ALLIES PUSH TO WITHIN 2-MILES OF JAPS AT LAE

By DON CASWELL
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 16 (AP)—Australian forces were within two miles east of Lae today as allied troops to the west advanced to attack a fourth enemy plantation along the coast after blasting through three other near the Japanese New Guinea coastal base.

A third allied column pushing up from the south had advanced 10 miles in pursuit of beaten enemy troops from Salamaua and rapidly was closing the pocket of the trapped Lae garrison.

A spokesman estimated the Japanese had suffered 300 casualties at Lae up to Tuesday, 100 of them dead. The 21st count, clearing enemy plants west of Lae where the enemy was caught in deep pillboxes by American anti-aircraft and Australian artillery.

With three weeks of fighting hard through two other plantations in the Markham valley along with Whittaker's force in the Hamao bay area, and were approaching Salamaua and Lae, the enemy resistance was encountered at some points, the spokesman said.

Reinforcements were crossing the Buna river to bolster the Australians who were only 500 yards from Malahang airfield, one of two major air bases in the area.

Wounded Yank Treated in Italy

War Just Beginning for U. S., Says Secretary, Citing Cost

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—"This is the beginning of the war, as far as the United States is concerned—this attack we are launching in Italy."

With three weeks, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau called the American war effort "a costly and 'criminal' over-estimate in victory and to 'back this attack'."

The treasury chief, who warned that the third war loan drive now in progress will not be the last, addressed an nationwide radio audience shortly after the treasury announced the next sale of $5,000,000,000.

Emphasizing that he was speaking not of the present "critical" Italian campaign but only of the conquest of Europe, Morgenthau said that the war would cost more than a third of the $15,000,000,000 goal.

The allies lost, he said, 13 percent of all 35 mm cartridges in the month-long campaign, 46 percent of all 75 mm guns put into action, 13 percent of all guns employed, eight per cent of all medium tanks, seven per cent of all light tanks, 54 per cent of the cartridges for the 37 mm gun, 20 per cent of the mortar cartridges for the 12 mm gun, and 22 per cent of the cartridges for 105 mm howitzers.

Japs Morale Crumbling in South Pacific

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 16 (AP)—Japanese morale is beginning to crack in the southwest Pacific and the allied soldier is to one the better man in battle, the U. S. 4th division said today.

Putler, whose division distinguished itself in some of the hardest fighting in New Guinea, said the Japanese still have some fight left but now cannot expect win from members of the 4th are from the intermountain and Pacific northwest states.

German Advance Smashed; Clark Finches Foothold And Begins Forward Push

LONDON, Sept. 16 (AP)—Berlin was bombed last night in a widespread allied assault which included a heavy raid on a vital rubber factory at Montieu in France and followed evening attacks on Paris aircraft plants and surrounding French air fields by U. S. eighth air force squadrons making their first dusk flight.

It was the first attack on Berlin since the pre-dawn hours of Sept. 4 and presumably was carried out by the RAF's swift Mosquito bombers which pummed the German capital between the saturation attacks by fleets of four-engine bombers.

Other RAF bombers struck at additional targets in northwest Germany, and in military quarters. The Factory 44 in Montieu, which was a vital rubber factory, was attacked, but the important plant of Neversak had not been hit by the raid.

Last night's raid, first since the Sept. 6 attack on Munich, followed by a few hours the first after-dark assault by a combined force of American and British bombers.

At the same time German air forces subjected suburban London to one of its severest bombing in months.

The raid on Paris marked the first time that Fortresses, Liberators and Mustangs had joined in the same operation in the European theater.

SOYA FLOUR TO BOLSTER BREAD

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—The staff of life is evolving into a product which should please all nutritionists who have been using the staple to change from meat to cereal.

On Oct. 1 the war food administration order goes into effect, requiring that all white bread be enriched with specified quantities of thiamine, niacin, iron and riboflavin—plus additional vitamins.

And, in order to bolster deficiencies of proteins and fat, it was learned that several major chain bakeries had also incorporated soya flour in their bread while others were making experiments or otherwise preparing to include it.

Addition of soya will make bread more nutritious than any other cereal about 25 per cent of daily adult requirements for protein, nutritional experts say.

The American Institute of food distribution said the $2,000,000,000 baking industry has had a 30 per cent increase in bread sales since the record year of 1939. It is expected, however, that consumers were due for some changes in bread structure.

