Probe by Grand Jury Ordered in Wreck of Trains

CHICAGO, April 27 (AP)—A grand jury investigation was ordered today of a Burlington railroad wreck that killed 44 persons at Naperville as the railroad opened its own inquiry into the worst disaster in the line's history.

The grand jury investigation was ordered by State's Attorney Lev Danahy of Du Page county after railroad officials and train crew members passed up his scheduled inquiry at Naperville to attend the railroad's hearing here.

Danahy, describing the railroad inquiry as "a rehearsal of evidence," interrupted the Chicago hearing to serve subpoenas directing railroad officials and crewmen to appear before the Du Page county grand jury at Wheaton on Tuesday.

The prosecutor said at Naperville he was "not entirely satisfied" that W. W. Haines, 65-year-old engineer on the Burlington Exposition train, "is to bear the entire blame."

He also said other persons must be held as much to blame as the engineer, and that the railroad's own inquiry was "a rehearsal of evidence."

The Burlington train crashed into the rear of the high-speed train when the high-speed train made an unexplained stop at Naperville, 10 miles west of here, at 1 p. m. Thursday.

Haines, who suffered a leg wound, was taken to a hospital and is now in critical condition.

Choking on 'Pop' Nearly Fatal to Fairfield Boy, 14

FAIRFIELD, April 27 (AP)—A bottle of soda pop nearly cost the life of Lee Edwards, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Edwards.

Young Edwards took one gulp out of the bottle and suddenly choked. His father worked his arms and pounded his back for several minutes but he sank into unconsciousness.

The improvement program includes removal of the present and inadequate wooden railing and installation of new steel railing.

The two-foot walkway will be extended out from the side of the present structure so that the final inside measurement will be 20 feet.

Improvements will also include the four present hazards that now exist: namely: The rough surface which has a tendency to throw traffic off the bridge.

Moderate Program of Price Controls Sought by Senate

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—Senators Taft, R., Ohio, and Austin, R., Va., took the lead today in organizing senate Republicans to support what they termed a "moderate" program of extending price controls.

Taft, chairman of the minority steering committee, told a reporter the Republicans hope to enlist enough Democratic backing to beat off what he called "irresponsible last-minute amendments" and push through a planned-invoice program which would curtail some OPA authority but retain major anti-inflation controls.

Austin declared in a separate interview that he and senators of like views "want to save the necessary controls but to provide for relaxation of those controls as fast as the war-to-peace timetable will permit."

Taft said Republican members of the banking committee will try to get together on the draft of a program early next week.

As outlined tentatively by Taft, the projected Republican program would revise a house-approved "ceiling" amendment to provide that OPA must fix price ceilings which would give manufacturers a margin over cost of major items similar to that in a certain prewar period.

Robbers of Duce Grave Not Caught

ROME, April 27 (AP)—The first anniversary of Benito Mussolini's execution today found an intensive search continuing for grave robbers, presumably fascists, who took his remains from a potter's field in Milan.

Luigi Ferrari, chief of Italian police, declared today in the Rome press tonight that Mussolini's body had been found near untried, and there were no new developments.

A year after his death there still are two versions of Mussolini's execution, neither of which is official.

One version which was given wide circulation by the Italian press at the time is that the dictator was taken with his mistress, Clara Petacci, on a lonely country road near Duce.

Another version is that he died in a mass execution at Dongo of two fascists led by the partisans while he was fleeing from Milan.

Nazi Leaders Deny Split at Crimes Trial

SUENBURG, April 27 (AP)—Council for all defendants on trial before the international military tribunal today in an emphatic denial that there was any split among them, and pledged themselves against any efforts to spread Nazi or anti-Nazi propaganda during the trial.

A statement, in which all German attorneys involved have been included, declared that reports of "important divisions" were completely false.

The denial followed charges, aired before the court this week, that the defendants were plotting to assassinate Hermann Goering, the Nazi minister of war, to a "dangerous thing" and a "confession" of Dr. Hans Frank, who had been transmitted by Goering's attorney to Schacht's attorney.

