Soviet Sweep Blanks Nazi Defense Line

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, Oct. 25 (UP)—Russian shock troops were reported storming by-passed Krivoi Rog today in a frontal assault on the keystone base of the crumbling German defenses inside the Dnieper bend.
The early collapse of the hard pressed German positions in the big Dnieper pocket of the Krivoi Rog was regarded here as a foregone conclusion as red armies stepped up a fresh assault today, aimed at trapping an estimated 1,000,000 men.
Reach City Suburbs
Think-panic infantry charged in to the northern suburbs of Krivoi Rog, field detachments said, and laid siege to the railroad junction and from mining center, said which is one of the last German bastions remaining in the area.
An air force which swept into Krivoi Rog from the north, another wheeled around it, by-passing it to the west. The double strike from the frontal assault and the flanking squeeze was expected to bring quick results.
Shells were falling on the railroad station Krivoi Rog, the strategic center of Dnepropetrovsk, 30 miles to the northeast, effectively cutting the main line of retreat for the German garrison still resisting at Dnepropetrovsk.
Korotkiy, the Dnieper, the Dnieper forces rolled into the porters' suburbs of Krivoi Rog, and advanced to cut out more than six miles deeper into the enemy flank and behind its lines, including Znamianskiy, only six miles from the city.
City Easy Prey
With Krivoi Rog considered comparatively easy prey to the Russians, the red army's next objective in that sector presumably was Kremenchuk, 22 miles to the east and the only railroad over which German armies remain.

RAF Hits Ruhr, Rhineland; U.S. Adds Air Attacks

By The Associated Press
R. F. Mosquitoes bombed targets in the Ruhr and Rhineland last night, the British announced today as the Berlin radio hinted at a cranking two-way allied aerial squeeze on Germany by declaring that American four-engine bombers based in Italy had attacked southern Germany, Austria and Hungary yesterday.
A brief air ministry communique announcing the RAF raids gave no details of the overnight operations, which also included attacks on enemy water. All planes were said to have returned safely.
U. S. Attacks Heavy
The American attacks yesterday reported by the Berlin radio were on a heavy scale, according to a confirmation and full details of this daylight flight, presumably early in the morning, in the vicinity of Yugoslavia, were not forthcoming. Immediately but a few minutes after the first of the attacks was a major news development was announced that the RAF had begun a day attack against Germany—the installation of British heavy bombers in the Ruhr and Rhineland with extra fuel tanks to give them a range of 1,000 miles.
Nazi Admits Damage
In the Berlin broadcast, the German news agency DPA declared that 200 heavy bombers equipped by 29 American squadrons had been destroyed in Germany and Austria, capturing that target in the Austrian Alps. It also admitted that the first time an air base had been struck in Italy was by a plane based in Italy.
The German agency described the attacking force as "large formations" of four-engine bombers.

U. S. SEIZURE OF COAL PITS BELIEVED NEAR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 25 (UP)—Only one of 12 war steel units in the country coal mines in Alabama was reported in normal operation today and two others had small crews in answer to the war labor bureau's ultimatum to the 20,000 striking coal diggers to be up by today or face drastic action by the government to reopen the pits.
The 1,500 miners of Blue-River, Alabama, and two coal mines in the state were idle today, and field reports said the 6,000 men at the four mines operated by Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. were still off the job. One of the two Woodward Iron Co. mines was working.
Small crews appeared at the Safford, Ala. and the Republic Public, Ala. mines in response to a call from the War Labor Administration to get the pits operating. President John L. Lewis said that they would not work until they were paid.
The 1,500 miners voted to end their strike at a three-hour meeting yesterday morning. The vote was 7,000 to 1,000 in favor of the strike.
The union's demand was not met, however, and government seizure of the striking properties was believed near.

