PRICE 5 CENTS

CHINESE THROW BACK JAPANESE CAPITAL ATTACK

CHUNGKING, May 8 (AP)—Strong Japanese forces which landed on the southern shores of Chungking lake three days ago in a thrust toward Chungking, capital of China, have been driven back after a fierce Chinese counter-attack. It was announced officially tonight.

The Chinese high command said the Japanese who established a beachhead at Yungchuan, May 5, took to their ships and fled after suffering heavily at the hands of Chinese defenders, who engaged them in three days of fighting.

The withdrawal, the high command said, was completed yesterday, the survivors returning by boat to Yungchuan, an enemy beach on the northern fringe of the lake just south of the Yangtze river.

An attempt by the Japanese to encircle the western shore of the lake, however, met with a similar fate. Chinese troops fell back and evacuated the town of Anshing after street fighting in which they inflicted more than 600 casualties.

Some 1,000 Japanese troops had penetrated their Chinese lines near that town, surrounded and "wiped out."

Japanese planes, striking at Chungking some 50 air miles to the south, dropped some 100 incendiary bombs on the city and its suburbs today, killing or wounding about 40 Chinese.

SEVEN HITS ON ATTU WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—Army heavy and medium bombers and fighters blasted Japan's remote island of Attu today, the heaviest aerial bombardment of the island since the war was declared there, in a series of seven raids launching an attack on the island.

Attu, a small island in the Aleutians, is the only Japanese-held island in the North Pacific.

On the island, Japanese fighters, planes, doubling as land bombers, blasted installations of Kiska, another Japanese-held island in the Aleutians, in the night.

Madang, a small island in the New Guinea area, was also the target of a heavy attack today.

Vegetable Price May Be Cut 30 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—The government today began meeting farmer demands for a lower cost of living by ordering a 10 per cent cut in the retail prices of beef, pork, lamb, mutton, butter and coffee, and indicating that a roll-back ranging from 30 to 40 per cent in the price of canned and fresh vegetables would follow.

The 10 per cent price cut on seven major food items will become effective June 1. But once machinery for rolling back prices is set in motion, an office of price administration spokesman said it can be used on any item within a few days.

The present objective of Price Administrator Prentiss Brown, who announced the roll-back program, is said to be the return of the cost of living to the Sept. 15, 1942 level by July 1—a month after the first roll-backs are effective.

Rebates on many prices will be effective next Monday by imposition of new dollars-and-cents ceilings. In many prices, the government expects to make additional savings to consumers: Beef and veal, three cents a pound; pork, four cents a pound; butter, between four and five cents a pound; coffee, about three cents a pound.

The government will become a "lock-steady-and-buyer" purchaser of food under the program which will be financed by a government subsidy at the processor level.

Now in American Hands

Bizerte, the biggest port in Africa, was because of its port and airfield and nearest to Europe, is now in the hands of the American troops. They marched into the city Friday when axis resistance there collapsed. Simultaneously the British captured Tunis.

The capture of Bizerte is a major blow to the German position in North Africa. It cuts off the main supply line to the German forces in Tunisia and opens the way for a complete encirclement of the German forces.

1,000 Captured as Bizerte, Tunis Fall in Allied Offensive

By WILLIAM W. KING
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, May 8 (AP)—Remnants of the beaten African army, devoid of supply bases and air support, were herded along the bomb-ridden roads skirting the gulf of Tunis today toward Cap Bon peninsula with allied armor and infantry in relentless pursuit which will end only when the last axis soldier in Africa is dead or captured.

Dawn found stubborn axis pockets of resistance still fighting on isolated hill positions, after the streets of Tunis and Bizerte, captured by the allies on Friday, had been cleared, but the enemy was not expected to be able to put up any real

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—A series of summer assaults around the rim of Adolf Hitler's fortress of Tunisia, the British expect to see after Tunis.

It was at this moment of great promise that the British, "to recall that this African campaign was never anything more than a preliminary to bigger things."

Some of those not attacking may be the British, some may have limited objectives.

But some will be the real thing. That, at least, is Britain's hope, the hope, the Telegraph said, that the African campaign "has been concluded at small enough cost to make possible a deep penetration of the delaying action except possibly in the mountains and at the base of Cap Bon peninsula.

With the new allied offensive less than 72 hours old, a spokesman said the number of enemy prisoners captured in this terrific push alone would total "many thousands" and there were indications that it would go beyond 10,000.

(The Algiers radio said in a broadcast recorded in London by the Associated Press that an estimated 120,000 axis soldiers were encircled.)

German allied troops chased the shattered enemy forces into the peninsula. American armored units cut off the enemy's retreat and all escape for axis forces in northern Tunisia and prisoners were counted by the thousands.

Canal Company ASKS WAGE OKAY
The Twin Falls Canal company has an application to raise the wages of its employees from $1.00 an hour to $1.25 an hour, which was filed before the national war labor board, it was said last night by James H. Schuchman, attorney for the company.

The canal company board, which is made up of representatives of the company and the workers, agreed to raise the wages of laborers from 60 to 65 cents an hour, but was stopped by the war labor board, it was said last night by James H. Schuchman, attorney for the company.

Both said the company was asking permission to increase the hourly rate of the men affected from 80 cents to 85 cents an hour, retroactive to April 1. The permit was requested after the board had received a ruling from the War Labor Board that the company could not raise the wages of the men affected from 80 cents to 85 cents an hour, retroactive to April 1.

DRIVE OVER TOP ON CANCER FUND

The Southern Idaho Fish and Game association, through its secretary, Lud A. Drexler, has called attention to the two-cent bounty which the state is paying for the destruction of magpies.

