(From Page One)
Liberated from Italy last night against the southern rim of Hitler's military continental forces, including the port and submarine ports of Toulon, French Mediterranean naval base.

It was the 15th straight day of pre-invasion action in which the southern rim of Toulon was shelled on six occasions.

The two aircraft carriers followed a night plane against the star-Hill North sea by the RAF. Last night's attack was made off the coast of the port and submarine ports of Toulon, French Mediterranean naval base.

The raid on Berlin was perhaps unexpected by any previous day of the war.

Hundreds of Nazi fighters started in the night, attacking the American air force.

IDAHO INDUCTION TOTALS DOUBLED

BOISE, April 29 (AP)—Brig Gen. M. G. McConnell, Idaho selective service director, today said 3,697 Idaho men were given pre-induction physicals in March and that nearly 2,477 were accepted for induction in the army and navy.

He said the acceptance were more than twice the number of any previous month since start of selective service in October, 1940.

The Atlantic breakdown showed that 1,054 men were inducted by the army and 763 by the navy. The army accepted 456 men and 202 were placed in induction. Fifty-three men volunteered for immediate induction following their pre-induction physicals.

The state average of physical results was 72.7 per cent, with the Spokane area showing a high rate, 82.7 per cent. Repeat rate in the Boise area was 14.2 per cent, the Pocatello area, 13.1 per cent.

Of the men accepted for induction, 1,877 were processed by Idaho local boards, and approximately 600 by post-office boards. The records show that 797 of the total taking pre-induction physicals were transferred out of the state, and it is estimated that the 600 of them were inducted.

The breakdown by areas follows:

Boise, area 1,614 pre-induction, 925 accepted by the army, 355 by the navy, 77 inducted, 163 physical rejects and 238 transferred out.

Pocatello area, 1,000 pre-induction, 327 accepted by the army, 150 by the navy, 55 inducted, 123 physical rejects, and 248 transferred out.

Spokane area (north Idaho)—777 pre-induction, 125 accepted by the army, 122 by the navy, 50 inducted, 174 physical rejects and 165 transferred out.

BOYS WHO PAID THEIR TAX WITHOUT GRUMPING

Editor, Times-News:

In a recent letter written to the Forum by D. R. Churchill, I note he seemed somewhat excited by the fact that his income tax was paid by him, D. C. in general. May I say to him, after a six week stay in the veterans' hospital in Portland I am young, lean, red-blooded American citizen, healthy, and a patriot, a safer place to live.

And you never hear a complaint from them. They had the intestinal fortitude to go out and pay the hard way and come back grumpy and uncomplaining and still smile and carry out the national service with a heart from some of us who sit at home.

We have two boys at the navy who have been married six years and is in the Pacific some where, and our just past 12 in military school somewhere in the south, a disabled veteran of the first world war. The entire family is in the war effort physically, mentally and morally 100 per cent. And not grumping about it.

Important Facts About TRUCK LINE STRIKE

Important Facts About TRUCK LINE STRIKE

On April 20, all A. F. L. teamsters, union employees of four major intermountain truck lines, went on strike in protest against the handling of freight by these companies for The Compton Transfer and Storage Company, a non-union concern of Boise, Idaho.

Within the following week, all teamsters' union employees of four other intermountain truck lines struck in sympathy, though none of these lines were directly involved in the original dispute.

No other grounds for the calling of the strikes have been claimed by the striking teamsters or their union representatives. No wage disagreement, no hiring of non-union workers, no contract violation, no other grievance of any kind is charged as a basis for the strikes.

Between March 28 and April 18, in the interest of harmony, and pending settlement of the original dispute by a proper governmental agency, the trucking companies refrained from handling freight for the Compton company. So long as this arrangement continued there was no trouble.

However, on April 18, Interstate Commerce Commission, under whose jurisdiction the truck lines operate, wrote them, "It is necessary for you to render service to the public without discrimination" (including service to Compton's) . . . and that "failure to do so will constitute sufficient grounds for suspension or revocation of the certificate." In other words failure to handle all freight would subject the truck lines to the probable loss of operating authority. So, on April 20, the truck lines announced they would handle all freight without discrimination and the union called the strike as already cited.

