U.S. and British Troopers Get Set For Big Assault

A violently erupting struggle for air supremacy was fought over Tunisia and along the axis Mediterranean shore today while British and American forces on the ground were getting set for the all-out assault upon Tunis and Bizerte, once the enemy is driven from the north African skies.

There was every sign the aerial conflict would be a hard one, for great fleets of German planes were gathering in the Mediterranean theater and axis reinforcements still were reaching Tunisia through the allied blockade.

The flight is going to be tough and more than might be expected, said a spokesman at allied headquarters in north Africa.

Heard him out were reports from both sides telling of the mounting fury of the struggle.

The British middle east command announced at Cairo that at least three more large formations which may have been troop transports, were sent plunging into the Mediterranean yesterday off the Tunisian coast.

Bombing Attack
A heavy bombing assault on Bizerte, the strategic port of the Sicilian base from which axis reinforcements are being flown to Tunisia, was reported on Sunday night by the IAF.

Following the attack, the British and American forces in the Sicilian base from which axis reinforcements are being flown to Tunisia, was reported on Sunday night by the IAF.

From Rome, the Italian high command broadcast that the Sicilian base from which axis reinforcements are being flown to Tunisia, was reported on Sunday night by the IAF.

At the American Episcopal church, Thanksgiving day will be observed with a special prayer and sermon at 11:15 a. m.

The Memorial Episcopal church will observe Thanksgiving with a worship service at 11 a. m.

National day of prayer will be observed at the Bethel Temple church, 10:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m.

Thanksgiving will be the subject of a special program at the churches of Christ, Thanksgiving day. The local service will begin at 11 a. m.

WAR BULLETIN

375,000 of Axis Troopers Inside Southern Pincers

MOSCOW, Nov. 21 (AP)—The red army ripped through disorganized mad defenses 110 miles west of Stalingrad today, capturing more villages and pushing the lines in a great trap closer around more than 375,000 axis soldiers.

MOSCOW, Nov. 21 (AP)—A great and possibly decisive battle for Stalingrad today as battered German forces, forecasting their fall in an iron grip forged by the red army, sought to rally for a counter-attack.

The German high command admitted today that Russians penetrated defenses southwest of Stalingrad and on the Don river bend, but said no counter-measures were in progress. The communique complained of unfavorable weather but said "several hundred enemy tanks were destroyed."

The Soviet offensive called momentum. One army pushing southward reached the village of Popovka, well inside the bend of the river Don. In a drive to achieve a junction with Russian forces hammering from the north, the Germans attempted a counter-attack in a slight northward drive.

One entire German division was reported exterminated in a slight northward drive. The Russians beat off the counter-attack while other forces struck the enemy flanks and encircled the division.

Major Drive
Increasing signs of a major Japanese drive in Yunnan province, the area southwest between the Kungling Burma and French Indo-China in southwestern China, were reported by the Chungking army spokesman.

He said Japanese preparations included a concentration of amphibious tanks along the Salween river, a slice of Yunnan already encircled by Chinese reinforcements arriving in Indo-China.

The spokesman estimated that the Japanese had 100,000 men and 300 tanks in Burma. (With auxiliaries this could mean a total of 150,000 to 200,000 men.)

Troop Movements
All railroad traffic in Indo-China is devoted to Japanese troop movements, he said, and Japanese authorities reported an Australian platoon on the French to yield their policing rights.

He added that Japanese warships had moved in Kwangchow bay, the saltwater harbor of Indo-China. "All these things," the spokesman said, "indicate a major move in mind."

The spokesman said that the Japanese troop movements were for defensive action and that there was no attack toward India was unlikely.

Extending the picture of Japanese employment, the spokesman reported an Australian platoon on the French to yield their policing rights.

President Roosevelt played Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York in charge of distributing American food, clothing and medicine to the people of lands occupied by troops of the United Nations. Lehman said he would be in the city about Dec. 3. His term expires Jan. 1, and he did not run for reelection.

Peoria Test Reduces Car Traffic Half
PEORIA, Nov. 24 (AP)—Peoria's experiment in using half-street traffic today appeared to be successful.

Employees seemed to be getting to work without too much trouble, although all automobiles bearing official license plates had been removed from the streets in a typical experiment in reducing traffic.

Members of the crew of a U. S. destroyer got a good look at a twin-engine Jap bomber shot down by American aircraft near Tagali, in the first day of fighting for possession of the southern Solomon, Aug. 7. One third of the after end of the plane's fuselage was shot off.

ENLISTEES MUST GET CLEARANCE

BOISE, Nov. 24 (AP)—All voluntary enlistees in any branch of the armed forces must now obtain a local board clearance to enter the service or the enlisted reserve corps under an order extending the requirement to the 18 and 19 year old group. Lt. Col. Norman Addison, executive director for selective service in Idaho, reported today.

Under the new order received by selective service headquarters from the War Relocation Authority, national director for selective service, Columbia, S. C., students not already in the U. S. R. C. must obtain the release of their local board before enlisting.

The 18 and 19 year old age group is included in the order. Col. Frank Addicks said.

A clearance from the local board is required for all enlistees who are not in or eligible for the recently created 2-C or 3-C agricultural categories, he said.

Local boards in Idaho have not yet completed reclassifying agricultural workers into the new group, which denote experience in the production of livestock, dairying, poultry, and other agricultural products.

Men in these groups are deferred as essential to food production.

Escaped Convicts Still at Liberty

BOISE, Nov. 24 (AP)—The three prisoners who escaped from the Idaho state penitentiary are still at liberty, according to C. Van Dusen, warden.

Two of the men are believed to have struck out east from Boise and the third is thought to be traveling westward, the warden said.

3 Sentenced to Death on Chicago Treason Charges

CHICAGO, Nov. 24 (AP)—Judge William J. Campbell today sentenced three men to death and three women to prison for treason in connection with assistance given to a member of the Nazi salvage mission.

