U.S. Halts Work On 95 Warships; More Cuts Seen

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Leasing many needs brought a halt today to the building of 95 ships costing $1,200,000,000 and army officers told of plans to cut war purchases by an amount exceeding $25,000,000,000 on a year-by-year basis.

Fifty-six combatant ships are included in the navy cut-back, which War Mobilizer John W. Snyder attributed to a review of what was required to whip Japan. There was no formal announcement of the coming program but Snyder made it clear that the real volume of cutbacks was yet to come.

The combatant vessels include the 45,000-ton battleship USS Iowa, the 27,000-ton cruisers USS Cleveland and USS Des Moines, and 160 ships still on program.

The navy now is left with a construction program of about 60 combatant ships, including one battleship, three 45,000-ton carriers, 15 heavy cruisers, nine light cruisers, 76 destroyers and 100 submarines.

A navy press officer said he had no information as to what might be done with the partially-built ships. Some of those affected by the order are at advanced stages of construction.

The navy high command has asked $150,000,000 a month will be needed in peacetime for a fleet larger than 90 to 95 per cent of the present fleet.

Other ships discussed included a cut of 98 to 100 per cent in the purchase of munitions, tractors and other equipment once the Japanese surrender is final. They made these other estimates:

Air force requirements, now running at $1,800,000,000 a month, to cut 60 per cent or about $1,100,000,000.

Food purchasing, expected to remain about the same heavy volume for a time at least.

Only paper cuts that much of the heavy estimated reductions in army buying equipment until the end of the year, he said.

In announcing the navy cutback, Snyder took over for the White House on a number of official news on reconversion. Other government agencies were told to keep their work programs on a war basis.

The meeting of Chairman J. A. King of the WPA, with newsmen, was held in the presence of a number of other officials.

Atomic Bomb On Hiroshima Now Obsolete

By BONNIE WILEY
 GUAM, Aug. 11 (AP)—The world's second atomic bomb was dropped on Nagasaki, and so obsolete that it immediately exploded in the air, dropping two days early on Hiroshima.

Scientists who were responsible for the manufacture of the bomb and who saw the fruition of nearly four years of extensive test in Santa Fe, N. M., and various island laboratories, and the crews of the B-29s that dropped the bomb all agreed that the fact was almost beyond their imaginations.

"I knew ahead of time—ever since last fall—that I had to do said Maj. Thomas W. Beahan, U. S. Army, N. C. bombardier in the B-29 which dropped the atomic bomb destroying 60 per cent of Hiroshima. "I felt a tremendous relief when the bomb was dropped. I felt that the atomic bomb was now obsolete."

Half of Dead In Rail Wreck Unidentified

MICHIGAN, N. D., Aug. 11 (AP)—Military, railroad and government officials, today sought the identity of more than half of the 34 persons known to have been killed Thursday night at the intersection of Chicago-to-Seattle empire builder collided near here.

Mrs. W. H. Murray, Port Snelling, Minn., executive officer, said burials suffered by the majority of the 17 persons who perished made identification difficult. In some cases bodies were so badly mangled they could be established only partially from scattered papers the wreck afforded, Murray added.

The first section engine had halted on a nearby boxcar on its tender when the crash occurred, according to C. W. Moore, Great Northern railway official. The impact left a steel shell of the combination passenger-observation car over the locomotive of the following train as a tent.

TRUMAN—President Truman must decide his first full-blown cabinet before trying to settle the future of the world, he must now refer a department...

... And Still Champion!

"WASHINGTON CALLING" BY MARQUIS CHILDS POT SHOTS

WASHINGTON—Release at long last of the successful development of an atomic explosion is news that is literally earth-shaking.

HOW THINGS APPEAR IN PEGGER'S ANGLE

NEW YORK—An army captain in the Pacific has written to ask whether it is true that to brave new world of the future, should he live to see it, he may be compelled to work for it...

PROTECTION, NOT POSSESSION

When President Truman said, at a flag-raising ceremony, "there is not a piece of territory that we want out of the war," he apparently was making an impromptu statement.