This condition has left a large section of the intermountain west without adequate interstate trucking service at a critical time when the movement of freight is so vital to an early victory, not to mention the resulting injury to industry and the public generally.

The loss which will be sustained by the Army and by the public can best be realized by a study of the figures representing the volume of freight carried by these lines and the extent of the territory served.

The lines shut down serve directly nine intermountain and western states. In addition, Salt Lake City is the gateway for cross country truck shipments to and from points lying far beyond their primary territories. The strike has practically closed the movement of transcontinental motor freight between eastern territories and the west coast through the Denver-Salt Lake gateway.

It is further estimated that the lines directly affected operate 600 pieces of equipment and carry more than 2,000 tons of freight a day. They operate over 55,000 miles per day.

It is the duty of the War Labor Board to settle disputes of this kind. The truck lines have used every means at their command to have this dispute certified to the War Labor Board, but without success.

The truckers complied fully and immediately with the Army's request, including the re-

Pfc. W. C. Reeves Injured in Action

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The war department tonight announced the names of 929 U. S. soldiers wounded in action, including three from Idaho.

The Idaho list included: Pfc. Louis Howard G. Smith, son of Carl G. Smith, Gooding, wounded in European theater.

Send that boy in the service

This condensed newspaper page, clipped, inserted in an envelope and mailed to your loved one, is an aid to all war service. It's an aid to all war service. It's an aid to all war service.

Well, anyway, I DIDN'T know this week. But how it rained and enjoyed a conversation with Doug Boggs and John Peithouses this morning as we stood out on the deck of our little boat. I didn't know they were in ranch-style with heavy raincoats to learn about the best dope I could get from these experts that everything under control if we'd just get a little DDT weather now. The ground is out quickly.

Some very nice letters this week—from the far off east came "Mellon best wishes from C. W. Williams, E. Shipman, formerly of Magic Valley, and the best wishes are beautifully done on a hand printed paper. Shipman is with a special service outfit and has transported by air some very nice. Among them: Joe E. Melvin, Douglas, and P. M. Puente Goddard. He dubs them all darned good fighters and says they are real hard for their efforts. Then there was another fine letter from Don Newcomb, E. M. J. He says in part: "You much to say in concern as to what you are but you are not that it won't compare with Twin Falls and surroundings." It's good to hear from Don again.

And a note from Bobby F. Boyer, S. I. C. and he says as he closes after discussing his brother is Cecil Boyer, who reported as a prisoner of war recently. "I just dropped you this letter and to let you know that Magic Valley is well represented over here in the west. I hope we can get some news from you soon."

A newcomer to our mail list is Lt. L. J. Fremont, Buhi, and he discloses he has been away a long time because of the names of the boys in the service which he reads in the "Mail" letter—a distinct check—I expect he didn't expect to grow so quick. He asks to have his regards sent to Bill Powers—Bill will probably have about the message through this letter—and to Robby Robinson, former manager of the J. C. Penney store. Well, Robby left here a good two years ago and Enle Gray is holding that job down tight. Robby is over in Spokane with the mail. He has another note from Ralph Funks, S. M. M. from Idaho. He has just been assigned to destroyer and hopes to hear from him soon—he will.

And so from the mail we turn to a few persons—

Critically injured last month by a deep wound from a bullet Newman W. Cogwell, Twin Falls, was reported to have shown improvement at a Longview, Texas hospital. Entering his final phase prior to training prior to overseas. Pfc. Harold W. Vineyard has arrived at Patterson field, Calif., for combat practice as an aerial gunner aboard a Liberator bomber. Lt. Albert Hammond, army air corps, has been assigned a short tour through his base in Tampa, Florida, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hammond, Acquia, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bowen, Elmer, have received word that their son, James Bowen, machinist in the first, has received a citation for bravery from the commanding officer of his destroyer. Lt. Fred L. Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs.

BRITAIN'S ARMY HITS 9 MILLIONS

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Oliver Lottelton, British minister of production, briefing that the strategy of America, Britain and Russia has been combined and synchronized for the destruction of Hitler, revealed today that the British empire has under arms nearly 9,000,000 men and 500,000 women—not including the home guards.