Mountain Drive by Fifth Army Seizes City of Sparanise

By WES GALLAGHER
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGERIA, Oct. 25 (UP)—Violent mountain battles flared on the fifth army front in Italy today as the result of an allied drive of three miles that took the vital rail and road junction of Sparanise, 13 miles from the western coast.
The advance of the fifth army, which was led by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower while on a tour of the front, placed the American and British troops north of the stoutly defended Regia defense canal leading to the Nazi imperiled position of the Nazi troops in that area.
If they don't get out they will be caught in a "pocket," a military communique said.
Nazi Counter-Attack
The Germans launched counter-attack after counter-attack in an effort to relieve their position, but in the words of the communique, they were driven off with a "bloody nose."
The entire tempo of the war in the Italian theater has shifted east from Sparanise toward Pignone and Spigno. American troops smashed back four Nazi assaults in 24 hours.
The fifth army advance in a mountain area overlooking the coast continued with a severe thrust to the east. German positions were captured and contained would seriously endanger the Nazis' Maschio Ridge line. German armor moved seven miles north of the Volturno near the crossing of the Salvo. Gen. Clark's line, and four units west of Pignone, in allied hands for several days.
Ball Lines Bombed
The rail yards and aircraft factories at Pignone were bombed last night, and other communication lines at Formia on the coast and near Ardea were blasted again.

ESTATE, GIFT TAX DENIED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The House today voted to deny a bill which would increase the estate and gift taxes, limiting $400,000,000 from the administration's receipts for the fiscal year in new wartime revenue laws.
The committee last week turned thumbs down on any increase in additional income taxes.
Income Boost Asked
The committee had asked $500,000,000 in additional taxes per person.
The bill's action left only one remaining estate and gift tax increase in the House. The bill would have had the effect of cutting the estate and gift taxes to the level of the present law.
The bill would have provided for a 10 percent increase in the federal estate tax rate, and a 10 percent increase in the gift tax rate. It also would have provided for a 10 percent increase in the gift tax rate.

Senate Opens U. S. Post-War Plans Debate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—Opening one of the senate's most important debates of the session, Senator Connally, D. Tex., declared today his plan to urge the United States to enter into a pact with the world.
The chairman of the foreign relations committee took the floor to announce the opening of the debate on the United States' plan with two other nations to enter into a pact with the world.
With every indication pointing to a continuation of the session by an overwhelming vote, Connally's declaration was met with a "yell" of approval.
"Isolation has failed. Let us try collective security."
"The United States cannot wait a pattern of its own and expect all other nations to accept it in detail," he declared.
Connally said the United States is a nation that is "inimitable against any single point on the globe," and should be equally powerful in all spheres of activity.
"The world knows that we cherish no scheme of conquest and no monopoly of power," he said.
"The heat has struck for America, but we are not going to let it burn. We are going to let it burn for the world's policy."

U. S. Smashes 23 Jap Aircraft at Wewak

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Oct. 25 (UP)—Allied warplanes destroyed 23 Japanese aircraft in a smashing, low-level raid on Wewak in northeastern New Guinea, and set fire to a large enemy vessel—possibly an aircraft carrier—in the northern Solomons, a communique said today.
Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters have indicated that allied bombers and ground forces effectively have broken Japanese resistance around Piliatuen, 27 miles southeast of Wewak, after more than a week of bitter air-sea fighting.
Installations Strated

FRAMES BOWLES AS CHIEF OF OPA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—President Roosevelt today set to work to create the nomination of Chester B. Bowles as chief of the Office of Public Administration, to succeed Wendell M. Brown as OPA administrator.
Bowles' resignation as administrator was announced last Thursday.
Bowles is 42 years old, a former New York advertising executive who entered the OPA office last July to take the post of general counsel.
Bowles gave Bowles "all the authority the term implies" and the new general manager immediately launched into a reorganization program to make the office more efficient and acceptable to congress, business and the people.
Bowles' promotion brings up the question of whether they will be asked to place Bowles in the position of general manager.
Bowles as general manager would head the OPA, a major theorist of the war, who has been in Washington since he was appointed as a junior adviser to the War Relocation Authority.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PARRI

Children should be a combination of school and hospital. Prisoners are those who could not go along with society and offend its laws and customs. In my years of experience with all sorts of offenders, young and old, it seemed to me that those who were taken from their homes and placed in a training school, where they were given the education necessary to attain their place in society, should be protected, helped, treated, in hospitals and schools and given the logic of acceptance.

Each Case Separate

Jailing offenders regardless of their needs, regardless of their families, is a stupid way of dealing with them. Their past should be studied, their abilities and their disabilities charted. Each offender should be given the treatment his condition demands.

