy Garrison, Walter Ray Johnson.

Men transferred to the local board and inducted were C. S. Shuman, Carl Wadell, Ephraim Alford Dutt, Charles Floyd Roberts, Delmer Gene High, Elmer Oakey and Donald Wayne Terry.

Men registered here but inducted elsewhere were Paul Roy Craig, Wallace Lowell Cline, Charles Lawrence Dwight, volunteer officer candidate; Earl Beardsley, Truman Robert Probasco, and Emanuel Will. Recent Buhl enlistments include the following: Kenneth Ray Childers, air corps; Charles Hart Batterlee, navy; Thomas Woodrow Smith, army; Warren Dean Welker, navy; Lewis Kacalik, marine corps; Harry West, navy, and George William Warner, navy.

Are You 40-50 not yet in uniform?

How will you answer these 10 questions?

1 What are you doing to protect your home, your family, your freedom?

It's your country. It has been pretty good to you. It has given you the right to do what you want to do, go where you want to go, live the kind of life you like. Now your country is at war. It's fighting for your freedom. What are you willing to do to help win this fight? Is there any job that you can do which is more important than the job waiting for you right now in the United States Navy?

2 Are you fed up with taking it—ready to dish it out?

Are you sick and tired of reading about "another U.S. ship torpedoed without warning"? About women and children being cast adrift in lifeboats? Are you through with just talking about what should be done? Okay. Here's your chance to do something—to blast the Nazi sub out of the seas—to kick the Japs off our islands. The Navy is ready to dish it out, and it needs your help to do it.

3 Do you want expert training in a skilled trade?

It's a big job, and to do it right you've got to have training. The Navy will give you that training—make you an expert electrician, metalsmith, photographer, torpedoman, gunner—any of nearly 50 skilled trades. More than 60% of Navy men hold Petty Officer ratings. You can be one of them!

4 Do you want good pay, quick promotion, responsibility?

You draw pay while you learn in the Navy. You get your first pay increase in approximately two months, upon completion of recruit training. And by the end of your first enlistment, you can earn up to $138 a month, plus liberal allowances for dependents and for special duties. Promotions come rapidly. And each one means more responsibility. In the Navy you play an important part on a team where every man is important.

5 Would you like $133 worth of uniforms and clothing free?

That's what you'll get in the Navy—complete outfit for both winter and summer. Everything you need, everything from cap to shoes, from whites to blues. They're the kind of uniforms you'll be proud to wear. They mark you as a man who is doing a big job for his country.

6 Would you like to build yourself up physically?

You must be in normal good health, but you don't have to be a perfect physical specimen to get in the Navy. After only a few weeks of Navy life you will be in top-notch trim. Figures show that many men become 93% stronger during their preliminary training. That's what Navy physical conditioning does. It makes men, rugged, husky, fighting men who can take it—and dish it out!

7 Do you want to step into a well-paid job after the war?

Men make the Navy—and the Navy makes men! Trained men who are doing great things now, who will be ready to step into important positions in civil life when the war is won. You can have no better recommendation than to be able to say, "I have had Navy training."

8 Would you like travel, adventure, action?

In the Navy you go places on the finest ships afloat. You meet people, visit exciting ports and meet men only read about. And you get action! The kind of action that helped smash the Japs at Midway Island, that knocked them for a loop in the Coral Sea. The kind of action that thrills a be-man right down to his toes!

9 Do you want to choose your service while you can?

Before this war is over, you know you're going to be in it some way. But air or ground and choose your service now before it is too late. If you're 17 to 60 and in normal health, get all the facts you need to help you decide. Ask your nearest Recruiting Officer for "Men Make the Navy's" free 48-page, illustrated book. There's no obligation.

10 Would you like good food—and plenty of it?

You'll get real man-size meals in the Navy. The finest food a fellow could ask for. Three square meals a day, prepared by expert cooks trained in the country's best restaurants and hotels. Wholesome, hearty meals that stick to a man's ribs—the kind of meals you need to do a man's job. And all the "seconds" you want!

You know in your heart the right answers. And you can do something about it today. Call, write or phone for "Men Make the Navy" at your nearest Navy Recruiting Station.

30 JEWS COMMIT SUICIDE DURING NAZI FRENCH ROUND-UP

POGROM RESULTS IN MANY DEATHS

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
LONDON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Fighting French headquarters said today that a German round-up of Jews in French occupied territory in mid-July had caused 30 suicides in Paris alone and had resulted in some of the most terrible scenes of the war. Jewish women were seen to throw their babies out of sixth floor windows and jump after them, screaming wildly. Jews were dragged from their homes. Others were ejected from hospitals. Among patients thrown out of the Rothschild hospital was a cancer case, operated on 12 hours previously, said a woman beside whose bed police stood while she gave birth to a child, the fighting French headquarters said in an official statement.

Planned Deportation

United Press reports from the French frontier have said earlier this week that when Vichy, at the demand of the Germans, started a round-up of Jews, unoccupied territory so they could be deported to eastern Europe, French people reacted with the police.

Fighting French headquarters said the occupied zone round-up was started in earnest July 12. Two days before Bastille day, the great republican holiday, and that by Bastille day 20,000 Jews, women and children had been herded into the Princes park and the Velodrome at four o'clock.

The statement, angrily phrased, called the round-up a "pogrom" and compared it to the horror of the St. Bartholomew massacre of Protestants in France Aug. 24, 1572 when 60,000 Huguenots were massacred, though in this case the idea was not to kill but to deport Jews for a four-year period.

Used Whip
At the Rothschild hospital, the statement said, a patient, a young girl, was taken to the roof of the building and thrown over the edge with a whip in his hand.

An eye-witness was quoted as saying: "It was in a long queue outside a chemist's shop. A girl about seven years old raced down the street, shouting: 'We give me food for mamma. The police are taking her away.'"

"Every woman in the queue gave the girl something from her shopping bag."

"A few minutes later two policemen came down the street, and the mother, several women clapped the girl."

"For nothing, madame, we will take care of your daughter. Nothing will happen to her," the women cried.

"The police were revolted by their orders."

Violent Opposition
Fighting French headquarters said the Vichy police had raised violent opposition in unoccupied France and that at such towns as Nice, Marseilles and Lyons the people, including many students, defended the Jews, abused police and formed protective cordons to prevent seizures when Vichy at the behest of the Germans began its round-up Aug. 26.

