Prober Dies Would Find Dust But No "Coddling" at Center

By MARTIN G. BHOZMAKOR
If Marvin Dies and his committee has been admitted to the Minidoka relocation center Thursday the congressional committee hunters would have got their noses plenty full of dust. It wouldn't have had to be Thursday, that just happened to be the day the war relocation authority had the newspaper boys at Idaho and Utah in for a look at the project. The Minidoka relocation center has a whole deer of dust to draw from. The Texas committee can draw on the Minidoka, acting assistant director George L. Townsend said today. But, he said, the committee would find more "coddling" than dust.

The committee's claim that the WRA acted in the past largely because of recent criticism by the Dies committee and spokesmen for the American Legion. Those two groups have seen the evacuation camps as much more than a means to the war effort than the government apparently contends there. They are charged with the management of the camps is inefficient, and that Japanese, a large percentage of whom are American citizens, are being given treatment that is not fair.

The last point you can tell only to someone who has been inside the camps. Inspectors, of course, buy a color book of the camps' stores. And don't use that word "coddling" on a fellow who has seen a few of the camps. He asked for butter at the administration hall, which was the best diet setting place on the project.

It has been about a year now since the government built a new, mostly 60 one-story barracks-type frame buildings at the center in Jerome county. Here were brought in about 10,000 evacuees from the island and Seattle whose military is such that the government felt their presence in the camps would make Japanese infiltration more difficult to handle. The center is a Japanese camp at one time seemed not unlikely.

Separable Loss
The block of this transplanting put far more of a strain on patriotic men and loyalty than rationing. Many suffered virtually irreparable economic loss in addition to a ruffling of dignity that is not shared by any American, whatever the admitted necessity of the move. Outside the relocation center, many of the evacuees are being treated with the uncertainty of a future on which they can now only speculate. In all, it is a sad picture. The example of "making the best of a bad job" which comes to mind is followed by a motorist who persistently bargains the ration board for fuel.

The Japanese residents live in one-room apartments in 25 to 30 feet depending on the size of the family. The furniture is of the cheap type and mattress for each person, and a heating stove for each apartment. The furniture is of the cheap type. What was used before the evacuation, or as many of them did, fashioning furniture from scrap lumber at the camp.

Meals
Meals are taken in a community mess hall, which here is one of each of the 100-200-foot "apartment houses." A maximum of 40 persons a day is allowed for food the army allowance is 65 cents a man. The evacuees are to receive a maximum of $1.00 a month. It is said the actual cost of food is nearer to 40 cents per day per person.

Evacuees receive medical aid, free of charge, in a 200-bed hospital which has had an average of 50 to 100 patients since last January. Approximately 2,000 boys and girls are enrolled in the center's educational system, which includes elementary and high school classes in the same type of building that serves for dwelling.

Those the government furnishes—food, shelter, medical attention, and education through a high school level, plus a clothing allowance for those whose clothing is "needed" or wants of the evacuees but was purchased at one of the center's stores, operated by a cooperative in which the residents "share" stock, or in one of the nearby Jerome or Twin Falls county towns.

Money Pay Scale
Money for this, except for the relatively small number who have other resources, comes from working at one of the jobs on the project provided by the government. Evacuee workers on the project are paid either $12, $16 or $19 a month, depending on the job and the skill of the worker. A $12 monthly paycheck would be an unskilled worker on the center's 40-acre farm, while doctors, dentists, key clerical workers and others receive $19 a month.

One of those receiving $19 a month is G. T. Takahashi, a resident of Seattle, whose check for $190.00 income tax last year amounted to more than $150.00. For his $19 a month, Takahashi, a Seattle apartment manager, provides heavy goods food, notably corn, with a large of high school education, and combines here with his personal skill.

The creative ability which earned him a fortune served the government an important part. Money last winter, an official who had been unincorporated coal shipments arrived earlier than they could be unloaded by ordinary means.

His job on the project took Takahashi and his gang of boys counter-possibly have moved that fact in considerably more than $150, they took," the official declared.

Leads in Investigations
From Takahashi's influence 40 members of his gang enlisted in the U. S. army immediately upon receiving their discharge, and official in the center give him much of this credit. It is that that Takahashi's enlistment in the army was far ahead of all the other evacuation centers—approximately 300 enlistments.

