Leyte Japan's Worst Defeat; 112,728 Killed

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, PHILIPPINES, Dec. 26 (AP)—A Christmas surprise for Japan in the form of an amphibious invasion of Palompon harbor brought the bloody, 67-day Leyte-Samar campaign to an end except for mop-up operations, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur today called it "the greatest defeat in the military annals of the Japanese army."

The U. S. 7th division, moving up from Ormoc into Palompon, the enemy's last remaining port on Leyte, stormed ashore under covering fire from petrol-torpedo boats and artillery. The Japanese were caught between these troops and others moving overland, and could offer only token resistance.

By nightfall of Christmas day, Maj. Gen. A. D. Bruce, commander of the 77th, messaged headquarters:

"The 77th infantry division's Christmas contribution to the Leyte campaign is the capture of Palompon, last main Japanese port on Leyte. We are grateful to the Almighty on this birthday of His Son."

The magnitude of the first phase of the Philippine liberation was reflected in MacArthur's announcement that 112,728 Japanese had been killed and 40 captured on Leyte and nearby Samar island, on which there had been only less than 10,000 Japanese.

The Americans lost 2,823 killed, 8,425 wounded and 171 missing—a total of 11,419.

The enemy's ground forces participating in the campaign have been "totally annihilated," MacArthur declared. Some of Japan's best troops were committed to the defense of Leyte, which Tokyo considers "the decisive battle for our future."

MacArthur's announcement of 112,728 Japanese killed on two islands was broken down into 42,326 killed and 41 transports were sunk as well as 10,000 captured. The total number of Japanese killed was 112,728. The total number of Japanese killed was 112,728.

The "completeness of this destruction" MacArthur said, "has paralleled in the history of warfare."

Gun Girl Laughs as Officers Capture Her and Ex-Marine

Jessie Alcia Rose, 27, laughs as she stands handcuffed to her by Fred, ex-Marine Calvin Coolidge Guinard, following their capture here Monday night at Ninth avenue east and Second street. Earlier they had gotten the Sheriff Warren W. Lowery and his deputy, Silas Givens, when the latter sought to question them about a burglary, then had slugged an apartment house manager who discovered them hiding in the basement of the first Mrs. here. Police Chief Howard Gillette, left, is holding a pistol he has just taken from the woman. Police Officer George Benham, center, is assisting in the search, and Sheriff Lowery is preparing to put a second pair of handcuffs on the couple. (Staff photo-enlarging)

Ex-Marine and Gun Girl Accused Of Robbery After Citywide Hunt

By AL WEEKS
Calvin Guinard, 21, recently dishonorably discharged from the marines, and his pistol-packing girl friend, Jessie Alcia Rose, 27, following their capture in Twin Falls Christmas night, claiming a manhunt that began after the pair disarmed Sheriff Warren W. Lowery and his deputy, Silas Givens, and tied their hands. The officers had sought to question them at a tourist cabin regarding a burglary at Kimberly.

Although both were armed when they were spotted walking across intersection of Ninth avenue east and Second street, neither offered resistance when an officers' posse headed by the sheriff and Police Chief Howard Gillette jumped from an automobile and leveled on them with shotguns and .45's.

Two pistols were taken off Guinard and one from Miss Rose.

Taken to the sheriff's office, Guinard said that he started to go for his guns when the officers surrounded him although he realized he and his friend would have been out of the room by then.

U. S. Salient Wiped out in Foe Advance

PARIS, Dec. 26 (AP)—Two German armored columns have plunged 50 miles into Belgium, reaching within four miles of the Meuse river. The enemy wiped out the American S. Vith salient and formed a solid front 35 miles wide. Supreme headquarters disclosed this information today.

Two and possibly three Nazi armies have been flung into the battering counter-offensive, believed to be the last in a series of attacks to have been planned by Hitler himself in an effort to shatter allied forces in the west.

Punching down west one Nazi tank column neared Celles, only four miles from the Meuse at Dinant, and just eight miles northeast of the French border.

Another column hit west and north, reaching Cines in a 10-mile gain. Cines lies nine miles from the Meuse and 14 miles from the jutting northeast corner of France. Cines and Celles are six miles apart.

Covered by "Clark" The security news cloak covered further progress these thrusts may have made. At latest reports a battle raged in the head-on area, with the Germans building up forces west of Rochefort and south of Marche. The day Sunday gains came after the invaders had been held almost to a standstill for 48 hours.