Lottelton spoke in London, and excerpts of his address are available here by the British information services.

Combined United States armed forces total approximately 1,100,000.

Referring to the pre-invasion air forces that the combined allied air forces have been waiting for two weeks against the invasion axis, Lottelton said:

"Time will shortly show that the whole structure of the military and industrial effort of Germany and her satellites has been deeply shaken by the two air forces and that probably many hundreds of thousands of Russians as well as British and American lives have been saved by the sacrifices of our gallant pilots."

Dr. Groome, One Of Early "Vets." Giving up Work

Thirty-seven years ago back in Manhattan, Kan., a young man graduated from Kansas State college as a full-fledged veterinary surgeon.

"Full-fledged," meaning as it does the ability to fly from one end of the country to the other wherever fancy dictates, marked this young specialist in veterinary science.

He moved directly to Jewel, Kan., where his "fledgling" opportunities were clipped in the wings; he stayed in Jewel for 10 years, practicing his new profession.

Came To West

On April 1, 1917, after 10 years' experience, Dr. Groome moved to Twin Falls, where he was met by Dr. Herbert R. Groome, head of the state veterinary school, and Dr. Groome's famous line, "Go west, young man, go west," and he lived in Twin Falls.

Twin Falls, that was not as it is today—as my pioneer will tell you. The town was not of great interest to Dr. Groome—just a town. What interested him was its geographical location, and the attention there were probably many domestic animals within the area—some of which would be in need of the care of a practiced veterinarian.

Back in those days, according to Dr. Groome, calls came from quite a distance, and it was in an area where there was no motor car, and even during quite a few winters after that, when cattle, horses and mules pulled his carriage over the Idaho hinterland on his errands of mercy.

Bought Automobile

He bought his first car in 1919. A resident of Idaho for 27 years, Dr. Groome has been a deputy state veterinarian all that time, as well as being active in the state and national veterinary association.

And now, after 27 years of serving this community, Dr. Groome, because he values his health, is turning his practice over to younger hands.

Dr. D. A. Jackson, Dr. Groome's assistant since 1942, is taking over the practice; and if Dr. Jackson's hometown is any indication of his ability to handle "tough situations," he will soon become as widely known and liked as his predecessor—Dr. Jackson, comes from Minnesota, Colo., where Jack Dempsey was born and raised.

Dr. Jackson graduated from Colorado State college, Fort Collins, Colo., in 1941, and practiced in Preston for a short period before coming to Twin Falls.

Music Instructor Presents Students

JEROME, April 29—Prof. Gustav O. Fischer, Jerome, recently presented his musical students from Castleford, Hazelton, Gooding state school, Appleton, Canyonville, Green wood, Gooding, Jerome and Wendell, over station KFTV, Twin Falls.

The orchestra played Handel's "Festival March." A piano solo, Debussy's "Clair de Lune," played by Roland Kelly, faculty member from Gooding state school, followed. "By the Waters of the Minnetonka," was presented by violin students.

San Juan, Hazelton, played a trombone solo, and Arta Moyes, Jerome, played "Mazurka" by Myronski. The advanced violin students played "On de Deris," Eugene Todd played a clarinet solo.

Marine Pfc. Eugene E. Malone has sent a prized souvenir, the decorative sword and belt worn by a Japanese naval officer, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Malone, 1206 Seventh avenue east, and his brother, Wilbur, a 16-year-old Twin Falls high school sophomore.

The letter which accompanied the sword merely asked if the souvenir had been received and gave no clue of how he had acquired it.

GRAZING STATUTE REVISION SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Sen. Pat McCarran, D., Nev., said today that a bill he introduced yesterday to revise the management and administration of national forest grazing lands would provide for extensive livestock-grower committees and guarantee a "more democratic procedure."

The bill is favored by the American National Livestock association. It would prevent the secretary of agriculture from denying a new grazing license to any owner upon application, and would also prevent him from reducing the number of head of livestock which might graze a given area if the area is purchased by a new operator, unless a reduction would prevent overgrazing, conserve public resources, or aid in forestry administration.

