GANDHI FINISHES HIS 27 DAY FAST

NEW DELHI, March 3 (AP)—Mohandas K. Gandhi, 73-year-old Indian national leader, ended a 27-day hunger strike in protest against his internment by the British.

He ate a meal of orange juice at 9:30 a. m. today (10 p. m. MWT, Tuesday).

In a communique announcing the end of the fast, Gandhi was weak and showed signs of strain but was in good health.

In contrast to public ceremonies which have attended the fast, only members of his immediate family were present in the Aga Khan palace at Poona to take part in singing and prayers as his self-imposed ordeal was brought to a conclusion.

Looking very tired but cheerful, Gandhi said in a weak voice, "I am very thankful to the doctors for serving me so well, but I feel that I must have been something higher than the doctors' power that saved me."

Two miles away in a courtyard in Poona, 200 of Gandhi's friends assembled with him to sing hymns and recite prayers.

His 81-year-old sister, Godan, to say prayers of thanksgiving.

Two minutes were spent in meditation before Gandhi accepted from his wife the orange juice representing the first nourishment he had taken in three weeks, except for small quantities of water and lime juice.

His doctors who attended him during the fast, were anxious to help him to maintain a close watch over Gandhi during his convalescence.

Remains Prisoner

With the end of the fast, Gandhi reverted to his status as a political prisoner, a political convict, which permitted him to receive visitors by appointment.

He was permitted to remain in his cell as he remains under detention.

Chaukavarthi Rajagopalachari, one of the Congress party leaders, issued a statement saying that Gandhi's fast had caused much anger and bitterness in India.

However, that Indian leaders who had met recently in New Delhi to take up the cudgels for Gandhi "should meet again and think freely."

British quarters obviously were relieved at his survival, as in the Gandhi was generally regarded as less of a menace to India's peace than a martyred one. Government circles indicated they expected no outbreak of trouble as a result of the fast.

Glenns Ferry Dream—Center For Recreation—Materializes

GLENN'S FERRY, March 3.—A community recreation center, long a dream of civic leaders and interested persons in the village of Glenn's Ferry, is now an actuality, thanks to the leadership of the P. M. C. A. association, headed by Mrs. Robert Keith, and the cooperation of village organizations and citizens.

Attendance of 123 young people at the opening of the center, situated in the former Haines ice cream parlor, two weeks ago, has been topped each evening the center has been open.

"There has long been a need for a community center in the town, but since the bowling alley has been closed and the ice cream parlor forced out of business because of government restrictions, the need has been more keenly felt than before," said Mrs. Keith.

"It is our hope that the center will serve the community in the same way that the Y. W. C. A. and M. C. A. serve the larger cities. Although it was planned chiefly for the entertainment of the youth of the village, it is open to all age groups, and has for its purpose to entertain people and occupy their leisure time."

"The plan is to provide a place where the children can meet for wholesome entertainment, and is not intended to draw them away from their homes," Mrs. Keith continued.

"The floor has been sanded, the machine having been loaned by the local Hoke-Payette office and used under supervision of Julius Knudsen and Jimmy Wilson and Mrs. P. A. Harmon assisting. Music for dancing is furnished by a juke box."

Employment Donated

Two pin-point tables, one donated by the village board and the other by the high school, and a certain billiard table, loaned by Dickie Prater, have been well patronized during the center's open hours. The booths and reading counter were loaned by Mrs. Annie Hansen. The rear is owned by L. A. Thurman and furniture was loaned by the Glen School.

There are now over 200 books in the library at the center, chiefly contributed by Mrs. L. A. Clavin. An.

NO SHORTAGE OF SPUDS PREDICTED

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—The supply of potatoes is running short but there should be no serious deficiency before the new crop comes in about June 1, agricultural department officials said today.

They contended that present supplies might not be sufficient to meet all demands.

Shipments of potatoes to market in January and February were reported to have been abnormally large, due to desire of producers to reduce shortages and avert the lower price ceilings which go into effect next month.

Meantime, office of price administration officials awaited a report from regional areas in Chicago who investigated alleged attempts by some producers to escape price ceilings on the regular run of potatoes by labeling them as "seed" potatoes which are not under price tops.

Dispatches from Chicago said potato dealers admitted privately that some of the "seed" potatoes undoubtedly would find their way to dinner tables.

It was stated also that growers were refusing to send carloads to major wholesale markets, preferring to sell to bidders who distributed them at high prices as "seed" potatoes.

An OPA spokesman said today that if the inquiry by regional authorities indicates that there is a "black market" springing up in potatoes, the government would act promptly.

The OPA policy has not been to fix selling prices of seedling products, but he said that presently for such a step was set about three weeks ago when price tops were fixed on seed sets.

Carp With Beer Good, Says Beck

BOISE, Ida., March 3 (AP)—Don't turn your nose up, or your thumbs down, on carp as food, the Idaho game department advised sportsmen and residents today, declaring that carp is "delicious with a cold bottle of beer."

Officials said they would ignore would-be who quipped, "what do you?" They said that when a statewide drive is completed to prove beyond reasonable doubt that carp properly prepared, is an edible dish, sportsmen will no longer sneer at the lowly carp.