Campbell sentenced the three men to die in the electric chair Jan. 22 and the three women to 25 years in prison and fines of $10,000 each.

The sentences enhanced the biggest treason case in the nation's history. All the nationalized German-American defendants were accused of aiding the Nazi salvage mission.

The men were Hans Haupt, the saboteur's father, Walter Wilhelm Froehling, the boy's uncle, and Otto Richard Weigman, a friend of the Haupt family.

Three Women
The women were Young Haupt's mother, Emma Emma Haupt, his sister, Lucille Froehling, and Kate Weigman.

Judge Campbell said in his opinion that the women were "guilty of treason by their aid and abetment."

"There is no privity on mercy," he said, "and the government is entitled to consider the opinions of thousands of boys fighting for us and the thousands of the enemy lines in the aluminum industry who could have been destroyed by sabotage."

Campbell referred to the eight-man Nazi salvage mission which landed on the east coast last June. He said the mission was a "pretext for the American high industrial and other vital war transportation and equipment."

Solomon Isle Life Isn't All Fighting Jobs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Life on Guadalcanal isn't all fighting the Japs there's time for some recreation, too, according to a "null section" of the island.

Scattered through letters from soldiers on the island is a picture of "non-battle" life in the Solomon.

It shows the natives as stocky little brown men with slinky tufts of curly-red hair protruding from their heads.

The natives are "not barking, they are laughing, they are playing, they are drinking through pipes, they are smoking through pipes, they are playing, they are drinking through pipes, they are smoking through pipes."

Boise Troopers Hold Manuvers

BOISE, Nov. 24 (AP)—Military police on duty at Boise barracks continued their maneuvers today after a three-day training exercise yesterday at the four-day exercises opened in the Boise foothills.

"Our boys stopped them cold," Col. W. E. Fowler, commanding officer of the Boise barracks, said today. "The troops are using live ammunition in their rifle, machine gun and trench mortar exercises."

Pilot Feels He Is Fighting for Greatest Cause

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 24 (AP)—An American army pilot, flying the coast of Australia and New Guinea, feels he is a good bargain, and worth it.

In a letter received by his mother, Mrs. E. C. Deane, a nearby newspaper, the pilot, Fred Johnson, wrote:

"I feel that if our mission is to win the war, it will have been for a good reason. I feel that I should be killed I want you to know that I feel I am a good bargain and worth dying for."

RUSSIANS SPRING TRAP ON ENEMY

The enemy, The Germans threw large forces against unimportant sectors. The Russians then struck in the two principal directions of their planned drive.
Cross on Potomans
The army publication, Red Star, disclosed that Soviet forces were unmasked south of Smolensk on the east bank of the Volga only a few days ago and hurriedly crossed the river on Potomans thrown in the freezing water.
They struck unexpectedly in the early morning with an intensive bombardment which lasted 2 1/2 hours. Infantry then cleared the minefields for tanks which crushed one first line and strong point after another. Mobile heavy and medium artillery and minethrowers played an important role in widening the breach, capturing and panicking the Germans.
After a full day of such operations the Soviet cavalry and motorized infantry entered the breach, fanned out and cut the railroad to Tikhovetz, smashed numerous groups of Germans and advanced 14 miles. From there on there was no stopping term.
Thousands of Corpses
Over the Kalmyk steppes south of Smolensk today German bodies were clustered with overturned and burned out enemy machines and thousands of graves.
Enemy columns of frost-bitten prisoners ate toward, covered by Russian tanks and while Soviet tanks, cavalry, and motorized infantry flowed westward.
The howling west wind brought with it some German leaflets, recently printed. The leaflets, which the Russians surrender to the "hitlerio never defeated, invincible German army."
The "hitlerio never defeated, invincible German army" was in a bad way. The Soviet's southern attack, launched originally on a 14-mile front, was bolstered considerably by occupation of Tundukov and Akaki, roughly 60 miles apart, as the red troops pushed out tanks and guns on each side of the snarling force to guard against a break-through.

FIGHT RAGES FOR CONTROL OF AIR

The action of French leaders was regarded by official allied quarters as "purely a first matter," but the substitution of the official naval port by Darlan was recognized as of great importance in the allied effort.
It was announced that the port would be thrown open to allied warships and troops, and that the British, Grand and Alger, would have an important base in the south Atlantic. It, it remained, it remained the possibility that the base might be used for six submarines and other warships to the west of shipping in the south Atlantic.
Disposition of the French warships now anchored at Dakar was not announced.
Narrow Naal Hold
With the Dakar problem settled, the hold of the Dakar problem was confined to a narrow coastal strip stretching from the region of Tripoli in Libya to west of Beirut on the extreme northern tip of Tunisia.
This line has been reported cut by French troops near the Libyan-Tunisian border and in the region of Gafsa. But allied posts there were uncertain. The German raider claimed yesterday that the entire Tunisian coast from Tripoli to was in allied hands.
The German news agency DND also claimed that an important railway junction in the frontier area between Algeria and Tunisia had been captured in the first major clash between British and German forces in the region. There was no confirmation of these reports.
There were only scanty reports concerning the land fighting, but it is said 40 German prisoners in one recent engagement. An allied communique reported that the capture of six fortifications continued "according to plan."

column had moved into Gona, enemy another 12 miles above Buna, and was mopping up the die-hard garrison there.
Overcome Resistance
Simultaneously, American forces overran Cape Endiaweit, which lies three miles southeast of Buna, overrunning stiff resistance from many machine-gun nests and trench positions.
While some of the allied left wing forces were completing the mop-up job in Gona, others turned down the coast toward Samarinda, between Gona and Buna, which the enemy was reported to occupy in force.
The Japanese were resisting fiercely around Buna although they were forced to fight with an aid support and no air support. General MacArthur's bombers kept the air over the coast for any effort to reinforce or evacuate the Japanese units which are being slowly channeled back toward the sea.
Planes All Advance
Allied planes continued to support the ground advance and reconnaissance, which curves around the hillside to the northwest, to seek a number of raids.
With Gona entered and allied troops reported on the beach between Gona and Buna, the last points of resistance seemed to be at Buna and Samarinda.
Allied planes gave continuing attacks to Japanese-held bases on Finschhafen-Timor which lies three miles northwest of Australia. Attacks planes and medium bombers rained Beza and Rumanan, the commander said.

