TOKYO, Dec. 10 (AP)—Emancipation of the Japanese farmer was ordered today in a directive issued by Gen. Douglas MacArthur calling for abolition of the feudal system of land ownership which long has held rural Japan in economic bondage.

The Japanese government was directed to accomplish the agricultural reforms in plans which must be submitted to supreme allied headquarters by March 15, 1946.

It was understood that allied authorities for reform proposals which had been advanced so far by the Japanese government were inadequate.

The directive requires the following measures for improving the lot of the farmer:

1. Transfer of land ownership from absentee owners to the land operators.
  2. Provisions for purchase of farm lands from non-operating owners at equitable rates.
  3. Provisions for tenant purchase of land through annual payments within means of the tenant income.
  4. Provisions for reasonable protection of tenants, including restriction to tenancy status including tenant farm ownership, reasonable interest rates, safeguards against exploitation by processors and distributors and measures establishing agricultural and produce prices.
- The directive stated:
- "The Japanese government shall remove the economic obstacles to revival and strengthening of democratic tendencies, essential for the dignity of the farmer, and destroy the economic bondage which has enslaved the Japanese farmer to centuries of feudal oppression."
- The government is directed to take measures to insure that those who till the soil shall have more equal opportunity to enjoy the profits of their labor.
- The purpose of this order is to exterminate parasitism which has long blighted the agrarian structure of a land where almost half of the total population is engaged in husbandry."

New Ambush Brings Plane Japs' Pearl Harbor Blow Called Surprise to Nazis

BATAVIA, Dec. 10 (AP)—British warplanes smashed three small Indonesian villages, 80 miles southeast of Batavia, today in reprisal for the kidnapping of a "Dutch" conscript in the area Sunday.

The British convoy, en route from Batavia over the mountainous terrain to Bandung, was attacked suddenly last night by 1,000 Indonesian guerrillas who sprang from holes and began throwing grenades. Others followed on foot.

In the ensuing battle the British suffered 50 casualties while the guerrillas lost 40.

The attack, heaviest yet made in Java, lasted an hour and left six British airmen killed.

First planes dropped leaflets warning the villages to evacuate. Then they dropped incendiary bombs and rockets, which blasted buildings on both sides of the highway.

Col. Thurston followed and dropped 600 pounds of bombs, hit the village and destroyed the bridge and causing heavy damage. Two squadrons then strafed the area.

After the British had dropped 100 pounds of bombs on special targets, the British returned to the base.

Col. Thurston, commander of the 1st Squadron, 6th Cavalry, said that the guerrillas had been brought before the four-power tribunal and declared: "I do not believe that I have made myself a fool."

The tail section of a Japanese plane was seen on the ground near the village.

"Blue Baby," After Diverting Of Artery, Doing Fairly Well

BALTIMORE, Dec. 10 (AP)—Judy Hayden, the two-year old "blue baby" who underwent a delicate heart operation two days ago, was reported today "fairly well" today at Johns Hopkins hospital.

Doctors reported improvement in Judy's bodily coloring, which had been blue because of her undeveloped heart. They said she was doing "as well as can be expected." It will be another three days before they can determine whether she is completely out of danger.

The operation took place Saturday. It entailed diverting an artery from another part of Judy's body and attaching it to her lungs to stop the blood supply from her heart. It took two hours.

Without the operation, Judy was expected to die within a year. It is expected that she will be able to run and play like any normal youngster.

The case was the 65th of its kind handled at Johns Hopkins, the only hospital that performs the operation. About 80 per cent have been successful.

Nanking Sees Discomforts Of Crowding

By JAMES D. WITTE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10 (AP)—Nanking, designated by China's government as the new capital, is likely to repeat Chongking's history when it is overcrowded and crowded.

This is according to a special dispatch from Special Agent A. J. correspondent in Chongking, where winter rains and ice are making the thoughts of nearly every one toward the impending return to Nanking.