After the pupal envoy to Vichy, M. Aguer, Valerio Valeri, had made one of a number of trips to Marshal Philippe Petain, it was said, the Vichy propaganda minister issued an order to stop the round-up.

On an account, some mention be made of the Vichy report to Marshal Petain in favor of the Jews of France.

Committees for Intensive Salvage Campaign Named

WENDELL, Sept. 5 (AP)—Appointment of committees by Sid Wendell, chairman for the south Gooding district, marked the opening of first preparatory for the intensive one-day scrap rally campaign in the county next Thursday.

Retail stores in Wendell, along with those in Gooding and Hagerman, will be asked to donate scrap metal, said Wendell, chairman. Gooding, county salvage chairman. Business men will roll up their sleeves, join in the farms in trucks and go to work on the scrap piles.

Under the direction of County Agent E. J. Palmer, a survey has been completed showing location of all farm scrap piles.

Gooding named the following committee to obtain the use of trucks and platform scales, LeRoy Schouwer and Clyde Peterson, routing of trucks, L. A. Adams, Syl Miller and C. L. Adams.

Firemen Dash To Same Shop Three Times

For awhile, local firemen thought that they might as well compare notes. They made their first run to the store. At 11:55 a.m. they ran back again. Then they thought they were through for the day, but at 2:20 p.m. they made the third run.

Cause of all the trouble was a fire which was constructed too close to the roof work.

The firemen didn't have to go there all day Saturday. They are hoping they won't have to go today, either.

Girl and 2 Boys Top H. S. Classes

Two boys and one girl were elected presidents of the three classes at Twin Falls high school, according to student election results announced by Principal Edward B. Hoel.

Senior class - Bill Merritt, president; Marjorie Griggs, secretary; Bob Norton and Bill Hiley, representatives on the student council.

Junior class - Bill Merritt, president; Katherine Graven, secretary; Jack Wallace, representative.

High school students will elect their leaders this week.

Ranchers Ask for Japanese Workers

JEROME, Sept. 5 (AP)—An appeal from 14 Jerome county farmers for 60 Japanese laborers immediately has been received by U. S. employment service offices here. The order is being filled as rapidly as possible.

In this early report of utilization of Japanese workers, it was announced that 70 Japanese workers housed at the individuals' farms; 20 at the Japanese relocation centers and 60 are being housed at the Jerome JSA camp west of here.

Write-in Elected Wendell Trustee

WENDELL, Sept. 5 (AP)—Gova Hoskins obtained enough write-in votes in the school election here to nose out one of the incumbents who was on the ballot and win a place on the board of trustees. W. W. Winger, Jr., was re-elected to a three-year term.

Hoskins received 17 votes, though she was not on the ballot. She was elected to the board of trustees.

Clark to Sun Valley
BOISE, Sept. 5 (AP)—Governor Clark left today for Sun Valley to attend the Kiwanis convention Saturday and Monday.

"LISTEN TO GOD," M.I.A. IS URGED

To be governed by God means "listen to wisdom beyond your own." Mr. L. H. Hansen, Twin Falls state manual counselor, told attendees at the M. I. A. convention at the second ward chapel, L. D. S. church, last week.

"George Washington listened at a time of conflict and gave a nation freedom; Abraham Lincoln listened at a time of crisis, and preserved a nation's unity," he continued.

Mrs. Hansen was one of several convention speakers. The program opened with invocation pronounced by Wallace Bickhurst.

President Miles Hunter of the second ward president, and Mel Carter, state president of the M. I. A., urged leaders to "watch over their people as a banker would his money."

Mrs. G. Vern Yates, W. L. M. I. A. state president, said "If you are not having problems in your organizations, you are ceasing to grow."

A short talk was given by President Percy Lawrence of the state council. He challenged each of his listeners "to change the lives of 10 people each year."

Boys and girls are far better in character than they sometimes are in actions.

Charles Cederstrom, drama director of the second ward, presented a cutting of a play, "My Friend and I."

The cast included Mrs. Therese Knight, Mrs. Claude Brown, Jr., Virgil Telford and Marie Bick.

Junior girls of the first and second ward appeared in a chorus of patriotic numbers. Rectors were Valene and Kenneth Arrington.

Twelve girls took part in the choral work. Miss Margaret Shoup, Mrs. June Kirkman and Mrs. Harold Tepley were in charge of this number.

Dancing instruction was given by G. Vern Yates, a demonstration of the "Lancers" by a group of dancers, being presented by Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Green, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cameron, Bert Alexander and Mrs. M. O. Crandall.

"The Lancers" originated in the English court, and was taken from the fancy drill maneuvers of the Lancers—his king's guard.

Salmon Pioneer Called by Death

Mrs. W. D. Lovett, 58, pioneer of the Salmon tract, died Thursday at a hospital in Auburn, Calif., according to word received here.

Mrs. Lovett came to Twin Falls county in 1907, where she made her home until five years ago when she went to California.

She was active in community affairs during her residence in Idaho and was a member of the Salmon Social club.

Mrs. Lovett was preceded in death by a son, LeOis Cray, who died four years ago.

Her two daughters who survive were among those who attended the funeral services Saturday in Auburn. They are Mrs. Geneva Harrison, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Alva Margis, Monrovia, Calif.

Navy's Ability to Find 16-EE Shoes Brings It Recruit

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 5 (AP)—Herbert Fullman, 19, joined the navy today.

Herbert is patriotic, of course. But he had another reason.

Herbert's 210 pounds, in a 6 feet, 3 inch frame, rest on a 16-EE shoe.

He's been buying brogans from a New York firm, but it notified him it could no longer serve him. Priorities and such.

Herbert went to the marines. The marines run to his size, but only No. 12 shoes.

Then he went to the navy. No 16s either—here. But a clerk located a pair in San Diego.

So Herbert joined the navy today.

Cafes Must Keep Record of Meals

Twin Falls county restaurants, hotels and boarding houses must henceforth keep track of the number of meals they serve, Carl E. Anderson, rationing board chairman, stated yesterday.

This data must be available for inspection by any office of price administration official, including members of the Twin Falls county rationing board.

Also, the data must be in such a form that eating house owners will be able to supply it by mail if a call is made for the information by OPA officials.

