

TWIN FALLS TRIBUNE

Two Killed, Five Captured as FBI Ends Touhy Gang

By GILES FINDLEY

CHICAGO, Dec. 23 (AP)—The "Terrible Touhy" gang, described by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover as "the most vicious and most dangerous the country has ever had," was smashed by the FBI last night and early today, two members by killing and five by capture.

Announcement of the roundup, in which not a single FBI man was injured despite a gun-battle with the two felons who were slain, was made by Hoover at offices of the FBI. He said he had been in Chicago, where the gang was rounded up, since Sunday and the seizure represented weeks of careful planning and timing.

Gang Smashed

The gang had been hunted since Oct. 9 when Touhy, leader of the gang that raided Chicago's north side, and five other members, including a doctor, were shot down when they attempted to escape from a hiding place near the city's Loop. The doctor, Edward J. Martin, was killed. The other four were captured and are now in custody.

Surrender to FBI

Touhy and his first lieutenant, Basil Banghart, the only surviving member of the gang, were captured last night. They were taken to the FBI headquarters and are now in custody.

Walt to Minutes

At 5 p. m. the floodlight flashed on the G-men called to Touhy, Banghart and Barker. "Come out through the front door. Come out backwards and with your hands up, Banghart, you come first."

Then the door opened and Banghart, hands overhead, backed cautiously into the building.

Agents reacted out from their apartment door facing that of the fugitives, and within minutes had him into their apartment where he was manacled.

Then they called for Touhy to come out, and then Barker. All surrendered without a struggle.

Touhy, who is believed to have been in the black hair had been turned blind with peroxide.

Then the FBI had taken an apartment directly across the hall from the building in the black hair had been turned blind with peroxide.

In addition, they moved families of the fugitives to a safe place.

ALLIED AIRCRAFT ATTACKED BURMA RIBDS

WITH AMERICAN AIR FORCES IN a series of attacks, the bombers of the United States Army Air Corps and the Royal Air Force, attacked Japanese bombers and fighters over Burma and the Indian Ocean.

For the fourth time in eight days, the bombers of the United States Army Air Corps and the Royal Air Force, attacked Japanese bombers and fighters over Burma and the Indian Ocean.

Another American force delivered two devastating low-level attacks on Japanese troops and supplies concentrated at Mengon in the Burma road, 30 miles across the Salween river in western Yunnan province today.

Although terrific anti-aircraft fire damaged one bomber and slightly wounded at least two crew members, all the planes returned to their bases.

Out on an early morning reconnaissance flight, Capt. Grant Mahoney of Vallejo, Calif., started off what grew to be a busy day for the Japanese by peppering a train near Manno, in Burma.

Although it was from the end to the tail of the train that the second pass the whole train was pelted in stream and smoke.

RUSSIAN ATTACK MOVES AHEAD ON 300-MILE FRONT

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, Dec. 23 (AP)—Col. Gen. Nikolai V. Vatutin's Russian armies of the south thrust forward today along a 300-mile front spread from Novaya Kalitva, just south of Moscow, at the edge of the Ukraine, to Kichin, deep in the wintered Kalmyk steppes.

Where this front cuts across the two Balkan-Yukretsk railway, the Russians reported smashing through most outer defenses to capture Kichin, three miles south of Kichin, where the Germans turned for a terrific struggle.

The Russian success closed in from three sides of Kichin, the important rail line station, and closed the main highway of escape at its rear.

22 Divisions Surrounded

Looked far in the rear of this Russian are of Gen. Field Marshal Fedor von Bock's 22 divisions remained surrounded before Stalingrad within an enclosure which the Russians daily report drawing tighter.

This huge force still is capable of furious resistance, and Russian dispatches indicated that it showed no signs of sudden weakness. It is supplied by air only, and the Russians reported shooting down German transport planes like day-gliders.

Battlefront dispatches described the corridor which the Red Army has driven between the trapped force and the main German army as being wider and wider.

The front is composed of three related operations: a Southwestward Stalingrad, where the Red Army has moved within light artillery range of Kichin; a third line on three sides of the town.

Three Knife Ahead

A second Russian thrust knifed into the Kalmyk steppe to the south, fanfanning out over a vast area and taking Kichin, 42 miles north of Kichin, the Kalmyk capital.

