STRIKERS AGREE TO END WALK OUT HITTING 60,000

By HERBERT K. LEWIS

DETROIT, Oct. 5 (AP)—Representatives of striking automobile workers voted today to end immediately a walkout which has halted or slowed down production of 60,000 cars.

The vote was taken at a meeting of the United Automobile Workers (UAW) maintenance workers council in Detroit.

UAW President R. J. Thomas said the vote was a "victory" for the union, but that it was not a final decision.

He said that the union would continue to fight for its demands, but that it would also be willing to negotiate with the company.

The union's demands include a 10 percent wage increase, a 40-hour work week, and the right to collective bargaining.

The company has offered a 5 percent wage increase and a 38-hour work week, but the union has rejected these offers.

The union has also threatened to picket the company's plants if its demands are not met.

The company has said that it is willing to negotiate with the union, but that it will not accept any demands that would harm its competitive position.

Armies Launch New Greek Toward Borders of Reich

By REYNOLDS PACKARD

ROME, Oct. 5 (UP)—Allied troops, opening the second battle of Greece, have invaded the Greek mainland by air and sea, seized several airfields and driven into the fortified medieval port of Patrai, a communique announced today.

Virtually the whole of the Peloponnese, comprising a quarter of the Greek mainland, was believed already in allied hands or under allied control. Embattled Patrai, on the north coast of the Peloponnese, was described as one of the enemy's last strongholds on the peninsula.

The communique reported merely that "land forces of the Adriatic" had entered Patrai during Tuesday night, and it was possible that the port, once the principal outlet of Greek commerce, had since been captured.

The invasion opened the final phase of the liberation of the southern Balkans, completing a three-quarter century of struggle against German, Italian, and Japanese forces in Greece, Albania, and Yugoslavia.

GI REVEALS BUND SCHOOL IN REICH

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The story of how teen-age boys and girls were sent to Germany to become disciples of Hitler and then brought back to spread his doctrine in the United States was unfolded at the first "satellite" session of the mass movement.

Cpl. Roy H. Schlotz, Milwaukee, Wis., now stationed at Brooklyn field, Mo., Ala., told yesterday how he and 29 other members of the German-American Bund, 2,000 in all, were selected by the Bund and sent to the Reich for two and one-half months in the spring of 1934.

Traveled in Reich
They traveled about Germany, attended youth rallies at which Hitler spoke, and for four weeks, went to a special training school, the slim 20-year-old soldier testified.

We were taught that eventually all the world would be Nazi—with everyone living like the Germans," Schlotz said, "and that we would be part of the machine that was spreading Hitler's principles."

While they were at the school, he testified, they were "instructed up to a hillside" where they swore a secret oath to be true to the German cause.

No Pleasure Trip
Before they went over, he testified, Fritz Kuhn, national Bund leader, and Theodor Dittelbecker, national youth group leader, warned them not to expect "a pleasure trip."

Sergeant Johnson, Wins Co. K Drill
Sgt. Earl Johnson was the Co. K drill sergeant at the Legion hall last night.

The state guard was not through "meat" for preparation of the federal inspection to be held here and at Burley, Oct. 15, Lt. Orrin Puller, publicity officer, reported.

The first hours of the season was spent in close order drill under Sgt. John Gentry. Nearly an hour's instruction was given in not only under drill but also in the proper approach to such gatherings with bayonets.

Sgt. John Gentry was appointed gas grenade specialist for Company K.

CAPTURE OF BOR CLAIMED BY FOE

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gen. Tadeusz (Bor) Komorowski, who commanded the abortive 1944 Polish revolt against the Germans in Warsaw, has been taken prisoner by the Germans, the German DNB news agency said today.

All Bor's staff officers, as well as several Polish generals among his entourage, were captured, DNB said.

Polish sources had believed that Komorowski, who ordered his men to lay down their arms Monday after their ammunition and supplies became exhausted, escaped to organize underground resistance elsewhere in Poland. He was named commander in chief of the Polish armed forces by the exiled government in London only last week.

Even as the Germans were reporting the capture of Komorowski, Prime Minister Churchill was reiterating his stand in a statement before commons. He expressed sympathy with the Polish nation over the collapse of resistance in Warsaw, when allied armies are everywhere victorious and . . . the final defeat of Germany is in sight.

"When final allied victory is achieved," he told commons, "the people of Warsaw will not be forgotten. It will remain a destined memory for Poland and for liberation of freedom all over the world."

Cow Milking Is No Sissy Job, Says Veteran, 28 Months Old

By JEAN DINKELACKER

If you want to guarantee yourself help on those dairy farms of yours, southern Idahoans, just name at least one of your offspring Ronnie. It seems that the Romnies acquire the knack of cow-milking early in life, and furthermore, it seems that there's a challenge to a cow-milking "corner" among the bantam-weight milkers of southern Idaho. Ronnie Byron, two and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Byron, Jr., residents of the bantam-weight milkers of southern Idaho, is now a challenger only 2 years, 4 months old, also named Ronnie. His last name is Broadie, and he has sent a picture showing him actually in action.

