(From Page One)

Stohr set his ski-plane down twice on the snowbound little lake to pick up five fliers who were living in a snow dug-out, existing on squirrel "broths" and chickadees for food.

The five, Lieut. Robert R. Orr, Lieut. James V. Kelly, Staff Sgt. Forrest B. Hoover, who broke his leg in the forced landing, Staff Sgt. Paul Loewen and Corp. Earl A.

Tuesday, the three missing fliers made their way to Laketfork forest station near McCall. For 15 days they had battled snow more than 15 feet deep before reaching this haven of safety where they telephoned to the outside world for help.

"The one thing that I'm pleased about," said Lieut. Schermerhorn, "is that all of John Q. Public are out looking for us," he located John Q. Public all by ourselves."

NATIONAL LEAGUE OFFERS PHILS TO ONE GROUP OF BUYERS

Action Awaited On Acceptance

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19 (AP)—The new owners of the Philadelphia Phils—whoever they are—will take over the National League's oldest team with the host wishes of retiring President Gerald P. Nugent, who never could do much with them himself.

"I wish the new owners—have no idea who they may be—good luck," Nugent said, "and they'll need it. No matter how much money you have, you need plenty of luck in baseball."

Such was the graying ex-magistrate's view of the big league, voted after the National League bought up its stock on a $2-a-share deal and announced that a re-sale would be made within a week.

The buyer presumably will be a syndicate headed by William Cox, New York lumberman, and including L. W. Potter, West Coast oilman, Philadelphia, and Capt. G. Herbert Walker, army air corps, stationed at Dayton, Ohio.

The choice of prospective buyers has narrowed to one group, Ford Frick, league president, said. "I am as certain as anything on this earth that the deal will be closed within seven days. No one has already told this group, 'the club is yours,' but there are certain indications to be created."

The transaction that ended Nugent's 10-year reign, during which the team has been one of the least successful in the league standings, was the sale of 4,000 shares of the club's 10,000 outstanding shares of stock, including all of the 2,000 shares owned by Nugent and his wife.

The reported price was $10 a share and although the club was said to have owed the league $100,000, Frick had announced that $100,000 would come out of the deal.

"Some cash," the sale which the league decided upon a week ago to inject new blood and cash into the league's oldest team, was consummated at a stockholders meeting with Frick yesterday.

Budge Becomes Private in Army

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19 (AP)—Don Budge, king of the tennis world yesterday in an army private today. A day after Joe DiMaggio had ended his military service, Budge was ready to go anywhere they order me.

He reported after a seven-day furlough to the Monterey peninsula training. Married two years ago, Budge learned tennis as a boy in Oakland and Berkeley.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—The national invitation and the NCAA basketball championships to be decided at Madison Square Garden in the post-season tournaments—were matched today for a Red Cross charity concert on the floor.

The Sports Round-up

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr., Twin Falls, Feb. 19 (AP)—Georgetown's Hugh Short will go into the army next week without a chance to show his prowess in the all-time basketball record-breaking 1943 form before his schoolmates.

The only Iroquois team in action last night was Coach Nap Hildebrand and the members of the male relay team.

The Blue College League, which held football games against several teams last fall on the same basis as last year, has no more football teams.

When Pitt's basketball team wound up its home season with a 21-10 victory over the Blue College League, Coach Carlsson rushed out on the floor to thank the senior players when he put his arms around them and a technical foul called against him.

He couldn't afford to keep 'em. To sell a club with as many fans as the Blue College League, he had to have a crowd of 100,000.

Accompanied by Mister Ford C. Frick.

TODAY'S BEST STAR: Bob Fosse, Pasadena, Calif. Star-Nugent: "We can't make up our minds whether or not we are justified in doing it. We're playing while our boys are overseas are in prospect of dying." Probably the answer will be "Superman."

Card Twirlers Limber up

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 19 (AP)—Harry Gumbert (left) and Howard Pollett, probably the first major league pitchers to limber up, worked out at Houston, Tex., using Houston Bill Williams and the Tulsa Oilers.

Horse Racing Men Protest

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—Horse racing—$100,000,000 industry—today protested against government "interference" in the sport of kings.

Through the thoroughbred racing associations, representing 35 member tracks, the sport of kings today demanded the same consideration given any other large business during wartime.

This stand for the sport was announced by T. J. Hendon, president of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, and Ben Lindheimer of Arlington and Washington parks. Hendon said that the industry was willing to lend its leading figures to confer with government officials whose daily work is to control the sport but who may be unfamiliar with racing and its complications.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—Hockey players, members of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, believe that the national championships and a few other major tournaments will be staged this year, although nearly all of the senior men players are in service.