A third force has driven up beside the second line.

Chautemps Asks for Unity of Frenchmen

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (AP)—Camille Chautemps, a member of the French cabinet at the time of the fall of France, today called on all Frenchmen to unite under Gen. Henri Honore Giraud, the new high commissioner of north Africa.

Chautemps said that the French government, or a national administration capable of speaking for France all over the world.

He predicted in one of his frequent interviews that France again would become a major ally of the United Nations—that as a revolution, the French people would be able to speak for France all over the world.

Troopers Retreat From Hill After Inflicting Losses

By ROGER D. GRIENE
Associated Press Wire Editor

The war department announced today that allied troops in Tunisia had withdrawn from a hill position six miles northwest of Medjez-el-Bab, 35 miles below Tunis, the capital, after inflicting severe casualties on the Axis.

The war bulletin said Medjez-el-Bab was the scene of heavy fighting Christmas eve and Christmas day.

The battle occurred in the "American" defended central sector of the Tunis-Bizerte line. It was a tactical retreat, the war department announced, which indicated that the allies made a voluntary retirement presumably to regroup the German "Tunisian" troops on the north and French forces on the south.

"NEW TAX" MANDATE THREATENS SEVERAL CITIZENS' GRANT

REVENUE BALLOT WILL BE CLOSE

Japs' Finn Pal

SUPPORT RALLIED FOR FARM CAUSE

BY JOHN CORLETT
BOISE, Dec. 29.—A "bottle of mandates" is developing for the 27th Idaho Legislature, which convenes next Monday noon, a United Press survey revealed today.

On the one side will be those legislators who hold that passage by the electorate of the senior citizens' grant act, was a mandate for them to provide funds for its operation.

On the other will be Republican leaders who hold they were elected on a platform pledge of "no new taxes," and that they must provide a new tax to pay the 140 monthly pensions. They will receive support from economy-minded legislators opposed to the pension plan and others who believe a new tax is too burdensome.

Fares Opposition
Returns from a United Press questionnaire reveal that passage of a sales tax to finance the pension plan may be harder than first anticipated. Twenty-seven of the 112 legislators favor a sales tax, 13 are unalterably opposed to it and 72 said in effect that if there were no other ways to finance the plan, they would agree to the tax. Nineteen made no commitment.

The "no new taxes mandate" is gradually gathering steam among Republican legislators who are opposed to the grant act. They foresee a falling off in regular state revenues—income, gasoline, liquor and other taxes, and hold it is unfair to slash other expenses to the bone to make way for financing the pension plan.

Still to be completed is a workable estimate of the amount of money needed to operate the citizens' grant plan. That estimate, which tax veterans put at $2,000,000, will have a bearing on the sales tax issue.

Amendment Plans
Another factor which may forestall a sales tax is the sentiment among some of the legislators that the grant act should be amended to eliminate the initial cash and future expense gasoline and liquor payment of the $40 pensions to those aged absolutely in need.

If such amendments are made the act will operate much like the present public assistance act and no new revenue will be required.

If a sales tax is provided, the general consensus of the legislators is that it be earmarked solely for payment of the pensions and that it be called a "senior citizens' grant" to differentiate it from the public assistance act.

Rep. A. Weaver, R., Ada, for example, wants such an earmarked tax and he wants to see a referendum clause which would permit the electorate to vote on the tax at the next general election.

Other comment:
Rep. T. N. Shedd, R., Bear Lake, is in the "no new taxes" camp.

Rep. John B. Thompson, R., Bonanza—"I would favor any appropriation for the $40 per month pension plan, but I am not in favor of a sales tax to include the pension benefits as written in the grant."

Sen. Frank W. Harris, R., Caribou—"No sales tax for me."

Rep. Milton L. Hensley, R., Arco—"I think our present means of financing the grant is the best for the citizens' grant."

Sen. George Anderson, R., Custer—"I am opposed to the sales tax."

Sen. S. L. Thorne, R., Jerome—"I favor a special tax for the purpose, earmarked for that alone."

Lt. Edward L. Benoit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benoit, and Miss Norma Lou McMurray, daughter of Mrs. John McMurray, formerly a resident of Oakley, now of Burley, were married at 1 p. m. Monday at St. Edward's Catholic church.