The most forward points reached by the Nazis were Celles, four miles east of Dinant, representing a gain of 11 miles from Rochefort, and Celles, four miles east of Rochefort, about eight miles from the river Meuse.

The points were made possible by crushing the American defense in the center of the German salient, extending west from St. Vith. This enabled the Nazis to join up and hammer west with new force.

On the southern side of the German salient, where the Americans counter-attacks, our troops registered slight gains, taking high ground and cutting off a half mile southeast of Diekirch and German frontiers.

Eighth army forces fighting Flanders and liberators again joined the battle, smashing at the Nazi supply route and freight yards along the Rhine.

Flying conditions were not quite so good as they had been. The bombing was done virtually.

The sudden collapse of the American salient after two days of resistance, the salient was taken and the German troops were split up, driving toward the northern wall of the corridor to join their central spearheads driving for the Meuse.

Squarely at Gladioli Exploiting the break-through, the Nazis sent three armor heads through the riddled center of the American salient.

The first army line on a 13-mile front pointed squarely at the Meuse river, the salient was taken and the German troops were split up, driving toward the northern wall of the corridor to join their central spearheads driving for the Meuse.

The new German line at Monday morning extended in a southward direction.

WLB FORESEES MONTHS OF WAR

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26 (AP)—The war-production board is operating on the theory that the war in Europe will go on indefinitely.

As an example, he said new factories have to be built to supply demands for trench mortars and the factories cannot go into production before next August.

The factories will cost some $200,000,000, he said, and if the war ends before August, a good deal of the money will be lost, but if the war lasts over by then as it probably will, the plants will save many American lives.

Krug said the great German offensive is destroying a lot of allied equipment and causing a steady loss in American production requirements.

Before he left Washington, Krug said he received a radio message from General Eisenhower asking for 600,000 yards of blanketing material, jackets and underwear, ordinarily expected to last a soldier five months, are being worn out in half that time under the rigor of the present struggle.

UNLUCKY GUN NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 26 (AP)—Dennis Smith, 19, found one Christmas present and opened one that was not a present.

He was locked in the "Oh!" position and it was 15 minutes before a city hospital nurse could unlock him.

Kind-Hearted Hotel Clerk's Real Santa to Hungry Folk

Mrs. Della Sidwell, desk clerk at the Park hotel, gave an especially appreciated Christmas gift to 50 hungry persons unable to find breakfast Christmas morning. Bringing fruit, coffee, doughnuts, jam, bread and butter from her home, Mrs. Sidwell set up a kitchen in one of the hotel rooms adjoining the office. A small room to the rear of the office served as a dining room for patrons of the Park and Rooming houses as well as the hotel's transient guests.

Mrs. Sidwell just couldn't resist the hungry looks of the tenants as they strolled in and out with no alternative but to be hungry. Several persons who were able to arrange transportation for the Christmas and others before Mrs. Sidwell opened her improvised canteen at which the group helped themselves to breakfast between the hours of 8 a. m. and 3 p. m.

Servicemen visiting business men and residents gathered around the plate and waiter constituted the only Christmas party in the city.

Patrons of the city cafe could not begin to serve the amount of customers demanding at the doors.

570 Charles was named the food and Mrs. Sidwell was named the Christmas.

All restaurants closed except the city cafe (which ran out of food in 10-15 minutes) the closing situation here. Christmas was unimpeded.

THE WAY OUR PEOPLE LIVED STARTS TOMORROW

HEAVY CASUALTY LISTS FORESEEN

By DEWITT MACHENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The Germans have got their second wind and again are on the drive, but such news as has filtered through the censorship dim-out up to this writing indicates the allied forces have been holding the enemy to small gains in most sectors or stopping them altogether.

General Eisenhower seems to have the situation well in hand, and we can have confidence in the outcome. It should be marked that despite the great weight of the German counterthrust, our troops have suffered no debacle. On the contrary we've steadily increased our grip.

Hard to Take
The fighting is fierce, and we must be prepared for heavy casualties. We shall break the back of this German offensive in the course of that there's no doubt, but the cost in lives is going to be hard to take.

The Hitlerites of course are suffering just as heavily. It's a bloody business they've started in their desperate, last-ditch effort to force the allies into making a compromise peace. That this is their hope is further confirmed in the statement made by German officers that their offensive calls for arrival in Paris Jan. 17, after which perhaps "Herr Hitler" will talk peace terms.

