Solons Fight Curb on OPA Price Control

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—Chairman Wagner, D. N. Y., called today for a final banking committee decision Tuesday on removing points at issue in the price control extension bill.

At the same time, he said an attempt will be made to void the committee decision—reached a week ago—removing price controls from meat, poultry and dairy products July 1.

Switch Required
A two-vote switch would be required to overturn the decision. Since it was made, the committee has lost one of its members, the late Carter Glass of Virginia, whose proxy Wagner held.

The chairman said he was "very hopeful" that the committee can be persuaded to back OPA. OPA officials, with whom Wagner works closely, contend that food prices would skyrocket if meat and dairy prices were taken off the ceiling chart.

While the committee recessed from today until Tuesday, a group of members, including representatives of both parties, were arranged to confer with OPA officials Monday on the knotty question of price margins.

Profit Quoted
The house voted to give every processor a profit margin of 10 percent including retailers—a cost plus "reasonable profit." OPA officials claim the provision would be too high.

Several alternate plans have been discussed by the senate committee. It is expected that the senate will add to their present 1941 price ceiling legislation a unit cost law in their industry.

Republicans, who originated the proposal, also are working to maintain historic discounts and markets for wholesalers and retailers.

Seamen Slate Parleys Over Strike Threat
By the Associated Press
CIO maritime leaders and ship operators made another effort last night to avert a threatened walkout of 20,000 seamen and longshoremen.

The negotiations in Washington were surrounded by an atmosphere of pessimism and bitterness, however, with CIO leaders claiming that President Truman had "fired a torpedo" into the peace talks.

Mr. Truman told his news conference Friday he would use the armed guard to protect the shipping administration, if necessary, to keep the ships running.

Traffic Again Rolls Over High Bridge

Closed since April 28 for installation of new decking, abutments and pedestrian walkway, the Twin Falls-Jerome Intercounty bridge was reopened to traffic Friday night and a steady flow of vehicles was moving over the structure Saturday. Deviation to open the bridge came when it seemed inadvisable to attempt to apply the sealcoat over the concrete surface, which will be allowed to cure for 30 days after which the seal will be put on, according to Contractor Dan J. Cavanagh. The contractor appears at right, with J. C. Shreder, resident highway engineer. A group of tourists appears at left. (Photo by John Brown-staff engraving)

OTHER CONSTRUCTION
Construction operations for three bridges between Twin Falls and Buhl, Idaho, were under way Saturday by the state district highway office, Shoshone.

On the Buhl-Fall River bridge, construction operations are in progress, beginning at the Twin Falls-Cascade county line and extending east for seven miles on U. S. highway 20, south between Twin Falls and Buhl.

Operations also are underway on the same route, beginning at the east of Buhl and extending miles east on the route to St. Charles.

Construction operations are also in progress on the route from Buhl to St. Charles, extending for six miles on state route 24, Buhl-Shoshone district.

Burley Citizens Send Parcels to Destitute Greek
O. G. Georgopoulos, destitute Lemna, Greece, resident who recently wrote to "Mr. Manager, Idaho Times-News," of Twin Falls, Idaho, asking for second hand clothes has received at least three bundles of assistance from Burley residents.

Mr. Donald, wife of the Burley mayor, wrote that three parcels of clothes for Georgopoulos, who has no family, have been sent. A. S. Jockovic, secretary-treasurer of the Burley chamber of commerce, also has sent a parcel.

The resident of Greece was a section worker on the Oregon Shortland line, who was killed in the Twin Falls train wreck last December. The resident of Greece was a section worker on the Oregon Shortland line, who was killed in the Twin Falls train wreck last December.

Situation Better In Idaho's Flood
BONNERS FERRY, June 1 (AP)—An all-Idaho flood conference here tonight as the swollen Kootenai river, which had threatened cities guarding 40,000 acres of crop land, receded after crawling to within less than a foot of the top of levee barriers.

The river had dropped to 29 feet in the late conference here. The levee conference here was held at the Idaho State Capitol, where J. C. Basing, mayor of Bonners Ferry, was in charge.

