Jap Suicide Units Swap Raps With Okinawa Yanks

GUAM, June 4 (AP)—American carrier planes and Japanese land-based aircraft swapped punches over Okinawa and Japanese mainland island of Kyushu during the week-end, the enemy getting the worst of the trade.

Adm. William F. Halsey, who snorts at Jap suicide planes as "just a damned nuisance," signaled his return to sea duty as head of the powerful U. S. Third fleet by sending kamikaze planes against Kyushu airfields—Kamikaze bases—Saturday and Sunday.

Japan unleashed its first strong air attack on Okinawa yesterday in five days. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz's communiqué today made no mention of possible damage inflicted, but said 26 enemy planes were shot down.

Halsey conceded the suicide tactics are clearly a threat. "In the present state of our advance in the Okinawa campaign, American infantrymen spaced two miles through the island to the southern shore of the island, and off Cape Point, which forms the southern arm of the finest anchorage in the south, are expected to be in the area in a few days."

Two-Way Trap Tokyo broadcasts quoted "unconfirmed" reports that the two assault units landed near the beach.

Huge New Carrier Goes to Meet Japs NONPOLK, Va., June 4 (AP)—The United States Navy's newest amphibious assault ship, the USS LST-1161, is being sent to the Pacific to help meet the challenge of the Japanese suicide plane attacks.

eastern tip of the peninsula to catch isolated Japanese troops in a two-pronged attack. The anchorage—Nakagusuku bay—was reported to be the site of a Japanese suicide plane attack on a heavily escorted column of about 40 transport ships moving east Okinawa from the west coast, where other Yanks were attacking today for a smashing drive on Naha island, in a bet in the Ryukyus straits. Atomic Assaults in Near Future, Japs Declare Intention

GUAM, June 4 (AP)—Radio Tokyo said today that Japan intends to attack the United States with pilotless carrying balloons and has converted her entire naval air force into a suicide corps.

Tokyo said Lieut. Col. Shozo Nakajima, chief spokesman of Japanese armed forces in the southern regions, predicted that pilotless stratosphere balloons would attack the American mainland in the near future.

The present attacks on the United States with pilotless balloons were only on an experimental scale, he said. The balloons were released from Japan March 10 and "hundreds" have been released daily since then.

"When actual results of the experiment have been obtained," Tokyo said, "large-scale attacks with death-defying Japanese airmen manning the balloons will be launched."

Nakajima complained that the United States had not disclosed the extent of damage caused by the pilotless balloons, but surmised they were breaking down the fleet in the Pacific.

He said they had a ceiling of 20,000 feet and a range of over 100 hours to reach the United States.

Tokyo said the Japanese naval air force had been converted into a suicide corps to shield the home islands from the Japanese air force.

Every navy plane will be ordered to crash itself against an allied warship, he said. The Japanese navy has a fleet of 100 ships and 100 planes.

Admiral William F. Halsey, commander of the American Third fleet, welcomed the enemy announcement and challenged the Japanese to send a message to the United States.

Admiral Halsey said he would be glad to receive any message from the Japanese.

MOVIE PUBLICITY GETS GIP'S GOATS

HOLLYWOOD, June 4 (AP)—An unidentified sailor stood on the dock watching the screening ceremony as the navy hospital ship USS Company, he decked lined with survivors of the Japanese suicide pilot's bombs off Okinawa, eased into port.

"Nuts!" he said. "That was his summation of the ceremony."

He had seen a quartet of movie actresses stand before a microphone and gush such greetings as:

"Well-o, gang, my w're sooooo proud too. I don't know what to say—except welcome home, gang Goody, goody."

"Gosh, huh," said the sailor. "Introduction of such 'famous actresses' was accompanied by the inevitable plug for her 'latest picture.'"

"Who the hell cares about her 'latest picture'?" demanded the sailor. "I'm here to see the boys who've been in the line."

"That does it! What business has a movie actress got with this? She's a girl who's been in the line."

"Only refreshing part of this Hollywood 'welcome' came when a girl got up, introduced herself, and proceeded to sing her head off the cheer of the returning servicemen."

The singer, Danni Shire, she didn't mention her 'latest picture.'"

Tokyo Warns Japs On U. S. Pamphlets

GUAM, June 4 (AP)—A current report by radio, and a half million pamphlets mailed daily from Superforts have brought a warning from Tokyo to the Japanese that just such propaganda efforts brought the downfall of Germany and Italy.

The American propaganda campaign against the enemy military chief, accelerated to full scale in the last month along with stepped-up Superfort fire raids, is according President Truman's call on the Japanese to surrender.

Apparent effectiveness of the campaign is indicated by the strong reaction of the enemy's radio propaganda.

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP)—Women are buying 69 per cent of the nation's civilian cigarette supply.

This is the finding of a survey by Robert S. Hainderson, sponsored by Fleming Hainderson Sales, New York cigarette manufacturers, among 18,000 retailers over the country.

There is no guarantee that buying and smoking are synonymous, but since the regular military supply eliminates a large proportion of male smokers it may be that women are smoking most of the cigarettes they buy.

The survey further showed that the average smoker gets only 50 per cent of the value of his cigarette.

To determine this, 60,000 cigarette packs from 100 different brands were taken to a house, theaters, restaurants, athletic clubs and movie houses.

They showed the average pack of cigarettes only one-tenth of a cigarette's worth of value.

Restaurant diners, who smoke part of a cigarette between courses, were shown to be most wasteful.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Regularly as the year rolls on there arises the controversy about the dress that are to be worn at graduation, and at the dance that is given each term end. Some of the girls have evening clothes that their mothers might well wear once in ordinary occasions. The idea who the group clothes want to be "normal" those who have none dissent sharply. Now what is to be done?

