

U. S. PLANES RAID WITHOUT LOSSES AGAIN; BAG 12 NAZIS

HEAVY ATTACKS KEPT UP ON FOE

LONDON, Sept. 8 (AP)—American flying fortresses—once criticized for deficient fire power—were treated again today after a precision raid on Rotterdam and Utrecht, in occupied Holland yesterday, from which a formation of fortresses returned intact by fighting off a swarm of German fighters and shooting 12 of the best German planes out of the sky.

"With more crews and aircraft like these, there can be no doubt about the mastery of the air over Europe," said Maj. Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander in chief of U. S. air forces in the European theater.

"The fortresses have amazed the experts again," the air correspondent in London wrote.

Making their longest raid into Nazi-held territory, the fortresses bombed the railroad yards at Utrecht and the Schiedam shipyards at Rotterdam.

Big Raids

The attacks brought to a climax two days of intense aerial activity against Nazi military installations. The fortresses were treated to the largest raid of their brief activity in Europe against Mönchengladbach and St. Omer, France, and the giant bombers were left behind as the first fortress losses in these raids were recorded.

Sunday night a "strong force" of RAF bombers again battered Duisburg as the junction of the Rhine and Ruhr rivers and started tremendous fires in the important traffic and metallurgical center. The British announced the loss of nine planes in that and related operations, indicating that hundreds of bombers were dispatched.

When daylight came yesterday, the British sent a "strong force" of bombers to the North sea to strike new blows at the German bases of Emden and Bremen.

Then the flying fortresses went up for their attacks on Rotterdam and Utrecht, accompanied by fighters. Unfavorable weather over the continent apparently interrupted this night's high flying.

Nazi Bombers Appear

German bombers made their appearance over England last night, flying north over East Anglia, the home counties and London. But a communique stated that no bombs had been dropped and no damage done. One person was reported injured. A plane was reported damaged. London area, but heavy anti-aircraft fire drove off the planes before bombs were released. No further reports were reported destroyed.

Fierce Laval, chief of the Vichy government, protested again yesterday against the bombing of French cities by the U. S. air forces. He made the greatest protest in an interview with the U. S. charge d'affaires, B. Pinkney Tucker.

Against strong evidence which appeared over the London area during the night, it was recalled that German night bombers had launched the first great raid on Britain's capital, starting confusion in east end dock areas.

Gown Field Stays On Mountain Time

DAVID, Sept. 8 (AP)—Only one serious quirk developed yesterday as Dolso shifted from mountain war time to Pacific war time—Gown field, army air base, didn't go along with the city.

The field public relations office said the field will continue to operate on mountain war time.

Buhl High Coach Tells Rotarians of Grid Outlook

BUHL, Sept. 8—Italph Villers, high school coach, discussed Buhl football and basketball prospects at the meeting of Rotary club. He said he would have a fair but inexperienced football team. Only one of last year's regulars and six let-terms will be back. He stated that transportation would be the big problem. Coach Villers did not make any prediction as to basketball prospects as the season is too far away to anticipate the line-up. He called attention to the new bleachers being erected at the football stadium. While it is not expected that the bleachers will be completed until after the war, they have been actively finished at the sides and front with lava rock. Speculations will be made to use these at the games this season.

SUN VALLEY, Id., Sept. 8 (AP)—Vernor O. Hewlett, Salt Lake City, was elected Utah-Idaho district governor of Kiwanis international yesterday at the organization's annual convention.

The district chose Salt Lake City for the next convention city and recommended the election of George H. Lowe, Ogden, as a trustee for the international organization.

These lieutenant-governors were elected: Herman W. McCune, Nephi, Utah, division one; Platt W. Fuller, Ogden, division two; William H. Francis, Pocatello, division three; William A. Topper, Boise, division four.

A panel discussion on "Kiwanis and the War Effort," featured the final day's meeting. Led by Earle Goodmann, Salt Lake, and the discussion emphasized that Kiwanis club members are taking an active part in stimulating interest in rubber and scrap iron salvage drives and in a sale of war bonds.