The 90 miles of dikes still held firm, but the levee conference here was held at the Idaho State Capitol, where J. C. Basing, mayor of Bonners Ferry, was in charge.

Threats of Shorter Atomic Cause Seniors to Pass Atom Bill

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—Told that the next war may last only minutes, the senate passed and sent to the house today domestic atomic energy legislation geared to mesh smoothly with any international control agreement.

With a minimum of debate and a scanty attendance, the senate gave its approval to a bi-partisan sponsored measure to establish a government monopoly over the production and utilization of fissionable, or explosive, materials such as plutonium which go into atomic bombs.

Before the senate gave its approval, a President Truman agreement with the bill an amendment by Senator McMahon, D. Wis., to bar the filing of claims on public land by persons or groups who were active in the government's wartime development of atomic energy.

Senators Add Strike Clause To Farm Bill
WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—The senate hammered a "no strike" clause into the farm appropriations bill today, and then approved the bill on a vote of 75 to 15.

The clause prohibited the payment of any of the funds to the house for consideration of the no-strike feature and almost 100 other changes the senate made.

Denies Payments
The no strike clause prohibited the payment of any of the funds to the house for consideration of the no-strike feature and almost 100 other changes the senate made.

Control Needed
McMahon told the senate that the bill provides for a five-member civilian control commission to study the bill proposals are needed because this country can't afford to permit any other Black or Italian to play a role in the atomic energy program.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Harold Stassen said something in a speech the other day about the need in this country for an "increased sense of duty to produce, to keep pace with the right to consume, whether through profits or wages, (and) of an increased sense of duty to work to parallel the right to strike."

Probably that isn't the most popular talk to find in discussing present-day economics. It's old-fashioned talk, and some would call it reactionary. But it seems rather nice to hear somebody bring up again the all-but-forgotten relationship of rights to duties.

We hear a great deal today about the rights of free speech, free assembly and free enterprise, the rights to work and bargain collectively and earn a decent wage. But it seems a long time since much has been said about the duty of doing what one is called "an honest day's work" for that decent wage, or of turning out the best possible product for fair and decent profit. In fact, it hasn't been said recently by representatives of large groups of workers or manufacturers.

Maybe it is because times and the national economy have changed. There are proportionately fewer self-employed persons than in grandfather's day. Consequently, there is less direct incentive and less opportunity to experience the joy of personal accomplishment in the course of earning the daily bread.

The incentives and joys are by no means absent today. But there is an increasing number of workers swallowed up in big corporations, doing routine jobs of dandy sameness. Boredoms, demoralizations and stifles are offered the only touches of drama in a life of occupational drudgery.

Then, too, there are the workers' unions, which must produce results in order to survive and grow. And they have a right to do so. They have emphasized an ever-growing list of workers' rights—most of them right and proper, to be sure—while scolding the no-no and the good.

So we hear of unions disciplining members who, yielding to personal incentives, work too fast, produce too much, and thereby set an "exhausting" example for their fellows. We hear of requests for the same wages for 40 hours' work as were recently paid for 40 hours plus 14 more at extra pay. We hear talk of 30-hour weeks at 40-hour wages.

And maybe that's all good. This country has come a long way from the 60-hour week, dingy workshops, child labor, and starvation wages, and it can go farther. But progress is smoothest in a friendly, reasonable atmosphere. And that is not present when duties are forgotten and rights exaggerated. Instead, there is created an atmosphere which fosters selfishness, breeds dissension, and even social wars.

Mr. Stassen seems wise in asking that we pay a little more attention to our thinking to a reasonable balance between effort and compensation. Otherwise, there is danger that a stable segment of a new generation might have to unlearn rather painfully the notion that society owes them a living which they feel no particular obligation to earn.

GUARDING PUBLIC HEALTH

It is not a pleasant task for the southern central district health unit to close up places of business for violations of health department regulations, but it should be reassuring to the public that such an organization is on guard.

