New Strikes and Threat by Lewis Star Labor Scene

New and threatening strikes and a possible slow-down in government efforts to settle the critical soft coal dispute threatened the nation's labor picture today, at the start of the merry month of May.

A transit strike in Atlanta, Ga., inconvenienced thousands. Coal production in Illinois was at a complete shutdown by a walkout of 18,000 independent miners. A nationwide work stoppage of workers that would tie up the country's terminal elevators threatened. A transit strike in Memphis, Tenn., was called off when an agreement on wages was reached.

Movies Seen As Major Disaster

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Sir Thomas Birtch, who chaired yesterday on the Queen Mary, expressed the following views on the United States in an interview with the Daily Mail: "Hollywood is a universal danger compared to which Hitler, Himmler and Mussolini were trivial and fleeting incidents. Films are aimed by their makers at the widest possible audience. All the arts in America are a gigantic racket, run by unscrupulous men who are not interested in the United States but in the money that it can make."

U. S. Will Cut Armed Forces In Occupation

PARIS, May 1 (AP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes told the big foreign ministers' conference in the United States is prepared immediately to reduce her occupation forces in Germany to 200,000 troops in each country. Byrnes said that such a reduction would be a signal to the United States is agreeable to withdraw American troops from that country.

Big Reduction
Byrnes proposed would cut the American force in Austria by about one-half. Russia, however, is still maintaining about 200,000 troops in Austria, although substantial reduction of Soviet forces there is in progress.

The conference confirmed its previous agreement to reject Austria's demand for 100,000 troops in a dispute over the appointment of an interim inspectorate and treaty commission for Austria, and to whether the peace treaty terms are being carried out.

Melrose Opposed
In this dispute Byrnes and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin met for two hours, but transcended little business outside of making final their decision on the Austrian situation. Byrnes was unable to agree, an inspectorate and treaty commission and to comply with the terms of the peace treaty.

Slashings No Fire Peril In Forest Area

BURLEY, May 1—Minkinda lake control chief, that forests of fire hazard from unburned slashings, said E. Briggs, forest supervisor, today.

He commented on a report by C. S. Crocker, Missoula, Mont., regional fire control chief, that forests of eastern Oregon, Washington, northern Idaho and Montana are a literal powder keg of inflammable debris left over from the war which could take 300 years to correct.

Crocker said 140,000 acres of unburned slashings in the region created a fire hazard.

"However, because of the small amount of slashings in the Minkinda forest, there is little hazard of that type," said Briggs. "We are confident mostly by grass and brush types which cause flash fires."

Briggs said permits have been issued to allow grazing of 14,000 cattle and 35,000 sheep in the five divisions of the Minkinda forest, Clatsop, Albion, Raft River, Black Pine and Sublet.

The two-seater aircraft is the plane which took from the Hailey area to Boise on the 50th anniversary of airmail service in Idaho, when the plane of the post on the home of Mrs. Homer D. Jones, Hailey, was torn off by the wind Monday night.

And in Washington, the resumption of negotiations between John L. Lewis and Blair LeMay was highlighted by the threatened withdrawal of special Federal Commissioner Paul W. Sullivan. He pressed disaffection with the government's handling of the month-old walkout by 400,000 A.P.S. soft coal miners, but agreed to reconsider his surprise resignation. He said he would give discretion to labor officials to give discretion to labor officials.

Paul's threat was withdrawn after Lewis, president of the A.P.S. United Mine Workers, filed notice that the 70,000 A.P.S. anthracite miners would quit work in 30 days if they are not given a contract by approximately the same demands he has presented to operators for the soft coal miners.

Little Benefit in Lifting of Spud Starch Controls
Little or no immediate benefit was forecast for Idaho dehydrating plants which were advised Tuesday that price control on potato starch was suspended by the office of price administration.

The potato starch processing sector in Twin Falls was told that on May 1, and no stocks of starch are on hand, all have been moved out to the processing plants. The problem presented by the report—which climaxed a four-month struggle to discontinue the price control on starch—was that the country since 1922 has held a League of Nations mandate over Palestine.

Frost Damages to Frost Thousands of Acres in Magic Valley

Fruit growers throughout Magic Valley maintained a pessimistic outlook Wednesday as they stock stock of heavy damage inflicted by low temperatures Tuesday night, and the consensus was that "it wasn't so bad but what it might have been worse."

Losses were estimated as running into thousands of dollars, however, largely in apples and peach crops. Temperatures varied widely throughout the area, ranging from 30 degrees in the west end of Twin Falls county to a low at Burley where the mercury dipped to 19 degrees.

Tree and worried growers were still checking their orchards Wednesday afternoon to determine extent of damage; many of them went all night amending and flooding, and daybreak found others spraying their trees to break a possible change of temperature from the early morning.

