A close associate of U.S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes said the head of the American delegation considered Trieste a "question of principle" and "the secretary never compromises with questions of principle."

Thus, since the United States apparently will not budge from the stand that Trieste must remain Italian, diplomatic observers anxiously awaited indications as to whether Russia would be willing to compromise on her demands that the Adriatic port be ceded to Yugoslavia.

A wave of optimism swept over the conference Saturday after Russia, in a surprise conciliatory gesture, agreed to the discussion of the Austrian problem. Some observers even went so far as to interpret this as an indication that the Russians

Much of this optimism was dispelled, however, when the Moscow press and radio yesterday launched a new offensive against what they termed western "reactionaries and enemies of peace."

Grain Dealers Find Farmers Holding Grain

A bumper wheat crop is filling storage bins in the central plains states today, but grain dealers believe farmers will hold their wheat for higher prices and that the nation would continue on short bread rails.

Meanwhile, the bread shortage grew more and spokesmen for the baking industry said some of bakers across the nation would be forced to close this week.

Scott to Market
Walter R. Scott, secretary of the Kansas City board of trade, predicted that despite Kansas' bumper crop, far exceeding recent estimates, the amount of wheat reaching the market would be only a trickle.

Scott said farmers were "extremely resentful" of the government's wheat program. He said they regarded it as "an attempt to deprive them of higher prices that may be granted later."

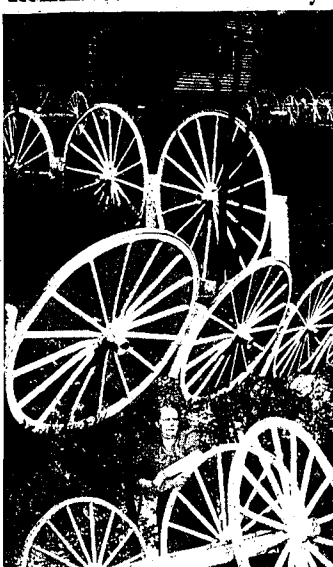

"Reports are the same everywhere," he said, "farmers will not sell any appreciable amount of their grain."

Shadows Increase
Frank Jungewald, executive secretary of the Associated Retail Bakers of America, predicted that bakery shipments would increase sharply beginning today. He said reports indicated that 15 bakeries in Philadelphia alone would be forced to close this week.

The board of governors of the American Bakers association charged that "bureaucratic bungling and mismanagement have caused intolerable bread shortages and breadlines unparalleled in history."

"The staff of life is now an important black market item," the board said.

Plenty of Wheels Here—But Not Going 'Round Any More

Mr. F. M. Egbert of Twin Falls has three hobbies: tending into one and she does it with wheels. Ever since her childhood in the Oakley and Murrough area, Mrs. Egbert has enjoyed making wheel art. She also collects buggy wheels and likes working in her yard. The parties were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert, 211 Millmore street, in the form of a fence composed entirely of wheels painted attractively white, not to mention lawn wheels. The wheels were mounted on wheels. These accomplishments represent the fulfillment of 35 years of buggy-wheel collecting. At present she has 35 wheels in use, is still looking for more.

Reds Accused of Boosting Famine

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 17 (AP)—Herbert Hoover told a press conference here today that the "universal party line of the communist party in every country is to breed famine and the provision of food for hungry people and thus produce chaos where they can then rule."

Hoover, in a speech on a food study in South America for President Truman, said that if his analysis of the communist party line was "not the case, it would appear that this is the time for Moscow to establish a new party line in the communist press of the world."

Two Games in SCI Loop 'Blown Out' by High Wind

Only five games were played in the SCI league yesterday and something new went into the baseball record books as the two other contests were "blown out." That is the wind was so strong at Jerome and Elgin that the teams representing those localities.

Golf 'Blown Out'

Because of the strong wind that made play impossible, the scheduled four-day tournament between the Burley, Buhl, Pocatello and Twin Falls golfers here yesterday had to be cancelled.

