CRISIS FOR NAZI WAR HOPES NEAR

By RYAN L. SHIPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Events of this August week-end were so obviously, down-biting to a crisis for Germany in Europe that speculation was rife as to whether total Nazi collapse might be only weeks, not months, away. Nor could Japan read the war prospects with much less apprehension.

France, allied forces, were awfully schooling the struggle into an old familiar pattern that spelled German defeat a quarter century ago. German evacuation of all France west of the Somme-Marne line was so certainly in progress that pulverizing allied attack that had commensurately admitted the retreat.

Defense Meandered

And even that line, the last shot of German frontiers, was gravely menaced. That vast and powerful American forces, and British French army converging for a junction in the hills of France south of liberated Paris.

Their meeting would do more than close the last on remnants of the Nazi occupation troops in France south and west of that old line. It would aim a humiliate flanking thrust at the Somme-Marne front before the next even reach it. It would expose the Rhine front to allied assault.

Defense Threat

It is that, was the most dangerous allied overtures, threatening up the Loire, the upper Rhine and the Moselle under a significant broad-fronted new attack on their exact position.

German surrender has brought no pause by charging Russian forces already knocking at the Caspian gateway to the Danube valley. Bulgaria is too creaking on her way out of the war to be a factor of political convulsions. Hungary is rocked by political convulsions. There is a belief that a retreat from the whole Balkan peninsula already has set in.

Firemen at Buhl Fight 3 Blazes

Buhl, Aug. 26.—Three fires within the past few days kept the Buhl county truck of Buhl fire department busy. A straw stack on the farm of William Mueller, one mile east of the Red Cabin service station, was set afire during the night. While the Buhl fire department was there putting it out, the three-story house of Mr. Mueller was destroyed. The exact loss was not estimated.

A fire in a straw stack of Ralph Baughman resulted in a call for the fire department. No damage was incurred except for the loss of the stack.

The department also answered a call at the Black Bear service station, located west of Buhl on highway 30. An acetylene torch had ignited the dry grass on the large space used for storage of old cars. The fire spread in among the many cars on the space, doing much damage.

It also destroyed a storage shed filled with spare parts. Due to the nature of the fire and the difficulty in putting it out, the fire department spent two and one-half hours on the job before being sure it was completely extinguished. Don Trexler, owner and proprietor of the establishment, says there is no way of estimating the exact loss. The shed and contents were partially covered by insurance.

90 Years of Memories

Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, Kimberly, Friday celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary. Between puffs on her tobacco pipe, and with her pet cat "Murry" purring on her lap, the elderly woman's thoughts rolled back nearly a century when, as a girl, she romped about Twin Falls' hills, even before Lincoln became President. Staff photo—enlarging.

Kimberly Woman, 90, Puffs on Pipe—And Helps to Can Beans

Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, who lives down Kimberly way, Friday took a few minutes out from her daily chores, struck a match, lighted the sweet smelling tobacco in her pipe, and looked back over a goodly number of birthdays as she celebrated another.

For Friday was her 90th birthday and, because she likes nothing better than a good pipe, that was the way to celebrate it. Mrs. Hughes, known as "Grandma" to those who know her, was born in Twin Falls county for 15 years, coming here from Missouri. But it was way back in Nashville, Tenn., that she first saw the light of day on Aug. 25, 1854. She now resides with her nephew, Gus Hughes, and Friday Grandma had answered the question "Grandma's active" by declaring, "I put up 100 quarts of beans and she was in on it of it, working right along with me."

Although Mrs. Hughes likes to be the dabbler to see the modern girl with a cigarette in her mouth, Franklin Pierce was President when Mrs. Hughes was born down south. James Buchanan was still to be elected to a four year term prior to Lincoln's first term, and while Lincoln took the oath of office, Mrs. Hughes was just seven years old. She has lived during the terms of 19 of the 32 Presidents of the United States.

Today she enjoys life and is a lover of the busy housewife. She believes that work keeps you healthy and she practices what she believes. She is the mother of 10 children.

WRITER RIDES TO PARIS ON BICYCLE

By ROBERT C. MILLER
PARIS, Aug. 26 (AP)—I rode into Paris on the handlebars of a bicycle. I have ridden in bombers, fighters, tankets and PT boats but they were nothing like my ride with this literary official of the French exiles as a sweep into Paris, dodging tanks, cars, and pedestrians.

All the correspondents endeavoring to enter by way of the road from the north were held up at a barricade by a French officer who interpreted his intentions. I managed to slip through the barriers in a jeep and high-tailed for Paris as a French reconnaissance car in hot pursuit.

Our trailer showed us down and half a mile from the city limits, we were cut off. While Frenchmen crowded around looking and laughing at us, our captors, I slipped behind a fence. When the coast was clear I emerged and with my best Pacific coast French tried to wiggle my bicycle.

Borrowing a bicycle even for a few minutes will cost the owner of the nearest Parisian and not even a saving 100 franc tips under their noses could I escape. Finally, a motor suggested Monsieur American rode the handlebars. They being no alternative, Monsieur American rode the handlebars.