The broad picture of the German assault remains the same. They're straining to extend the two great salients which they have driven into the American front in Belgium towards the Meuse river.

Dangerous Sacks

One of the menaces of the offensive lies in the fact that these two powerful thrusts form a huge sack within which are many American troops and supply depots. If the Nazis could close the mouth of that sack it would create a nasty situation, and they are doing their utmost to achieve this. There are several similar, though less dangerous, sacks at various other points. The threats are far from one-sided, however. Eisenhower is launching counterattacks at the flanks of these German salients. The immediate purpose of this pressure is to prevent the expansion of the arms. However, such a move is a big gamble in thrusting these salients out into allied territory, for he lays himself open to a counter move which might cut off and annihilate great numbers of his troops.

Youths Guests of Kiwanis at Buhl

BUHL, Dec. 26 — Buhl Kiwanis club held its annual boys' night and boys' Christmas party with each member bringing a son or an "adopted" son as his guest.

A lighted Christmas tree in one corner of the room gave a very festive note to the occasion, and gifts for the boys were piled high beneath it.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson led the boys and their fathers in the singing of Christmas songs and carols, and four little girls, Louise Johnson, Orin Olsen, Savage, Fay Smith and Mrs. Brown, dressed as fairies and carrying fairy wands, gave a short play. Mrs. Johnson directed the girls, and Mrs. Willis Carlson played their accompaniment. Johnny and Jimmy Ramsey each recited a short selection.

Mrs. Martina Yeller talked on the origin and meaning of Christmas, and the way it is celebrated in the various countries of the world where it is observed. She recounted many of the old legends concerning the Christmas customs and superstitions of our own and other countries. She traced the use of the Christmas tree, from the legend of the stars clinging to the little fir tree on the night the Christ Child was born, to its present and universal use today.

President Marvin Carlson presided at the dinner, and each father introduced his boy to the group. Over 50 fathers and boys were in attendance, and the evening closed with the distribution of gifts to the boys.

9-Day-Old Girl Has Military Christening

BUSHNELL, Utah, Dec. 26 (AP) — It was a military christening for Zemma Arnold, nine-day-old daughter of a wounded veteran of the invasion of Leyte.

The child was christened Christmas day by Col. Mortimer Chester, post chaplain at Bushnell general hospital, with her parents, Lewis and Mrs. Jesse Arnold of Long Beach, Calif., watched in wheel chairs.

Mrs. Arnold flew here in an army bomber a few days before the baby was born because her husband, who lost a leg in the Leyte invasion, otherwise could not be with her. Immediately after birth Dec. 17, the infant was operated on for hernia but is reported recovering satisfactorily.

LID CLAMPED ON EATABLES AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (UP)—Warner by price chief Chester Bowles that many of the nation's food supplies are at the war's lowest ebb, housewives today began paying out blue points again for most canned vegetables and prepared to dole out red points beginning Sunday for meat that has been plentiful for many months.

Should the housewives be caught unwary by the suddenness of the OPA's move, which was advanced at least 24 hours due to premature circulation that OPA was going to broaden the food rationing program.

Put Back Again
As of last midnight all ration-free vegetables are now back on the ration list. This includes asparagus, green and waxed beans, corn, spinach and peas. Asparagus, beans and spinach are to be rationed and peas 20 points for No. two cans. Beginning Sunday 25 per cent of all now ration-free meats will go back on the ration list. The OPA was not too worried about hoarding of meat because it is too difficult to keep. Meats included are beef, veal, lamb, pork, chicken, turkey, duck, bacon, pork shoulders, spareribs, beef and veal, soups, sausage and meats in tin or glass containers. Point values will range from one to 15.

All red and blue ration stamps validated before Dec. 26 are no longer valid. All sugar stamps except No. 34 are no longer valid. A new sugar stamp will be issued Friday, but it will be good for five pounds over a three-month period instead of the present two and a half months.

Butter up
Butter is up from 20 to 24 points. Bowles said the decision had been "difficult to make" but necessary because civilian supplies of sugar, butter and commercially canned fruits and vegetables are at the lowest point since the war began and meat supplies are declining.