However, his words were inevitably examined with great care as a forecast of future policy, and among those who took a special interest in them were some members of our armed forces in the Pacific.

Roy W. Howard reports from the Pacific theater that many men have taken issue with their commander-in-chief in this matter.

Mr. Howard finds them disinclined to give up territory won at such cost, almost before the concrete of their new air strips has hardened.

His attitude is reasonable, and it is not impossible that Mr. Truman might find it so.

The President simply seems to have been repeating Woodrow Wilson's denial of imperialistic intentions.

At the same time, he is probably as conscious as anyone that the Wilson statement, though popular and well-intended, set a course which contributed to the failure of maintaining peace and the future of this country.

We know now that, as the world's greatest power, we must assume great responsibility for creating peace.

Our wear and tear are inseparable. Our responsibility is not finished when we join a world league for peace. We must be strong, vigilant and well protected.

It involves practical considerations, including the disposition of the strategic Pacific islands that Japan held before the war.

Some Washington new dealers, a columnist writes, were disappointed in Truman's failure to accept the people's "mandate" and follow the late President Roosevelt's program as closely as they would like.

The broad Roosevelt program is the Truman program and the people's program: swift and total victory, lasting peace, and maximum employment.

Mr. Truman must do the same, and he will make mistakes. He is not infallible, but he is certified for them as an individual acting on his own initiative.

Mr. Truman, pledged to support the Roosevelt program, was elected by a majority of the American people on Mr. Roosevelt's ticket.

Today Mr. Truman is President of the United States, as rightly and legally as if he had been elected.

LABOR—Here is the labor story.

Since 1938 the labor department has laced with the idea of appointing labor relations representatives in such foreign countries as Great Britain, France, Germany and Scandinavia.

Such quarrels were epidemic in the last administration. But in this instance the clash was between the labor and the business interests.

Ray Tucker is an American embassy and location around the world. It reflects once again Washington's realization that the working man has become a dominant influence on the domestic and international stage of the future.

DISPUTE—The lady played to Mr. Grew, and it was just a few days after Mr. Schweblach took his oath that he discovered that another function had been assigned to him.

Retention of 'Hiro' to Save Face for Nips

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The allied reply to Japan offer to surrender if the mikado were allowed to retain his sovereignty would seem to provide the Japanese government with the means to save face to complete the transition to a constitutional monarchy.

This face-saving not only is a matter of honor in the official code but in the present situation is much deeper. There is no telling how the Japanese public will react to the emperor, who not only is temporal but spiritual ruler as a fact, regarded by the people as a divine being.

Generous Gestures

The stipulation by the big four—America, Britain, Russia and China—that the supreme commander of the allied powers shall rule through the emperor's authority surely is no more than Japan would expect. The Japanese have known all along that allied military occupation of Japan would mean a military role during the period of the occupation. So as matter of fact the allies have made a remarkably generous gesture in offering to leave the emperor as a figurehead.

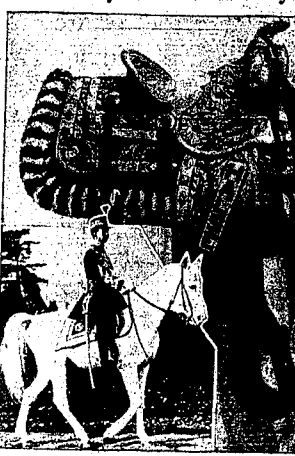

For the allied people who have held that the mikado should be deprived of his throne altogether, the offer is a most interestingly important stipulation.

The ultimate form of government of Japan still is in the hands of the Potsdam declaration, to be determined by the proposed will of the Japanese people.

Cardinal Tenets

There will be no self-determination, which is one of the cardinal tenets of the United Nations creed. The emperor will go. This will be the first time in all the centuries of Japanese history that the mikado has had a chance to vote on when form of government he desires.

