

Roosevelt Sounds Plea for Strong World Peace Court In Attack on Isolationists

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt called tonight for a world organization with power to enforce peace by force, if necessary, and for an American representative in the organization with congressional "authority to act."

In an address prepared for a Foreign Policy association dinner at the Waldorf Astoria, the chief executive said also that a Republican victory would toss congressional leadership to "invertebrate isolationists" who are not "reliable custodians of American foreign policy in a world which requires international cooperation to preserve peace."

Mr. Roosevelt said a projected council of the United Nations, proposed by the Dumbarton Oaks agreement, must have the power to act quickly and decisively to keep peace by force if need be.

Authority urged
"It is clear," he asserted, "that, if we really are to have any representative in the world to the people themselves, by constitutional means through their representatives, we must have authority to act."

Mr. Roosevelt said "a question of the men who will formulate and carry out a foreign policy of this country is in issue in this election. It is in issue not in terms of partisan affiliation but in terms of sober, solemn facts—the facts that are on the record."

"If the Republicans were in control of the congress in this election invertebrate isolationists would occupy positions of commanding influence and power."

He asserted, also, that the administration has no unconditional secret commitments in foreign relations.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 21 (AP)—Neither the Democratic nor the Republican party, Gov. John W. Bricker declared tonight, can claim "exclusive credit" for the progress of social legislation.

Farmer Satisfied Under This Administration, Says Gossett

JEROME, Oct. 21—Charles C. Gossett, Nampa farmer and business man, Democratic candidate for governor, addressing more than 500 persons here tonight in a Democratic rally in the high school auditorium struck out vigorously at what he termed "the propaganda being spread by the Republican party to 'prove' the farmer is dissatisfied and wants a change in leadership."

Each party has helped, he remarked, "but the impetus sprang from the faith and the charity of the American people."

Dewey Assails FR's "Control of Labor"

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 21 (UP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey reiterated tonight after charging President Roosevelt was attempting to establish one-man rule over labor.

The Republican presidential candidate, who accused the Roosevelt administration of "playing with the rights of labor for political power and political cash," made his second bid for support of the working men and women in a nationwide campaign speech from Pittsburgh last night.

He cited the case of the railroad brotherhood, where demand that the workers get an increase after six months last year, followed until the "grating hand of one-man rule reached in and set itself above the law."

DEATH TOLL IN 83 IN CLEVELAND EXPOSURE, FIRE

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—As the death toll in Cleveland's greatest disaster soared to at least 83 tonight, the cause of mysterious blasts which converted the East Ohio gas company's liquid gas tanks into giant lethal flame throwers apparently was locked in smoldering ruins.

The number of fatalities mounted sharply from a last-day total of 72 as police reported finding eight bodies in one small structure near the plant and two others beneath a pile of rubble.

Two Key Airbases Seized As Invasion Forces Push Through Jap Ise Defense

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, PHILIPPINES, Sunday, Oct. 22 (AP)—American invasion forces on Leyte in the central Philippines, penetrating four miles inland along an 18 mile front, have captured two airfields, the capital city of Tacloban, the town of Dulag and won control of a strait leading to inland seas of the archipelago, headquarters announced today.

The airfields, first to fall into Yank hands as potential bases from which army planes can expand the air coverage now provided by carrier aircraft, were overrun near Tacloban and Dulag.

Today's communique, issued on the third day of the invasion, suggested that the constant air and naval fire of the Americans plus the steady flow of reinforcements, are turning the estimated 20,000 Japanese on Leyte into bewildered, disorganized groups.

"The enemy is already showing signs of a lack of maneuverable cohesion in the face of the skillful attacks of our local commanders," said MacArthur of a 10th he predicted would be because they were the nipponese who tortured the Americans and Filipinos at Batuan.

Yanks Sweep Beyond Aachen in New Push

LONDON, Sunday, Oct. 22 (AP)—American troops struck swiftly last night following the unconditional surrender of the German army in the West, pushing forward toward Duren, 24 miles away from their positions in the Wurselen area four miles north of Aachen.

Thunderbolt fighter-bombers ranged ahead of the American attack, showering incendiaries and explosives on towns along the highway.

To the northwest the Canadian first army, with British aid, advanced nine miles in the Dutch-Belgian border region in a drive to clear the Scheldt.

"and even of brutality," the general said.

"For such violations, the imperial Japanese government will, of course, be fully responsible to its government," he said.

"As commander-in-chief of the allied forces in the field, I shall in addition, during the conflict, be responsible to the people of the Philippines immediately for any harm which may result from failure to accept prisoners of war, or from removal of their property, or from the proper treatment and due protection to which they are entitled."

