UNIVERSITY WILL EDIT BRITANNICA

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Encyclopedia Britannica, a comprehensive summary of knowledge that has been published since 1768, today was placed in the hands of a new owner—the University of Chicago.

The 172-year-old publication was presented to the school by Sears, Roebuck and company. The outright gift included Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. and subsidiary in England, Canada and South Africa, Britannica Book of the Year, Britannica Junior, and the Encyclopedia Britannica World Atlas.

The publication was located first in Edinburgh. Eventually it was distributed on a world wide basis. Sears Roebuck and company, Chicago will edit the new edition, currently in 24 in number—printed last year.

President Robert M. Hutchins of the university and Gen. Robert E. Wood, chairman of the board of Sears, announced the books hereafter would bear the imprimatur of the university.

The encyclopedia is now kept up to date by the editorial method of continuous annual revision, which eliminates the necessity for periodic new editions. Hutchins stated. Faculty committees of the University will provide educational input and consultation in select in securing reliability and scientific authorities for this continuous revision.

THREE COWS TOP NORTH SIDE LIST

Three registered Holsteins—Kitty, owned by P. O. Massey and sons, Gooding; Nancy, owned by W. W. Canby, Gooding, and Guy, owned by C. J. Mack, Wendell—were the producers in December among the cows in the Gooding-Jerome Herd Improvement association. Clarence H. Knutson, the supervisor, announced. Three hundred and eighty-three cows in 28 herds were tested during the period.

Kitty yielded 2,525 pounds of milk and 86 pounds of butterfat, while Nancy produced 1,904 pounds of milk and 66 pounds of butterfat and Guy 1,584 of milk and 71.6 of fat.

Among the herds of 20 or more cows, the 20 registered Holsteins of the Masseys were the best, yielding an average of 1,923 pounds of milk and 227 pounds of butterfat. Next were the 41 registered and grade Holsteins of W. D. Fales, Gooding, which averaged 629 pounds of milk and 24 pounds of fat.

The 10 registered and grade Holsteins owned by Clarence H. Knutson, were the best in the 10-20 cow group with 1,025 pounds of milk and 219 pounds of butterfat, followed by the 14 registered and grade Holsteins of H. A. Steig, Gooding, which yielded an average of 626 and 22.3, respectively of milk and fat.

Four registered Holsteins owned by H. D. Cook, Jr., Gemme, yielded 1,108 pounds of milk and 42.4 pounds of butterfat to lead in the less-than-10-cow group. In second place were nine grade Holsteins owned by Ray Harding, Gooding, with 1,110 pounds of milk and 41.2 pounds of butterfat.

Knutson reported that the cows in the association averaged 605 pounds of milk and 257 pounds of butterfat during the month. Fifty-seven cows yielded 40 or more pounds of butterfat.

THE COST OF LIVING

There does not seem to be much question that Leon Henderson was removed as price-rationing administrator because a powerful bloc felt that he was too tough.

This is neither to agree nor to disagree with that sentiment, but merely to point out that Mr. Henderson's successor is walking into an unenviable spot from which he, too, may some day be carried away a political corpse.

Last mid-May, with disastrous inflation behind it, to hold up Mr. Henderson was given the task of holding prices down. His authority was limited in two basic ways. He had no control over wages or over farm prices.

Since that time the costs of clothing and house furnishings have risen one-tenth of 1 per cent. The cost of miscellaneous items has gone up eight-tenths of 1 per cent. Rent has fallen one-tenth of 1 per cent. These things were under OPA control. The cost of food, uncontrolled in the main, rose 7.8 per cent during the same period.

There was some justice in the Blim-Knox contention that the OPA should be reorganized. A new plan should precede Mr. Jeffers' requirements for synthetic plants, but there was also much to be said for the fact that the OPA has no right to take over the production of oil, sugar and cotton. The OPA has no right to take over the production of oil, sugar and cotton.

It is to be hoped that the appointment of James F. Byrnes as director of economic stabilization would remedy this situation, but so far as he has done little to bring about a change in the OPA's procedure. It is to be hoped that the appointment of James F. Byrnes as director of economic stabilization would remedy this situation.

Moreover, Secretary Hull and Ambassador Grew did their utmost to warn everybody concerned that the initial blow had been too soon and that it would be treacherous. Pearl Harbor's unpreparedness was not for want of ample specific warning.

This of course strengthens the case against that military and naval leadership which so effectively ignored all warnings and slept peacefully while the Japs sneaked up to attack. But that is water over the dam. Some day the public will be entitled to know the full story. Right now we are much too busy to paw over spilled milk so that we can cry about it.

The same thing applies to the White Paper's clear evidence on another point. President Roosevelt is proved, if further proof were necessary, to have recognized any and every possibility of effective details, plans and strategy. It was for historians to weigh the justification for his frequent public utterances to the contrary; for the long delay in beginning to arm for the inevitable conflict; for the absence of a plan for the emergency. When the time arrives to appraise those things, the White Paper will contribute materially.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BIRNBERG-Barnard M. Baruch declines to defend himself publicly against charges that he served a Bohemian feast to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopkins in these alcohol-laden days. But these alcohol-laden days...

The man who threw the party estimates that the total expense was about $2,000 for 90 persons, each of whom ate about half a pound of food. The party was held in the Bohemian restaurant in New York City.

Miss Mrs. Baruch had no right to take over the production of oil, sugar and cotton. The OPA has no right to take over the production of oil, sugar and cotton.

There was some justice in the Blim-Knox contention that the OPA should be reorganized. A new plan should precede Mr. Jeffers' requirements for synthetic plants, but there was also much to be said for the fact that the OPA has no right to take over the production of oil, sugar and cotton.

This of course strengthens the case against that military and naval leadership which so effectively ignored all warnings and slept peacefully while the Japs sneaked up to attack. But that is water over the dam. Some day the public will be entitled to know the full story. Right now we are much too busy to paw over spilled milk so that we can cry about it.

