

DEPUTIES FACING GAMING PENALTY

AMERICAN FALLS, June 8 (AP)—Two Blaine county deputy sheriffs were faced with paying $200 fines or serving 40 days in jail here today for failing to testify truthfully in the order of their sheriff.

The officers, R. J. Reynolds and Ammon Hatch, were meted the sentence late yesterday by Judge of the Peace C. A. Coon following their conviction on charges of gambling in the "30" club which lies a few steps across the line in Power county. However, the deputies immediately appeared to district court and were released on $250 bond each.

The trouble began last April 15, the deputies testified, when the Blaine county sheriff, Alma Martley, entered them in to the club and check up on reported gambling. While they were there, Power county deputies arrived on a raid and placed them under arrest, along with the two club operators, Arthur Welch and Nick Harris.

The latter two also were ordered to pay $200 fine each or serve 40 days in jail.

The inter-county jurisdictional dispute over the "30" club began a year and a half ago, and was taken to the state supreme court. The high court ruled that Blaine county officers were within their rights in enforcing the law at the club which lies less than 500 feet inside Power county.

850 Cattle Sold Here in One Day

Cattle sales were especially strong for this time of the year, John P. Hayes, president of the Twin Falls Live Stock Commission company, announced early today following sales which lasted until a late hour.

Hayes reported approximately 850 head of cattle sold.

Top steers brought $15.00 per hundredweight. Medium steers were for $12 to $14. Lower quality steers were uneven in weight than the market of a week ago.

Top cows were strong. Ernest Peters, Gooding, sold a quantity at $12.00 a few choice $12.00.

Butcher bulls were slightly lower. Val calves were very strong, at $15 and $16.00.

Cattle cows were weaker than a week ago with many were strong.

Hayes reported expectations of a steady market next week.

"In all probability," he said, "traffic will start coming into market greatly in advance of a year ago."

South Idahoans Patch 'em

Somewhere in England, First Sgt. Tracy Wilson, Twin Falls (in cockpit), tells Capt. Abraham A. Schulz, Jerome, that just one more effort is needed to complete patching "War Eagle" to the B-24 Marauder can take off again to help the invasion of the continent. Ninth air force photo-staff engraving.

These 'Two Idaho Spuds' Are Busy Pair at Base in England

A NINTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND UNIT, England—First Sgt. Tracy Wilson, Twin Falls, Idaho, and Capt. Abraham A. Schulz, Jerome, Idaho, are busy men these days patching the American bird of war that is being sent to support the invasion as well as hammering at key enemy centers.

The war bird which has been shown in the accompanying photo is a fourth air force B-24 Marauder, returned from her 7th mission over enemy-occupied Europe, docked and being repaired by the "War Eagle" unit.

BATTLE OF WITS SEEN IN ATTACK

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The great and undoubtedly bloody battle which is being fought in the west between the German and the British is becoming an exceptional game of wits between three old rivals of the north African desert.

The "Two Idaho Spuds," as Corporal Schulz and First Sgt. Wilson are called, are busy men these days patching the American bird of war that is being sent to support the invasion as well as hammering at key enemy centers.

Already the German local counter-attacks are under way and there's fierce fighting. However, the British seem to be moving cautiously. Of course, before he rushes a big army to the peninsula he must be sure that this is one of the major allied thrusts and not merely a feint to draw his fire and the main attack is made elsewhere.

Rommel undoubtedly would like to get a big allied force farther inland before his major counter-attack. He's an expert of tank action, and favors conditions under which he can make quick maneuvers. He may try to force an open battle. That will suit Montgomery—providing the allies have been able to put sufficient men and equipment.

Will Know More

Well, we should know more about it in another week or so. If the allies continue to develop their landing. Apparently they're aiming to cut the whole peninsula off, thereby securing a superb base, made to order with the great port of Cherbourg and a main railroad and highway leading to Paris.

Many inquiries are coming to my desk as to why Russia hasn't attacked simultaneously with the western allies. That's an interesting point. There's no cause for anxiety or doubt. For reasons best known to itself, the allied high command decided that the red armies should not exactly wait they are doing all right for the moment. Russia is busy and will strike with terrific force at the agreed time.

BOISE, June 8 (AP)—Only two days remain for voters to register in their precincts to vote in the June 13 Democratic and Republican primaries and the secretary of state's office reported today that indications so far are that many new residents of the state have not registered.

Those who voted in the 1942 general election are registered automatically if they remain in the same precinct. Registration books close Saturday night.

Campaigning by the 38 candidates for nomination as governor continued on both tickets and the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

In the Primary Election

A resident of Idaho for thirty-two years, I have served the people of Idaho for ten years as a member of the Public Utilities Commission. I have consistently favored freight rates on Agricultural Commodities, Livestock, Products of the Mines and Forests, enabling all Idaho industry to reach the competitive markets. Further, I have brought about appreciable reduction in the rates of all other utilities for the benefit of the consumers in Idaho.

I believe in protecting and preserving our markets for the benefit of the farmers, livestock men and other industries of Idaho.

Idaho needs more active and vigorous representation in Congress than it will help to develop the natural resources of the State of Idaho.

