Allies Advance on Tunis Coastal Road

AERIAL BATTLES REPORTED FIERCE IN NORTH AFRICA

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE
LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)— Allied columns were reported advancing along the Tunisian coastal road toward Bizerte today while fierce air battles raged over the French protectorate and British and American forces prepared for the start of a knock-out offensive.

Radio Morocco said British forces were moving rapidly toward Bizerte already had fought several skirmishes with axis troops striving desperately to retain their foothold in North Africa.

Another column, driving toward Tunis, 25 miles southeast of Bizerte, was reported within 22 miles of the city.

Other parts of Tunisia, the Moroccan broadcast said, British, American and French troops had been ordered to advance in the last 48 hours of fighting.

Being Reinforced

Axis planes were bringing in increasing numbers of land reinforcements and raiding allied positions in Tunisia, Radio Morocco said enemy planes bombed the ports of Bizerte, Algeria, Libya, and raided adjacent areas, causing several casualties.

The station added that Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson, leader of the British army and American forces, was "at the point of starting a general offensive against Bizerte and Tunis."

French Troops Help

French troops were fighting alongside the British and Americans who were advancing southward to block any reinforcements attempting to move inland from Tripoli.

The axis was reported throwing large numbers of tanks into the Tunisian battle at the risk of weakening its strength on the Russian front and these were being met by American Lockheed Lightning fighters, P-38s which destroyed 14 enemy tanks, according to reports.

Italian Transporters

An Allied commando unit said the P-38 victims included four Italian transport planes, shot down at the Gulf of Gabes, and two huge German Junkers—88s—probably hit by the fighters.

It was reported that the transporters, one separate and tank and the other without loss to themselves.

Planes Returned

Axis planes returned safely, the communiqué said, "Four German planes were damaged and one pilot was killed."

Nazi air force bombers meanwhile plastered Bizerte "day and night" with incendiary bombs on the docks and axis shipping in the harbor.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

TROUBLE—Basic difficulty in this nation's rationing system is that there has been hardly any correlation between the military and domestic production. It seems almost incredible, but insiders insist that the army and navy have never sat down with Leon Henderson and his staff to work out much more definite plans. They need for the armed forces abroad, our allies and for softening up peoples subjected by the Nazis and the Japanese. The military command placed on A. D. B. card basis was compiled and allocated by the Hendersons without full knowledge of the demands which such a program as the military expansion and our successors will make on our home economy will become more and more burdensome.

The bread-and-butter troubles which this lack of coordination has created are the result of the Hendersons' creation of a rationing system for economic commission. It would resemble the rationing system so efficiently in the first World War, in short, it is that that Chief of Staff George C. Marshall and W.P. Ross Donald M. Nelson got together.

ANALYZING CURRENT NEWS FROM NEW YORK

RAINBOW—If the new Soviet of Moscow can be cut from solid ground, Hitler may discover that he has wasted an entire summer and an entire year. The lives to win a prize he cannot lose. The fact that this fact should have a shattering effect on the morale of the Reich is a fact which is being analyzed into the possibilities of a strategic alloy or capture of oil and food. Nazi certification in the Reich is being scored. A war less Berlin has scant room to show for all its mighty efforts.

An official report smuggled from Germany to New York shows that the Ukraine will soon supply more than 4,000,000 tons of grain. It is stated that harvesting is difficult because motor tractors were demolished and plow horses driven off. The report states that the Ukraine has a surplus of 100,000,000 bushels of grain. It is stated that the Ukraine has a surplus of 100,000,000 bushels of grain. It is stated that the Ukraine has a surplus of 100,000,000 bushels of grain.

NEITHER DID THE PURITANS

We don't have much coffee or tea or cocoa for this year's Thanksgiving dinner. Many meats now are rationed, something that our forefathers would not have dreamed of. The house or apartment isn't so warm as we would like. There's less wool in our new garments.