There is nothing at the relocation center which indicates the restricted liberties of a prison. Recently the Vermont military police at the

YOUTH CONFESSES 1 OF 3 SLAYINGS

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 5 (AP)—Sheriff Roberts said today he would continue questioning 16-year-old Howard William Pichell, Syracuse, N. Y., who has admitted one of three slayings which have turned the Cheyenne-Laurens area into an armed camp.

The sheriff said the New York youth had told him before his slaying that he shot and killed Matt Kays, 44-year-old Cheyenne war worker, in a mountain camp ground near Laramie last Wednesday.

Mrs. O. W. Larson, Laramie, who was with Kays when he was killed, identified Pichell as the attacker. Monthly, heavily-armed parties are continuing to comb the Cheyenne-Laurens area. The sheriff said he is not taking any chances that someone else killed the other two.

Pichell (lastly denied any knowledge of the slaying) Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Q. A. Dale, creek ranch couple.

Pichell was arrested at Pine Bluffs, 40 miles east of Cheyenne Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Charles Stevens.

Sheriff Thack said the man at first denied any knowledge of the three

Wed on Skates

BOISE, July 5 (AP)—The bride, the bridegroom, the attendants and the guests were roller skates. Justice of Peace T. M. Roberts, who performed the ceremony, refused because "he'd never stood on a wedding yet."

Egt. Ike Beasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beasley of Mayhewville, La., and Miss Edie York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. York of Boise, were married last night at a Boise roller rink.

When last seen after the ceremony, the wedded couple were skating arm in arm down the street.

Kays but later admitted he fired the shot which killed the Cheyenne war worker.

The bodies of Q. A. Dale, creek stockman, and his school teacher wife were found on their ranch Saturday, Oct. 5, was shot through the throat and his wife, Oct. 24, was shot through the head. A piece of wood was tied around their throats.

ROBERTS HITS AT EDUCATOR ATTACK

BOISE, July 5 (AP)—State Superintendent of Public Instruction G. E. Roberts describes as "fantastic," "contrary to facts," "inaccurate," "discouraging" and "irresponsible" recent statements by Bannock county Superintendent O. L. Love relating to the convention of county superintendents of schools at Albion.

Love said the educators attending the convention were "out of step" with the war effort and added he "didn't even hear mentioned problems of nutrition, visual education, juvenile delinquency, sales of war bonds and stamps, scrap drives, physical education, specialized training, post-war planning, vocational guidance or war time health measures."

In reply, Roberts said Idaho "has a long and outstanding record of county superintendents, city superintendents, teachers of its public schools and teachers in its higher education institutions who know what their responsibilities are and are meeting them."

In the past two years, high way, road and street expenditures in the United States have averaged almost $1,000,000,000 annually.

POKER ROLL-BACK STARTS

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—The roll-back averaging approximately 10 per cent of the price of cured and processed beef (ham, ham, etc.) became effective today. Other meats and butter have already been reduced by means of subsidies.

Farewell Dinner For Service Men

BURLEY, July 5—casual county men going into the armed services today were treated to a farewell dinner at the Odd Fellows hall with State Sen. C. Barlow and Rev. Brooks of the Presbyterian church giving the addresses of the evening.

Donald McMillan played a violin solo, and Mrs. Wayne Neace sang, both numbers were accompanied by Mrs. Edna G. Ginn.

Chicken dinner was served at tables formed in a V-shape and decorated with red, white and blue flowers.

Guests honored at the dinner are Darrell Olsen, Littlefield, Kimber Ray, Bannock county, and Frank Vaughn, Egan and Jay C. Ginn, who go to the army; Robert Church Day and Claude Raymond Lettiner, who go to the navy; Floyd Rex Olson, army, and John E. Edgerton, army; Rupert; P. H. Mills and Olemyer; Martin, navy; Lloyd Clark and John E. Edgerton, army; and Joseph Fredrickson, and Calvin Ray Johnson, both of Deco, to the navy.

Sam Weiler was in charge of the dinner committee, assisted by George Scharf, John Robertson, George Peacock and Sam Robinson. Mrs. George Peacock headed the Rebekah chapter.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

KIMBERLY, July 5—Mrs. Ada Grayback, Kimberly, has learned that her son, Herbert, has been promoted from private to sergeant at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Cooperation

You can get off a stoolie if you like. It still adds up to a philosophy of cooperation which would be as much to be commended high in the government as it is here. There is certainly nothing to be a majority of the evacuees have sold themselves and each other as they have to the government in this war. There is to be subjected their personal feelings and cooperation to the best of their ability, whether or not they are to be treated with sense in actions which military authorities deemed necessary to successful prosecution of the war.

