NEW TECHNIQUE AIDS LIBERATORS

By CHARLES P. AINOTT
AN ADVANCED AIR BASE IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC, Aug. 5 (AP)—The monotony of endless marches over the hot wastes of the Pacific waters has been broken by a new technique for liberators. Bombers are attacking the enemy ships and destroy 25 enemy planes at a cost of only one plane.

Wary of "Mik Bums", weary of "milk-run" assignments, the veteran flyers, aware of the danger, are now attacking the enemy ships and destroy 25 enemy planes at a cost of only one plane.

FILM STAR HELD IN NAVY QUARTERS

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 5 (AP)—Movie Actor Jackie Cooper, 21, navy V-12 trainee, whose last film role prevented an object lesson in juvenile delinquency, was confined to his base at the Navy's Danes naval training station today, pending action on charges that he contributed to the delinquency of two teenage South Bend girls, the result of an alleged love affair.

Deputy Postmaster Gen. L. C. Cook and John W. Montgomery said they would ask naval V-12 authorities to turn the former child movie star over to civilian authorities. The request probably would be forwarded to the secretary of the navy, they said.

The charges against Cooper and three others, one of them another V-12 student, resulted in two weeks of investigation into the alleged delinquency of two teenage South Bend girls, the result of an alleged love affair.

The Public Forum

PROSPERITY EXAGGERATED
Editor, Time-News: It seems to me this so-called prosperity, which I think is exaggerated, is not due so much to men as to the fact that there is a war. A war creates manpower shortage which in turn creates high wages. Living costs are higher and the quality of food and clothing is better than in times of peace. Farm labor wages are out of balance with the family's needs for his crops.

It seems to me the common man is helped on one hand and helped down on the other. The tendency of rapidly shifting positions wrecks the integrity of the home. The good that has come is nearly overbalanced by the evil that has come with it.

It does not seem to fit to put a farm woman on the same sugar ration as a town woman. The farm woman is a town woman. The farm woman is a town woman. The farm woman is a town woman.

On the whole, I think a change of administration would be a good thing.

FILM HE-MAN CUT IN KNIFE BRAWL

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 5 (UP)—Movieland's latest brand that sent screen hero Jon Hall to an emergency hospital for treatment of five slashes in his neck was a knife fight involving band leader Tommy Dorsey and his actress wife, Pat Duke, and other film notables, it developed today.

Edith Morris, the actor, attended the party at Dorsey's swank Sunset Plaza apartment. It was reported, but only to return for a purse left by a woman in their group.

Slugged Veteran Hall was said to have rung the bell at the Dorsey home and Miss Dorsey opened the door. Hall reportedly threw his arms around Pat, who slugged the veteran of many a motion picture fight.

Dorsey then charged, and a real riotous followed. Someone knocked over a neighbor's door, it was reported, and a man came out with a knife.

"There was a lot of fighting, and Hall fell to the ground and struck his head on a flower pot. Hall gave a more conservative version of the battle.

"It was a friendly gathering and there was practically no drinking," Hall said.

"Dorsey and I got into an argument over something or other, and we had a misunderstanding. Dorsey invited me outside on the balcony to continue our love.

"Outside two other men at the party—don't know who they were, jumped me rather with knives or bottles.

Sent Back Home Hospital attendants treated him for the neck slashes and an injured arm and then sent him to his home to rest.

Hall currently is working with Maria Montez in "Queen of the Nile." Universal studio representatives said they would be forced to shoot around Hall until he can discard his hindrance.

Hollywood police said they dispatched a patrol car to the Dorsey home where a disturbance was reported. They said Dorsey told them the battle followed remarks made to him by Dorsey, but that it had been a "friendly" fight. Police said they took him to the hospital.

One of Hall's close hospital attendants said, came within an inch of an act of penetrating the base of the brain.

2 Fires in Buhl On Same Day Buhl, Aug. 5—Two fires on the same day kept the Buhl fire department busy.

The first, at 1:45 p.m. Wednesday, nearly destroyed a small house owned by Dave Bueh, located in back of the lot of the Main street service station.

The interior was so badly damaged that the cause of the fire could not be determined. The occupant, his name was not printed, was not at home at the time. It is so badly damaged that it will very likely have to be torn down.

At 6:15 a grave fire broke out on the vacant lot between the residence of Mrs. W. T. Hurdin and the Lutheran church. It was apparently caused by a cigarette. No damage was done, though the fire extended to the Hurdin residence on one side and within 20 feet of the church on the other.

The fire destroyed the dry weeds over the entire lot before it was extinguished.

8 IDAHO DEALERS WAGE VIOLATORS

DEVELOP. Aug. 5.—The national war labor board issued an appeal finding by the ninth regional war labor board that eight potato dealers in Idaho Falls and vicinity who had made numerous wage increases without war labor board approval, violated the wage stabilization act, according to a recent release decision of the national war labor board, Washington, D. C.