Goering allegedly sought to prevent such charges, aimed to prevent testimony concerning the massacre in 1944 of the Jews of Poland, which was the basis for the charges against Goering's role as war minister.

The trial ended, and Hans Frank on Goering's behalf that Goering had prevented Hitler from learning the truth about the fate of the Jews, and that Goering was a "responsible person."

Goering, a former captain of the Luftwaffe, said that Goering's role was to prevent the Jews from being murdered, thus causing the German people to suffer.

"We persons realize the vast amount of rental and rental activities carried on in our local area," Williams said.

He made public a report from J. R. Bunn, district rent executive at Idaho Falls, that during March-April the four area rent offices (Idaho Falls, Boise, Twin Falls, and Pocatello) had received 254 new rental applications, making the total 2,985 units under contract. Heavy Traffic on Bridge Still Out BURLEY, April 27 (AP)—The Jackson-Arizona bridge across Snake river is still closed to heavy traffic, but temporary repair work is expected to be completed tomorrow, according to Harry G. DeWitt, manager of the Burley highway district.

A steel beam is being placed between two piers to support the upper side of the bridge which had been sinking since the high water had washed away one of the piers. This pier can not be replaced now because of high water.

A 10-ton load limit has been placed on the bridge and a command sign placed at each end of the bridge to warn motorists. Light automobiles are being permitted to cross the bridge.

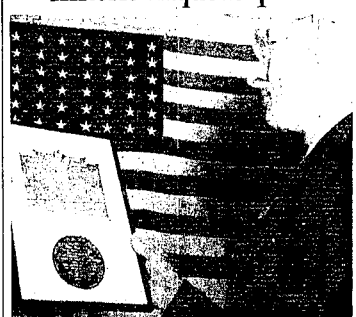

BUSY

Mayor Bert A. Sweet will be a busy man Monday evening. He is to preside over two meetings—at the same time. Fortunately they're both in the same building.

In addition to the regular city council meeting at 7:30 p. m. in the city hall, he is to preside over a meeting of the city coordinating committee at 8 p. m. also in the city hall.

Mayor Sweet said Saturday that he would "probably be in on the tail end of the coordinating committee meeting."

Historic Plaque Replica

Judge J. O. He received the framed reproduction from his brother, Francis L. Humphrey, of the naval armory factory at Washington, D. C., where the patterns were made for the plaque. Twin Falls Visioned As Future Center for Farm Freight

Assertion by the mayor of Twin Falls that he wouldn't want to serve another four years if the city must conduct its business in the present small, overcrowded city hall, and a forecast by an area expert that Twin Falls could become a center for air freight of perishable farm products, were the highlights of the Chamber of Commerce general membership meeting here Friday evening.

Mayor Bert A. Sweet asserted that the mayor and council do not have adequate facilities to conduct the necessary city business and urged the support of the proposed city hall in the city hall election May 12.

Charles S. King and J. V. Pryor, Seattle, Seattle district airport planning division of the civil aeronautics authority, lauded the city's efforts in attempting to secure a new airport and urged the city to continue its efforts.

Investment Angle Stressed
If J. Schenckman was power chairman and stressed the fact that the success of the airport would not be an expense to the taxpayer but an investment in the future of the city.

He pointed out that the purpose of the airport is to provide a great gathering center for perishable goods and to provide a great gathering center for the city's business.

Stretch Your Bread Supply, Women Urged

With the recent government order restricting the amount of flour by 25 per cent, Twin Falls county housewives will have to watch their bread to make it go farther, Frances Schultz, county home demonstration agent, asserted today.

She declared that "if each American family would save half a slice of bread a day the savings would amount to a half million loaves daily."

The Dry Bread
Miss Schultz urged housewives to keep bread fresh by storing it in a well-ventilated, washable box and to make use of their dry bread in cooking.

She suggested to avoid serving too much bread at a meal and mentioned that having slices may lessen waste. She also suggested that natural bread be replaced with a loaf at breakfast and that an extra loaf be served in place of more bread at dinner.