All in all, the evacuees are cheerfully making the best of a bad situation—there is nothing to be gained.

PEACE PLAN TOUR

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—Advocates of post-war international collaboration will take their views to the people this summer with a bipartisan speaking campaign throughout the days of Chattanooga platform strategy.

During the vacation they might observe speed fishing, glad-handing coalitions, 18 members of the peace and house expected to employ the forthcoming congressional recess in trying to convince the American people that congress ought to make an early expression on the United States' post-war intentions.

This campaign will take the form of speaking tours by teams of one Republican and one Democrat in most cases—covering the country from New Hampshire to California. The expenses will be paid by various groups interested in post-war collaboration.

The 10th is reported to have organized in discussions between Senator Bill H. Minn, and Representative Fulbright D. Ark. Those who will carry it include Democratic Senators Truman, Missouri; Hatch, New Mexico; and Democratic Representative Menck, South Carolina; Republican Senators Bell, Burton, Ohio,

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

INVOLVED—The head of another original and illustrious new dealer may roll as a result of the efforts of certain advisers of the government. The following is a list of those who are believed to be connected with the new venture:

Henry Blatterly, rural electricification agent in the state of Idaho, has been mentioned in the past. He is reported to have been here since the day when the new venture was started. He is reported to have been here since the day when the new venture was started. He is reported to have been here since the day when the new venture was started.

An Irresistible Force Meets an Immovable Object (We Hope)

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

NEW YORK—Like the distracted southern mob whose emotions were so horribly churned when, early in the week, it was reported that a delegation of men, representing the interests of the railroad industry, had been invited to sit on the board of the Tennessee Valley Authority, the delegation of men, representing the interests of the railroad industry, had been invited to sit on the board of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

THE PRESIDENT'S SOLUTION

Immediate cooperation in Roosevelt's idea for handling war strikes is favorable. Almost everybody agrees that if he had statutory power to draft striking mine workers—the coal miners, to be specific, but not only coal but also other interests—interests ahead of winning the war—such interruptions could be handled effectively and expeditiously.

Attempts have been made already to use the draft as a club against strikers. They have come to little. That might be, in part, because everybody realized that such use of the draft was a perversion of the true purpose of a law instrumentally that should be kept 100 percent objective.

Yes—but there are buts. Such a bill should be perfectly frank and direct. It should not be worded as either a military draft measure or as a general selective labor bill unless, indeed, the administration has waked up to the need for some overall military program.

Assuming that Mr. Roosevelt has in mind what he says, a weapon against crippling war strikes, then the bill should be so drafted that the specific men who are striking against our war efforts would be kept back from the jobs from which they have struck, and so that the whole business will be frank and on the level.

The proposal is harsh, unpalatable medicine, and it is safe to say that nobody realizes this. It is safe to say that nobody realizes this. It is safe to say that nobody realizes this.

ONE WAY WE'RE FALLING DOWN Idaho, in practically every respect, ranks well among all the states, in doing its part in the war effort. When it comes to buying and collecting war bonds and stamps, this state has been among the leaders.

But for some reason or other, Idaho does not seem to be able to get into high gear in one important phase of the war program. It is falling far short of its quota in the salvage of waste fat which plays a part in the production of high explosives.

Statistics just released for the month of May show that Idaho collected only 44.4 percent of its quota, while other states in the inter-mountain west went over their allotments.

Uah collected 103.3 percent of its quota, and Nevada came through with the highest collection percentage in the United States—154.4 percent!

On more than one occasion, Magic Valley has set the pace for Idaho, and here's another opportunity for Magic Valley to show these little counties to get the ball rolling.

Sure, it's messy and inconvenient to save cooking fats and greases. But we must not forget to make other alternate engines, and who are wallowing in muddy foxholes. And if more waste fat will give them more and better ammunition, we owe it to these men to do our part.

How about it, ladies? You'll be giving valuable aid to the war effort by saving every last ounce of fat that is ordinarily wasted. Let's get it to our war markets. They'll follow through by directing it into the proper channels.

MEMBERS ARE CHARGED

The president of the C. T. of Tolo, Ga., a man of varied connections, The Washington manager is charged with the embezzlement of a group call the National Electric Cooperative association. It purports to advance the interests of farmers located in the South by raising funds from the government for the construction of high power lines and the purchase of equipment.