The same thing applies to the White Paper's clear evidence on another point. President Roosevelt is proved, if further proof were necessary, to have recognized any and every possibility of effective details, plans and strategy. It was for historians to weigh the justification for his frequent public utterances to the contrary; for the long delay in beginning to arm for the inevitable conflict; for the absence of a plan for the emergency. When the time arrives to appraise those things, the White Paper will contribute materially.

Moreover, Secretary Hull and Ambassador Grew did their utmost to warn everybody concerned that the initial blow had been too soon and that it would be treacherous. Pearl Harbor's unpreparedness was not for want of ample specific warning.

Somebody Else Let a Genie out of a Bottle Once too

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board today rejected the proposal of the Treasury to issue new bonds to help finance the war effort. The board argued that the current fiscal policy was sufficient to meet the government's needs.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

When you were a child, you thought as a child, you spoke as a child and you were a child. You were a child when you were a child and you were a child when you were a child.

It is to be hoped that the appointment of James F. Byrnes as director of economic stabilization would remedy this situation, but so far as he has done little to bring about a change in the OPA's procedure.

Moreover, Secretary Hull and Ambassador Grew did their utmost to warn everybody concerned that the initial blow had been too soon and that it would be treacherous. Pearl Harbor's unpreparedness was not for want of ample specific warning.

ANALYZING CURRENT NEWS FROM NEW YORK

POLLY—New York full of experts in these war times. They are analyzing the current news and trying to predict the future. They are analyzing the current news and trying to predict the future.

What is content that both the government and the public are to blame for the outrageous war costs. The government has not done its job and the public has not done its job.

Chief reason for this amazing increase in war costs is that the government has not done its job and the public has not done its job.

Too late, there is a mad stampede to alter fortunes. A little while ago the government was in a position to do what it pleased and to do it as it pleased.

WORST OF COLD WAVE IS BROKEN

By United Press The worst cold wave of the winter moderated today in central portions of the country, leaving death and crop destruction in its path...

A United Press survey showed 53 deaths attributed either directly or indirectly to the storm. They were: Illinois 14; Wisconsin 4; Iowa 2; Michigan 2; Texas 3; New York 1; Missouri 2; Oklahoma 1; Kansas 1; Tennessee 1; Indiana 7; Nebraska 4; Pennsylvania 1; Washington 4 and Colorado 1.

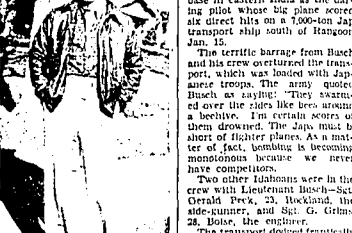

Below Freezing The low freezing temperatures wiped out winter vegetable crops in the Rio Grande valley, Arizona and southern California. Citrus fruit crops were saved in those areas for the most part by the use of burning emulsion pots and bales of straw in the orchards.

Rising temperatures prevailed, particularly in the Ohio valley, southern Great Plains, Mississippi valley and Rocky mountain region. Snow freezing temperatures occurred in the Great Lakes and the St. Louis basin but they rose above freezing this morning. The cold wave was broken on the Pacific coast.

The mercury still hovered around the 30 below zero mark in the Utah, Arizona and Montana. Federal weather bureau experts in Chicago said the storm was a major cold wave of the type that hit the country every other January...

FAMED INVENTOR OF GAS PASSES

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 21 (UP)—Prof. Wilford Lee Lewis, inventor of Lewitic gas which is said to be the deadliest of all war gases, died last night from injuries he suffered Monday in a fall in his Evanston home. He was 64.

Several thousand tons of the gas were manufactured for use in the war. He was raised in Europe during the first World War. The gas was declared before it had been tested in the field.

Because some officials were dubious about the safety of keeping it, the gas was dumped into the Atlantic ocean 50 miles from Baltimore where the water is three miles deep.

Since the last war, phials of the gas and its still recent formula have been stored in Washington. Lewis said last year that if Hitler resorted to gas warfare the United States was prepared to retaliate with Lewitic gas.

Churches Marking 'Paralysis' Sunday

"Infantile paralysis Sunday" will be observed Jan. 23 by the churches of all creed and denominations in Idaho, according to announcement by Mrs. John E. Hayes, Twin Falls, state campaign chairman.

Special prayers for those afflicted by that dread disease and special sermons and addresses will inform the church-going people of the work and needs of the Paralysis Foundation for Infantine Paralysis, which carries on its work with 50 per cent of the funds received from the various county drives. Mrs. Hayes said.

ARMY COMMANDS SOLOMONS FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (UP)—The navy announced today that Maj. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, commander of the U. S. Army has taken over command of the American forces on Guadalcanal island.

Patch relieved Maj. Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift, who commanded the 6th Marine Division which landed in the Solomons on Aug. 7.

The navy said that the marines have been operating jointly with army troops in the Solomons area for several months, but now most of the operations have been replaced by army personnel.

Some marine troops, and a few other marines on Guadalcanal island. The communiqué also told of several attacks by U. S. bombers on enemy positions on Munda and on Bougainville island.

On Jan. 19, U. S. planes bombed Munda but results were not reported. On Jan. 20, Flying Fortresses scored one bomb hit on a Jap destroyer near Cape Friendship at the easternmost tip of Bougainville.

Last afternoon Flying Fortresses with fighter escort attacked two enemy cargo ships and two destroyers in the Shortland island area. The communiqué said a further attack with many more and fast type airplanes intercepted the attack and eight of these planes were shot down. No hits on the enemy ships were observed.

U. S. fighter was lost and several Fortresses were damaged. The next day, Japanese heavy bombers again attacked enemy positions at Munda, but results were not observed.

Victories on Six Fronts Give Russian Soldiers Confidence

By M. S. HANDLER WITH THE RUSSIAN ARMY DELAYING ON BOSTON, Jan. 19, delays in the Russian army from generals to privates are confident that victory is only a matter of time.

Their victories on six major fronts have naturally inspired them but even the privates have an astonishing awareness of military realities and realize the cost they are paying for victory. They believe the Germans are puny drunk now, but during the past few months they have never heard one man say the Germans are deluged or were at the point of collapse.