Recently, officials of the unit closed two eating and night club establishments in Magic Valley on charges of ignoring sanitary regulations. The agencies, however, issued an earlier warning to the effect that all businesses selling foods or drinks for human consumption must conform to certain safety standards for the public's health. With very few exceptions, it was found that all such places of business were cooperating in matters of proper sanitation.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed upon such things as grading of milk, straining of milk, systematic analysis of the public water supply, proper sewage disposal, and the regulations that keep public eating and drinking places clean and sanitary.

The district health unit is to be commended for its vigilance. Let's hope that it continues to keep on guard at all times, even though that may require drastic action on occasion.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

CLASS—President Truman's apparent break with influential factions of the labor movement in the United States, especially the railroad men, has caused the whirligig of presidential nomination a more white-hot spin than it has been since 1928, in the opinion of politicians at Washington.

Franklin D. Roosevelt frequently has been called the "big man" of the workmen's organizations, notably John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, and Walter Reuther, head of the United Automobile Workers.

Rented House Torn Down to Evict Tenant

HAPEVILLE, Ga., June 1 (AP)—A clash of wills between a landlord determined to possess his rented house and a tenant equally determined to stay in it resulted today in a fight that saw both parties lose their stakes in the unyielding game.

Charles Jett and his family of five were without a place to live, and N. L. Ballard, the landlord, was without a place to rent. The house, a converted filling station, was a roofless heap of wreckage.

Courts in it. And the courts were in on the dispute, too, with an order, obtained by the tenant, restraining the landlord from completing the wrecking job. Jett also asked $2,500 damages. The action was told by the parties concerned, and confirmed by Clifton County Sheriff W. Z. Dickson. Ballard had been trying for a year to get the Jett family out so he could house farm hands in the building. When the OPA ordered the rent reduced from $150 to $4 a month, and tenants got behind, he obtained eviction papers.

Kiwanians Regain Lost Plaque

Note, Scotland Yard—Plaque Recovered After Three Years

Scotland Yard, please take note. It takes more than time and tide to deter the Twin Falls police department from getting its manure in this case, to plague.

Four years ago, when two plaques were installed at Kiwanis nook in Shoshone falls, the Kiwanians and everyone else were very proud. One was placed on a monument near the path leading down to Kiwanis nook and the other was on a natural ledge farther down.

Then the following spring, St. Clair Stewart, who was park superintendent at that time, discovered that one of the plaques had been pulled from the ledge and stolen. Identity of the vandals wasn't known, but they were believed to have been a group of "hoodlums" that had been in the park shortly before the plaque disappeared. An effort was made to find it, but without success.

Last week, Safety Commissioner W. W. Thomas, after jurisdiction includes the police department and who is also a Kiwanian, was in the east end of the county. He noticed something familiar about a piece of metal half-buried in a pile of old pipe and other debris on a farm. Examining it more closely, he found it to be the long-lost bronze plaque, slightly tarnished, but otherwise no worse for the wear.

Police investigation disclosed that it had been cached beneath the porch of a house, which had changed owners, and the new owner in cleaning out under the porch, had pulled out the stolen plaque.

Police have marked the case as "closed," and Commissioner Thomas will this week present the plaque back to the Kiwanians, after which

Crop Seizure Predicted for Grain Raisers

MOSCOW, June 1 (AP)—The nation's wheat farmers today were worried that the government will, as the Pacific Northwest Grain Dealers association said in a notification bulletin, "confiscate at the existing prices" 30 percent of their 1946 crops at harvest time.

Local grain dealers today received copies of the bulletin, stating terms of a new purchase order signed by Clinton P. Anderson, secretary of agriculture. It is stated, says the bulletin, to give the federal government control of wheat in the winter of 1946.

The amendment, as quoted by the dealer bulletin, declares that "no producer shall deliver such wheat (listed by grade) to a country elevator or a subterminal elevator or mill elevator unless, within 15 days from the time of delivery, not less than one-half of all such wheat shall be sold to such elevator."

Providing, however, that this provision shall not apply to wheat delivered for the account of the commodity credit corporation.