The move back is expected to take place by March or April, and in the meantime the Chinese have announced that the executive plan will be to build Nanking by Dec. 15 and that Premier T. V. Soong and 1,500 government workers will go to Nanking fairly soon. It is likely, however, the government will remain in Chongking until early spring.

Some foreign diplomats, looking ahead to the time when they will follow the government down the river, have visited Nanking on peace hunting expeditions. Some nations, like Britain and America, have Nanking as a goal, which probably will have to be repaired. But many countries doubt that their diplomats figure that the cost of building is going to be high. One estimate has placed it at $50,000 in U. S. money for a fifty-story structure.

Correspondents, too, are thinking about going back to Nanking, but this week was advised by P. H. Chang, the cabinet secretary, that they would be more comfortable in Chongking this winter.

"It's very cold in Nanking," he said, "and there's no coal or other comfort."

Moore reports, meanwhile, that some of the diplomats are summing up about what they consider the "difference and incomprehension" of the Chinese foreign office in helping them to find suitable quarters in Nanking.

Stassen, Bricker Frequently Named As GOP '48 Candidates

CHICAGO, Dec. 10 (AP)—The names of Harold G. Stassen of Minnesota and John W. Bricker of Ohio popped up most frequently in lobby conversations at a 1948 GOP ticket at the Republican national committee meeting.

The discussion of potential presidential and vice-presidential candidates was held despite the fact that the official program had no room for any such speculation.

Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois was credited widely with having bid for second-place spot on the ticket when he talked turkey to committee members about the party's ought to go to win the 1948 campaign.

Informal lobby conversations on possible candidates concerned themselves to a large extent with Stassen and Bricker, former Ohio governor who has been mentioned often in the past, including Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who ran unsuccessfully last year.

T. Russell Sprague, New York national committeeman, and 1946 adviser of Dewey, told a reporter in Stassen's office that he had heard a lot of talk among the Republicans about Stassen and Bricker.

Stassen served as a captain in the navy and was one of the American delegates to the United Nations conference in San Francisco.

Mrs. George T. Geringer of Omaha said she had heard a lot of talk among the Republicans about Stassen and Bricker.

Stassen and Bricker, former Ohio governor who was the vice-presidential nominee in 1944, would "make a fine combination," several Republicans said.

At all one should expect, in Twin Falls at Walgreen's and Traylor's.

Cassia Man New Head of Land Office

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 (AP)—Frank Olson of Bridge, Ida., was named today as federal land office registrar at Blackfoot today after Sen. Taylor, D. Ida., told the senate Olson once served a 30-day term for "bootlegging."

Taylor forced a voice vote for Olson after Sen. C. C. Goetz, D. Ida., who recently resigned as president, had objected to confirmation under unanimous consent procedure.

Olson previously had been deferred at the request of Sen. Hickenlooper, R. Ia., pending Goetz's arrival.

Taylor, senior senator, said he had known Olson since 1937 and he is "a splendid type of man."

Olson asked to be recorded as voting "no."

Taylor said a civil service investigator discovered Olson had served a 30-day sentence in 1937 under the Volstead act for "bootlegging."

The senator said the federal land office is "a good citizen" and member of the school board and his wife is a postmistress.

Taylor said, and the editor reported Olson "popular, a talented writer and an authentic humorist."

The senator said Olson had a large family of 10 or 11 children in "Idaho and farm."

"I sympathize with the man," Taylor said, "and I support him."

His father was able to get ahead financially because he had the authority to support and that's how I feel about Frank now. He's a capable man."

Mr. marriages, according to an ancient Roman belief, were unlucky.

One trouble is that men with skills are finding jobs here, and then having to choose between living alone in a bedroom, or coming home to the family, and perhaps finding no job.

One vet wrote a local paper a pathetic note in which he pointed out that he had "good-bye" to his wife three years ago, and he doesn't want to do it again. He has offers of

Report On the War

By General George C. Marshall

Biennial Report of the Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army 1943 to 1945, to the Secretary of War

This is the 20th of 42 installments of material selected from General Marshall's report on the winning of World War II.