Further, the conviction that a decisive front will come eventually to help destroy the enemy plays a part in the Russian army man's confidence. The victories the red army has won so far and the belief that even more victories are being held in reserve are important factors in the state of mind prevailing.

RECORD VICTORY GARDENS NEARING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (UP)—With a goal far surpassing that of World War I, a new army of soldiers of the United States is being trained in the victory gardens of this war and so to supplement the nation food supply.

On Jan. 19, some 425,000 war gardeners yielded an estimated 23,265,000 pounds of vegetables.

Further, the agriculture department has set a goal of at least 10,000,000 victory gardens, with 12,000,000 in the United States and 8,000,000 on farms.

Discussions of a seed shortage are being held in many cities every town, city and suburban family with a sufficient plot of open, sunny land are urged to plant victory gardens. He recommended that special attention be given to green and red beans, peas, yellow vegetables and tomatoes.

Wickard also urged farm families to plant a bush or two of fruit trees possible of their entire year's food needs, particularly of vegetables, fruits and berries.

Assessing there was "grave danger" that 1943-44 food production would be a skeleton in the defense investigating committee declared meanwhile that the office of the secretary of agriculture has vigorously and unreservedly with our nation's food supply.

WEATHER HALTS WARP PRODUCTION

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 21 (UP)—Severe weather conditions forced thousands of workers to keep to their homes, and the resulting absence of workers has halted war production in the Seattle area today.

LONDON SCHOOL DEATHS HIT 44

LONDON, Jan. 21 (UP)—The known death toll in the London school smothered by a German bomb yesterday was 44, including 11 children and 33 teachers.

The bodies of the children, 11 of them, were reported injured. The school was a boys' school in the southeast of London when the bomb was shot into the sea this morning.

Two German airplanes were reported to have been shot down during scattered night raids which caused four alarms to be sounded in London.

An authoritative statement said the raiders operated over coastal districts of south and southeast England and East Anglia and a few of them flew in as far as the home counties, according to reports of air casualties.

Incendiary bombs were dropped in several districts in the greater London area during one alert but the Germans never penetrated beyond the outskirts but once.

A strong force of RAF planes was reported to have been sent to the English channel toward Dieppe this afternoon.

Medium bombers flew toward the German-occupied coast with squadrons of fighters on guard above them.

NELSON SEES NO MORE 'TRIMMING'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (UP)—War production Chairman Donald M. Nelson said today that very little more can be trimmed from the civilian economy under the war effort, and that some experts believe it already has been trimmed too heavily.

Nelson said at a press conference that he could see no more problems now facing his agency are: 1. Increased production of valves, heat exchangers, cooling devices, and other parts of war weapons.

2. Proper distribution of available materials to assure expanded production of these parts. 3. Simplification of consumer goods. 4. Concentration of industry.

Nelson said little additional material could be saved for the military, but that more trimming could be done which would save a substantial amount of materials for the war effort.

WAVE OF PANIC SWEEPS HUNGARY AFTER LOSSES IN RUSSIA

SIX OUT OF NINE DIVISIONS LOST

By ROBERT DOWSON
LONDON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Turkish dispatches said today that a wave of panic had swept Hungary as the result of official revelations of the final Hungarian losses on the Russian front and the cancellation of army leaves which was apparently taken as warning that more thousands were to be sacrificed.

Reports had reached London yesterday that six of nine Hungarian divisions had been annihilated. Today, according to the Turkish advice, three of the divisions were named—the third from Budapest, the sixth from Komarom and the seventh from Sopron.

Large Surrenders
Turkey received reports that Hungarian soldiers were surrendering wholesale "in face of superior Russian forces from Siberia with excellent equipment."

The Hungarian army, largest of the satellite forces, has been broken and recent Russian communications had told of Italian surrendering, with their officers, in groups of up to 100.

British radio listeners heard the German radio speak vaguely of a Russian break-through in the Carpathians. In the area around Tuzsok all port of Novorossk had been lost on the Black sea.

The Berlin broadcast said Russians in assault boats had tried to make a surprise attack on the island of Novorossk but had been repelled, and that to the east of Novorossk the Russians had made several attacks.

Finland Report
The increasing emphasis which the Berlin satellite nations are placing on the terrific striking power of the Russian army was voiced by Finland, in a statement to the commissioner said:

"The Russian offensive is of such colossal scope that compared with it, Russia a winter offensive of 1941-42 resembles only a local operation."

Military quarters here reported today that the siege of Leningrad has been broken, for a Russian force up the Kerki peninsula, already held while, into the front line of major activity.

Blanket of Snow Stimulates Calisthenics at Farragut Station

Red Cross Is No. 1 Mother, Session Told

The Red Cross was characterized as "the greatest mother of them all" and "substitute mother to our boys in the service" by Dr. Charles R. Scott, war fund drive chairman of the Twin Falls Red Cross chapter, when he spoke at a luncheon which was held at the Red Cross regional conference held here Wednesday.

Thirty-four delegates from great chapters attended the conference.

"War is such a destructive agency," Dr. Scott, "teaching our boys to destroy property and lives. The Red Cross is a building up agency, the only war agency that can be so described. And it is building good will that we can draw on after the war."

Movie Queen Freed on Pledge Not to Fire Again at Ex-Lover

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21 (AP)—The real-life melodrama unfolded with a shooting scene starting at 10:30 a. m. in the courtroom of Judge Murphy, wealthy gunman against a woman in the second act.

With murmurs of "oh my my" from the gallery, Miss Bellamy pleaded guilty to the murder of her ex-lover, Clarence Murphy, who would not testify any more shots in the courtroom.

Murphy, 34, president of the Pacific Lumber company, was charged with the murder of his ex-lover, Miss Bellamy, on the exclusive Pacific Lumber club on Rob Hill here.

Murphy is being married by a New York model, Jane Kelly, who he married in Baltimore recently.

Miss Bellamy said Murphy's marriage to another woman had been more than she could bear.