Poll Favors Keeping Ball

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 19 (AP)—Fourteen states have reported in the athletic round table poll on "baseball in 1943, yes or no?" and thus far the answer is "yes" by a margin of eight to six.

Among those most strongly upholding baseball in wartime is John La Prade, 16, but boy for the Chicago Cubs, who wrote that he wished "60,000,000 other fans felt the way I do about the game."

But a man from Queens Village, N. Y., argued that "people at ball parks can't forget their troubles and razzing the umpire, and suggesting that 'America keep baseball and not let the Japs have it.'"

Officials of the round table said their efforts to obtain expressions of fans about continuing baseball would be extended to soldiers overseas this week, with a shortwave broadcast to go out from San Francisco to men in the far Pacific.

The U. S. B. Ring Fighters Win

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 19 (AP)—Idaho State branch university's boxing team took a 3-1 decision from an army all-star aggregation last night at the University of Idaho field house.

Proceeds from the program, above expressed, went to the Salt Lake Junior Chamber of Commerce drive to collect sports equipment for army camps in the intermountain area.

All bouts but one—in which Francis Giraud, 126, of the Logan marines knocked out Monte Marshall, 124, of the U. S. in the third round for the service team's only win—were unimpressive.

In one of the evening's features, a special heavyweight bout, Zuke, army air base, Salt Lake City, won an unpopular decision from Paul Williams of Utah State.

The other special bout, Jeff Pelton, 175, of the Desert army, defeated Earl Randolph, 165, of the air base.

Camilli Would Like Managing

LAYTONVILLE, Calif., Feb. 19 (AP)—By the way, Branch Rickey, if you'll be needing a new manager for your Brooklyn Dodgers, Dolph Camilli says he might be persuaded you'd wave the job in his direction.

Camilli, the Dodgers' first baseman, has stated repeatedly that he was through with baseball for the duration, but between cheers on his last ranch he let on that he was more than a little interested in the Brooklyn managerial situation, now that Leo Durocher is on the verge of entering the armed forces.

With a wife and five children, Camilli presumably has no immediate prospects of being drafted.

Asked if he would be interested in replacing Durocher, the 35-year-old Camilli commented: "That would make me think twice."

He said he had changed his mind about remaining out of baseball, but that he "would listen to any proposition."

Camilli, voted the National League's most valuable player in 1941 and 1942, is the son of the late of the Brooklyn club, in San Francisco.

Rickey left New York by plane for the Pacific coast yesterday, saying he would like to persuade Camilli to remain in uniform for the 1943 season, but as far as the managerial aspect is concerned, that was a long shot.

"I'm not very happy about Camilli because I think he has made up his mind to stay in the army," said the possibility that Manager Leo Durocher may go into the army has not the remotest connection with my tip."

Shreveport to Quit League

SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 19 (AP)—Shreveport declared stepped out of the Texas league for 1943 today with the sale of 10 players to the St. Paul club of the American association.

Ten of the 16 are now with the Shreveport team. Six were scheduled to report to the Saints in the spring.

Class E Leagues Receive Support

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 19 (AP)—President W. G. Brannaman of the National Amateur Athletic Union (NAAU) announced today that his proposal for wartime Class E leagues had drawn the support of the national amateur basketball federation.

Announcing the support, Brannaman said that he had suggested the amateur leagues adjust its eligibility rules to permit professionals now engaged in war work to participate in the leagues.

The matter will be discussed at the federation's annual convention in Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 26-27.

Brannaman suggested organization of such leagues to permit men now engaged in war work to participate without giving up their jobs.

Sports Leader Raps College Presidents

CHICAGO, Feb. 19 (AP)—Maj. John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics for the Western conference, said today a group of college presidents had advised army officials to take a stand against participation in intercollegiate athletics.

He said the action was taken by a few university heads "who don't like college athletics," and that it was followed up by last week's announcement by army officials that universities were to be trained for the army in colleges would not have time to come.

"These college presidents present arguments against intercollegiate sports which are unconvincing," Griffith said. "For instance, they refer to a transportation problem. Really two of our Big Ten teams played a basketball game on a night when the temperature stood at zero and the 14,000 spectators there and most of them walked to the field house."

Ray Robinson Meets Wilson

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—Ray Robinson hits the comeback trail tonight in Madison Square Garden.

It will be a unique "comeback" because the 30-year-old Robinson, who meets California Jackie Wilson, won a recent at nearby Mitchell field in the United States, has been beaten only once in his career.

But the "sugar" boy with the trigger right took what amounted to a real shot downward three weeks when he dropped a decision to middleweight Jake LaMotta in Detroit after piling up 125 successive victories.

The sergeant himself ran into Lamotta in his first major eastern fight and Jackie looked none too good as the rugged New Yorker cuffed him about to take the decision.
