

$\mathcal{H}_1 = \{ \mathbf{h}_1, \mathbf{h}_2, \dots, \mathbf{h}_M \}$ and $\mathcal{H}_2 = \{ \mathbf{h}_{M+1}, \mathbf{h}_{M+2}, \dots, \mathbf{h}_{M+N} \}$ are the two sets of hypotheses. The test statistic is the likelihood ratio $L(\mathbf{y}) = \frac{p(\mathbf{y} | \mathcal{H}_1)}{p(\mathbf{y} | \mathcal{H}_2)}$. The decision rule is to choose \mathcal{H}_1 if $L(\mathbf{y}) \geq \tau$ and \mathcal{H}_2 otherwise, where τ is the threshold. The probability of detection P_D and the probability of false alarm P_{FA} are defined as $P_D = P(\text{choose } \mathcal{H}_1 | \mathcal{H}_1 \text{ is true})$ and $P_{FA} = P(\text{choose } \mathcal{H}_1 | \mathcal{H}_2 \text{ is true})$. The receiver operating characteristic (ROC) curve is the plot of P_D versus P_{FA} . The area under the ROC curve (AUC) is a measure of the performance of the detector. The AUC is the probability that the detector will correctly rank a randomly chosen pair of hypotheses. The AUC is a measure of the overall performance of the detector, and it is a good measure of the performance of the detector in the presence of noise. The AUC is a measure of the performance of the detector, and it is a good measure of the performance of the detector in the presence of noise.

ON THE SPORT FRONT

Ye Old Sport Service had just sat down to his "Bible of baseball" the Sporting News, for consulting a serious sport fan, the pride of Mr. P. H. Botsch by calling the late and beloved "Old Sport" to the aid of a "Bible" of baseball. The "Bible" was addressed "The Paddy O'Connell, Times-News, City." The ancient word paddy was very aptly used, for the letter because it was the first time he had ever received one so addressed. The letter, which was the first time he had ever received one so addressed, was the first time he had ever received one so addressed. The letter, which was the first time he had ever received one so addressed, was the first time he had ever received one so addressed.

But the letter— After reading your article about Idaho being the "home of great sports" I felt that a very serious error was made when saying that these boys were trained by an old gentleman whose name is lost in the mists of time. His name is not Parker as Vaco Park (V.O.S.S.) note: Parker was the subject of the article referred to, but not the many others.

This old gentleman, A. H. Parker, owner and breeder of fine thoroughbred horses, was really and truly the "home king," and who not only started the Parker boys but many others who became great riders, including Charlie Thompson, the Idaho boy who won the Kentucky derby. H. Thompson had won money making in 1934, and A. J. Kelly, also a fine rider.

JUST AN OLD TYMER? The man who made a few old timers who know feel better please in some small way to write in your column sometime.

Richfield Nips Solon Boxers

Close competition in Magic Valley boxing tournament to be staged next month in Jerome is indicated by the results of the inter-school matches so far this season.

Coach Earl Williams' Tiger team is regarded as one of the best this school has produced in a number of years. The boxers were beaten by the Solon team in a defeat by Coach Fred Baldridge's midgets at Richfield, where the Tigers' Gidding team was defeated by a Tom Prescott-coached team at Wendell. Wendell later lost to Coach George Black's boxers at Castile.

Choir-Boy Appearing Lavigne Toughest Lightweight Champ

SIXTH of a series Famous Referee and Manager George "Kid" Lavigne, 6-3 1/2, 135, lightweight champion of the world from 1936 to '39, slim, flaxen-haired and baby-faced, looked the part of a boy soprano in a cathedral choir, but in real life he made Swipes the newsboy keep a civil tongue in his head.

Lavigne lacked a singing voice but packed two fists that hummed his way over the toughest opposition to clear the way to the world's championship.

Shortly after his all-around exhibition with Jack McCallister of New York March 11, 1935, Jack retired and Lavigne claimed the title. By this time Lavigne, who began his fighting career with a string of quick knockouts in 40, had moved down all contenders in America, so he set sail for England to enter the Ring of Champions.

Two years before Lavigne had met the Ring of Champions. They met in London, June 1, 1936, when the Ring of Champions met the Ring of Champions. They met in London, June 1, 1936, when the Ring of Champions met the Ring of Champions.

Joe went on and took the aback of his life. In their second meeting, Oct. 2, 1937, in San Francisco, Walcott gave up in the 12th round. The Ring of Champions met the Ring of Champions. They met in London, June 1, 1936, when the Ring of Champions met the Ring of Champions.

442,510 Pounds of Deer Meat Provided in Minidoka Hunts

BURLEY, Feb. 15.—Hawley Hill, state conservation officer, has released his annual report on deer killed during the hunt in the Minidoka National Forest.

The report shows a total of 3,170 animals killed. Since the animals averaged 137 pounds dressed they provided 442,510 pounds of venison.

No open season was held on the Black Pine division. 41,149 DEER TAGS SOLD BOISE, Feb. 15.—During the 1933 big game hunting season 41,149 deer tags were sold. James O. Beck, director of the Idaho fish and game department, said the 1942 sale totalled 40,216. THE STORY: Kitty Bishop comes to the suburban home of her brother Ben, Graham, and his wife, Peg, to recuperate from her sudden divorce. Young Ben's father makes the mistake of asking for Collins, Kitty's ex-husband. He is promptly rejected by his older sister, Jane.

On the whole, dinner passed off smoothly. Lulu had been present all day about, waiting on the table, but the food she ate and took off with more vigor than attention to fine points was food.

Bunny's unstable spirit had disconcerted all the collection of the best mortification and he worked his way contentedly through dinner, jostling very little attention to those around him. His sister Jane was very busy.

MAY GRADUATION FOR 17 IN JOE

BURLEY, Feb. 15—Ross Barr, principal, announces that 17 Busby high school seniors have been allowed to discontinue school work as graduates, although exercises will not be held until next May.

This record large group of may year graduates does not indicate a lowering of standards, he pointed out. Each student had completed 34 credits required and each had job or service or college waiting for him immediately.

The graduates are:

Polge Lake, who is being induced into service this month; Andy Snow, who has registered at Ripon college, Rexburg; Evelyn Tallor, who has secured work in California.

nia; Maxine Anderson, who is employed at Cassia National Bank; Gene Barrus, now employed by Western Union; Maxine Walker Allen, who was married last summer; Jerry Berrier, who will run his father's farm this year; Ivan Dogget, who is entering navy V-12 training.

Perry Finstemaker, who is entering the marines; Joann Snyder,

FROM A SAILOR

Editor, Times-News:

I have seen and felt how a sea man, or you might say a boot, goes through training really feels. I have seen and experienced how sailors can get his first voyage. I have seen both sides of the equation many times in the last year.

And south sea island girls. No, I can't leave them out, because I've seen them too. I have seen and experienced what a torpedo does to a ship, and how it feels to be machine-gunned while holding on to a raft. See the bullets splash all around you, just wondering where one would be coming along the

I have seen what tropical fever or a piece of shrapnel can do.
I have sailed the south and I have sailed the north Pacific. In the north it can be like the very de-th was turned loose. Ice and snow thick you would think you were riding on a cube of ice instead of a ship. The wind so strong you have to hang on to a line. Some-have to hang on to a line. Sometimes when a ship is anchored it will break the chain and dash it on the rocks. That is when you begin to think of home and the nice girl you left behind, and hope there will be no change when we come back. When we come into port, too for many to be out, but Uncle Sam's boys are, and always ready for anything.

Just a little about morale. Believe it just can't be beat. We won't mention, just how and everything is mentioned, with the morale is the No matter how far you get away from home, hot or cold places, I can always sit down and enjoy a plate of those good Idaho spuds. Come on, all spud growers, you have a job to do.
