high schools throughout the state and that if the present trend of resignations continues there will be 500 vacancies in Idaho during the 1943-44 term.

Many proposals to alleviate the teacher shortage were discussed. They included the lowering of certificate requirements; possibly a partial aid so that schools will be able to pay salaries comparable with those paid in war plants; the bringing in of teachers from states where low salary schedules exist; and the commingling of the minimum

Deferment Discussed

Also discussed was the consolidation of the smaller districts and the deferment by the selective service system of teachers in the technical schools. Many teachers of technical subjects have been drawn into war plants by the high salaries for such work.

The Schoolmasters, superintendents and trustees also considered the problem of administration involved in having to select a curriculum necessary to train high school students along technical lines suited to the war effort.

However, the big question before the educators was that of complying with the legal requirements in the case of the firm, as such.

Lieut. Comdr. John R. Nichols addressed the meeting on the navy enlistment plan for 17-year-old high school seniors who desire to become officers in the navy. He pointed out that enlistees would be allowed to complete their high school courses before being taken into the navy for a year's technical training. He said the officer would be withdrawn when selective service for the navy began to function.

Mr. Elected were: Charles Whitaker, Rupert, president, succeeding B. Norl Bailey, Twin Falls county; Edgar H. Olmsted, Twin Falls, vice-president, and W. A. Haie, Oakley, secretary-treasurer.

Ralph Nyblad, superintendent of schools at Rupert, presided at the meeting. A banquet was held in the evening.

- Dede Cranney, basketball coach at the University of Illinois, is recruited. He is going into war work and as yet no successor has been appointed. Plans are being made to appoint a coach from among the candidates to point to Hank Paus. There's been a terrible loss of men in the service. The ranks are low. All of war work has caused more urgent.
- And speaking of footballists, Walter M. Crane, popular Twin Falls football player, has been promoted to his position at the court house and also his position as chairman of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. He has not taken into consideration the fact that he had been helping the army and he thought it was time for me to pitch in and help in the war. He is going into some form of war work.
- Ward has just been received that F. F. Feldman, former Bellevue High School basketball player, is now serving as a lieutenant in the army. He is, I presume, stationed at Fort Dix, N. Y., awaiting orders.

- And more on Captain Halden's service. He has been retired to the United States to convalesce and will probably be home in a few months. He is married to a lovely woman, Maude Gakim U. Porter, son of District Judge W. W. Porter and Mrs. Porter, Twin Falls, Idaho. He is the prisoner of the Japs in the Philippine Islands.
- Leo Rice has purchased the business of the Wood River Implement Co. at Woodstock, Idaho. He is now in the Staff Sergeant Jay Kenney, Kimberly, has been reported at New Delhi, India. Hal H. Hargrove, who was commissioned as second lieutenant in the air corps at Stockton, California, has been promoted to first lieutenant. Hal's father, Peter and Frank L. Sumner, Dubuque, have enlisted in the army air corps.

They can't have the privilege of living. And making it possible for other kids in the world to have a Christmas of their own—to have that chance a part of your job.
- This year Christmas will mean more than it has for a good many years. It will be Christmas and that letter won't reach many of you until well after Christmas, let us

GERMAN DEMANDS ON FRANCE SHOCK EVEN PIERRE LAVAL

NAZIS REPORTED ASKING PARTY

By ROBERT DOWSON
LONDON, Dec. 19 (AP)—New German demands on the puppet Vichy government are so harsh they shocked even Pierre Laval, editor from Paris, where he had vainly awaited summons by Adolf Hitler to a conference in Germany, was explained as due to extreme anxiety over his own future and that of the Vichy government generally.

Spanish dispatchers said he had gone to Vichy to consult Marshal Philippe Petain, but all Petain told him was that he had better go back to Paris, where contact with Otto Aboel, the German envoy, arrive at some agreement at any cost, and try to get in personal touch with Hitler.

Normal communications between France and the outside world had been cut off for two days except through Germany.

A London Daily Mail Madrid dispatch said papers on the Lyons-Geneva, Switzerland train.

Laval, from at once a single French political party on national socialist, arrived at some agreement a body of armed national police to enforce "unity" on the country.