I will support adequate Old Age Pensions.

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—Representative John W. Cornell, Democrat, of Idaho, today said he would not leave French Indochina, then taken on London, to the Japanese, and he would be the first to provide more "vital" leadership of the United States in the Mediterranean and the Pacific.

Improvement in the Mediterranean and the Pacific, Cornell said, would be the first step in the defeat of the Japanese.

BAVEUX GREETES INVASION TROOPS

(Editor's note: Here is the first eye-witness dispatch from the first town in France to be liberated. It was filed by Richard D. McMillan, veteran United Press correspondent who is now with the invasion armies after covering the Mediterranean campaign from El Alamein to Italy.)

By RICHARD D. McMILLAN
BAVEUX, ALLIED FRONT LINE NORMANDY, June 7 (Delayed)—I toured the allied front in Normandy all day today and entered this historic town of Baveux with the first allied troops who occupied it at midnight.

It was a scene of rejoicing as the populace went wild and dashed through the narrow streets throwing flowers and crying, "God save the king. We've waited this day. On to Paris!"

The streets were blocked with cheering men, women and children. The tri-color and union jack hung from the windows. Cars there were their doors and pianos being played by British and French patriotic youth, at the crowd's demand, shouting "Vive Tommy, Vive America!"

It was a scene of mingled war and peace through which I passed as I drove a jeep into the interior along part of the front line and then back again to the allied command base. After a dusty, dreary morning the sun burst through and the skies cleared.

Naval was wrought by allied navy and air bombardment, which had wrecked the tanks and destroyed the tanks which the Germans had used as headquarters.

Some villages were entirely deserted; in others some civilians remained and rushed out with clattering hands, screaming for joy. One village woman, Madame Andre Nicholas, told me:

"Oh, the Germans were really wicked. They took everything we had. Recently Rummel came to this village on a visit of German command defense. The tanks turned out in force. Rummel told them 'these policies are impractical.' We know he was lying because most German troops told us frankly 'the British and Americans are not too strong for us. But we'll fight on nevertheless until the last man.'"

Along the country lanes subdued looking German prisoners streamed toward prison cages near the beach. Allied artillery was pointed amidst flanking positions in the field pounded by the enemy beyond Bayeux.

British and German dead lay in the sunlight on the road shoulders. In the fields peasants tended their sheep and cattle as if this day were no different from any other. Allied war machines rolled past along the dusty highways, but the only sign the soldiers passed gave was a wave of the hand.

It was townpeople like those of Baveux who really showed Allied troops the day of the liberation.

NAZIS STILL SEE PARTIAL VICTORY

By LARRY ALLEN
(Associated Press War Correspondent Just Departed) Abroad the Gripsholm

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—During eight months as a bitter defender of war I have seen Germany from inside and outside her prison camps, have traveled through fortified areas and over her railways from Bremer Pass to the Polish Corridor, and am convinced that she still expects to win the war.

She is counting upon stopping the allied invasion, forcing a stalemate and an eventual negotiated peace which to every German would mean victory.

Her warlords led the German people and those of Nazi-occupied countries to:

1.—Germany has at least 4,000,000 crack troops in the west, backed by powerful fortifications.

2.—She has saved a minimum of 5,000 fighter aircraft since the invasion, deliberately letting the allies believe there is a shortage.

3.—Her bomb-craft war factories are being built in new locations, by captive workers as fast as they are smashed.

4.—Communications systems great, fast electrified railways, are virtually intact except in the Berlin and northern France districts.

5.—The high command claims no divisions roughly about 300,000 men—are ready in both east and west; that eastern front forces are small because of ordered, strategic withdrawals.

6.—German internal food supply and civilian morale, despite heavy allied bombings, is surprisingly good.

7.—Lastly, but not least, Ger-

There was considerable sabotage in Germany in 1941 and 1942. Today it is virtually non-existent, because of Hitler's ardor and the wehrmacht police.

Auxiliary Honors War Mothers; Names Staff

Delightfully combining two annual events, members of Twin Falls American Legion auxiliary entertained at an evening tea in honor of members of Twin Falls chapter, American War Mothers, and elected officers for the 1944-45 term at their meeting Wednesday evening in the auxiliary room of the Legion hall. Approximately 80 women attended the party which was staged in a setting of peonies, sunflowers and other colorful summer blooms.

Corsage-Making Contest Feature Of Club Session

Wearing corsages of their own design and construction, members of the Twin Falls club gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry W. Treadwell for the annual election and installation of new officers and to continue with plans for the annual flower show scheduled last this month.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

Mrs. Martha was in a state, Tony and Tony had been brought in from the park, trunks again. And that in the face of the fact that the child was arriving with might and main for a high altitude record for the month.

"In the park," said she scornfully, "And what, may I ask, were you doing in the park at approximately 10,000 feet?"

"It was such a nice morning," murmured Tony.

"It was a nice morning, until you spoiled it for all of us by playing truant. Both of you should be ashamed to look up at the sky and see anybody else here on foot, doing his best, and you two, out there, enjoying yourselves. Tell me, what did you go there for anyway?"

"Dadlocks were out!"

"Dadlocks were out?"