Fifth inning to give Mountain Home a 4-3 victory over Glenns Ferry.

The victory gave Mountain Home a 4-3 victory over Glenns Ferry for the league lead.

In the fifth inning Wilson, Mountain Home shortstop got a home run with a man on base.

Glenns Ferry batted King, the Mountain Home player out of the box in the first inning and Glenns Ferry finished up. Elliott went the route for Glenns Ferry, allowing eight hits.

Fertilized by Bob Shimway, shortstop, King block, first baseman, and Bobby Lott, pitcher, all high school stars, the Twin Falls VFW team ended their losing streak by defeating Ferry, 4-3. A four-run rally in the sixth inning won for the VFW.

Johnson got a triple and a single, Shimway a double and Elliott a triple for the VFW, while Lill and a pair of two batters for Ferry.

In the other game, Wendell defeated Gooding, 2-1.

Harold Lutz gave the Carey Twins only six hits and Rupert won, 4-0.

Food Mailing Now Possible For Overseas

Methods of sending food and clothing overseas to aid the needy were announced yesterday by the local Red Cross chapter.

The mails may be used and the post office should be consulted for further information.

Of the following organizations which handle relief shipments, the first three were listed as non-profit food shipment agencies.

Parcel orders for Australia, Hungary and Germany (British zone) are accepted by the Committee for German Relief Supplies. Its two types of packages are $17.50 and $14.25. A check or money order should be sent as no cash can be accepted. The address is 1034 Broadway, New York City 23.

Belgium, France, Holland, Luxembourg and Poland. It has packages for $45.50, $30.00, $20.00 and $12.50. The address is 423 Lafayette street, New York City 2.

The Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe (CARE) receives orders for food packages to Australia, Czechoslovakia, Finland, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway and Poland. One of its packages will be sent to Europe if the donor remits $15. This parcel was originally designed to feed American combat soldiers for one day, and there is enough food for 20 meals.

For CARE, orders the donor should get a food remittance application from a bank, civic group or CARE, 30 Broad street, New York City 4. Fill out the blank and send with money order or check to CARE. It is believed CARE is the most efficient agency for sending food and clothing to Greece and Belgium.

Packages containing a maximum of 50 pounds of new clothing will be forwarded to Greece by the Greek War Relief. Cost of shipping is $5.00. The address is 420 East 54th street, New York City 22, together with a letter of instructions. The Red Cross has a list of agencies which accept used clothing donations.

New Filer Pump Ends Water Peril

FILER, June 17.—A new pump has been installed at the Filer city well to bring the water supply back to normal.

For the past month the drain of water from the plunger of water at the Filer grounds has made it necessary for ditch water to be turned into the city system, contaminating the supply. The new pump, which is a great improvement over the old one, will pump a greater volume of water and will help alleviate any other threatened water shortage.

Buhl Fines Six

BUEHL, June 17.—Six more offenders were ticketed by Buhl city police for violations of the traffic or parking ordinances within the city limits. These paying fines for improper parking in the court of city judge J. A. Ames were: L. R. Bull, Edith Hendrickson, Charles Shaduck and Myrtle Lammela. Each paid $5. Also appearing in Judge Ames' court were B. N. Dobyns, Minnesota, who paid a $15 fine for speeding within the city limits, and A. C. Byland, who was assessed $5.00 for running a stop sign.

Here's Lesson in Civic Muffling of Ball: Tourist Can Hardly Find Shoshone Falls

By JOHN BROSNAN So north Idaho is going to spend real money to publicize its tourist attractions all over the country.

So south Idaho has one of the greatest of all tourist attractions—mighty Shoshone Falls. So what?

So, apparently, we're missing the boat. A tourist would have a terrific time trying to reach the falls from the directions he'll get around Twin Falls. As for large and prominent signs capitalizing on Shoshone falls—they're just something you talk about.

The Times-News research department discovered this the hard way and is now more confused than usual.