These advisers said Hitler seemed to be beginning to doubt Laval's ability to impose a suitable program upon France and that he might take some drastic action on the ground that France could not govern itself.

NAZI CASUALTIES REPORTED HEAVY

By The Associated Press
The Russians in the past month of winter warfare have officially announced the death or capture of 273,500 German and Rumanian soldiers in the fall of three major offensives.

In a special communique Dec. 12, the Soviet said that between Dec. 19, when the first winter offensive began, in the Stalingrad area, and Dec. 11 some 84,000 officers and men, one-fifth of them Rumanians, were killed and 72,400 others were captured.

The same communique said 25,000 Germans were killed and 2,100 were captured on the central front between Nov. 25 and Dec. 11.

The special communique early today (Sunday) telling of the third great winter offensive in the Don region, claimed that 20,000 Germans have been killed and 10,000 captured thus far in the new fighting.

BOISE, Dec. 19 (AP)—Patience of Mrs. Charles T. Bagger of Boise had been rewarded today.

For three weeks, the Boise mother visited the train daily to be believed that her son, a soldier attached to a cavalry outfit on the Pacific coast, would pass through Boise en route to another station.

Yesterday she saw him in one of the coaches of an eastbound train. She climbed on and rode with him the 70 miles to Glenns Ferry.

U. S., German Tanks Fire on Each Other--At 10-Ft. Range

By THIL AULT
Laval got in touch with the Paris collaborationist leader Marcel Deat, Madrid said, and Deat suggested that it was impossible to form a unified party now. Jacques Doriot, second ranking Paris collaborationist, was willing to aid in forming a single party but lacks a sufficient following, according to Madrid.

These advisers said Hitler seemed to be beginning to doubt Laval's ability to impose a suitable program upon France and that he might take some drastic action on the ground that France could not govern itself.

British Put Rommel in Reverse Again

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—James F. Byrnes, director of economic stabilization, today initiated an overhauling of government policy and procedure for gasoline and fuel oil rationing.

Byrnes, whose office is in the White House and who appears to be functioning more and more as a sort of "deputy president," directed heads of three agencies involved in gasoline and fuel problems to submit early reports on these two points:

1. "In what respects our existing policies and machinery may not be effective."
2. "What remedial action should be taken both for the present and the future."

The three top officials to which his request was dispatched are price administrator Leon Henderson, who directs the rationing machinery; petroleum administrator Harold I. Essex; and defense transportation director Joseph B. Eastman.

Byrnes also asked three more to meet with him Monday morning.

The "thunder" sign of the British and many other of the allies long has been "everything is ready" or "okay."

U. S., German Tanks Fire on Each Other--At 10-Ft. Range

WITH A UNITED STATES ARMED FORCE ON THE TUNISIAN FRONT, Dec. 14 (Delayed AP)—"A few years after the war, said Roka Cantrell will be telling the folks of Hendersonville, Ky., about the fight he stuck his head from the turret of his tank, saw a German tank parked two feet away and heard a German officer shouting at him in German.

Cantrell is a bit jittery now when he tells the story, but at the time he thought fact. He threw two hand grenades at the German and ducked back inside his armor.

The German officer also ducked. He backed his tank off for 10 feet and opened fire at Cantrell's tank, which was holding a bridehead.

One German shell knocked off the barrel of the American tank's center gun and four other shells penetrated the armor, wounding one man.

An American tank parked behind Cantrell's fired four shots at the German tank but it escaped in the darkness.

"We were parked by the roadside when a German soldier, walking stopped beside us and jabbered in German," Cantrell said.

We couldn't understand. I sent him back to the company commander. "A few minutes later I heard a whole approach and thought it was an American half-track. It pulled alongside in the darkness. I stuck out my hand to speak to them and I saw it was a German tank. I really dived fast."

Cantrell's crew later learned that the German soldier they met was a tankman, a deserter who was trying to surrender. He tried to tell them, and later succeeded in telling the company commander, that two German tanks were out of action on the nearby hillside but that a third was approaching them, and two German 88-millimeter (3.4-inch) guns were parked nearby.