The organization pointed to current butter shortages and added supplies of preserves, jellies and apple butters by mid-1944.

If Americans turn to a diet containing more bread they will require to eat habits in vogue in the 18th century when the staff of life was a rugged product—frequently made from corn—hard flour was refined but little.

Ketchum High in Sheep Shipments

GAREY, Sept. 16.—The Ketchum branch of the Union Pacific Railroad ships out more sheep than any other rail point in the United States. Eight hundred and thirty-eight carloads of sheep have been shipped over this short line since June 1. Nearly all of these carloads have been double-deckers.

Of this number, Kilpatrick Brothers has been the largest shipper. Many shippers of Blaine county ship their sheep from Ketchum, and it is not counted in this area shipment, even though their sheep are pastured in the Blaine county vicinity.

KAISER PROPOSES MANPOWER PLAN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Henry J. Kaiser was rounding up support in Washington today for a manpower conservation plan under which contracts would be awarded to producers having the largest number of manpower utilization, gauged in terms of man-hours per dollar of each plant, shop or ship produced.

Working with typical Kaiser energy in the western industrial belt, the War Manpower Administration, headed by War Relocation Authority director William H. Davis, and Charles E. Wilson, executive vice-chairman, are producing the plan.

Kaiser said that Wilson, before he departed for the Pacific coast last night to supervise the government's sweeping inter-agency program for solution of the most acute manpower crisis, had approved the proposal.

Others corroborated this, saying Wilson apparently had been impressed with the plan as a means of spurring production with a minimum labor force, but did not believe it could be employed now on a national scale, but did believe it could be used on the Pacific coast areas of manpower shortage, however, Wilson was said to believe Kaiser would proceed with the new program for improved manpower utilization.

Kaiser said he envisioned "a kind of national contest" to promote plant efficiency, declaring he was convinced that the speed records set by Kaiser ship yards resulted from the competition among "our own yards."

BOISE, Sept. 16.—A campaign to recruit all "untrained" 100 women into the Idaho division of the women's army corps, will be launched tomorrow by the state Dept. of Governor Bottolfoff announced.

The Idaho campaign will coincide with similar drives in every state in the union to enlist approximately 70,000 women, according to Brig. Gen. M. O. McConnell, director of the Idaho selective service division, at the state Dept. of Governor Bottolfoff received a letter from Gen. George C. Marshall, U. S. chief of staff who said the campaign would be nationwide in its scope and would run from Sept. 27 to Dec. 7.

"We want to release men from jobs that women can do as well or probably better," his letter read, "and the plan is to cut from each state the number of women corresponding to the number of casualties suffered by that state.

"The women will be given their basic training in a state unit; will wear the state insignia and train under their state flag.

"They will be sworn in by the governor of their state at appropriate exercises," the letter said.

Governor Bottolfoff said the plans for launching the drive will be started immediately under Brig. Gen. McConnell's direction.

RANK AS ENSIGN TO RAY ROBBINS

Newly promoted to the commissioned rank of ensign, Ray Robbins, former head of the Twin Falls navy recruiting station, is leaving for an east coast naval air training station following instruction there he expects to be assigned to sea duty.

Coming to Twin Falls in the spring of 1940, Robbins served as general manager of the Park hotel until shortly before accepting his navy duty. He received basic training at the naval base in San Diego, Calif., which he returned to for help in recruiting duty, serving first at the base station. He was transferred a month later to recruiting headquarters in Twin Falls.

Robbins is a member of the Elks club here, a past secretary of Kiwanis and was an active member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

ALLIED LOSS OF MATERIAL HEAVY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—Lashing out at "the faction of child-over-optimism," Secretary Morgenthau disclosed last night that the contents of Sicily—merely an outpost of the fortress of Europe—
cost the allies materially more than expected up to 24 per cent.

He warned that the attack in Italy is the beginning of the war,
no far as the United States is concerned.

In a blue network address from the army's "back the attack" show at the Washington memorial grounds, the treasury head assessed the current $15,000,000
third war loan would not be lost.

Details Cost
Detailing the costs of the Sicilian invasion, Morgenthau reminded:
The cost of the Sicily campaign was only a small fraction of the question was not getting the Germans now, in Italy. "Listen to what it cost us."

It totaled:
13 per cent of all 155 mm howitzers
lost in the Sicily campaign 10 per cent of all 57 mm guns put into action.