Halsey's Saddle Ready

A saddle fit for an admiral who intends to ride down Tokyo's main street on Shirohito, the mikado's famous white horse. Halsey has been prepared in Reno, Nev., for Adm. William F. Halsey, decorated with 110 pieces of Nevada silver, and intricately loaded by saddlemakers, the outfit pictured above. It valued at $1000. It will be flown to the Pacific by naval air transport. Inset shows Shirohito, with Hirohito to the right.

By The Associated Press

Admiral William F. Halsey may not get his wish to ride Emperor Hirohito's famous white horse through the streets of Tokyo if the emperor remains on the throne.

The commander of America's mighty third fleet carrier task force, now in Japan waters, expressed his desire some time ago to ride the horse. Fifty citizens of Aliso, Cal., visited President Truman yesterday urging that the peace terms include delivery of the emperor's horse to the admiral.

The Reno, Nev., Chamber of Commerce asked the treasury department on June 22 for Halsey's measurements for a saddle. And on July 24, the highest met Vernon L. Ferris, Okla., Fla., now in the Alutian, completed plans to be sent to Halsey.

The matter was referred to the chamber's freight rate committee. If the body finds local interests affected, a chamber representative will attend the Boise session, James A. Spriggs, Jr., chamber secretary, said Saturday.

Controls Will Be Relaxed at Close of War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—At the close of the war, the government will relax controls on rationing, travel, and other matters. It will not relax controls until the end of all war-time controls immediately. But the controls will start to ease gradually. Citizens not only will find more of almost everything available to buy, but will also have more freedom in buying what they want.

There will be, for example, fewer tires in the ration board, for new tires and extra gasoline coupons.

Outlook Here is the rationing outlook: Gasoline—Rationing will be eliminated entirely within a short time after the war ends.

Tires—Rationing will be eliminated within a matter of months.

Shoes—Rationing to end very soon after V-J day.

Food—Rationing of new cars just going into production, might not even begin. Instead some system of financial rationing might be worked out between the government and the industry to meet the needs first.

Food—Rationing to continue for some time after the war ends. Military requirements will remain high during demobilization.

Food—Rationing will end within a few weeks, as soon as the navy's reduced demands are reflected on the coast supply.

Travel Controls to Lift

Shoes—Only all-burning rubber and other shoes will be rationed, and controls will be lifted, since rationing is based on a shortage of oil, rather than the shortage of shoes.

Travel restrictions: The easing of travel restrictions depends largely upon the army's demobilization plan. Sports—Professional and amateur—may be one of the first to benefit since these travel restrictions are on a purely voluntary basis.

Manpower: Selected services will stay in business to aid veterans in getting back into the job market. The drafting of men for military service will continue as has not been settled. This decision will be made by the President, military and congress.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Strache

Prayers and psalms were given by Helen Heis followed by a solo by Lena Larson, a vocal duet by June and Lucille Dunnington and a solo by Nona Jacobs.

Prayers were given by Winfield Hunt and Fred O. Derrington. The funeral sermon and obituary were read by Rev. Homer. Clifford Dunnington gave the dedication at the grave.

The service was in the Burley cemetery under the direction of the Burley funeral home. Pallbearers were John B. L. Norton, Cliff Preston, Riley Anderson, Jack Stevenson and De Wayne Anderson.

Flowers were from Sam Richardson, Mrs. Mary Alexander, Mrs. R. F. Miller, Mrs. M. J. Peterson, Mrs. Joe Walker, Mrs. John Hill and Mrs. Vocco Parker.

The funeral was held April 17, 1950 in Dabak county, Ill. After living in Iowa a while she moved to Cassia county with her husband August Strache, in 1904 homesteaded southeast of Declo.

The couple resided here on the farm until Mr. Strache's death in 1928 when she moved to Declo and lived there until the death of her husband.

She was found dead in her home on Monday, July 30, by neighbors. Deputy Sheriff Earl Allen investigated and then notified the coroner, Vern McCulloch.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ida Reed of Iowa, two brothers, Mrs. J. T. Welfare of Leyard, Idaho, and Mrs. George Mikkie of Fenwick, Calif., and several grandchildren. The body was held at the funeral home pending the arrival of relatives. Mrs. Mary Curtis, a granddaughter, and her husband arrived to take care of funeral arrangements.