Week's Continuance Granted
As Margaret Phillips testified, she named Miss Bellamy as the woman who shot at her ex-lover, Clarence Murphy, on the exclusive Pacific Lumber club on Rob Hill here.

She told Police Inspector Frank Luevy she had seen Murphy for several years, that he was a married man when he got a divorce, but instead filed her about two months ago to get her back.

When she read of his marriage, she said she came to San Francisco with a pistol and began looking for him. She met him at the entrance to the ultra-exclusive Pacific Lumber club.

Police said three bullets whizzed around in the crowd of Miss Bellamy, who was started by his car. He charged and sniped, they struck the woman in the back.

"I wanted to make him suffer somehow," explained Miss Bellamy, "but I wasn't sure how to do it. I had a pistol, but I didn't want to get hurt. I wanted to see if I wanted to see him die."

Fairview Woodmen Install Officers

FAIRVIEW, Jan. 21—Modern Woodmen of America met at the Fairview Grange hall. The following officers were installed: Council, R. N. Fordham, advisor, Fred Johnston, banker; F. L. Adams, court, Loretta Fordham, wickham; E. O. Noh, secretary, F. O. Seddy, trustee for three years, Rudolph Peterson, and physician, J. W. Warbler.

The state manager, Carl M. Sharr, Erie, was installing council. He also gave a fine talk on the growth of the organization. After the meeting which was served.

A U. S. fighter plane made history by flying a round trip of more than 600 miles from an English base to shoot up a factory and gas reservoir in the Ruhr.

WLB CREATES 12 REGIONAL BOARDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—The war labor board today had formally announced a plan to decentralize its activities through the creation of 12 regional labor boards empowered to make final decisions on labor disputes and on voluntary wage and salary adjustments.

WLB Chairman William H. Davis said that under the new setup, expected to begin operation within a week or 10 days, the national board will function "as a supreme court for labor disputes" by retaining the right to review regional decisions.

Each regional board will have 15 members, with equal representation for labor, industry and the public. The WLB's regional advisory councils on regional boards, and boards will be established in two newly created regions, Detroit and Seattle.

The WLB's regional directors will become public members and chairmen of the regional boards. Other members will be selected later.

The chairman of the Seattle office covering Washington and Oregon, has not been named.

Dallas, covering Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma; Ford, covering Colorado, Denver, covering Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Montana, Utah and Idaho; Charles Graham, chairman, San Francisco, covering California, Nevada and Arizona; Thomas Fair Niblett, chairman.

Of 900,000 production shipments submitted to American war plants, 200,000 have been accepted since the war started.

ALBION GRANGERS Install Officers

ALBION, Jan. 21—Albion Grange was held with a public installation of officers. Installing officers were Willis Sears, who was assisted by Mrs. Walter Astor, Jean Mahoney, Mrs. Irvin Park and Mrs. Florence Mahoney.

Officers installed were Mark Chambers, master; Edna Smith, overseer; Eva Chatham, lecturer; William Astor, secretary and treasurer; Mahoney, treasurer; George Kelly, steward; Charlie Clay, assistant steward; Cleo Bennett, chaplain; Claude Sessions, gatekeeper; Zelona Mahoney, lady assistant steward; and Mrs. Mahoney, new member of the executive committee. Farm mobilization was discussed. A potluck supper was a highlight.

Tax Collections Up in Percentage

GOODYING, Jan. 21—Cooling county's tax collections for the first half 1942 taxes were 66 per cent as against 84 per cent in 1941, according to reports compiled by the county assessor and treasurer. The actual collections were less than expected because of lowered levies. City and land taxes and personal taxes were included in the report.

The total tax roll charges for 1942 were $220,000. Of the total, $274,123.86 were real estate taxes and $119,337.20 were personal taxes. On Jan. 1 collections amounted to $170,282.46 with $114,673.39 remaining unpaid.

MANY EVACUEES ENTERING ARMY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Japanese-Americans loyal to the United States are joining the army in the largest number of evacuees to which they were transferred from the west coast, Chairman Chandler D. Myer, his special assistant for military affairs submitted a report.

Chandler said Dillon Myer, chief of the war relocation authority, asked the submarine to leave the administration of the Japanese relocation camps under this agency at least until its program is completed, probably in February.

Myer was heard on a proposal to transfer the administration of the 10 centers in a half-dozen states to the army. Proponents of the measure had charged the Japanese were pumped and said they sought to halt the pro-act demonstrations reported in some of the camps.

The hearing was held behind closed doors, but Chandler said the army is not opposed to the measure. He said nothing does until those Japanese-Americans had established who were considered loyal and reliable.

This week Myer and his staff are months' mission for the L.D.S. church in eastern states mission prior to her marriage two years ago.

BIGGER MACHINERY QUOTA DEMANDED TO MEET FOOD GOALS

INCREASE ASKED IN ALLOTMENTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The senate committee investigating the war effort warned today that 1943 food production goals may not be reached unless more agricultural machinery is allotted to farmers.

Although farmers are being called on this year to exceed 1942 record crop by four per cent, the committee said, "the farm machinery program for 1943 has been more restricted than that of the war production effort—despite the fact that food as a weapon is equal in importance to guns, tanks and planes."

The war production board's action in permitting only 22 per cent as much new farm machinery to be manufactured in 1943 as was made in 1942, the committee said in an official report, threatens to deprive farmers of essential equipment at a time when it also is being rapidly depleted from the farms.

Truman House Committee on Agriculture's report is headed by Sen. Harry S. Truman, D., Mo.

The WPA's decision, the report said, is based on the assumption that by the WPA office of civilian supply depicts the maintenance of the agriculture department and the WPA's own farm machinery and equipment branches that produce farm equipment be maintained at 30 per cent of the 1942 level.

Under the committee's plan, "this gobbled grotesquely and unduly with our nation's food supply on the assumption that most farmers by making repairs and resurfacing various machines, can keep up substantial production for a year or even if this assumption were true," the report continues.

The committee approves such a short-sighted policy. We cannot lower our sights on food production such a brief period of time.