Wages are good, there is work for all, but prices are high, taxes are heavy, and we feel impelled to spend more for war bonds than we really can afford to save, so we can't buy the things we would like. For that matter, the stores do not have them anyway, so we couldn't buy them if we did have the money.

In many ways already we are worse off than in the depth of the great depression. New privations are in sight. Yet now comes Thanksgiving day and again we are supposed to wear a cheerful face and try to think up some blessings.

Well, misery loves company, so let's resurrect one of the Massachusetts Bay Puritans of 1621, in the autumn of which year the first Thanksgiving day was observed.

Sure, we are short of coffee and tea, spices and beef, gasoline and fuel oil and virgin wool in our store clothes. And how much of any of these do you suppose the Pilgrim Fathers had when in gratitude for their first-matched harvest, which was not rationed, while they went into the Indian-infested forests and shot; crude houses in which 65-degrees of heat anywhere except in front of the fireplace would have seemed miraculous.

Our sons, our husbands, our brothers and our friends are away from home, a few dead and more facing death. Their sons, husbands, brothers and friends already were dead—one out of two of them—dead for lack of the food, clothing, shelter which the most under-privileged family in America possesses.

Our Pilgrims thought up the idea of giving thanks for all they were given, without benefit of presidential proclamation.

We should have no difficulty, one year, in drumming up a little considered gratitude toward God, toward our forefathers, toward the land that has won for us and the freedom which has been ours.

We should find it easy, even in such a year as this, to be genuinely thankful that we have inherited blessings of democracy that are worth preserving at far greater price than that which we may have to pay in this war.

RAW TUCKER was an economic commission. It would resemble the rationing system so efficiently in the first World War, in short, it is that that Chief of Staff George C. Marshall and W.P. Ross Donald M. Nelson got together.

HAME—Mr. Henderson is one of the most admirable figures in the capital. He is a man with his political philosophy. As far as we know he was named price administrator last spring, he would resemble the rationing system so efficiently in the first World War, in short, it is that that Chief of Staff George C. Marshall and W.P. Ross Donald M. Nelson got together.

The curbs already imposed on our everyday life and the curbs that are being placed on us are far more burdensome than anyone suspects—have been proclaimed by Leon Henderson. He is a man with his political philosophy. As far as we know he was named price administrator last spring, he would resemble the rationing system so efficiently in the first World War, in short, it is that that Chief of Staff George C. Marshall and W.P. Ross Donald M. Nelson got together.

DON'T LAUGH AT CHILDREN'S MISDEEDS

On more than one occasion lately there has been published in the newspaper a column headed "Children's Misdeeds." The tone of the article was very high, even pious, touched with a certain amount of the childlike of the parents. Sometimes pictures of the children were published, their names and addresses together with an account of the family life. As one reads the articles the impression gained is that the writer thought the whole business a good joke. Just what the joke was on was never clear to me, and I do not know who the joke was on.

When a child takes money that he knows is not his to do with as his parents, and starts off on a trip without the consent of his parents, he is quite ignorant. He is in danger, serious danger. Imagine the plight of a child who has been taken away from his home, his family, his friends, and is left in the hands of strangers. He is in danger, serious danger. PAINT—Lack of necessary metals for ships, tanks and cannon forces manufacturers to seek substitutes in plastic. New York chemists contend that the new plastics are as good as the alloys which these modern substances can be put. Every day a new invention in this field is reported.

One of the latest is a pipe made from treated wood, so that it will without effort a man can balance seven 10-foot lengths on its shoulders and set it up in a few minutes. It is strong enough to support the weight of three men. Tomorrow's plumbers may need their trading tools. The new plastic is now being used in the construction of aircraft and actually molded to curved surfaces so that a section of the pipe can be used as a substitute for the side of a torpedo car. This process has limited possibilities. The new plastics are being developed. Tomorrow's plumbers may need their trading tools. AGRICULTURAL BENEFIT PAYMENTS MAY BE CUT FOR 1943

BUDGET BUREAU SLASHES FUNDS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Farm conservation benefit payments in 1943 may be reduced as much as 50 percent, the budget bureau today announced.