C. V. Miles, McDaniel, Associated Press, said it was reported that MacArthur's airfield was overrun in the first 24 hours of fighting and the fall of the capital city of Tacloban on the northern coast of Leyte was expected tomorrow.

MacArthur, riding in a jeep, approached as closely as he could to the front lines. He was there in the morning and he waited until the city was taken.

pol rolling over the earth before the initial blast indicated liquid gas had leaked from a tank. The danger, however, said it was unable to explain how the liquid could have escaped.

Another source said an even greater mystery was the fact that two nearby tanks of liquid gas and a boiler of natural gas remained intact despite the intense heat. Company officials compiled a list of names of employees killed and injured.

ROMULO RETURNS WITH MACARTHUR

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, LEYTE, Oct. 21 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, deputy commissioner of the Philippine government, today said in an interview that he anticipated the return of Philippine guerrillas as a result of the American landings on Leyte.

Gen. Romulo spoke in Twin Falls last winter.

The guerrillas will provide major aid to the Americans, he said, prior to making a broadcast re-opening the "Voice of Freedom" radio station. He indicated that the guerrilla leaders had been advanced in advance of American action, making possible concerted action.

"It is regrettable that many Filipinos must suffer from the American action, but there is no doubt that every Filipino is paying a price for liberation and independence," he said.

Romulo believed it would be impossible to avoid casualties among Filipinos who might be confused by American soldiers for Japanese; "even I myself often cannot distinguish between the two," he admitted.

Nevertheless every effort will be made throughout the campaign to avoid such cases of mistaken identity and to maintain recognition signals will be used.

Independence of the Philippines will be granted by the United States shortly after expulsion of the Japanese from the islands, General Romulo, president of the Philippines, told his people today in lectures urging them to "stick hard against the enemy."

Gama, who also accompanied General MacArthur, returned with invasion forces, said President Roosevelt and General MacArthur. Romulo would achieve their independence before July 4, 1946, the previously agreed.

"The freedom for which our heroes fought and fell from Bataan to Iloilo, which our soldiers and uncomprehending citizenry are so patriotically and bravely supporting, is ours at last," General said.

"Strike when the tide of battle has reached your town," he instructed the Filipinos. "On that day strike hard against the enemy, wherever you find him, and fight—fight as hard as you can, and fight as hard as you can."

The Philippine president paid tribute to his predecessor, Manuel Quezon, who died only a few weeks before the invasion.

He said independence would be achieved soon as "law and order were restored."

BOTT URGES U. S. TO ELECT DEWEY

By United Press

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, if elected President, will bring to the peace table a "realistic and a balanced" attitude that will lead to a lasting peace, said Dewey today in a statement released at St. Louis.

The governor was in Dubois, Clark county, campaigning. He is the Republican senatorial candidate.

"It is an established fact," said Bottolfin, "that peace treaties in the past have been made on hate and revenge and not a one of them have been successful. Dewey is the one man of all the leaders of the world who can assist in forging a stable peace, built on the foundations of true and honest international cooperation."

The governor said he agreed that America must lend the way at the peace table, not as a great arrogant power full of hatred, but as a nation that will insist on justice for the many small nations and for the permanent dismantling of aggressive nations.

At Bigby Friday night, Bottolfin said he would work, if elected senator, for more industry and irrigation for Idaho and would place in motion "a program of postwar development based on my experience and study of the needs of our great state."

'Stinky' may be his name, but the stink of Bataan's State Theater Masson, Rep. J. Edgar Chenoweth, R. Colo., scored the new deal.

He said the trend definitely was toward government control of all enterprises.

The congressman, who came to Idaho under the auspices of the Republican national committee, said "Colleges definitely will go Republican."

Heyburn Air Man In Honored Unit

15TH AAF IN ITALY — S-Gen. Heyburn, 33, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Badger, Jr., Heyburn, Ida., is a member of a B-24 Liberator group that has been awarded the unit citation it was announced by the 15th AAF headquarters.

He is now entitled to wear the distinguished unit ribbon. The award was given for the precision flying of the Bad Vowels, ME109 fighter plane factory. This new factory, the 10th of Hermann Goering, had just swung into production, when it was hit by the 15th AAF. The B-24 Liberator, which was awarded the distinguished flying eagle, and literally wiped the factory off the face of the earth. Not one building was left untouched.

Called by the press "the finest example of precision bombing in the history of the war," the destruction was so complete the Nazis never made an attempt to rebuild the plant or even remove the debris. The group was commanded at the time of the attack by Col. Marden, who is now in California, who was awarded the distinguished flying eagle for his leadership and flying skill.