DISMISSED—The Tule-Ellis group did not launch its attack on Administrator Blatterly until he had returned to Idaho. It was reported that the group had been in the hands of two insurance companies which the National Rural Electric Cooperative association has incorporated in Maryland. As president, Mr. Blatterly contended that such a transaction was illegal in that many of the original funds of the enterprise came from the U. S. treasury.

OPINION—James A. Farley, on his recent unexcused visit to Washington, told friends that he thinks that the R. R. Board will continue to move through the United States should still be engaged in the fight against the coal strike. He also indicated that the chief executive could win again under such conditions, the former national leader of the National Industrial Conference Board believes that the eleventh will cut its tail on the basis of domestic rather than foreign interests. However taxes, intensified rationing, food shortages and the loss of "neutrality" (most of whom he has served only four years of a 10-year statutory term, but he would probably feel compelled to step out of his retirement were requested.

REPLY—Henry Morgenthau, Jr., recently phoned Chester C. Davis to discuss an agricultural problem. Davis said that he had been talking to the secretary of the treasury. Morgenthau said that the secretary "was" replied to the head of the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank, "the head of the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank."

VIEWS OF OTHERS

REMARKS ST. PETER'S—There is one thing that has been a constant description recently this county of the state of affairs in the present city of Rome. Bombs exploding elsewhere in Italy or in the streets of Berlin or in the streets of London, beyond all capacity. Transportation facilities, living accommodations and supplies are said to be taxed at the limit.

MEMORANDA THE POPE is said to have advised the American ambassador in Rome, in his opinion, the merits of the basilica of St. Peter would wreck the great cathedral's historic and aesthetic dome, by the construction of a new one. It is reported that the pope's idea was to have a new dome built on the ruins of the old one.

PTA Inaugurates New Membership Program Locally

Idaho P.T.A. organizations have adopted a new membership program to meet with the problem that face the groups today.

The increase in juvenile delinquency, teacher shortages in Idaho, increased cooperation with school authorities in and out of state, fence projects in the schools, all contributed to the adoption of the new membership plan to aid membership chairman during the 1943 program of activities in the face of current transportation.

Women Stage Gold Rush For Last Luxury—Furs

By ROBERT MOR
An Idaho woman apparently has decided that if she can't buy a new car, a refrigerator, a vacuum cleaner or a radio for the duration, why not shell out for a new fur coat?

Fur dealers are working overtime to keep up with the demand for luxury furs these days, and the business which was seasonal snow has reached a steady year-round basis. Women begin to buy furs in large numbers in May, and keep thinking until the snow flies, when the market goes all over again.

Remote County Roads Will Be Patrolled to Block Rustlers

Plans for patrolling out-of-the-way districts in the south part of this county this summer were announced today by Sheriff Warren W. Lowery, who said it was feared high prices on the black market might bring an increase in rustling.

Roads in the area accessible to motor cars were stepped by a group composed of Sheriff Warren W. Lowery, County Engineer D. Ague, County Surveyor Officer Grover C. Davis, and Lyman Stillinger, a trapper. Lowery said it is planned to maintain a patrol on these roads during the summer in order to protect the stock ranchers using the grazing land in the south hills. Also, he said, they will keep watch for game law violators.

SAFETY

RECALL OPPOSED ON SIX GROUNDS

MAKRAY, July 5 (AP)—The proposed recall of Gov. A. Bottelien and legislators who voted for recall of the senior citizens' grant act, was attacked on six grounds in a letter he sent to several of the voters league, recall opponents, revealed by George Ambrose, Gaster, revealed.

The letter was sent by Ambrose, leader in the recall of the grants act and chairman of the interim commission named to study public assistance in Idaho, last June 14 and briefly answered the recall act by Howell, who promised retaliation in detail.

Ambrose said Howell's second letter has not been received and decided to make public his letter to the voters assembly.

The recall is scheduled to be introduced in Boise at about 4 o'clock, Ambrose and Pocatello, against the recall, funds to be solicited against the recall of the grants act. The recall is scheduled to be introduced in Boise at about 4 o'clock, Ambrose and Pocatello, against the recall, funds to be solicited against the recall of the grants act.