The half-billion-dollar amount authorized by federal crop control legislation for 1943 is being cut by the current year's budget. Agricultural department officials who asked that they not be quoted by name said the budget bureau has recommended a 50 percent cut in the appropriation of $400,000,000 for conservation payments to be distributed among farmers competing with next year's food program.

Appropriation cut for the current year was $400,000,000. The agricultural department had asked the budget bureau to recommend a similar appropriation for 1943, three officials said.

Points to advance in farm prices and to agriculture department reports that farm income was 25 percent greater than a year ago. Farm bureau officials were said to have taken the position at first that farm benefits payments should be reduced. They were said to have suggested $200,000,000 to finance payments to farmers who competed with soil conservation practices recommended by the agriculture department.

Funds Not Available. Department officials objected, it would not be available for payments to farmers for planting within their usual adjustment. Administration crop allotments for such crops as cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco, peanuts and potatoes. These allotments are designed to make the best possible use of acreage's limited production and production facilities in producing war food and fiber needs.

Agriculture officials argued that some farmers, not having the inducement of acreage payments, might ignore their allotments and produce crop and products not so greatly needed at the expense of war programs vitally important to the war program.

Budget officials were said to have been over to the extent of recommending $400,000,000—$200,000,000 for conservation practices and $200,000,000 for acreage compliance.

"BIGGEST" PARTY FOR EQUADOREAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—President Carlos A. Arango Del Rio of Ecuador was the guest of honor last night at a reception that turned out to be the biggest party in the history of modern Washington.

The oldest dancer could remember nothing like it. It was given by the Ecuadorian ambassador, Capt. Eloy Alfaro, at the Pan-American building in a Latin-American atmosphere that drew important names in diplomacy, government, the military services and society.

The perplexing dinner gave up trying to keep count of the thousands who made the trip that at times took 15 minutes up the handsome stone stairs to the second floor to meet the President. They came up sometimes 17 abreast.

There were such "names" as Mrs. Cordell Hull, wife of the secretary of state; Senora De Euzil, the American-born wife of the Argentine ambassador; Martin L. Litvinov, Soviet ambassador, and Madeline Livingston, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of President Wilson; Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles; and Mrs. Walter Dill Scott, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

President Arango arrived early to attend in a simple ceremony the bust of Ecuador's national hero, Francisco de Paula Moreno, patriot, which has been placed in the hall of heroes on the second floor of the Pan-American building. Afterward, for an hour and 30 minutes, he stood beside it to greet guests—some estimates were as high as 4,000.

Goebbels Hints Germans Being Swayed by Allied Propaganda

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—A revealing article by German Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels broadcast by the Berlin radio last night indicates the German people are being swayed by allied propaganda and are concerned about the German retreat.

Further, throughout the article is the strong suggestion that the Nazi leaders are gravely worried about German morale.

In one of the most interesting articles Goebbels has ever written in the weekly publication Das Reich, the propaganda minister told the Germans they must try to surpass the enemy not only in gains in territory but also in the art of mastering reverses.

Says Spirit Heightened "Obstacles on the road to victory only heighten our spirit of attack and occasional reverses encourage us to fresh achievements," he said. "The German propaganda minister has not seemed so concerned as any other matter since his speculative articles on the second front that the enemy will only in gainly victories but also in the art of mastering reverses."

At the outset of his discourse, he said: "It is he who approaches his objective never looking to the left or right and justifying his actions by their success rather than by morals who has the advantage in war."

Modern Theory Obviously concerned about the effect of the allied news and perhaps allied war aims are having on the German people, Goebbels propounded the "new theory" that a modern day "might makes right" theory. "It is not so much a matter of might as it is of spirit and of will, which is not to be underestimated."