When it comes to the situation should win this year, winning the peace will require the food production program be given "maximum consideration in allocating materials."

That farm machinery now scheduled for manufacture during the year ending Oct. 31, 1943, is completed instead by June 30, 1943, this would in effect increase production increase of 23 1/2 per cent.

That for the year beginning July 1, 1943, "a new and more adequate program for farm machinery production" be immediately put into effect.

The committee charged that an "unimpaired" plan for constructing farm equipment production in the hands of smaller firms is already delayed action on the 1943 program and "threatens to destroy the service organizations essential to the farmer in maintaining food production."

De Gaulle of the Fighting French

Gen. Charles Andre Marie De Gaulle, 52-year-old Fighting French leader, has been the symbol of liberation for France since June 18, 1941. He is now the support of many French colonies and the admiration of loyal Frenchmen everywhere. Now he way points to a unity of his forces with those of Gen. Henri Giraud in North Africa—a solid front against the axis.

Wounded 3 times in World War I, Croix de Guerre.

German prisoner 32 months, recaptured after 5 escapes, won Medal of Honor.

Escaped in 1918.

Lectured French war college against Maginot line smugness; his ideas ridiculed.

Arrived in London in June, 1940, to organize Fighting French.

BOYS' TOWN TO GET TOP STEER

DENVER, Jan. 21.—Fifteen carloads of fat Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus cattle were sold for $12,725 in the National Western stock and auction ring yesterday, according to packers from the meatless Pacific coast area, the twenty-four champions and runners-up in various classes brought approximately $130,000.

The Pacific packers turned to Denver for their fat cattle this year because there is a shortage of the animals in Idaho and because fat cattle are available nowhere else at this time of year. In last year's Denver fat cattle were purchased mainly by Omaha and Chicago packers.

The grand champion load of 13 Herefords, owned by Warren Monfort, Greeley, Colo., was bought by the Lindner Packing company, Denver, for $12,725, plus a bonus of a total of $23,000. Last year's grand champion load brought 18 1/2 cents a pound.

Walter Wilson, Wilson-Clynn Commission company, Kansas City, and $25,000 for the grand champion steer of the show, to start a benefit fund for Boys' Town, near Omaha.

Wilson donated the 975-pound red and white steer to Boys' Town immediately after he purchased it, then announced he would put it up for auction again today. Wilson made his own rules for the auction—whatever boys the animal will have to be sold for $25,000.

The steer reverts to Boys' Town and will be put up for auction again today. The next buyer will have to pay for the steer, but he won't get to keep it either.

That the $100,000 for Boys' town with Columbus Hellspecker, Wilson said, "then it goes to the Boys' town fund."

Columbus Hellspecker was raised by A. A. Kramer, Blanco, Colo. He was a member of the commission, compared with one dollar a pound brought by the 1942 grand champion.

The Beef Packing company bought the reserve champion from the Kuitert farms, Elson, Kan., at 20 cents a pound for a total price of $200. Last year's reserve champion brought 27 cents a pound.

Milk, Egg, Pork Boost Asked In New Wartime Farm Goals

Increases in milk, egg and pork production are asked of the farmers of Twin Falls county in additional "food for victory" goals received by the USA war board and county food committee today.

The National Western association of the latter organization, announced Thursday. However, decreases are permitted in beef and poultry production.

An increase of 25 per cent, from 12,500 to 15,625 in the number of milk cows is asked with an attendant milk production increase of 19 per cent, or from 98,000,000 to 117,000,000 pounds.

Three-tenths of one per cent increase in egg production is sought. This means that the farmers must increase their egg yield from 1,654,400 dozen to 1,722,000 dozen.

There are 42,100 cattle and calves of all types on the county farms on Jan. 1, 1943. An increase of four tenths of one per cent, or 200 cattle and calves is asked for Jan. 1, 1944. The goal for beef cows on Jan. 1, 1944, is 2,700. This is 2 1/2 per cent more than the 2,620 cows on the farms then Jan. 1 last.

Cattle and calves, exclusive of beef and milk cows, on the farms last Jan. 1 totalled 36,100. Twenty-eight and eight-tenths per cent, or 25,900 cattle are allotted to the county for Jan. 1, 1943.

Slight revisions in the crop goals have been made. The goals, the 1942 production and percentage in the number of acres are shown in the following table:

HAWAII'S RIGHTS TO BE RETURNED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The civilian authorities of Hawaii, which has been under total military rule since Pearl Harbor, will get some of their power back, the White House has announced today.

However, the announcement said, martial law would remain in effect and the writ of habeas corpus could be suspended. Details of the powers to be restored to civilian officials will be announced in Hawaii, it was stated.

There have been complaints from Hawaii and elsewhere against martial law. A high official of the interior department recently stated that every article of the bill of rights, except possible freedom of worship, had been violated.

Deleage Farinetti of Hawaii said last night that the announcement is "reassuring that the position of Hawaii as a territory, an integral part of the United States, and of its people as free Americans, will be preserved."

NEWSMEN WILL HEAR GOVERNOR

BOISE, Jan. 21.—Gov. C. A. Bottelstein and Harrison C. Dale, president of the University of Idaho, are included among speakers scheduled to address the annual mid-winter convention of the Idaho Editorial association, opening tomorrow, at the University of Idaho, Boise.

Burke and Dr. W. F. Swindler, head of the University of Idaho department of journalism, have been in Boise several days arranging the meeting. Burke will respond to the governor's welcoming address.

Representatives of the Federal government will address the editors on the wartime role of newspapers, and Army and Navy officials discuss problems of news releases from service and war activities.

Ortis Peterson of the Salt Lake City branch of the office of war information was also scheduled to speak. Under consideration were wartime problems of news releases during 1943.

Bernard MacIntyre, editor of the Stamp Free Press, will moderate the "off-the-record" round table discussion at a Dutch treat dinner tonight.

Confidential report on business policies will occupy the attention of delegates at Saturday morning session and in the afternoon advertisement will come in for consideration. The Boise Ad club will appear for the annual banquet.

