Atomic Control Police of World Urged for CIO

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Secretary Byrnes called upon the United Nations assembly today to "approve promptly" the creation of a special commission on control of atomic energy and to "pledge the use of atomic power for a world police force."

Opening the first general policy debate in the assembly, the secretary of state pleaded full cooperation of the United States in the new world organization. He spoke after the assembly broke a deadlock over the 18th and final seat on its important economic and social council.

Urges Formula Approved

"The assembly today to approve the formula for the atomic commission drafted at the Moscow foreign ministers conference, Byrnes declared:

"We must not fail to derive the maximum benefit from this great discovery to use for human welfare and not for more deadly human warfare."

"We should begin upon this task immediately. The resolution of the assembly raised by the discovery of atomic energy is inseparably linked with the problem of security. It is a matter of primary concern to all nations."

Jointly Sponsored

The resolution to create the commission was jointly sponsored by the United States, Britain, Russia, China, France and India. In effect it would turn the atomic problem over to the security council for solution. This time on the security council, which met today, would be the first time that the United States and the United Nations in the development of the atomic bomb, the United States and the United Nations in the development of the atomic bomb, the United States and the United Nations in the development of the atomic bomb.

Argentina Hit As Industries Have Lockout

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 14 (AP)—Business and industrial leaders shut down the commerce of Argentina today in the face of a government warning that any political uprisings connected with the lockout would be crushed.

The lockout began at midnight in just about every business in the country. A government decree issued by President Justo today ordered the lockout to last for three days.

Factories, department stores, grocers and bakers were among the business institutions planning to remain shut. Most houses were to be shut for the duration.

Business Stays

Almost total paralysis of Argentine business life was expected. Business leaders said they would maintain the lockout for three days.

Factories, department stores, grocers and bakers were among the business institutions planning to remain shut. Most houses were to be shut for the duration.

Two Tough Problems Facing Congressmen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Congressmen returned from their holiday vacation today to tackle the immediate problem of army demobilization strikes.

House and senate were called to order at noon for the second session of the 75th congress.

Telephone Tieup Ends As Workers Retire Parley May Avert Steel Strike

The labor scene today was its brightest in several days as the nation's strike-hampered telephone system began returning to normal and government leaders looked for a steel industry wage settlement.

Extension of Price Control Looms in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Word went out today to the re-opening congress today that President Truman will ask a full year's extension of price control. "That would carry the act to June 30, 1917, and that reaction among returning senators is that Mr. Truman will get his request, possibly in modified form."

In his first address to the people Jan. 3, the president declared that price and rent controls will be maintained "for many months to meet the overall picture."

Sen. McNamara, D. Ark., said he was not sure if any law would be returned longer than that—two of three years until supply catches up with demand.

Sen. McNamara, D. Ark., said he was not sure if any law would be returned longer than that—two of three years until supply catches up with demand.

Needs Aid

A senator with White House contacts said a full year's extension would be asked quickly by Mr. Truman's state-of-the-union message which is to be read next Thursday.

Todd of the development, Sen. McNamara, D. Ark., said he was not sure if any law would be returned longer than that—two of three years until supply catches up with demand.

County Police Leader Picks Areas' Chiefs

The county committee conducting the local March of Dimes drive will meet at 8 p. m. today in the Chamber of Commerce office, Mackey E. Brown, chairman of the group, announced.

With the first day of the drive under way today, several local county chairmen and organizations have been appointed. O. J. Bethune, county chairman, announced that the county committee will be held on Tuesday.