Here Is One Father's Reason For Speeding up Production

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Newspapers today printed a full-page advertisement for the Carrier Corp., makers of air conditioning and refrigeration equipment. It was this father's reason for speeding up production of his "fellow workers in factory and office."

"Sixty weeks ago my only son was killed in the war. Most of you know this but you can't possibly know how Hardy's mother and I feel. That is, none of you except Walt Gardner, who just lost his boy."

"Since Hardy's death I've been doing a lot of thinking. What has made us figure out is why so many of us are taking things for granted and not doing all we can to help win this war."

"Maybe it's because we keep hearing and talking about the war last year. That sort of thinking might keep anyone from hurrying. It could be that this long-pull stuff was made up. We can't win a million minutes of production time last month through absences and tardiness."

"Anyway I'm fed up with all this talk about a five or 10-year war. We've got to win this war quick. We've got to."

Charlie Chaplin Salutes Russia

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—Charlie Chaplin, comedian turned soldier, today saluted Russia in a radio-broadcasting occasion as he saluted Russia for "the unselfish fight you are making for freedom and for your courage and spirit of enterprise."

"Speaking at a salute to our Russian heroes," Chaplin declared, "I am very happy to have the full cooperation of Russia in this anti-communism propaganda."

He observed that the word "communist" has become quite popular all over the country. Let us hope that after the war it will be just as popular in the peace time.

Paying further tribute to Russia as an ally, he said, "I feel that we must fight every inch of the way to get out, that is, if they ever do get out."

Log Rush Starts Early as Rivers Thaw in Potlatch

LEWISTON, Ida., Nov. 26 (AP)—The drive of white pine logs from the north fork of the Clearwater to the mill pond of Potlatch, Inc., here, scheduled for the week of April 1944, was given a premature start by a freakish turn of the north fork of the Clearwater. Millions of feet of lumber have arrived at the mill pond and the heavy flow is continuing.

For several days chinook winds swept the forested area of the Clearwater and sent the water racing to the north fork to cause the early freshet.

Allies Don't Want Hitler 'Quislings'

LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Anastoyev, former minister of the retreating Czech government, warned in a broadcast to Czechoslovakia last night that Germany's "quislings" would not be welcomed into the allied camp.

"Only rats leave a sinking ship," he said. "The period for rats is approaching. In the last few days they have received messages from two rats in our territory via neutral countries. They tell me they really want to go with Hitler—they only pretended to do so. They implore me to believe them."

"I answer them here and now: Although I do not believe you, I nevertheless advise you to beware of the rat's paws on the blacklist. For rats, there is the rat, fox, black cat and poison."

BARKLEY CALLS "HARMONY SESSION" FOR DEMO LEADERS

CONFLICT LOOMS ON 2 MEASURES

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—In an apparent effort to reduce the animosity among senate Democrats, Majority Leader Barkley of Kentucky today called for a "harmony session" to be held tomorrow to meet the legislative program for the rest of this session.

Before the 19-member majority group will be proposed to seek action on two legislative proposals: $100,000,000 in federal grants to states for education, and a bill providing a pension advance pay for government employees.

Both measures have been on the senate calendar for some time and pressure has been exerted on Barkley to present them in a motion on Jan. 2, with the present congress on its last day.

As a change in vote on the federal education bill.

Although the poll tax measure finally was killed when a motion to limit debate was defeated, Barkley's efforts to act before the senate adjourns are being made by Democratic colleagues on the south.

PRODUCTION FIGHT IN HANDS OF FDR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The fate of war production board Chairman Donald M. Nelson's effort to direct control of the war production program from the armed services and place it under civilian direction reportedly is in the hands of President Roosevelt today.

Reports of officials indicated that determination of the struggle, which has raged fiercely behind the scenes here for nearly a fortnight, might come this week.