The information may be needed, Anderson said, for OPA officials to determine if an eating house owner is living up to the sugar rationing regulations.

Inductees Feted By Rupert Rotary

RUPERT, Sept. 5 (AP)—Several of the draft inductees here leaving for Fort Douglas, Utah, were guests of the Rupert Rotary club at the noon luncheon.

After the boys had been introduced, H. W. Cronson gave a patriotic address and Staff Sgt. Phil Walter E. Bark, here on furlough, spoke briefly. A. F. Beymer urged the buying of bonds and Dr. A. E. Johnson urged all to attend the first aid instructors' classes which will begin Monday night and continue for 10 days.

Boise Firm Low on Glenns Ferry Job

BOISE, Sept. 5 (AP)—Bids for the surfacing of approximately four miles of the old Oregon trail highway west of Glenns Ferry had been opened in the office of the Idaho department of public works today, but it will be several days before the bid is let, T. Matt Hally, director of highways, announced.

Low bid was submitted by Quinn Robbins and company, Boise, at $145,321. Carl E. Nelson, Logan, Utah, and Tony Marrazzo were other bidders.

IDAHO PAPER TO FIGHT MAIL BAN

MIDDLETON, Sept. 5 (AP)—A Cornell, co-publisher of the Boise Valley Herald, banned from the mail pending a hearing on a charge of publishing defamatory matter, had indicated today he and his son, J. W. Cornell, the other publisher, plan to defend themselves against the federal action.

They will contest the action, he said, on the grounds that their publication is protected by the constitutional right of the press contained in the bill of rights.

Cornell said he had received no official notification of the federal action, and said the Caldwell postmaster accepted the approximately 500 copies of the Herald for mailing on the regular publication date. He added plans for publication next Thursday's edition are going ahead.

Statement issued
In a press statement he declared: "As publishers of the Boise Valley Herald the Cornell family has been subjected to excellent treatment by the federal government as an allegedly defamatory publication by Joseph Pulitzer, editor and publisher of the New York World."

statement has become a chaotic and hectic affair.

The newspaper must be both a schoolhouse and a forum—both a teacher and a tribune—an instrument of justice, and a means of giving an aid to education, an exponent of Americanism; it must forever be unafraid with merely private interests or to political or social advantage," the statement continued.

Aims Explained
"Since the Bill of Rights was not predicted either upon making money only prosperous or upon insuring that those in possession of official power should be properly trained, the public expression of opinion of the common citizen, it is sure to become a demand for the ideal."

the ideal is made secondary to the degree it supplies an ideal implied by Mr. Pulitzer's brief statement.

"The Bill of Rights must be preserved in the same way it was gained—that by winning military victories and adding to the power of those in a position to award patronage favors but by the strength and devotion of those who stand with the minority and take punishment with the few rather than be submissive to the lure of either easy money or of absence of punishment or even to the threat of death."

Cornell said the family had owned the paper since 1928. "The Journal" was established 32 years ago.

The charges against the paper, said its utterances exceeded the permitted limits of free speech by engaging in a sustained attack upon American participation in the war.

Navy Station Will Stay Open Monday

Because of the U. S. navy is making an added effort to obtain recruits, the station here will keep open on Labor day, Chief Machinist Mate Edmund Dannon, acting head recruiting officer, announced yesterday.

Two more recruits were tentatively accepted at the local office. Chief Machinist Mate Edmund Dannon, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mahoney, Albion, and Arnold Thompson, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Zilk, Miami, Ariz., as his next in line.

Decision as to whether or not the annual "Teacher's Institute" is to be held this year will probably be made Sept. 8 at an open dinner meeting of the South Central Idaho Schoolmasters, it was indicated last night with announcement that the executive board of the district education association will attend.

Edward B. Hoel, president of the Schoolmasters, said that Sept. 8, Mr. Fry, Castleford, president of the S.C.I.E.A., will lead the discussion in regard to the annual institute. Open forum will be held and the Schoolmasters will submit a recommendation to the executive board.

The Idaho Education association has left to its district units the decision as to continue or cancellation of their meetings.

Also scheduled for discussion at the dinner are such serious problems as teacher shortages, teacher salaries and substitute shortage, Mr. Hoel said.

Housewives Can Get More Sugar To Aid Canning

The fact that a housewife has been issued canning sugar once doesn't mean she cannot use more. Carl W. Anderson, chairman of the Twin Falls county rationing board, declared today.

"A housewife can have all the sugar she wants for canning as long as she abides by the office of price administration regulations," Anderson declared.

He said that a person who already has obtained sugar for canning should first use all the sugar on hand and then apply for more.

"We want people to do all the canning possible," Anderson stated. The rationing board chairman said that he could use a few more registrations next week.

The rationing board office will be closed Labor day.

GRAND PRIZES

Grand prize for men on Sunday, Sept. 13, in the finals, will be a $15 merchandise slip from the Times-News good for merchandise at any Twin Falls store. For women, a $5 grand prize merchandise slip will be given the champion.

However, if a hole-in-one is shot by any person in the finals, the war bond will be given in place of the special prize.

Daily prizes from Twin Falls merchants are advertised on this page.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

1—Everybody eligible — whether they have ever swung a golf club before or not. Youngsters, oldsters, ladies and men.

2—There is no limit on the number of shots a person can take. No practice shots allowed. Only limitation is that one golfer may not shoot more than six shots in a row if there is a line waiting.

3—Only fee is that of 10 cents per ball—or three for 25 cents. All receipts go to Twin Falls USO.

4—The tournament will be in complete charge of Fred Stone, municipal golf course starter. The meet is sponsored by the Times-News sports department.

5—Daily prizes will be offered by Twin Falls merchants listed on this page for the best shot by a man and the best shot by a woman.

6—The Times-News will award a $25 war bond to every person who scores a hole-in-one during the tournament.

7—Persons shooting in the tournament compete daily for a single prize.

8—All those who shoot a ball inside the 13-foot circle are eligible to compete in the finals.

9—The championship will be played on Sunday, Sept. 13, starting at 1 p. m. At that time all golfers will compete who are eligible and the best shot by a man on that day—if it's not a hole in one—will get a $15 merchandise slip from the Times-News. The best feminine shot on that day—if it's not a hole-in-one—will get a $5 merchandise slip from the Times-News.