DEATH SENTENCE WEED

unprejudiced in the history of mankind.
Our enemies seek to destroy us both by force of arms on our far-flung front and through disaffection and treacherous sabotage within our borders.
Home Front Important
Campbell said the home front was equally important and more vulnerable than the battle front.
The government, he said, has a duty, therefore, to be as treacherous as the act of spiking our guns in the face of the foe."
Campbell said the most important offense of the unholy list of crimes, which included sabotage, espionage and the like, was the structure of our government, the production of arms for the victor, the loss of our production workers and citizens and the very ideals of freedom which we stand for.
Campbell said that in meeting our punishment to a defendant he would not be a timely warning to all who would attempt to commit the smallest act of treason, as well as those who would treat treasonably with the emblem of the United States.
The sentencing closed a chapter in a carefully-planned, but also the German sabotage plot which the treason was only a by-product.
Arrested June 28
The defendants were arrested June 28, the day after the embarkation and capture of the eight saboteurs was announced by the federal bureau of investigation. Shortly after six of the saboteurs, including James Haupt, were electrocuted in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Mo. The other two defendants were indicted as "conspirators" or allies to Haupt.
The government charged 41 acts of treason against the friends and relatives of young Haupt and brought them to trial Oct. 28.
After hearing 100 witnesses, whereas the jury of eight women and three men took two hours and 50 minutes to find the defendants guilty, the second treason conviction was the first white rebellion since 1791. The defense offered no trials.
Stephan, Detroit restaurateur, was convicted of treason last summer and was sentenced to death. He has served a stay of execution for an appeal.

Trucks Without Certificates to Receive Gasoline

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Provision was made today for gasoline to be used by trucks, taxicabs and other commercial vehicles which have not received certificates of war necessity.
Beginning tonight, operators of such trucks are to be allowed to use the office of defense transportation for certificates, but have not received them may apply at their local ration boards for temporary ration, which will become final Dec. 1.
The ration on this temporary gasoline will provide the amount of gasoline which applicants estimate they will require through Dec. 31. This temporary ration later will be deducted from the allowance allowed by ODT on the certificate.

STRICT RULE ON DEBATES SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Debate by filibuster of anti-politico legislation today created demands for stricter senate rules on limiting debate and greater consultation among Democratic members in the handling of legislation.
Pressure for more modernization of the rules came from the group favoring a abolition of state poll taxes as a condition of voting in federal elections, and was sponsored by Sen. Claude Pepper, D. Fla., author of the anti-poll tax bill.
Pressure for party caucus on important legislation came from the anti-poll tax bill.
Both pressures tended to center on Senate Democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, who, incidentally, celebrated his 63rd birthday today.
The senate adjourned last night until Wednesday after defeating, 41 to 37, his motion to limit debate, thereby killing all hope of passage of the anti-poll tax bill this session.
Democratic intra-party bitterness centered toward Senator Barkley, who has been a vocal proponent of the poll tax controversy, since it came to a head just after the Republicans had won all new seats in the senate. Republicans believe that the leadership of southern Democrats in the filibuster will obstruct the O. P. among New Orleans organizations, which had actively backed the legislation.

NAZI EXTORTION WORK REVEALED

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The Netherlands government-in-exile charged Germany today with organizing a vast network of extortionists to exploit permits from occupied territory for great sums and said it would combat the traffic by sending a force in cooperation with the British and United States governments.

Belgian and French allied and neutral territory receive a communication that persons in occupied territory will be allowed to enter on condition that a considerable sum, in the currency of a neutral country, be made available to the enemy, it said.

These included: "In some cases the request emanates from the prospective emigrant. In other cases the attempt is made through associates of the emigrant in neutral territory. The request is sometimes accompanied by an offer of money, but that those concerned will be sent to a concentration camp should the ransom not be forthcoming."

Evidence which has reached the Netherlands and the governments of the United Kingdom and the United States indicates that the practices are organized by the German authorities and that other enemies are doing their utmost to increase their holdings of neutral currency.

The sums demanded, it said, are very large, sometimes as high as $250,000 a head.

Must Not Yield "The Netherlands government, after consultation with the British and United States governments," it is quoted, "intends to take all steps to the conclusion that they cannot yield to German attempts at extortion."

It said that while a few might "escape" the "sodium and terror of the Nazis" there remained the accumulated misery and starvation of those left in occupied territory and the results of the "policy of the Nazi race as long as the enemy's foreign assets will enable him to liberate the oppressed European peoples."

Can Firm to Rear "The General Sherman is at least two tons heavier than the 26-ton General Grant and General Lee tanks, which have been used in much greater numbers than the Sherman."

The state department, while maintaining publicly an interest in the successful negotiations for neutralization of French possessions in the Caribbean, has been completely non-committal regarding the African situation.

Officials here were greatly pleased at Admiral Dax's success in bringing Dakar into the allied camp. The admiral's status is not clear here, but while Dax's actions have been praised, there is little inclination to question the methods which are being used in the West Indies.

American consular officials in Dakar who were pressed to have been confined when the offensive against north Africa was started, are being kept in the city. The consular places in confinement are expected to be taken by German agents who are expected to have been in the Dakar area and whose activities are expected to be suppressed by the allies.

What disposition will be made of the French fleet units in Dakar was not clear, but it was expected at least would be demilitarized and that their officers might even be forced to go to the allied war zones.