If Nelson wins, the outcome probably will be disclosed in announcements that he has issued a directing plan to exercise control over the many-sided production effort in the hands of WPA Vice Chairman Charles E. Wilson, former head of General Electric Co.

Nelson has prepared such a directive but, according to best available information, he has not yet secured it or the authority to appoint heads of the armed services. He took his first long step toward gain control of the production program last week when he created a four-man board to exercise supreme control over the program.

Wilson, who would act as chairman, would have the final word in case of a tie between the members of the board. The new agency would take away from the armed services scheduling, expanding and supervisory tasks now being performed by them.

Word that a three-undersecretary struggle was in progress between Nelson and the services came when Nelson announced the new alternate group of military and naval officials of the army and navy. He has taken the position that President Roosevelt would not approve the group without his proper exercise of that authority.

WAYNE R. GENTRY ON MISSING LIST

Lt. Wayne R. Gentry, U. S. marine corps pilot, is missing in action overseas, according to a geographic word received today from the navy department by his sister, Mrs. John A. Gentry, Kimberly.

Lt. Gentry was reported only Monday as having arrived safely overseas. Neither that word nor the report that he is now missing in action contained any reference as to whether the flier was England, Africa or the south Pacific.

Because of the fact that fully half a dozen Marine Veterans reported an incident here later received, members of Lt. Gentry's family said they could not give up hope that the flier may have been forced down and will later be found.

The flier young man was formerly an athletic star for the Willard school and was a member of the University of Idaho southern branch, where he also starred for Bengal teams. He was recently home on furlough.

GIDEONS BANQUET HERE SATURDAY

The public is invited to attend a Gideon Society banquet to be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday at the Park hotel, with H. A. West, Portland, Ore., as the principal speaker. It was announced today by J. E. Zeczy, Gideon field secretary for the state of Idaho.

In addition to the speaker, who is an international trustee of the Gideon Society, there will be Gideon representatives here from Boise, Caldwell and Nampa.

The Gideons are associated with all evangelical churches. Many explained: "Placing of Bibles in hotel rooms and in other public places is one of their major activities. At present New Testaments are being supplied to every man in the armed forces of the United States."

The secretary said that pulpits of 12 Twin Falls churches will be occupied by members of the Gideon Society Sunday to further the program among men in the armed services.

FDR, Friends In Prayer at White House

(From Page One)
Today's song and prayer ceremony contracted sharply with the president's observance at Warm Springs, Ga. Mr. Roosevelt had planned to spend a few days at the Georgia spa, but was forced to change his plans suddenly and return to Washington 24 hours after arriving.

He said before leaving Warm Springs that by another Thanksgiving "our boys may be fighting" again in defense of their country. The sneak attack on Pearl Harbor came one week later.

The Rev. Howard S. Wilkinson, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church here, led the President and his government leaders in the responsive reading of the 103rd psalm. They sang together: "Path of Our Fathers—living still in spite of dungeon, fire and sword."

Dr. Wilkinson took his two boys from the eighth chapter of Deuteronomy and the sixth chapter of St. Matthew. Mr. Roosevelt sat with his wife and Secretary of State and Mr. Cordell Hull.

After the Lord's prayer had been recited, Dr. Wilkinson read a series of prayers from the Episcopal book of common prayer.

The services ended with the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

After the services, Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and a few guests sat down to a typical Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, chestnut dressing, deerfoot sausage, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Challenge Position

The services are challenging the position. Efforts to adjust the differences in conferences between Nelson and Lt. Gen. Brenton B. Spencer, chief of the office of services and supply of the army, have failed.

Nelson and Wilson had a "show-down" conference with the President yesterday. Nelson was scathing in his criticism of the office of services and supply of the army, which he said was "showing down" the President.

Wilson, who would act as chairman, would have the final word in case of a tie between the members of the board. The new agency would take away from the armed services scheduling, expanding and supervisory tasks now being performed by them.