The bill provides further that a local advisory board composed of no less than three nor more than 12 members who are national forest grazing permittees, shall be devised in each grazing district to consult with the secretary of agriculture in the administration of the national grazing act.

VARIETY PROGRAM

AT REGION MEET

BUHL, April 29—With their special guests, Mrs. Violet Gordon, district president of the American Legion Auxiliary, and Mr. Gordon, Edna, the Buhl Legion and auxiliary recently held a pot luck dinner and joint meeting. Capt. Lloyd Miller, who is here on leave from Canada and Alaska told the group a little about the new Al-Can highway. He explained some of the difficulties of building a road over the great bogs and uninhabited stretches. In more than two years of the project, he followed the highway from Edmonton through the mountain wilderness to Fairbanks, Alaska. In a matter of months most of it was completed by a few thousand men and civilians. Many times, he said, the big "cats" had to pull the trucks out of the spontaneous combustion of the bogs.

Sgt. Clarence Kyles, who recently received a medical discharge from the armed forces, said a few words in English and spent some time in hospitals in both England and United States on his return to this country.

Other numbers on the program, presented by some of the Buhl school pupils, were an excerpt from "Gone with the Wind," two piano solos by Gary Neerer, and a humorous reading by Miss Jeanne Kewer. In a short business session following the joint meeting, the auxiliary held initiation ceremonies for three candidates, Mary Beck, Edna Smalley and Zucalla Brannon. A report was given on the joint party held by the Junior auxiliary and the Camp Fire girls, and the group met to take out machinery for the cancer control movement. They also voted $5.00 to be sent to the Committee for the Blind, which is maintained by the auxiliary for the free use of transient soldiers.

Idaho Flier Gets Zero Over Wewak

ADVANCE ECHIZON, FIFTH AIR FORCE, somewhere in New Guinea—Jumped by Japanese planes while on a mission over Wewak last March, 2nd Lt. E. G. Mays, southern Idaho now number one in a Liberator bomber of the famous "Jolly Roger" both unit successfully prevented his plane from being shot down, shooting down one in the process.

Sergeant Mays, whose wife, Irla, lives in Syracuse, Kan., has participated in 47 missions with the fifth AAF over enemy territory and has more than 200 hours of combat flying time to his credit. On the Wewak mission, when the zero, a gun blazing away at them, was less than 100 yards away, Mays opened up with several machine guns. The zero burst into flames, went spiraling down until it crashed into the water.

POLICE SEEKING

CAPONE BROTHER

CHICAGO, April 29.—Armed with a murder warrant, police today launched an intensive search for Matt Capone, college-educated younger brother of the infamous Alphonse Al. Capone, who is one of the nation's most powerful gangland empire.

Young Capone, now a tavern-keeper in suburban Cicero where once his brother held sway as a powerful racketeer, was sought for the slaying of James D. Larkin, slain in 1926.

Larkin was shot to death in Capone's saloon on April 17 and witnesses implicated Capone and Wally Sandler, his bartender, both of whom have yet to be picked up in connection with the affair.

The murder warrant was obtained by John McClellan, chief of Cook county highway police, from Henry J. Frank, justice of the peace at Willow Springs police station.

Despite the fact that the Will county grand jury failed to indict Capone, Sheriff Michael P. Murphy said that his staff had sufficient evidence that pointed to his responsibility for the Larkin slaying.

TAKE AWAY THE LADY

Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc. by Lester Dent

THE STORY: Link, Link Bell, army air corps lieutenant, is in the prison, Tokyo, Japan, is a prisoner of war. He is the over-enthusiastic of Captain Asazaki, commander of the prison, who invites Link to his home for dinner. He is further amazed at being introduced to the other two women, Tilda Courtwright and Norma Greer. Both are white women.

NORMA GREER
VI
Link was afterward seated with the woman that he had fallen on his face at this point.

Something as dramatic and expressive as Norma Greer's due. He was a little confused. She had honey hair and too many other good points to be noticed all at once.

She had, just now, quite a surprise. Link said, unconsciously sure he was giving the impression of passing the air for some.