When Americans understand the facts back of today's action—that prospective supplies are so low that it will help each one to get his fair share—I am sure they will welcome the action, Bowles said. Republicans laid the tight action to the administration's failure to appoint a food czar with full power to handle all phases of the food industry, and indicated that they might renew their fight for such an official in the new congress.

Not Affected
The value of red ration tokens in the hands of consumers is not affected by today's revision of rules. The revision invalidated red and blue coupons that became good before Dec. 1, but the effect of prior administration said the red tokens would continue as valid ration currency, regardless of when consumers received them as change for ration stamps.

Blue tokens for processed food have had little use for some time. They are good only when spent in groups of ten, a rule which went into effect when OPA began listing all processed food point values in multiples of ten.

Grandma Switches Millions of Mothers To Her Idea of Mutton Suet and Medication

"Old Reliable" For Relieving Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Stomach Aches, Headaches and Rheumatic Pains, Chapped Lips and Nipples, Etc. — This is the story of a woman who has been a mother for 40 years and who has seen her children grow up and have children of their own.

Grandma was a great one for "rubbing" the mixture of chest mutton suet and many other simple pains and aches of her family. The rub she used was medicated in her own way but she insisted that it contained no medicine, and she was right. The mutton suet disappeared as it helped every mother to know the value of this in relieving pain.

Today science has modernized Grandma's old-time remedy and has made it a principle to bring you Fennel's, the salve with a base that contains old-fashioned mutton suet and 100 other ingredients. No mother ever anywhere was prying this secret away from her. Grandma's recipe was her idea that is enriching habits of her descendants. During the winter of colds, flu, and sore throats, it is so helpful in easing chest, muscle, rheumatic, toothache, cold, headache, and many other pains.

New Yorker Leaps to Death Because of Lavish Clerk

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (UP)—Oscar Gropper, 57, Fifth avenue leather goods merchant, leaped to his death from a hotel window early today leaving a note which said the "lady Robin Hood" bookkeeper who gave away $40,000 of his money had ruined him financially.

Police found the pajama-clad body of Gropper, president of Gropper, Inc., on the sidewalk nine stories below his three-room suite in the Hotel Blackstone on East 56th Street. His plummeting body had narrowly missed the hotel marquee.

Gropper's wife, Estelle, and his daughter, June, were asleep in his apartment when Gropper plunged to his death at 1:15 A. M. He had donned a pair of trousers over his pajamas and was wearing bedroom slippers which fell several feet from where his body struck the pavement.

Three Notes
It was learned that Gropper left three notes, one each to his wife and daughter and a third to his attorney, Millard E. Eshen. The note to Eshen was reported to have contained Gropper's statement that his former bookkeeper's wife, to fellow employees and friends had ruined him.

ROBOT DEFENSE NOW CALLED FOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (UP)—The nation's civilian defense corps has been alerted to the possibility of every robot or rocket-bomb attack, national civilian defense officials announced today.

The action, OGD emphasized, is merely one of routine preparedness and should not be interpreted as a possibility of a robot attack, a possibility which has been mentioned in the anti-aircraft service on the coast, and is now employed in Los Angeles.

YULE MESSAGE: JAP SHIPS DOWN

CHUNGKING, Dec. 26 (UP)—Ten Mustang fighter pilots, who raided an airbase at the Japanese capital of Nanking Christmas eve, flanked back a Christmas message for Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, commander of U. S. air forces in China. It was: "Destroyed 28 Japanese aircraft."

The communique reported that Dec. 21 and 22 winter planes destroy 14 locomotives and rolling stock on the Japanese-controlled railroad in Shansi province north of the Yellow River bend.

Fighters and fighter bombers pounded enemy supply lines in southern China from Tungting lake southeast of Lanchow, gave support to Chinese ground forces attacking Lanchow and probably sank a tanker off Shanghai.

Yankess-Air Score 10 to 1 Against Nips

ABOVE: ADMIRAL MCGAIN'S CARRIER FLAGSHIP, Dec. 23 (AP) — (U.S. Navy Radio) — American carrier-based aircraft were disclosed today to have maintained a 10 to 1 score against Japanese air forces over the Philippines, destroying 1034 enemy planes while losing 104.

Compliments covering the period since the end of October showed the navy afloat damaged another 500 Japanese planes.

TALKING BROOCH LATEST GADGET

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Ever sink your teeth into a crab-apple?