The courts need physicians, psychiatrists, nurses, dentists, specialists in every field of human life. The jails need teachers, masters of trades, arts, crafts. Every redeemable offender should be redeemed. Only the incurable should be permanently confined. I would lessen the punishment system and accent the educational one. And I would start early to prevent the growth of offences.

I should a child be sent to a military school for a few years, only if he is not the best way now. Those who are too weak to stand alone, those who cannot take the training and the education necessary to attain their place in society, should be protected, helped, treated, in hospitals and schools and given the logic of acceptance.

PLEASANT SEASON OPENING ATTRACTS FEWER HUNTERS

Only Two Games on Magic Valley Gridiron Schedule This Week-End

With the harvest vacation carrying into this week, King Football will again see little action in the Magic Valley gridiron this weekend. Only two games are scheduled.

The two contests include an 11-man game between Fairfield and Wendell on the latter's gridiron and a six-man affair between Carey and Dietrich on the latter's field.

One of the games that Shoshone cancelled because of its withdrawal for the season was to have been played this Friday at Wendell against the Red and the Green of the Pilot's gridiron. However, there remained possibility that the game would be played Nov. 13, thus allowing the Redskins a few days practice before returning from the harvest vacation.

Pilots Drill for Hagerman
 Glenn Perry, mentioned earlier attention to drilling for the game with the undefeated Hagerman team, scheduled for the Pilots' field the following week-end. The coach said that the aggression with the unblemished record will be his strongest for the season.

The Pilots have lost but two games in their 11-game playdowns of the toughest schedules of any team in the Magic Valley. The losses are to the hands of Falls, Pauls Bluff and Boise, the latter last Saturday, 6-0.

Coach George Cooper said in Edge the Pilots met the strongest defense for three weeks in the game. He said the Pilots had a number of chances to score, once after returning to the field in the second half, but most of the time they were kept in the kicking of Mike, the captain of the club.

Boise Territory Off
 Time and again we get the ball into Boise territory only to lose it. This was the case in the game with Idaho. News via telephone, "Then Mike took a long kick."

Boise scored in the first quarter after the Pilots had held their opponents for three weeks. The two-yard line. In the last half, the Pilots dominated the game.

Cooper said that the Pilots would have trouble with Buckner, left end, and that the Pilots would be in the kicking of Mike, the captain of the club.

Deborah Tom of Day
 According to Cooper, Joe Deborah, his fullback, has the best man in the field. He also praised Deborah's kicking.

"I believe Boise is a better defensive team than Twin Falls but we will see about that," said Cooper.

Boise's armstrong team bowed, 6-0 to the Pilots in the first quarter. Jeff Cravath's southern California eleven has met and conquered the best opposition in the Magic Valley. College of the Pacific, the most powerful team in the Magic Valley, the old man, Ames' Old Stags, couldn't quite handle the Pilots.

Lack of Ammunition Cause, Officers Say

Fewer hunters were in the fields on the opening day of the pleasant season Sunday than on the first day of the season a year ago, conservation officers reported to the Times-News Monday.

This was contrary to the predictions of Saturday night, when many parts of the north and west and Pacific coast filled the hotels and tourist camps in Twin Falls and Jerome areas.

Both Grover C. Davis, director of local conservation, and John Delo, Shoshone, district conservation officer, said there were far fewer hunters in the fields Sunday than on the first day of the season a year ago.

Delo also said that most hunters heeded the warning of the state public health department to keep their dogs out of rabbit-infested Jerome district. He said that he had a few, however, who kept their dogs out of the fields.

Careful With Ammunition
 Officers expressed the opinion that a shortage of ammunition was one of the reasons for the lack of hunters in the fields and that the few who went out were careful of their shots.

Delo was plural in his opinion and in excellent condition. The hunters who went out had little trouble finding the limit.

Davis, meanwhile, announced that the season for the Snake River hunt which opens next Saturday and continues to Nov. 6 and for which 1,000 permits have been issued.

HERN SCHROEDER CHAPTER XXIII

"Herr Schroeder has come," the hotel clerk greeted Imhof on his return.