The sight of us weaving through military and civilian traffic along the Route d'Orleans was confusing to the Parisians until they saw the war correspondent's badge on my arm. They then shouted and laughed and said, "Just another crazy American."

WPB STRIFE WILL BRING DISMISSAL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (UP)—With Donald M. Nelson en route to China and Charles E. Wilson on his way back to the General Electric company, Comdr. J. A. Krug today sought to win the production board a single unit, and threatened immediate dismissal to any official who engaged in future internal strife.

Thirty-six year old Krug was brought to WPB by President Roosevelt with orders to "take it and run it" until WPB Chairman Nelson returned from Chungking. However, the chief executive strongly indicated yesterday that it might be a permanent assignment for the young naval officer.

Nelson himself reportedly told Krug before handing a four-angled plate yesterday for the first leg of his trip to China that if he returned to WPB at all it would be only temporary. The WPB chairman is known to feel that the job of reconstruction belongs to a younger man, such as Krug.

Nelson, weary of being in the center of bitter, heated squabbles after four years in the production picture, has indicated a desire to shift his activity to the international scene, possibly as a commercial ambassador for the President.

The China mission is his second for the President. He completed a similar assignment for Mr. Roosevelt last September that took him to Moscow and other capitals.

After an uneventful voyage into his job as WPB acting chairman, Krug, meantime, swung into his job as WPB acting chairman with a vigor that denied that he expected any of his decisions to be challenged upon the return of the man who is technically his boss.

He spent his first day collecting up on what had transpired within the WPB since he left a vice-chairmanship of the agency several months ago for the battlefields of France and Italy, from which he returned this week.

So Little Time—for Fishing

Watch repairing as a hobby on their days off from truck driving, has become an avocation for K. S. Mattson, Seattle, and V. W. Beeton, standing. "Our customers won't give us time off to go fishing and hunting any more," they profess, "with plain engineering!"

779 Cans Processed

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—During the first week the barley company's remaining kitchen processed 779 cans of protein, mostly green beans, with 28 women taking part, according to Mrs. Clara May Johnson, supervisor. Boxes from the school garden are being processed this week for the hot lunch program next winter.

Striking the guard rail only six

According to the driver's father, Cecil Childs, the boys had been returning from the rodeo at Burley when the accident occurred. Both youths will leave Buhl Sunday to report to Salt Lake City for instruction into the armed forces.

FDR BLAMED IN RADIO TALK BAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Two Republican senators today said on the White House doorstep responsibility for the war department's sudden reversal of its decision to let the Socialist party broadcast a political address over army short-wave stations to servicemen overseas.

The senators had sought permission for the broadcast on the grounds that the President's Executive Order, Aug. 23 speech from Burlington, Wash., request to troops was a "political address."

Their request was based on the order which prohibits broadcasts if a political address is "redundant to troops equal time limit, it represents the altered order political parties with presidential candidates in at least six states.

The war department announced yesterday that it would allow the Socialist party, apparently asserting that Mr. Roosevelt's Executive Order was "political."

Six hours later, Assistant Secretary of War, John C. H. Smith, advised the senators, holding that the President's Executive Order "represents a political address" and that therefore no time was due to the Socialist party.

Sen. Homer Ferguson, R. Mich., said that the Socialists should appeal the order to the War Department directly to the White House, because if they get the order reversed that would be the place to look for a Socialist victory.

Sen. Charles McNary, R. Ind., said there was "no doubt" that the army did an "about-face" reversal.

White House spokesmen called for a senatorial investigation of war department official decisions.

Thomas' Comment

The Republican reversal was reflected by Socialist presidential candidate Norman Thomas when he said in the broadcast that the "own speech of indirectly" raised his own speech was "not a political act." Thomas called the war department's reversal "unfortunate but not surprising."

Sen. Charles McNary, R. Ind., an ardent administration supporter, directed that Mr. Roosevelt, after the political speech, the President would have done a lot better than that in a political speech.

WAR SURPLUSES MAY PAY DEBTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Proceeds from the sale of an estimated $75,000,000,000 of surplus property would be used to reduce the national debt under bills regulating the sale of surplus property passed by both houses of congress this week.

However, house and senate committees faced the need for many compromises on widely divergent provisions of the two bills. The senate committee expected to pass an important influence on the orderly transition from war to peace and the establishment of full post-war production.

Today after the house passed its measure placing property placed under a single administrator with broad discretionary power, the senate last yesterday passed an order not putting the disposal and delivery under an eight-man board. The house now rejected a proposal to substitute a board for the administrator.

The house bill would give the administrator a free hand within general policy restrictions in disposing of the government's $13,000,000,000 investment in war plants and other surplus property. It would also require experts to engineer disposal plans for aluminum and rubber, more than $5,000,000. These would be placed in effect if six months elapsed without other provisions being made by congress.

The house bill also would require the administrator to obtain approval of an 18-man advisory board for disposing of any plants costing more than $100,000.

Reports Required

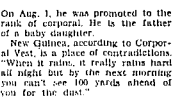

The senate bill would require reports to congress on plans for disposal of aluminum, engineering rubber, chemical, aviation gasoline and iron and steel plants, pipelines, motors, generators, machinery and inventions. Moreover, it would cut in which plants would be taken pending possible congressional action to 30 days after receipt of the report.

