ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 23 (AP)—Russia lost in a move before UNRRA today to prevent discussions of the manner in which Soviet troops are requisitioning land and other resources in Austria.

It was the second instance today of Europe's post-war political irritations cutting across the purely relief duties assigned to UNRRA.

Earlier Poland and the United Kingdom indulged in charges and counter-charges about the manner in which refugees were being cared for in Europe.

Stage Drivers Walkout Over Wage Dispute

PORTLAND, Ore., March 23 (AP)—Washington Motor Coach company bus lines through the northwest were idle today on a wage dispute. Harold Oates, agent for the 230 APL workers, said the union walkout was called because the company failed to include 20 per cent an hour wage bonus granted Feb. 9 in yesterday's pay checks. He said runs throughout the area were halted by mid-morning.

The company was leaving here by the Yakima, Wash., at 12:30 a.m. today were the first affected. Demands Not Met

Company President C. H. Fitzgerald reported at Seattle last night that "we can't meet the union's demands." Earlier a company spokesman denied the firm had granted the pay boost and reported the union had refused to place the dispute in arbitration. The union said the new rate was at $1.65 an hour.

In Spokane T. S. Beeghly of Portland, lobbyist for the union, said for the index each union, said: "We will say until the agreement is reached we will not be in a position to negotiate another agreement unless that one is lived up to."

About 100 buses operating in Washington, Idaho, Oregon and Montana were tied up by the strike. Beeghly said buses on the highways at the time were driven to nearest division points.

Harry H. Lewis, manager of the Seattle office of the U. S. conciliation service, said "we are ready to mediate at any time, but they have had no requests from the company or the union."

C. B. Fitzgerald, president of the line, said the company decided against requesting this wage for fear of "antagonizing the union."

Oates said the union was not making the concession to go to work. "If the company refuses to live up to its word," he declared, "I don't see that there's anything to conclude."

Buhl Is Host to Local Rotarians

BURL, March 23.—The Burl Rotary club held ladies' picnic with Twin Falls Rotarians and their family members at the Burl hotel. The meeting was in the largest hall, beginning with a dinner served by the ladies of the 12th class. Dick Wells, Purcell, past international president of Rotary, was the speaker of the evening, and remarked on the fact that Rotary had functioned even in the countries at war, with some of them never missing a meeting. "Rotary is a service for all people and is religious," said Wells. "It is a group where everyone can get together and talk over whatever questions of the day there are to be discussed."

An orchestra from Twin Falls played during the dinner hour. Other numbers on the program were two vocal solos by Mrs. Merle Neizer, with Mr. Neizer at the piano. Hattie Barker, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the evening, President E. Leslie Buhl, of the Twin Falls group, with about forty Rotarians and their ladies were present. About thirty Burl Rotarians and their ladies, were also at the highly successful meeting.

Soviet People Laud Stalin's Boost of UNO

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW, March 23 (AP)—Russia men in the street voiced approval today of Generalissimo Stalin's expression of confidence in the United Nations and his assurance that other nations nor their armies want war.

"Stalin answered thoughtfully that everyone has been thinking—thoughts they have been thinking but failing to say," said a chauffeur.

"That's the kind of answer everyone has been hoping someone would make," said a policeman.

"People all over the world have been afraid of one another. They do not want war and I believe they are now and soon to feel better."

"The one only real peace," said a cook. "They are not interested in war. War brings only disaster and unhappiness to Russia as well as to the rest of the world."

Protest, organs of the communist party, only failing to mention the communist's question, first place in the race on its front page, brought off its head by the "no war and no slavery" both at the top of the page under black headlines.

The government newspaper, Izvestia, also gave top place on the front page to the question and answer, printing them across two-thirds of the page under the headline, "France never had a head in the no war and no slavery."

Red Star, the army newspaper, and other Moscow newspaper publications gave similar prominence to the story.

No Worry About Housing Shortage With This

No matter where he goes, the housing shortage won't bother Warren N. Skinner, above, who constructed this home "home" on the rear of his 1938-model Buick touring sedan. Skinner plans a lengthy vacation trip this summer, with no worries about hotel reservations. (Staff photo-engraving)

Local Resident Builds Unique Home on Back of Touring Car

By TOM JOHNSON
During the past few weeks, when lots of people were sitting around grilling about a housing shortage, Warren N. Skinner, now doing something about it, was building a home on the back of his 1938-model Buick touring sedan.