Grain men here said the order evidently was the government's answer to expressed farmer sentiment to hold wheat off the market next fall in anticipation of higher selling prices for "bonuses" later in the winter or spring.

April 8 the department of agriculture offered a "bonus" of 30 cents a bushel over ceiling prices for all 1945 wheat delivered to the commodity credit corporation before May 25.

THEODORE J. GOSCIENER (41)
FARMER MEMORIAL CATHOLIC MAY CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION AS DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATIVE ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

WHY I FILED FOR SHERIFF

I filed, and am asking for nomination and election to this important office—

1. Because I have had 20 years' training and practical experience in law enforcement work;
2. Because I personally know conditions in this county since 1927;
3. Because this is my home. I have a family, and I want to improve local conditions for my own and other families in the county; and
4. Because I have definite ideas and practical plans for doing so.

EXPERIENCE—PLANS

In an office so vital to the public welfare, there is no substitute for experience and training in law enforcement work, for knowledge of local conditions, and for sound plans for the betterment of those conditions.

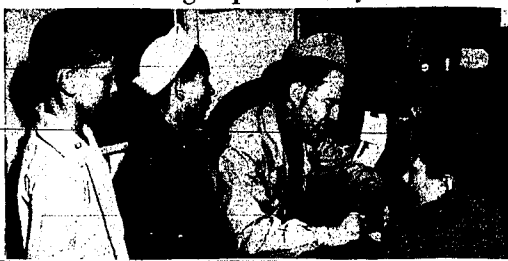

OUR LOCAL PROBLEMS

The ordinary citizen—whether he lives in a city or in a rural area—has a right to know the conditions that are confronting him with a major local problem: Liquor, gambling, traffic, and juvenile delinquency.

ARE THEY "TOO HOT"

Shall we try to solve these problems by the "too hot" for us to handle? Shall we do something about these things, in an efficient and practical way, or shall we let them alone? These who profit by existing conditions want them left alone. Some who are imbued by defeatism feel that nothing practical can be done. Others, forgetting that one should love even his enemy, would persecute and make trouble out of all who fail to conform to their own standards of good conduct.

A myriad of bicycles jammed the entrance to the police station Saturday morning as 61 boys and girls flocked to the office of Howard Gillette to have the chief of police sign their membership cards in the Bicycle Safety club. The youths were given booklets on the care of their bicycles and the on safety and traffic rules.

girls will be divided into the same age groups for their merit. The tournament will begin at 9 a. m. in the park.

Trophies for the event have been donated by Trullinger's plumes. A Red Cross "Learn to swim" campaign July 9 to 20 will highlight the swimming pool activities for the year although swimming classes will be organized soon and will continue throughout the summer, Folsom said.

Pay Schedule On Farm Help Set by Board

Prevailing farm labor wages scheduled by Twin Falls county will be forwarded to the government for use in determining the wages of imported Mexican and POW labor, said County Agent Jack P. Smith.

Prevailing wages in this county are 75 cents per hour for common labor, and 90 cents an hour for hearsemen. Other rates are $1.10 per acre, thinning berries, $4 per acre, first hoeing, beans, and $25 per acre, onion weeding.

The announcement was made Friday night following a meeting of the county farm wage board. Smith is chairman, and other members are E. M. Dostert, Darrell H. Aase and J. J. Meeks. Twin Falls, and Luke Sommer, Buhl.

Smith said it was necessary to determine a prevailing wage because the imported labor and the POWs work for funds authorized under public law No. 45. The war food administration and the state extension service conducted this investigation to determine the prevailing wage, which may affect the wages of Mexican laborers after they have been submitted to the government which is reaching an agreement with the Mexican government.

Ten employers and six employees testified before the board, but no testimony was taken from either POWs or Mexicans, Smith said.

Mexican Surplus Labor Here Hit

Manuel Atencio, federal inspector for the Mexican government, left over the week-end for Portland, Ore., after asserting that there are "too many Mexican nationals in Twin Falls to help with farm labor."