13 per cent of all guns employed
Eight per cent of all medium tanks, seven per cent of all light tanks.

34 per cent of the cartridges for 27 mm guns.
30 per cent of the motor cartridges for the 75 mm guns.
20 per cent of the cartridges for the 105 mm howitzers.

100 per cent of killed and wounded
men. He added, "I say nothing of the vast quantity of secondary materials used—blinds, wire, 100 miles of copper telephone wire."

Costs Optimal Criminal
Pointing to the optimist he said was engendered by the North African success, the Sicilian campaign
proved the Italian campaign, Morgenthau said.

"Let alone the foolish, childish
over-optimism and over-confidence,
it is criminal."
"Let me repeat once more time telling the public what a magnificent job is being done by our boys—knowing more time doing the job," Morgenthau said.

"Let me think less about the fun it's going to have on Saturday night, and think more about ways to increase production and save more bonds."

SALERNO BATTLE LIKE GALLIOLI

By NOEL MONKS
Representing the combined British Press

WITH THE U. S. FIFTH ARMY
IN ITALY (AP)—Salerno may well be called in history as the Gallipoli of 1943—without the evacuation.

The set-up of Salerno is much the same as at Gallipoli, where the Anzillans stormed the Turkish beaches 23 years ago. The beaches in both instances were perfect for landing purposes, but a powerful enemy lay in wait for the invaders behind positions that the defenders anticipated were almost unbreachable.

"The world wondered how the Australians ever got a foothold at Gallipoli in the face of such fierce opposition and can well wonder again
how British and American troops managed to get ashore in Salerno
last night."

"I cannot find words to praise sufficiently the heroism of the Americans I landed with. Well-trained, they were unflinching.

I saw many shells drop on men,
landing craft and vehicles but there was no deserting the Yanks. After wave after wave of support troops and supplies, I found the beach-heads and were rushed up behind army lines.

"The Americans cling to their hard-won positions with tenaciousness and bravery.

As I write this nearly a week has passed since the landing and the Americans still are clinging to their beaches with grim resolution.

The only difficulty I met on the American beaches was a Canadian officer acting as an observer. Like me he was very much impressed with the dogged courage of the Yanks.

He had been at Dieppe and he told me his show was worse than that famous raid because Dieppe was only an air and out affair while the Salerno bay attack was "in for keep," as he put it.

Having been through Sicily with the Americans I have given Italy defence they will be able to dish it out as well as take it, even in the north, anything like an even break.

Finland May Be Preparing to Attempt Peace With Russia

By JACK FLEISCHER
STOCKHOLM, Sept. 16 (AP)—Finland, convinced of Germany's eventual defeat, is trying to re-orient its foreign policies with a view of obtaining an acceptable peace with Russia as soon as possible.

The government soon will attempt,
if it has not already done so, to contact Moscow indirectly to learn the Russian terms. If indirect contact fails to produce the desired result, there is at least a 50-50 chance that Finland will make some direct gesture.

These conclusions are based on conversations I had with persons, official and unofficial, of all political shades during a 10-day visit to Helsinki.

Talked WITH Officials
Among those with whom I talked off-the-record were President Risto Ryti, Premier Edwin Linkomies, Foreign Minister Henrik Rintamäe, Defense Minister Gen. Rudolf Walden, Finance Minister Valtoni Tanner,
and former Prime Minister J. K.
Paasikivi, as well as leading members of the opposition and other well-informed personalities.

How successful Finland will be in its efforts to win a separate peace is another matter. Whether its shift in foreign policy will go far enough and rapidly enough to suit
Russia is an open question.

The government has been proceeding cautiously, partly because of possible German reaction and partly because of British and American reluctance to give Finland any guarantees.

Opposition Has Arisen
However, a small but articulate opposition has arisen in Finland
during the past three months.
Adopting the attitude that Finland
and Russia must make peace eventually, it contends that Russian terms at this time, even though perhaps not what desired, would be less harsh than what the Russian position improves even more.

The opposition's demand that the

VATICAN CONTROL SEIZED BY NAZIS

LONDON, Sept. 16 (UP)—German occupation forces virtually have cut off Vatican City from contact with the outside world, Catholic sources in Madrid said today.

An anti-Nazi dispatch said, Pope Pius XII recently dispatched a number of special envoys to foreign countries and forwarded detailed instructions to the church hierarchy for the future.