Twin Falls Lions and Lionsess yesterday became better acquainted with the Manitoia relocation center, the first of the new centers to be held at Hunt, with Philip Schuler, assistant director, as the principal speaker.

In his talk on the relocation project, Schuler told the group that the ultimate object of the project is relocation of residents of Japanese ancestry, rather than permanent evacuation. He said that the project particular attention was called to hospitalization facilities and the need for a large number of beds.

The party was escorted through a model apartment, and the living conditions of the Japanese residents of the apartment, there were about 60 persons in the group that included the Japanese in the hall, and then toured the project.

"Women over here have a great opportunity during Women at War week, Nov. 22-28, to prove to the men over there that we are doing all in our power to help them."

That was the statement made by Harriet Elliott, assistant director of the women's section of the field division of the war savings staff in a communique to Mrs. John E. Hayes this week.

Mrs. Hayes is women's director in Idaho. The objective of the Women at War week is to give the greatest women's volume of war savings bonds and stamps since Pearl Harbor.

SUIT WILL TEST IRRIGATION LAW

NOISE, Nov. 25 (AP)—An irrigation hearing tentatively set for Idaho Falls Dec. 15 now stands today as a suit filed by the state water rights commission, in seeking to change certain provisions of the state irrigation laws.

The hearing will be on a provision by the Beneficial Life Insurance company to transfer water rights through the Beneficial Canal company and the Lewisville Canal company in the Hagle and Lewisville areas to the Great Western canal for use near Pahr, several miles farther down Snake river.

The hearing on the insurance company foreclosed on tracts of land watered by the upstream ditch and seek to leave the water diverted for use on more land farther downstream.

They said that "unless the canal company can give injury beyond a reduction of their assets under Idaho law, I believe I may have to approve the transfer."

In other words, I may have to approve the first of what may be a series of suits to break up some of the great irrigation projects which have made Idaho an agriculturally productive state.

I don't think that is right and I hope that these companies do take steps to give for a change in the laws so that this situation can be halted before it spreads to disastrous proportions.

Whatever decision Best reaches at the hearing, either side may appeal to the district court.

Drastic Slash in January's Draft Call Announced

NOISE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Idaho's January selective service call, originally scheduled to include the highest net sum yet to be "drastically reduced" to the August level, Lt. Col. Norman B. Adkison, state executive officer, said today.

He said present estimates were that 60 per cent of the January call would be made up of the younger men.

TAUSE A MOMENT...

Throughout the length and breadth of the Snake River Valley thousands of families will sit down to Thanksgiving Dinner... and it will be a traditional American dinner, with turkey perhaps and all the trimmings, prepared by mother's loving, skillful hands.

This is a war year, and some one who doesn't understand America or her ways might say: "What has a nation at war to be thankful for?" Well—even a war is something to be thankful for when the cause is righteous.

We can be thankful for America's united, unflinching will to win; for America's great might... her strength of spirit, her unbounded ability to produce and use effectively the weapons of modern war... so that our freedom and the freedom of the world's other peoples may be secured.

We can be thankful we are Americans, thankful for our plains, our forests, our mountains, our factories, our swift deep rivers, our rich redundant earth.

We can be thankful for our personal freedom in our homes, churches, industries, schools and businesses; thankful that we can think and speak our minds freely; thankful that we can make our own laws through our chosen representatives in government.

We can be thankful for our way of life, our freedom of enterprise, our free business and industrial system, our high standard of living, not the least of which is electric service and all the conveniences it brings to our personal lives. When you sit down to Thanksgiving dinner... pause a moment. Count the precious gifts America gives you to be thankful for.

THANK GODS
Thank God for this piece of death, son,
It's red and white and blue;
It has flown over this land for long, son,
And its future is up to you.
Thank God for the years that are gone, son,
That have founded our liberty.
Thank God for the men that have fought, son,
To save us from tyranny.
Thank God for the job that is yours, son,
Carry on the terrible fight!
Hold out your hand to the conquered,
And point them to the light.
Thank God again for that flag, son,
And every time that you do.
Remember, comrades, that you're living here
'Neath the red and white and blue.