Gen. Sherman Tanks: They Taught Nazis War Is Hell

"General Sherman"—the world's best tank. 1,500 a month this summer when manufacturers were ordered to switch from the M-3 medium design to M-1 medium. The switch-over was a production miracle.

When the M-1 rolled down the production line, an M-4 was right behind it. The M-3 and M-4 were the best medium tanks in the world. It has outdone German tank commanders in the field. It has outdone the British tanks in the field. It has outdone the Japanese tanks in the field.

Next to the M-4, the M-3 is the best medium tank in the world. It has outdone German tank commanders in the field. It has outdone the British tanks in the field. It has outdone the Japanese tanks in the field.

But the eighth army is said to have sufficient new General Sherman tanks to replace and outdo the old tanks. The new tanks are being produced at a rate of more than 1,500 a month.

Officials here were greatly pleased at Admiral Dax's success in bringing Dakar into the allied camp. The admiral's status is not clear here, but while Dax's actions have been praised, there is little inclination to question the methods which are being used in the West Indies.

CITY BUYS MORE AIRPORT AGREEMENT

Proceeding with plans for expansion of the Twin Falls municipal airport in the face of the army's opposition, the city council will take the civil aeronautics authority in a $160,000 airport construction project.

The action was taken at this time, it was said, because the option given by Robert Ray, owner of the land, expires on Nov. 27. The city holds an option on a total of 130 acres adjoining the airport, all owned by Ray, but will purchase only 100 acres at this time, and will take a new lease option on the remaining 20 acres.

Will Be 500 Acres "Purchase of these 110 acres will bring the size of the airport to 550 acres. All the land in the section now owned by the city and the purchase voted last night is completed, will be along the southern edge of the section, 40 acres in the northeast corner. The 40-acre tract was purchased from the state for $10 an acre.

Although last reports it was understood that the CAA still had $100,000 earmarked for an airport at Twin Falls, the possible construction was not mentioned by the commission in their brief discussion preceding the decision to take up the option before its expiration.

It had previously been stated that the land would be acquired with money already on hand in the airport fund. Dynamic "The council threw up its hands in dismay when General Sherman tanks were ordered to switch from the M-3 medium design to M-1 medium. The switch-over was a production miracle.

DEATH COMES TO ROTARY 'MOTHER' Buhl, Nov. 24—Mrs. Lucy Clara Parry, 72, known as the Buhl Rotary's "old mother," died Sunday evening at the Gooding hospital following a lingering illness which had kept her bed-ridden for many months.

She had been a resident of Buhl since 1916, until two years ago when she moved to Gooding to be with her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Van Riper. Mrs. Parry was born April 2, 1870, at Albia, Ia. She was the mother of Mrs. Van Riper, also Otto Parry, Las Vegas, Nev.; William Parry, Kansas City, Mo.; and Guy Parry, Salt Lake City.

Funeral services will be held at the Buhl Presbyterian church Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 2:30 p.m. Rev. G. C. Orr and the members of the Order of the Eastern Star officiating.

Mrs. Parry had been a member of the Eastern Star for 18 years. She was also affiliated with the Buhl Presbyterian church.

Interment will be in Buhl cemetery, under the direction of Evans and Johnson funeral home.

SCRAP TOTAL AT 5 MILLION TONS

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 (AP)—Reports to the national committee for the scrap metal drive indicated a total collection of 5,264,425 tons in the 48 states and District of Columbia.

A number of states, however, reported that their returns were not complete, and Edward W. Slovic, general chairman of the committee, reported that the returns still were being processed in some parts of the country.

KREBS WILL BE INTERNED BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Attorney General Biddle announced today that Richard Julius Herman Krebs, who was a widely known book in his experiences as an agent of the Gestapo and the Ogoz, under the name of Van Veit, had been arrested near Berlin, Conn., on a German order for his deportation to Germany.

The next step presumably will be to intern Krebs as an enemy alien, unless he can be related to Germany during the war.

Krebs is a native of Darmstadt, Germany, and was a member of the Gestapo. He was arrested near Berlin, Conn., on a German order for his deportation to Germany.

Krebs was arrested by immigration and naturalization service officers on a warrant issued by Commissioner G. Harlow, after Biddle had approved a deportation order based on alleged violations of the Espionage and Sedition acts.

The violations were described as illegal entry into the United States, after having been arrested and deported and after committing crime (perjury) involving moral turpitude.

RUPERT Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hansen spent Sunday in Brigham City, Utah, where they were visiting their son, Mr. T. F. Beech, who has been employed as first grade teacher at the primary school in Rupert, Idaho, by the resignation of Mrs. Constance O'Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Adams and Robert Adams, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. L. R. Adams, arrived from Stockton, Calif., called here by the sudden death of their father and husband here, L. R. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rice and family, Nibblers, N. M., arrived to stay at the home of Mrs. L. R. Adams, father of Mrs. Rice.

Mrs. Bill Hester, Montpelier, niece of Mrs. R. Adams, attended the funeral of L. R. Adams.

Scrap Exhuming Waits Army OK

A. W. Moscan, Twin Falls county scrap chairman, said today that the committee still is waiting for the army to give clearance by the army of permission to exhume the scrap from the site of the Rock Creek CCC camp.

The committee already has received and had war production board headquarters. The army has cleared the ground for salvage by local workers. However, it has not received word of the clearance but has cleared officers in charge at the CCC camp, which is being dismantled.

The abstract weighs less than 15 pounds, yet has a compressed of almost 12 feet.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

CAHILL—The amount of weapons and supplies which the United States has shipped to our allies is pitifully small in comparison with actual production. But a recent report from the War Relocation Authority's expenditures suggests that so far we have only used a few light punches at the dictators. The knockout blow is still to come.

In his recent Inter-lease report the President revealed that we had exported goods worth $2,700,000,000 from 1917 through October 31, 1942. Only about 12 per cent of the money paid out for munitions, food and other necessities was returned to us. However, during the first quarter of 1943, we were able to translate into goods about $200,000,000 into lightening and feeding material.