Now commanded by Col. Henry C. Montgomery of 4200 S. Charles ave., New Orleans, La., this group has flown well over 10,000 missions to bomb strategic enemy military installations from the southern coast of France to the Black sea as well as giving air support to allied forces in France and Italy, and to Soviet and partisan troops in the Balkans.

Prior to his enlistment, Jan. 21, 1942, Badger was employed by the Lockheed Aircraft company, Burbank, Calif., as an aircraft riveter.

Death Ends Army Man's Fury

S-Gen. William Doyle, 45, son of Mrs. P. M. Trappett, Twin Falls, died of a heart attack while on a furlough visiting his wife and daughter in the Twin Falls area.

Staff Sergeant Doyle had served in the army 27 years. During the past few years he had been stationed in Alaska and the Aleutians. Upon his return to the United States, he was sent to New Guinea where he contracted tuberculosis.

He was sent back to the states and to the Veterans' hospital at Houston, Tex., where he remained until he was given a furlough to visit his family.

Funeral services and burial were held at the army post at Ft. Douglas, Utah.

Besides his wife, daughter and mother, he is survived by his stepfather, P. M. Trappett.

HAWAII ATTACK REPORT HELD UP

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Reports of the Pearl Harbor attack received a setback today when the navy decided to withhold until they study a report by the special naval council of inquiry investigating the Japanese attack.

Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal said today that he had received the report but that he had sent both it and a record of the navy's decision to withhold until they study a report by the special naval council of inquiry investigating the Japanese attack.

Forrestal's announcement brought mingled reaction from Republican congressmen, many of whom had demanded that the "real facts" be made public before the election.

Rep. Melvin J. Moss, R. Minn., charged in S. Paul, that "withholding the report is an attempt to alibi the study of it, and after the election is nothing but plain denial of any policy."

"It seems to me," he added, "that the navy is trying to keep the public from knowing the facts."

Rep. W. Bruce Coker, R. N. Y., said Forrestal's statement "indicates that he is following the proper procedure."

"I trust that the admiral knows what he is doing," said Coker, "but it is reasonable to expect the grounds of military security and that his decision will be after his military consideration," Coker said.

Forrestal's announcement came with the release of a letter to Adm. C. G. Green, president of the report, acknowledging receipt of the report and the record.

The Dec. 7 attack also has been under study by a similar army board but the war department has not yet closed its report has been submitted to the Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson.

Both Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter S. Short, top navy and army commanders at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese struck, are now before the board.

Wiser Spending Stabilizes Prices, Says OPA Official

It is up to the women of Idaho to stabilize prices by investing their money wisely, and by not buying articles at exorbitant prices, Mrs. Lucille Lovell, Boise, state OPA "housekeeper," declared here Saturday.

Mrs. Lovell, who is assistant district information executive for OPA in Idaho, was drafted to handle news releases and radio-casts which present OPA information from the viewpoint of the housewife.

As the wife of a former newspaper publisher and as publicity chairman for a number of women's organizations, she has a wide knowledge of news as it reflects women's interests.

Mrs. Lovell addressed the Rural Federation of Women's club Saturday afternoon at the Baptist church in Boise. She spoke at a conference with Mrs. J. W. Newman, local consumers' representative on the war price and ration board, and Mrs. Marjorie Sullivan, price clerk for the local board.

OPA's Non-Faction Mrs. Lovell explained that the OPA act-up was a non-partisan act passed by congress, with leaders of both parties giving full support to the establishment in order to stabilize prices and commodities for the duration of the war.

Certain Prices Increased The prices on cotton and certain farm products have increased since the extension of the act of the office of price administration was signed in June, 1941. This provided that all agricultural products must reflect parity to the grower. Before the June enactment, several farm commodities were below parity, Mrs. Lovell explained.

Another explanation for the noted rise in living costs this autumn, she said, is that this time of year there are always seasonal price rises in certain foodstuffs. Potatoes are an example of this, Mrs. Lovell said.

Higher prices are being paid for the new potato crop than for the old potatoes which were purchased during the late spring and early autumn, she explained.

Before coming to Twin Falls Friday, Mrs. Lovell addressed a group of women comprised of the OPA community service members' panel and the heads of leading women's organizations.

GUATEMALA RULE SEIZED BY ARMY

GUATEMALA CITY, Oct. 21.—Guatemaltecos of two army officers and a civilian controlled Guatemala today after the provisional government of President Federico Ponce was overthrown in a 12-hour tank supported revolution which caused more than 1,000 casualties in the capital.

The triumvirate, formed by Capt. Jacobo Arbenz, Major Arana and Jorge Tuttle, of the diplomatic corps, guaranteed the lives of the president and the cabinet, which will be edited with the exception of

It started about 3 o'clock a.m. after the assassination of Gen. Federico Gozales, commander of the guardia de honor garrison.