"Is that so," she asked. Asazaki nudged Link and whispered, "But what you expected, is she?"

He recalled, you're telling the truth for a change. Link thought. "I tried to organize myself. I was very glad to meet you," he said. That didn't sound right, either.

"Thank you," Norma Greer turned away. "What a nice home. Captain. It still amazes me the way you have built this city and its surroundings in your private life."

Link got the strong impression that he had made a pretty bad mistake. "Where," he whispered, "did I find out about this?"

Asazaki whispered back, "Careful. She isn't somebody you jump at. Link here, isn't she, Link thought. That tells the story.

Link looked Asazaki in the eye. He felt angry and lousy. "I want her," he said, "for my evening out. Miss Norma Greer heard this. Link could tell so from the way her neck arched.

He had the sickening suspicion that he had made a pretty bad mistake. "Where," he whispered, "did I find out about this?"

Asazaki whispered back, "Careful. She isn't somebody you jump at. Link here, isn't she, Link thought. That tells the story.

CUNTISTS ENTER INNOCENT PLEAS

SALT LAKE CITY, April 29 (UP)—Fifteen many-armed cunts of the polygamous fundamentalists today pleaded innocent to charges by the state of Utah that they were guilty of unlawful cohabitation with up to six wives each.

Total—By written stipulations accepted by the defense and state today—will begin trial on May 15 before District Judge Ray Van Cott. If this paper trial will not require any verbal testimony, although counsel may make legal arguments, the trial could drag on for two weeks.

Meanwhile, Van Cott continued arraignment of 34 cult participants—men and women—on a charge of conspiracy to advance, practice and teach the doctrine of polygamy, until May 12, when the defense will present the case and the state will present the charge. A court request for a bill of particulars to the complaint will be filed upon May 10.

Object of the bill of particulars is to require the bill of particulars. Defense Attorney Claude T. Barnes said such defendant wanted to know as quickly as possible just how the state contends the conspiracy was carried out.

District Attorney Brigham K. Roberts opposed the request for the bill of particulars, adding the court "Am I expected previous to trial to detail exactly how each of 34 defendants involved in each of 11 counts?"

The small courtroom in the colonial old Salt Lake City-county building was crowded today with defendants and many of them with many of them wearing bright red paper collars and in the corridors for benefits of war veterans, and as many spectators as could enter the room.

Two of the polygamous wives fell asleep during the extensive trial, called the "trial of the wives," while two children sat listlessly on their father's lap and another boy slept on the proceedings.

Reading of the complaint and stipulations already entered was followed by the defense and state. The defendant then was called to enter his plea and each said "not guilty."

Joseph W. Musser, 51-year-old fundamentalist leader and editor of the materialist magazine "Truth," was particularly deliberate as he slowly gave his "not guilty" answer.

The stipulations, which are statements of fact upon which both the defense and state agreed, list one woman with whom the defendants allegedly cohabited. Dr. John C. Alfred, Salt Lake City naturopath to physician, led the list. He was charged with cohabitation with a woman, Musser allegedly has five children.

Barnes, in answer to the judge's query of how long he expected the conspiracy trial to last, said "I am not to quash is not granted, said it will take nearly a month to get a jury. I doubt if you could find a jury in New Zealand without a five-figure option because this case is already known all over the world."

Douglas Martin Needham, however, Roberts expected that the trial would not require more than a month.

After the proceedings today, the cultists spent considerable time discussing a federal government brief filed yesterday in the indictment of many fundamentalists on white slave charges and of three on kidnapping counts.

They were particularly incensed at a statement by assistant U. S. District Attorney John Boyden that some of the polygamous children were forced to run errands in garbage cans for food.

"It is just like you to see all our children," one plural wife told a United Press reporter. "And then you could see for yourself. If you think they ever had to do such a thing."

Alfred claimed that Boyden was "acting beyond his legal prerogative" in including in the brief, supposedly confined to legal points, what he called "emotional statements" in which the federal government attempted to show that life in the pluralist families was on the sordid side.

India produced nearly 80 per cent of the items required for her war supply.