10—Scores and distances posted in the preliminaries do not count in the championship tournament on Sunday, Sept. 13.

11—Balls and clubs will be furnished to all who wish to compete. If you haven't equipment, call at the golf course club house and you will be outfitted.

SOCIAL EVENTS and CLUB NEWS

Take Those Gay Nineties Clothes out of Tissue Paper, Student Players Beseech

Ever wonder why mother and grandmother lifted high those trailing skirts when they walked across the street or up and down stairs? It was to show off their expensive shoes, you can bet. And if you'd paid $17.50 a pair for satin-topped, laced shoes, such as Miss Shirley Hayes is wearing in the accompanying picture, you'd want them to show, too, despite three petticoats and a billowing skirt.

Costumes Wanted
To make the presentation of "Charley's Aunt" as authentic as possible, Miss Florence Rees, of the public speaking department, and members of the cast are asking residents of Twin Falls and community to take out of tissue paper any costumes of the Gay Nineties they may have preserved.

Accessories Too
Parasols and accessories such as string bags, chapeau hats, feathered hats, plumed hats, are costume "musts." Full length or gored skirts, wrap-waists and even "planned out" curls and wigs are needed.

For the seven gentlemen in the cast, frock coats are wanted, and "white ties and tails" for the last act.

The dress Miss Hayes is wearing in the picture was loaned by Mrs. DeWitt Young, the parasol she carries belonged to Mrs. J. D. Wenzel, and the shoes were from a woman Washington, donated by a friend who wore them in 1900—and who paid $17.50.

Worn in Ohio
Miss Kregel is wearing a feather hat that belonged to Mrs. J. B. Porter, Ohio, mother of Mrs. C. H. Kregel, and the dress that she is wearing was loaned by Mrs. J. D. Wenzel, and the shoes were from a woman Washington, donated by a friend who wore them in 1900—and who paid $17.50.

Miss Johnston
Is Complimented
By Hostess Trio

Mrs. Ella White and her daughters, Mrs. Hugh Phillips, Twin Falls, and Mrs. George S. Guder, Puer, were hostesses Friday night at a bedroom and bathroom shower in compliment to Miss Marjorie Johnston, bride-elect.

Intimate friends of the honoree and their mothers were guests. The party was held at the home of Mrs. White, 225 Third avenue north.

Mrs. F. Johnston, mother of Miss Johnston, was among the guests.

At the bride, prices were awarded to Miss Marjorie Kingsbury and Mrs. Carter.

Arrangements of panicles centered the refreshment tables.

Alice Irish Is
Bride at Nevada
Nuptial Aug. 3

Mrs. Edith Irish, 819 Second street north, yesterday announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice Irish, to Sgt. Kenneth O. Warren, Air Corps, Reno, Nev.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nettie Warren, Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Warren are making their home in Sacramento, where Sgt. Warren is an air corps weather observer at McClellan field.

Mrs. Warren is a graduate of Twin Falls high school and Long Beach junior college. She had been employed as a bookkeeper for the ordinance department at McClellan field prior to her marriage.

Sgt. Warren is a graduate of Long Beach Polytechnic high school and attended the University of Utah.

Gem State Party
Gem State Social club was entertained at a pot-luck luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. C. Barry, Astoria, formed the decoration Mrs. Zephra Lincoln won the bridge prize.

Meaning the costumes, not the people. Apparel of the Gay Nineties era is being sought by the Twin Falls high school players to wear in the comedy, "Charley's Aunt." Just to give you an idea of the fun planned for Oct. 1 and the costumes wanted—Miss Shirley Hayes, left, dresses up as Amy Spettigut; Robin Blaser as Lord Fancourt Babberly, and Miss Dorothy Kregel as Elia Delahay. Eastern Star to Conduct Annual Pot-Luck Party

Annual pot-luck dinner for Twin Falls chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be served at 6:15 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 8, at the Masonic temple.

This will be the first meeting of the autumn, following the summer vacation.

Mrs. Harold A. Ballebury is chairman of the dinner hour entertainment, and Mrs. Roy Painter is dinner chairman. A business meeting, with Mrs. Bert A. Sweet, worthy mistress, presiding, will follow.

Meat and dessert will be furnished by the committee, and those attending are requested to bring covered plates or a small fry.

All Eastern Stars, their husbands and escorts are invited to attend the dinner.

Calendar

Mary-Martha class of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Hattie Field, 211 Fourth street south, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

Past Noble Grand club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. Watkins, 140 Lake boulevard south, Thursday at 8 p. m. All members are asked to bring picture, pencils or pens. All invited past noble grand are invited to be present.

M. S. and S. club will begin the year's work Wednesday with an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. C. B. Lindsey. Members will sew for the Red Cross. Those not sewers are requested to bring sandwiches and their own supper.

First war Relief society of the L. D. S. church will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Relief society room for a work and business session and teachers' report meeting. Work on ice towels and other items for the bazaar will be a feature of the afternoon.

Mariners' club will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Presbyterian church parlors for a watermelon feed.

Miss Melba Holmes, Miss Patricia Smith, Mrs. Quilley Hayden, Boone, Twin Falls, and Miss Adelaide Anderson, Boise, will present "A Musical Hour" at 3 p. m. at the Presbyterian church. The public is invited to attend.

Surprise Party
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Heath entertained at a surprise birthday party last week in honor of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. B. Heath. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bailey and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bailey and family.

USO Draws List Of Aides for No-Date Dance

There's hardly a problem that a "drawing" can't solve. Remember the peacetime draft in the United States, when those caputs drawing took place in Washington, D. C.?

Something of the same sort—on a minor scale—went on recently in Twin Falls, as a prelude to the first local USO-sponsored dance Wednesday.

There were 150 names on the list to serve as Aides, or USO hostesses. Since only a portion of the number is needed at each dance, 40 names were drawn, and these girls will act as hostesses at the first dance.

Originally scheduled for the Veterans room at the Elks hall, the dance locale has been changed to the new county USO center, 159 Main avenue west, above Scott's cafe, where dance modeling activities are being rushed to completion.

The other girls whose names appear on the Aides list, and those from other towns throughout the county who will be added, will have an opportunity to be hostesses at later dances, since the local USO committee is planning to give a dance once each month.

