Allies Squeeze Germans To Maas Banks; Russians Puncture Budapest Ring

By E. EDWARD MURRAY

PARIS, Nov. 6 (AP)—American, British, Canadian and Polish forces swept north to the Maas river and Holland deep on a 40-mile front today, herding the last German rear guards into two tiny pockets which they were attempting frantically to evacuate by barge under a rain of allied bombs and shells.

Seizure of virtually all of the south bank of the two water ways in southwest Holland put the finishing touches to a three-week campaign that cleared the area of German troops, freed the remainder of Belgium and changed the Dutch salute into a solid front for the next phase of the allied campaign to crush Germany.

Southeast of Aachen, Liek, Cien, Country Roads' American first army today is way back in a new struggle to within less than a half mile of Scheldt after retreating to a German counterattack Saturday.

Town By-Passed
Kronenbrunn, three quarters of a mile north of Scheldt was by-passed in the advance. Further north, the Americans made small gains in the area of Scheldt station at Scheldt.

Extensive minefields covered by artillery and small arms fire were slowing the American advance all along the sector. British counter-bombing campaign to liberate Gochelers, Valerius, and other towns, was broken by breaking into the outskirts of Middelburg, capital of Zeeland province and last enemy stronghold on the island.

Newland Captured
Newland, two miles southeast of Middelburg, was captured and progress was being made northeast of Domburg on the north coast of the island.

Supreme headquarters announced last night that naval casualties and losses in landing craft were "heavier" than the amphibious landings and landing on Westkapelle at the western tip of Walcheren last week. The British command reported that the campaign to liberate Gochelers, Valerius, and other towns, was broken by breaking into the outskirts of Middelburg, capital of Zeeland province and last enemy stronghold on the island.

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP)—

Furious fighting raged in the suburbs of shell-iron Budapest today as heavy Russian infantry forces joined armored vanguards which had penetrated the defenses of the Hungarian capital from the north and south on the east side of the Danube river.

The Germans said they had recaptured the East Prussian rail town of Gollub, 10 miles inside the Reich, after surrounding the place. The Russians at midnight reported victory over German counterattacks staged off there.

The many said also that a counter-attack had started south of Budapest and that the Hungarian capital was under a major Russian assault. The red army was declared regrouping and reinforcing for the final attempt.

The German radio announced early today that Soviet troops had entered the southern metropolitan limits, only two miles from the center of the city, while a Russian broadcast said other red army units, racing around the eastern edge of the capital, storm the northern suburbs through Upper.

Capture 1,000 a Day

Red army troops threatened to gain a breakthrough across the eastern front of the Danube, just south of Budapest, and crossed on to narrow Csepel island which divides the river. The two armies for 20 miles southward.

The city's German and Hungarian defenders were being squeezed at the rate of 1,000 a day in the power. Russian encirclement, Moscow announced. Hungarian reports claimed by Budapest indicated the bulk of the red forces already were flowing to the western part (Buda) of the Danube-straddling capital.

The Moscow war bulletin put the enemy resistance had stiffened tenfold and was particularly furious in the area of a 100-mile front, striking against Budapest's northern flank. The report said the total of men prisoners taken in the week's offensive at 19,516.

Captain Chasles

Berlin said the Russians were using at least 600 tanks and 65,000 men in their drive for the Magyar city, whose capture would provide a springboard for a new invasion of Germany from the south over the soil of Austria.

Thoughtful Soldier Voter

World War Campaign Closes

By LYLE C. WILSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt and Thomas E. Dewey end their bitter presidential campaign today and the polls begin to open next sunrise for a United States election in which the entire civilized world has cast itself a slice of apprehensive interest.

Both candidates will be on the air tonight. Dewey, the Republican, will do a last-minute campaign whirl around Albany before heading home to vote. Mr. Roosevelt will motor among his Hudson valley neighbors giving his famous campaign speech another farewell appearance.

At the polls today in Hyde Park, Democratic Vice-President-elect Charles McNary, Truman and Republican Vice-President-elect John W. Bricker are back home in Missouri and Ohio, respectively, to cast their ballots. A comparative silence calms the bustling.

On five continents and a host of the world's islands urgently interested persons are awaiting election returns. And there doubtless are many individuals on the face of the globe who would know Kansas from Pennsylvania at this moment, but who could come up accurately with the electoral vote of that state.