Funds Over Bond Quota Will Repair Mighty Cruiser Boise

Funds raised through the sale of bonds in excess of Idaho's quota of $2,400,000 during the period between Jan. 18 and Feb. 22 will be used in the repair of the cruiser USS Albatross, which is being repaired at the Puget Sound Navy Yard in Everett, Wash.

The local Lions club is alluding with other Lions clubs in the state in a campaign to raise funds for the repair of the hero cruiser.

Plan Midnight Show

One of the principal means of raising the local club's quota in the "midnight" campaign will be a midnight show at the Orpheum theater Saturday, Feb. 13. Admission will be by means of a souvenir ticket purchased with the purchase of a bond. The show will be held at 11:30 p.m. at the Orpheum theater, which will be donated for the purpose by Paramount joining with the Orpheum theater.

The show will be made that time to the campaign.

The meeting was one of the busiest ever held by the local Lions club. O. J. Bohrer introduced Dr. O. W. Roca who discussed the financial analysis and "march of doom" of the Albatross.

He also discussed the history and symptoms of the disease and the efforts made to curb its spread. He emphasized the effects of the coming paralysis organization and the Junior Chamber of Commerce in and two nurses to the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, to learn the Kenny treatment for the repair of the hero cruiser.

Jay Merrill announced that the U. S. home demonstration group would address the club and that the wives of members would be invited to attend the meeting.

President Horace Holmes presented Dr. O. W. Roca with a key in recognition of his membership and also welcomed J. E. Hodson as a new member, presenting him with a Lions pin.

Ernest J. Johnson introduced his guest, Harold Salisbury, field auditor for the unemployment compensation division.

Heyburn School Assembly Hears Radio Play Talk

HEYBURN, Jan. 21.—Radio plays were the subject of a meeting of the Masque and Torch club of the high school at its assembly. Sylvia Martin reported on "Radio Plays of Today" and how they are produced.

The freshmen will present the next assembly program, which will be under direction of Miss Simpson. Members of the committee are Donna Jean Croft, Barbara Mortson and Donald Nutting.

The G. A. is at work on its assembly. The committee is comprised of Kathryn Berlin, Marjorie Nelson, Wanda Merz and Donna Jean Croft. Plans also have been made for the annual G. A. formal dance.

The cast of the student play, "Mrs. Miniver," has been chosen. It is as follows: Ruth Horton, Donald Nutting, Catherine Heitner, Duane Lewis, Donald Holmes, Wynne Sny, Margaret Wilson, Keith Hedrick, Marjorie Higley, Donna Harris, Barbara Hinkley, Wanda Merz, Paul Lettice and Garthie Chey. They have already started rehearsals.

CREDIT PURCHASE OF GAS STOPPED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The petroleum administration today prohibited all credit buying of gasoline and oil for use in private motor cars, effective Feb. 1.

The order provides that retail gasoline marketers or suppliers may not "sell, accept or participate in the granting or accepting, directly or indirectly of credit for sale with the use of any petroleum product," but makes exceptions for connection with Federal, state or local governments, for commercial use of motor boats, and motor vehicles displaying "T" ration stickers.

An order effective Jan. 1 had limited use of credit cards to a single retail outlet. Previously these cards had been used in any station operated by the same company.

Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum administration assistant, said the directive was to enable marketers to reduce bookkeeping personnel, thus saving manpower and reducing costs.

Commenting on the new order, Davies said: "The intent remains the same."

The Japanese zero fighting plane, plywood and fabric constructed, is fast, maneuverable and light but slightly vulnerable since it lacks armor.

First Aid Classes Opened to Public

A working knowledge of first aid is valuable now as never before and is an important asset in peace as well as in time of war. Again the opportunity is opened for individuals and organizations to take part in local classes.

It was started at the First Aid Instructors club session this week that a number of first aid instructors is available to lead classes either in the afternoon or evening. Five adult classes are now in progress in this vicinity. Ramsey Abbott, president of the group, announced that individuals and clubs wanting to participate in first aid classes may call Frank Walzels or the Red Cross to arrange meetings. Next speaker at the meeting was Dr. William F. Posner who urged "As well as keep up first aid in peace as well as in wartime, and called attention to the Boston fire tragedy as an example of what can happen in a moment when women schooled completely in first aid were invaluable."

Food in Wartime Is Program Topic At P-T-A Meet

COODING, Jan. 21.—Gooding P. T. A. members Monday evening heard a program on nutrition for war time meals. The program is conducted by Mrs. John W. Clouser, home economics instructor, including Miss Olive Perry, Miss Fay Anderson and Miss M. J. Peterson, high school students.

Mrs. Clouser said that it was the goal of the program to get food on a par with gun. She said it is to be the responsibility of the woman to study the nutritional aspects of food to plan appetizing, balanced meals to save money and fuel food. Food will win this war and help build a new peace if we will let it. The program was in a short talk showing the importance of proper food for health.

During the business session conducted by Mrs. Frank Varin, president, plans were discussed for winter fund-raising for the series of lectures on wartime living by Mrs. Julia Harrison, adult education instructor, Mrs. Clara Newman, Clouser. It was also announced that the hot lunch program is continuing with the business funds had been withdrawn.

A complete report was given on the current progress of the P. T. A. which held more than $22. The attendance record for monthly prizes for the room having been maintained, Mrs. Clara Newman was presented with a picture for the Junior High school, Mrs. E. P. Gray, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Leo Frank were presented with certificates for their service.

Two new members were introduced and the program concluded with a song.

NCAA BASKETBALL FINALS TO BE HELD IN MADISON SQUARE

Two of Major College Meets Choose Garden

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Madison Square Garden, where all attendance records for basketball have been made, will become the capital of the court game in March when the pick of the nation's college boys will meet in the annual national invitation tournament.

The invitation tournament, sponsored by the local colleges, will match eight selected teams on March 22 and 23. In addition, a Red Cross benefit program also is being arranged to fit in with the invitation meet.

Dates To Be Set
Final dates for the NCAA's two tournaments and its western sectional meet at Kansas City will not be decided until sometime next month, but Owen indicates they probably would be held the third and fourth week-ends of March.