If so you can appreciate the Christmas gift to the nation of Carl A. Hanson, Brookings, N. D., who has patented a crabapple tree which showers down sweet crab-apples. Not only is its fruit sweet when raw, but it's pink all the way through, like a Texas grapefruit, and that fact alone is likely to revolutionize the art of jelly-making.

It's hard to come by crab-apples in days like these, but if you ever get your paws on one, then patent No. 2,342,356, as issued to Josephine DeWitt Rector, San Leandro, Calif., is the piece of machinery for you. Mrs. Rector has invented a coconut metal extractor.

The year-end inventors have not let this nation down in other fields of human endeavor, either. Consider the beautiful brooch invented by Clinton J. Davidson, San Diego.

This brooch, which any lady would be proud to wear, bears a sign, outlined in diamonds or maybe glass, which says "Full. Hanging down—handy—a chain, which can be gold, or even brass. You go up to the lady and pull the chain. Her brooch pops open, revealing another sign which says: "Hello, I love you. What's your name?"

Nursery of Dionnes

Strewn With Bounty

CALLENDAR, Ont., Dec. 26 (AP)—The nursery of the $50,000 home that time built for the Dionne quintuplets was strewn with premature Christmas bounty today because the sisters couldn't wait for New Year's day, the traditional French-Canadian time for exchanging gifts.

The girls and their brothers and sisters attended two masses in their nursery chapel and a luncheon yesterday. Then, because they wanted an early sample of "Pere Noel's" providing, they exchanged crayons, colored pencils, and blackboards and tried on new dresses.

CAPT. ARTHUR ALBAN

Advanced from first lieutenant at Walker army air field, Victoria, Kan. (Staff engraving)

Rank as Captain To Arthur Alban

It's Capt. Arthur Alban now. The Twin Falls-Kimberly dentist, now serving in the army dental corps attached to the air force, has been promoted to captain from first lieutenant. That puts him even with his twin brother, Capt. Harry Alban, army medical corps also attached to the air force.

Friends in Twin Falls were advised that Capt. Alban and Mrs. Arthur Alban became parents of a second son three months ago.

NATION HAS 332 YULE FATALITIES

The nation's toll of violent deaths over the three-day holiday was 332, an Associated Press survey disclosed today.

Accidents on the highways, as predicted by safety experts, claimed the most lives. The survey showed 198 persons, including two Indians, were killed in automobile mishaps.

The national safety council's estimate for the period from midnight Friday to today was about 275 motor vehicle fatalities. In 1943, the Christmas holiday traffic toll was 216 of the total of 329 violent deaths.

Plane crashes, fires, falls, shootings, drowning and other violent forms of death were reported throughout the country as the nation observed the long week-end rest period.

Three plane smashups cost the lives of 28 persons, including 10 soldiers in an army transport flying to Minneapolis, who were killed when the ship crashed near Harrisburg, Pa. Five other army fliers lost their lives in a plane crash at Ridgeley, Tenn., while five servicemen were killed in a crash of a transport plane near Indianapolis.

Of the total violent deaths, 88 were recorded as from miscellaneous causes, 45 resulting from fires and one from weather. By states, California reported the most number of fatalities—37, including 23 traffic deaths. Pennsylvania ranked second with 27, and New York third with 23.

Speaker Shows

Christ Parallel

BUHL, Dec. 26—The Rev. Max E. Greenlee, Buhl Rotarian, was the speaker at the meeting of Rotarians this week. Rev. Mr. Greenlee spoke on the meetings of the community-spirited men of the time of Christ and the meetings of the men's group which are held today. Christ's followers were from all walks of life, he said, just as Rotary is chosen from every business and profession.

Groups such as Rotary flourish most in Christian countries, for they are founded on the principles taught by Christ to his disciples.

Christ's teachings of learning to live with one another in a cooperative spirit, and to work for the good of their communities, is fully exemplified by the men's groups of today.

The original Rotary was founded by a lawyer in Chicago on Feb. 23, 1905. At first meeting in homes, it soon expanded and developed into a worldwide organization.

Guests at the meeting were Harry Taylor and Harold Parrish.

Given Soldier at USO Party

Cpl. James M. Ammer was able to call his sister and parents Christmas eve as a result of the surprise gift presented at the Beta Gamma party in the USO honoring the servicemen from Sun Valley, Mountain Home and Hunt.