TURN OF THE TIDE

The tide of battle began to turn when the U. S. third army brought its full weight to bear on the southern flank of the salient, when General Patton stopped the advance of the German columns with available armor and was attacking on a two-prong front by 22 December with the 1st and 3rd corps. This shift from offensive across the Saar to a general attack in southern Luxembourg was a brilliant military achievement, including corps and army staff work of the highest order. Elements of the 5th division were fighting in the Saar between 20 and 22 December, and were in contact with the enemy north of the Saar river by midnight. General Patton's 6th army group was required to assume responsibility for the entire front from Saarbrücken north, adding over 25 miles to its already extended front. In order to defend this front adequately, full use was made in the second half of the month of the armor of the infantry regiments of three divisions which were just arriving to the theater from the United States in advance of their division headquarters and supporting troops.

The weather cleared to favor the enemy between 23 and 26 December, permitting our overwhelming tactical air forces to strike terrific blows at the German armor and supply columns. On 26 December the 4th armored division relieved the 5th division by midnight. The German salient was being assaulted from the north, west, and south. At the point of extreme penetration, the enemy had driven more than 30 miles into the American lines, but he was unable to shake loose our valiant units fighting desperately to hold the critical shoulders of the bulge. The depth of his advance was accordingly limited, and it was possible to interdict by artillery fire all the important supply roads for the leading troops at the tip of the salient.

Battle Fought to Enemy
The reduction of the Ardennes salient, our first and third armies in heavy fighting under very winter conditions, but progress was steady and by the end of January the bulge was eliminated at a cost which later proved fatal to the enemy. In the single day of 22 January, the air force destroyed or damaged more than 4,000 pieces of heavy equipment, including locomotives, rail cars, tanks, motor and transport vehicles.

The Germans gained an initial tactical success and imposed a delay of about six weeks on the allied offensive in the north, but failed to seize their primary objectives of Liege and Namur. They lost 220,000 men, including 110,000 prisoners, and more than 1,400 tanks and assault guns. The operation was carried out by the fifth and sixth armor armies, supported by the seventh army, thus stripping the rest of all strategic reserves and seriously depleting the resources required to meet the powerful Soviet offensive in January.

"Possibly more serious," reported General Eisenhower, "was the widespread disillusionment resulting from the failure to seize any really important objective and the realization that this offensive for which every effort had been brought to bear and on which great hopes

Eclipse of Moon Slated On Dec. 18

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A total eclipse of the moon—the first visible in the United States since 1941—will occur the night of Dec. 18.

If skies are clear, the eclipsed moon will look like a giant red Christmas tree bulb. Even at total eclipse the moon is never completely darkened by the shadow cast when the earth comes between the sun and the moon.

Rays of the sun are "bent" in the earth's atmosphere so that some light actually reaches the earth. The eclipsed moon shows up as red in the sky because the red light from the sun gets through the earth's atmosphere eastward. Blue light is largely absorbed.

During a total eclipse of the sun, the sun is virtually "blacked out" because the moon, which comes between us and the sun, has no atmosphere to bend the sun's rays.

The eclipse will start at 8:30 p.m. mountain standard time, and will end at 9:30 p.m. The period of totality will be about one hour and 20 minutes.

Observers on the west coast may see the partially-eclipsed moon rising while the sun is still visible.

Dr. Charles G. Abbot, of the Smithsonian Institution says the eclipse will be the first total one to be visible somewhere in the world almost every year. In 1944, however, there was only one.

According to Abbot, astronomers don't get excited about eclipses of the moon because there is no further scientific data to be gained as far as is known.

New Governor Drops in

Because most Magic Valley folk wouldn't recognize their new governor when they see him, a Times-News cameraman dropped in Saturday night while Gov. Arnold Williams and Mrs. Williams were dropping in on the Rogers hotel. Above, Governor Williams talks on the telephone.