1. The supreme court has held the legislature had the right to recall the grants act, which would have provided a $40 a month minimum pension to the aged, plus medical and funeral benefits.

2. The majority of the people agree with the governor and the legislature in repeal of the act.

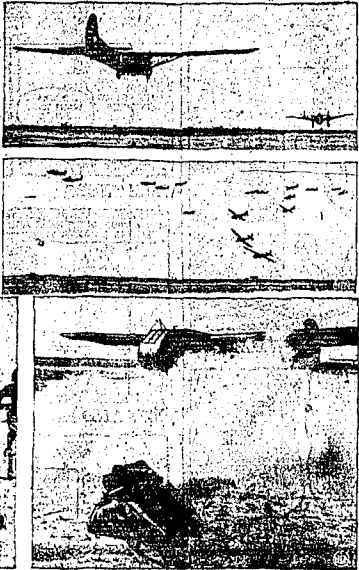

3. The proper approach to the question of whether the grants act should have been retained is through exhaustive study of the public assistance problem and not through the recall.

4. The method of recall promotes class hatred and classism, exactly what Miller is doing in Europe today.

5. The cost of the election would be from $75,000 to $100,000 and the money would be better spent for the aged.

6. The recall would not restore the grants act.

GLIDER ATTACK: Silent Soldiers Train for Invasion

Fifteen men on a deadly mission—that's the "cargo" carried by each of the army's flying freight cars. These gliders, now mass-produced and engaged in constant training, will appear at the silent airborne attack on enemy positions. Here master glider troops march into their gliders, a twin-engine bomber towed to the ground. Then the gliders are cut loose to swoop to earth as they near the attack target. Once

U. S. army air corps photos from NEA on the ground, the "silent soldiers" break their silence and leap from their gliders with cries on their lips. Followed by machine gunners, they charge to the attack or fire from prone positions on maneuvers that are preparing these glider troops for attack on enemy airfields and positions.

LIFERS IN IDAHO SERVE TEN YEARS

BOISE, July 5 (AP)—A life sentence in Idaho means a prison term of 10 years and four months on the average, Mrs. Grace Dixon, chief of the state prison board, reported.

Mrs. Dixon made the report in releasing a study of all life sentences and death penalties imposed by Idaho courts as prisoners from Nov. 21, 1918, when prisoner No. 1 was received, to June 30, 1943, when No. 6566 was received.

Including the 13 life-sentences now in prison, a total of 21 persons have been given life sentences in Idaho, she said, and an additional 14, including two now in the prisons, have been sentenced to death and committed to life by the board of pardons.

Eight persons have been sentenced to death and not committed, including one executed, one now pending on appeal, and one who committed suicide.

Of the 205 lifers (including those committed from death penalty), 72 received pardons, eight died in prison, one was shot attempting to escape, one committed suicide, five were transferred to the insane hospital, and three escaped.

Thirty-four of the life-sentences served less than 10 years before receiving clemency, 24 ten to 14 years, 10 15 to 20 years and three 21 to 25 years. The average for all 72 was 35.90 years, four months.

The report does not cover persons originally sentenced to life or death penalty and subsequently changed to life, appeal and retrial, Mrs. Dixon said.

A Marine is dressed to kill

TRADITIONALLY "first to fight," the Marine goes into combat with everything from rifles and knives to "fox-hole" epaulettes. And their tough, jungle-green uniforms will take plenty of punishment.

The garments our Marines wear are designed for comfort and fighting efficiency. Even to the underwear—with correct weights and styles for any shore.

You can have comfort and modern styling in underwear, too. For, during the past 40 years, the makers of HANES Underwear have developed the art of turning downy cotton into underwear that feels good on you and gives long service.

For instance, the HANES-designed Crucifix Guard Sports (shown at right) provides gentle athletic support. For complete summer comfort, wear them with a HANES Undershirt. Knit to exact chest size. Its highly absorbent fabric expedites perspiration quickness—keeps you cooler and your T-shirt fresher. P. H. Hanes Knitting Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

WELCOMES BILL

BOISE, July 5—The filing of a suit to test constitutionality of the 1933 recall act has met with opposition, is thoroughly assured and of defeat, Howard Howell, secretary of the voters league, said today.

"I wouldn't be surprised," said Howell, "if the opposition didn't come out and circulate petitions to disbar an illegal suit, because the last legislature certainly held that the 1933 recall act was illegal."

Howell said the Independent Voters League welcomed the suit.