Nazi restrictions on the use of the Vatican radio were said to have prevented neutral as well as belated diplomats at the Vatican from communicating with their respective governments for nearly three days.

Troops Take Control
Hundreds of German troops marched through the streets of the Vatican city, according to reports from Switzerland that 10 anti-tank guns had been sent to the Vatican.

Exile Who Snubbed Duce May Organize New Italy Regime

By MAX HALLE (Written for THE SERVICE)

Within 25 years the United States has given refuge to two great European democrats who were far from the end of their respective political careers. Thomas Masaryk, the Czech patriot after spending a well-impounded exile on his shores, returned after World War I to his homeland and was elected president of the newly-formed Czech republic, modeled after our own.

IMPROVED SULFA DRUG ANNOUNCED

CHICAGO, Sept. 16 (UP)—Physicians have found what appears to be the best of all sulfa drugs, one that is as effective as others in the wide variety of ailments but causes fewer bad reactions, according to reports said today.

Sulfamerazine, one of the latest additions to the sulfanilamide group, is the drug that may be the answer to medical scientists' search for an effective sulfonamide that provides less toxic or poisonous after effects.

Dr. Wendell H. Hall and Dr. Wesley W. Spink, Minneapolis, described treatment of 110 patients, reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, in a large number of cases sulfamerazine was as effective as sulfanilamide, one of the best sulfonamides.

Sulfamerazine caused less nausea and vomiting than sulfapyridine, they said, and was more toxic and caused fewer skin eruptions and instances of drug fever than sulfanilamide.

Rotary Hears of Honey Industry

GOODING, Sept. 16 — Douglas Bradshaw, Wendell honey producer, was a special guest speaker at the Rotary club meeting here. Mr. Bradshaw discussed the honey industry and the life and habits of the honey bee.

He gave a short historical sketch of the bee from the Egyptian era and a detailed account of the bee's activities during the life-span of the individual bee.

Of particular interest to scientists, as well as laymen, is the perplexing ability of their food. Among other interesting details of the talk was the fact that it would require a single bee to travel 25,000 miles to gather enough pollen to produce one pound of honey.

Other guests included Dick Olson, Boise; John Shoshone, and Dale Cary, Hagerman. Area-President Eric Whipple presided at the meeting.

BOGHERS RETREAT

Along the Twin Falls and more were being brought up. It was probable that as many as 100,000 men had been trained in the pull-out effort to be the allied grip.

The maintenance and fire forces of the battle undoubtedly was draining German strength each more than 150,000 men in Africa.

British Headquarters and army's eighth army, racing dramatically up the Italian west coast, with the tanks behind it, passed through the ancient fishing village of Salerno, approximately 50 miles inland, to the southern beach of Agropoli, the southern anchor of Gen. Clark's position, although exact figures are not known.

Gen. Montgomery's dual-stained warrens were meeting in opposition, and that had restricted them more than 15 miles in the last 24 hours.

Although Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters communique said the attack had been repulsed, it was reinforced and supplies that the critical phase would pass until it had been joined by a second force.

Meanwhile, the communique had the original German attack on the British force which landed at Salerno and also of the German attack on the Italian front at the Sicily. The Berlin radio, taking a far different view of the situation, was proclaiming an allied evacuation 40 hours ago, admitted that the German attack had failed and strength of allied forces at Salerno is "in greater than had heretofore."

Reinforcements Arriving in spots of occasional German air attacks, new units and equipment streamed ashore during the day to relieve the original force. The landing which had been fighting almost without letup since the first landings.

Back from the beaches the German numbers and five divisions were reported digging in on the mountain slopes. German troops from Berlin said German troops and stormed the beach, but failed to gain the spilling of the allied front. Seventeen American tanks were reported, 700 pioneers taken, the broadcast declared.

German international information bureau in a propaganda broadcast last night stated that the German air force had been shot down in the Gulf of Salerno from Sept. 8, the first day of operations. It was reported that four crewmen, two destroyers, 20 merchant ships and eight cruisers, five destroyers, 90 transports, tankers and frigates were damaged.

Stressing that the fifth army was composed equally of Americans and British and that there had been no attempt to make this either an American or British "airborne effort," headquarters spokesman said.

It would like to emphasize that this Salerno attack always was considered a hazardous enterprise and had been a success. The element of surprise was missing and from the first day the fighting has been furious.