American tanks and infantry were sent to the hill as the result of the deserter's information. They captured the gun positions easily.

I sure wish some of us could have understood that Jerry," Cantrell said. "We really would have been waiting for that tank."

In Cantrell's tank were Corp. Robert Eiler, Marlow, Okla.; Pvt. John Wideman, Clay Center, Kan.; Pfc. Shirley Swan, Hamburg, Ark.; Pvt. Menis Ridgely, Meza, Tenn.; and Pvt. Frank Bunner, Fairmont, W. Va.

British Told Not to Blush At U. S. Slush

LONDON, Dec. 19 (AP)—British girls who did not see and takes in the navy and army air forces installations' canten were officially assured today that there was no reason to blush and retreat when an American serviceman shouts, "Hi, ya, babe!"

"To them it will be merely a normal conversation opening, just as we might say, 'Lovely day, isn't it?'" a booklet issued by the institute to the girls explained.

The booklet is entitled, "When You Meet Americans." On no account, it emphasized, must an American be snubbed, "unless he really deserves it." It said a girl might properly be a little more friendly than she normally would.

"Don't talk about Chicago gangsters as if they represented 90 percent of the population of America," it said. "The films may have fostered this impression, but the majority live much as we do."

Many American expressions sound suspiciously like swearing, but are everyday words in the United States, "When You Meet Americans" continued.

If an American asks for a hot dog, he means "a fried sausage in a split roll." It said. A hamburger was defined as a "saucy little slice

HUNT FOR PLANE CONFINED TO AIR

BOISE, Dec. 19 (AP)—Search for an army training plane, missing since Dec. 9 in a flight from Burley to Boise, was restricted today to aerial reconnaissance only, but citizens, trappers, the state highway patrol and forest and gaming service workers were asked to keep a sharp eye out for the ship.

Capt. P. H. Farley, operations officer at Gowen field, said all ground crews had been pulled in a week searching for a plane reported to have crashed on Bennett mountain about 80 miles northeast of Boise.

"We've run down all reports and rumors," said Farley, "and they all proved of no avail."

Aboard the missing ship were Lieut. Ray Irving Glasgow of Luke field, Ariz., and Maj. H. W. Silvers of the northwest service command.

A split roll or between pieces of bread."

The booklet even touched lightly on the subject of drinking. It pointed out that an American means whisky and soda when he says highball, that many Americans don't drink even beer, and some are "up a pole," that apparently means in America that they are on the wagon.

Ceiling Boosted On Beans, Rice

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—The office of price administration today announced housewives have to pay slightly higher prices for dry edible beans, rice and dried fruit.

Increases were authorized to cover added costs of packaging and abnormal transportation charges.

A 10 cent package of dry edible beans will in the future cost 11 cents, a 12-cent package of rice will be 13 cents and there will be a one cent increase on dried fruits. Littered retained at 25 to 30 cents a pound.

Manufacturing of Clocks to Resume

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—The wartime alarm clock famine no longer will be a valid excuse next year for oversleeping and arriving late for work, the war production board said today.

Production of alarm clocks may be resumed early next year, the WPB said, after a conference with the non-jeweled clock and watch industry advisory committee.

The industry, WPB said, responded readily to a suggestion for a cheap priced "victory" model alarm clock, designed to use a minimum of copper and brass and with a non-metal case.

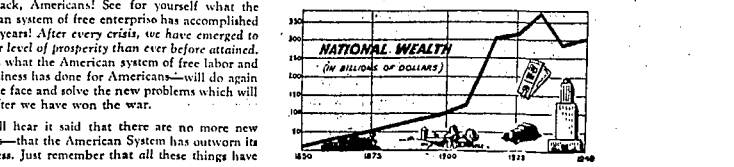

"I Tell You . . . There Are Bad Times Ahead"

In every crisis of American affairs for 300 years, there have been those who insisted that bad times were just around the corner. You hear them today—predicting nameless economic and social horrors for America after the war is over.

Look back, Americans! See for yourself what the American system of free enterprise has accomplished in 300 years! After every crisis, we have emerged to a higher level of prosperity than ever before attained. THIS is what the American system of free labor and free business has done for Americans—will do again when we face and solve the new problems which will come after we have won the war.