The Aides have been requested to wear sporty clothes. Dancing will begin at 8 p. m., and refreshments will be served at 11 p. m. The Episcopate will be in charge of the initial dance, with Mrs. Charles B. Beymer as chairman, and Mrs. F. J. McNeal as assistant.

Mrs. Kenneth Henderson and Mrs. E. W. McRoberts will be at the entrance to give the girls the identification tags.

Following refreshments, the service men will leave the recreation center after the Aides have bid them goodnight.

All junior hostesses who do not have their own way of getting home will be taken home by the chaplains, provided by the Episcopal Guild.

This is a no-date dance, the committee emphasized today, and will be carried out according to the plan for the first dance. All Aides are stationed at the Japanese relocation camp, and all men in the armed forces who are here on furlough or who are passing through Twin Falls next Wednesday night, are invited to attend the dance.

Arion Basile's orchestra will play the music for the first dance. All Aides are stationed at the Japanese relocation camp, and all men in the armed forces who are here on furlough or who are passing through Twin Falls next Wednesday night, are invited to attend the dance.

Boyd Schenk and Bride Feted at Wedding Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd P. Schenk, who were married recently at the Latter Day Saints temple in Logan, Utah, were honored Friday night by Mrs. Claude Brown and Mrs. P. L. Lawrence at a post-nuptial shower.

Mrs. Schenk was formerly Miss Verlen Hansen, Rupert, and her husband are former students of the University of Idaho.

Forty guests attended the party, including Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell W. Hunt, Bluff.

The recreation room at the Brown home was decked with pottery urns of gladness for the occasion. Mrs. Brown conducted a novel game as diversion.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Velma Bluckstein and her brother, LeRoy Bluckstein, Nampa, who were overnight guests at the Ikenberrys home, en route to McPherson college.

Twenty young people and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holloway, were present.

The Nampa residents and Ronk left Saturday for Kansas, and Miss Nicholson will leave today.

Young people of the Church of the Brethren entertained at a farewell party Friday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Ikenberry, honoring Miss Lola Nicholson and Herbert Ronk, who will attend McPherson college at McPherson, Kan., this year.

September Holiday Is "Labor Not" for Some

A Labor day like the one which America has not known in a quarter of a century—a day when there will be more work than play in the industrial centers of this country—pops up on tomorrow's calendar.

Taking brief respite from the speeded up industrial tasks, the added business duties and work in the volunteer fields, are several of the luckier Americans, including many local residents, who are on holiday outings.

Designed to have two perfect nights and days in the south hills, with early morning and late afternoon, and camp, and a picnic, are several of the luckier Americans, including many local residents, who are on holiday outings.

They left Saturday night for the club's corral in the Shoshone basin preserve, near Magic mountain. Members of the chuck wagon team, who celebrated Labor day, advanced by rounding up the quantities of food required for the outing, were Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeWetter, Mrs. Evan Tarr, Miss Margaret Kennedy and Curtis Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Saxon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vogel and S. J. Johnson, father of Mrs. Vogel, left late last night for the Blue Springs club, sportsmen's resort on the Snake river in Hagerman valley, to spend the Labor day holidays, planning to return Monday night to Twin Falls.

Mr. Johnson, Anacostia, Mont., is here for an indefinite stay at the Vogel home.

Yellowstone national park was the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Molony and Warren Peppering for the three-day week-end.

Mrs. Etate Graham and daughter, Miss Donna Graham, left last night for Portland to spend the holidays together before Miss Graham comes Tuesday to St. Mary's academy, Portland.

Mr. Graham will go on to Seattle for a visit before returning to Twin Falls in several days.

"Out for trout" over Labor day will be Mr. and Mrs. Baker Hersey, Ely, Nev., and Leland Jenkins, Twin Falls. They will fish at Magic dam.

Mrs. Tom Alwerth and son, Billy, are spending the holidays in Burley, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Brown. They will return Monday night to Twin Falls.

Mrs. Richard A. Forney arrived Saturday from Santa Maria, Calif., where Dr. Forney is a member of the medical corps, having received his commission last spring. She will spend the next 10 days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Magel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendall E. Dayley will combine work and play over the holidays. They left Friday night for the ocean resort spot at Gearhart, Ore., to attend the regional conference of Boy Scout executives. Mr. Dayley is field executive of the Snake river area, Boy Scouts of America.

Also attending the conference from Twin Falls will be Gordon Day, executive of the Snake river area, and Mrs. Day, who with their young son, left several days ago on a vacation trip to Pacific northwest point.

Mrs. Keith Carlson and family are here from Los Angeles for several days' visit with Harry Barger, father of Mrs. Carlson, and Mrs. P. R. Tauber, her sister.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Maddock and son, Bobby, will spend the week-end "on the road," returning to Chicago following their annual summer vacation trip to Idaho. Dr. Maddock is a member of the staff at the Marine hospital in Chicago.

Most of their vacation was spent at the Clark-Miller guest ranch in the Stanley basin country, but the past week they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hayes, parents of Mrs. Maddock.

Mrs. Wisse Evans will be in Portland, Ore., for the early-September holiday. She left Saturday afternoon on the Portland Rose to visit her son, Dick Evans, and friends in the "city of roses" for the next 10 days.

'Newcomers' Join in Home Front Activity

Exciting things are happening in Twin Falls these days, including the arrival of stimulating women who are making Twin Falls "home," at least for the time being.

Several local women, leaders in various fields of activities, had the opportunity of meeting several of the newcomers Wednesday afternoon at a no-hostess luncheon at the Park hotel, arranged by the "Welcome Wagon" service and the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Women With Ideas
Many of the newcomers are well-traveled; all are alert, "idea women." They are eager to find their place in the life of this community, to become a part of its organizations, its social activities, its churches and its civic affairs.

They are also willing to cooperate in the activities of the numerous organizations that are gearing their programs to keep the "home front" operating smoothly as more and more thousands of war-time home front.

Several of the guests at Friday's luncheon are wives of officers of the Japanese relocation camp at Eden. Others are the wives of various company and organization executives. Many of them Friday volunteered to assist the USO, the Red Cross, the Y. W. C. A., the Camp Fire Girls, the Parent-Teacher association and other groups after the use of new leadership had been made known to them by several speakers.