Campaign Blister

The foreign campaign has left little impact on foreign affairs. It has been an angry, bitter contest.

YANK ARTILLERY TURNS ON JAPS

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 6 (AP)—

American long-range artillery was turned on the reinforced Japanese in a surprise volley on 5,000 westerners today as the Yank invaders, driving on the besieged Ormoc garden from two sides, traded themselves for a cleanup fight.

Spencer Davis, Associated Press war correspondent with Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger's ninth army, reported American 10th division long range rifles hit enemy concentrations at Ormoc town before dawn with 400 rounds of high explosive shells.

Hard Fighting

He reported hard fighting flared up two miles west of Dagupan, road junction at the western edge of the Leyte island captured several days ago by the Americans. Out of an estimated 600 Japanese who made a series of charges against the Americans during the night at least 500 were killed.

MacArthur had added, other Americans of the 10th corps took up positions astride the Dagupan trail, cutting off enemy supply lines of retreat. Krueger's artillery is making heavy use of the area and is in position to break up

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Striking audaciously by daylight, B-29 Superfortresses blasted military targets at Singapore in one of two raids yesterday by the aerial draughts.

The once mighty bastion of British naval might in the Pacific was visited in "substantial force" while slither ships lurched out heavily at an oil refinery in Sumatra.

None of the Superforts was lost to enemy action in either blow.

Longest Daylight Blow

The giant bombers of the 20th air force which directly communicated have ranged from Manchuria in the north to Sumatra in the south, and which have hit directly the Japanese home islands, yesterday directed their aim at the strategic tip of the Malay peninsula which Japan wrested from Britain early in 1942.

It was the longest daylight strike ever flown by military planes, and a communiqué described results as good to excellent.

India-based Superfortresses also struck heavily at the Pangasinan-Brandon oil refinery on the north coast of Sumatra, a long-distance haul for the Japanese. The Superforts were seen to drop bombs on a small town near the refinery.

Drydock Hit

(A Tokyo radio broadcast recorded on the 20th air force communiqué asserted that one B-29 was shot down and another damaged in the attack on the refinery. It said "no damage" was incurred on the B-29.

Germany Blasted By 1,800 Bombers

By HENRY B. JAMISON

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP)—More than 1,800 American bombers and fighters attacked Germany again today as the allies carried the mightiest bombing siege of the war into the third straight day.

The attack, from an armada of over 1100 heavy bombers, was the heaviest yet in the Hamburg-Berlin area.

Other attacks included industrial targets in the Ruhr valley, and the bombing of the city of Cologne.

The attack on Hamburg brought to 21 the number of German cities that have been bombed by the allies since the start of the war.

The attack on Cologne brought to 10 the number of German cities that have been bombed by the allies since the start of the war.

Attention Jerome County Voters
RALPH E. SHAWVER
"Knows the Farmers Problems"
"Being the owner and operator of large farming interests in both the east and west ends of the county, I have not had the time, the tire or the gasoline to travel over the county in the interests of my campaign. THERE IS NO ORGANIZED CLUB working in my behalf nor have I requested financial assistance from my friends in support of my candidacy—throughout 32 years of experience in helping to develop from sage brush the lands that now comprise the great North Side Tract of the Snake River Valley and my pledge to you, if elected Jerome County Senator, is the use of good horse sense in helping to solve the many problems of pasturage landowners."
I FURTHER FAVOR AND WILL WORK FOR a state-wide "Noxious Weed Commission" under the supervision of a competent State Weed Commissioner. This is a concern of every land owner within the state and if a vigorous program to eliminate all "noxious weeds" is not soon undertaken it will become one of our greatest problems.
• All farmers and livestock raisers should have good Farm to Market Roads. These I consider essential to the betterment of farming communities.
• WE MUST NOT CLOSE ANY STATE SCHOOLS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION because our boys and girls are in the services of our country—let us make them better for the heavy enrollment following the war.
• Am thoroughly familiar with the water rights of the Snake River Valley, especially the water rights of the North Side Tract—and know the reasons for the conservation of our water resources.
• The last and most important thing is—for all on the home front to support the war effort 100%.
• Member of the Board of Directors—North Side Canal Company, Ltd.
• Member of the American Falls Reservoir District Board of Directors.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

DISHONESTY—Far-angled leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties have already discussed the merits of allowing any bitterness which may afflict the nation after election day. They realize that feeling has been rather violent recently, especially the questioning of the political policies of the two major camps.