He took a 1938-model Buick touring sedan, picked up each end, made of cedar and wood, and built him of a nice durable "camp wagon." In his spare time, that is.

Now, however, he has a comfortable, air-conditioned home on wheels, right alongside the car. The car is a 1938-model Buick touring sedan, and the home is a 1938-model Buick touring sedan.

He is planning on using it as a home on wheels, and is planning on using it as a home on wheels.

U of I Signs Dr. Berry to Be Educator

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW, March 23—Appointment of Dr. May M. Berry, since 1941 superintendent of Moscow public schools, as professor of secondary education at the University of Idaho, has been announced by Dean J. F. Wilson of the school of education. Dr. Berry's appointment, effective Sept. 1, was confirmed by the university board of regents at its recent session in Boise. He will also be a visiting faculty member in the 1946 summer school.

In addition to Dr. Berry to his staff, the school education has secured one of the world's outstanding specialists in the field of secondary education, commented Dean Wilson. "He will be particularly valuable because of his many years of experience in schools in all parts of the country."

Now that Idaho is making an extensive study of the school system and is planning to strengthen it, the university is fortunate to have on its staff a man who knows secondary education so well, Dr. Berry said.

Dr. Berry received his bachelor's degree from Illinois, where he earned a master's degree from Columbia university, and his doctorate from Stanford. In his advanced degree work he specialized in secondary education.

He served for two years in Oregon and Washington public schools before coming to Idaho. Following World War I, in which he served in the army, he was principal of schools at Fort. His next post was in Caldwell, Idaho, where he was principal of the high school during the next two years. He held a similar post in the Idaho Falls senior high school. He became superintendent of the public schools in 1941.

In addition to his teaching duties, Dr. Berry will serve as a consultant throughout the state in the reorganization of secondary schools and in the formation of plans for the reorganization of consolidated high school districts. Dean Wilson announced "He will also assist in the reorganization of high school courses of study."

Dr. Berry will have both an office and a laboratory. He said "Farmers should plant one crop after the other, but not for harvest until fall. That way fresh vegetables can be grown throughout the summer."

Nation's Car Industry Sees Output Climb

By DAVID J. WILKIE
DETROIT, March 23.—The nation's car industry, which has averaged 175,000 passenger cars a year for this year, will make approximately 200,000 more in the remaining months of 1946, if no further major work stoppages interfere. In 1947, with a contemplated model change in the early spring, probably will number close to 250,000 units. This total probably represents the industry's capacity in output, shipping and distribution.

This expectation, which is generally held by most of the industry's executives, all emphasize their realization of the vast availability of material, parts and labor.

What also has for 1946 is regarded as an industry's "year of the car." In 1946 and 1947 will see cars of all types and new cars at an average of about 100,000 per year, with the number of new cars which will be sold in 1947 expected to be about 100,000 per year. This figure is held as a goal, despite the fact that the industry has built up a backlog of more than 100,000 cars.

The backlog of some of the experts is calculated on the basis of the fact that new cars, not those which need them.

With the possible exception of General Motors, the car makers expect to be back at full production levels around July 1. For Ford and Chrysler, that means around July 15, and for the other two, around July 20. Chrysler production acceleration beyond that date probably will be based on the basis of the supply situation.

GM Prospects Good

General Motors, whose Idaho plant turned out a new car for 123 days before the end of the year, is expected to step up output rapidly now the Cadillac, Chevrolet, Buick, Oldsmobile and Pontiac lines again are rolling. All have heavy accumulations of parts and sub-assemblies and no doubt the weeks the factories were closed.

Little head about any of the discussion about the effect of price increases on consumer demand is in progress, it may be the "lower priced, better value models." Ford and GM disclosed neither are under consideration.

It has been rumored that those units, whose planning at least is well advanced, are expected with the export market as a major consideration. Details of their design have been carefully guarded, but a low horsepower engine in addition to their lower retail cost would be all that was necessary to make them a competitive factor in the European and other foreign markets, where the tax on horsepower rating is an important consideration in the average car buyer.