Corporal Ammer, who is stationed at the Mountain Home air base, had just returned Wednesday from a fortnight with his parents and other relatives in Bangor, Meas.

Approximately 200 servicemen were served a buffet supper at the USO rooms with dancing, singing and a program arranged by girls of the club.

Olive Wells sang several songs and led the group in carol singing with Joan LeClair at the piano. Refreshments including salad, sandwiches and pie, were served under the supervision of Lorraine Pomeroy.

Floor Show

During the afternoon, a program was presented by Marie Stoddard and her dance students. Eight numbers were presented by the group including the jive, tango and four to five.

Christmas Week

Sees Festivities At Albion Normal

ALBION STATE NORMAL, Dec. 25.—A series of seasonal events at the campus made the whole of Christmas a beautiful school tradition for Albion students. Initial event was the lighting of Bonfire tree on each Dec. 14, with the after-dinner car service, is a memorial to well-loved, well-remembered, Clarence E. Bonck, president of the school from 1914 until his death in 1934.

"In the 12 years since his death, many changes come visit to the life of the school in these changing times, have of course occurred, but in spirit it is still the Albion he knew and loved, and worked for," said Ben Williams, custodian of grounds and buildings, who in the years since the service has not been forgotten to light the tree in honor of a great friend.

First Lighting

McWilliams explained that the first lighting was held in 1932 and that it is always held on Dec. 14 because that was the birthday of E. Bonck. The service this year included an explanation of the tradition by Harriet E. Telford, and singing by the student body.

Another Christmas activity popular with the student body is the candle light supper held in Crampton hall on the Sunday before vacation begins. The meal served buffet style, is followed by a program which includes the reading of the story of the Nativity and music appropriate to Christmas and the spirit of the evening, ending with carols.

Complish parties and Recreation hall were beautifully decorated in Christmas greens for this occasion and for others which followed under the direction of a student-body headed by Cleveland Both, Jr.

Throughout the week entertainments have had club parties including room parties in the training school held Friday, with an exchange of gifts distributed by bona fide Santa. Throughout the week, too, the faculty members' classes were prepared by can singing in Swanger.

On Dec. 20 the music department, Mary Anita Johnson, director, presented Handel's Messiah. About 50 students, including the women's chorus, presented the program, assisted by Irene Burley, Mary Miller, faculty, and Keith Ammer, Fernald Director.

The annual formal Christmas dinner for college students, faculty and friends was held Thursday, Christmas Eve, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Price. The dinner was a most successful one, and the women of the college were the guests of honor at a dance given at the Burley USO.

The Christmas vacation began Friday, Dec. 23 at noon; classes will be resumed Monday, Jan. 8.

Camp Em-Ar-El

Attends Party

Camp Em-Ar-El of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers, met Friday at the home of Mrs. M. E. Price for a Christmas program and gift exchange. Assisting the hosts with refreshments were Mrs. Louise Carter and Mrs. Lillian Davis.

During the business meeting Mrs. Lillian Willis was chosen, lesson leader for the coming year.

Christmas readings and poems were featured on the program and each member was asked to tell the story of her own life.

BY ANGELO PATRI

A boy writes to me to ask if he has no rights. His little sister gets into his room and steals his work. His mother says she will break his tools, mess up his belongings. His mother says, "Now, now, they're only boys compared to you."

When everybody uses his things without asking, they leave them any old place so that when the time comes to do his homework, he has no pencil, his paper is torn—somebody took it off a corner of a game box into his room and seeing his work, he is mad. Buy BUTTER-KRUST from YOUR favorite grocer.

There was dropped on Ye Old Sport Betwixt's desk by the mailman the other day a brochure and just as the pudgy one was about to consign it to the waste basket, where most such things go because there are of little concern to Twin Falls or the Magic Valley, he noted that it was about the Shriners' annual east-west game. And because it is in this context that does more for humanity than any other sports event, Ye Old Sport Betwixt decided to give the brochure a little look-over.

Now if this ancient word poster were a college football player, he'd rather be chosen to play in this game than any of the football afterpieces that enthrall the nation on New Year's day. Yes, the New Year's game is the crown jewel of the football season, and here are the reasons—just two of them but each very big: When the finger is put on a college player for the classic, he is immediately nominated as one of the best of the nation and then, too, is given the opportunity of making it possible for the grateful fans to contribute several hundred thousand dollars to aid the crippled kids of the nation.