The ceremony was read by Monsignor J. P. O'Toole. The bride is the daughter of the late John McMurray, who was a prominent banker in Oakley.

Mrs. Thelma Baker, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and Miss Joan Benoit, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Raymond McMurray, Burley, Midshipman Harry Benoit, Jr., the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Deacons were Jack Benoit, Lt. Benoit's brother, Albert Benoit and Charles McPhee. Les Angles, both cousins of the bridegroom.

Trimmed in Pearls

The bride wore a lovely white satin gown, with a long, trimmed with real pearls. Her flatteringly well was caught with a coronet of pearls.

Crested roses with a shower of saffron petals formed her bouquet. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore pale green gowns and pink tulle veils and carried bouquets of pink roses.

Mrs. Nellie Ostrom sang Schumann's "Ave Maria" preceding the ceremony and played organ music at the processional and recessional.

On Leaving the Church

The bride was greeted with a shower of rice by a group of Lt. Benoit's fraternity brothers of Delta Pieta Phi of the University of Idaho.

Wedding Luncheon

Mrs. McMurray was hostess to the wedding party and immediate families of the bride and groom at a wedding luncheon at the Park hotel. The tables were arranged in a T-shape with the wedding party at the head. Pink anemones in white and gold containers of pastel tins and tall chandeliers in crystal holders decorated the tables. Sprays of color and plumage fern entwined with noisettes were laid down the center of the tables.

The bride and groom served the traditional wedding cake topped with a miniature soldier and his bride.

Lt. Benoit and his bride are both graduates of the University of Idaho. Mrs. Benoit is associated with the Delta Gamma sorority.

The bride's going-away ensemble was a blue dress with a white tulle skirt and a white bolero. She carried a white bouquet and wore a white veil.

The couple left Oklahoma City for the luncheon for Oklahoma City, Oklahoma City will stop en route to visit the bride's brother, Lt. Benoit and his bride will be at home at 1225 West Twelfth street, Oklahoma City. He is stationed at W. H. Rogers Field.

We The Women

By RUTH MILLETT

Uncle Sam's face is still red, though he has apologized profusely for mistaking for a boy the little, uninitiated baby who wore a war bond poster. On the poster, he even went so far as to give the little girl saying "These five little guys a chance."

Don't feel too bad about it, Uncle Sam. That little girl was not so much a man's work, as so many of her sex are doing today.

That little "guy" will have a chance in any field of endeavor, despite the fact that she is a girl. If women have to do men's work, men are making for themselves in today's world.

May Enter Army Work

Unless women let themselves be pushed back into the home and into "women's work" when the war is over—the baby girls of today can be anything they want to be and do anything they want to do when they grow up.

They can, unhandcuffed by rules and regulations that women, no matter into any profession and into any kind of work. Because the wartime need of women's hands and women's brains is pulling the label "men's work" off all sorts of jobs. Given the chance to try, women are proving they can handle jobs that they had always been told were too difficult for women.

It's All up to the Women

But if they don't make up their minds now to keep the place they are making for themselves in business, in professions, and in industry—today's little "guy" will grow to womanhood in a world that gives them an equal chance with men.

It's all up to the women. Men are pushing them back into the old mold unless they want to be pushed. If they demand to keep the place they are making for themselves, it is theirs.

It is theirs and their daughters'. Let the little girl. What she thought was a boy and all the girls like her will get the chance she is pleading for in the war bond poster.

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

HANSEN, Dec. 29—An open meeting of the Hansen Grange featuring a New Year's eve program, will be held Thursday night. The evening will begin with a pot-luck supper, followed by installation of officers.

At one time Smith claimed the sole right to navigate in the northern Pacific and issued a prohibition against other nations trading in those waters.

Edythe Trunkey, Sgt. McMurray Will Wed Here

HANSEN, Dec. 29—Miss Edythe Trunkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trunkey, Hansen, will become the bride of Tech, Sgt. Anson E. McMurray, at 2 p. m. Sunday at the Twin Falls Methodist church, according to plans made by the couple on the arrival of the service man from 12 months of overseas duty in the United States army air corps.

The ceremony will be read by Rev. William H. Hertzo of the Methodist church.