RAY TUCKER—A monthly output exceeds $2,000,000,000 and for the current 30 days will pass $600,000,000 for the first time. Uncle Sam is really beginning to roll.

The cost of the conflict as measured in appropriations and contractual authorizations stands today at $230,000,000,000. But if the emergency spending of R. H. H. is not checked, the total bill will reach more than $700,000,000,000. In fact, 10 per cent of this has been advanced or committed that it cannot be spent until nearly the end of 1944.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

By ANGLO PATRI.

BE READY FOR EMERGENCIES

Be ready for emergencies in home and school. Keep the first aid kit in order and make certain, every day, that you know how to use it. It is there and ready for instant use. And have a place for the kit and make it there so that in case you need it, you won't have to run about the house looking for it.

Don't put anything in that kit that you don't know how to use. Don't experiment with drugs. Leave those for the physician. You may not know how to use them, or you may not administer them. This is the physician's duty. Amateur nurses can be helpful when they stay within their own limits. They can be dangerous if they attempt to go beyond their knowledge and skill.

HOUSING—BUILT

The atomic aids that belong in the family first aid kit can do harm. Bandages, not forgetting the tri-amine, which soothe, soothe, soothe, something for burns as suggested by your physician. A small bottle of iodine, or a bottle of triple bromide, or the substitute the physician suggests will answer your purpose.

First Aid Kit Take Over

Don't feel responsible beyond your limitations. Put a clean bandage on the wound, wait for the physician. Read your rules for the treatment of blocked patients and abide by them. Remember not to burn the patient with the hot water bottle, and not to force a drink down his throat if he is unconscious. Do not feed and act only when they are sure and leave much to the physician.

At the moment the physician was making his calls in an area where the size of New Jersey and the remaining members of his family remained the hungry boy who with regularity turned up in the number of technicians in Syria. A number of technicians in Syria had been captured in a camp where they were served tea and sugar. They were served tea and sugar. They were served tea and sugar.

LET'S THINK THROUGH

Let us hope devoutly that the justices of the supreme court will think this Communist business through more deeply than Mr. Wendell Wilkie has done. We can be proud that our country in wartime has retained sufficient strength that the nominal head of a major party could and would appear in court on behalf of a foreign agent. But let our court will destroy our good judgment.

Mr. Wilkie urged that the high court overrule a California district court which had ordered denaturalization of William Schniederman, secretary of the Communist party in California.

Let us consider the facts concerning Mr. Schniederman, which also, in essence, are the facts concerning every naturalized person who is a member of the Communist party.

Schniederman was a member of the Communist party at least between 1922 and 1940 inclusive. During that period, in 1927, he was naturalized and took the oath of allegiance to the United States of America.

Now there is one fundamental tenet of Communism which no person can join the party without accepting, or can retain membership without observing. That tenet is that members of the party have no country, and owe no "social patriotism" to the government from which they derive their citizenship.

In accordance with that tenet the Communist International, popularly known as the Comintern, in 1932 promulgated official instructions to all party members outside Russia.

To set up legal, semi-legal and illegal control committees of action in the munition factories, in ports, in factories, on railroads, and on ships, for the purpose of developing mass activity and carefully prepared protest signs and slogans to prevent the transport of munitions and goods.

When William Schniederman accepted citizenship from the United States, he did so upon the explicit moral, ethical and legal assumption that he renounced all allegiance to other countries and his full, undivided allegiance to this country.

When he was at that time, and remained for at least 13 years thereafter, under a secret understanding with the Comintern that he did not regard himself and would not act as a member of the Communist party, and not to the United States of America.

Comrade Schniederman took the oath of allegiance to the United States with his fingers crossed, his tongue in cheek, with mental reservations, with no intention of giving his undivided allegiance to this country. He became a citizen by fraud and deceit.

Which constitutes adequate ground for revocation of that citizenship.

HELP YANK

The weekly official service men's newspaper, Yank, is asking for subscribers from civilians who are interested in members of our armed forces. We have no hesitation in suggesting that our readers cooperate.

A good service men's publication — and Yank is a first class one — is creating and maintaining morale among the fighters. To publish such a newspaper costs money. The small subscription price is a petty contribution to such a cause.

And, if this has any bearing, we might add that you would enjoy Yank.

REORGANIZATION—NOT SCARCITY

One inconvenient but really unimportant phase of the current economic adjustment will be the disappearance of favorite brands from store shelves. In most instances this will result from action by suppliers but not from reorganization of supply methods which is designed to lighten the burden on our transportation system.

So when you cannot find, let us say, the Edin brand you like best, don't get panicky. Probably Edin had to be given hundreds of miles, and also probably, that is something just as good, just as tasty, just as nutritious, made in your own vicinity, of which the grocer has plenty.

SUITS WORK BOTH WAYS

We incline to think of submarines as a horrible menace, which they are. But let's not forget that they are a two-edged menace. The Germans used them first, or no civilized nation could have realized their potentiality. But fighting fire with fire, we are now ready, at least as effectively as we are our enemies.

When Japan is beaten and the details of this war become published, it may develop that American submarines played a major part in bringing victory.

STOOGES

Expert students of American foreign policy are now pointing out the fact that the United States has been indulged in a policy of "stoging" the Axis. This is a fact that the public has not realized.

The secretary of state is playing a close exhibit when he surrounds the great white-headed member of the house of representatives. It is not generally known that the light-lightness was not a small fortune by winning the right cards on the ship which brought him back from the Spanish-American war. As this column has noted, it is a fact that the United States has been indulged in a policy of "stoging" the Axis.

Now he has clipped a page from the Japanese version of Inter-lease. Whenever Washington protested to the military necessities of the United States, the Japanese foreign office used to reply, "So sorry, 'cause, please, but it is an army matter and we cannot interfere." They did not want to know what Mr. Hull will offer the same explanation, as he has done in the past. He has done in the past. He has done in the past.