Stale Bread Has Many Possible Uses
Miss Schultz suggested that stale bread be used in a variety of ways, such as in bread pudding, bread crumbs, or as a base for casseroles.

India Needing Food Supply, Hoover Says

BANGALORE, India, April 27 (AP)—Herbert Hoover, visiting on his investigation of food conditions in Europe and Asia, issued a warning that unless the serious world market supplies to the stricken people of India, "one of millions" will live in jeopardy of life.

Most distress are on the edge of a famine, Hoover said in a statement last night.

It is impossible to hazard what the death toll will be.

As a result, some 200,000 people are included in 2 of the worst cases. The worst case, the former president said, is in the case of Bihar, where the famine is the most serious.

Hoover attributed India's food problem to three causes: the recent drought, the world market and a monetary problem of India.

To alleviate the situation, he recommended that the government should not allow the export of rice and wheat to other countries, but that it should allow the export of other commodities to other countries.

Magic Valley Setting Pace in Aerial Attack on Insect Peril

By JOHN BROSNAN

Throughout the ages whenever man has encountered a problem too big to cope with on the ground, he's taken to the air to gain the upper hand.

Prehistoric man no doubt swung into a tree to bang his rival on the forehead with a rock. Indians liked to ambush their enemies from the heights of a mountain peak and in wartime it's the side with air superiority that wins.

Now in peacetime there's another "war" being waged from the air, but this time it's against the insecticide in windy weather. That will not drift so far from the plane and still give excellent distribution. Such carriers are valuable in windy weather.

They carry "bombs" of DDT, rosin, kerosene and calcium arsenate designed for insect targets.

Planes to be used by the Jean Seed company consist of three biplanes and two single-wing ships.

Land is firing his ships from the mountains, and his first biplane is being used to test the effect of a ground dusting outfit, which he also finds practical to use under certain conditions.

Before you INSULATE YOUR HOME...ask these questions...

1. Have I selected an insulation that is water repellent? This is important. When insulation absorbs water, it loses efficiency—does only a partial insulating job.
 2. Have I selected an insulation that is fireproof? A fireproof insulation can be a real protection in coming down the fire hazard in your home.
 3. Have I selected an insulation that is thick enough to bring maximum comfort both summer and winter? The efficiency of any insulation depends to a great extent upon its thickness. Insulation that is four inches thick is many times more efficient than insulation only one or two inches thick.
 4. Have I selected an insulation that will not pack down or settle in the walls? When insulation settles in the walls, it leaves un-insulated areas through which heat and cold can pass freely.
- If you have selected Eagle Insulation for your home, the answer to all these questions will be YES. And because the answer is YES, Eagle Insulation can be counted upon to bring you full efficiency that lasts a lifetime.
- Eagle Insulation is made of mineral wool. It is water repellent. It does not lose its efficiency. It is also fireproof up to 1800°F.—will not burn. And because it is lightweight, it will not pack or settle in the walls.
- Year after year, maximum comfort is assured—and fuel savings up to 40% may pay for the cost of the insulation.
- No building alterations are required when you Eagle-Insulate your home. Call the Authorized Contractor given below for a no-obligation estimate on how little it will cost.

NEWS ABOUT Telephone Installations

WE ARE RAPIDLY CATCHING UP with the job of providing telephones for all who were waiting during the period when shortage of materials delayed many orders.

DURING THE LAST FEW MONTHS telephones have been installed at a faster rate than at any time in the history of the telephone business. The orders which have not yet been filled require more than just a telephone. In some cities more equipment is needed in the telephone office. That taken time to make and install. In other cases more wire and cable are needed before the telephone can be connected to the equipment in the telephone office.

NO TIME IS BEING LOST to get the job done. To those still waiting we want to say again, "Thanks for your patience and understanding."

Small Farms

It is designed for small and medium farms, large and small, and is used for plowing, disk, harrow, and for the machine itself in small about the size of a medium one. It is mounted on two small wheels with tractor-type tires. You just back handle, and the machine will do the work for you.