Among the out-of-town guests expected to be in attendance will be Ross A. Trunkey, radio technician, second class, and Mrs. Trunkey, brother and sister-in-law of the bride-to-be, who are to arrive this week from San Francisco during his seven day furlough from the navy, and Mrs. Hermann Betts, Los Angeles, sister of the bride-to-be.

Sgt. McMurray, who is on a 15-day army leave, arrived on Christmas eve from Australia. He is the son of Mrs. Nell McMurray, Castleford.

Miss Trunkey, teacher at the Stoughton Junior high school, will continue in that capacity after her marriage, while the bridegroom will report for duty at Pocatello.

Sugar Ball Will Be USO Benefit

The third annual White Satin Sugar Carnival ball will be held at the Radio Rodeo at 9 p. m. Wednesday, with the USO receiving the money for every ticket held by a dancer who doesn't work for the Amalgamated Sugar company.

The local chapter of the sugar factory employees' recreation committee, said committee delegate to the USO benefit dancers have been sold to the company's 200-odd employees in the local factory to pay all expenses of the dance, which means the USO will get the rest, he said.

Music will be furnished by Arlon Bachtin's orchestra.

Larsen and Brown Nuptial at Hansen

HANSEN, Dec. 29—Miss Catharine Larsen, daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Brown, and Kenneth Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Larsen, both of Kimberly, were united in marriage at 2:30 p. m. Dec. 29.

The double ring ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage with Rev. Stanley D. Trefon officiating. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. E. Larsen and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride, for the last semester a teacher in the Pleasant Valley school, will finish the year in that capacity where Mr. Larsen will be time farming east of Rock Creek, where they will locate after school closes in the spring.

For her marriage the bride wore a brown afternoon dress, with matching accessories and a corsage of carnations and red-roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen both attended the Pleasant Valley school and were graduates of Kimberly high school. Mrs. Larsen was graduated from Allison Normal school.

Teacher Writes Stages Own Play

HANSEN, Dec. 29—A Christmas program was held at the Excelsior school under the direction of Mrs. Mary Zilkey, teacher of the lower grades. Mrs. Charles Prior, principal, directed the decorating of the building.

An original Christmas tableau, "Christmas Birth," written by Mr. Zilkey, was presented by the girls of the upper grades accompanying in chime numbers. Wayne Henry sang a solo.

A one-act play, "Christmas in Mother Goose Land," was given by the primary classes. "Santa" made his official visit and handed treats to all.

Visit at Phoenix

Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Masters, who are spending the winter in Phoenix, Ariz., were the guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roy Weaver for dinner.

Mr. Weaver lived in Twin Falls for many years and is now a practicing attorney in Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Masters have also visited Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bowles, Twin Falls, who are spending the winter in Phoenix.

Gooding Couple Exchanges Vows

GOODING, Dec. 29—Miss Norma Lou Hill, Gooding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Haycock, became the bride of William H. Hove, also of Gooding, at 4 p. m. Sunday at the Lincoln high school. Rev. H. L. Dixon performed the double ring ceremony at 6 p. m. Christmas eve.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of pastel blue silk, with a white carnation in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink and white rose buds. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hove. Immediate members of the families were present.

Mrs. Hove is attending the Gooding high school. She will continue her schooling and will live with her parents when her husband leaves for the army about Jan. 13.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hove, Hansen, is a graduate of the Gooding high school and class of '42. He has been engaged in defense work at Cowd A-14.

Baptist Church Holds Program

HANSEN, Dec. 29—A fall home was given by Santa Claus who appeared in person at the program given at the Baptist church parlors, Christmas eve. The traditional holiday decorations including a large tree covered the room for the occasion. A gift exchange was held with treats for all three years.

The program included brief talks by Lloyd Davis, Bob Peterson, Ben Hansen and Rev. Albert Beuret on different phases of "Christmas and What It Means to Us." Group singing of several numbers was followed by a recitation, "What Christmas Means," by Roberta Perout, a vocal duet by Rev. and Mrs. West, with their guitar accompaniment.

Several recitations, as many of the children, a pantomime and song by Patzy Arnold, and a piano solo by Armand Beuret, were also given.

Mrs. Knudsen is a county health unit nurse at Boise.