Numerous observers have noted that in some respects the 1944 campaign has been less a contest of ideas than the Hoover-Smith battle in 1932. It is to a certain extent, seen as a contest between various groups, political, racial and economic groups. Periodically from the beginning of the war, and also because of the fourth-term issue and FDR's age, and the policies and personalities, there has been created the appearance at least of national dishonour.

Axis spokesmen, especially Japanese commentators, monitored to the office of war information and the federal communications commission, have cited this dishonour as evidence that they may obtain an "easy peace."

FACINOROUS has been in vogue recently in this connection, a bit between rural and urban folk, but it has been a struggle between the lower right to characterize the battle as an Armageddon in which the "American way of life is at stake."

Businessmen, both large and small, have defined the Dewey-Roosevelt issue as one which shall determine whether the country will under the control of labor pressure groups. The entrance of the CIO into the campaign in the way has been a source of confusion to communists versus Americans. Even the hoary Ku Klux Klan has been invoked.

There are the issues of the present ending Tuesday night which disturb the more solid and sensible elements on both sides of the street. There is also a permanent danger of disagreement would damage United States prestige during the later stages of global warfare and also the prestige of the United States.

PREJUDICE—The domestic peacekeepers will instance past and present-day evils. In this moment to promote a decline of the nation's ranks and a weakening of the country's political and racial ties, a permanent danger of disagreement would damage United States prestige during the later stages of global warfare and also the prestige of the United States.

In 1934, for example, circumstances closely resembled those prevailing today. Although he is the first to admit that he is not a Jew, Roosevelt has not been assailed nearly so vigorously as "Old Joe." The most extreme isolationists have not pursued the same path of the cooperatives of the sixties, although even this institution common has been raised in this campaign.

No general has resigned his commission to run against the communists and Jews. In this moment to promote a decline of the nation's ranks and a weakening of the country's political and racial ties, a permanent danger of disagreement would damage United States prestige during the later stages of global warfare and also the prestige of the United States.

AGREEMENT—The politicians, candidates Roosevelt and Dewey included, have intentionally tried to conceal or subordinate their many points of agreement. The incumbent and the New Yorker governor are in accord on the frame plan, the "New Deal," the "quarantine the aggressor" and to keep the continental peace. The incumbent and the New Yorker governor are in accord on the frame plan, the "New Deal," the "quarantine the aggressor" and to keep the continental peace.

The President and the challenger have pledged themselves to wage war until the axis is utterly crushed. Indeed, the GOP nominee has promised that he will continue the frame plan, the "New Deal," the "quarantine the aggressor" and to keep the continental peace.

ONE NATION—Americans will choose a President Tuesday. Just as they have every four years, in peace and war. Wednesday, again just as always, they will meet to elect a President Tuesday. Just as they have every four years, in peace and war.

The President and the challenger have pledged themselves to wage war until the axis is utterly crushed. Indeed, the GOP nominee has promised that he will continue the frame plan, the "New Deal," the "quarantine the aggressor" and to keep the continental peace.

VIEW OF OTHERS
HOPKINS AND THERIAULT
In his address on foreign affairs, Gov. Dewey remarked the President's personal relations with Marshall Stalin at Tehran and commented that "Mr. Roosevelt took along Mr. Harry Hopkins, who acquired the reputation of being a close personal friend of the Soviet Union."

He said that he would not have been surprised if the Republican candidate had not known of the close personal relationship between Mr. Hopkins and Stalin.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY
Democracy is not self-sustaining—it takes your vote to make it work. It cannot be employed to make it work. It cannot be employed to make it work.

It should be borne in mind that government is not self-sustaining—it takes your vote to make it work. It cannot be employed to make it work. It cannot be employed to make it work.

GOING TO THE POLLS

YANKS REPULSE GERMAN THRUSTS

ROME, Nov. 6 (AP) — American troops of the fifth army have repulsed another small-scale German counter-attack at Monte Belmonte, eight miles south of Bologna, and patrols have increased activity along the entire Italian front with improving weather, it was announced today.