That something that caused this "treacherous" tormentor to look into the brochure brought the realization that Magic Valley athletes have been small in that regard. That realization is the first.

Half of the eight stars that the University of Idaho has contributed to the world since the 1920s are from the Magic Valley. They are Charles "Chuck" Miller, John "Nobby" Rupert, and Theron "Bulldog" Ward, Jerome "The Thunder" Smith, and the 20-pounder who was the first to win a national title in 1927 and 1928 (Charles "Chuck" Miller).

Charles "Chuck" Miller played in 1927 and 1928 (Charles "Chuck" Miller) and was the first to win a national title in 1927 and 1928 (Charles "Chuck" Miller).

Dick Ives is the main reason why Iowa is Ohio State's principal challenger for Western conference basketball championship. Sophomore topped Big Ten scorers as freshman with 285 points, set individual single game record at 43.

Anti-Goaltending Rule Gets Real Test at Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 26 (AP)—Net results of the anti-goaltending rule passed last spring to put a ceiling on basketball's hot boys will be gleaned from the first laboratory test in the three-day all-college tourney opening here tomorrow.

Three of the sport's most prominent skyscrapers, Rob Kurland, 7 feet, Oklahoma Aggies; George Kook, Arkansas, 6 feet, 10 inches, and Bill Henry, 6 feet, 8 inches, Rice, will supply the material for the test in the tourney's eight-team field.

Goaltending is the rule actually will add the tall players and the Aggie's sagacious coach, Hank H. Lee, has some figures from Kurland's first game that offers proof.

As the puts it, Kurland averaged three points a game last season. That's a lot of points to spot a team this season but because the Aggie is free for more offensive play, he will be able to make up most of the difference with his own scoring.

Kurland hit 444 points last season, an average of 13.6 a game. This year he has hit 484 points in five games for a 9.6 average and that was against the stiffest sort of opposition.

Since he doesn't have to jump for dunks of rival shots, his point total, he can save his energy. As a goalie, Bob had to run for the defensive goal the minute the offense got the ball. Usually that meant the full length of the court.

He now works the floor more. And when we get the ball he has less distance to go to get into the offense.

As was clearly evident on the Aggie's eastern tour earlier this month, the Aggie is a crack goal tender for an offensive giant who can virtually fly the ball in the hoop.

Idaho Falls Plays In Butte Tourney

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 26 (AP)—The Idaho Falls high school basketball team will start this morning for Butte, Mont., where the "Tiger" cagers will participate in a tri-state tournament at the Montana mining center.

Cochin Thompson took a sound of 12 players on the trip. Participating besides the Idaho team are the high school, Seattle, Wash.; Butte Central and Anaconda, Mont., high school.

The Idaho Falls quintet, victors 40-40 over Midway Saturday night will go into the tournament undefeated.

Trojans 16-Point Favorite Over Vols in Rose Bowl, Grange Says

By RED GRANGE
The Original Man-in-Motion
(Written for NEA Service)
NEW YORK, Dec. 26—Even though its tailback, George Callahan, is not expected to participate because of a bad knee, bookmakers make Southern California a 16-point favorite over Tennessee in the Pasadena Rose bowl, Jan. 1.

This may be the right line, but for Knoxville's back, Butler Stephens, Mark Major, John Manning, Billy Bevis and Blundy Law—have an average of five yards or better per try for the campaign. Law, however, has not been in enough games to make his record impressive.

Tailback Stephens, the star of the club, has a kicking average of 35 yards, right halfback Gene Stephenson, 38, and quarterback Gene Stephens, 38, have successfully placed 10 of 16 conversions.

Best Blocking Back Stephens and Guard Bob Dobeleski lead the Southwestern. Quarterback Billy Bevis, besides being selected with Stephens for the national All-Southwestern team, the Jacobs trophy as best blocking back of the conference.

Knowledge was mentioned on several All-American teams. He was a player of strength, speed, and his spectacular blocking of a kick for a safety in the game with Tennessee was rated one of the outstanding plays of the season by Coach John Barnhill.

Bob Jensen over three protectors in blocking the kick, in fact Barnhill terms Doby one of the best line men just over Tennessee.