HOOKEY

The President could build strength and prestige for himself and his administration by would send up the nomination of Majority Leader Alben Barkley (D) of Kentucky to the supreme court. He would send up the nomination of Majority Leader Alben Barkley (D) of Kentucky to the supreme court.

It is not generally known that the light-lightness was not a small fortune by winning the right cards on the ship which brought him back from the Spanish-American war. As this column has noted, it is a fact that the United States has been indulged in a policy of "stoging" the Axis.

One thing led to another, and Mrs. Thum said she still had some scrapple which she brought back from Pennsylvania, and if they had some more, she would be glad to come to her house on Saturday for luncheon.

She can find some beet on the way home, that's what we'll do, volunteered Mrs. Anderson. And so was the beet found, and the luncheon was had, and that's all there was to it.

CLAPPER'S OBSERVATIONS ON NAIONS AT WAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24—Lend-lease is now being put to a new use, an uncharacteristic and unapproved use in North Africa.

The policy is even broader than that in Italy. President Roosevelt has announced his decision to send the British the tools and equipment that they need to win the war in North Africa.

It means that if we get into Italy and France, and any other country, we will be carrying on the fight against the Axis powers. There is the first step to make sure from day to day that the Axis is in the line of our operations where they belong. And a needle and thread for good measure.

UNITED STATES OF BRITISH FLEET JOIN EIGHTH ARMY AT BENGHAZI

RETREATING FOES CLEAN OUT CITY

BENGHAZI, Libya, Nov. 23 (AP)—Units of the British fleet arrived in Benghazi harbor today, Gen. Sir G. H. H. Robertson's eighth army occupied the second city of Italian Libya evacuated hastily.

The naval and ground forces arrived simultaneously in a demopu of forces that met in the city to the enemy, to discover that the fleeing axis troops had picked the city clean when they evacuated three days ago.

Gen. Rommel's forces had taken on a demopu of forces and cut off from private apartments and the Arabs had taken their own goods to the desert; the Germans did not return.

Wreckage of Ships

The harbor, the best in North Africa west of Alexandria and east of Tunis, was littered with the wreckage of many ships.

One ship, a tanker, was still burning after the bombing of the harbor about a week ago by allied air forces. The wreckage of the heavy bomber, attacked by U. S. Army Consolidated B-24s, was scattered all over the harbor.

The Germans concentrated on the harbor. The breakwater was entirely smashed, and in many places was submerged.

The Germans apparently had been making an effort to repair jeties in the harbor to allow supplies for the Afrika Korps. Long lines of flat cars were docked, loaded with cement, crushed rock. Some of them had been refilled by the aerial blast.

Air Shortages

The axis was having trouble adequate supplies of oil and ammunition, a factor that contributed to its retreat.

The northern route to Benghazi, by which we arrived this evening, was with many tanks, was still being used. It was reported that the heavy bomber, attacked by U. S. Army Consolidated B-24s, was scattered all over the harbor.

Navy Doesn't Pledge What It Can't Give, Idaho Chief Says

The navy makes no promise to a recruit that it does not fulfill, Leut. G. A. Hebert, base, head of the navy recruiting staff in Idaho, said in an address before the personnel of the local recruiting station today.

He visited Twin Falls while on his quarterly inspection tour of the state's stations.

"If you promise a boy that he will become a radio technician if he enters the navy you must be sure that you can fulfill that promise," the lieutenant told Chief Edmund Hanson and his staff of recruiters here. "And that goes for every other branch of the navy in which boys seek to enlist."

JAPS UNABLE TO ADVANCE IN ASIA

By LOUIS F. KEENLE

Of the United Press War Desk

Good news for the cause of the United Nations comes not only from the Russians and North African fronts, but from the southwest Pacific and Asia.

Allied air activity against Burma and Indo-China fronts has exposed the inability to make effective counter-moves at present, despite the day when allied forces will move into Burma to open the back door to China.

Such a drive has been confidently forecast by allied commanders in the far east, who see it as a necessary step in the Japanese main land forces of the Japanese.

Air Force Grows

Brig. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell, commanding army air force in southwest Asia, reports that the American air forces in India continues to grow. At the same time the Japanese have been unable to reinforce their own power sufficiently to cope with increasing and destructive raids on their positions.

United States heavy bombers have attacked the Japanese base at Mandalay in Burma for the second time in three days, causing considerable damage. The bombers met with little opposition. The bombers also have attacked Hanoi, Tonkin, Hainan in Indo-China, and other points, centering on airfields, railroads and port installations.

Kept Busy Elsewhere

Gen. Bissell said that the Japanese are being kept so busy elsewhere that they are unable to send reinforcements to the area, which is threatening to become a new theater of war.

The Japs' strength has not exhausted but it is becoming apparent that their lines are too extended for effective operations on most of the fronts.

Despite a major fleet concentration, the Japanese were soundly defeated in the Solomons and the Japs are being held up to gain a foothold on Guadalcanal. They have their backs to the sea on New Guinea and seem destined to face their strategic bases there.

The conclusion seems inescapable that the Japanese have been thwarted in their ambition to invade India, take control of the Bay of Bengal and the Indian ocean, and march into the Middle East.

SUGGESTS WAR BONDS WITH FIRST BILL TO BE DRAFTED

Editor, Times-News:

Since the senate citizens' act has been approved by the House, and since our governor has put his face in force, may I suggest that we do not wait until the end of the year to issue a bill to buy a $25 war bond with the first check we receive?

This war, too, can do our bit to win the war.

Editor, Times-News:

The walls of some big state school districts, and the rich about the old age 40 are a nuisance. Two years ago Gen. Clark wanted the state to issue a bill to give the money to give the needy and a pension that would give them a decent living but there were enough officials who had their hands in their pockets to block Gen. Clark.