Other Kiwanis Work

In addition the club is building morale of boys in the army by arranging entertainment for them, members are aiding in conservation of rubber by participating in automobile-sharing plans, are going into rubber fields to help farmers save crops which otherwise might be lost because of a labor shortage.

Members of the discussion panel were Ed Sheyn, Heber, Utah; Paul Thomas, Twin Falls; Jim Palumbo, Pocatello, and Lew.

A banquet last night was the concluding convention feature.

Club members were urged to go all-out in the war effort in an address by Raymond Hives, Salt Francisco, representing the regional business control board of the department of commerce.

Good little businessmen must tighten their belts because conditions in the market are such that rubber is won. Mills must be eliminated, he said, and merchants must concentrate on moving of essential merchandise.

Fledge F. D. R. Support

In a resolution the district pledged, Hives mentioned the need for support our commander-in-chief, President Roosevelt.

PRIMARIES TODAY IN SEVEN STATES

By The Associated Press

Voters in seven states were picking nominees for various offices today and before the week is out primaries will have selected candidates for seven states, 55 house and eight senate seats today, with interest centered chiefly on the outcome of senatorial contests in Minnesota and Colorado.

In Minnesota, one of the opponents of Senator Hall in the Republican primary—Walter E. Mitchell, a publisher—has told the voters that Hall has voted against the election of 60 per cent of his constituents in supporting the administration's tax policy prior to Pearl Harbor.

Senator Humphreys, R. Minn., has made similar statements.

Stassen Heals

The lieutenant governorship nomination also was debated today in a prize than usual in Minnesota. Gov. Harold E. Stassen, Republican, has announced that if he is reelected he will resign in April to go on active duty as a naval lieutenant commander.

The lieutenant governor then would take the chair if the Republicans were victorious.

Stassen is backing Ed Tyle, former deputy state commissioner of agriculture, for the lieutenant governorship nomination.

Colorado will pick nominees for two senate seats now held by Ed C. Johnson, Democrat, and Eugene D. Sullivan, Republican.

Johnson's opponent is State Supreme Court Justice Benjamin C. Hilliard, who has spoken against what he called Johnson's isolationism prior to Dec. 7. Hilliard, who was named to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sen. Alva Adams, Democrat, is opposed for the short term nomination on the Republican ticket, as is James A. Munroe, Democrat, on the Democratic side. Gov. Hatcher L. Carr is unpopular for the Republican nomination for the six-year term.

Congressmen Attacked

Interest in Washington state centered on contests to unseat Rep. Spette Hill and John M. Coffey, both Democrats whose pre-war records have been cited by opponents. Former Sen. Clarence C. Dill is seeking the Democratic nomination to succeed Rep. Charles H. Leavy, now a federal judge.

Georgia votes Wednesday, with interest high in the Democratic race for governor between Gov. Eugene

The latter will resolve a heated contest for the Republican nomination to the house from the fourth district. Mrs. Clara Mootz Luce, wife of Publisher Henry Luce, Miss Vivien Kellems, manufacturer, and four men seek the nomination.

From where I sit....

by Joe Marsh

It's real puzzlin' when you stop to think about it....

I mean the way the human race has worked out a whole set of cut-and-dried alibis for its misdeeds and shortcomings.

Some of them's harmless alibis—like the office boy's grandmother who always passes away just before the big baseball game.

Here's some others, "My alarm clock didn't go off," "I left my money in my other suit," "I was rettin' up with a sick friend."

And then the one about the two beers. Now that one is downright exasperatin'.

Because there's not a shred of truth in it.

Every once in a while I read in the papers about some ornery cuss, who never did know the meaning of moderation, gettin' himself into trouble—

—and then protestin' that all he had to drink was "a couple of beers."

He knows it isn't true. He's just sayin' that because he knows that

"a couple of beers" sounds moderate and amiable-like—and it is.

Personally, I don't ever remember recallin' a couple of glasses of good beer, enjoyed among friends, hurt any normal, saneable person.

If you won't get in trouble without beer, you aren't goin' to get in trouble with it.

Matter of fact, it's been my observation right along that a friendly glass of beer in pleasant surroundings leads to just the opposite of trouble.