You will hear it said that there are no more new frontiers—that the American System has outworn its usefulness. Just remember that all these things have been said before, in times of stress—but America has never stopped growing greater.

And if we guard and preserve our cherished American system through the strain and trials of wartime, we will win the peace as well!

Look Americans! Since the beginning of time, the only road to prosperity has been PRO-DU-C-T-I-O-N and exchange of goods and services at a profit—the American system of labor and business.

From it you have earned personal benefits—your home towns have enjoyed increasing advantages—and your nation has become the richest on earth.

THE AMERICAN SYSTEM HAS CREATED THESE TANGIBLE THINGS FOR YOU:

- the highest standard of living in the world;
- the accumulation of personal savings and worldly possessions—your schools, your highways, your buildings—your life insurance, your home, your automobile;
- money to pay the cost of government, local, state and national, including the payment of governmental debt;
- And with it, you have the right to think, to speak and to worship as you choose—rights forbidden to millions not living under the free American system.

BRUINS TRIM BUHL IN FIRST HOME GAME OF YEAR

Cranney Crew Chalks up 34-22 Victory

Led by Leland Townsend, a towering center transfer from Pennsylvania, Twin Falls Bruins stayed on the victory road here Friday night by downing the invading Buhl Indians, 34-22.

The game was a ragged contest throughout, with the visitors and the locals both playing in spurts.

After Buhl had taken an early 10-0 lead and no other scoring had been done for the first half, the Bruins jumped into a 6-1 lead—only to have the Indians close in on them and tie the score at 10-10.

But the Bruins' brilliant marksmanship.

Bruins Lead

Twin Falls held a 6-0 advantage at the half, mostly on the strength of Townsend's points. But in the second quarter, Coach J. Jode Cranney's club went to town to extend the lead as Stan Pettigrove, Bud Davis, Bob Walker and Jode Cranney each chipped in a shot.

The third quarter saw Townsend beat in stride and the big center collected five more points, added two in the final frame for a 34-22 final score.

The Bruins extended their lead to 14 points in the third frame, but Buhl was still fighting and with only three minutes to go had cut the margin to eight points. It stayed there until the final 60 seconds when a couple of Bruin baskets extended the count and both coaches had reserves in the game.

First Game Close

As far as closeness was concerned, the first game between the Twin Falls Bruins and the Buhl Indians was a perfect play around an opponent.

The game was the second of the season for the Bruins, the local club having defeated Jerome in the opening game. Next Friday Twin Falls Bruins entertain the strongly favored Stanley club on the local floor.

Georgia Tech to Tackle Stiff Foe In Cotton Bowl

By HAROLD V. RAYLIV

AP Features

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 19.—The University of Georgia, champion of Southern conference football, is going to play Georgia Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

A far cry from a certain blur Monday in October of 1932.

Dann X. Bile, who had his office in the Georgia Tech building, before him a stack of letters and telegrams.

A few of them were sympathetic; most of them were harsh criticisms of Bile and his Texas football team.

At last, after a long wait, Bile was able to get a letter from the University of Texas.

Texas hadn't won a game and could hardly hope to win one. It was the all-time low in Longhorn football.

But the chumpy, bald-headed man had a grin, drawn face.

"This is going to be a long, hard fight," he said, "but I say to you we are going to win it."

There was cheer and stubbornness in a note of mystery in the color of this disappointed man, who a year and a half before had let it be known that he was going to start from the bottom building Texas' depleted football fortunes.

Deft From Ground up

So Bile built from the ground up. He had what he and everyone else thought his masterpiece in 1941. It was called "the greatest team in the Southwest conference history," but it stumbled in the stretch and lost the championship and a fling at Rose Bowl glory.

Well, the other day Bile stood on the steps of the University of Texas and he said, "I did it!" The Texas team had just finished beating Texas Tech, 20-10, for the conference championship.

Not a bold hand of climax arises in the face of his triumph, but a plugging, plunging, hard-working, self-effacing game like the Longhorns of 1942.

"It's the finish that counts," said Bile, after his boys had come back to drive to Longhorn with only 40 seconds to play, and win the championship that the brilliant, energetic staff of 1941 could not win.

