

CIANO IS ENVOY TO VATICAN CITY

By The Associated Press

After six years in the limelight as Italian foreign minister, Premier Mussolini's son-in-law, Count Galeazzo Ciano, was relegated today to the comparatively obscure post of ambassador to the Vatican.

The appointment was announced last night in axis broadcast less than 48 hours after the appointment had been ousted from the foreign ministry in a sweeping cabinet reshuffle which stirred widespread speculation in allied circles.

Italian propagandists belatedly set about trying to explain the shakeup.

CLAPPER'S OBSERVATIONS NATIONS AT WAR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The best news and in London that Hitler is depending on his submarines to save him from defeat is strengthened by the further promotion of Admiral Karl Dönitz, commander of the submarine fleet, and the British expect some very destructive moves ahead. Defensive measures through rapid construction of escort ships, and more use of the airplane, and the combination of all other possible kinds of attack, will be necessary to hold our own. You may have noticed these important hints on how to get best results under a point rationing system. So let's review them.

Spend the high-point value stamps first. This will leave the lower, more easily manipulated denominations, keeping the family ration budget flexible.

The average housewife will have two or more ration books to work with. If top value stamps are spent first, she will have plenty of "change" left in the combined books of the whole family. It can easily be seen that under point rationing, two or more can live — not cheaper — but more satisfying than one. For an individual living on a tight budget, one luxury or scarce canned delicacy, for instance, might wipe out a week's worth of rationing. A family operating on four ration books, on the other hand, might easily afford the same luxury to be shared by the four persons.

In contrast to the coupon ration program for sugar and coffee, points left over from one ration period will be redeemable during the next period. This means that points do not rush out on the last day of the first points ration interval and cash can be saved for remaining points. In your book, fitting your needs with difficulty to the exact number of points left over, a home economist can add to those points left a few points for the next period and something you really want and need.

Here's another thing to remember: The new rationing plan is based on the point rationing program. In stamps will be changed. Therefore, a home economist will either lose the two extra points or will be forced to buy a new ration book. The difference in order to get the full value of her stamp.

Trees Discussed By Garden Club

Featured on the program of the Twin Falls Garden club last week were discussions of tree preservation, especially nut trees and dwarf fruit trees. Mrs. J. S. Feldman reported that various fruits can be produced on trees which have been trained to dwarf root stock so that the tree never becomes large. These are of special interest to city dwellers because they take little space and can be grown with a hand saw, and the trees start bearing at an early age.

Mrs. Feldman stated that the black walnut, which is accepted as one of the most adaptable shade trees, can be trained to dwarf root stock so that it will bear at an early age.

Mrs. H. T. Blake gave information on the National Federation of Garden Clubs. The roll call topic was "My favorite garden catalogue." Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Payne March 2.

Here's One Type Of Farm Device That's Unwanted

Pay the poor spring tooth harrow! With nearly every other implement of the farm demanded by hundreds of farmers, the spring tooth harrow is fast becoming a thing of the past.

That the Twin Falls county farm machinery rationing committee covered Saturday as it prepared to wind up the rationing of farm machinery.

The committee was given a quota of eight spring tooth harrows but there was no one requesting the implement from among the hundreds of farmers.

The spring tooth harrow quota was one of three which were more than sufficient to cover the needs of the county farmers.

The committee expected to complete its work by Saturday afternoon after a full week studying the thousands of applications for machinery.

Markets at a Glance

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (AP)—Further profit cashing today clipped prices off most stock market leaders without a great deal of damage to the list as a whole.

The opening bid plus change was erased in many cases. While scattered spots of quiet strength persisted, minor declines were dominant in the final hour.

The war news still was a prop for sentiment.

Sears Roebuck made a new high for more than a year in the futures market.

Longer term bonds were in demand, with the price of the 10-year Treasury note rising to 104 1/2.

HERE'S WHAT

YOU

CAN DO FOR VICTORY IN 1943:

BUY BONDS

Yes sir! And yes ma'am! It's as simple as that—just buy bonds—but do it with a vengeance to bring home those boys from Guadalcanal, Africa, England, Greenland, Australia, India . . . all those far-away places where American fighting men are storming the forts of fascism and dictatorship. Buy 'em as if you were throwing slugs into a Jap pill-box with a steaming, red-hot, shoulder-shaking machine gun. Make up your mind right now your bonds do help to win the war! We've talked about ten per cent—let's top that this month and every month. Let's repair the Cruiser Boise and a couple of sister ships besides! Let's not be content with one bond, let's strive for two! And when it comes to that—who are you helping anyway? Sure—you're helping that fighting man in some steaming jungle or wind-swept desert—but remember, too, you're helping yourself to the sweetest investment that was ever offered by your Uncle Sam. You're helping yourself, that's who! Now—get in there and pitch for Victory in 1943 with every penny you can spare! Don't wait! Invest pennies, dimes, quarters and dollars in War Stamps and Bonds now—the investment every dictator-ridden Jap and German would like to be able to buy!
