Farm Finance Good, Banker Here Declares

Idaho agriculture is currently in a stronger financial position than it was at the close of World War I, according to Guy S. Bailey, president of the Idaho Bankers association, who was here today to discuss the state of the bank industry.

Discharged in November, he returned to his home in the war department where he was in charge of the Idaho Bankers association, Idaho farmers in 1945 used only a fourth of the bank credit available to them in 1944. The 43 Idaho banks which make agricultural loans, during last year's season, loaned $14.5 million of the $17,700 Idaho farmers by making 25,000 agricultural loans for a total amount of $13,737,000. Of this loaned, $14,497,000 remained outstanding on January 1, 1946. The banks had on that date $28,118,000 additional for agricultural loans. If there had been no demand for such loans, the banks would have had $14,497,000 more.

That the credit extended by the banks to their farm customers is a useful tool of agriculture, Sherrill said, is shown by a breakdown of these overall figures: Last year 14,641 farmers procured farm production loans in an aggregate amount of $21,800,000, and of this volume $10,500,000 was outstanding on Jan. 1. Loans were made by the Idaho Bankers association, insured by the Community Credit corporation were made to the banks to 2,177 farmers for a total of $8,592,000 and of these loans $4,400,000 remained outstanding at the beginning of this year. Farm real estate loans were made to 125 farmers for a total of $25,000. This brought the amount of long-term real estate paper, held by the banks up to $14,600,000 on Jan. 1.

Legion Post Will Back Miss Platt

The Twin Falls post of the American Legion will back unanimously Tuesday night to support the entrant, Donna Jean Platt, in the contest to select a rodeo queen for the Fourth of July celebration.

Miss Platt, they announced, will attend the post's installation ceremony July 4 when Larry Laue, president of the post, will present her to the post. Mr. Terry as post commander, and other officers take over.

The Legion also endorsed sponsorship of a dance at the YWCA and DVA, subject to the approval of the latter two groups, for all veterans of the area to be held during July. Walt Day said the Junior Legion board's season will be opened with the Twin Falls team playing at Jerome Wednesday night.

Carl Ritchey, chairman, said the Legion's 38-apartment project will be opened in mid-July. A waiting list of 200 or more veterans and their families has been compiled.

Max Brown, Twin Falls, fifth district commander, spoke, and Ed Crane, convention chairman, was commended for the post's efforts during the recent event here.

Each association will send approximately six representatives and the total attendance will be 30 to 35, said Haynie.

A banquet will be held Friday night at the Park hotel, with the principal speaker, Dr. H. C. Mann, Moscow, University of Idaho associate entomologist. He will show two 30-minute films on insecticides for livestock.

Principal topics will be credit, better service and economy in financing the association's business, said Haynie.

Officials who will attend include Otto Alger and H. S. Kemp of the Spokane, Wash., regional office, and a representative of the Federal Inter-credit bank, Spokane.

He Finally Met His War Bride At Train—but It Was Hectic

By HAI KNOLL

He almost lost his sugar in Salt Lake City. This time the girl was an English war bride and the boy was Kenneth Rayburn, a local veteran, who for three frustrating days hung around the Salt Lake City station waiting for her train to come in.

Rayburn, who had served with the signal corps in England, had met and married there the former Doris Margaret Bloom, Nottingham.

Discharged in November, he returned to his home in the war department where he was in charge of the Idaho Bankers association, Idaho farmers in 1945 used only a fourth of the bank credit available to them in 1944. Patients and Medics Fight Leper Stigma

By FRANK CARLEY
WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The people who really understand leprosy—the scientists and the patients themselves—are fighting the stigma of the centuries-old ailment attached to the disease.

Ask any expert on leprosy in the U. S. public health service and he'll tell you:

Mildly Contagious
Leprosy is a "mildly contagious" disease—less contagious than tuberculosis. Compared with diseases like measles and smallpox, leprosy is of a very low order of infectiousness—apparently requiring intimate and repeated exposure.

In only a small percentage of cases does deformity and extensive "disfigurement" develop. Approximately one-third of all cases become "arrested"—doctors decline to say "cured"—and some cases become quiescent without treatment of any kind. Some persons remain chronically leprosy all their lives, without ever developing gross signs of the disease—usually only 20 per cent of all leprosy patients hospitalized at Carville, La., die from the disease itself.

Vaccination
Patients at the health service's leprosy hospital at Carville are wearing their own "leprosy" to fight the stigma of the disease. That is why they refer to their malady as "Hansen's disease"—named for the Norwegian physician who discovered the bacillus of leprosy in 1901.

LDS Rites Honor John R. Butler

BURLEY, June 18 (AP)—Funeral services for John Randolph Butler were conducted by Bishop Wilford Sagers at the Coasla stake tabernacle in Oakes. John Clark gave the invocation, and the first speaker was Daniel Wilson. Other speakers were George Sever, Bishop Rogers, Charles S. Clark, and the benediction was pronounced by Robert Smith.

Music was provided by Mrs. Mae Poston, John Martin, Randa Black, Annabel Spencer and Raymond Blatter. Mrs. John Martin and Elaine Blatter.

Burial was in the Oakley cemetery under the direction of the Payne mortuary. The grave was dedicated by Ira Butler.

Flowers were in charge of Retta Jean McIntosh, Nola McIntosh, Hannah Mae Potter, Marvonne Leavitt, Doris Pierce, Vernell Butler, Betty Lou Wickel, Reta Kinnam, Laifone Smith and Meta Miller.

Buhl Police Court Gets $57 in Fines

Buhl, June 18—The Buhl city police court netted $57 in fines over the week-end from speeding, improper parking and running stop signs.

J. Des Carreau and Marion H. Nipper each paid $15 for speeding. Paying $3 fines each for running stop signs were Mrs. Lee Hanikowski, Glen Giroux and Marshall Simoes. Improper parking cost Stanley F. Theobald, Charles S. Peilman and Mrs. Paul Stroberg $3 each. Lawrence Jess paid $3 for having an improper tail light.

49 Road Repair Jobs Under Way

BOISE, June 18 (AP)—There are 49 repair jobs underway at present to improve Idaho highways, T. Matt Hally, director of highways, said today.

Hally asserted that contracts totaling more than $1,000,000 have been let "with work in progress in all sections from Boundary county in the north to Bear Lake county on the Utah border."

"But there's a lot more to come,"

Hally continued. "Before the year ends the state will have another $5,000,000 out in contracts for road work."

The more important federal projects include repairing U. S. 30 near Bliss; U. S. No. 30 between Bliss and Wendell.

belonging to the late Martha J. Schiffling, who died June 1. She was the widow of the late Joseph W. Schiffling, who died Feb. 18, 1942.

The property includes a lot at Fourth avenue east and Third street.

Probate Judge C. A. Bailey set the hearing for 10 a. m. June 29. The petitioner's attorney is A. J. Myers.