It's not a sensational team—one that spurs, it's a team that does things the hard way. It's the greatest triumph—the defeat of A. M. Thompson, the team that had to do it that way. It came ripping and snorting into a tough Aggie line. Once it was stopped.

Sparkplug of the team is Roy McVey, a 190-pound fullback who led the conference in ground gaining and ranked with the best punters and passers. But there also are tackle and a speed demon, Matt Minor, another trackman-halfback, and Spot Collins, a great blocker and defensive end.

The line is a thing of beauty—Andy Gill, center; Harold Fischer and Jack Freeman, guards; Stan Mauldin and Zueli Conner, tackles; Wally Scott and Joe Schwartz, fullbacks; and a reserve strength to burn.

Georgia Tech may beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl but it will know it's been in a ball game.

"The finish is what counts," says Dana Bile.

GIRL ACCQUITTED OF SLAYING MAN

BISHOP, Ariz., Dec. 19 (AP)—Margaret Herlihy was acquitted tonight of the murder of Capt. David D. Carr, 27-year-old Fort Huachuca anti-tank officer, who was fatally shot in the girl's home last Aug. 14.

The 21-year-old defendant, daughter of Lt. Col. Edward G. Herlihy of Fort Benning, Ga., and a former communist, of infantry at Fort Huachuca, where he was Carr's superior officer, waited in the courtroom, surrounded by members of her family and army officers.

Mrs. Herlihy, an expectant mother next spring, asked as the verdict was read, but otherwise remained calm. Her brother, John, 17, reacted over and pulled her on the shoulder.

Colonel and Mrs. Herlihy, both of whom had testified in their daughter's defense, the mother dramatically demonstrating on a Negro lieutenant how Carr was fatally wounded, were unmoved for the moment.

As the jurors were dismissed they filed by the counsel table and shook hands with the red-haired girl and wished her happiness.

Cleared by Jury

Mrs. Margaret Herlihy was acquitted Saturday afternoon after trial for the murder of Capt. David D. Carr, army officer shot to death at her home Aug. 14, 1942.

War Memos Mark New 'Phone Book

The war makes its first appearance on the front of the telephone directory with the December semi-annual booklet now being distributed.

A box beside the "spirit of communication" illustration calls attention to the company policy that "war calls come first." Patrons are asked to "make only essential calls" and "be brief."

Telephone subscribers also are warned not to make any telephone calls during or immediately after a blackout, "as it is essential that the lines be kept free for use by the defense authorities."

Blagost, other difference in the new book from the old is the brown ink used on the cover, rather than blue. Clansy W. Abbott, 620 Fourth avenue north, again appears first in the Twin Falls division, and John Zurek, who lives on a ranch west of the city, again is the last of the 24. There are only six Q names in the new book, compared to seven in the old, and there are again no Xs in the book.

Farm Fire Losses In State Cut to $115,000 in 1942

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Dec. 19—Because nearly every county in Idaho had some form of rural volunteer fire protection under the emergency fire control project, Idaho agriculture came through the first fire season of World War II with relatively few fires and a comparatively small loss, Rosale K. Pierson, university extension forester, has announced.

"At the height of the season 41 counties reported the organization of 675 volunteer companies.

The record for the year shows that 278 volunteer companies responded to 194 fires. In checking these blazes 2,411 men contributed 4,390 man-days of work. As usual, lightning was the principal cause of rural fires, accounting for 54 railroads and cereals, growers ranked second with 17 each. Debris burning and farm machinery used for third place with 11 each.

Despite the heroic efforts of the volunteer firemen, approximately 250,000 acres of crop and range land were burned. The majority of the fires occurred in the counties lying at low elevations, in which are located large areas of open range land. Losses of crops and forage are estimated at approximately $100,000 while those for farm structures are placed at $15,000.

For every dollar lost to fire during the season over $4 was saved. Crops and forage saved were reported at approximately $915,000 while structures saved were reported at $151,500.

"Grain fires were few and losses were held to a minimum as a result of the general fire consciousness provoked by the fire-prevention activities of the volunteer companies," Pierson stated.