Stanford 1942 Champion
The first meet will be the eastern tournament and Stanford the western, with the west coast team going on to take the championship.

West Virginia university won the first tournament, defeating Western Kentucky in the finals. Originally, it was intended to transport for eastern teams to the regional meet.

'I AM A MURDERER'

BY MORRIS MARKEY

THE STORY: This is the story of the "perfect crime"—the murder of Col. Vaughan Dunbar. The story is told in the library of his Long Island estate—and of the events leading up to it. It is a story a few days before the crime has been reported. The murderer, a few days before the crime has been reported. The murderer, a few days before the crime has been reported.

A VICTIM'S GAME

CHAPTER XIV
We approach now that critical Sunday afternoon in September, 1937, the day which preceded the activities of everybody concerned had been conventional, and the atmosphere, and therefore reflecting no shadow on the harsh event that was to come.

Cynthia had called on the Dunbars, and the young man, a dandy who had been talked and even a little more. It had been a brief visit. When he returned to Stone House, Captain Pouch was sitting with Colonel Meredith.

The Colonel was in the parlour, and Cynthia had been talking and reflecting, but it seemed to Cynthia that Captain Pouch had hurried through his punch. Likewise, it seemed to her, it was as if she were talking to a wall.

Even Colonel Meredith seemed upon the circumstance, after Vaughan Dunbar had been killed. Our guest seemed a little perturbed. He said, and Captain Pouch observed that Dunbar was likely to have been killed in the summer weather.

During these days, when Henry Prentiss had developed with his customary informality, to chat by the swimming pool or sip long drinks on the lawn, the Colonel had been entertained at cocktail time at the club. Though as Fred West had fully expected to Cynthia, "She had a hell of a time persuading the chairman of the home committee to put it on the card."

At this affair, as a matter of unimportant incident, the sergeant upon the polo game was reduced to decently modest sums, and good humor was thoroughly restored.

Mitchell Greer had been observed in one of the Colonel's sporadic periods of much business—letters and telegrams and cables. On that Sunday, Vaughan Dunbar arrived at Stone House at half after noon. He had been invited for luncheon, and the polo game, and the party which Cynthia was giving to celebrate the victory and console the vanquished.

The time rather earlier than had been expected, for it was Colonel Meredith's habit to make his last appearance at the club at luncheon time, and luncheon time was invariably at 1 o'clock. Cynthia was about to go to the club when Vaughan Dunbar had, in fact, to cool his heels in the darkened study for the better part of a quarter hour.

Then Cynthia appeared, and came for cocktails, and began a story about Bill Stewart which she had neglected to tell before. But she did not have the opportunity to finish it. For Mitchell Greer entered, bearing a telegram addressed to Vaughan Dunbar in the care of Colonel Meredith.

The telegram seemed to annoy him. "Why the devil such a hurry?" he murmured to himself. And then, to Cynthia, "It shall have to run back to the city. It's a plucky nuisance."

"Oh, dear me," she said. He held her hand for the yellow sheet. "Urgent that you confer with me immediately. In a moment of delay costly. Important now developments. Important now developments."

"This is just simply horrible," Cynthia said. "Can't you get him on the phone?"

"Vaughan Dunbar shook his head. "Can't," he said. "I'll just have to go. But I shall return sometime in the afternoon. In the meantime, I'll find my way back to the house here—if I may."

"His hat was still on the table. He picked it up, turned her hand for an instant, bowed and simply went. He walked out of the door and down the steps and got into his car and left with a satisfactory and was actually precipitate. Cynthia Meredith and Mitchell Greer were altogether startled. They stared at each other with wide open mouths.

"Holy smoke!" said Mitchell Greer. "The guy must've been crazy for his leap, did he?"

"Cynthia was head-splitting. "It must have been—must have been terrible important," she said.

"I'll bet his road blocker, turned out to be a cop. He moved like the G-2 was behind the plan!"

"Take a look at that," said Cynthia—therefore picking up from the tray on the table.

And Colonel Meredith came in to retrieve the news that his guest had been called back on matters of great moment, with the Colonel retreated in his mind faintly.

They finished their cocktails and were moving in toward the luncheon table when Henry Prentiss called and promptly got himself invited to share the meal. But he could not come. Horse trouble. A pony he needed for the game had cast a shoe and cut a pattern, and another pony had cooled twice, and Henry Prentiss was up to his elbows in veterinarians.

He had called to ask whether Cynthia would care to buy the horse for him.

"I'll bet his road blocker, turned out to be a cop. He moved like the G-2 was behind the plan!"

"Take a look at that," said Cynthia—therefore picking up from the tray on the table.

OFFICER ACCUSED OF MAN'S DEATH

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21 (AP)—Mrs. Maxine Beebe, widow of Stanley H. Beebe, who died allegedly after a beating administered by police officers, today had told a coroner jury the name of the officer she believes fatally beat her husband.

Citing her testimony at the inquest, Mrs. Beebe has asked if the jury found any ground of "why" wounded her husband.

"I know who sprang my husband," she replied. "His name is Otto Schlink." Schlink was turkney at central jail, whose name she said she did not recall.

His arrest, Dec. 19 on a drunk charge, led in general hospital, from effects of a ruptured gall bladder, 10 days later.

Officer Boom Schlink was sitting in the coroner's jury room.

Mrs. Beebe said that when she went to Santa Anita jail, where her husband was released after paying a $400 fine, she saw him.

"They killed me—they killed the guts out of me because I didn't want to be arrested."

More than a score of uniformed officers, witnesses at the inquest, listened raptly to Mrs. Beebe's story.

Permit, now District Attorney John Doecker, whose office is investigating the Beebe case and other reported beatings of police brutality.

Detective James Paul Gully, policeman John W. Yates, who kicked a Los Angeles Herald-Examiner photographer, G. E. Puller, during the Beebe investigation, yesterday was found guilty of assault by a police officer in the case and was sentenced to 60 days.