O. A. O. and Guests Frolic at Combined Yule-New Year Ball

It was holiday fun supreme Monday night for a large group of O.A.O. members and their friends at Radio Rodeo, where the annual holiday ball was held against the background of a decorative scheme which carried out a combined Yuletide and New Year's theme.

The ballroom was shaped in the form of a semi-circle by a series of screens that were decked with evergreen boughs decorated by shiny tinsel, blue and red. Along this wall stood groups of huge tinsel-decked silver fir trees.

Centered in the back of the orchestra was a large brilliantly lighted tree with two smaller trees on either side. Along a crossbar of evergreen boughs silver streamers of tinsel fell on each side of the tree, which was set large red sprigs of holly and holly. The base of the orchestra stand was covered with greenery.

The balcony was decked with greenery and silver and red sprigs of holly and holly.

The entire group of dancers participated in the community singing held during the unusual intermission. A large screen was suspended from the balcony on which were shown "singing" films.

The committee, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Pierce, was Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hove, Emmett Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bach. This group also welcomed the guests to the reception committee.

60 Attend Dinner At Hansen Church

HANSEN, Dec. 29—About 60 persons attended the Fellowship dinner in the Hansen church banquet hall.

A committee was appointed from the official board to take charge of the repair of the roof of the church. Carol Clark is chairman. Vance Rayler was selected to head the committee on landscaping and drainage of the grounds.

There are 102 total unions in the U.S.R.L., with 26 million members.

AUTHORITATIVE REASONS FOR BREAD'S IMPORTANCE

EAT THE RIGHT FOODS!

America NEEDS US STRONG

Fully Enriched and Its Quality Controlled

Butter-Krust Bread

Uncle Sam has placed a real responsibility upon the American bakers in requesting them to produce the type of enriched white bread that will serve as a major contribution to the general health of the nation. To maintain such a standard for enriched bread, quality must be controlled. BUTTER-KRUST Bread is not only enriched; it is produced in a plant that assures control of quality with the best of modern equipment, including automatic humidifiers and air conditioners. That's why BUTTER-KRUST is always the same superior and healthful bread.

Special Meet Looms for Major Clubs

BY JUDSON BAILEY
NEW YORK, Dec. 29 (AP)—Baseball's quandary over spring training seemed likely today to bring about a special meeting of the major leagues early next month.
Pressure for such a session has been growing for several days with Edward G. Barrow of the New York Yankees in the American league and William E. Berwanger of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Warren Giles of the Cincinnati Reds in the National league all urging steps be taken to end the confusion.

Presidents of the two leagues, Ford Frick in the National and William Harbridge in the American, and also to Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, who would have the responsibility for joining a joint meeting.

Unanimity Favored

Frick said today he agreed "all clubs should work in unison and it would be a good idea to arrive at a conclusion as soon as possible."

Various baseball leaders expressed the belief Landis would call them together as soon as a meeting could be arranged. A joint session already is scheduled for the second week in February in New York, but it now

Many of the clubs are willing to train at home, or within a short distance of their own parks, but most of these teams feel if they forego the benefits of conditioning in the south their rivals should also. The Brooklyn Dodgers have decided to train in Yale's gymnasium providing the army, which is taking over the school, does not need this facility. The Boston Red Sox are understood to be ready to train at Harvard and the Detroit Tigers are considering using the University of Michigan's field house at Ann

Barrow also has expressed a willingness to train at home provided other clubs do likewise. If training in the north is agreed upon, he wants the season delayed.

The season now stands, some of the club staff are hopeful of returning to Florida; some have definitely decided to train near home; some want to compromise on the mid-south — North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, and some want to delay the opening of the season.

In view of this lack of agreement on procedure, baseball spokesmen said they expected all arrangements

Saving Possible On 'Jobless Tax'

How employers can save money by beating the deadline in payment of their unemployment compensation tax was explained today by H. A. Salisbury, unemployment compensation field adviser. The deadline for this payment is Jan. 31.

is deductible from both federal and state income tax returns," said Salisbury, "providing it is paid on time. If it becomes delinquent and is paid after the deadline, the amount paid is not deductible in computing income tax due."

Gallsbury also suggested that any merchants contemplating going out of business see him about closing their unemployment tax account. To take care of this in advance, said the field adviser, will save both merchant and department a great deal of time.