"Is he here now?" Imhof asked. He unlocked his room key from the numbered pigeon-hole for his mail in the little alcove off his door. He unlocked the door and he was out.

"Did he have what was coming back?" Schroeder had not.

Full of his news about Rick, Imhof knocked on Pat's door.

"I'm afraid he could not take in the incredible fact. When she heard the whole story such joy poured from her eyes as if there were a momentary truce of jealousy.

"Do you think of it? Now we can all go together."

"I will can pinch this plane from Schroeder," she said. "We've got to get busy—and work fast. No sleep. If Schroeder gets away, we'll be in a bad way."

She went and Imhof dashed in about some morphia tablets he had brought with him. There he found Pat upstairs.

"Why didn't you stop me?" Imhof only grinned in a brotherly way. He turned to Schroeder. "A liqueur?" he offered, as if to change the subject. "What's to be?"

"A small brandy," Schroeder offered.

"Two brandies," Imhof ordered. When the drinks were brought, he put the glass down. "Dreadful stuff," he exclaimed, "but I'll have a hand on Schroeder's glass. I can't treat you to much, Lieutenant."

He bent over, looking mysterious. "Come to my room," he rose and beckoned. "I've got some of the real thing—Marcell Four Stars!" He winked knowingly and rubbed his hands. "You want to be a hero?"

Upstairs, while Pat engaged the morphia solution into the glass he handed to Schroeder.

"To the flight tonight!" he pledged.

Presently Schroeder passed his hands over his eyes. Their voices seemed to grow dim, their faces were before him, the room spun around him, he staggered to his feet. They just caught him as he collapsed.

He had started the member Mitchell when Pat's eyes suddenly kindled.

"Lieutenant!" she called gaily, her smile radiant. Imhof turned to Schroeder, who was standing by the door.

"The little flurry assembly of the place setting over Schroeder's head, he said, 'I'll be right back. I'll be right back. I'll be right back.'"

"Only five days' leave!" she exclaimed indignantly. "After keeping me from my job for a week, I do think it's mean. And now that they've dragged you here away from your family, they probably won't even think of looking you up for days."

"That's good!" laughed Schroeder, exchanging with Imhof a look of comprehension of his affairs, were concluded. "No Franklin. He explained consequently, 'I have to look them up. This very afternoon, too.'"

"How disappointing!" Pat exclaimed. "I hoped you'd be able to spend the afternoon with us. Can't you call them up and have the line charged?" she suggested.

"Goodness!" laughed Schroeder. "My new chief would be so pleased. I can imagine it." Schroeder rather hesitantly indicated the status of his superior. "What? Got a date for 3:30, Schroeder? Is she very pretty? Ah, come when you can."

Pat blushed in seeming confusion. "You're playing it me," she complained. "I thought as you lived in Honolulu you'd probably been acquainted with her before you knew the field here."

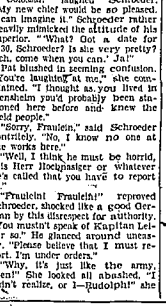

"Franklin Franklin," said Schroeder contemptuously. "No, I know no one at all the works here."

"Why, I think he must be horrid, this Herr Hoopnasser or whatever his name is called that you reported to me."

"Franklin Franklin!" rejoined Schroeder, who looked like a good man by this unexpected for authority. "You mustn't speak of Kapitan Leiber at all." He showed around unpleasantly. "Please believe that I must report. To my superior."

"Why, it's just like the army, then!" she looked at Imhof. "I don't like it, or I don't like it."

Your Navy...Spearhead of VICTORY!

When David Farragut, first admiral of the United States Navy, bellowed the much quoted words—"Damn the torpedos, full speed ahead" he expressed a spirit that has become traditional with our navy—its men—its ships—and more recently, its planes. "Old Salamander," as Admiral Farragut was fondly nicknamed, was from "stem to stern" the fighting figure of a man such as has made the American Navy undaunted, unbeaten; one of the first hopes of the world in the present war, to wipe tyranny off the face of the earth! On this day, dedicated to our navy, all of us backing up our naval heroes, here at home—give a rousing cheer to encourage them in the battle they are fighting so gloriously. Victory must be theirs—but it is for each of us to hasten it; unflinchingly we