At the former Harney ranch near Burley where the temperature dropped to 27 degrees, the apricot crop was reported as a "total loss" by the Victor Bowman, who are now noting the orchards.

About 25 acres of peaches near the same location were 50 per cent damaged, but the owners maintained an optimistic outlook by pointing out that the crop, flourishing during previous warm weather, was heavy and would have had to be killed by a temperature of 20 degrees and below.

Oust Appeal, Club Owners Ask of Court

Another move was added Wednesday morning to the court controversy over recent county commissioners' approval of Dale Williams, O. A. Hambo and Tom Callen. The appeal was filed by William Young, E. C. Carroll and Neil Miller, residents of county precinct No. 1.

Building Being Completed.

Listing as "retarded" in Williams, Callen, Hambo and the commissioners, the appeal asked the court to nullify the appeal. The club building, one-quarter mile west of the bureau of entomology, is now being completed.

In their motion the operators requested an alleged grounds for nullification cited in the appeal. It was insufficient, they said, that the bureau was granted to Williams only, although the three men had filed the application. The application was not approved by the "Legal Requirements Fulfilled" clause in the appeal.

Between the filing of the application March 8 and its approval April 3, the time element fulfilled legal requirements, the motion claimed. April 3 the Times-News published a statement about the appeal, and the operators requested the court to nullify the appeal.

Harry Denoit is attorney for the operators. James H. Butwell is attorney for the plaintiffs.

Mr. Edward F. Order, secretary of the Idaho Intercollegiate Athletic association, says that the adoption of a new rule for high school boxing in this state in which judges are eliminated and the referee alone renders decisions will make the ring game in this state "as different from professional boxing as possible."

But does it? Or Order's secretary asks. What Mr. Order doesn't realize perhaps is that high school boxing back by eliminating the judges, will be beating professional boxing back by making it more like professional boxing. The judges are the ones who make the decisions. But that is no secret, as they say on Sauerbrunn run. The association, let us not doubt by Mr. Order, is doing a fine thing for boxing in this state in which judges are eliminated and the referee alone renders decisions, the opinion of the fans and the sports writers, are more often right than the judges.

It is closer to the fighters. He knows what fighter is delivering the effective punches, some of which are not easily discerned outside the ring. The "roughest" punch is often the least effective because it is hit with the open glove. The other is the "fist" punch. The puncher that really hurt—those sticky fists to the face and body—make little noise when they are the most solid.

The association made a number of other progressive moves. They included the recognition of the Idaho Coaches association and granted an official membership to their coaches to represent football, basketball and minor sports, respectively.

Good work, Mr. Order!

Bruins Oppose Tigers Under Lights Tonight

Here is the Magic Valley high school baseball picture as the Twin Falls Bruins and the Jerome Tigers prepared to meet under the stars at Jaycee park at 8 p.m. today in a game that will give the local fans their first glimpse of the Tigers' new pitching sensation, Chet Humphries, who recently held the Boise Braves to three hits (Sports editor's note: May diamond critics say Humphries' feat was really a one-hitter).

Jerome by reason of its 13-5 victory over Buhl, in which Humphries gave up only five hits and fanned 10, practically clinched the Big Seven championship.

The Castleton Wolves, who surprised with a 14-11 triumph over Buhl, will play the Bruins in the semi-finals of the Magic Valley class B championships. Hazleton had proved the strongest team in the title in the south side sub-district but, according to the Castleton Coach Halp Viders, Principal J. E. Powers of the Bulldogs had told him he should not play the Mini-Cassia champion, even though Hazleton doesn't believe the Wolves beat them.

Castleton put the game out of the Twin Falls Bruins' hands in the eighth inning when McCoys was hit by a single ball, striking the batter, walked and then, with two down, Blackman singled to drive in two runs. King tripped and stole over and Hill singled to cut King. Letcher hit a home run for Twin Falls in the eighth.

In two other games Gooding defeated Piler in a twin bill, 10-5 and 8-7. Jay Walle, who returned to the box after a season's absence, hit a homer in each game. Joe Johnston hit one for Gooding and Brackets one for Piler.

Buhl defeated Jerome 10-5 and 8-7. In the seventh the Bruins put over five runs and two were scored on a homer by Alvin Stanger. The Bruins struck over on Stanger, their batter.

"I'll Release Players I'd Have Given My Right Arm for in Other Years"—Doerr

"I'll have to release players by May 1 when the club must get down to 15 players) that I would have given my right arm for in other years," Doerr said, president of the local Pro football league. "I have had to release players in the past season at a loss of $10,000. The Cowboy boys was walking on 'top of the world' and reaching for the stars. They were the nicest, the most manly, physically and spiritually, bunch of boys I have ever seen."