Last Rites for Rupert Pioneer

RUPERT, July 5—Mrs. Mary Speers, 63, a pioneer of Minidoka, died while visiting friends in Pocatello, was honored at funeral services held at the First Methodist church. The rites were conducted by Father D. L. McLaughlin, C. S. C., St. Nicholas Catholic church.

Mrs. Speers was born Nov. 18, 1879 in Chicago. She was twice married. Her first husband, John O. Speers, died in Nevada in 1917. Her second husband, John Speers, died in Minidoka in 1929.

She is survived by one son, Harold, Colbert, Ogden; daughter, Mrs. Agnes White, Banks, Ida.; two grandchildren and one brother, Frank Charvat, Chicago.

Mr. George Rice, Mrs. P. K. Collins, Mrs. William Collins and Mrs. Bill Prager were in charge of flowers. Pallbearers were Carl Hansen, P. B. Switzer, H. B. Reynolds, Jake Wall, Spencer Parker and Joe Hill.

RUPERT

Mrs. Orase Selby, Medford, Ore., who was called here by the death of her mother, has returned to her home accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Minnie DeWitt, who will make an extended visit there. They visited on a route with Ed Nelson, son of Mrs. DeWitt, at Mountain Home. Mr. Nelson had also visited his mother during her illness at Medford. Miss Harry Renfro, who graduated as a navigator in the air corps at San Marcos, Tex., is spending a short leave with his mother, Mrs. Bobba Renfro.

Tech. Sgt. George Redford, Fort Douglas, Utah, is at the home of his parents, and Mrs. E. B. Redford. After a short visit he will go to Camp Beckley, Tex., to enter officers' training.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams, Napa, Calif., who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Carlson, have returned to their home.

Mr. Fred Scheubach attended special ceremonies at St. Mark's hospital in Salt Lake City when his daughter, Miss Elaine Scheubach, received her commission for her hospital training as a nurse. After Sept. 1 the graduates will be in government uniform.

Robert Boyd is a patient at the Veterans hospital in Boise and will come from there to Portland, Ore., for surgery.

Deaths in the United States in 1942 from all accidents totaled 32,000.

Army Holds Housewarming-in Booby Trap-Infested Cottage

BY JOSEPH LAYTON

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md., July 5 (AP)—The army held a housewarming here last week in its little rat cottage with a white picket fence.

The guests were given the freedom of the house and grounds. Orange soda was served and during the course of exploring the premises everybody including a brigadier general, two colonels, a couple of majors and 10 reporters, were "killed" several times.

Army officials pronounced the party a huge success.

The festivities took place in the newly built booby-trap house where soldiers learned the fine art of compensating for the lack of hospitality in enemy-stationed buildings and also the knack of creating an artificial atmosphere in buildings awaiting occupancy by the enemy.

Setting Realistic

The setting is realistic. A sign in German script hanging from the telephone pole in front of the house reads: "Army headquarters." Field orders of the general staff, in German, are posted on the wall. The place has been evacuated and a mortar charge goes off. Everybody is killed.

The general cautiously opens the white gate. Boom! A deafening black mortar charge goes off. Everybody is killed within 30 feet. It theoretically killed a reporter seen a German jugger unit tomahawking on the lawn and picks it up, setting off another explosion.

Trap Under "Welcome" Mat

We got the idea. On our hands and knees we crawled under the white pebbled path lead.

China Resistance Day Proclaimed

July 5 is designated "China resistance day" by Mayor Bert A. Sweet, in a proclamation urging Twin Falls citizens to observe the sixth anniversary of the heroic resistance of China.

"The United Nations are justly proud of the heroic resistance of China," says the proclamation, "and are fully aware of the suffering, destruction and death suffered by the Chinese people."

"I urge all business and individuals, organizations and religious groups, to recognize this day by appropriate displays, services and responses in such a manner as to pay fitting tribute to our great Chinese ally."

Mounted mail-carriers gave Americans a sort of pony express as early as 1860.

Tire Dealers to Gather at Boise

The dealers of the Magic Valley are invited to a meeting of dealers from the area which is to be held at the Boise hotel at 1:30 p. m. July 7 according to announcement by George Ballard, Twin Falls, district chairman for the Idaho State Tire Dealers' association.