Pacific Pilot

RYLON JAY SKEEN

RYLON JAY SKEEN, a Liberator bomber in the south Pacific, Pilot Skeen is starting a day's flight, which shows up pieces of the ship, together with wreckage put 152 miles in his plane. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin S. Skeen, Salt Lake City.

Plane of Buhl Pilot Hit 152 Times in Raid

SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC, (Delayed)—Chief Aviator Pilot Rulon Jay Skeen, a Liberator bomber with the South Pacific Air Command of Vice Adm. Aubrey W. Fitch, recalls Nov. 30, 1943, as the date of his most nerve-racking flight.

"We were hit by a kamikaze plane for a second attack and were downed about it when the freighter was hit. Pieces of the ship, sharp, put 152 holes in our plane. Though badly damaged, we managed to fly the plane 700 miles back to our base. Not one of us had much of getting there, but I felt we had won it, I guess."

Skeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin S. Skeen, Salt Lake City, received the navy's air medal for this and other hazardous missions involving aerial attacks against enemy shipping and installations. He has won 152 combat hours to his credit, and the squadron records to date show destruction of one Japanese gun boat, one freighter, three barges and one medium bomber shot down.

Pilot Skeen, now home on leave, will be married to a Japanese girl, L. D. S. church, Twin Falls, to Miss Ruth Cuthbert, Twin Falls.

41 Leave Jerome For Army Center

JEROME, April 29.—Forty-one men, including 31 American Japanese, left this week for Fort Douglas, Utah, for army induction. Jerome residents were Shirley Williams, as leader; Arthur Daniels, Food Saver, Edwin Harding, Riley McCarrall, Charles Featherston, Sidney Adams, Ralph Wadley, George Shaffer and John Ellis.

Bob Immler acted as leader of the 21 American Japanese.

STALIN RECEIVES AMERICAN PRIEST

MOSCOW, April 29 (UP)—Premier Joseph Stalin received the Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, Dillingfield, Mass., for an unprecedented conference on the Polish situation last night, and today the Catholic priest said the results of the meeting were "excellent."

Moscow newspapers devoted about one-third of their front pages today to the first known pictures portraying Stalin with a Roman Catholic.

League Leader Orlemanski of the Roman Catholic league, which opposes the exiled Polish government and supports the Polish patriots in Russia.

The conference at the Kremlin, attended by Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov, was regarded as highly significant and believed to reflect a deep interest of the Soviet government in achieving a solution of the Polish problem, now mired, as far as the Polish government in London is concerned, by factional disputes and recriminations.

The Soviet press published a three-column portrait of Stalin with Orlemanski and Molotov. They showed Stalin, smiling cordially, seated with the other two at a banquet table. Stalin held a pen to a sheet of paper before him. The priest was seated at his left. Molotov on the right. Another picture showed them standing.

"Excellent results" regarding the meeting—the results were "excellent," Orlemanski told reporters before his departure by special train for a visit of two or three days with the Polish army in the Soviet Union.

TARIFFS ON TURK IMPORTS REVISED

WASHINGTON, April 29 (UP)—Two days after Turkey declared to shut off all shipments of chrome to the axis, the United States granted a Turkish request for revision of tariffs on Turkish imports of chrome minerals and products.

The state department revised today.

Officials said the action had no connection with the recent pressure put upon Turkey by Great Britain and the United States to stop her from supplying Germany with steel-hardening chrome.

On April 20, Turkey announced that henceforth it would not ship more chrome to Germany which was believed to have depended upon the Turks for about one-third of her supply. The German since have accused the Turks of breaking their trade agreement.

If Your Hearing Is Unsatisfactory Why Not Do Something About It?

Many in this community who have been handicapped for years with hearing difficulty are now enjoying their children and families, and are working with increased efficiency and usefulness. Many who thought they were "getting by" but were actually losing out are now restored to life, thanks to Sonotone.

Someone is not just another instrument. Someone is a person. Someone is a person who has found new happiness through her friendly advice and counsel.

You who have unsatisfactory hearing should determine to hear. Don't decide your case is hopeless, even if you have tried an instrument and failed to get help. Remember there are two ways to better hearing. If you can not hear, hear through the ear.