He expects to return in about two weeks to confer with local farm labor officials about the surplus of Mexican laborers. Although 50 Mexicans were transferred to Preston recently, Atencio said that the Mexicans were not being kept busy.

Large Edition To Begin New Hailey Paper

A 32-page edition will inaugurate the Blaine County Citizen, new weekly paper in Hailey, which will begin publication sometime in June. N. Harry "Smitty" Smith, owner, has announced.

"Representing the people in the county will be the aim of the Blaine County Citizen. We plan to publish at least 12 pages weekly with no paper paid. All of our news will be local and from the county," Smith explained.

Recently returned from overseas duty with the marines, Smith has been in the newspaper business 16 years and was previously employed on the old New York Post, New York Journal-American, and other eastern newspapers. The new publisher graduated from the Louisiana State university.

In demotion and a flame thrower in the marines, Smith was discharged from the marine corps April 1 at Bainbridge, Md., after serving three years. He was at Guadalcanal, Munda and Bougainville. Returning to the States, Smith was a patient at the Sun Valley hospital and organized "The Sun Valley Stage," the first and only hospital paper at Sun Valley. He was editor of the paper for seven months.

Lately the marine veteran was sent to San Francisco to write radio script. While there he wrote approximately 25 radio programs that were broadcast over San Francisco stations. From there the publisher went to San Valley as a public relations officer for the marine corps, where he wrote the history of the marines for national distribution throughout country newspapers.

While overseas Smith contracted filariasis and is now in the west for his health.

Alfalfa Weevil Rampant Now

Twin Falls county farmers Saturday were warned by County Agent Jack P. Smith to beware of alfalfa weevils. A survey this week showed the prevalence of the bug all over the county.

"The bureau of entomology reported that crops are 'fairly heavily infested' and that eggs are still being laid," Smith said.

Smith advised all farmers to inspect their alfalfa crops for the bug, which hatches in the crop and feeds on the tips of the bloom and leaf. The adult weevil is dark brown and is about three-sixteenths of an inch long. Smith said. They lay eggs that develop into larvae one-fourth inch long varying in color from dirty yellow to light green with a white stripe down the middle of the back.

"The weevil decreases the yield considerably," Smith said. "It retards the growth of the alfalfa by eating away the tender part of the plant and killing it."

Smith said that the weevil also causes the second crop of alfalfa to be slow coming and that the yield on this crop would be considerably less.

Smith said that the most effective way to rid the fields of the weevil was by crop dusting, either by aerial dusting or machine dusting, with calcium arsenate.

Farms throughout the county were sampled for the prevalence of the bug and it seemed to be generally affecting crops the same in all parts of the county.

Twin Falls Artist—And His Work

KEITH HUNTER

Hunter's portrait of Mayor Herbert E. Lewis of Long Beach, Calif., is another in a series done by the former Twin Falls youth which have now earned him a commission to paint the portrait of Gov. Earl Warren of California.

It's an old bromide—"local boy makes good"—but one Twin Falls youth is really doing it in a big way at Long Beach, Calif. He is Keith Hunter, former by the Long Beach newspaper as the "gifted Long Beach artist."

Hunter's portrait of Mayor Herbert E. Lewis of that city has proved so acceptable that he has been retained to do a portrait of Gov. Earl Warren of California, nationally known political figure.

The oil portrait of the mayor, and another oil study of a Long Beach mother and her four-year-old son, have been displayed at the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce building. An oil portrait of the late President Roosevelt won Hunter his first wide mention, and created national attention.

Agreement Nears In Lumber Strike

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 1 (AP)—A 15-cent an hour general wage boost, average 46-hour week and voluntary revocable check-off were recommended today by Chief Justice Gordon Sloan as basis for settlement of the crippling 11-day-old British Columbia woodworkers' strike.

Employers and union representatives said they would make their decisions known to the commissioners Monday afternoon.

President John Hart and Labor Minister George Pearson urged both sides to accept the proposals and end the strike of 31,000 loggers and millworkers to enforce union demands of 25-cent-an-hour pay increase, 46-hour week and union security.