While the house would give authority over disposal to the proposed administrator, the senate would place the power in the hands of the Interior and agriculture departments. Both measures would set priority for foreign owners and would require disposal of farms and in single-family units whenever possible.

New Guinea Seen As Grouch Cure

"Anyone who grooves about the Idaho climate ought to try New Guinea awhile," said J. Calvin West wrote to his wife in Hollister.

West, who is in the 50th Air Force of the fifth air force in the South Pacific and has been overseas almost a year.

On Aug. 1, he was promoted to the rank of corporal. He is the father of a baby daughter.

New Guinea, according to Corporal West, is a place of contradictions. "Warm it feels, it really rains hard all night long by the next morning you can't see 100 yards ahead of you for the dust."

He had good food.

The men stationed on New Guinea do not have for food. "We generally have steak two or three times a week and at least once a week we have all the fresh cut whole milk we can drink," he writes.

"We try to eat our meat high and dry. A lucky test is a major tragedy and everyone turns out to help fix it."

Through Corporal West, friends of New Guinea can't be too hard on the men. "I know we've got a job to do and when it's done we can go home," he thinks that if Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Hitler were the war, the best punishment for them would be to put all three on an island like New Guinea.

LIVES OF SERVICEMEN PRICE OF CURRENT PROSPERITY

Editor, Times-News.

Support the administration? A supposed farmer writing in the "Times-News" to the Grange states that now he is getting 90c for his butterfat, $1.25 for his wheat and $5.75 for his beans. Why the good price? I can see a bunch of American motorists at Gasoline, waiting up to their necks through slushy water covered with green foam, and infested with cicadas and other noxious pests, every one in a while a mass disappears, either hit by a bus or dragged under by a reptile. Missing in the dust.

Support the administration? I have heard several people boasting of the fact that they are drawing up to $15 a day in wages, and the only worry they have is how to spend it. What causes such high wages is the fact that the American worker in the South Pacific is overpaid and mistreated.

Having a lot of sailors struggling in the water, one after another, they disappear leaving a trail of blood. The sharks are having a feed. Missing in line of duty.

Support the administration? Or late the corporation earnings have been enormous, in some cases an increase of 400 per cent. The railroads are now more prosperous than for decades. What is the cause of so much prosperity? From Greenland to India, we hear of our infantrymen storming and capturing one enemy position after another, leaving behind a mountain pile of dead, dying and crippled men, on the pride and support of some mother or father, killed or crippled in action.

Support the administration? The last couple of years the banks have been to exact pressure on the government to go out of the lending business to farmers, as the banks have 500 million dollars that they are unable to put it out at a profit and the bank deposits are mounting steadily. Why this surplus of money? Our fliers dead bodies litter the earth, some are shot down from the air, some drowned at sea and some burned by explosions. Missing in line of duty.

Support the administration? From the political standpoint it appears that a majority of the American voters are stone blind, depending on the "all-seeing eye" at Washington to lead them to Utopia, as he stated, in effect, at the beginning of his administration that "we are embarking on a voyage over uncharted seas, but will arrive at our destination somewhere, sometime." That voyage is not limited yet.

Support the administration? O. J. PAULSON (Hazelton)

"Eternal City" Unhurt by War, Officer Writes

"The war never hurt Rome one bit," was the observation made by First Lt. Paul, who returned from the historic city. In a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell, he describes his experiences on the trip. His wife, the former Betty Bell, has also received accounts of his visit in Rome.

He told of visiting the Vatican and of purchasing a string of rosary beads, blessed personally by the Pope in his presence. "I will be present to his brother's funeral," Lt. Russell is in boot training at Camp Diego.

Tours Rome

The tomb of Peter and Paul, and the magnificent Roman buildings, repositories of some of the most famous art pieces of all time, were awe-inspiring to the lieutenant, he said.

At the time Lieutenant Russell made the tour, he was in a rest camp near Rome. "Our living quarters are perfect. I have a room and bath in a hotel and can sleep as long as I like," he wrote.

Many speak English

Lieutenant Russell has been overseas 16 months, serving in northern Africa, Sicily and Corsica with an aviation battalion. He joined the Idaho national guards in 1939 and was stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., before going overseas.

"The people here dress like they do in the good old USA and a lot of them speak English. Food is scarce here," the lieutenant concluded.

BROWNELL REQUESTS TIME ON AIR

NEW YORK, Aug. 26 (AP)—Herbert Brownell, Jr., Republican national committee chairman, said today he wanted to be heard on the radio during the week of the presidential election.

Brownell, who is currently in Washington, D.C., said he was planning to make a radio address on the 27th of August, 12 days before the election, and that he was requesting the major radio networks to grant him 15 minutes of air time on the air.

Brownell said a press conference that the President was "undoubtedly a political candidate" when he addressed the veterans at the Bremerton yard, and that under a federal communications commission rule, the President is entitled to the same radio facilities accorded the chief executives when he becomes a politician.