Passing as a tourist from Oregon, eager to see the sights and shopping the inevitable camera, two department members set out the other afternoon to find out just what would happen to a tourist traveling to the Shoshone falls.

As the center of town served the good place to start, they went to the city park and made some inquiries. They came back full of sympathy for the stranger in town, but convinced that it's lucky Washington school is on the way to the falls. They were muttering to themselves something about, "You can't miss it."

Falls Corporate, but—! Nevertheless, they're convinced that Twin Falls people are the most cooperative and helpful you'll find anywhere. It's just that they're handicapped by lack of signs to help them give directions.

First to be approached were two elderly ladies in a gas pump. They had another park bench built up alongside upon which to rest their feet.

"Could you tell me how to get to Shoshone falls?" the researcher asked.

Both were anxious to be of service. One of them, the lady while the other nodded approvingly at each major step of the trip was outlined.

"You have to go on a gas pump, first thing you know you'll hit a schoolhouse."

He was pointing down Shoshone street.

"He Explains It." "Right there is where it's easy to get mixed up," the informant continued, "but just keep going straight on out about three miles and then you'll come to a little sign at the left. Foller that road on and she'll take you right to the falls. . . Can't miss it."

His partner nodded gravely, expressing approval.

The researchers departed with thanks.

From here on the going got tougher.

Next stop was a gentleman doing in the shade of a tree. He looked up with a start when the researchers approached.

When asked how to get to the falls, he seemed slightly befuddled.

"Shoshone falls . . . Shoshone falls," he mused. "Lemme see."

To Jerome, says he.

More over, he attacked the problem more directly. "I'm not right sure, but seems to me the best way is to go through Jerome . . . that's about 15 miles out downtown."

He seemed vaguely distressed. "Ore, we thought we were close to that."

The third gentleman returned to his opening remark. "Well, now, I'm not right sure, maybe you better ask somebody else."

Adding forgiveness for having disturbed him, the travelers moved on.

To Kimberly, says he.

The next fountain of information was a fellow wearing a blue shirt sitting lazily on a bench near the edge of the park. He directions were precise. But he had the researchers taking a rich turn that would have put them well on the road to Kimberly and Hansen.

"Take that street right there," he said pointing to Shoshone. Then pretty quick you'll come to a big schoolhouse (Washington) and then turn to your right. That'll lead you to the experiments station. . .

"Did you say 'right'?" asked one of the researchers.

"Yep, turn to your right until you hit the experiment station," he gestured, inward Kimberly, "and right there you'll see a sign that'll show you where to turn. . . You can't miss it."

The researchers set out on an

Swiss People Impressed by U. S. Soldiers

By HAL BOYLE ZURICH, Switzerland, June 17 (AP)—American soldiers, whose free and easy ways have brought them strong criticism in some European countries, have really earned their "good cowboy" reputation in Switzerland.

Here touring GIs are generally serving as good will ambassadors for the United States.

In the past 11 months about 250,000 American troops have taken eight-day tours of scenic Switzerland at a special $15 rate which covers food, hotel, train and travel money. Each soldier is also allowed to bring along $50 spending money.

When the project first was broached many Swiss were alarmed at the prospect of hundreds of thousands of foreign soldiers flooding their small country.

They had a traditional liking for

More Gentlemen

Now after nearly a year of association with these tourists in uniform the Swiss people have voted them to be more gentlemanly than their run-of-the-mill peace-time visitors.

They have caused little property damage and their "swiftings" has been on a higher plane than during the war years.

"Out of one quarter of a million soldiers we have had only one half dozen cases of misbehavior," said Florian Neiderer, Swiss manager of troop tours. "These were mainly watch and camera thefts. We have had no cases of crimes against women."

IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT

THE GO-GETTER... always named chairman of committees, knows everything in town—and knows how to get things done. Keeps his car peppy by cutting down carbon and gum with RPM Compound Motor Oil. A "detergent" in "RPM" oil keeps carbon particles microscopically small and harmlessly dispersed so they'll drain out of the crankcase when the oil is changed.