SOLONS TOLD OF LUMBER TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—William B. Greely, manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, told the senate committee investigating the war that a nation's lumber production facilities are "strained to the utmost" because of shortage of manpower and lumbering facilities.

Greely told the committee, headed by Sen. Harry S. Truman, D. Ia., that his company alone had behind 1,000,000 board-feet a day in its delivery of orders, many of which are for the federal government.

"The main reason our situation is so tight," Greely added, "is the large number of specialized items we are required to deliver."

As an example of the need for specialized trees, he cited evergreen requirements of airplane manufacturers for high-grade lumber in making planes. Airplane requirements, he said, have multiplied four times since Pearl Harbor.

Greely said the shortage of workers was rapidly becoming acute, and that more new trucks must be given lumbermen if they are to increase production.

Nevertheless, he added, the west coast lumber industry is "adequate to meet the needs of the war and essential civilian needs."

Greely said more than 7,500,000 board-feet of lumber has been produced this year more than was produced during the whole of 1941.

Average per acre yield of 8,000 to 10,000 woods. Destructive 25,000 and loppers 23,000.

MeT Club Accepts Challenge of 'Women at War' Buys Stamps

Members of the MeT club put the "young women" into the Women at War week Sunday when, in response to roll call, they bought United States war savings stamps to the total of $78.50, or an average of $2.45 a member.

Accepting the challenge of Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, jr., that "the success of this week does not depend on 'the woman next door,' but depends on the woman we face in the mirror each morning," the girls made the buying of stamps their personal responsibility.

Holiday Planning

The meeting was held at the home of Miss Mary Virginia Brown. Plans were made for the annual Christmas party Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at the home of Mrs. J. C. McCallister.

All alumnae members of the club are being urged to secure their stamps from Miss Jean Dinger, phone 821-J.

A song practice was conducted, and several songs introduced. The MeT club also made a patriotic contribution to the war effort at its Sunday meeting when the girls voted to emit punch, decorations and dance programs at the holiday dance Dec. 23, in keeping with the theme earlier in the year in curial club expenses during wartime.

Expenses Curtailed

The dance, a private party for members, and the Christmas party will be formal, however, and will be held at Radway's.

Plans for the dance were made Sunday at the home of Miss Leah Hays. Mrs. Jean Hays was chairman of the intermission program.

Plans were also made for a party Dec. 29 honoring "Patricia," ward of the club. The courtesy will be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Kimes.

Miss Martin Teague was placed in charge of the Christmas dinner basket this year.

During the informal social hour, Miss Bern Hollock and Miss Vera Menke were honored. Both are leaving Twin Falls soon to make their home elsewhere.

Alpha Nu Dance

Also meeting Sunday were members of the Alpha Nu club. The group, assembled at the home of Miss Vera Bell, completed plans for the annual Christmas dance Dec. 17 at the Radio Rostow.

Mrs. W. J. Tanner and Miss Elizabeth Hollingsworth, sponsors, were present to assist in the completion of dance plans.

Former Resident Of Burma Will Address Pupils

Miss Egan Hunt, who spent four and one-half years in Burma, and is now teaching at the Japanese relocation center at Hunt, will be the guest speaker at the "Thanksgiving assembly" at the Twin Falls public school auditorium Wednesday, Nov. 25.

The program has been arranged by the presidents of the units of the Girls' League, including Betty Jerkey, Miss Carmen Vazquez, Miss Bingham and Miss Grace Wegener.

Miss Genevieve Salmon, president of the Girls' League, will be the presiding officer.

Miss Wegener will give a reading, "Thanksgiving 1942," Barbara Beymer and Mrs. Marilyn North will play a piano duet, "Enchantment." Leroy Elders will give a talk on "America, 1942."

Miss Marjorie Albertson will direct the group singing.

Bonnie Catmull To Become Bride Sunday, Nov. 29

BURLY, Nov. 24 — Mrs. Fred O'Connell announced that her daughter, Miss Bonnie Catmull, 25, will be married Sunday, Nov. 29, to LeRoy Bredert Stimpney, of the U. S. army, on duty at Farragut naval base near Oyster Bay, N. Y.

The wedding is scheduled to take place at the Washington Hotel, Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. O'Connell and her daughter, Miss Amy Lou Skiles, will attend.

Mrs. Catmull until recently was employed in Washington, D. C., and is now on duty with Commander Dumuk at the naval base.

Authoritative Reasons for Bread's Importance

No. 8

EAT THE RIGHT FOODS!

America NEEDS US STRONG

"Believing housewives of the lack of home baking is another economic service rendered by commercial bakers. In 1900 all but 3 per cent of baking was done at home. Today the proportion is reversed, 35 per cent of all baking and 60 per cent of baking in urban areas being done by professional bakers. On this basis it is estimated that bakeries save every American housewife an equivalent of two weeks time annually. Surprisingly enough, the housewife pays little or nothing for the privilege of buying her bread ready-baked. Advantages in quantity purchase of ingredients, mass production, and other factors make it possible for the professional baker to sell bread for precisely what the housewife would pay for the ingredients and fuel required to make it."—Encyclopedia Americana.

Altruists Plan Yuletide Party

Altruist class of the Church of the Brethren met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moon. Miss Ruth Miller led the devotional period, and Mrs. E. L. Tenberry offered prayer.

Plans were made for the Christmas party Dec. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mitchell.

Ninety-five per cent of the money in the Christmas seal campaign remains in the state in which it is raised. Five per cent goes for the national campaign.

An Economic Advantage For Busy Housewives

With a shortage of help, food costs mounting, and all of us spending more and more of our time in aiding the war effort, what housewife can afford to waste her time baking bread, particularly when it costs her little or nothing for the privilege of buying her bread ready-baked? By eating BUTTER-KRUST, you'll not only have better bread than that's fresh every day, but its added vitamins and minerals as well. Not only that—but at no extra cost, you'll save yourself worry and fuss, time and trouble.