Guests and speakers were introduced by Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Welcome Wagon hostess, whose assistant is Mrs. Harold Howe, University of Idaho, nursing school and adult education chairman of the Twin Falls Parent-Teacher association council, enumerated the various P-T-A projects, including the hot lunch program; the summer round-up, the block mother project, and the identification project, as well as a program in emergency.

Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Twin Falls county treasurer, extended an invitation to those of the group who are interested, to attend meetings of the Democratic Women's Study club of Twin Falls county.

Good Times Needed
Mrs. L. E. Reed, new executive secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., called attention to the fact that all the arguments as to why men in the armed forces need recreation, apply likewise to wives, mothers, and teenagers and girls.

She told of the need for girls' club sponsors, and outlined plans for the organization of the Y. W. C. A. branch for wives of service men and other young women of the community. She also was spokesman for the American Legion auxiliary.

Filling of the present scarcity of guardians for Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups, Mrs. Guy H. Shaver urged that women interested volunteer to become leaders of these groups. "You must work in some organization, in some community, to feel a part of that community," she stressed.

A three-hour training course will be given prospective and new leaders sometime this month. Those interested are requested to communicate with Mrs. Blanche Teasley at the Camp Fire office, in the basement room, under the Wiley Drug company.

Mrs. Donald Murphy invited citizens to a social hour of games was enjoyed. Twenty-five guests attended.

Southern Music
Features Party
A three-course banquet last week at the home of Kenneth Snyder featured the meeting of the Excalibur Literary society. The tables were decorated with low bowls of garden flowers and the courses were served by candlelight.

The evening's program centered around a Negro theme. A mixed quartet sang "My Old Kentucky Home" and a sextet sang "Swing Away." The life of Stephen Foster was reviewed.

A social hour of games was enjoyed. Twenty-five guests attended.

TWIN FALLS LAKE BEES

2 Teams Trade Shutouts in Closing Tilts

Frank Lamanke, ace left-hander of the Boise Pilots pitched the second-half Pioneer league champions to a 9-0 victory over the Twin Falls Cowboys here last night to gain a split in the all-time series. The Wranglers won the Friday night game by a 6-0 count on the strength of a great four-hitter by diminutive Angelo Venturini.

The game was the last of the season — and possibly for the duration — at Jaycee park and was the first, washing administered the local club on the home field this year.

With Drake and Lamanke clouting homers, the visitors pounded the offerings of Jim Olsen and Tony Jell for 12 safe blows in the game tonight, while the visiting Jell was limiting the home six singles and bearing down beautifully in the pitcher.

Score: First — The Pilots got a counter in the first when Olsen hit the first base, the second and third. Olsen's double. Four runs crossed the plate in the second stanza on error, and an error. They added two in the fifth on Manager Jim Keecey's double and Drake's single. One more came in the sixth on a pair of singles and an error and the final count stood at 12-0 in favor of the Pilots.

Friday night, young Venturini hurled the champions for the second consecutive time. He allowed only two safe blows and was never in serious trouble. Meanwhile, he was getting some much needed rest after his first game, when he pitched for the 6-0 victory.

First run came in the third when Olsen walked and scored on Jack Lohrke's two-bagger. In the sixth the Wranglers got two runs on an error, second and third. Olsen's double. Four runs crossed the plate in the second stanza on error, and an error. They added two in the fifth on Manager Jim Keecey's double and Drake's single. One more came in the sixth on a pair of singles and an error and the final count stood at 12-0 in favor of the Pilots.

Young Hits Homer To Beat Brooklyn

With 4-0 Victory

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—The New York Giants put a crimp in the pennant plans of the Brooklyn Dodgers today as they rode to a 4-0 victory over the National league leaders on a jackpot home run by big Babe Young.

With St. Louis winning at Cincinnati, the loss clipped a full game of the Dodgers' advantage in the pennant chase leaving them only three lengths in front of the Cardinals.

In turning back their cross-town rivals in the opener of a three-game series before a crowd of 28,863 paying customers, the Giants routed Brooklyn, 4-0, in the first of three games.

Fastest recorded mile is the Indian jump of Glenn Cunningham at 1:58.4 in 1931. The mile was the fastest ever run in 4:04.4 in 1904 and the mark is not generally recognized.

Marchildon Wins 16th Tilt for A's

BOSTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Phil Marchildon won his 16th game today as the Philadelphia Athletics came from behind to beat the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 3.

Marchildon, in setting back the Red Sox for the third time this season, was in trouble most of the way, but he held them off in the end.

Yankees and Solons Split Double Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Big Bill Zuber limited the New York Yankees to five hits as Washington turned back the world champions, 1 to 0, in the second game of a twin bill tonight. Zuber had taken the opener, 6 to 2, behind Ernie Bonham's steady hurling.

Washington hopped on Marvin Breuer for 10 blows. The Senators scored in the third on Bobby Estabrook's single, which was followed by a walk to produce four runs in the first inning. Leon and then settled down and pitched hitless ball until leaving the game for a pitcher-later after the eighth.

Joe Gordon, who took first on an error in the sixth, was the only Yankee to reach base against the big Dutchman after his first inning.

Score: First — The Pilots got a counter in the first when Olsen hit the first base, the second and third. Olsen's double. Four runs crossed the plate in the second stanza on error, and an error. SILENT RIDE

CHAPTER XI

IT WAS 11 when Enid awoke the next morning. She made a wry face at the bedside clock and wondered how she would ever manage to awake at 7 when she had to go back to work.

But she didn't have to worry about that yet. The air of the apartment was heavy with heat, and she lay listless until hunger forced her up to get a glass of milk. Then she dressed, gathered together her sketching materials and headed for the Bath Club. There was no difficulty about her getting in; Hank had arranged for that the night before.

The locker woman gave her a check and assigned her to a dressing booth. Enid changed into her bathing suit, put her clothes in the locker and went out to the pool. She put her sketch book and crayon box down in a chair and walked over to the edge of the pool. She lifted her arms and jumped in, holding her breath, as Hank had taught her to do the night before. But it wasn't fun like it had been last night with him. And a couple of jumps she gave it up.

She dried herself and moved out of the sun and began to sketch a swimmer in the water. But her attention was soon distracted by a red-headed girl in a white bathing suit who had just joined the group under the nearest umbrella. Enid couldn't help staring at her. For the first time she realized what the phrase, "perfect beauty," might mean.