R. S. Wilson, Michael-Schwartz-Bundy produce company, 225 E. Second, Lew M. Davis, Martin Brothers, J. E. O'Neill, Idaho Falls potato growers, Inc., and Idaho Falls bonded warehouse company.

War Labor Recommendation
The national board to confirm the recommendation that certain of the unauthorized, in part, not be regarded by the commission of internal revenue in computing income tax due from these dealers, increased the commission that the regional war labor board was exempt from war labor board jurisdiction as agricultural employers.

The recommendation to the commission of internal revenue was approved by the national war labor board on appeal are in the following amounts:

R. S. Wilson, $1,750; Michael-Schwartz-Bundy produce company, $25; Lew M. Davis, $25; J. E. O'Neill, $25; Idaho Falls bonded warehouse company, $100.

One firm, the Idaho Falls potato growers, Inc., was found by the national war labor board to have granted unauthorized increases totaling $25,000 but due to the fact the firm is a non-processor, it was not required to file the federal income tax returns, no recommendation of disqualification was possible.

The hearing division composed of J. C. Sullivan, chairman, and public member; Louis H. Callister, industry member; and August Rosen, representing labor, recommended that information concerning the firm be referred to the criminal division of the U. S. department of justice. The national war labor board, however, reversed this recommendation.

4 COUNTY CLERKS WAIT JOB RULING

By The Associated Press
Court clerks in four counties, who obtained their jobs by appointment are under attack by those who want the supreme court order directing the Madison county clerk to stand election on Aug. 7, would affect their own jobs.

One Madison county clerk appointed by the county commission to succeed the man who was elected to position, was ordered by the supreme court to place the position on the ballot and include the name of P. C. Warner, Burley, as the Republican nominee.

In at least one county—Twin Falls, where a Republican is the incumbent—the county prosecution was charged as to the effect of the high court's action. The action was instigated by the Republican state central committee and R. Reed Miller, Burley, who headed legal work in the future case said court action would not be taken until the next election if they did not place the position on the ballot.

Twin Falls county Prosecution Everett M. Stierly said, "as it is not our business to bring anything from the court, the county clerk position will not be placed on the ballot here because the present clerk was appointed for a four year period starting in 1945."

No Action Planned
Sawyer added, however, that "in action of Idaho statutes which are the text" of the supreme court ruling of maintain in the Madison county case.

In Twin Falls there were no nominations for county clerk at the primary.

The trouble arose over interpretation of Idaho statutes which read that a person appointed to replace an elected officer who does not resign holds office until the next general election.

Washington county Clerk George W. Allen at Warrenter, a Republican, said the would follow the court's precedent establishing the court by having the office on the ballot. She was nominated by written vote in the primary. She had been declared the Democratic nominee.

May Name Demos
Clerk C. O. McLaughlin of Canyon county, a Democrat, said he had not definitely made up his mind but thought he would place the name of Sam Foster on the ballot as Republican nominee. Foster received many primary votes.

The county Democratic central committee would then name a Democratic candidate, probably McLaughlin.

At St. Anthony, the Fremont county clerk, a Democrat, said he would follow the court's precedent by having the office on the ballot. She was nominated by written vote in the primary. She had been declared the Democratic nominee.

Special Train of Veterans Arrives At Navy Hospital

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HAILING Aug. 2-4 special train of eight cars arrived this week at Ketchikan, filled to capacity with sailors and marines back from the south Pacific. These took them the next short mile of their journey to the Sun Valley naval convalescent hospital. Here they will rest and enjoy a time to try to erase some of the scars made upon their minds and their bodies by the horrors of war. Horrors that we shudder over as they are related, but which we will never fully realize.

Several extra buses also went south on highway 92, filled to capacity with sailors and marines leaving Sun Valley hospital. These boys will go to Pocatello, where some will receive medical discharges and others will go into limited duty.

And so it goes. They come and they go. These sons and sweethearts and husbands of ours. You never talk to one of them very long that he isn't telling you what a swell place that home town of his is and what his mother had to say in her last letter. Then out of his belt, if he is a sailor boy (and I have never understood how so many things can be carried at the belt line of a pair of navy trousers), or his pocket, if a marine, will come his girl's picture. On his sweetheart in the lines of his hat, securely bound in and covered with enamel. And each one is "the most beautiful girl in the world."

While the Sun Valley naval convalescent hospital was commissioned on July 1, 1943, Capt. J. T. O'Connell and Capt. P. M. Rohow did not arrive until July 7, when the flag was raised with the usual colorful ceremony traditional to the U. S. navy. Capt. J. T. O'Connell, who read the orders commissioning the hospital was detailed the following month and was relieved by Capt. A. L. Clifton, who died in February of 1944. Capt. F. C. Hill, the present commanding officer, succeeded Captain Clifton in March of 1944.

Captain Rohow, still remaining as executive officer, points with pride to the fact that the hospital stands second to none in facilities for rehabilitation of the disabled whether from disease or injury, notwithstanding the fact that it is only one year old.