I always have settled it the same way. School is a community expression. It is a part of public life of the people and they are not given to it. They should not be made to feel out of place in their own house so graduation clothes are worn while that is perfect, but if some have no white dress then they wear what they have and nobody feels bad. Graduation is part of the school program and must stay inside it. The public attitude says to dress.

Dance Attire Up to Students

But the dance is different. The children need no attend if they do not wish. If he held outside the school we have nothing to say about it. Dress and feel no responsibility beyond reason that it is the custom of the parents and that a committee of parents and teachers are present. The children wear what they like and the place and the dress and have their own way to that extent. The majority buy.

Some girls will feel left out, or use they have not the dress, or the price, or the dancing, they wish to allow them to attend the party. They cannot help. There will be more a time when these young ones, of whatever degree of personality, influence, wealth or poverty, will be chosen out of some place, by someone. Better learn early to adjust oneself. Better learn early to take life's ups and downs in their proper proportions. Life does not end because one does not go to a dance. There will be many occasions, many opportunities, for many other pleasures, and power goes will usually. Leave something for the future.

Home Festivities Subtlety

It is not a bad idea for parents to arrange for festivities at home when the formal dance does not fit into their scheme of life and training. A group of young people can have a fine time dancing at home, enjoying the cake that mother bakes with it. Let her. If it can be had, it is quite as good, and better, served at home. The anybody can wear whatever he likes—wild enjoy himself into the bargain. A high school senior who makes a life and dress matter of dress has not been well schooled by experience but is still childish.

Western N. L. Teams One-Year Wonders? Battling St. Louis Browns Intend to Larn 'Em

Display Superiority

By JOE BRIDGEMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The National league's four eastern clubs today had lost their faith in Horace Greely's idea to young men to go west.

After yesterday's debacle when they lost six of seven games (one was suspended because of Pennsylvania's curfew laws) the senior league's eastern teams left the inhospitable west with an embarrassing record of only 17 victories in 62 games.

This compares with the American league's western clubs showing in the west of 31 wins against 30 defeats.

The league-leading New York Giants won six and lost eight in their last 14 games. The last 10 of their eight-game lead to 2 1/2 games over the second place Pirates who won 13 of their last 14, nine against the east.

The third place St. Louis Cardinals edged into third place by winning nine of their last 14 games, including yesterday's doubleheader with the Giants, 11-2 and 8-2.

Chicago (10th) edged Boston (11th) to third straight victory in the west.

Philadelphia's Red extended their winning streak to eight straight by winning Brooklyn twice 6-2 and 3-1. The doubleheader also lifted them to an even 500 basis, making six teams in the top with 500 or better.

The Pirates took their third straight one-run decision from Philadelphia, 1-0, in the eighth of a ten-inning game.

The second contest was won by Pittsburgh, 1-0, in the eighth of a ten-inning game.

The game will be concluded July 1.

Braves Win
Boston's Braves defeated the east's only victory, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 11-4, in the eighth of a ten-inning game.

The place New York Yankees retained their two-game lead in the manager-up Detroit Tigers in the American league.

The Yankees won the second game of the series, 4-2, for Hank Greenberg's 500th career hit.

Detroit and Boston exchanged a doubleheader.

Detroit, 4-0, behind Steve Grodzki's 11th homer.

Boston, 4-3, behind Steve Grodzki's 11th homer.

Philadelphia's Red extended their winning streak to eight straight by winning Brooklyn twice 6-2 and 3-1.

Sgt. Donald Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Black, husband of the former Yulih Hill, telephoned his family from Kentucky Thursday that he had arrived from overseas and would be here sometime this week. Sergeant Black was inducted in the army in March, 1943, and took his training at Fort Knox, Ky. He was overseas in 1944 and was in Gen. Patton's third army. He was wounded in action and received the purple heart. His previous two wounds were in 1942 and 1943, and he transferred into the air corps.
Mrs. William T. Martin recently returned from Philadelphia, where she has been with ART L. WILSON, Jr. Martin. They traveled for some time in Corpus Christi, Tex., where he took training in radio work, and later was in Maryland. Mrs. Martin is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant.

LEAD TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS

HOLD EVERYTHING

One of the first adjustments to marriage, whether the couple are together or apart, is to plan to live a kind of life they want. No livable house was ever built without a blueprint, no successful life without a reason.
The number of happy marriages can be increased when people plan their lives as they plan their days. Knowing what they want, what they must do to accomplish it, and how to go about it. Unhappiness is often the result of a lack of intelligence in the daily living. Boredom and failure are often the result of a kind of mental inertia which prevents from developing all sides of our personality and opening the locked doors of adventure. But no one ever unlocked those doors without a key, and the key to them all is a realistic plan for your marriage and for the future.
It is not unreasonable to hope

He can't ask you now!

... He's an American hero. After fighting bloody battles in the Pacific, he was home on leave two years ago.

... You may remember seeing his picture. His name is John Basilone, Marine Gunnery Sergeant. He traveled all over America, urging every American to buy more bonds.

... He said: "You don't know—you can't know—how much it means to the boys out there when they hear the folks back home have just put another War Bond Drive over the top."

... They gave him the Congressional Medal of Honor and offered him a commission. He didn't want it. "I'm a plain soldier," he said. "I want to stay one."

... Well, he stayed a plain marine—like Joe and Bill and the fellows down the street. He can't ask you to buy bigger bonds during the Seventh. He was killed a few weeks ago on Iwo, just after he had led his assault team to the edge of an airfield we needed desperately.

... We can't let him and all our other fighting heroes down. Remember, last year we had two War Loan Drives by this time. The Seventh is our personal call to another two drives in one. That's why our quota is large.

... We must meet it—we will meet it—for the hero of Iwo—for Victory—for pride in America.