Victory Regular Job

The victory won by Danjanih a regular starting job without much of a fight. The pitcher, who had been out of the lineup for several days, pitched a complete game, allowing only three runs, two earned, and five hits. He struck out eight batters and walked four.

Working on this Idea

George Leyrer, the wide-ranging center-fielder, put on a base-stealing job that thrilled the 1,451 present—a surprising record for a Saturday night game. He stole second, third and home in the seventh inning, and he also stole first in the eighth.

'Slim' Webster Takes Fishing Derby Lead With 4½ Lb. Trout

Until some one catches and reports a bigger one R. E. "Slim" Webster, the barbering placitor, is the leader in the unofficial trout fishing derby that got underway in the Magic Valley area with the opening of the season May 21. Webster brought in a four-and-one-half pounder which measured 21 inches between the tips of nose and tail.

Trotting at Magic reservoir with Mrs. Webster, who sometimes makes her husband take a back-seat in pulling in with a metal Roy Self wobbler.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster landed quite a number of trout, the smallest measuring 14 inches.

With the best weather of the new season promised, a record number of fishermen are expected to be in the Magic Valley today.

Conditions, especially at Magic and Salmon reservoirs, are reported excellent. Also, the fish are biting, according to fishermen who pined all at there during the past week.

Straw south of Twin Falls are reported in good condition. However, Wood river and the streams in the Magic Valley are still high and few good catches are being made there. The reports from that area add that top fishing there could not be expected before the middle of June. The streams are beginning to fall.

Trider to third, Leyrer's force out of Wittig, a wild pitch and Mester's muffed second high fly.

Patterson double, a high fly into the infield which the left fielder nor the shortstop could reach, and Bononi's one-base blow settled another run to the Cowboy total in the sixth.

Phi Thirt in 7th Frame—After Danjanih escaped unharmed in the upper half of the seventh although he filled the bases with one down, Leyrer singled and put on his base-stealing act. Patterson got the lever, and after walking, side second and went to third on Baker's wild throw. The pitcher side lever. That so upset Mester that he walked the next three batters, forcing Leyrer across Jack Baker's fence. Leyrer crossed Baker's fence and ended the uprising.

Leyrer wasn't through for the evening. He was hit by Curran in the eighth and immediately stole second and third, from which he counted on Patterson's sharp angle to get.

The Pilots went into the lead again in the third, ringing up their first two runs on Mester's single to right, a reasonable error by Leyrer on Williamson's hard hit bouncer, which allowed the pitcher to go to third and the second-baseman to second, and Owens single through the box.

The Boise lead was short-lived. The Cowboys needed only their half of the third to gain a one-run advantage on Reddie's single between second and first. Wittig's single to right-center that sent the little in-

Big Crowds to See Eight Tilts in Close SCI Races

With baseball interest at a high pitch throughout the 15-city circuit, record or near-record crowds were expected to turn out for the eight games in the SCI league this afternoon. An exceptionally big turnout is expected at Halley, where the Mint club, the only team without a loss in the eastern division of the circuit will oppose Murlough's strong team.

Other games scheduled:

Hagman at Glens Ferry.
Gooding at Mountain Home.
Castleton at Wendell.
Eastern Division

The game was delayed in the ninth with Ogden was at bat when fans in the right field bleachers threw three or four bottles at umpire Bill Hirt, who was working the bases. The manager, Joe Orseno, talked to the spectators for a few minutes, and the disturbance stopped.

ON THE SPORT FRONT

Packing up and down in front of the concession stand with Ye Old Sport Scientist at Jaycee park last night bemoaning the fact that it was Saturday night was President Maury Doerr of the Twin Falls Cowboys.

It was 9:35 p. m., and hardly a fan had passed through the turnstile.

"We'll be lucky to draw 300 tonight," said the club prey. "It's Saturday night and they tell me the fishing is awfully good."

The game was played and YOSS topped at the ballpark office to chide the Cowboy president on his fall down as a crowd predictor.

"How many fans did you have tonight?" he inquired of Doerr.