Four More Pounds of Sugar For All Cut Short June 15

BOISE, Aug. 11 (AP)—Ration coupons for four pounds of additional flour saving sugar will be issued to persons in the Idaho OPA district, son of Mr. Barbara Murakami, 29-8-2, Hunt, Idaho, has been cited by the fifth army's 442nd Central Postal Directory for his part in the "Dirty Dozen" American combat team and awarded the combat infantryman badge for actual participation in combat during the campaign in Italy.

"Coupons for the additional sugar will be mailed out automatically from local office in plenty of time for the peach and late fruit marketing season," Anderson said.

Local boards will start mailing of coupons next Wednesday for 1-10210 pounds of sugar to 246,712 persons, he added.

"There is no need to make new applications or to call at your local board office, since files have been kept of everyone who applied for rationing sugar and received nine pounds of flour. These persons will be mailed coupons as soon as the board can process the files."

War's End to Bring Slight Sugar Rise

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Ending of the war with Japan will give civilians "a slight, only a slight increase in sugar for some time," a spokesman for the agriculture department said today.

"If the war ends soon, and the army is reduced rather rapidly to its prewar strength, the sugar allowance for civilians will be increased a small amount," he said.

Department figures show consumption of sugar in continental United States during the first six months of this year totaled 3,336,012 tons—or an increase of 122,289 tons over the same period in 1944.

This was despite ration cuts for both industrial and civilian use. In 1944, civilians were allotted 24 pounds per person while industrial use was set at 40 per cent of 1941. In addition, home canning allowances were cut for 1945.

The department estimates total stocks of sugar at 63,000 tons. July 1 were a "dangerously low level," it said. Stocks at the end of previous year were 1,268,223 tons and in normal years averaged around 1,200,000 in mid-July.

Paraglider Man Gets Decoration

DECO, Aug. 11—For heroic performance of duty last February on Luzon, Sgt. Harold E. Hura has recently been awarded the Bronze Star medal by the 11th airborne division.

He is son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hura, Declo.

The citation said: "With troops of the 18th paratrooper division, Hura distinguished himself during the Luzon invasion January 31 while an amphibious group was landing at Nasugbu on the southeastern coast. Next day when forward elements of the unit were pinned down by hostile machine gun fire, and in a poor position to return fire effectively, Hura volunteered to lead a patrol on an expert observation point from which he successfully directed mortar fire on the enemy guns. Hura's role was thereby enabled to return to his unit."

The daring initiative and devotion to duty displayed by Sergeant Hura are in keeping with the traditions of the military service."

Sergeant Hura was awarded the Bronze Star in February, 1950, and went overseas in May, 1944.

5,000,000 to Lose Jobs in War Plants

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Government officials estimated today that perhaps 5,000,000 manufacturing workers will lose their jobs within 60 days after Japan surrenders.

This news was in sharp contrast with another government prospect—the end of gasoline rationing in two or three weeks after V-J day and elimination of travel restrictions a few months later.

The estimate of the cut in manufacturing employment, made by qualified officials, who asked emergency officials, would trim by 65 per cent the total of around 8,000,000 workers now engaged in war production.

Of the 5,000,000 slated for release, it was said that a great number, perhaps half—would leave the labor market and would not be classed as jobless.

The others would be added to the current unemployment roll to swell the total to around 4,000,000 persons.

How long it will take for the majority of those to be absorbed in civilian production is anybody's guess, the officials said, although they look for openings quickly.

They said also that to doubt the war manpower commission would be called upon for a vigorous program of postwar job mobilization to reduce unemployment as rapidly as possible.

Wednesday, Russia threw her arms into the war against Japan.

Thursday, while a second atomic bomb slammed the Japanese, President Truman warned them: Surrender or be destroyed. Friday, the Japanese offered to surrender if they could be spared their emperor.

Saturday, the allies agreed to accept the surrender offer on condition that the emperor be made responsible to the allied victors.