It goes along, seems to me, with good companionship, and moderation, and tolerance for the other fellow.

Yes, sir, from where I sit, it looks like the fellow that goes and gets himself in trouble, and then blames it all on a "couple of beers" isn't really foolin' anybody.

But he is bein' mighty mean and unfair to the people that enjoy the right to a sensible moderate drink like beer—yes, includin' "a couple of beers."

RUMI PLAN
Apparently congress is giving some consideration to the revolutionary income tax plan suggested by Alexander Rumi, treasurer of the Federal Reserve bank of New York and advisor to the National Resources Planning Board.

What do they think of it? We don't know. But we believe that the more the public considers the plan, the stronger will be the pressure on congress to accept Mr. Rumi's suggestion.

Unless he is one of a small minority, he has not saved this year the money with which to pay the tax next March. He intended to pay it out of 1942 earnings. Obviously he will not be able to do that.

Mr. John Q. Public in 1942 will earn a total of $3500. Under the present system, next March 15 he must try to pay an income tax on that salary. But next year he will be in the army, drawing $50 a month or a total of $600.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

HEALTH IS FIRST ESSENTIAL
We talk a great deal about morale, which it is and how to get and keep it, and often we overlook the first essential—health. A sick child cannot be a good citizen.

Good habits of living are the best means toward mental and physical health and the main ones to be acquired are: 1. Get up in the morning long hours of sleep, three or four hours, as many as you can.

Good diet. Fat is for children, is easily obtained nowadays. The healthiest, the radio programs, the newspapers and magazines are containing these diets. Our country is well supplied with foods in variety.

But individual needs are individual needs in nourishment, spiritual and emotional and physical. The newspapers and magazines are containing these diets. Our country is well supplied with foods in variety.

Provide the right kind of substitute. Chess play a game. Don't be discouraged. If a child refuses to drink a quart of milk a day don't fuss about it.

Its "Complexion" Isn't Just "Skin Deep"

BUTTER-KRUST Bread, we have insisted all along, is the favorite in Magic Valley because it is baked for a special purpose, according to recognized standards for excellence — not "made-up" for any special appeal. We have never tried tricks or "bakers' cosmetics" to produce flavors, textures, or anything else not in keeping with these high standards. We're proud of the fact that BUTTER-KRUST quality isn't just "skin deep."

We The Women

By RUTH MILLETT

Going home to live with mama and papa may not be the best thing for the bride whose marriage is only a few weeks of community and she is such an obvious solution it looks like a good one—but there are drawbacks.

Easy on Husband

True, if she is under her parents' roof, her young husband can get away with his mild rat about her. She will be well taken care of. She won't be too lonely, and she'll have the comforting knowledge that he knows just where she is—and what her life is like.

But, though the solution is easy for her husband, it may not be good for the young wife—or good for their marriage.

She will lean on her family. In all probability they will continue to boss her. She'll go right on being a daughter—when she could be getting used to the responsibility of being a wife.

If she were to get a job and live alone—her life might be lonely—but she would be preparing herself for marriage.

Compensations

She would have to make her own decisions and accept responsibility. She would learn something about cooking and housekeeping—even if she only had one or two rented rooms.

Living alone she would have time for developing her interests. Time to enjoy reading—and to learn to be contented without having other people around a lesson in every woman has to learn if she is to be a happy homemaker.

Golden Spike To Be Pulled Today

PROMONTORY, Utah, Sept. 8 (AP)—While the golden spike that completed the nation's first transcontinental railroad rests in its plush case in a San Francisco bank vault, Gov. Herbert B. Maw of Utah today will pull its stand-in from the historic rails.

The ceremony which took place on that May day in 1869 and which climaxed with the driving of the golden spike by Gov. Leif E. Blodgett of California will be re-enacted in reverse.

The climax will come when Maw places an iron bar beneath the last spike in the old road and lifts it from the tie.

For the past few weeks workers have been tearing up the rails of what is now known as the Luchino Corlino branch line, but which once was the main and only line across Utah. The rails are going to the navy for use in the war program.

Little traffic has been going off the route since the main line cut-off