Join Spars—If You're Seeking "Big" Romance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26—Here's a tip to a girl who is thinking of joining the Waves because her big romance is in the navy—join the Spars instead. A Wave can't marry a chap in the navy, but that prohibition doesn't apply to a Spars member of the new forming female auxiliary of the United States Navy.

This romantic tip developed today at the first press conference held by Lt. Cmdr. Dorothy Stratton, just sworn in as head of the Spars. She explained that neither Waves nor Spars may marry while in training. Afterward they may say "I do" to a fiancé in their branch of the service.

Otherwise, it is largely a matter of personal choice as to whether a girl should join the Waves or Spars. "The jobs will be very similar," said Lt. Cmdr. Stratton. "Women have traditionally been interested in preservation of life and property and that's one of the main purposes of the coast guard," she explained.

Spars and Waves will be trained for such naval duties, except that each will have its own special duties. Other substitutes of both will go to South America. The plan now is to send the enlisted personnel of both to a "boot" camp for instruction in the winter of '42 at Iowa State Teachers' college in Cedar Falls, Ia. After that they will go to specialty schools.

As the season wears on, your Christmas shopping manners are going to be more important than ever this year. More shoppers with money to spend, smaller sales staffs than usual and wartime regulations are making it difficult to find gifts for your loved ones.

Begin by making a list and giving some thought to what you want to give. Aim high and you'll find that gift will enable you to make up your mind more quickly and keep you from stalling other shoppers. It will save you time and money.

Do not buy gifts for your loved ones until you have made up your mind. Do not buy gifts for your loved ones until you have made up your mind. Do not buy gifts for your loved ones until you have made up your mind.

Many of us went to parties when we were young with the expectation that the party would be a success and perhaps we can return to some of the early customs and put a few of our parties in war savings stamps. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has suggested.

Former Resident of Burma Feted at Tea

An informal tea was held Wednesday in the Twin Falls high school dining room in honor of Miss Eeva Hunt, who was guest speaker at the assembly which preceded the tea. In her talk, Miss Hunt emphasized the fact that each one of us should have the courage necessary to meet any situation in which we are placed. To illustrate this point, Miss Hunt told about two missionaries in Burma who were traveling and met all sorts of hardships, but still one of the missionaries was able to talk about the beautiful trees and mountains they saw along their trip. Instead of the horrors which were encountered, she said that at that time England entered war and that the program was canceled.

"Be happy, make others happy" was the message Miss Hunt had to leave with all the young people of the Twin Falls high school. Mrs. Celestine Salmon, Girls' League president, was the presiding officer and presented Miss Grace Wegener, who read "Thanksgiving 1942".

Youngest of 5 Sons in Forces Dies in Action

WENDELL, Nov. 26 — As Mrs. Francis Clayton, 214 Gower, of Wendell, went with her son, Francis Glenn, 33, to the army induction station there to see him become the fifth of her sons in military service, a telegram arrived at her home telling of the death of the youngest son, Ferrie, in action with the navy overseas.

Until a few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Clayton and their family lived in the Wendell community and all are well known here.

Picture headlined, "The Five Fighting Claytons," and a new story appeared in a recent issue of the Star-Mercury Union received here. The five were: Raymond, 24, with the army in Hawaii; Francis Glenn, 33, who left for Monterey following induction; Earl, 27, in Alaska; Clifford, 25, in St. Petersburg, Fla.; and Ferrie, 20, who died in action.

Two other married brothers, Clifford and Blaine, came with their wives immediately from Oakland to be with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton after they received the news in message barren of details. Ferrie was a beam-man, second class. The Claytons also were cautioned against revealing where they believed him to be.

Ferrie was still in Yuba high school when the attack on Pearl Harbor came. He left school to enlist, and was ordered overseas June 13.