One thousand, four hundred and fifty-one—and that's paid! he returned, smiling. "As a crowd predictor, I'm just a big butt."

Let me say right now the Magic Valley has 'em all beat for turning out to a sports event."

The Wrangler prey then revealed that despite the fact that most of the Jaycee park game have been played in weather so cold that overcoats and blankets were necessary, the club has averaged 1,094 per game for the season.

"What'll we do when the really hot weather rolls around and our club keeps in the fight?" he queried. Then without waiting for an answer, he remarked: "Why, we'll blast that."

Tighter Meat Supply Looms In Next Year

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—The Agriculture department today forecast an even tighter meat situation for the nation next year, with supplies falling as much as a billion pounds below 1945 levels.

The expected decrease was attributed to shortages of feed grains and the recent hike in the ceiling price for livestock.

To bring home what the supply drop will mean, the department pointed out that even this year Americans would like to buy, if they could, an average of 15 to 20 pounds more meat than is available.

Big Drop Estimated

The 1946 meat production was estimated at about 22,500,000,000 pounds, or about 2,000,000,000 pounds under 1945 record output.

In the current market, the department reported, black market prices are continuing to erode the legal market on the bulk of beef cattle, despite intensified government efforts to curb illegal slaughtering and sale of meat.

Butter Dropping

Increased black market activity in butter also was noted, with legitimate sales declining to a level well below the 1945 production.

Butter production will be 30 per cent below the same month last year, and 50 per cent under May, 1945.

Advanced for the output drop was the more profitable market now existing for cream.

Department officials were hopeful, however, that the higher price ceilings announced Wednesday for the dairy industry will encourage greater butter production. The new ceilings authorize an advance in butter prices of about 11 cents a pound.

Scouts Get Wings At Jaycee Dinner

All members of the Jaycees-sponsored Air Scout squadron No. 41 were invited to the Jaycee dinner at 7 p. m. Monday at the Park hotel to receive their wings.

Mr. E. F. Brown, squadron leader, announced yesterday.

Brown and Jack Thomas, assistant squadron leader, will attend the meeting. Capt. Larson will present the wings. Kent Tallock and Larson, both members of the Snake River area, will speak on the topic, "Air Scouts in the World of Tomorrow."

Dinner will be free for all Air Scouts. Brown stated.

The Jaycee membership committee will be in the dining room at 6:30 p. m. to tabulate final results of its drive.

Kiwanis Contest Judging Set for Week of June 9

The major point in the 1946 judging in the Kiwanis lawn and garden beautification contest will be the improvement shown over last year's pattern, John D. Flatt, member of the Kiwanis committee, stated yesterday. Judging will take place during the week of June 9 to 16.

Well, we are back again, and it is a welcome sight to see the truck loads of lumber rolling in. We now have plenty of rough pine lumber in one and two inch—and its still coming. So if you need lumber, maybe we can supply your needs with our planing and re-sawing equipment.

A car of cement came in from Dakota Saturday, so we can take care of some requirements. Better hurry though, because we already sold half of this car of cement by that time. Have been unable to buy any kind of wallboard, so it is nearly impossible to finish the inside of a room without a plaster base. Have a limited quantity of cedar lap siding.

A car of fir flooring is expected in next week, but we will have to sell this on Priority ratings, as we must extend these ratings to buy it. Just checked with the shingle mill at Seattle and our first car of shingles will be in about June 15th. From then on, we hope to have plenty of shingles, mainly No. 1's.

Surfaced lumber should soon be rolling in. Probably after June 15th, and we expect to have wood laid by that time. Have been unable to buy any kind of wallboard, so it is nearly impossible to finish the inside of a room without a plaster base. Have a limited quantity of cedar lap siding.

A car load of posts was unloaded yesterday and we should have a car of composition roofing in a week or 10 days. Have plenty of nice straight oak posts in stock, and oak mow tongues, wagon tongues, and one inch and 2 inch oak for post needs. We have a car of 2x4's and 2x6's, and a car of 2x8's and 2x10's.