"The principal factor making carp unpopular is prejudice," said James O. Beck, state director, suggesting that in Europe it is a highly esteemed dish.

"While it is true that the fish are not considered to be on a par with trout, bass or whitefish, and probably never will be," said Beck, "the general attitude of prejudice can be overcome by rating carp when it has been properly cooked."

For recipes, write the Idaho game department, he said.

BRITISH REPORT ON SUB SINKINGS

LONDON, March 3 (AP)—First Lord of the Admiralty A. V. Alexander hinted today that the allies sank more axis submarines in February than in any previous months in the war.

At the same time, he said, United Nations' ship production is showing an increasing margin over losses and the tonnage of British ships lost during the past three months was "much less" than that of the corresponding period last winter.

He also disclosed that the allies have moved 1,000,000 tons of supplies to north Africa.

The axis probably still is producing U-boats faster than the allies are sinking them, "but the gap is being reduced," Alexander said in introducing the navy estimates.

"The results in that direction during the last four months have been the most encouraging of the war and in February... we believe we have achieved the best results against U-boats yet achieved."

Alexander said convoys to Russia had cut Britain 200,000 tons of destroyers, six other warships, many merchantmen "and above all, valuable lives."

However, he continued, the sustenance brought to Russia by the "great dividend to the United Nations cause."

In the Mediterranean, he disclosed, the British navy with the help on two occasions of a United States aircraft carrier had ferried 744 fighter planes to Malta.

He placed German and Italian ship losses for the war at 5,000,000 tons in addition to 3,500,000 tons severely damaged.

CLASS A CAGE TOURNAMENT HERE RATED WIDE-OPEN AFFAIR

East Outfits Hold Edge

One of the most wide-open tournaments in history will get underway here Thursday when the 1943 Class A district session officially opens at 10 a. m. with a game between Jerome Tigers and Rupert Pirates.

With a group of evenly balanced clubs participating and every one of the eight teams given at least an out-of-the-stiff competition in recent years is predicted by veteran cage fans of the area.

However, the major strength will come from the east end of the district—four Oakes, Burley and Rupert. These three teams have had unusual success this year, and are expected to be the top of the tournament is over.

Following the opening game between Jerome and Rupert, Cowling Solons will have completed in very few Class A games this year, will take on the Twin Falls Bruins.

At night, the first game, that day, Burley meets Oakes and Oakes meets Piler.

At night the two morning winners battle in the first game and the two afternoon winners meet in the second contest.

The Game Saturday

Play will thus present an ample elimination game on a double champion is crowned—tentatively—for the night. But with the even competition, it wouldn't be surprising to see a play-off necessary for Sunday night.

Tournament Manager John Platt, Twin Falls high school principal, today announced that Larry Kinnison will be official time keeper, assisted by Glenn Terry, Twin Falls.

Platt announced that any hand which accumulates 25 minutes is eligible for free admittance to the session in which its team is playing. A reserved section, under supervision of ushers, will be made for each band. One section of the gymnasium, the same side, has been reserved for adults.

Special features have been arranged for the first two evenings of the tournament. Thursday night, between halves of the game, the Twin Falls pep band will give a special drill. Friday night a tumbling demonstration will be given by the section of Coach Mettler of Twin Falls. Twin Falls has been named "official band" of the tournament.

That fall to send a musical organization.

Willie Joyce Upsets Armstrong Comeback

By LISK SHOEMAKER

LOS ANGELES, March 3 (AP)—The Henry Armstrong express lay derailed on a sliding lout—switched there by Willie Joyce, a dusky wraith-like lightweight who beat "Howitzer" Clark in the fourth round of a close 10 round decision before 10,400 fans last night.

Joyce's upset win over Armstrong, who was a 3-1 favorite, was anything but a whistletop. The little Gary, Ind., youth, rated No. 2 lightweight in the country behind Beau Jack by the National Boxing association.

Although the winning margin was tight it was decisive and even Henry, suffering his second defeat in last night's 10th comeback attempt, couldn't find fault when Joyce's hand was raised.

"I lost the fight all right, I was rusty and missed a lot of punches," Joyce was awfully fast and I just couldn't seem to nail him down. I'd sure like to meet him again—soon."

Prospects of a rematch, however, were vague since Armstrong had several commitments coming up, the first a 10 round bout with Tully Lewis at San Francisco Monday night.

The underrated Joyce, who had won his last fight by a knockout, the previously unbeaten John Thomas, fought a hand picked type of boxing to send Henry back home empty-handed—except for an unannounced slice of the gate receipts.

Chief of a stalling job, Joyce refused to take Armstrong's bait to get in close and punch. He met Henry's rapid bullet-like punches with his stalling, slipped over his rights and then backed away—leaving the former champ flailing in the air.

Joyce turned the pace red-hot in the fifth, sixth and seventh rounds, but was out of sync in the eighth, when he punched that snapped Henry's head back and snatched his mouthpiece from the corner.

Both fighters weighed in at 137½, unusually low for Armstrong who has been checking in at 140 or better.