Phillips "grabbed" a picture of Yates as the officer stood in the foyer of the district attorney's office, Yates' defense said that he intended to kick the camera and hit the cameraman Phillips was illegally injured.

N. Y. "El" Transplanted

New York City's antiquated "El" trains have "come back" for wartime duty. They'll haul shipyard workers from Oakland, Calif., to Richmond's Kaiser shipyard No. 2 and will have an estimated capacity of 50,000 persons. Defense workers are shown here about to board the first "El" to make the run.

IMPERIAL VALLEY CROPS DAMAGED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21 (AP)—Further aggravating the food situation, frost's withering touch left heavy damage today on vegetable crops in the Imperial valley, last major producing area of the nation's leading agricultural state.

A killing frost, Imperial county's first in five years, virtually destroyed squash, pea and tomato crops worth thousands of dollars, County Agricultural Commissioner B. A. Hartzell reported.

Damaged, he said, were oranges, grapefruit and tangerine. Pruning blossoms flour, but he hoped the vines may produce a new crop next month. Water pipes, now frozen.

Damage throughout southern California to valencia and navel oranges was estimated by Flood Young, federal meteorologist at Pomona, at 1 or 2 per cent.

Injury would have been heavier, he said, but for thousands of workers, including high school and junior college youths, who trudged through the frosty groves, including "a live projection" of southern California's 4,000,000 citrus grove plots.

Detroit automobile industries, he said, before Pearl Harbor, that only 30 per cent are now in production could be converted to war uses; 80 per cent of it is now in use.

LONG DISTANCE RATES REDUCED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Federal Communication Commission announced last night American Telephone and Telegraph company would reduce its long distance revenues by an estimated $20,000,000 per year, of which $34,700,000 would be an immediate saving to the public.

No reduction will be made in the charge for the initial three minutes of long-distance telephone calls, but the overtime charge will be cut.

At present the charge for each additional minute is one third of the charge for the first three minutes, but under the new rates, the charge will be one fourth.

For example, if a long distance call from Washington to Denver costs $3 for three minutes, $3 for the minutes where as under the new schedule the five-minute call will cost $4.50, a saving of 50 cents.

The FCC said the reductions are being made under an agreement it reached with the A. T. and T.

The agreement calls for cancellation of an investigation ordered last November into all charges of A. T. and T.'s long lines department, which includes the leasing of telephone and telegraph wires, as well as the leasing of long-distance telephone service.

A public hearing in the investigation proceeded only two days before it was recessed and followed by private conferences.

Final Rites for Mrs. Landchester

HAGERMAN, Jan. 21 (AP)—Funeral services were held at the Methodist church for Mrs. Aurelia Jane Landchester, Rev. Dallas McCall officiated. Music was furnished by Mrs. Fred Roberts and Mrs. Paul Ferguson with Mrs. John W. Jones as the piano.

Honorary pallbearers were Guy Lemmons, J. W. Condit, and Fred Condit of Hagerman and Ed Bell, E. S. Ayers, and O. A. Smith of Bliss. Active pallbearers were John Ayers, Warren Farnsworth, Andrea Colvin and Arthur Butler, Bliss, and J. W. Condit and George Lemmons, Hagerman.

Mrs. Landchester was born in Pike county, Mo., March 17, 1875. She married Preston Robert Landchester in 1895 in Hagerman. A short time later they moved to Bliss, where they have resided for 46 years.

Survivors are her husband; a son, Husear Landchester, College Place, Wash., and a daughter, Elnor, residing in Florida, and also two foster children, Preston Robert McFadden and Ona, California. Mrs. Landchester was an active worker in the Hagerman Methodist church, being president of the church for several years at the time of her death. Burial was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery. Evans and Johnson funeral home, Bliss, was in charge.

The Public Forum

PHRASES CHAMBER STAND

Editor, Times-News: Your editorial comment, "The Chamber's Recommendations," is quite apt and to insure the citizens' grant act by safe tax. And again the chamber also proposes that the chamber and city, which liquor illegally either be licensed or sold away with entirely. My suggestion would be to strike all law "be done away with entirely."

And again the paragraph pertaining to state highway is also quite apt and to insure the citizens' grant act by safe tax. And again the chamber also proposes that the chamber and city, which liquor illegally either be licensed or sold away with entirely. My suggestion would be to strike all law "be done away with entirely."

The chamber's recommendation that the state highway directors' office and the department of public safety be divorced entirely from public safety benefits everyone but the politicians who like to use these offices for patronage. We would have far more efficiency and a better road system and improved law enforcement, all at less expense. If these departments were separated into a merit system, instead of being constantly subjected to political pressure, if there were anything to merit about these departments, they could be built up with a much better program.

This should be advocated and supported to the last.

URGES GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF FINANCE

Editor, Times-News: What a wonderful boom in finance Uncle Sam is about to give our affairs when he puts them for their services in genuine greenbacks.

Certainly that will be good constitutional money, the kind that Abraham Lincoln used during the Civil war and of which there are now nearly three hundred million dollars in circulation.

Such money is a claim against the nation for services rendered or goods produced. It is a legal obligation just as much as the U. S. bond is. The only difference is that the bond bears interest and is a mortgage on the whole nation, while the greenbacks do not bear interest but facilitate commerce.

If greenbacks can be used in Africa to pay our soldiers, why cannot treasury notes (greenbacks) be used here in the United States, to pay all government obligations, employees as well as soldiers?

Must we have two kinds of money, one for the laborer, farmer and merchant and another kind for the money lenders and bankers?

Wouldn't it be a wise thing to have more first, second and third class postoffice boxes, a checking depository for the convenience and protection of the people? Our postoffice is also a checking depository.

No bank would be possible for our money would be safe and available on demand.

Uncle Sam would then have complete control over inflation which is bad, and could just as readily stop deflation which is equally bad. There is no limit on how much money would still let the banks have their surplus while the banks could then pay all government obligations, employees as well as soldiers?

Let us ask for government control of money affairs, which is most vital to the life of the nation.

How long must we be sheep and let the wolves eat us?