NAZIS REPORTED PLANNING EXECUTION OF JEWS IN POLAND

50 PER CENT TO BE SLAIN BY '43

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Hitler's Himmeler, head of the Nazi Gestapo, has ordered that one-half of the large Jewish population in occupied Poland be exterminated by the end of the year, reports from the Polish underground in Warsaw to the Polish government-in-exile here said today.

The first step in the bloody program, it was said, would be to kill 50 per cent of the Jews of Poland by the end of 1942. The remainder would be "liquidated" later.

There were 3,125,000 Jews, or 2.5 per cent of the total population in Poland according to the 1931 census, but the Germans during more than three years of occupation have reduced this number by killing thousands outright or permitting them to die of starvation and disease.

Carry Out Program
Special Nazi "liquidation" battalions, commanded by members of the notorious SS elite guard, were said to be carrying out Himmeler's program. These squads were dragging Jewish victims from their homes or seizing them in streets and driving them to village and town squares in mass formations for execution, the report said.

Old men and women and cripples were singled out to be herded to cemeteries where they were mowed down by firing squads, Polish sources said. The Nazis made no attempt to prove that the Jews had committed any crimes or violated German regulations.

Packed in Freight Cars
Jews who were not executed immediately, it was reported, were packed into freight cars—150 packed to a car that normally was large enough for only 10—and taken to undisclosed points for liquidation.

The floors of the cars were covered with a thick layer of lime or chlorox sprinkled with water and the doors were tightly sealed. In some cases the trains reportedly remained on a siding for two days before departing, and many of the Jews died of suffocation. The dead were left in the cars with the living.

CITIZENS' GRANT NOW IDAHO LAW

BOISE, Nov. 24 (AP)—By proclamation of Gov. Chase, the senior citizens' grant initiative was a law today. The governor issued the proclamation after the state canvass determined it had secured a majority at the last election.

The attorney general is now scanning the law for any legal flaws and with the department of public assistance, is preparing a plan of operation for submission to the federal social security board.

Last week, Clark ruled that to gain the board's approval in time to meet December payments of the 40-month period, and that there were sufficient moneys in the public assistance fund to meet the increased costs.

Meanwhile, Gov. Chase, C. A. Doolittle said passage of the initiative measure was a "great step" and said he would "do everything in my power to bring about the necessary action to pay the 40-month pension and such other benefits as are provided for in the initiative measure."

He added that the "apparent high cost of the benefit payments will make a difficult job for me in effecting certain economies which I had intended to carry out."

"The people can rest assured, however, that the state administration is nevertheless going to cut down expenses right and left with the full realization that such action is a drastic necessity so the people can pay the mounting costs of war."

Bottolfsen left for his home in Arco today to outline his legislative program and prepare his inaugural message before returning to Boise Dec. 1.

Col. Roosevelt Brings 2 Texas Gremlins to Help Africa War

By JOHN A. PARHIS
ADVANCED U. S. ARMY AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, ALBANY, Nov. 20 (AP)—"Pat De" and "Navaio Joe"—a pair of Texas gremlins, arrived today after a flight with Lt. Col. Elliot Roosevelt, to join an allied advance gremlin force assigned to locate axis air forces in north Africa.

The two gremlins were flown here by Col. Roosevelt in the plane, "I Got Spurs," for the specific purpose of invading axis territory and throwing a few monkey-wrenches into the machinery of the enemy war machine.

It marked the first invasion of African territory by the mythical gremlin, and their first activity on the side of the allied forces. Previously, they had been playing hide-and-seek with British and American plane crews over England.

This correspondence made the acquaintance of Patrol Pete and Navaio Joe during a 25-mile flight with Col. Roosevelt, who was proud of his gremlins.

They hopped from our gun to another throughout the flight, pausing only long enough to enable him to catch the first insect with the little men who ride the stars with their pilots. Col. Roosevelt was their spokesman.

VENEREAL RATE IN ARMY DROPS

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24—The rate of venereal disease in the American army in the United States has been falling ever since Pearl Harbor.

The decrease breaks all American military records in war or peace. It signifies a change of wider significance in its promise to carry over to peacetime into a new high of national health.

For the home folks are beginning to cooperate with the army and navy to make venereal disease control primarily a public health measure, a medical job instead of only a political football and a moral issue.

Lowest Rate
The army rates cannot be published, due to war department requests. But the broad facts are available.

In this army, the highest venereal rate never has been up to the lowest of the World War. The rate in turn was way under the Civil war.

The drop which began after Pearl Harbor is considered mainly due to medical rather than patriotic and psychological reasons, Pearl Harbor considered with completion of medical organization, which placed a venereal disease control officer in every military encampment. The work of these officers quickly showed results.

Their main weapon was curbs on commercial prostitution and on the profits of men and women operators who procured "girls," and at the graft-picking them.

Also at the officers' disposal, and having better to do in the Navy act. This law makes commercial prostitution a federal offense in areas near military encampments. The act was adopted by congress in July, 1941.

Under the act, engaging in prostitution or acting it are punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or one year's imprisonment, or both.

Invalider
In 1930 the cabbage butterfly arrived in Canada from Europe. Just 20 years later it invaded the United States by air. From border to border and from coast to coast.

HAGERMAN, Nov. 24—The Rebekah lodge has elected the following officers: Noble grand, Mrs. Ward Marsh; vice-noble grand, Mrs. Ed Owsley; secretary, Mrs. John Stark; financial secretary, Mrs. Ralph Pajlin; treasurer, Mrs. Maurice Bevin; and district deputy, Mrs. J. H. Wagner. Mrs. D. E. Stacy became past noble grand.

Mrs. Marsh will appoint the chaplain, inside and outside guardians, musician, warden and conductor. The installation will be held the first meeting in January. Refreshments were served.

Jap Violins Cheap

The cheapest violins are those manufactured in Japan, where the parts are pressed out of wood, instead of being carved by hand, instead in an inferior product.