Southern Idaho tournament play will brood tomorrow when Class A meets begin at Twin Falls and Hoxburg and Class B meets get underway at Pocatello, Wendell and American Falls.

Lamanske Goes To San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 3 (AP)—Another big name in the Southwestern circuit is headed for the city of the San Diego Padres, President Charles Lott said tonight.

He won 22 games for Boise last season and had an earned run average of 2.74. He is a fastball artist and a good hitter.

From the team's point of view, the move is a big one. The Padres are a "club" with Lott and Lamanske in the lead, followed by Lott and Lamanske.

Little is known of the Coupling team's strength except that they have a great record in the Pacific Coast League, a veteran of three years. He has led his team in most years and will be tough to get by.

Twin Falls Bruins have had one of the best seasons in the history of the club, but a change of coaches in mid-season and as a result some change in the team's lineup.

They may be in the lineup of the team, but they may be the only club that the Bruins have been consistently this season, but they have put on good battles against Rupert, Rupert and Oakes in home performances.

FARM DEFERRING APPROVAL LOOMS

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Sponsors of legislation for blanket draft deferment of all farm workers counted 43 senators—six less than a clear majority—for it today as opponents worked on a substitute to limit its application to those engaged in "essential" agricultural activities.

"It looks like we might have enough to pass it," said Senator Bankhead, D. Ala., whose blanket farm deferment measure was approved by the military committee in a vote yesterday in slightly modified form despite opposition from the war department and other service. The main change went back such deferments after Jan. 1, 1944.

"Once change, don't amount to anything," the Alabama noted reporters. "The date limitation makes no difference because the army says it has no plans for induction after the first of the year."

In the house, the Kibler bill to give married men and men with children draft deferment priorities apparently had struck a snag and its backers admitted they were having difficulty extracting it.

Approved almost two weeks ago by a 21 to 2 vote of the military committee, the measure could be voted on by the house under normal procedure, until after clearance by the rules committee.

Chairman Sabath, D. Ill., said he saw little prospect for rules committee hearings before next week, although he "cannot be able to squeeze them in late this week."

RESCUERS STILL WORKING IN MINE

BEARCRK, Mont., March 3.—Rescue workers, crawling on hands and knees through piles of debris, scoured the lower reaches of the south rock mine today for the 34 miners trapped since Saturday morning by an explosion that has exacted a known death toll of 10.

A. W. Hunk, assistant mine superintendent, said the rescue effort, blocked temporarily by a breakdown in the hastily repaired ventilation system, was proceeding rapidly.

A new crew of 62 rescue workers entered the intricate passageways of the 34-year-old mine after lunch today and began several hours of strenuous work at the bottom of the mine.

Rescue squads have brought the bodies of only two of the 20 known victims to the surface. "Alice Blue-Gown" with Mrs. S. Katsky accompanying in particular. Capt. Ralph E. Smith gave a patriotic address. Mrs. Wilbur Bell, Mrs. W. W. Woodard, Mrs. Price Serna and Mrs. Marian Balch, dressed as colonial men and women, with Mrs. Hawk at the piano, danced the minuet.

Searchers were driven from the mine by the black cloud yesterday after finding six of the 20 bodies a short distance from the largest number of miners believed to have been working. Five more bodies were uncovered later in the day, and another was found this morning.

Hunk said the bodies of the miners probably would be found from time to time in small groups, since they were working seven men to a "room" at the No. 5 level of the mine at the time of the blast.

FRANKE LEGISLATURE FOR KILLING GRANT ACT

Editor, Times-News: I have read several articles concerning the recent Idaho legislation for voting against the "senior citizens grant act," and the governor for slaking the bill killing the grant act. Personally I voted against the act at the general election. The country is now at war, and every one must sacrifice whether they are young or old. Our boys who are putting their life into this conflict, even their lives must be cared for by the people at home, must stand by them to the very limit of our ability.

I further voted against the act because it was a Townsend move. I have opposed the Townsend plan from the time it started to the present. Their plan has allowed no one to escape. They exacted money and got it by clever methods from the humblest and most helpless, no one too black, too crippled or unfortunate to escape the tempting bait of $200 per month. The big bait was very attractive to all, regardless of age, sex or condition of mind. It was such a rich field that the field was overrun with all kind of exploitation to the simple minded old people by the promoters.

Clubs were formed all over the country and prayers were offered and hymns sung to the honor of Dr. Townsend, the great liberator of the poor old people. The plan covered all of the old people with $200 per month whether they needed it or not. The plan was failed "resulting" because they claimed the money would revolve from the government to the people and return from the people back to the government, like a band operating from one pulley on another pulley. And that worked with the thinking.

Now so far as the old people needs are concerned I think the state and federal government are doing splendidly for them. No one is starving and all are sharing alike in this life. The death sentence that is farne. We must sacrifice, we must fight. We must never give up to the powerful enemies who are doing all in their hellish efforts to destroy all that is near and dear to anyone who loves freedom and the blessedness of Christianity. I congratulate the action of the legislature and the governor in side-tracking the grant act.