Enid had never seen anyone as beautiful as this girl. Wide-spaced eyes of an incredible blue, hair the color of a new penny, round pure style with the ends curled under against her white shoulders, a piquant profile with a tip-dipped nose, and skin that was unbelievable. Not the pink and white complexion of most red-heads, but a creamy and creamy as the petals of a gardenia.

Enid was fascinated. With surreptitious glances she began to sketch the girl, oblivious of an audience to her activity until some one called out from behind her. "Oh, Clare."

The red-headed girl stopped abruptly in something she was saying, got up with quick insolent grace, and moved over the grass toward Enid.

Enid smiled nervously up at her. "I hope you don't mind."

"Let me see it," the other girl demanded.

She studied the sketch arrogantly and a frown creased her forehead. "My nose doesn't turn up that much," she said coldly.

The girl called Clare, stared at Enid, the lovely blue eyes like ice. Her manner said plainly, "Who are you to have an opinion of my nose?" Contemptuously she dropped the sketch, and without a word turned on her heel and went back to her friends under the sun shade.

FLUSHING, Enid bent over and retrieved the sketch, but she didn't finish it. The enthusiasm needed for satisfactory work was gone. She picked her book up and went and dressed. She wouldn't go back to the pool, she thought. That is, not unless Hank took her.

Her hurt turned to anger as she walked home. She had a strong impulse to tear the sketch up and throw it away. But when she took it out and looked at it something in the face challenged the artist in her. She found herself a half hour or three when he came back and swung into the seat beside her.

His mind was still absorbed in the case he had just left. "A 10-year-old boy," he explained. "Fell out of a hayloft a month ago and broke his leg. And it isn't healing. I think malnutrition is back of it."

Enid's mind was too crushed with her secret disappointment to take any real interest in what he was telling her. She made a lame effort to respond. "Do you specialize in diet?"

"No," Hank said shortly. "I'm a bone surgeon. But diet enters into it. You can't get bones to mend if there aren't bone building minerals in the patient's body."

"It must be fascinating."

"It's a grunt of disgust. "It isn't fascinating. No kind of doctoring is fascinating, and certainly surgery isn't. It's hard work, dirty, and nauseating. But it's more interesting than anything else on earth, mending broken bodies. And it makes you feel as if you were of some use in the world."

Enid colored under the rebuff. "It was a stupid thing to say," she amended humbly. "I had something else on my mind." Perhaps it was the ruggedness of her voice that focused his attention. He gave her a keen glance. "You're not a bit like yourself tonight. Would it help to tell me about it?"

"No," she said quickly. "No." They ate in the one and only restaurant she had offered. The menu was limited and their steaks, when they finally came, were freed to the consistency of old leather.

"That," she told herself, "was your chance to show him that you were interested in his work. That you were something more than a pretty doll like Clare Adams, that you had intelligence and understanding." And because she had been wrapped in self-pity she had muffed her chance.

For he refused to talk about his work again. Deliberately he turned the conversation to other things.

FLR PUTS FINISHING TOUCHES ON ECONOMIC CZAR PROGRAM

ADDRESS SLATED MONDAY EVENING

BY FRED BAILEY
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt today put the finishing touches on a sweeping executive order creating an economic czar with unprecedented powers to control wages, prices and other factors in the spiraling cost of living.

The new anti-inflation program is virtually completed and will be outlined to the nation Monday night in a Labor Day "fireside" chat. Congress will learn its details in a special message at noon.

Barring an eleventh hour change, the program will call for appointment of an over-all administrator and a four-part board to formulate national policy on wages, farm prices, wholesale and retail prices, salaries and other income.

The administrator's decisions will be final and are to be carried out by existing governmental agencies, departments and bureaus.

Speculation mounted as to Mr. Roosevelt's choice for the all-important job. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York were most prominently mentioned, but the possibility of a "dark horse" was not discounted.

Public Forum

DID THE JAPANESE HELP 'HUNGRY' GERMANS?
I just finished reading the article in the Forum written by Japanese Editor, Times-News.

I brought to my mind an incident I had witnessed five years ago at Indio, Calif. This is just one of many.

An old model Ford drove up to a service station for two gallons of gasoline.

The car had a man, woman and five children on the inside. The children were sitting on boxes, bedding, etc. There was a tin tub, a worn mattress, pots, pans and other household articles on the outside. Also, an Oklahoma license. The people were ragged, thin and hungry and tired looking.

I watched the man count pennies to pay for his gasoline. It was only about ten cents per gallon.

Just as he got the car cranked and started to leave, I heard their words distinctly after having found out that they were from Indio, Calif. "He out of Indio by nightfall, there is nothing for you here."

Of course there wasn't. There wasn't anything for them or any place for them so they moved on. He had the same thing in the next town.

I saw not just one, but dozens of cars of the same kind who had to leave their farms on account of drought.

I'm sure these Japanese saw these people too. I wonder if one of them ever gave an Okie an extra turnip for a nickel or if he could have been so generous.

These people left their homes for an entirely different cause, an honorable one. They slept where they could and ate what they could. I am sure they would have been on a place like the Minidoka camp as something from heaven.

They didn't even have the bare necessities.

How do you think they had their babies? I'm sure they didn't have proper hospitalization and as far as diets were concerned, they were thankful for anything to eat.

I am sure our boys in Japan would gladly trade their chop sticks and rice for some good American stew.

Personally I think the Japanese very unappreciative.

Not Inflexible Rule
No inflexible rule against an employee or official receiving increased compensation and control, probably will be exercised over the job rather than the man. For example, there must be no rule against any one receiving a promotion with a raise in salary, but there probably will be a ruling against a higher salary being paid for a particular job without WLB approval.

Subsidy payments may be provided for manufacturers or farmers who would be unable to increase production within price limitations. Both labor and agriculture, however, have opposed such payments.

Farm and labor leaders who discussed the over-all program with Mr. Roosevelt have indicated that it is not entirely satisfactory. Some have said privately that it would "put us in an economic strait-jacket."

First Ward Will Give Theme Slips

Discussion of the new theme slips by Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and a panel discussion on the new theme will highlight the Sunday evening program at the first ward L.D.S. church today, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Other number will be: Some service, led by Mrs. Harold Teeples; prayer, Duane Hansen; brief talks, Earl Freeman and Mrs. Clark Gerson, presidents of the Young Men's and Young Women's M.J.A., and Mrs. Margie Bond.

