HOUSE for SALE To SERVICEMAN

Due to shortages of materials equipment and supplies I am stopping construction work "for the duration" on my resort, Happy Landing, in Hagerman vailey and am selling the ONE house we were able to complete.

This Is a Brand New, well constructed 16 x 22 dwelling com-plete with built-in cabinets and sink. It is ready to move and wing addition may be added if more room is needed.

If You Are Interested in buying a house to move see this cot-tage at Happy Landing on Highway 30 just east of the Thousand Springs Airpark and mail your bid immediately to Harold R. Harvey, Bubl.

13) in feliors at the Hore explained it, then you add the needs of returning servicemen to normal civilian demand, plus the difficulty of obtaining material and labors, waste for a logistic problem econ FLORSHEIM finds it tough to roke.

It is a problem, but with your help it can be solved. If the shoes you are wearing have any service left, why not hold off buying new ones for just a little longer? Sooner than you think, new Florsheims will be arriving here in sufficient quantity to take care of everyone . . . and remember, Florsheim quality is worth waiting for.