Soldiers at the garrison supplied arms and tanks to the civilians and the crowds besieged the palace in the center of the city for 12 hours until a white flag appeared over the building. It was the first time tanks ever had been used in a revolution in Guatemala.

Agiculture Minister Mariano Pacheco HERRERA

The revolution, an outgrowth of a teachers-student strike three days ago, was carried out yesterday by youthful civilians—students and young army officers.

It started about 3 o'clock a.m. after the assassination of Gen. Federico Gozales, commander of the guardia de honor garrison.

Soldiers at the garrison supplied arms and tanks to the civilians and the crowds besieged the palace in the center of the city for 12 hours until a white flag appeared over the building. It was the first time tanks ever had been used in a revolution in Guatemala.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz. All rights reserved.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1933, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-brother" that she warns may culminate in the World War II. Her story of Germany's plan to win the peace, plans that are now being put into effect.

XIII. The war had barely started when we began hearing from anti-Nazi circles in Germany of the crimes committed by the Black-uniformed SS units in Poland, in the wake of the regular army. These we heard of a few weeks later in the court martial of Black Guards against man-made Polish and Jewish men, women and children. One court decreed the death sentence for three Black Guards, but Heinrich Himmler interceded with Hitler in their behalf before any of them was executed. The few officers who escaped their indignation were executed in minor courts and deprived of any hope of advancement. As far as the German people were concerned, the matter was settled.

One did not have to rely on non-Nazi to learn of German atrocities in invaded countries. All during the campaign in the east, all one had to do was to go to one of the waiting rooms in the stations of the east, Berlin and listen to the Black Guards arriving from or leaving for the front. They seemed to enjoy describing how they had beaten and killed their victims and then thrown dead grenades through windows left open for the process.

A few people discussed the necessity of doing something to stop the war. But if the attempt of the army officers had met only with punishment, what could anyone do?

The Nazis found a simple way of handling foreign reaction. They told their agents abroad to invent any report of crimes as "untrue atrocity story, reminiscent of the propaganda campaigns of World War I." They knew that anything labeled "propaganda" is disbelieved in America. The method worked perfectly at least until Pearl Harbor.

Many people in the United States read the reports of crimes perpetrated by the Nazis and said they were detective stories, horror stuff, yet might be taken seriously. But the German people learned with surprising speed the truth about the German battleships in Poland, as it had known about the "murder" of Czechs after the rape of Czechoslovakia. And why? They were told by their government to compel them to share the guilt of what was done. On the whole the people reacted with unqualified indifference.

After the first reports of the mass murders committed by the Nazis in Poland, I happened to meet the head of the women in Poland, Dr. Erich Hilgenfeldt, at an official reception in Berlin. I asked a lot about the constructive welfare work done by the Germans. I used that as a starter for some discreet questioning.

He was not in the least reticent. Instead he seemed eager to talk. He called over two other SS officers to satisfy my curiosity. After some conversation the officer with the most silver braid on his black uniform said suddenly: "I don't see why you Anglo-Saxons get so excited about what happens to a few Poles. You're really showing your and your countrymen do not have the scientific approach to the problem."

One of the men in the group was Dr. Roland Freyler, secretary of state in the ministry of justice. One always had to be careful to deal with men of his type, but science is a safe subject for starting a usual conversation. He said that he meant to say by more than he means to. The three men gave me a revealing lecture when I accepted the bait and asked, "And what is the scientific approach?"

"Do you people realize what is happening to the white race?" This was the first question. "I admit that the white-raced people, I admitted that I did not know the German 'scientific' method."

"The every 22 persons of pure white blood born every minute, there are 85 Jewish births. If that should go on, by 1960 the slave population, including the Poles, would have double the numbers of the white populations." Hilgenfeldt looked at me, obviously expecting me to be shattered by this revelation. Years of reporting had taught me that one can do anything with statistics. I merely said, "Do you mean to say that the slave do not belong to the white race?"

"Certainly not. Or at least on a very inferior level," Hilgenfeldt said. "The 'scientific' of the Schutz Staff, almost aspired as he moved away. Freyler took his leaving as a sign that he could speak freely. 'The struggle in no false sentimentality,' he said. 'We shall not allow any of our neighbors to have a higher birth rate than ours, and we shall take measures to prevent it. The slave outnumber us. It means that the slave and the Jew would be permitted to survive if they were left alone.' He repeated, 'And we'll see that they work as we want them to. If they don't, they can starve.'"

Frederick looked on the crust of the matter. "We'll see that none of their men will ever get enough education to become leaders." And added, "When 1960 comes, we'll see that the birth rate is in our favor, not that of any slave."