Reading, Mrs. J. O. Oalloway; vision, Duane Hansen; panel discussion, Wayne Arntson, Duane Hansen, Pearl Baber, Vera Murritt; devotion, Duane Hansen; Grandstand, "My Pass," by W. W. Thomas; benediction.

The program has been arranged by Austin Green and Mrs. M. O. Crandall.

MISSING CHICAGO BANKER IS FOUND

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Saverio Ariani, 48, long-missing former Chicago banker, was found today by his family in a small town in Illinois on charges of conspiracy to conceal assets from a bankrupt estate.

Arrested by FBI agents, Ariani and his wife, Minnie, and his sons, Carlo, 31, and Renato, 20, appeared before U. S. Commissioner F. St. John Fox for extradition hearing. An attorney asked to counsel for the family and said he believed they would not protest removal to Chicago.

Recover Cash, Gold
FBI agents arrested the Arianis at their home here and recovered $40,000 in cash and securities, including $10,000 in gold coins, which it is alleged he hid from his creditors.

Nat J. L. Pierer, chief of the San Francisco FBI office, said Ariani had disappeared since 1931 when he disappeared. He was living in San Francisco under the name of Carlo Cavaliere.

Ariani was president of the Italian State bank at Chicago, which was owned by his family. When he disappeared in 1931 on the eve of an audit by state bank examiners. He was indicted on an embezzlement charge, but the indictment later was dismissed with leave to return to his home.

Ariani disappeared before his indictment was returned and his wife and the sons vanished later. The FBI is now in Chicago during routine examination of bank records and the family was traced through insurance records.

4 'VICTORY' BULLS FOR SOLDIERS OF IDAHO

Four Magic Valley farmers who each receive one of the 1,000 purebred Jersey bulls will be given away by the members of Jersey Cattle club of America, County Agent, Idaho, Sept. 10.

Yesterday, they are J. S. Divisla, route two, Gooding; Thomas J. Barlow, route two, Burley; and Russell Ackock, route two, Rupert.

Two of the bulls will come from the herd of Harry McCauley, Buhl, while one each will come from the herds of H. H. Kayler, Twin Falls, and H. H. Hyde, Rupert. They, with Herman Shultz, Burley, and County Agent Barlow, received the bulls.

Boilingbrook said the Jersey Cattle club of America decided to give away the purebred bulls to undo the damage done by the Germans when they slaughtered and drove away all of the purebreds on the island of Jersey before the war.

HEARDSON SETS LUMBER PRICES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson today set maximum prices for lumber and related products, including softwood lumber from distribution yards, removing from general regulations such lumber of southern pine, western pine, Douglas fir, and hemlock.

Previous special regulations in the lumber industry had covered only sales from mills. The new order becomes effective Sept. 10.

Ceiling prices on various types of lumber will be determined by the sum of these charges:

1. The F. O. B. mill price.
2. Inbound freight to the distribution yard.
3. Handling charges of 45 per cent of the cost of the lumber, plus per square of shingles and 60 cents per hundred pieces of lath.
4. A markup of 10 per cent of the total of these items.

Henderson said that general price regulations, establishing ceilings on the basis of prices last March, caused "inequities in some instances and in others has provided sellers with unwarranted price margins."

"Application of the formula," he said, "will give relief to distributors who have been selling prices do not reflect certain increases in cost."

Kiwanians Open TWO-DAY SESSION

SUN VALLEY, Ida., Sept. 5 (AP)—The Kiwanis Club of Idaho opened its two-day convention at guests of five-day Idaho clubs.

At Lake City, first Utah club, and Pocatello, first Idaho club, organized, will be honored guests of Idaho Kiwanians.

At the convention, Kiwanians will meet here to promote further such of its projects as hospitalization for indigent patients, the care of underprivileged children, and eye examination projects. Agriculture and military project sponsorship will be planned.

Willard S. Bowen of Pocastello, district governor, will call the delegates to assembly Sunday. Business session and election of new officers will feature the program. The clubs are Twin Falls, Pocatello, Buhl, and Idaho Falls.

War Emergency Brings Physician From Retirement

WENDELL, Sept. 5—Retired Dr. E. L. Simonsen, a pioneer doctor, has answered the call to duty as a result of the war-time emergency. He will be in the office at the Wendell hospital and home office.

Dr. Simonsen said his health will not permit night calls, but he will be available for consultation and hospital and home calls.

Camas High Will Open on Tuesday

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 5—Registration for Camas high school students will open Friday and Saturday. The teaching staff has been completed. The acceptance of Miss Andrews as principal has been completed. Other new teachers are Miss Doran, Miss Quisenberry, and Miss Smith. Members of last year's staff are Miss Quisenberry, Miss Smith, Miss Durrall and Miss Smith.

Motorist Will Face Drunk-Driving Claim

W. E. Cloward will appear before Probate Judge C. A. Bailey next Wednesday at 10 a.m. to enter plea to a charge of driving while intoxicated, court records showed Saturday.

The complaint against Cloward was signed by Sheriff W. W. Lowery. At arraignment Saturday the man took station time to enter plea to the charge. He was released on his own recognizance.

HEROIC ACTIONS SAVE BIG TENDER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—The navy disclosed today that the 8,500-ton tender USS Prairie, loaded with munitions and fuel oil, caught fire last May 27 at Argentina, Newfoundland, and was saved from destruction only by heroic efforts of the crew.

The Prairie, which was ablaze for five hours, is now back in service, the navy said.

"From bow to stern and from the water's edge to the bridge was a solid sheet of flame," the navy said.

On board at the time were 600 tons of high explosives, 300 deep charges, 100 war heads for torpedoes, 12,000 gallons of diesel and 1,000,000 gallons of fuel oil. A 40-mile an hour gale (narrow the flames and added to the danger of an explosion.

Two enlisted men died fighting the flames. They were George William Genter, chief stowaway, 26, and one of them, Thelma G. Genter, of Wallingford, 30, and Herbert Price, 25, chief stowaway, of North Bend, Ore. His widow, Mrs. Cella U. Maclean lives in Portland, Me.