Here are Governor Williams and Mrs. Williams, Hesburg residents who stepped up to the positions of governor and first lady when Charles C. Goss resigned to become senator. Both are enthusiastic boosters of Idaho's scenic attractions.

British Troops More Troop In Java Area

BATAVIA, Java, Dec. 10.—The British were reported to have high sources today to have decided to bring in whatever reinforcements are necessary to restore order and guarantee Dutch sovereignty in the Netherlands East Indies.

The plan, disclosed as new clashes flared in three Japanese cities, was said to include bringing in Dutch troops as well as more British forces.

This decision, which apparently rules out any consideration of Indonesian demands for complete independence, was said to have been made at the Anglo-American conference Thursday between Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten and British, French and Dutch commanders.

A high British spokesman said Lt.-Gen. Sir Philip Christison, allied commander in the Indies, was empowered to "restore and maintain order" to permit "constitutional reform and a measure of self-government for the Indonesians within the framework of the Netherlands Kingdom."

The Indonesian already have rejected a Dutch offer for local self-government and are insisting upon complete independence.

The Dutch news agency Anelo quoted Dr. Hubertus J. Van Mook, acting governor general, however, as saying the door still was open for discussion with Indonesian leaders.

Van Mook, who headed the Dutch delegation at the Singapore conference, said: "I am a much greater pessimist than you are, but I believe, this time, that direct negotiations between the Dutch and Indonesians will succeed in the near future."

An informed source, who cannot be quoted by name, said the new plan called for use of a large number of Dutch troops as well as British reinforcements, with the Dutch assuming the task of holding the various objectives after the British have taken them.

Brackett Elected By Filer Grange

FILER, Dec. 10.—Filer Grange elected Robert Brackett as master. Other officers named are: Jay Cobb, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Sharp, lecturer; Clyde Van Auden, steward; Clifton Dougherty, assistant steward; Mrs. Clinton Doughty, secretary; Mrs. Elsie Williams, reporter. It was voted to send Christmas boxes to Bushnell Hospital. The charter was draped for Mrs. E. H. Harding.

If the governor could do it with the stroke of a pen, he would see that Idaho arranged an adequate publicity program to inform tourists of the many scenic and recreational spots in the state. He wants centered plan toward that end.

Chinese Reds Opposing Any Foreign Hold

By JOHN ROBERICK
YENAI, Dec. 8.—Delayed by Gen. Peng Teh-huai, vice-commander in chief of the Chinese communists, declared today the communists "definitely oppose" any country assuming a sphere of influence in any part of China.

Peng said he recognized there were elements and individuals in America—such as Patrick Hurley, recently resigned ambassador to China, former President Herbert Hoover and Sen. Arthur Vandenberg—who feared the Chinese communists would affiliate with Britain, Russia, but asserted that their grounds for such an assumption "never have been made clear."

"The position of the Chinese communists remains still for a free, independent and democratic China," he told newsmen.

"Regard the question objectively and you will find that the Soviet Union does not want a sphere of influence in Manchuria. This she stated in the Sino-Soviet pact. However, there is a growing suspicion among the Chinese people that the policy represented by Hurley and (Lieut.-Gen. Albert C.) Wedemeyer in China is mistakenly imperialist. We hope this is only a suspicion, not a reality," (Wedemeyer, commanding American forces in China, has been accused by the communists of being partisan to the central government.)

Peng said the communists anxiously awaited the arrival of Gen. George C. Marshall, recently named to succeed Hurley. They want to learn his policy regarding disarming of Japanese and to mark time until "peace talks" get under way. Chinking before making any settlement moves against Peking and Tientsin where, they assert, many Japanese remain under arms. "Wherever Japanese and puppets remain armed in China, we are determined to annihilate them," he stated.

Factor and Kweilin in Szechuan province could be taken any time but the communists do not intend to do so, Peng said, because of U.S. willingness to spread civil war. (Both have been reported besieged by the communists.)