Ground forces on the fifth army front have been bogged down for nearly a week by heavy rains, but the clearing weather enabled both sides to reorganize for heavy action.

In the Adriatic sector, eighth army troops were still fighting at the eastern side of Porti airfield, where the Germans are holding out in a few buildings.

The airfield was the last remaining obstacle blocking a drive from the south against Porti, a key point on the Bologna-Rimini highway 27 miles east of Bologna.

This is apple time which ought mean glad tidings to children over the country. There is an affinity between apples and children. No healthy boy or girl can look at an apple tree, laden with red and gold apples that have turned their cheek toward the sun and held a bit of its color, and not reach for fruit.

RICHES
(Inspired while driving to and from Albin in Magic Valley during this autumn weather)

Mellow, yellow glowing gold
As far as eye can see
Midday, King of fairy tales,
No richer was than we.

Shimmer, quiver, acutilluie,
In banks and towering spires,
Shining coils of Nature's realm
Each tree its wealth acquires.

Waving, loving daisies' soil,
Bright glided grasses away,
Dinks of treasured loveliness
Requested to night by day.

Winding, binding land to sky
Beneath moon's golden light
Ribbon roads alluring lead
To fortunes of the night.

I had hoped to get down home and have a visit with you, but it looks like they are going to keep me busy until the election is over. I am Executive Director of the One Thousand Club. We have our office at 708-A Stevens Hotel, Chicago, and I will be there from now on until the election.

I don't know if you have heard much about the One Thousand Club, but the idea is this - we want to get one thousand people willing to give $1,000 for the re-election of our President. The money will be used for the time to put him on the air. The suggestion came from the President himself. He said he would like to have one thousand business people who would like to counsel and advise with them through the rest of his term, if he were re-elected. The policy has been adopted by members of the Club who happen to be in Washington on Thursday afternoon to have a visit with the President at the White House. We have had five of these occasions and they have been very pleasant. Then, of course, there are many matters coming up in which membership in the One Thousand Club would do us any harm. Each member receives a copper-plated identification plate and certificate which would write you about it to see if you might be interested or if you could pass the word on to some other good friend. Our headquarters are 708-A Stevens Hotel, Chicago. I will be there from now until election.

Incidentally, we have a lot of big-shot in our club, including Jesse Jones, most of the members of the Cabinet, Marshall Field, Jr., Lewis of the Federal Reserve Board, who is National Chairman, and Joseph Davies who is head of the Washington Chapter. So you see we have a pretty good bunch.

Best to you and good luck!

Sincerely,
Edith Taylor

Be Sure to Vote . . . ELECTION DAY, Nov. 7 1944

LOOK over to the right, Boss; that's a picture of you. You have got a big date coming up . . . you're going to hire yourself a high-salaried employee. Two main applicants for the job (names: Frank and Tom) and the final decision is up to you.

Yes, Boss, you're going to pick yourself a President of the United States — a hired general manager qualified to direct the complicated machinery of your Government — a public servant to enforce the laws your representatives in Congress make — a federal employee who gets a four-year contract at $75,000 a year.

It's the most important job you've ever had to do. Don't undertake it lightly.

The man you choose as President will carry the heaviest responsibilities in history. He will be clothed with vast, if strictly limited, powers. He will be, constitutionally, the supreme military commander of a nation in arms. In the councils of nations he will represent the might and majesty of the American people. His will be the task of winning a great war — of helping to write a lasting peace — of meeting the perplexing post-war problems of demobilization, reconversion, re-employment; it will be his job to relax the disciplines of the war, surrender wartime controls, balance the federal budget — and to do all these things without jeopardy to the nation.

The duty of choosing the man who must perform these tasks is not given to a few so-called "wise men." It is left to the collective wisdom of the People of the United States — and that means you and Americans like you.

And so, consider the great issues. Try to look beyond yourself and your own personal problems. Heed but don't be over-swayed by obvious partisan propaganda.

You're the Boss. You're Judge and Jury. At the moment when you cast your ballot, you're the Supreme Arbiter of the destinies of the United States of America. Cast your vote, therefore, in a spirit of mingled humility and pride. Cast it in a spirit of consecration. It is a sacrament.

Cast it only after careful thought, meditation — and prayer.