Getting down to the business with both hands, he milks a cow morning and evening, according to his mother, Mrs. Verma Broadie, Gooding. Whereas Ronnie Byron prefers to all on a specially constructed stool, Ronnie Broadie says a boulder, tin can or anything will do.

COURT RULE MAY OUST CANDIDATE

BOISE, Oct. 5 (AP)—A supreme court opinion held today that if P. C. Winter, Republican, is elected to the office of Madison county clerk, he will be disqualified through court action.

The supreme court on July 24 issued a writ ordering Madison county clerk P. C. Winter to stand for election Nov. 7. Winter's Democratic opponent, J. B. Taylor, a Republican, contending he had been appointed to the term ending in 1945.

Winter brought the action, contending he had qualified as Republican nominee through write-in votes at the June 13 primary.

In an order annulling the election, the court said that if Winter were elected, he would be ineligible to become a candidate.

The case affected similar situations in Washington, Twin Falls, Canyon and Fremont counties.

Haystack Burns As Wind Fans Flaming Weeds

CAREY, Oct. 5—A weed fire was out of control at the James Baird ranch near here, destroying a haystack valued at $50 and burning 15 acres of land.

James Baird and his brother, Tom, were battling out a match of morning glory. The ground was wet and the straw was green in this part of the field. The fire in turn off the weed gun stuck and in trying to get it turned off, gas sprayed around over the ground.

The gas caught. A strong wind came up and the fire spread.

Yanks Pray for World War I Dead

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Daily Mail reports today in a sensational dispatch from Stockholm that Germany's V-2 rocket weapon has been used against Britain from Dutch firing sites but that the German high command is keeping silent on the results.

The dispatch attributed its information to an "authoritative source" who served in the German army.

It asserted that the new weapon had been "first" against England from the Dutch coast but that it traveled rapidly and with great accuracy, terror effect since the populace was unaware of its approach.

It was also said to penetrate the earth at such a speed that its destructive force is less than that of the robot-bomb.

No reports of the use of V-2 have passed the British censorship to London. Fleet street observers, commenting on the dispatch, said they "marveled at the good fortune of Daily Mail Stockholm correspondent in finding out what they called 'such a well-informed source'."

They also expressed wonder at how long Stockholm dispatches would be employed to "cover all" the news.

Hemlockes Pay

The Daily Mail made its front page to give another look to the V-2 dispatch, switching to the "hemlockes" early in the evening "Yanks being terrified" to "one which said 'Germany decided V-2's were not a serious threat'."

The dispatch said that due to the uncertainty of V-2's, "the British government" believed the Germans are now merely firing off whatever surplus V-2's they had been accumulating on the Dutch coast in order to get them from falling into allied hands.

"If he is right," commented the dispatch, "the British government is almost as soon as it has begun."

FDR Asks Funds For Rural School

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today the federal government will make available financial aid where needed to help country schools up to the education level of city schools.

He said that such aid should "never involve any interference with local administration."

Speaking of a rural education conference in White House, Mr. Roosevelt said, "Frankly, the chief problem of rural education is the problem of dollars and cents, and he added the basic reason for the problem is that the federal and city schools helping on the pay for instructors."

DE GAULLE PLANS FRANCE CONTROL

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

He should allow the "blunder" of the game of war to be down to the significance of General De Gaulle's statement that France is "gradually taking over complete control of the country's economy."

It should be an organization of industry, the general said, which all who participate shall be considered associates. We no longer can permit the concentration of interest which in England and America are controlled by a few big firms, and must meet the needs of a social betterment.

To Avoid Change

While De Gaulle allows exact interpretation of his pronouncement to fall where it will, it is clear that he is signaling a great change in France to avoid, as he says, "the present political, social and moral situation which look up to the brink of the abyss."

Some observers express the view that France is headed toward socialism. They believe they find additional support for this in De Gaulle's friendly relations with Moscow and the appointment of two Communists to his cabinet. There's the statement made recently by Jean Jurensen, one of the directors of the powerful federation of French resistance groups known as "movement de la liberation."

It should be an organization of industry, the general said, which all who participate shall be considered associates. We no longer can permit the concentration of interest which in England and America are controlled by a few big firms, and must meet the needs of a social betterment.

BUHL CHEMURGY BOOSTER LEAVES

BUHL, Oct. 5.—With the moving of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stannell to Boise, Buhl is again losing two of its early day pioneers. Originally a machinist and blacksmith, by trade, Mr. Stannell came to Idaho from Illinois in 1905 and in 1908 he realized the great possibilities of the new irrigation project known as Magic Valley. He has contributed materially to the transformation of the valley from a sage brush desert to its present productivity.