Speakers at the meeting will be George Rank, president of the Idaho State tire dealers' association, Washington, D. C.; John P. Milliken, Boise, state-wide rubber representative; Carl C. Evans, regional gas mileage director of the Denver office of price administration.

The meeting was called by W. M. Simpson, Boise, president of the tire men's association.

Ballard said the dealers in Twin Falls, Jerome, Lincoln, Gooding, Cassia and Minidoka counties are being sent cars by which to make reservations for the meeting.

Important Announcement

Your part in the war program can consist of making available certain commodities in your household which are not now in use and which are not to be had in regular markets. Someone needs them. By advertising them in the classified, at a small cost, you can derive a good profit and at the same time lend a helping hand to someone who needs them, is willing to pay for them—and is able to pay for them. Use appliances, wheeled equipment, bed springs, electrical appliances, washers, household furniture... and don't forget (if you have one) crops for canning. To place your ad, call our office!

Grange Cleanings

That the question of the acquisition of Idaho land by Japanese is a subject of much interest to wherever farmers are gathered, and at the meeting of Kimberly Grange committee was appointed to obtain information in presenting the Japanese from becoming citizens of the United States.

The committee was to report at an early date. Kimberly Grange made plans to hold a Grange school of unenrolled work at an early date. Mrs. Donald B. Brown, president of the Grange, was in charge of the school. A fire was then started without the use of matches, by striking a piece of wood in a certain style. Two boys then talked by signaling what they had in mind. "Flag day" and "Grange school" all tapper out in the Morse code.

First aid was administered to one boy, who was quite tired up with playing and laughing and carried from the room by his companions. The other boy was also carried out. The boys were then taken to the hospital. The boys were then taken to the hospital. The boys were then taken to the hospital.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview Grange, the Grange of many children, had a very successful day. The graduates and officers were all seated at one table and the farm boys and girls were seated at another table. HERE'S STAR LIST YOU'LL SEE NOW

From the eight western states and the one Canadian province where this masterpiece is published, there come numerous letters from readers expressing their preference for certain stars. Many like to hear the stories which involve little or no "star" status, but are concerned chiefly with the discussion of the general facts of astronomy. Others prefer directions for finding individual objects.

Within the past two weeks two letters have requested a periodic sky review. In order more fully to satisfy the "observational" readers it is planned that, beginning today, the first article each month of the year will be made up principally of a review of the brighter stars then in view.

It is to be noted, however, that this month, the brilliant planet Jupiter is in the constellation of the Scorpion. Very high in the northwest, the planet Jupiter has not been seen by the bright star Regulus which is in the constellation of the Scorpion.

WHAT KIND OF A FOURTH of JULY WILL HIS SON HAVE IN 1975?

THIS is my kid.

He's a pretty good kid. I always used to figure he'd get along all right in the world, the same way I did. But a war starts you thinking. Nobody knows for sure just what kind of a world my kid will have to grow up in. But whatever kind of a world it is, a little money behind him will help. That's why I'm saving money away for him now. I'm not taking any chances with his future. I'm guaranteeing it in the best way I know how.

Every pay day, nearly a quarter of what I make goes into War Bonds. Not just when I can spare it. But every single pay day—week in, week out.

It's taken right out of my pay, on the Payroll Savings Plan. That way, I hardly miss it. But it amounts up fast. And every one of those War Bonds will pay back four dollars for three. Pay it back when my kid may need it most. Sure, I'd be buying bonds anyway. I know the Government needs money to win the war. And, it's the least sacrifice a guy can make for the country that's been good to him.

But the clincher with me is my kid.

CHANGES ARE, you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. Raise your sights! Do your best!

How millions of Americans have done their bit—and how they can do better! Of the 34 million Americans on plant pay rolls, nearly 30 million of them have joined the Payroll Savings Plan. (If you aren't in yet—sign up tomorrow!)

Those Americans who have joined the Plan are investing, on the average, 10% of their earnings in War Bonds. (If you haven't reached 10% yet—keep trying!)

But.....

America's income this year will be the highest in history—about 125 BILLION dollars! In spite of all taxes and price rises, the average worker will have more money than last year—more than ever before! That is why Uncle Sam has a right to ask us, individually, to invest more money in War Bonds, through the Payroll Savings Plan. He asks us to invest not 10% or 15% or 20%, but all we can!

YOU'VE DONE YOUR BIT --- NOW DO YOUR BEST!

BOOST YOUR BOND BUYING THROUGH THE PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN
