GM, CIO Electrical Union Sign to End Walkout of 25,000

Another major break in the log-jam of strikes tying up reconversion came yesterday when General Motors corporation announced a strike of 25,000 CIO electrical workers in its five electrical division plants had been settled on the basis of an SIOH DRAINS HARD OPEN SECRED OF THE PARSIS OF AN IRS 2 cents an HOUR wage increase. A few hours earlier some 7,000 CIO members voted to end their strike against Western Union in New York City, and a White House spokesman reported good progress in attempts