When Seaven Grange Just how far Tennessee is I wouldn't know, but I do know the Vols won seven games and held Alabama a dramatic come-from-behind win, which speaks for itself. They began by winning 35-0 in the first game. This was swamped, 40-0. Their scorers in Alabama, Clemson was rolled over, 25-7. Louisiana State shut out, 27-14, in a thriller in which the Vols kept the game behind to beat the tricky Cats. The Vols clinched the season by prevailing over Kentucky, 27-7.

Certainly there were no brothers on this schedule, and Johnny Barnhill doesn't all the excitement he's heaped upon him by his admirers for one of the outstanding coaching jobs of the year.

Cochin Barnhill took a bunch of boys following a year's experience, one workout yesterday because of the holidays.

From the east camp at Santa Clara university came word that yesterday's practice of the western coaches lined up A and B teams forward balls, Jack Oakland, Utah, was a tackle on from A.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26 (AP)—With the Christmas holiday over, both the east and west football squads buckled down today to a week of serious workouts in preparation for their New Year's charity football contest at Kean stadium.

The squads teamed two practice periods daily after undergoing one workout yesterday because of the holidays.

From the east camp at Santa Clara university came word that yesterday's practice of the western coaches lined up A and B teams forward balls, Jack Oakland, Utah, was a tackle on from A.

Shrum and Wallace Real Point-Getters

GLENN'S FERRY, Dec. 26.—The long and short of Coach Gene Cooper's Glenn Perry Pilots promise to give the Magic Valley basketball quintets many unpleasant evenings this winter—in more ways than one.

In height, the long of the Pilots, who are pacing 25 class B aggregations in the Magic Valley with four victories and a defeat, is Jim Shrum—six feet four and one-half inches. The short is John Wallace, five-foot-five guard.

But in the nature of their shooting, it's just the reverse. It's long Jim that gets under the basket for the short shots and it's short John that pops in the long ones to upset an opponent's defense.

Pair Made 22 Points This was the case at Boise Saturday night when the Pilots smothered the Big Five conference Braves, 25-12. But Jim got under the basket for five goals, while short John stood out in the middle of the floor and popped in four.

With their free throws, the pair accounted for 22 of the Pilots' points. It's nothing new for either. Shrum's height made him one of the scoring leaders in the Magic Valley last season, while Wallace contributed a number of the "big Bertha" shots in important games—notably at Twin Falls, where the Pilots defeated the Braves, and in the state tournament at Rupert, in which they lost their first game and then went on to win all the others and the consolation championship.

"How does your team compare with the one you put on the floor at Boise?" asked Coach Clark Bell. "We've got a scrappier bunch—they're real ball hawks," the principal-coach stated.

This accounts for the fact that the Braves were unable to make a single field goal in the second half of the game at Boise.

The score would indicate a zone defense, but Cooper said that he had a man-for-man with his players checking the entire length of the floor.

Outside of Shrum, the Pilots have only one first stringer who is a foot tall. He is Bob Backus and Cooper may lose him to the army within a few days. However, Cooper has been drilling another six-footer, backer, who never played basketball before this year, to take Backus' place.

"And he's coming along fine," the coach declared.

The London metropolitan area had 113,861 registered areas in 1939.

—But Her Daddy's Still in the Fight, and the War Bonds You Bought Back in the Days of Pearl Harbor Are Still Needed in the Fight, Too—for Victory!

Remember this touching picture of a little girl's farewell to her war-bound daddy? Appearing shortly after Pearl Harbor, it touched the hearts of millions of Americans and helped to launch the greatest voluntary savings program in all history.

That girl is three years older today. In that time, our enemies have been pushed steadily back toward their own frontiers . . . thanks in no small measure to the overwhelming flood of tanks, ships, planes and guns that more than 85 million Americans have poured into the fight through their purchases of War Bonds.

But her daddy is still at war—the fight goes on—the money you've put into Bonds is still needed, just as it was after Pearl Harbor. KEPT IN THE FIGHT—KEPT IN WAR BONDS—IT WILL CONTINUE TO WORK FOR VICTORY—AND FOR YOU.

For just as that little girl has grown, so have the War Bonds you bought three years ago. The $100 Bond you paid $75 for then is already worth more than you paid—and how swiftly the time has passed! In another year it will be worth $80—at maturity, $100. Here's money you'll need later—for education, repairs, replacements, retirement—just as your country needs it today.

So let this picture remind you—HOLD TIGHT TO YOUR BONDS!