Since 1914 he has farmed in the Buhl and Twin Falls areas. In 1925 Mr. Stannell has been actively interested in chemistry, helped to organize the Buhl Chemurgy club, and was Idaho's first chemurgist. He is a member of the Buhl Chemurgy club, and is a member of the Buhl Chemurgy club.

ANDERSON OPENS NEW STORE HERE

In line with the C. O. Anderson company's current expansion program, a new farm and home store, three doors southeast of the main building, will today formally open at 9 a. m. Friday, manager Henry Kohlrausch announced Thursday.

To be under the supervision of Lloyd Haynes, an employee promoted of the job, the new store is "a new type of our pasteur plant for estate changes," Kohlrausch said. He pointed out that the complete new department now and other expansion program will create jobs in the postwar era.

From Dishes to Pumpkins

The new store, which will display wares ranging from fine dishes to electric pumps, is further evidence of the firm's policy which brought Kohlrausch here from the smaller Rapid City, S. D., store in early July.

JAYCEES APPROVE HONOR PROGRAM

Formal approval of the program dedicating the memorial board in front of the postoffice Monday was given by the directors of the Twin Falls Jaycees at their meeting Tuesday afternoon.

To be protected in cooperation with the American Legion, the other sponsoring organization, the program will include members by the Twin Falls high school, a capsule under and band, and the features already announced.

Impetus was given to the Jaycee drive for the installation of a subterranean garage with a second special offer made to early buyers. The Watsons, owners of Watson's Paint and Wallpaper store, will stencil the words "garage" and "ashes" on the side of the first 50 units sold.

Of the other offer, Jaycees will deliver the 20 units already ordered. The first unit, a gift of gravel and brick to the first 50 units sold, will continue throughout October.

A model of the unit is on display in the entrance hall to City Center, where the Jaycees have call Red, distributed throughout the downtown area. Orders are being taken by Larzetta's office at the present time.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schulte Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schulte Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1915 to 1918, Sigrid Schulte saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she has now called "World-war-TII." This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

IX With his fellow plotters, the fuhrer-prisoner decided to write down and analyze his experiences, then to work out in detail methods of carrying on their plan. For this purpose he summoned to Landsberg all the experts eager to cooperate in supplying the learning and technical knowledge the conspirators needed.

Hitler mapped out a gigantic program of study, starting with the world and going down the line to countries, races, states, nations, minorities, religions, political parties, organizations, clubs, schools, families—the male, the female, and the child. Knowledge was built, the state was all, and they meant to be the state. But the individual citizen was nothing, the sum of the state; therefore they must learn the state was nothing, the citizen, how they reacted to given situations, to different varieties of forces. Every human emotion that could be exploited to political advantage, from love to hate, from fear to greed, was to be brought into play.

Hitler had seen the canons of the law solemnly perverted to help him during the Munich trial. If he were arrested, therefore, he could win his victory legally. Picking the right man to lead him was his first task. He knew he could reach, Hitler accumulated in time quite an impressive staff of lawyers, new and Gentile. Hitler didn't mind the Jews being Jewish as long as they did the Nazi's bidding. He didn't believe the Nazis really meant to disfranchise them—that was just "reaction" talk.

Part of the blueprint for domination perfected in Landsberg called for calculated vilification and calumny of the republic in the presence of its enemies. Then there was the money check-off from the industrialists and bribes pressed out of Jews. Every human emotion, every sin, was to be used. How far could the Nazis go, being charged with the blackmail, and extortion? They needed expert legal advice.

From Ludendorff Hitler had learned the necessity of striking with a small, closely knit, well-disciplined group. He learned that a small party, if blindly obedient to its leader, can undermine bigger factions that lack unity and aggressiveness. But how could he extend that obedience to a whole nation?

Rudolf Hess, the former officer and student who worked with Prof. Dr. Teitelmaier at the "Katholik" university, had induced his teacher to go to Landsberg with him and meet Adolf Hitler. The professor was rather apprehensive and so were his hosts. But Hitler had lost some of his shyness. He started propounding his theory that "by compelling even the hesitant to become accomplices in acts of violence, you automatically make them your allies."

Dr. Maurice, then acting as Hitler's secretary, later told of the incident. "After Hitler had spoken, the professor got up and looked at him for a moment. Maurice said: 'He smiled. We knew that from then on there was nothing the professor would not do for our fuhrer.'"

Developing this technique, Hitler was to involve the entire German nation of 65 million people in his accomplices in crime. The Nazis never denied the existence of concentration camps on their own soil; they made no secret of crimes com-