Those who aid in ridding the county of magpies need only to submit heads of the birds as proof of destruction. For payment of bounty, the heads should be taken to any of the following: Mr. Drexler at the Bernard Auto company, Twin Falls; Bill Bailly at Hansen; the Jasper service station at Filer, and Buhl Hardware at Buhl.

made by the Southern Idaho Fish and Game association which is reimbursed by the state at the end of the season. Magpie bounty payments in this area last year totaled $275.

Drexler, who is also chairman of the association's fish committee, made it known at the same time that the organisation planted 13,000 cutfish in Montauk lake, April 20.

The fish were approximately 12 inches long and weighed 600 pounds altogether.

A load of what Drexler describes as "kamloops" was recently taken from the association's hatchery here to Lake Pend Oreille in northern Idaho. Although these fish are deep, cold-water type of trout that grow to weigh as much as 30 pounds and are generally confined to Canadian waters. Drexler pointed out that the association's hatchery has been unusually successful in producing the kamlool, and has hopes of stocking Red-Fish lake with the new variety this fall or early next spring.

has planted in this vicinity a total of 450,000 of all kinds of game fish, some 11 to 12 inches long. Before the end of the year, 350,000 more will be released in south central Idaho's lakes and streams.

CATTLE RAISERS FAVOR CEILINGS

BOISE, May 8 (AP)—Cattlemen, apparently, make up one group of agricultural industry not beefing at ceiling prices on the retail product. Ceiling prices may save the industry from the eventual sudden downturn that can be expected after the war, John T. Cline of the Union stockyards at Chicago said today in an address before the Idaho Cattlemen's association.

Earlier, Frank B. Cook, president of the American National Livestock Association, and the Idaho group's president, Raymond J. Davies, told the members they must voluntarily take a lower price to cut cost pressures and restore normal operating conditions.

Willing to Share Cost

Cline pointed out that organized labor, and organized agriculture continues to ask higher wages and higher prices, adding that cattlemen were not willing to shift their share of the cost of the war to others.

Cline warned the cattlemen to prepare for a period of adjustment after the war is over.

"Then, carefully," he said, "and do not be brought off guard with full production upon a winning market."

He urged the calling of herds now when prices are highest, advised the establishment of smaller, more efficient herds and for stockmen to payoff their debts in preparation for leaner times.

Producing at Peak

Cline pointed out the entire livestock industry—cattle, sheep and hogs—was producing at a peak at a time when its products were most needed.

He said that though ready meat production this year, estimated at 1.5 billion pounds, was the greatest in history, civilian consumption would have to be cut due to the demands from the army, navy and lend-lease.

To the cattlemen and arm chair strategists who plead for increased meat production, he said:

"Where is the plan that can lay the keel of a calf and launch a normal wobbly-legged youngster in record time?"

Advises Speaks

Lieut. Col. Norman A. Davidson, Idaho selective service executive officer, told the cattlemen not to ask that their boys be sent back to the army.

He offered them this slogan: "Produce the beef and beef less."

"The army," he said, "is asking for 10 million men and it needs one million men every year for replacements. We are in a war. It is the army's job to win it, not yours to produce more."

AIDE SUCCEEDS GENERAL PATTON

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA, May 8 (AP)—Tail, slender Maj. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, 39, was named today to succeed Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, 46, who was named today to lead the U. S. second corps through the Tunisian campaign.

Patton, 46, was announced as going to another big command after fulfilling his job with the second corps.

Bradley, 39, was named today as the new commander in the south and was picked to command the U. S. forces in the northern hills because of a record as a brilliant infantry tactician.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, allied commander in chief, in the Mediterranean, announced Bradley's appointment, said Bradley took command of the American forces in Tunisia when the second corps moved suddenly from the Gafsa, Tunisia, Meknes area to the far north a few weeks ago.

Patton, said, was a brilliant, experienced expert, had been placed in charge of the second corps while it was stationed in the south because the armored force was able to operate freely over the flat country.

The second of a series of now famous illustrations of The Four Freedoms, painted originally in color for The Saturday Evening Post by Norman Rockwell who, says President Franklin D. Roosevelt, "has done a superb job in bringing home the plain every day truths behind them."

Originally accompanied by text from the famous pens of Booth Tarkington, Will Durant, Carlos Bulosan and Stephen Vincent Benet, when they first appeared in the Post, the Rockwell illustrations now are being distributed as posters by the Office of War Information, and are published herewith with new text, as a service to our country's cause.

SAVE... Freedom of Worship

How do you pray? Telling the beads of a rosary . . . whispering into pressed fingers warmed by your breath . . . your head covered, or uncovered? Do you speak the words in a prayerbook, or simpler words in your heart? In your congregation do men and women pray side by side, or separately? Do you go to services Sunday . . . or Saturday . . . or every day in the week? Or perhaps your own bedside is the only "pew" from which you've ever said a prayer.

It doesn't matter. This is America, where you enjoy Freedom of Worship. No one new-orders you to go to the Church of any faith other than your own. No one brands you for choosing to go to the Church of your particular faith.

There are people in conquered countries who would now be awed by that fact. There are children in fascist lands who are being taught to worship false gods, and who don't know what the Churches of their fathers looked like, before they were destroyed.

Can you picture yourself denied this right, to worship as you please? You'd fight against it, wouldn't you? WELL, THE TIME TO FIGHT IS—NOW! Because one of the things this war is all about is—to guarantee to each and every man, woman and child the right to keep faith with his God, each in his own way. That's one of the most important things our men are dying for in battle: To save Freedom of Worship. Let each of us at home fight to save it too, in the name of those who fight valiantly around the globe.
